27 "But do not you be afraid, Ya'aqov My servant. Do not be dismayed, Yisra'el; for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. Ya'aqov will return, and will be quiet and at ease. No one will make him afraid. 28 Do not be afraid, O Ya'aqov My servant," says יְהוָה; "for I am with you; for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will discipline you in judgment, and will in no way leave you unpunished."

47 The word of יְהוָה that came to Yirmeyahu the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza.

2 יְהוָה says: "Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and will become an overflowing wadi, and will overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and those who dwell therein. The men will cry, and all the inhabitants of the land will wail. 3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers do not look back to their children for feebleness of hands; 4 because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tsor and Tsidon every helper who remains; for תְּבִדֵּל will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Kaphtor. 5 Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashqelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself?

^a 2 Perath – The Euphrates River, and probably the etymological origin of the name. Also in verses 6 and 10.

6 "You sword of תְּבִדֵּל, how long will it be before you are quiet? Put yourself back into your scabbard; rest, and be still." 7 How can you be quiet, since תְּבִדֵּל has given you a command? Against Ashqelon, and against the seashore, there has He appointed it."

48 Of Moav. תְּבִדֵּל Tsevaot, the Elohim of Yisra'el, says: "Woe to Nevo! For it is laid waste. Qiryathayim is disappointed. It is taken. The stronghold is put to shame and broken down. 2 The praise of Moav is no more. In Heshbon they have devised evil against her: 'Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation.' You also, Madmen, will be brought to silence. The sword will pursue you. 3 The sound of a cry from Horonayim, desolation and great destruction! 4 Moav is destroyed. Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. 5 For they will go up by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping. For at the descent of Horonayim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. 6 Flee! Save your beings! Be like the juniper bush in the wilderness. 7 For because you have relied on your works and on your treasures, you also will be taken. Kemosh will go out into captivity, his priests and his princes together. 8 The destroyer will come on every city, and no city will escape; the valley also will perish, and the plain will be destroyed; as תְּבִדֵּל has spoken. 9 Give wings to Moav that she may fly and get herself away: and her cities will become a desolation, without anyone to dwell in them.

10 "Cursed is he who does the work of תְּבִדֵּל negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

11 "Moav has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore behold, the days come," says תְּבִדֵּל, "that I will send to him those who pour off, and they will pour him off; and they will empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. 13 Moav will be ashamed of Kemosh, as the house of Yisra'el was ashamed of Beth-El, their confidence. 14 "How do you say, 'We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war?' 15 Moav is laid waste, and they have gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men have gone down to slaughter," says the King, whose Name is תְּבִדֵּל Tsevaot. 16 "The calamity of Moav is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. 17 All you who are around him, pity him, and all you who know his name; say, 'How the strong staff is broken, the beautiful rod!'

18 "You, daughter, who dwells in Divon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moav has come up against you. He has destroyed your strongholds.

19 Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way and watch. Ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, 'What has been done?' 20 Moav is disappointed; for it is broken down. Wail and cry! Tell it by the Arnon, that Moav is laid waste. 21 Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, on Yahtsa, on Mepha'ath, 22 on Divon, on Nevo, on Beth Divlathayim, 23 on Qiryathayim, on Beth Gamul, on Beth Meon, 24 on Qerioth, on Botsrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moav, far or near. 25 The horn of Moav is cut off, and his arm is broken," says תְּבִדֵּל. 26 "Make him drunken; for he magnified himself against תְּבִדֵּל. Moav will wallow in his vomit, and he also will be in derision. 27 For was Yisra'el not a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. 28 You inhabitants of Moav, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock. Be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss.

29 "We have heard of the pride of Moav. He is very proud in his loftiness, his pride, his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. 30 I know his wrath," says תְּבִדֵּל, "that it is nothing; his boastings have done nothing. 31 Therefore I will wail for Moav. Yes, I will cry out for all Moav. They will mourn for the men of Qir Heres.

32 With more than the weeping of Yazer will I weep for you, vine of Sivmah. Your branches passed over the sea. They reached even to the sea of Yazer. The destroyer has fallen on your summer fruits and on your vintage. 33 Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moav. I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses. No one will tread with shouting. The shouting will be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Yahats have they uttered their voice, from Tsoar even to Horonayim, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for the waters of Nimrim will also become desolate. 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moav," says תְּבִדֵּל, "him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his elohim. 36 Therefore My heart sounds for Moav like pipes, and My heart sounds like pipes for the men of Qir Heres. Therefore the abundance that he has gotten has perished.

37 For every head is bald, and every beard clipped. There are cuttings on all the hands, and sackcloth on the loins. 38 On all the housetops of Moav, and in its streets, there is lamentation everywhere; for I have broken Moav like a vessel in which no one delights," says יְהוָה.

39 "How it is broken down! How they wail! How Moav has turned the back with shame! So will Moav become a derision and a terror to all who are around him."

40 For יְהוָה says: "Behold, he will fly as an eagle, and will spread out his wings against Moav. 41 Qerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized. The heart of the mighty men of Moav at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. 42 Moav will be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against יְהוָה. 43 Terror, the pit, and the snare are on you, inhabitant of Moav," says יְהוָה.

44 "He who flees from the terror will fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit will be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moav, the year of their visitation," says יְהוָה.

45 "Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire has gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the middle of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moav, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. 46 Woe to you, O Moav! The people of Kemosh are undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. 47 "Yet I will reverse the captivity of Moav in the latter days," says יְהוָה. Thus far is the judgment of Moav.

49 Of the children of Ammon. יְהוָה says: "Has Yisra'el no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Malkam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities?"

2 "Therefore behold, the days come," says יְהוָה, "that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it will become a desolate heap, and her daughters will be burned with fire: then Yisra'el will possess those who possessed him," says יְהוָה.

3 "Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry, you daughters of Rabbah! Clothe yourself in sackcloth. Lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malkam will go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. 4 Why do you boast in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsiding daughter? You relied on her treasures, saying, 'Who will come to me?' 5 Behold, I will bring a terror on you," says Adonai יְהוָה Tsevaot, "from all who are around you. All of you will be driven completely out, and there will be no one to gather together the fugitives. 6 "But afterward I will reverse the captivity of the children of Ammon," says יְהוָה.

7 Of Edom, יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished? 8 Flee! Turn back! Dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esaw on him when I visit him. 9 If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleanings? If thieves came by night, would not they steal until they had enough? 10 But I have made Esaw bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he will not be able to hide himself. His seed is destroyed, with his brothers and his neighbors; and he is no more. 11 Leave your fatherless children. I will preserve them alive. Let your widows trust in Me."

12 For יְהוָה says: "Behold, those who were not judged to drink of the cup will certainly drink; and are you he who will altogether go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but you will surely drink. 13 For I have sworn by Myself," says יְהוָה, "that Botsrah will become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. All its cities will be perpetual wastes."

14 I have heard news from יְהוָה, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Gather yourselves together! Come against her! Rise up to the battle!"

15 "For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. 16 As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill, though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there," says יְהוָה.

17 "Edom will become an astonishment. Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will hiss at all its plagues. 18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighbor cities," says יְהוָה, "no man will dwell there, neither will any son of man live therein."

19 "Behold, he will come up like a lion from the pride of the Yarden against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, I will appoint him over it. For who is like Me? Who will appoint Me a time? Who is the shepherd who will stand before Me?"

20 Therefore hear the counsel of יְהוָה that He has taken against Edom; and His purposes, that He has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they will drag them away, the little ones of the flock. Surely He will make their habitation desolate over them. 21 The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Sea of Reeds. 22 Behold, He will come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out His wings against Botsrah. The heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 Of Dammeseq: "Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news. They have melted away. There is sorrow on the sea. It cannot be quiet.

24 Dammeseq has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized her. Anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. 25 How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of My joy?

26 Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all the men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

27 "I will kindle a fire in the wall of Dammeseq, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad."

28 Of Qedar, and of the kingdoms of Hatsor, which Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel struck. יְהוָה says: "Arise, go up to Qedar, and destroy the children of the east.

29 They will take their tents and their flocks. They will carry away for themselves their curtains, all their vessels, and their camels; and they will cry to them, 'Terror on every side!' 30 Flee! Wander far off! Dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hatsor," says יְהוָה; "for Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you. 31 Arise! Go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells securely," says יְהוָה; "that has neither gates nor bars, that dwells alone. 32 Their camels will be plunder, and the multitude of their livestock a spoil. I will scatter to all winds those who are cast off to the corners; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them," says יְהוָה.

33 "Hatsor will be a dwelling place of monsters, a desolation forever. No man will dwell there, neither will any son of man live therein."

34 The word of יְהוָה that came to Yirmeyahu the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Tsidqiyahu king of Yehudah, saying, 35 "יְהוָה Tsevaot says: 'Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. 36 I will bring on Elam the four winds from the four quarters of the heavens, and will scatter them toward all those winds. There will be no nation where the outcasts of Elam will not come. 37 I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their being. I will bring evil on them, even My fierce anger,' says יְהוָה; 'and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them. 38 I will set My throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes,' says יְהוָה.

39 'But it will happen in the latter days that I will reverse the captivity of Elam,' says יְהוָה."

50 The word that יְהוָה spoke concerning Bavel, concerning the land of the Kaldeans, by Yirmeyahu the prophet.

2 "Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and do not conceal say, 'Bavel has been taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodak is dismayed! Her images are disappointed. Her idols are dismayed.'

3 For a nation comes up out of the north against her, which will make her land desolate, and no one will dwell in it. They have fled. They are gone, both man and animal."

4 "In those days, and in that time," says יְהוָה, "the children of Yisra'el will come, they and the children of Yehudah together; they will go on their way weeping, and will seek יְהוָה their Elohim. 5 They will inquire concerning Tsion with their faces turned toward it, saying, 'Come, and join yourselves to יְהוָה in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.' 6 My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have caused them to go astray. They have turned them away on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill. They have forgotten their resting place. 7 All who found them have devoured them. Their adversaries said, 'We are not guilty, because they have sinned against יְהוָה, the habitation of righteousness, even יְהוָה, the hope of their fathers.'

8 "Flee out of the middle of Bavel! Go out of the land of the Kaldeans, and be as the male goats before the flocks. 9 For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Bavel a company of great nations from the north country; and they will set themselves in array against her. She will be taken from there. Their arrows will be as of an expert mighty man. None of them will return in vain. 10 Kaldea will be a spoil. All who despoil her will be satisfied," says יְהוָה.

11 "Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; 12 your mother will be utterly disappointed. She who bore you will be confounded. Behold, she will be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. 13 Because of the wrath of יְהוָה she will not be inhabited, but she will be wholly desolate. Everyone who goes by Bavel will be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. 14 Set yourselves in array against Bavel all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her. Spare no arrows; for she has sinned against יְהוָה. 15 Shout against her all around. She has submitted herself. Her ramparts have fallen. Her walls have been thrown down, for it is the vengeance of יְהוָה. Take vengeance on her. As she has done, do to her. 16 Cut off the sower from Bavel, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest. For fear of the oppressing sword, they will each return to their own people, and they will each flee to their own land.

17 "Yisra'el is a hunted sheep. The lions have driven him away. First, the king of Ashuwr devoured him, and now at last Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel has broken his bones."

18 Therefore יְהוָה Tsevaot, the Elohim of Yisra'el, says: "Behold, I will punish the king of Bavel and his land, as I have punished the king of Ashuwr. 19 I will bring Yisra'el again to his pasture, and he will feed on Karmel and Bashan. His being will be satisfied on the hills of Ephrayim and in Gilad. 20 In those days, and in that time," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "the iniquity of Yisra'el will be sought for, and there will be none; also the sins of Yehudah, and they will not be found; for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.

21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Peqod. Kill and utterly destroy after them," says יְהוָה, "and do according to all that I have commanded you. 22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. 23 How the hammer of the whole earth is cut apart and broken! How Bavel has become a desolation among the nations! 24 I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Bavel, and you were not aware. You are found, and also caught, because you have fought against 25 יְהוָה. 25 has opened His armory, and has brought out the weapons of His indignation; for Adonai יְהוָה Tsevaot has a work to do in the land of the Kaldeans. 26 Come against her from the farthest border. Open her storehouses. Cast her up as heaps. Destroy her utterly. Let nothing of her be left. 27 Kill all her bulls. Let them go down to the slaying. Woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their visitation. 28 Listen to those who flee and escape out of the land of Bavel, to declare in Tsion the vengeance of יְהוָה our Elohim, the vengeance of His Temple.

29 "Call together the archers against Bavel, all those who bend the bow. Encamp against her all around. Let none of it escape. Pay her back according to her work.

According to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against יְהוָה, against the Set-apart One of Yisra'el. 30 Therefore her young men will fall in her streets. All her men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says יְהוָה.

31 "Behold, I am against you, you proud one," says Adonai יְהוָה Tsevaot; "for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. 32 The proud one will stumble and fall, and no one will raise him up. I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour all who are around him."

33 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "The children of Yisra'el and the children of Yehudah are oppressed together. All who took them captive hold them fast. They refuse to let them go. 34 Their Redeemer is strong: יְהוָה Tsevaot is His Name. He will thoroughly plead their cause, that He may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Bavel.

35 "A sword is on the Kaldeans," says יְהוָה, "and on the inhabitants of Bavel, on her princes, and on her wise men. 36 A sword is on the boasters, and they will become fools. A sword is on her mighty men, and they will be dismayed. 37 A sword is on their horses, on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the middle of her; and they will become as women. A sword is on her treasures, and they will be plundered. 38 A drought is on her waters, and they will be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols. 39 Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves will dwell there. The ostriches will dwell therein; and it will be inhabited no more forever; neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. 40 As when Elohim overthrew Sedom and Gomorrah and its neighbor cities," says יְהוָה, "so no man will dwell there, neither will any son of man live therein.

41 "Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. 42 They take up bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no compassion. Their voice roars like the sea. They ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Bavel. 43 The king of Bavel has heard the news of them, and his hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. 44 Behold, the enemy will come up like a lion from the pride of the Yarden against the strong habitation; for I will suddenly make them run away from it. Whoever is chosen, I will appoint him over it; for who is like Me? Who will appoint Me a time? Who is the shepherd who can stand before Me?"

45 Therefore hear the counsel of יְהוָה that He has taken against Bavel; and His purposes, that He has purposed against the land of the Kaldeans: Surely they will drag them away, even the little ones of the flock. Surely He will make their habitation desolate over them. 46 At the noise of the taking of Bavel the earth trembles; and the cry is heard among the nations.

51 יְהוָה says: "Behold, I will raise up against Bavel, and against those who dwell in the heart of those who rise up, a destroying wind. 2 I will send to Bavel strangers, who will winnow her. They will empty her land; for in the day of trouble they will be against her all around. 3 Against him who bends, let the archer bend his bow, also against him who lifts himself up in his coat of mail. Do not spare her young men! Utterly destroy all her army! 4 They will fall down slain in the land of the Kaldeans, and thrust through in her streets. 5 For Yisra'el is not forsaken, nor Yehudah, by his Elohim, by יְהוָה Tsevaot; though their land is full of guilt against the Set-apart One of Yisra'el.

6 "Flee out of the middle of Bavel! Everyone save his own being! Do not be cut off in her iniquity; for it is the time of the vengeance of יְהוָה. He will render to her a recompense. 7 Bavel has been a golden cup in the hand of יְהוָה, who made all the earth drunk. The nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations have gone mad. 8 Bavel has suddenly fallen and been destroyed! Wail for her! Take balm for her pain. Perhaps she may be healed.

9 "We would have healed Bavel, but she is not healed. Forsake her, and let us each go into his own country; for her judgment reaches to the heavens, and is lifted up even to the skies. 10 יְהוָה has produced our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Tsion the work of יְהוָה our Elohim."

11 "Make the arrows sharp! Hold the shields firmly! יְהוָה has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because His purpose is against Bavel, to destroy it; for it is the vengeance of יְהוָה, the vengeance of His Temple. 12 Set up a standard against the walls of Bavel! Make the watch strong! Set the watchmen, and prepare the ambushes; for יְהוָה has both purposed and done that which He spoke concerning the inhabitants of Bavel. 13 You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness.

14 יְהוָה Tsevaot has sworn by His being, saying, 'Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they will lift up a shout against you.'

15 "He has made the earth by His power. He has established the world by His wisdom. By His understanding He has stretched out the heavens.

16 When He utters His voice, there is a roar of waters in the heavens, and He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth. He makes lightning for the rain, and brings the wind out of His treasuries.

17 "Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. 18 They are vanity, a work of delusion. In the time of their visitation, they will perish. 19 The portion of Ya'aqov is not like these, for He is the former of all things; including the tribe of His inheritance: יְהוָה Tsevaot is His Name.

20 "You are My battle ax and weapons of war. With you I will break the nations into pieces. With you I will destroy kingdoms. 21 With you I will break in pieces the horse and his rider. 22 With you I will break in pieces the chariot and him who rides therein. With you I will break in pieces man and woman. With you I will break in pieces the old man and the youth. With you I will break in pieces the young man and the virgin. 23 With you I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock. With you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke. With you will I break in pieces governors and deputies.

24 "I will render to Bavel and to all the inhabitants of Kaldea all their evil that they have done in Tsion in your eyes," says יְהוָה.

25 "Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain," says יְהוָה, "which destroys all the earth. I will stretch out My hand on you, roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burned mountain. 26 They will not take a cornerstone from you, nor a stone for foundations; but you will be desolate forever," says יְהוָה.

27 "Set up a standard in the land! Blow a shofar among the nations! Prepare the nations against her! Call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz! Appoint a marshal against her! Cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm!

28 Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion! 29 The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of יְהוָה against Bavel stand, to make the land of Bavel a desolation, without inhabitant. 30 The mighty men of Bavel have stopped fighting, they remain in their strongholds. Their might has failed.

They have become as women. Her dwelling places are set on fire. Her bars are broken. 31 One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Bavel that his city is taken on every quarter. 32 So the passages are seized. They have burned the reeds with fire. The men of war are frightened."

33 For יְהוָה Tsevaot, the Elohim of Yisra'el says: "The daughter of Bavel is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden. Yet a little while, and the time of harvest comes for her."

34 "Nevukhadnetsar the king of Bavel has devoured me. He has crushed me. He has made me an empty vessel. He has, like a monster, swallowed me up. He has filled his mouth with my delicacies. He has cast me out.

35 May the violence done to me and to my flesh be on Bavel!" the inhabitant of Tsion will say; and, "May my blood be on the inhabitants of Kaldea!" will Yerushalayim say.

36 Therefore יְהוָה says: "Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. 37 Bavel will become heaps, a dwelling place for monsters, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. 38 They will roar together like young lions. They will growl as lions' cubs. 39 When they are heated, I will make their banquet, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up," says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

40 "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats. 41 How Sheshak is taken! How the praise of the whole earth seized! How Bavel has become a desolation among the nations! 42 The sea has come up on Bavel. She is covered with the multitude of its waves. 43 Her cities have become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells. No son of man passes by it. 44 I will execute judgment on Bel in Bavel, and I will bring out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up. The nations will not flow any more to him. Yes, the wall of Bavel will fall.

45 "My people, go away from the middle of her, and each of you save yourselves from the fierce anger of יְהוָה. 46 Do not let your heart faint. Do not fear for the news that will be heard in the land. For news will come one year, and after that in another year news will come, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore behold, the days come that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Bavel; and her whole land will be confounded. All her slain will fall in the middle of her. 48 Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, will sing for joy over Bavel; for the destroyers will come to her from the north," says יְהוָה.

49 "As Bavel has caused the slain of Yisra'el to fall, so the slain of all the land will fall at Bavel. 50 You who have escaped the sword, go! Do not stand still! Remember יְהוָה from afar, and let Yerushalayim come into your mind."

51 "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach. Confusion has covered our faces, for strangers have come into the set-apart places of the house of יְהוָה."

52 "Therefore behold, the days come," says יְהוָה, "that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded will groan. 53 Though Bavel should mount up to the heavens, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet destroyers will come to her from Me," says יְהוָה.

54 "The sound of a cry comes from Bavel, and of great destruction from the land of the Kaldeans! 55 For יְהוָה lays Bavel waste, and destroys out of her the great voice! Their waves roar like many waters. The noise of their voice is uttered. 56 For the destroyer has come on her, even on Bavel. Her mighty men are taken. Their bows are broken in pieces, for בָּבֶל is an El of retribution. He will surely repay. 57 I will make her princes, her wise men, her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men drunk. They will sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up," says the King, whose Name is יְהוָה Tsevaot.

58 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "The wide walls of Bavel will be utterly overthrown. Her high gates will be burned with fire. The peoples will labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they will be weary."

59 The word which Yirmeyahu the prophet commanded Serayah the son of Neriyah, the son of Mahseiyah, when he went with Tsidqiyahu the king of Yehudah to Bavel in the fourth year of his reign. Now Serayah was chief quartermaster. 60 Yirmeyahu wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Bavel, even all these words that are written concerning Bavel. 61 Yirmeyahu said to Serayah, "When you come to Bavel, then see that you read all these words, 62 and say, 'יְהוָה,' you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one will dwell in it, neither man nor animal, but that it will be desolate forever.' 63 It will be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Perath^a. 64 Then you shall say, 'Thus will Bavel sink, and will not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they will be weary." Thus far are the words of Yirmeyahu.

52 Tsidqiyyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to reign. He reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu of Livnah. 2 He did that which was evil in the sight of יְהוָה, according to all that Yehoyaqim had done. 3 For through the anger of יְהוָה this happened in Yerushalayim and Yehudah, until He had cast them out from His presence. Tsidqiyyahu rebelled against the king of Bavel. 4 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth new moon, in the tenth day of the new moon, Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel came, he and all his army, against Yerushalayim, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. 5 So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of King Tsidqiyyahu.

6 In the fourth new moon, in the ninth day of the new moon, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. 7 Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden. Now the Kaldeans were against the city all around. The men of war went toward the Aravah, 8 but the army of the Kaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Tsidqiyyahu in the plains of Yeriho; and all his army was scattered from him. 9 Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Bavel to Rivilah in the land of Hamath; and he pronounced judgments on him. 10 The king of Bavel killed the sons of Tsidqiyyahu before his eyes. He also killed all the princes of Yehudah in Rivilah. 11 He put out the eyes of Tsidqiyyahu; and the king of Bavel bound him in fetters, and carried him to Bavel, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth new moon, in the tenth day of the new moon, which was the nineteenth year of King Nevukhadnetsar, king of Bavel, Nevuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Bavel, came into Yerushalayim. 13 He burned the house of נָבָל, and the king's house; and all the houses of Yerushalayim, even every great house, he burned with fire. 14 All the army of the Kaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Yerushalayim all around. 15 Then Nevuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Bavel, and the residue of the multitude. 16 But Nevuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers.

17 The Kaldeans broke the pillars of copper that were in the house of נָבָל, and the bases and the copper sea that were in the house of יְהוָה in pieces, and carried all of their copper to Bavel. 18 They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of copper with which they ministered.

19 The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the menorot, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver.

20 They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve copper bulls that were under the bases, which King Shelomoh had made for the house of יְהוָה. The copper of all these vessels was without weight. 21 As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. 22 A capital of copper was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of copper: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. 23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around.

24 The captain of the guard took Serayah the chief priest, and Tsephanyah the second priest, and the three guards of the threshold: 25 and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. 26 Nevuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Bavel to Rivilah. 27 The king of Bavel struck them, and put them to death at Rivilah in the land of Hamath. So Yehudah was carried away captive out of his land.

28 This is the number of the people whom Nevukhadnetsar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand twenty-three Yehudim; 29 in the eighteenth year of Nevukhadnetsar, he carried away captive from Yerushalayim eight hundred thirty-two persons; 30 in the twenty-third year of Nevukhadnetsar Nevuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Yehudim seven hundred forty-five people: all the people were four thousand six hundred.

31 In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Yehoyakin king of Yehudah, in the twelfth new moon, in the twenty-fifth day of the new moon, Evilmerodak king of Bavel, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Yehoyakin king of Yehudah, and released him from prison. 32 He spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Bavel, 33 and changed his prison garments.

Yehoyakin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life. 34 For his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Bavel, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

יְהֵזְקֵל

Yehezqel (Ezekiel)

1 Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth new moon, on the fifth day of the new moon, as I was among the captives by the Kevar River^a, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of Elohim.

2 In the fifth of the new moon, which was the fifth year of King Yehoyakhin's captivity, 3 The word of יהוה came to Yehezqel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Kaldeans by the Kevar River; and the Hand of יהוה was there on him.

4 I looked, and behold, a stormy wind came out of the north: a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of the middle of it as it were glowing metal, out of the middle of the fire. 5 Out of its center came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. 6 Every one had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. 7 Their feet were straight feet. The sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like polished copper. 8 They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides. The four of them had their faces and their wings like this: 9 Their wings were joined to one another. They did not turn when they went. Each one went straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man. The four of them had the face of a lion on the right side. The four of them had the face of an ox on the left side. The four of them also had the face of an eagle. 11 Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. 12 Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went. They did not turn when they went. 13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches. The fire went up and down among the living creatures. The fire was bright, and lightning went out of the fire. 14 The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, there was one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. 16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl. The four of them had one likeness. Their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. 17 When they went, they went in their four directions. They did not turn when they went. 18 As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around.

19 When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them. Then the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. 20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went. The spirit was to go there. The wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. 21 When those went, these went. When those stood, these stood. When those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like an awesome crystal to look at, stretched out over their heads above. 23 Under the expanse, their wings were straight, one toward the other. Each one had two which covered on this side, and each one had two which covered their bodies on that side. 24 When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army. When they stood, they let down their wings.

25 There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads. When they stood, they let down their wings. 26 Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone. On the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. 27 I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his loins and upward; and from the appearance of his loins and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. 28 As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of יהוה. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

2 He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you." 2 The Ruah entered into me when He spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard Him who spoke to me.

3 He said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the children of Yisra'el, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against Me. They and their fathers have transgressed against Me even to this very day. 4 The children are stubborn and stiff-hearted. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה.'

5 They, whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse, (for they are a rebellious house), yet they will know that there has been a prophet among them. 6 You, son of man, do not be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 7 You shall speak My words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse; for they are most rebellious. 8 But you, son of man, hear what I tell you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth, and eat that which I give you."

9 When I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was in it. 10 He spread it before me. It was written within and without; and lamentations, mourning, and woe were written in it.

3 He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Yisra'el."

2 So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat the scroll.

3 He said to me, "Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your gut with this scroll that I give you." Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

4 He said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Yisra'el, and speak My words to them. 5 For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Yisra'el; 6 not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. 7 But the house of Yisra'el will not listen to you, for they will not listen to Me; for all the house of Yisra'el are hard of forehead^a and hard-hearted. 8 Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. 9 I have made your forehead as a diamond, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house."

10 Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, receive in your heart and hear with your ears all My words that I speak to you. 11 Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה'; whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse.

12 Then the Ruah lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, "Blessed be the glory of יהוה from His place." 13 I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. 14 So the Ruah lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and the hand of יהוה was strong on me.

15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv, that lived by the Kevar River, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.

16 At the end of seven days, the word of יהוה came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Yisra'el. Therefore hear the word from My mouth, and warn them from Me.

18 When I tell the wicked, 'You will surely die;' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man will die in his iniquity; but I will require his blood at your hand. 19 Yet if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your being."

20 "Again, when a righteous one turns from his righteousness, and commits unrighteousness, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you have not given him warning, he will die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered; but I will require his blood at your hand. 21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous one, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your being."

22 The hand of יהוה was there on me; and He said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and I will talk with you there."

23 Then I arose, and went out into the plain, and behold, the glory of יהוה stood there, like the glory which I saw by the Kevar River. Then I fell on my face.

24 Then the Ruah entered into me, and set me on my feet. He spoke with me, and said to me, "Go, shut yourself inside your house. 25 But you, son of man, behold, they will put ropes on you, and will bind you with them, and you will not go out among them. 26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you will be mute, and will not be able to correct them; for they are a rebellious house. 27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house."

4 "You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Yerushalayim. 2 Lay siege against it, build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it. Also set camps against it and plant battering rams against it all around. 3 Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city. Then set your face toward it. It will be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Yisra'el.

4 "Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Yisra'el on it. According to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. 5 For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Yisra'el.

6 "Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Yehudah. I have appointed forty days, each day for a year, to you. 7 You shall set your face toward the siege of Yerushalayim, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. 8 Behold, I put ropes on you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

9 "Take for yourself also wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel. Make bread of it. According to the number of the days that you will lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. 10 Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty sheqels a day. From time to time you shall eat it. 11 You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you shall drink. 12 You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man." 13 הָנָה said, "Even thus will the children of Yisra'el eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them."

14 Then I said, "Ah Adonai יְהוָה! Behold, my being has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now I have not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals. No abominable meat has come into my mouth!"

15 Then He said to me, "Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread on it."

16 Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Yerushalayim. They will eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness. They will drink water by measure, and in dismay; 17 that they may lack bread and water, be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 "You, son of man, take a sharp sword. You shall take it as a barber's razor to yourself, and shall cause it to pass over your head and over your beard. Then take balances to weigh and divide the hair. 2 A third part you shall burn in the fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled. You shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it. A third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. 3 You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in the folds of your robe. 4 Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From it a fire will come out into all the house of Yisra'el.

5 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'This is Yerushalayim. I have set her in the middle of the nations, and countries are around her. 6 She has rebelled against My judgments in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected My judgments, and as for My statutes, they have not walked in them.'

7 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Because you are more tumultuous than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in My statutes, neither have you kept My judgments, neither have you even followed the judgments of the nations that are around you,'^a

8 therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. 9 I will do in you that which I have not done, and which I will not do anything like it anymore, because of all your abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers will eat the sons within you, and the sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments on you; and I will scatter the whole remnant of you to all the winds. 11 Therefore as I live,' says Adonai יְהוָה, 'surely, because you have defiled My set-apart place with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you. My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. 12 A third part of you will die with the pestilence, and they will be consumed with famine within you. A third part will fall by the sword around you. A third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them.

13 "Thus My anger will be accomplished, and I will cause My wrath toward them to rest, and I will be comforted. They will know that I, יְהוָה, have spoken in My zeal, when I have accomplished My wrath on them.

14 "Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. 15 So it will be a reproach and a taunt, a correction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes—I, יְהוָה, have spoken it—16 when I send on them the evil arrows of famine that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you. I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread. 17 I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they will bereave you. Pestilence and blood will pass through you. I will bring the sword on you. I, יְהוָה, have spoken it."

6 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Yisra'el, and prophesy to them, 3 and say, 'You mountains of Yisra'el, hear the word of Adonai יְהוָה! Thus says Adonai יְהוָה to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: "Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. 4 Your altars will become desolate, and your sun-pillars will be broken. I will cast down your slain men before your idols. 5 I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Yisra'el before their idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars. 6 In all your dwelling places, the cities will be laid waste and the high places will be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your sun-pillars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. 7 The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am יְהוָה.'

8 "Yet I will leave a remnant, in that you will have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered through the countries. 9 Those of you that escape will remember Me among the nations where they are carried captive, how I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from Me, and with their eyes, which whore after their idols. Then they will loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. 10 They will know that I am יְהוָה. I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them."

11 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, "Alas!" Because of all the evil abominations of the house of Yisra'el; for they will fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. 12 He who is far off will die of the pestilence. He who is near will fall by the sword. He who remains and is preserved, will die by the famine. Thus I will accomplish My wrath on them. 13 You will know that I am יְהוָה, when their slain men are among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered a soothing aroma to all their idols. 14 I will stretch out My hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Divlah, throughout all their habitations. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה.'"

7 Moreover the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying,

2 "You, son of man, thus says Adonai יְהוָה to the land of Yisra'el, 'An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. 3 Now is the end on you, and I will send My anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations. 4 My eye will not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה.'

5 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'An evil! A unique evil! Behold, it comes. 6 An end has come. The end has come! It awakes against you. Behold, it comes. 7 Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land! The time has come! The day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. 8 Now I will shortly pour out My wrath on you, and accomplish My anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations. 9 My eye will not spare, neither will I have pity. I will punish you according to your ways. Your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I, יְהוָה, strike.'

10 "Behold, the day! Behold, it comes! Your doom has gone out. The rod has blossomed. Pride has budded.

11 Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them will remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There will be nothing of value among them.

12 The time has come! The day draws near. Do not let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. 13 For the seller will not return to that which is sold, although they are still alive; for the vision concerns the whole multitude of it. None will return. None will strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the wind instrument, and set all in order; but no one goes to the battle; for My wrath is on all its multitude.

15 "The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within. He who is in the field will die by the sword. He who is in the city will be devoured by famine and pestilence. 16 But those of those who escape, they will escape and will be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, everyone in his iniquity. 17 All hands will be feeble, and all knees will be weak as water. 18 They will also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror will cover them. Shame will be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. 19 They will cast their silver in the streets, and their gold will be as an unclean thing. Their silver and their gold will not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of יהוה. They will not satisfy their beings or fill their guts; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. 20 As for the beauty of His ornament, He set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things in it. Therefore I have made it to them as an unclean thing. 21 I will give it into the hands of the strangers for plunder, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they will profane it. 22 I will also turn My face from them, and they will profane My secret place. Robbers will enter into it, and profane it.

23 "Make chains; for the land is full of bloody judgment, and the city is full of violence. 24 Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they will possess their houses. I will also cause the pride of the strong to cease. Their set-apart places will be profaned.

25 Destruction comes! They will seek peace, and there will be none. 26 Disaster will come on disaster, and rumor will be on rumor. They will seek a vision of the prophet; but the Torah will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. 27 The king will mourn, and the prince will be clothed with desolation. The hands of the people of the land will be troubled. I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments I will judge them. Then they will know that I am יהוה."

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth new moon, in the fifth day of the new moon, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Yehudah sat before me, the hand of Adonai יהוה fell on me there. 2 Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of His loins and downward, fire; and from His loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. 3 He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a tsitsit of my head;^a and the Ruah lifted me up between earth and the heavens, and brought me in the visions of Elohim to Yerushalayim, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north;

where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. 4 Behold, the glory of the Elohim of Yisra'el was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.

5 Then He said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and saw, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they do? Even the great abominations that the house of Yisra'el commit here, that I should go far off from My set-apart place? But you will again see yet other great abominations."

7 He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. 8 Then He said to me, "Son of man, dig now in the wall." When I had dug in the wall, I saw a door.

9 He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here."

10 So I went in and looked, and saw every form of creeping things, detestable animals, and all the idols of the house of Yisra'el, portrayed around on the wall.

11 Seventy men of the elders of the house of Yisra'el stood before them. In the middle of them Ya'azanyahu the son of Shaphan stood, every man with his censer in his hand; and the smell of the cloud of incense went up.

12 Then He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Yisra'el do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? For they say, 'יהוה י'דיה' has forsaken the land.'" 13 He said also to me, "You will again see more of the great abominations which they do."

14 Then He brought me to the door of the gate of the house of יהוה which was toward the north; and I saw the women sitting there weeping for Tammuz. 15 Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? You will again see yet greater abominations than these."

16 He brought me into the inner court of the house of יהוה; and I saw at the door of the Temple of יהוה, between the porch and the altar, there were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward the Temple of יהוה, and their faces toward the east. They were bowing down to the sun toward the east.

17 Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Yehudah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke Me to anger. Behold, they put the branch to their nose. 18 Therefore will I also deal in wrath. My eye will not spare, neither will I have pity. Though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them."

9 Then He cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw near, each man with his destroying weapon in his hand."

2 Behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand. One man in the middle of them was clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the copper altar.

3 The glory of the Elohim of Yisra'el went up from the keruv, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house; and He called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. 4 יְהֹוָה said to him, "Go through the middle of the city, through the middle of Yerushalayim, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it."

5 To the others He said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him, and strike. Do not let your eye spare, neither have pity. 6 Kill utterly the old man, the young man, the virgin, little children and women; but do not come near any man on whom is the mark. Begin at My set-apart place." Then they began at the old men who were before the house.

7 He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" They went out, and struck in the city. 8 While they were killing, and I was left, I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Adonai יְהֹוָה! Will You destroy all the remnant of Yisra'el in Your pouring out of Your wrath on Yerushalayim?"

9 Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Yisra'el and Yehudah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion; for they say, יְהֹוָה has forsaken the land, and יְהֹוָה does not see.' 10 As for Me also, My eye will not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head."

11 Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, "I have done as You have commanded me."

10 Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the keruvim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2 He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the keruv, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the keruvim, and scatter them over the city." He went in as I watched.

3 Now the keruvim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. 4 The glory of יְהֹוָה mounted up from the keruv, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the glory of יְהֹוָה. 5 The sound of the wings of the keruvim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of El Shaddai when He speaks.

6 It came about, when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the keruvim," that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. 7 The keruv stretched out his hand from between the keruvim to the fire that was between the keruvim, and took some of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. 8 The form of a man's hand appeared here in the keruvim under their wings.

9 I looked, and behold, there were four wheels beside the keruvim, one wheel beside one keruv, and another wheel beside another keruv. The appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. 10 As for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. 11 When they went, they went in their four directions. They did not turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it. They did not turn as they went. 12 Their whole body, including their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. 13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "the whirling wheels." 14 Every one of them had four faces. The first face was the face of the keruv. The second face was the face of a man. The third face was the face of a lion. The fourth was the face of an eagle.

15 The keruvim mounted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the Kevar River. 16 When the keruvim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the keruvim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also did not turn from beside them. 17 When they stood, these stood. When they mounted up, these mounted up with them; for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 The glory of יְהֹוָה went out from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the keruvim. 19 The keruvim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went out, with the wheels beside them. Then they stood at the door of the east gate of the house of יְהוָה; and the glory of the Elohim of Yisra'el was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the Elohim of Yisra'el by the Kevar River; and I knew that they were keruvim. 21 Every one had four faces, and every one four wings. The likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. 22 As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the Kevar River, their appearances and themselves. They each went straight forward.

11 Moreover the Ruah lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of the house of יְהוָה, which looks eastward. Behold, twenty-five men were at the door of the gate; and I saw among them Ya'azanyah the son of Azzur, and Pelatyahu the son of Benayahu, princes of the people. 2 He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise vain exertion, and who give wicked counsel in this city; 3 who say, 'The time is not near to build houses. This is the cauldron, and we are the meat.' 4 Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man."

5 The Ruah of יְהוָה fell on me, and He said to me, "Speak, יְהוָה says: 'Thus you have said, house of Yisra'el; for I know the things that come into your mind. 6 You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain.'

7 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Your slain whom you have laid in the middle of it, they are the meat, and this is the cauldron; but you will be brought out of the middle of it. 8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you,' says Adonai יְהוָה. 9 'I will bring you out of the middle of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. 10 You will fall by the sword. I will judge you in the border of Yisra'el. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה. 11 This will not be your cauldron, neither will you be the meat in the middle of it. I will judge you in the border of Yisra'el. 12 You will know that I am יְהוָה, for you have not walked in My statutes, You have not executed My judgments, but have done after the judgments of the nations that are around you.'"

13 When I prophesied, Pelatyahu the son of Benayah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Adonai יְהוָה! Will You make a full end of the remnant of Yisra'el?"

14 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 15 "Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Yisra'el, all of them, are they to whom the inhabitants of Yerushalayim have said, 'Go far away from יְהוָה. This land has been given to us for a possession.'"

16 "Therefore say, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them a set-apart place for a little while in the countries where they have come.'"

17 "Therefore say, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Yisra'el.'"

18 "They will come there, and they will take away all its detestable things and all its abominations from there.

19 I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; 20 that they may walk in My statutes, and guard My judgments, and do them. They will be My people, and I will be their Elohim. 21 But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads,' says Adonai יְהוָה."

22 Then the keruvim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them. The glory of the Elohim of Yisra'el was over them above. 23 The glory of יְהוָה went up from the middle of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. 24 The Ruah lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Ruah of Elohim into Kaldea, to the captives. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. 25 Then I spoke to the captives all the things that יְהוָה had shown me.

12 The word of יְהוָה also came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, you dwell in the middle of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and do not see, who have ears to hear, and do not hear; for they are a rebellious house.

3 "Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight. You shall move from your place to another place in their sight. It may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. 4 You shall bring out your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for moving. You shall go out yourself at evening in their sight, as when men go out into exile.

5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. 6 In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark. You shall cover your face, so that you do not see the land, for I have set you for a sign to the house of Yisra'el."

7 I did so as I was commanded. I brought out my stuff by day, as stuff for moving, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought it out in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight.

8 In the morning, the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying,
9 "Son of man, has not the house of Yisra'el, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?'

10 "Say to them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "This burden concerns the prince in Yerushalayim, and all the house of Yisra'el among whom they are. "'"

11 "Say, 'I am your sign. As I have done, so will it be done to them. They will go into exile, into captivity.'

12 "The prince who is among them will bear on his shoulder in the dark, and will go out. They will dig through the wall to carry things out that way. He will cover his face, because he will not see the land with his eyes. 13 I will also spread My net on him, and he will be taken in My snare. I will bring him to Bavel to the land of the Kaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there. 14 I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands. I will draw out the sword after them.

15 "They will know that I am יְהוָה when I disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. 16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה."

17 Moreover the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying,

18 "Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness. 19 Tell the people of the land, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה concerning the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and the land of Yisra'el: "They will eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. 20 The cities that are inhabited will be laid waste, and the land will be a desolation. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה.'"

21 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 22 "Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Yisra'el, saying, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?' 23 Tell them therefore, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "I will make this proverb to cease, and they will no more use it as a proverb in Yisra'el;'" but tell them, "The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. 24 For there will be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Yisra'el. 25 For I am יְהוָה. I will speak, and the word that I speak will be performed. It will be no more deferred; for in your days, rebellious house, I will speak the word, and will perform it," says Adonai יְהוָה."

26 Again the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 27 "Son of man, behold, they of the house of Yisra'el say, 'The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.'

28 "Therefore tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "None of My words will be deferred any more, but the word which I speak will be performed," says Adonai יְהוָה."

13 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Yisra'el who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear the word of הָלֶל: 3 Thus says Adonai יְהוָה, "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! 4 Yisra'el, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. 5 You have not gone up into the gaps or built up the wall for the house of Yisra'el, to stand in the battle in the day of יְהוָה. 6 They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, 'says;' but יְהוָה has not sent them. They have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. 7 Have you not seen a false vision, and have you not spoken a lying divination, in that you say, 'says;' but I have not spoken?"

8 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Because you have spoken falsehood and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you," says Adonai יְהוָה. 9 "My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and who utter lying divinations. They will not be in the council of My people, neither will they be written in the writing of the house of Yisra'el, neither will they enter into the land of Yisra'el. Then you will know that I am Adonai יְהוָה."

10 "Because, even because they have seduced My people, saying, "Peace;" and there is no peace. When one builds up a wall, behold, they plaster it with whitewash. 11 Tell those who plaster it with whitewash that it will fall. There will be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, will fall. A stormy wind will tear it. 12 Behold, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, "Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it?"

13 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "I will even tear it with a stormy wind in My wrath. There will be an overflowing shower in My anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. 14 So will I break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered. It will fall, and you will be consumed in the middle of it. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה.

15 Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash. I will tell you, 'The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; 16 to wit, the prophets of Yisra'el who prophesy concerning Yerushalayim, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace,'" says Adonai יְהוָה."

17 You, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, 18 and say, "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Woe to the women who sew pillows on all elbows, and make veils for the head of persons of every stature to hunt beings! Will you hunt the beings of My people, and save beings alive for yourselves? 19 You have profaned Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the beings who should not die, and to save the beings alive who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies.'

20 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you hunt the beings as birds, and I will tear them from your arms. I will let the beings go, even the beings whom you hunt as birds. 21 I will also tear your veils, and deliver My people out of your hand, and they will be no more in your hand to be hunted. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה. 22 Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive. 23 Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver My people out of your hand. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה.'"

14 Then some of the elders of Yisra'el came to me, and sat before me. 2 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face. Should I be inquired of at all by them? 4 Therefore speak to them, and tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Every man of the house of Yisra'el who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I יְהוָה will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols; 5 that I may take the house of Yisra'el in their own heart, because they are all estranged from Me through their idols."

6 "Therefore tell the house of Yisra'el, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Return, and turn yourselves from your idols! Turn away your faces from all your abominations. 7 For everyone of the house of Yisra'el, or of the sojourners who dwell in Yisra'el, who separates himself from Me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of Me; I יְהוָה will answer him by Myself. 8 I will set My face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from among My people. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה.'

9 "If the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, יְהוָה, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand on him, and will destroy him from among My people Yisra'el. 10 They will bear their iniquity. The iniquity of the prophet will be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; 11 that the house of Yisra'el may no more go astray from Me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be My people, and I may be their Elohim," says Adonai יְהוָה."

12 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 13 "Son of man, when a land sins against Me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out My hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; 14 though if these three men, Noah, Dani'el, and Iyyov, were in it, they would deliver only their own beings by their righteousness," says Adonai יְהוָה. 15 "If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it is made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; 16 though these three men were in it, as I live," says Adonai יְהוָה, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters. They only would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

17 "Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, 'Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and animal;' 18 though these three men were in it, as I live," says Adonai יְהוָה, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only would be delivered themselves.

19 "Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out My wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; 20 though Noah, Dani'el, and Iyyov, were in it, as I live," says Adonai יְהוָה, "they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only their own beings by their righteousness." 21 For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "How much more when I send My four severe judgments on Yerushalayim, the sword, the famine, the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal! 22 Yet, behold, there will be left a remnant in it that will be carried out, both sons and daughters. Behold, they will come out to you, and you will see their way and their doings. Then you will be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Yerushalayim, even concerning all that I have brought on it. 23 They will comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; then you will know that I have not done all that I have done in it without cause," says Adonai יְהוָה.

15 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3 Will wood be taken of it to make anything? Will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it? 4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and the middle of it is burned. Is it profitable for any work? 5 Behold, when it was whole, it was suitable for no work. How much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it has been burned, will it yet be suitable for any work?"

6 Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. 7 I will set My face against them. They will go out from the fire, but the fire will devour them. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה, when I set My face against them. 8 I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass," says Adonai יְהוָה.

16 Again the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, cause Yerushalayim to know her abominations; 3 and say, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה to Yerushalayim: "Your origin and your birth is of the land of the Kena'anite. An Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. 4 As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut. You were not washed in water to cleanse you. You were not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. 5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, because you were abhorred in the day that you were born. 6 When I passed by you, and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you, 'Though you are in your blood, live!' Yes, I said to you, 'Though you are in your blood, live!' 7 I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament. Your breasts were formed, and your hair grew; yet you were naked and bare. 8 Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread My wings^a over you, and covered your nakedness. Yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you," says Adonai יְהוָה, "and you became Mine.

9 "Then washed I you with water. Yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. 10 I clothed you also with embroidered work, and put tahash^b skin shoes on you. I dressed you with fine linen and covered you with silk. 11 I decked you with ornaments. I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. 12 I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. 13 Thus you were decked with gold and silver. Your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered work. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. 14 Your renown went out among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through My majesty which I had put on you," says Adonai יְהוָה.

15 "But you relied on your beauty, and whored because of your renown, and poured out your whoring; everyone who passed by, it was his. 16 You took some of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and whored on them. This shall not happen, neither shall it be. 17 You also took your beautiful jewels of My gold and of My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and whored with them. 18 You took your embroidered garments, covered them, and set My oil and My incense before them. 19 My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a soothing aroma; and so it was," says Adonai יְהוָה.

20 "Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to Me, and you have slaughtered these to them to be devoured. Was your whoring a small matter, 21 that you have slain My children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? 22 In all your abominations and your whoring you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood.

23 "It has happened after all your wickedness. Woe, woe to you!" says Adonai יְהוָה, 24 "That you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. 25 You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have spread your feet^c to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your whoring. 26 You have also whored with the Mitsrites, your neighbors, great of flesh^a; and have multiplied your whoring, to provoke Me to anger.

27 See therefore, I have stretched out My hand over you, and have diminished your portion, and delivered you to the being of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. 28 You have whored also with the Ashuwrites, because you were insatiable; yes, you have whored with them, and yet you were not satisfied. 29 You have moreover multiplied your whoring to the land of merchants, to Kaldea; and yet you were not satisfied with this.

30 "How your heart withers," says Adonai יְהוָה, "since you do all these things, the work of a stubborn whore; 31 in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a whore, in that you scorn pay. 32 A wife who commits adultery, who takes strangers instead of her husband! 33 People give gifts to all whores; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your whoring. 34 You are different from other women in your whoring, in that no one follows you to whore; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different."

35 "Therefore, whore, hear the word of יְהוָה: 36 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה, "Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your whoring with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; 37 therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated. I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. 38 I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. 39 I will also give you into their hand, and they will throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places. They will strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels. They will leave you naked and bare. 40 They will also bring up a company against you, and they will stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. 41 They will burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. I will cause you to cease from whoring, and you will also give no hire any more. 42 So will I cause My wrath toward you to rest, and My jealousy will depart from you. I will be quiet, and will not be angry any more. 43 Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against Me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head," says Adonai יְהוָה: "and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.

44 "Behold, everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb against you, saying, 'As is the mother, so is her daughter.' 45 You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. 46 Your elder sister is Shom'ron, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom with her daughters. 47 Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor done their abominations; but soon you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. 48 As I live," says Adonai יְהוָה, "Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters.

49 "Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters. She also did not strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. 50 They were haughty, and committed abomination before Me. Therefore I took them away when I saw it. 51 Shom'ron has not committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have declared your sisters right by all your abominations which you have done. 52 You also bear your own shame yourself, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you. Yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have declared your sisters right.

53 "I will reverse their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Shom'ron and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives among them; 54 that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. 55 Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, will return to their former estate; and Shom'ron and her daughters will return to their former estate; and you and your daughters will return to your former estate. 56 For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, 57 before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Aram, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you all around. 58 You have borne your lewdness and your abominations," says יְהוָה.

59 "For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant. 60 Nevertheless I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. 61 Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. 62 I will establish My covenant with you. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה; 63 that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame; when I have atoned for you, for all that you have done," says Adonai יְהוָה."

17 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, tell a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Yisra'el; 3 and say, Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Levanon, and took the top of the cedar. 4 He cropped off the topmost of its young twigs, and carried it to a land of traffic. He planted it in a city of merchants.

5 "He also took some of the seed of the land, and planted it in fruitful soil. He placed it beside many waters. He set it as a willow tree. 6 It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him. So it became a vine, produced branches, and shot out sprigs. 7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. Behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot out its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. 8 It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might produce branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a good vine."

9 "Say, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Will it prosper? Will he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? It cannot be raised from its roots by a strong arm or many people. 10 Yes, behold, being planted, will it prosper? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the beds where it grew.'"

11 Moreover the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying,

12 "Say now to the rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them, 'Behold, the king of Bavel came to Yerushalayim, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Bavel. 13 He took some of the royal seed and cut a covenant with him. He also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; 14 that the kingdom might be brought low, that it might not lift itself up, but that by guarding his covenant it might stand. 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Mitsrayim, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape? Will he break the covenant, and still escape?

16 "As I live,' says Adonai יְהוָה, 'surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the middle of Bavel he will die. 17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. 18 For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things. He will not escape.

19 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'As I live, I will surely bring on his own head My oath that he has despised and My covenant that he has broken. 20 I will spread My net on him, and he will be taken in My snare. I will bring him to Bavel, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against Me. 21 All his fugitives in all his bands will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered toward every wind. Then you will know that I, יְהוָה, have spoken it.'

22 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'I will also take some of the lofty top of the cedar, and will plant it. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. 23 I will plant it in the mountain of the height of Yisra'el; and it will produce boughs, and bear fruit, and be a good cedar. Birds of every kind will dwell in the shade of its branches. 24 All the trees of the field will know that I, יְהוָה, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree flourish. I, יְהוָה, have spoken and have done it.'"

18 The word of יְהוָה came to me again, saying,

2 "What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Yisra'el, saying, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge^a?"

3 "As I live," says Adonai יְהוָה, "you shall not use this proverb any more in Yisra'el. 4 Behold, all beings are Mine; as the being of the father, so also the being of the son is Mine. The being who sins, he shall die. 5 But if a man is righteous, and does judgment and that which is right, 6 and has not eaten on the mountains, has not lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Yisra'el, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, has not come near a woman in her impurity, 7 and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 8 he who has not lent to them with interest, has not taken any increase from them, who has withdrawn his hand from unrighteousness, has executed true judgment between man and man, 9 has walked in My statutes, and has guarded My judgments, to deal truly; he is righteous, he shall surely live," says Adonai יהוה.

10 "If he fathers a son who is a robber who sheds blood, and who does any one of these things, 11 or who does not do any of those things, but even has eaten at the mountain shrines, and defiled his neighbor's wife, 12 has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, 13 has lent with interest, and has taken increase from the poor; shall he then live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominations. He shall surely die. His blood will be on him. 14 Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like; 15 who has not eaten on the mountains, has not lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Yisra'el, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, 16 has not wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, has not taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 17 who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest or increase, has executed My judgments, has walked in My statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father. He shall surely live. 18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he will die in his iniquity.

19 "Yet you say, 'Why does the son not bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done judgment and that which is right, and has guarded all My statutes, and has done them, he will surely live. 20 The being who sins, he shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

21 "But if the wicked turns from all his sins that he has committed, and guards all My statutes, and does judgment and that which is right, he shall surely live. He shall not die. 22 None of his transgressions that he has committed will be remembered against him. In his righteousness that he has done, he shall live. 23 Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" says Adonai יהוה; "and not rather that he should return from his way, and live?

24 "But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits unrighteousness, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, should he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done will be remembered. In his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he shall die.

25 "Yet you say, 'The way of יהוה is not equal.' Hear now, house of Yisra'el: Is My way not equal? Are not your ways unequal? 26 When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits unrighteousness, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done he shall die. 27 Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does judgment and that which is right, he will save his being alive. 28 Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live. He shall not die. 29 Yet the house of Yisra'el says, 'The way of יהוה is not fair.' House of Yisra'el, are not My ways fair? Are not your ways unfair?

30 "Therefore I will judge you, house of Yisra'el, everyone according to his ways," says Adonai יהוה. "Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity will not be your ruin. 31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Yisra'el? 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies," says Adonai יהוה. "Therefore turn yourselves, and live!

19 "Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Yisra'el, 2 and say, 'What was your mother? A lioness. She couched among lions, in the middle of the young lions she nourished her cubs. 3 She brought up one of her cubs. He became a young lion. He learned to catch the prey. He devoured men. 4 The nations also heard of him. He was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Mitsrayim. 5 "Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. 6 He went up and down among the lions. He became a young lion. He learned to catch the prey. He devoured men. 7 He knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities. The land was desolate, with its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring. 8 Then the nations attacked him on every side from the provinces. They spread their net over him. He was taken in their pit. 9 They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Bavel. They brought him into strongholds, so that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Yisra'el.

10 "Your mother was like a vine in your blood^a, planted by the waters. It was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. 11 It had strong branches for the scepters of those who ruled. Their stature was exalted among the thick boughs. They were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. 12 But it was plucked up in fury. It was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branches were broken off and withered. The fire consumed them. 13 Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. 14 Fire has gone out of its branches. It has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong branch to be a scepter to rule.^c This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation."

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth new moon, the tenth day of the new moon, some of the elders of Yisra'el came to inquire of יְהוָה יְהוָה, and sat before me.

2 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Yisra'el, and tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: Is it to inquire of Me that you have come? As I live,' says Adonai יְהוָה, 'I will not be inquired of by you.'"

4 "Will you judge them, son of man? Will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers. 5 Tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "In the day when I chose Yisra'el, and swore to the seed of the house of Ya'aqov, and made Myself known to them in the land of Mitsrayim, when I swore to them, saying, 'I am יְהוָה your Elohim;' 6 in that day I swore to them, to bring them out of the land of Mitsrayim into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. 7 I said to them, 'Each of you throw away the abominations of his eyes. Do not defile yourselves with the idols of Mitsrayim. I am יְהוָה your Elohim.'

8 "But they rebelled against Me, and would not listen to Me. They did not all throw away the abominations of their eyes. They also did not forsake the idols of Mitsrayim. Then I said I would pour out My wrath on them, to accomplish My anger against them in the middle of the land of Mitsrayim. 9 But I worked for My Name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made Myself known to them, in bringing them out of the land of Mitsrayim. 10 So I caused them to go out of the land of Mitsrayim, and brought them into the wilderness. 11 I gave them My statutes, and showed them My judgments, which if a man does, he will live in them. 12 Moreover also I gave them My Sabbaths, to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am יְהוָה who sets them apart.

13 "But the house of Yisra'el rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not walk in My statutes, and they rejected My judgments, which if a man keeps, he shall live in them. They greatly profaned My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. 14 But I worked for My Name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; 16 because they rejected My judgments, and did not walk in My statutes, and profaned My Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols. 17 Nevertheless My eye spared them, and I did not destroy them. I did not make a full end of them in the wilderness. 18 I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers. Do not guard their judgments or defile yourselves with their idols. 19 I am יְהוָה your Elohim. Walk in My statutes, guard My judgments, and do them. 20 Make My Sabbaths set-apart. They shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am יְהוָה your Elohim.'

21 "But the children rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My statutes, and did not guard My judgments to do them, which if a man does, he shall live in them. They profaned My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My wrath on them, to accomplish My anger against them in the wilderness. 22 Nevertheless I withdrew My hand, and worked for My Name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. 23 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; 24 because they had not executed My judgments, but had rejected My statutes, and had profaned My Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. 25 Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and judgments in which they should not live. 26 I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that opens the womb^b to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am יְהוָה."

27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Yisra'el, and tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: Moreover, in this your fathers have blasphemed Me, in that they have committed a trespass against Me. 28 For when I had brought them into the land which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and there they slaughtered their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering. There they also made their soothing aroma, and there they poured out their drink offerings. 29 Then I said to them, 'What does the high place where you go mean?' So its name is called Bamah to this day."

30 "Therefore tell the house of Yisra'el, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? Do you whore after their abominations? 31 When you offer your gifts, when you make your sons pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? Should I be inquired of by you, house of Yisra'el? As I live, says Adonai יְהוָה, I will not be inquired of by you! 32 That which comes into your mind will not be at all, in that you say, 'We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.' 33 As I live, says Adonai יְהוָה, surely with a mighty hand, with an outstretched Arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you. 34 I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered with a mighty hand, with an outstretched Arm, and with wrath poured out. 35 I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face. 36 Just as I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Mitsrayim, so will I judge you," says Adonai יְהוָה. 37 "I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. 38 I will purge out from among you the rebels and those who disobey Me. I will bring them out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Yisra'el. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה."

39 "As for you, house of Yisra'el, thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Go, everyone serve his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to Me; but you shall no more profane My set-apart Name with your gifts and with your idols. 40 For in My set-apart mountain, in the mountain of the height of Yisra'el," says Adonai יְהוָה, "there all the house of Yisra'el, all of them, shall serve Me in the land. There I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your set-apart things. 41 I will accept you as a soothing aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered. I will be set apart in you in the sight of the nations.^a 42 You will know that I am יְהוָה when I bring you into the land of Yisra'el, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. 43 There you will remember your ways, and all your deeds in which you have polluted yourselves. Then you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. 44 You will know that I am יְהוָה, when I have dealt with you for My Name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Yisra'el," says Adonai יְהוָה."

45 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 46 "Son of man, set your face toward the south, and speak toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South. 47 Tell the forest of the South, 'Hear the word of יְהוָה: Thus says Adonai יְהוָה, "Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree. The burning flame will not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north will be burned by it. 48 All flesh will see that I, יְהוָה, have kindled it. It will not be quenched.'"

49 Then I said, "Ah Adonai יְהוָה! They say of me, 'Is he not a speaker of parables?'"

21 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Yerushalayim, and speak toward the set-apart places, and prophesy against the land of Yisra'el. 3 Tell the land of Yisra'el, יְהוָה says: "Behold, I am against you, and will draw My sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore My sword will go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north. 5 All flesh will know that I, יְהוָה, have drawn My sword out of its sheath. It will not return any more."

6 "Therefore sigh, you son of man. You shall sigh before their eyes with a breaking of your loins^b and with bitterness. 7 It shall be, when they ask you, 'Why do you sigh?' that you shall say, 'Because of the news, for it comes! Every heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says Adonai יְהוָה."

8 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Adonai יְהוָה' says: 'A sword! A sword! It is sharpened, and also polished. 10 It is sharpened that it may make a slaying. It is polished that it may be as lightning. Should we then make mirth? The rod of My son condemns every tree. 11 It is given to be polished, that it may be handled. The sword is sharpened. Yes, it is polished to give it into the hand of the killer.'"

12 "Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on My people. It is on all the princes of Yisra'el. They are delivered over to the sword with My people. Therefore beat your thigh. 13 For there is a trial. What if even the rod that condemns will be no more?" says Adonai יְהוָה. 14 "You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together. Let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the fatally wounded. It is the sword of the great one who is fatally wounded, which enters into their rooms. 15 I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied. Ah! It is made as lightning. It is pointed to slaughter. 16 Gather yourselves together. Go to the right. Set yourselves in array. Go to the left, wherever your face is set. 17 I will also strike My hands together, and I will cause My wrath to rest. I, יְהוָה, have spoken it."

18 The word of יְהוָה came to me again, saying,

19 "Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Bavel may come. They both will come out of one land, and mark out a place. Mark it out at the head of the way to the city.

20 "You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Yehudah in Yerushalayim the fortified. 21 For the king of Bavel stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination. He shook the arrows back and forth. He consulted the teraphim^a. He looked in the liver. 22 In his right hand was the lot for Yerushalayim, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, and to build forts. 23 It will be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.

24 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Because you have caused your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you will be taken with the hand.'

25 "'You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Yisra'el, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, 26 thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Remove the turban, and take off the crown. This will not be as it was. Exalt that which is low, and humble that which is high. 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it. This also will be no more, until He comes whose judgment it is; and I will give it to Him.'"

28 "You, son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Adonai יְהוָה' says this concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach: 'A sword! A sword is drawn! It is polished for the slaying, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; 29 while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. 30 Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, I will judge you.'

31 I will pour out My indignation on you. I will blow on you with the fire of My wrath. I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. 32 You will be for fuel to the fire. Your blood will be in the middle of the land. You will be remembered no more; for I, יְהוָה, have spoken it. ""

22 Moreover the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "You, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. 3 You shall say, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה': 'A city that sheds blood within herself, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! 4 You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made! You have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. 5 Those who are near, and those who are far from you, will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.'

6 "Behold, the princes of Yisra'el, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. 7 In you have they made light of their father and mother.^b Among you they have oppressed the sojourner. In you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow. 8 You have despised My set-apart things, and have profaned My Sabbaths. 9 Slanderous men have been in you to shed blood. In you they have eaten on the mountains. They have committed lewdness among you. 10 In you they have uncovered their fathers' nakedness. In you they have humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. 11 One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law. Another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. 12 In you they have taken bribes to shed blood. You have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten Me," says Adonai יהוה.

13 "Behold, therefore I have struck My hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been within you. 14 Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I will deal with you? I, יהוה, have spoken it, and will do it. 15 I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries. I will consume your filthiness out of you. 16 You will be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am יהוה."

17 The word of יהוה came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, the house of Yisra'el has become dross to Me. All of them are copper, tin, iron, and lead in the middle of the furnace. They are the dross of silver. 19 Therefore thus says Adonai יהוה: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the middle of Yerushalayim. 20 As they gather silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. 21 Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted in the middle of it. 22 As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you will be melted in the middle of it; and you will know that I, יהוה, have poured out My wrath on you."

23 The word of יהוה came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, tell her, 'You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation.' 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets^a within it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey. They have devoured beings. They take treasure and precious things. They have made many widows within it.

26 "Her priests have done violence to My Torah, and have profaned My set-apart things. They have made no distinction between the set-apart and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths. So I am profaned among them.

27 "Her princes within it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy beings, that they may get dishonest gain. 28 Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה,' when יהוה has not spoken. 29 The people of the land have used oppression and exercised robbery. Yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the sojourner without judgment. 30 I sought for a man among them who would build up the wall and stand in the gap before Me for the land, that I would not destroy it; but I found no one. 31 Therefore I have poured out My indignation on them. I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath. I have brought their own way on their heads," says Adonai יהוה.

23 The word of יהוה came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. 3 They whored in Mitsrayim. They whored in their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their youthful nipples were caressed there. 4 Their names were Oholah^b the elder, and Oholivah^c her sister. They became Mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Shom'ron is Oholah, and Yerushalayim Oholivah. 5 Oholah whored when she was Mine. She doted on her lovers, on the Ashuwrites her neighbors, 6 who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. 7 She gave herself as a whore to them, all of them the choicest men of Ashuwr. She defiled herself with the idols of whoever she lusted after. 8 She has not left her whoring since leaving Mitsrayim; for in her youth they lay with her. They caressed her youthful nipples; and they poured out their whoring on her.

9 "Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Ashuwrites, on whom she doted. 10 These uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters; and they killed her with the sword. She became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her. 11 Her sister Oholivah saw this, yet she was more corrupt in her lust than she, and in her whoring which was more depraved than the whoring of her sister. 12 She lusted after the Ashuwrites, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. 13 I saw that she was defiled. They both went the same way.

^b 4 אֲהַלָּה (Oholah) – Hebrew word for "she who has a tent."

14 "She increased her whoring; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Kaldeans portrayed with red, 15 dressed with belts on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like princes, after the likeness of the children of Bavel in Kaldea, the land of their birth. 16 As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them into Kaldea. 17 The children of Bavel came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoring. She was polluted with them, and her being was alienated from them. 18 So she uncovered her whoring and uncovered her nakedness. Then My being was alienated from her, just like My being was alienated from her sister. 19 Yet she multiplied her whoring, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had whored in the land of Mitsrayim. 20 She lusted after their lovers, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. 21 Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the caressing of your nipples by the Mitsrites because of your youthful breasts.

22 "Therefore, Oholivah, thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your being is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: 23 the children of Bavel and all the Kaldeans, Peqod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Ashuwrites with them; all of them desirable young men, governors and rulers, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses.'

24 "They will come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples. They will set themselves against you with buckler, shield, and helmet all around. I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their judgments. 25 I will set My jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will take away your nose and your ears. Your remnant will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters; and the rest of you will be devoured by the fire. 26 They will also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. 27 Thus I will make your lewdness to cease from you, and remove your whoring from the land of Mitsrayim; so that you will not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Mitsrayim anymore.'

28 "For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your being is alienated. 29 They will deal with you in hatred, and will take away all your labor, and will leave you naked and bare. The nakedness of your whoring will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your whoring. 30 These things will be done to you, because you have whored after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols.'

31 You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore will I give her cup into your hand.'

32 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large. You will be ridiculed and held in derision. It contains much. 33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Shom'ron. 34 You will even drink it and drain it out. You will gnaw the broken pieces of it, and will tear your breasts; for I have spoken it,' says Adonai יְהוָה.

35 "Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Because you have forgotten Me, and cast Me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your whoring.'"

36 said moreover to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholivah? Then declare to them their abominations. 37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols. They have also caused their sons, whom they bore to Me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. 38 Moreover this they have done to Me: they have defiled My set-apart place in the same day, and have profaned My Sabbaths. 39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into My set-apart place to profane it; and behold, they have done this in the middle of My house.

40 "Furthermore you sisters have sent for men who come from far away, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came; for whom you washed yourself, painted your eyes, decorated yourself with ornaments, 41 and sat on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you set My incense and My oil.

42 "The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her. With men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands, and beautiful crowns on their heads. 43 Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, 'Now they will whore with her, and she with them.' 44 They went in to her, as they go in to a whore. So they went in to Oholah and to Oholivah, the lewd women. 45 Righteous men will judge them with the judgment of adulteresses and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 "For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'I will bring up a mob against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and plundered. 47 The company will stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords. They will kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.'

48 "Thus I will cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be disciplined and not be lewd like you. 49 They will recompense your lewdness on you, and you will bear the sins of your idols. Then you will know that I am Adonai יְהוָה."

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth new moon, in the tenth day of the new moon, the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, write the name of the day, this same day. The king of Bavel leaned towards Yerushalayim this same day. 3 Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Put the cauldron on the fire. Put it on, and also pour water into it. 4 Gather its pieces into it, even every good piece: the thigh and the shoulder. Fill it with the choice bones. 5 Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the cauldron. Cook it well. Yes, let its bones be cooked within it."

6 ""Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Woe to the bloody city, to the cauldron whose rust is in it, and whose rust has not gone out of it! Take out of it piece after piece. No lot is fallen on it.

7 "For her blood is in the middle of her. She set it on the bare rock. She did not pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. 8 That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered."

9 ""Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. 10 Heap on the wood. Make the fire hot. Boil the meat well. Make the broth thick, and let the bones be burned. 11 Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its copper may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed. 12 She is weary with toil; yet her great rust, rust by fire, does not leave her.

13 ""In your filthiness is lewdness. Because I have cleansed you and you were not cleansed, you will not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused My wrath toward you to rest. 14 I, יְהוָה, have spoken it. It will happen, and I will do it. I will not go back. I will not spare. I will not relent. According to your ways, and according to your doings, they will judge you," says Adonai יְהוָה."

15 Also the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 16 "Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. 17 Sigh, but not aloud. Make no mourning for the dead. Bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet. Do not cover your lips, and do not eat mourner's bread."

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at evening my wife died. So I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 The people asked me, "Will you not tell us what these things are to us, that you do?"

20 Then I said to them, "The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 21 'Speak to the house of Yisra'el, "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Behold, I will profane My set-apart place, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your being pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword. 22 You will do as I have done. You will not cover your lips or eat mourner's bread. 23 Your turbans will be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet. You will not mourn or weep; but you will pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. 24 Thus Yechezqel will be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am Adonai יְהוָה....."

25 "You, son of man, should it not be in the day when I take their strength from them, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that with which they burdened themselves, their sons and their daughters, 26 that in that day he who escapes will come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? 27 In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute. So you will be a sign to them. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה."

25 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them. 3 Tell the children of Ammon, 'Hear the word of Adonai יְהוָה! Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Because you said, 'Aha!' against My set-apart place, when it was profaned; and against the land of Yisra'el, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Yehudah, when they went into captivity: 4 therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession. They will set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you. They will eat your fruit and they will drink your milk. 5 I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה. 6 For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Because you have clapped your hands, stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the scorn of your being against the land of Yisra'el; 7 therefore, behold, I have stretched out My hand on you, and will deliver you for a plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries. I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am יְהוָה."

8 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Because Moav and Seir say, 'Behold, the house of Yehudah is like all the nations;' 9 therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moav from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Yeshimoth, Ba'al Meon, and Qiryathayim, 10 to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. 11 I will execute judgments on Moav. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה."

12 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Because Edom has dealt against the house of Yehudah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and taken revenge on them;" 13 therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה, "I will stretch out My hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman. They will fall by the sword even to Dedan. 14 I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Yisra'el. They will do in Edom according to My anger and according to My wrath. Then they will know My vengeance," says Adonai יְהוָה.

15 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Because the Philistines have taken revenge, and have taken vengeance with scorn of being to destroy with perpetual hostility;" 16 therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה, "Behold, I will stretch out My hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kerethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. 17 I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה, when I lay My vengeance on them.""

26 In the eleventh year, in the first of the new moon, the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, because Tsor has said against Yerushalayim, 'Aha! She is broken! She who was the gateway of the peoples has been returned to me. I will be replenished, now that she is laid waste; 3 therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה, 'Behold, I am against you, Tsor, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. 4 They will destroy the walls of Tsor, and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. 5 She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have spoken it,' says Adonai יְהוָה. 'She will become plunder for the nations. 6 Her daughters who are in the field will be slain with the sword. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה.'

and an army with many people. 8 He will kill your daughters in the field with the sword. He will make forts against you, cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. 9 He will set his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers. 10 By reason of the abundance of his horses, their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he enters into your gates, as men enter into a city which is broken open. 11 He will tread down all your streets with the hoofs of his horses. He will kill your people with the sword. The pillars of your strength will go down to the ground. 12 They will make a spoil of your riches, and make a plunder of your merchandise. They will break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses. They will lay your stones, your timber, and your dust in the middle of the waters. 13 I will cause the noise of your songs to cease. The sound of your harps will not be heard any more. 14 I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place for the spreading of nets. You will be built no more; for I יְהוָה have spoken it,' says Adonai יְהוָה.

15 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה to Tsor: 'Will not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made within you? 16 Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling. They will sit on the ground, and will tremble every moment, and be astonished at you.

17 They will take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, "How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there!"

18 Now the islands will tremble in the day of your fall. Yes, the islands that are in the sea will be dismayed at your departure.'

19 "For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'When I make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I bring up the deep on you, and the great waters cover you; 20 then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living. 21 I will make you a terror, and you will no more have any being. Though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again,' says Adonai יְהוָה."

27 The word of הָיְהָ came again to me, saying,

2 "You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tsor; 3 and tell Tsor, 'You who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, thus says Adonai הָיְהָ: "You, Tsor, have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.' 4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas. Your builders have perfected your beauty. 5 They have made all your planks of cypress trees from Senir. They have taken a cedar from Levanon to make a mast for you. 6 They have made your oars of the oaks of Bashan. They have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood from the islands of Kittim. 7 Your sail was of fine linen with embroidered work from Mitsrayim, that it might be to you for a banner. Blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning. 8 The inhabitants of Tsidon and Arvad were your rowers. Your wise men, Tsor, were in you. They were your pilots. 9 The old men of Geval and its wise men were your repairers of ship seams in you. All the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise.

10 "Paras, Lud, and Put were in your army, your men of war. They hung the shield and helmet in you. They showed your beauty. 11 The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and valiant men were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls all around. They have perfected your beauty.

12 "Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches. They traded for your wares with silver, iron, tin, and lead.

13 "Yavan, Tuval, and Meshek were your traders. They traded the beings of men and vessels of copper for your merchandise.

14 "They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses, war horses, and mules.

15 "The men of Dedan traded with you. Many islands were the market of your hand. They brought you horns of ivory and ebony in exchange.

16 "Aram was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks. They traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

17 "Yehudah and the land of Yisra'el were your traders. They traded wheat of Minnith, confections, honey, oil, and balm for your merchandise.

18 "Dammeseq was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 "Vedan and Yavan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus were among your merchandise.

20 "Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding.

21 "Arabia, and all the princes of Qedar were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, rams, and goats. In these, they were your merchants.

22 "The traders of Sheva and Ra'amah were your traders. They traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 "Haran, Kanneh, and Eden, the traders of Sheva, Ashuwr and Kilmad, were your traders. 24 These were your traders in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise.

25 "The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise. You were replenished and made very glorious in the heart of the seas. 26 Your rowers have brought you into great waters. The east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. 27 Your riches, your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is among you, will fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. 28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots, the suburbs will shake. 29 All who handled the oar, the mariners and all the pilots of the sea, will come down from their ships. They will stand on the land, 30 and will cause their voice to be heard over you, and will cry bitterly. They will cast up dust on their heads. They will wallow in the ashes. 31 They will make themselves bald for you, and clothe themselves with sackcloth. They will weep for you in bitterness of being, with bitter mourning.

32 In their wailing they will take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, 'Who is there like Tsor, like her who is brought to silence in the middle of the sea?'

33 "When your wares went out of the seas, you filled many peoples. You enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise.

34 In the time that you were broken by the seas, in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell within you. 35 All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid. They are troubled in their face. 36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you. You have become a terror, and you will be no more.""

28 The word of יההנָם came again to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, tell the prince of Tsor, 'Thus says Adonai יההנָם: "Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, 'I am Elohim, I sit in the seat of Elohim, in the heart of the seas;' yet you are man, and not Elohim, though you set your heart as the heart of Elohim—3 behold, you are wiser than Dani'el; there is no secret that is hidden from you; 4 by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; 5 by your great wisdom and by your trading you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches—"

6 Therefore thus says Adonai יההנָם: "Because you have set your heart as the heart of Elohim, 7 therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the tyrants of the nations. They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom. They will defile your brightness.

8 They will bring you down to the pit. You will die the death of those who are slain in the heart of the seas.

9 Will you yet say before him who kills you, 'I am Elohim'? But you are man, and not Elohim, in the hand of him who wounds you. 10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers; for I have spoken it," says Adonai יההנָם.

11 Moreover the word of יההנָם came to me, saying,

12 "Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tsor, and tell him, 'Thus says Adonai יההנָם: "You were the seal of full measure, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. 13 You were in Eden, the garden of Elohim. Every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. They were prepared in the day that you were created. 14 You were the anointed keruv who covers. Then I set you up on the set-apart mountain of Elohim. You have walked up and down in the middle of the stones of fire.

15 "You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. 16 By the abundance of your commerce, your insides were filled with violence, and you have sinned. Therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of Elohim. I have destroyed you, covering keruv, from the middle of the stones of fire.

17 "Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty. You have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor. I have cast you to the ground. I have laid you before kings, that they may see you.

18 "By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your commerce, you have profaned your set-apart places. Therefore I have brought out a fire from the middle of you. It has devoured you. I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. 19 All those who know you among the peoples will be astonished at you. You have become a terror, and you will exist no more.""

20 The word of יההנָם came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, set your face toward Tsidon, and prophesy against it, 22 and say, 'Thus says Adonai יההנָם: "Behold, I am against you, Tsidon. I will be glorified among you. Then they will know that I am יההנָם, when I have executed judgments in her, and am set apart in her. 23 For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets. The wounded will fall within her, with the sword on her on every side. Then they will know that I am יההנָם."

24 "There will be no more a pricking brier to the house of Yisra'el, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them that scorned them. Then they will know that I am Adonai יההנָם."

25 "Thus says Adonai יההנָם: "When I have gathered the house of Yisra'el from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am set apart in them in the sight of the nations, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to My servant Ya'aqov. 26 They will dwell in it securely. Yes, they will build houses, plant vineyards, and will dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who scorn them all around. Then they will know that I am יההנָם their Elohim.""

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth new moon, on the twelfth day of the new moon, the word of יההנָם came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Mitsrayim, and prophesy against him and against all Mitsrayim. 3 Speak and say, 'Thus says Adonai יההנָם: "Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Mitsrayim, the great monster^a that lies in the middle of his rivers, that has said, 'My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.'

4 I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales. I will bring you up out of the middle of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. 5 I will cast you out into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You will fall on the open field. You will not be brought together or gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the heavens.

6 "All the inhabitants of Mitsrayim will know that I am תְּהִלָּתִי, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Yisra'el. 7 When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders. When they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their loins^a."

8 "Therefore thus says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי: 'Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. 9 The land of Mitsrayim will be a desolation and a waste. Then they will know that I am תְּהִלָּתִי.

Because he has said, "The river is mine, and I have made it;" 10 therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers. I will make the land of Mitsrayim an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveneh even to the border of Kush. 11 No foot of man will pass through it, nor will any animal foot pass through it. It will not be inhabited for forty years. 12 I will make the land of Mitsrayim a desolation in the middle of the countries that are desolate. Her cities among the cities that are laid waste will be a desolation forty years. I will scatter the Mitsrites among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries."

13 For thus says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי: "At the end of forty years will I gather the Mitsrites from the peoples where they were scattered. 14 I will reverse the captivity of Mitsrayim, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth. They will be a lowly kingdom, there. 15 It will be the lowest of the kingdoms. It will not lift itself up above the nations any more. I will diminish them, so that they will no longer rule over the nations. 16 It will no longer be the confidence of the house of Yisra'el, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them. Then they will know that I am Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי."

17 It came about in the twenty-seventh year, in the first new moon, in the first day of the new moon, the word of תְּהִלָּתִי came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man,

Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel caused his army to serve a great service against Tsor. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet he had no wages, nor did his army, from Tsor, for the service that he had served against it. 19 Therefore thus says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי: 'Behold, I will give the land of Mitsrayim to Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel. He will carry off her multitude, spoil her spoil, and plunder her plunder. That will be the wages for his army. 20 I have given him the land of Mitsrayim as his payment for which he served, because they worked for Me,' says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי.

21 "In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Yisra'el, and I will open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am תְּהִלָּתִי."

30 The word of תְּהִלָּתִי came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Thus says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי: "Wail, 'Alas for the day! 3 For the day is near, even the day of תִּזְבֵּחַ is near. It will be a day of clouds, a time of the nations.

4 "A sword will come on Mitsrayim, and anguish will be in Kush, when the slain fall in Mitsrayim. They take away her multitude, and her foundations are broken down. 5 Kush, Put, Lud, Aravia, Kub, and the children of the land that is allied with them, will fall with them by the sword."

6 "תְּהִלָּתִי" says: "Those who support Mitsrayim will fall. The pride of her power will come down. They will fall by the sword in it from the tower of Seveneh," says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי. 7 "They will be desolate in the middle of the countries that are desolate. Her cities will be among the cities that are wasted. 8 They will know that I am תְּהִלָּתִי when I have set a fire in Mitsrayim, and all her helpers are destroyed. 9 In that day messengers will go out from before Me in ships to make the secure Kushites afraid. There will be anguish on them, as in the day of Mitsrayim; for, behold, it comes."

10 "Thus says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי: "I will also make the multitude of Mitsrayim to cease, by the hand of Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel. 11 He and his people with him, the tyrants of the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Mitsrayim, and fill the land with the slain. 12 I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men. I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, תְּהִלָּתִי, have spoken it."

13 "Thus says Adonai תְּהִלָּתִי: "I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Noph. There will be no more a prince from the land of Mitsrayim. I will put a fear in the land of Mitsrayim. 14 I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Tsoan, and will execute judgments on No. 15 I will pour My wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Mitsrayim. I will cut off the multitude of No. 16 I will set a fire in Mitsrayim; Sin will be in great anguish. No will be broken up. Noph will have adversaries in the daytime. 17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth will fall by the sword. They will go into captivity. 18 At Tahpanhes also the day will withdraw itself, when I break the yokes of Mitsrayim, there. The pride of her power will cease in her. As for her, a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity. 19 Thus I will execute judgments on Mitsrayim. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה."

20 In the eleventh year, in the first new moon, in the seventh day of the new moon, the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Mitsrayim. Behold, it has not been bound up, to apply medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it become strong to hold the sword. 22 Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Mitsrayim, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken. I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. 23 I will scatter the Mitsrites among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. 24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Bavel, and put My sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before the king of Bavel with the groaning of a mortally wounded man.'

25 "I will hold up the arms of the king of Bavel; and the arms of Pharaoh will fall down. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Bavel, and he stretches it out on the land of Mitsrayim. 26 I will scatter the Mitsrites among the nations, and disperse them through the countries. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה."

31 In the eleventh year, in the third new moon, in the first day of the new moon, the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Mitsrayim, and his multitude: 'Whom are you like in your greatness? 3 Behold, the Ashuwrite was a cedar in Levanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs. 4 The waters nourished it. The deep made it to grow. Its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. 5 Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied. Its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it spread them out. 6 All the birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs. Under its branches, all the animals of the field gave birth to their young. All great nations lived under its shadow.'

7 Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. 8 The cedars in the garden of Elohim could not hide it. The pine trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of Elohim like it in its beauty. 9 I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of Elohim, envied it.'

10 "Therefore thus said Adonai יְהוָה: 'Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; 11 I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations. He will surely deal with him. I have driven him out for his wickedness. 12 Strangers, tyrants of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him. His branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land. All the peoples of the earth have gone down from his shadow, and have left him.'

13 "All the birds of the heavens will dwell on his ruin, and all the animals of the field will be on his branches; 14 to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, and do not set their top among the thick boughs. Their mighty ones do not stand up on their height, even all who drink water; for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.'

15 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'In the day when he went down to Sheol I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers. The great waters were stopped. I caused Levanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. 16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit. All the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Levanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. 17 They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the middle of the nations.'

18 "To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth. You will lie in the middle of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. "This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says Adonai יְהוָה."

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth new moon, in the first day of the new moon, "The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 'Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Mitsrayim, and tell him, "You were likened to a young lion of the nations; yet you are as a monster^a in the seas. You broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers."

3 Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "I will spread out My net on you with a company of many peoples; and they will bring you up in My net. 4 I will leave you on the land. I will cast you out on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the heavens to settle on you. I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. 5 I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. 6 I will also water the land in which you swim with your blood, even to the mountains. The watercourses will be full of you. 7 When I extinguish you, I will cover the heavens and make its stars dark. I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light. 8 I will make all the bright lights of the heavens dark over you, and set darkness on your land," says Adonai יְהוָה.

9 "I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. 10 Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid for you, when I brandish My sword before them. They will tremble at every moment, every man for his own being, in the day of your fall."

11 For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "The sword of the king of Bavel will come on you. 12 I will cause your multitude to fall by the swords of the mighty. They are all the tyrants of the nations. They will bring the pride of Mitsrayim to nothing, and all its multitude will be destroyed. 13 I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters. The foot of man will not trouble them anymore, nor will the hoofs of animals trouble them. 14 Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil," says Adonai יְהוָה.

15 "When I make the land of Mitsrayim desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I strike all those who dwell therein, then they will know that I am יְהוָה. 16 This is the lamentation with which they will lament. The daughters of the nations will lament with this. They will lament with it over Mitsrayim, and over all her multitude," says Adonai יְהוָה.

17 Also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the new moon, the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, wail for the multitude of Mitsrayim, and cast them down, even her and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. 19 Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. 20 They will fall among those who are slain by the sword. She is delivered to the sword. Draw her away with all her multitudes. 21 The strong among the mighty will speak to him out of the middle of Sheol with those who help him. They have gone down. The uncircumcised lie still, slain by the sword.

22 "Ashuwr is there with all her company. Her graves are all around her. All of them slain, fallen by the sword; 23 whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living. 24 There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. 25 They have set her a bed among the slain with all her multitude. Her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. He is put among those who are slain.

26 "There is Meshek, Tuval, and all their multitude. Their graves are around them, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. 27 They will not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. 28 But you will be broken among the uncircumcised, and will lie with those who are slain by the sword.

29 "There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword. They will lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit. 30 There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Tsidonians, who have gone down with the slain. They are put to shame in the terror which they caused by their might. They lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

31 "Pharaoh will see them, and will be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword," says Adonai יְהוָה. 32 "For I have put his terror in the land of the living. He will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude," says Adonai יְהוָה.

33 The word of יההנָם came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, 'When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; 3 if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blows the shofar, and warns the people; 4 then whoever hears the sound of the shofar, and does not heed the warning, if the sword comes, and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. 5 He heard the sound of the shofar, and did not take warning. His blood will be on him; whereas if he had heeded the warning, he would have delivered his being. 6 But if the watchman sees the sword come, and does not blow the shofar, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes, and takes any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.'

7 "So you, son of man: I have set you a watchman to the house of Yisra'el. Therefore hear the word from My mouth, and give them warnings from Me. 8 When I tell the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man will die in his iniquity, but I will require his blood at your hand. 9 Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he does not turn from his way; he will die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your being.

10 "You, son of man, tell the house of Yisra'el: 'You say this, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them. How then can we live?"' 11 Tell them, "As I live," says Adonai יההנָם, "I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, house of Yisra'el?"'

12 "You, son of man, tell the children of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him in the day of his disobedience. And as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither will he who is righteous be able to live by it in the day that he sins. 13 When I tell the righteous that he will surely live; if he relies on his righteousness, and commits unrighteousness, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but he will die in his unrighteousness that he has committed. 14 Again, when I say to the wicked, "You will surely die;" if he turns from his sin, and does judgment and that which is right; 15 if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no unrighteousness; he will surely live. He will not die.

16 None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done judgment and that which is right. He will surely live.

17 "Yet the children of your people say, "The way of יההנָם is not fair;" but as for them, their way is not fair.

18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits unrighteousness, he will even die therein.

19 When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does judgment and that which is right, he will live thereby. 20 Yet you say, "The way of יההנָם is not fair."

House of Yisra'el, I will judge every one of you after his ways."

21 In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth new moon, in the fifth day of the new moon, one who had escaped out of Yerushalayim came to me, saying, "The city has been defeated!" 22 Now the hand of יההנָם had been on me in the evening, before he who had escaped came; and He had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

23 The word of יההנָם came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, those who inhabit the waste places in the land of Yisra'el speak, saying, 'Avraham was one, and he inherited the land; but we are many. The land is given us for inheritance.' 25 Therefore tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יההנָם: "You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. So should you possess the land? 26 You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife. So should you possess the land?"'

27 "You shall tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יההנָם: "As I live, surely those who are in the waste places will fall by the sword. I will give he who is in the open field to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the pestilence.

28 I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment. The pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Yisra'el will be desolate, so that no one will pass through. 29 Then they will know that I am יההנָם, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed."

30 "As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk about you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak to one another, everyone to his brother, saying, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes out from יההנָם!' 31 They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words, but do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. 32 Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them.

33 "When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes), then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

34 The word of יהוה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Yisra'el. Prophesy, and tell them, even the shepherds, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה': 'Woe to the shepherds of Yisra'el who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the sheep? 3 You eat the fat. You clothe yourself with the wool. You slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the sheep. 4 You have not strengthened the diseased. You have not healed that which was sick. You have not bound up that which was broken. You have not brought back that which was driven away. You have not sought that which was lost, but you have ruled over them with force and with rigor. 5 They were scattered, because there was no shepherd. They became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill. Yes, My sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth. There was no one who searched or sought."

7 "Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of יהוה: 8 "As I live," says Adonai יהוה, "surely because My sheep became plunder, and My sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd. My shepherds did not search for My sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and did not feed My sheep." 9 Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of יהוה: 10 Thus says Adonai יהוה: "Behold, I am against the shepherds. I will require My sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep. The shepherds will not feed themselves any more. I will deliver My sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them."

11 "For thus says Adonai יהוה: "Behold, I Myself, even I, will search for My sheep, and will seek them out. 12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out My sheep. I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. 13 I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Yisra'el, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them with good pasture; and their fold will be on the mountains of the height of Yisra'el. There they will lie down in a good fold. They will feed on fat pasture on the mountains of Yisra'el.

15 "I Myself will be the shepherd of My sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says Adonai יהוה. 16 "I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will feed them in judgment."

17 "As for you, O My flock, thus says Adonai יהוה: 'Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. 18 Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the remnant of your pasture? And to have drunk of the clear waters, but must you foul the remnant with your feet? 19 As for My sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.'

20 "Therefore thus says Adonai יהוה to them: 'Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21 Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; 22 therefore will I save My flock, and they will no more be plunder. I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23 I will set up one shepherd over them, and He will feed them, even My servant David. He will feed them, and He will be their shepherd. 24 I, יהוה, will be their Elohim, and My servant David prince among them. I, יהוה, have spoken it.

25 "I will cut a covenant of peace with them, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land. They will dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. 26 I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. I will cause the shower to come down in its season. There will be showers of blessing. 27 The tree of the field will yield its fruit, and the earth will yield its increase, and they will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am יהוה, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. 28 They will no more be plunder to the nations, neither will the animals of the earth devour them; but they will dwell securely, and no one will make them afraid. 29 I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they will no more be consumed with famine in the land, and not bear the shame of the nations any more. 30 They will know that I, יהוה, their Elohim am with them, and that they, the house of Yisra'el, are My people, says Adonai יהוה. 31 You My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, are men, and I am your Elohim,' says Adonai יהוה."

35 Moreover the word of יהוה came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 3 and tell it, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה: "Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out My hand against you. I will make you a desolation and an astonishment. 4 I will lay your cities waste, and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am יהוה."

5 "Because you have had a perpetual hostility, and have given over the children of Yisra'el to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end; 6 therefore, as I live," says Adonai יהוה, "I will prepare you for blood, and blood will pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, therefore blood will pursue you. 7 Thus will I make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation. I will cut off him who passes through and him who returns from it. 8 I will fill its mountains with its slain. The slain with the sword will fall in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses. 9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am יהוה."

10 "Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we will possess it;' whereas יהודָה was there: 11 therefore, as I live," says Adonai יהוה, "I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you. 12 You will know that I, יהוה, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Yisra'el, saying, 'They have been laid desolate. They have been given us to devour.' 13 You have magnified yourselves against Me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against Me. I have heard it." 14 Thus says Adonai יהוה: "When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Yisra'el because it was desolate, so will I do to you. You will be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it. Then they will know that I am יהוה."

36 You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Yisra'el, and say, "You mountains of Yisra'el, hear the word of יהוה. 2 Thus says Adonai יהוה: 'Because the enemy has said against you, "Aha!" and, "The ancient high places are ours in possession!'" 3 therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says Adonai יהוה: "Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the remnant of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people;" 4 therefore, you mountains of Yisra'el, hear the word of Adonai יהוה: Thus says Adonai יהוה to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which have become plunder and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around:

5 Therefore thus says Adonai יהוה: "Surely in the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the remnant of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed My land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with scorn of being, to cast it out for plunder." 6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Yisra'el, and tell the mountains, the hills, the watercourses and the valleys, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה: "Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and in My wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations." 7 Therefore thus says Adonai יהוה: "I have sworn, 'Surely the nations that are around you will bear their shame.'

8 "But you, mountains of Yisra'el, you shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to My people Yisra'el; for they are at hand to come. 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will come to you, and you will be tilled and sown. 10 I will multiply men on you, all the house of Yisra'el, even all of it. The cities will be inhabited, and the waste places will be built. 11 I will multiply man and animal on you. They will increase and be fruitful. I will cause you to be inhabited as you were before, and you will do better than at your beginnings. Then you will know that I am יהוה. 12 Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even My people Yisra'el. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will never again bereave them of their children."

13 Thus says Adonai יהוה: "Because they say to you, 'You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation;' 14 therefore you shall devour men no more, and not bereave your nation anymore," says Adonai יהוה. 15 "I will not let you hear the shame of the nations any more. You will not bear the reproach of the peoples any more, and you will not cause your nation to stumble anymore," says Adonai יהוה.

16 Moreover the word of יהוה came to me, saying,

17 "Son of man, when the house of Yisra'el lived in their own land, they defiled it by their ways and by their deeds. Their way before Me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. 18 Therefore I poured out My wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols. 19 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. I judged them according to their way and according to their deeds.

20 When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned My set-apart Name; in that men said of them, 'These are the people of יהוה, and have left His land.'

21 But I had respect for My set-apart Name, which the house of Yisra'el had profaned among the nations where they went.

22 "Therefore tell the house of Yisra'el, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה: "I do not do this for your sake, house of Yisra'el, but for My set-apart Name, which you have profaned among the nations where you went. 23 I will set My great Name apart, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am יהוה,'" says Adonai יהוה, "when I am proven set-apart in you before their eyes.'"

24 "For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. 25 I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your filthiness, and from all your idols. 26 I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. 27 I will put My Ruah within you, and cause you to walk in My statutes. You will guard My judgments and do them. 28 You will dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. You will be My people, and I will be your Elohim. 29 I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. 30 I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations."

31 "Then you will remember your evil ways, and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. 32 I do not do this for your sake," says Adonai יהוה. "Let it be known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Yisra'el."

33 Thus says Adonai יהוה: "In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited and the waste places will be built. 34 The land that was desolate will be tilled instead of being a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. 35 They will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The waste, desolate, and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.' 36 Then the nations that are left around you will know that I, יהוה, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate. I, יהוה, have spoken it, and I will do it."

37 Thus says Adonai יהוה: "For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Yisra'el, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. 38 As the set-apart flock of Yerushalayim in her appointed feasts, so the waste cities will be filled with flocks of men. Then they will know that I am יהוה."

37 The hand of יהוה was on me, and He brought me out in the Ruah of יהוה, and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2 He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. 3 He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "Adonai יהוה, You know."

4 Again He said to me, "Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, 'You dry bones, hear the word of יהוה. 5 Thus says Adonai יהוה to these bones: "Behold, I will cause breath^a to enter into you, and you will live. 6 I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am יהוה.'"

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, there was an earthquake. Then the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

9 Then He said to me, "Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה: "Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.'"

10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

11 Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Yisra'el. Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost. We are completely cut off.' 12 Therefore prophesy, and tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה: "Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, My people; and I will bring you into the land of Yisra'el. 13 You will know that I am יהוה, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, My people. 14 I will put My Ruah in you, and you will live.'

^a 5 Hebrew word used here for "breath" is רוח (ruach), also translated as "spirit." Also in verse 6.

Then I will place you in your own land; and you will know that I, יְהוָה, have spoken it and performed it," says יְהוָה.

15 The word of יְהוָה came again to me, saying, 16 "You, son of man, take one stick^a, and write on it, 'For Yehudah, and for the children of Yisra'el his companions.' Then take another stick, and write on it, 'For Yoseph, the stick of Ephrayim, and for all the house of Yisra'el his companions.' 17 Then join them for yourself to one another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.

18 "When the children of your people speak to you, saying, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?'

19 tell them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Behold, I will take the stick of Yoseph, which is in the hand of Ephrayim, and the tribes of Yisra'el his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Yehudah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand. 20 The sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes." 21 Say to them, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Behold, I will take the children of Yisra'el from among the nations, where they have gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land. 22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Yisra'el. One King will be king to them all. They will no longer be two nations. They will not be divided into two kingdoms any more at all. 23 They will not defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. So they will be My people, and I will be their Elohim."

24 "My servant David will be king over them. They all will have one shepherd. They will also walk in My judgments, and guard My statutes, and do them.

25 They will dwell in the land that I have given to Ya'aqov My servant, in which your fathers lived. They will dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever. David My servant will be their prince forever. 26 Moreover I will cut a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will place them, multiply them, and will set My set-apart place among them forever more. 27 My tent also will be with them. I will be their Elohim, and they will be My people. 28 The nations will know that I am יְהוָה who sets Yisra'el apart, when My set-apart place is among them forever more."

38 The word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshek, and Tuval, and prophesy against him, 3 and say, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshek, and Tuval. 4 I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; 5 Paras, Kush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; 6 Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you."

7 "Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. 8 After many days you will be visited. In the latter years you will come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Yisra'el, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought out of the peoples, and they will dwell securely, all of them. 9 You will ascend. You will come like a desolation. You will be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you."

10 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "It will happen in that day that things will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan. 11 You will say, 'I will go up to the land of unwalled villages. I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, 12 to despoil the spoil and to plunder the plunder; to turn your hand against the waste places that are inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the navel of the earth.^b' 13 Sheva, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, will ask you, 'Have you come to despoil the spoil? Have you assembled your company to plunder the plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great spoil?'''

14 "Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "In that day when My people Yisra'el dwells securely, will you not know it? 15 You will come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army. 16 You will come up against My people Yisra'el, as a cloud to cover the land. It will happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against My land, that the nations may know Me, when I am set apart in you, Gog, before their eyes."

^a 15 Hebrew word used here for "stick" is עץ (ets) literally meaning "tree." Used throughout chapter 37.

^b 12 The phrase טבר הארץ (tab'ur ha'arets), "navel of the earth" can also be rendered "middle of the land."

17 "Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by My servants the prophets of Yisra'el, who prophesied in those days for years that I would bring you against them? 18 It will happen in that day, when Gog comes against the land of Yisra'el," says Adonai יְהוָה, "that My wrath will come up into My nostrils. 19 For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken. Surely in that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Yisra'el; 20 so that the fish of the sea, the birds of the heavens, the animals of the field, all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth will shake at My presence. Then the mountains will be thrown down, the steep places will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground. 21 I will call for a sword against him to all My mountains," says Adonai יְהוָה. "Every man's sword will be against his brother. 22 I will judge him with pestilence and with blood. I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, with great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. 23 I will magnify Myself, and set Myself apart, and I will make Myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה."

39 "You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'Thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshek, and Tuval. 2 I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you onto the mountains of Yisra'el. 3 I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. 4 You will fall on the mountains of Yisra'el, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you. I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. 5 You will fall on the open field; for I have spoken it," says Adonai יְהוָה. 6 "I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands. Then they will know that I am יְהוָה".

7 "I will make My set-apart Name known among My people Yisra'el. I will not allow My set-apart Name to be profaned any more. Then the nations will know that I am יְהוָה, the Set-apart One in Yisra'el. 8 Behold, it comes, and it will be done," says Adonai יְהוָה. "This is the day about which I have spoken.

9 "Those who dwell in the cities of Yisra'el will go out, and will make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs and the spears, and they will make fires with them for seven years; 10 so that they will take no wood out of the field, and not cut down any out of the forests; for they will make fires with the weapons. They will spoil those who despoiled them, and plunder those who plundered them," says Adonai יְהוָה.

11 "It will happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Yisra'el, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it will stop those who pass through. They will bury Gog and all his multitude there; and they will call it 'The valley of Hamon Gog'.^a 12 "The house of Yisra'el will be burying them for seven new moons, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yes, all the people of the land will bury them; and they will become famous in the day that I will be glorified," says Adonai יְהוָה.

14 "They will set apart men of continual employment, who will pass through the land. Those who pass through will go with those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it. After the end of seven new moons they will search. 15 Those who pass through the land will pass through; and when anyone sees a man's bone, then will he set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. 16 Hamonah^b will also be the name of a city. Thus will they cleanse the land."

17 "You, son of man, thus says Adonai יְהוָה: 'Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, "Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to My sacrifice that I slaughter for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Yisra'el, that you may eat meat and drink blood.^c 18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. 19 You shall eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of My sacrifice which I have slaughtered for you. 20 You shall be filled at My table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war," says Adonai יְהוָה.'

21 "I will set My glory among the nations. Then all the nations will see My judgment that I have executed, and My hand that I have laid on them. 22 So the house of Yisra'el will know that I am תִּהְיָ their Elohim, from that day and forward. 23 The nations will know that the house of Yisra'el went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against Me, and I hid My face from them; so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword. 24 I did to them according to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions. I hid My face from them.

25 "Therefore thus says Adonai תִּהְיָ: 'Now I will reverse the captivity of Ya'aqov, and have compassion on the whole house of Yisra'el. I will be jealous for My set-apart Name. 26 They will bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against Me, when they dwell securely in their land, and no one will make them afraid, 27 when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am set apart in them in the sight of many nations. 28 They will know that I am תִּהְיָ their Elohim, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land. Then I will leave none of them captive any more. 29 I will not hide My face from them anymore; for I have poured out My Ruah on the house of Yisra'el,' says Adonai תִּהְיָ."

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the new moon, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, the hand of תִּהְיָ was on me, and He brought me there. 2 In the visions of Elohim, He brought me into the land of Yisra'el, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. 3 He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of copper, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. 4 The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I will show you; for you have been brought here so that I may show them to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Yisra'el."

5 Behold, there was a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a hand width each. So he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 Then he came to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; and the other threshold, one reed wide. 7 Every lodge was one reed long and one reed wide. Between the lodges was five cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. 9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house.

10 The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side. The three of them were of one measure. The posts had one measure on this side and on that side. 11 He measured the width of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; 12 and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. 13 He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubit, door against door. 14 He also made posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. 15 From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. 16 There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches. Windows were around inward. Palm trees were on each post.

17 Then he brought me into the outer court. Behold, there were rooms and a pavement made for the court all around. Thirty rooms were on the pavement. 18 The pavement was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the width from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.

20 He measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court which faces toward the north. 21 The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side. Its posts and its arches were the same as the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 22 Its windows, its arches, and its palm trees were the same as the measure of the gate which faces toward the east. They went up to it by seven steps. Its arches were before them. 23 There was a gate to the inner court facing the other gate, on the north and on the east. He measured one hundred cubits from gate to gate.

24 He led me toward the south; and behold, there was a gate toward the south. He measured its posts and its arches according to these measurements. 25 There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 26 There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them. It had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. 27 There was a gate to the inner court toward the south. He measured one hundred cubits from gate to gate toward the south.

28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. He measured the south gate according to these measurements; 29 with its lodges, its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements. There were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. 30 There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. 31 Its arches were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts. The ascent to it had eight steps.

32 He brought me into the inner court toward the east. He measured the gate according to these measurements; 33 with its lodges, its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements. There were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. 34 Its arches were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side. The ascent to it had eight steps.

35 He brought me to the north gate, and he measured it according to these measurements; 36 its lodges, its posts, and its arches. There were windows in it all around. The length was fifty cubits and the width twenty-five cubits. 37 Its posts were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side. The ascent to it had eight steps.

38 A room with its door was by the posts at the gates. They washed the ascension offering there. 39 In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, on which to kill the ascension offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering. 40 On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. 41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate: eight tables, on which they killed the slaughterings. 42 There were four tables for the ascension offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high. They laid the instruments with which they killed the ascension offering and the sacrifice on them. 43 The hooks, a hand width long, were fastened within all around. The meat of the offering was on the tables.

44 Outside of the inner gate were rooms for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate. They faced toward the south. One at the side of the east gate faced toward the north. 45 He said to me, "This room, which faces toward the south, is for the priests, the guards of the charge of the house. 46 The room which faces toward the north is for the priests, the guards of the charge of the altar. These are the sons of Tsadoq, who from among the sons of Levi come near to תְּנִתָּן to minister to Him." 47 He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits wide, square. The altar was before the house.

48 Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side. The width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it. There were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 He brought me to the Temple, and measured the posts, six cubits wide on the one side, and six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. 2 The width of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side. He measured its length, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits.

3 Then he went inward and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. 4 He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the Temple. He said to me, "This is the most set-apart place."

5 Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. 6 The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order. They entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they might be supported, and not penetrate the wall of the house. 7 The side rooms were wider on the higher levels, because the walls were narrower at the higher levels. Therefore the width of the house increased upward; and so one went up from the lowest level to the highest through the middle level.

8 I saw also that the house had a raised base all around. The foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. 9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits. That which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. 10 Between the rooms was a width of twenty cubits around the house on every side.

11 The doors of the side rooms were toward an open area that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. The width of the open area was five cubits all around.

12 The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred cubits long; 14 also the width of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits.

15 He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits from the inner Temple, and the porches of the court 16 the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), 17 to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. 18 It was made with keruvim and palm trees. A palm tree was between keruv and keruv, and every keruv had two faces; 19 so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. It was made like this through all the house all around. 20 Kerubim and palm trees were made from the ground to above the door. The wall of the Temple was like this.

21 As for the Temple, the door posts were squared. As for the face of the set-apart place, its appearance was as the appearance of the Temple. 22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, "This is the table that is before תְּבָנָה." 23 The Temple and the set-apart place had two doors. 24 The doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two for the one door, and two leaves for the other. 25 There were made on them, on the doors of the Temple, keruvim and palm trees, like those made on the walls. There was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. 26 There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch. This is how the side rooms of the house and the thresholds were arranged.

42 Then he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north. Then he brought me into the room that was opposite the separate place, and which was opposite the building toward the north. 2 Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits. 3 Opposite the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third floor. 4 Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' width inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. 5 Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building.

6 For they were in three stories, and they did not have pillars as the pillars of the courts. Therefore the uppermost was set back more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. 7 The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. Behold, before the Temple were one hundred cubits. 9 From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

10 In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. 11 The way before them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their width: and all their exits were both according to their judgments, and according to their doors. 12 According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

13 Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, are the set-apart rooms, where the priests who are near to תְּבָנָה shall eat the most set-apart things. There they shall lay the most set-apart things, with the meal offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; for the place is set-apart. 14 When the priests enter in, then they shall not go out of the set-apart place into the outer court, but they shall lay their garments in which they minister there; for they are set-apart. Then they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which is for the people."

15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the gate which faces toward the east, and measured it all around.

16 He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around.

17 He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around.

18 He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was set-apart and that which was common.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east. 2 Behold, the glory of the Elohim of Yisra'el came from the way of the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth was illuminated with His glory. 3 It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the Kevar River; and I fell on my face.

4 The glory of יהוה came into the house by the way of the gate which faces toward the east. 5 The Ruah took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of יהוה filled the house.

6 I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me.

7 He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of My throne, and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the children of Yisra'el forever. The house of Yisra'el will no more defile My set-apart Name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoring, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places;

8 in their setting of their threshold by My threshold, and their door post beside My door post.^a There was a wall between Me and them; and they have defiled My set-apart Name by their abominations which they have committed. Therefore I have consumed them in My anger. 9 Now let them put away their whoring, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from Me. Then I will dwell among them forever.

10 "You, son of man, show the house to the house of Yisra'el, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. 11 If they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its Torot; and write it in their sight; that they may guard the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them.

12 "This is the Torah of the house. On the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most set-apart. Behold, this is the Torah of the house.

13 "These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a hand width): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit, and its border around its edge a span; and this shall be the base of the altar.

14 From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the width a cubit. 15 The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. 16 The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square in its four sides. 17 The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide in its four sides; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and its bottom shall be a cubit around; and its steps shall look toward the east."

18 He said to me, "Son of man, thus says Adonai יהוה: 'These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they make it, to offer ascension offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. 19 You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the seed of Tsadoq, who are near to Me, to minister to Me,' says Adonai יהוה, 'a young bull for a sin offering. 20 You shall take of its blood, and put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. You shall cleanse it and make atonement for it that way. 21 You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside of the set-apart place.'

22 "On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. 23 When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without defect, and a ram out of the flock without defect. 24 You shall bring them near to יהוה, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for an ascension offering to יהוה.

25 "Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering. They shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without defect. 26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it. So shall they set it apart. 27 When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward,

^a In the ancient Near East, many covenants were made called "threshold covenants." In the threshold (doorframe) of a house, a person would leave an opening at the bottom which they would fill with the blood of a slaughtering. This sacrificial blood was part of the covenant made between two people, such as the owner of the house and the guest about to enter. As a person entered one of these houses, they were symbolically coming into covenant with the owner of the house. That is why the Yehudim at the time of the talmidim had placed a prohibition on entering the houses of nations, as we find in Ma'asei 10:28. Note also the lamb's blood required on the doopost during the Exodus from Mitsrayim, following Pesah in Shemot 12.

priests shall make your ascension offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings. Then I will accept you,' says Adonai יהוה."

4 Then He brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the set-apart place, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. 2 יהוה said to me, "This gate shall be shut. It shall not be opened, no man shall enter in by it; for יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, has entered in by it.

Therefore it shall be shut. 3 As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before יהוה. He shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same."

4 Then He brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of יהוה filled the house of יהוה; so I fell on my face.

5 יהוה said to me, "Son of man, set your heart, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of the house of יהוה, and all its Torot^a; and set your heart to the entrance of the house, with every exit of the set-apart place. 6 You shall tell the rebellious, even the house of Yisra'el, 'Thus says Adonai יהוה: "You house of Yisra'el, let that be enough of all your abominations, 7 in that you have brought in sons of foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My set-apart place, to profane it, even My house, when you offer My bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken My covenant, to add to all your abominations. 8 You have not guarded the charge of My set-apart things; but you have set guards of My charge in My set-apart place for yourselves." 9 Thus says Adonai יהוה, "No son of a foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into My set-apart place, of any sons of foreigners who are among the children of Yisra'el.

10 "But the Levites who went far from Me, when Yisra'el went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they will bear their iniquity. 11 Yet they shall be ministers in My set-apart place, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the House. They shall kill the ascension offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. 12 Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Yisra'el. Therefore I have lifted up My hand against them," says Adonai יהוה, "and they will bear their iniquity. 13 They shall not come near to Me, to execute the office of priest to Me, nor to come near to any of My set-apart things, to the things that are most set-apart; but they will bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. 14 Yet I will make them the guards of the charge of the house, for all its service, and for all that will be done therein.

15 "But the priests the Levites, the sons of Tsadoq, who guarded the charge of My set-apart place when the children of Yisra'el went astray from Me, shall come near to Me to minister to Me. They shall stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood," says Adonai יהוה. 16 They shall enter into My set-apart place, and they shall come near to My table, to minister to Me, and they shall guard My instruction.

17 "It will be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments. No wool shall come on them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. 18 They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and shall have linen undergarments on their loins. They shall not clothe themselves with anything that makes them sweat.

19 When they go out into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the set-apart rooms. They shall put on other garments, that they not set the people apart with their garments.

20 "They shall not shave their heads, or allow their locks to grow long. They shall only cut off the hair of their heads. 21 None of the priests shall drink wine when they enter into the inner court. 22 They shall not take for their wives a widow, or her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Yisra'el, of that seed, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. 23 They shall teach My people the difference between the set-apart and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 "In a controversy they shall stand to judge. They shall judge it according to My judgments. They shall guard My Torot and My statutes in all My appointed feasts. They shall make My Sabbaths set-apart.

25 "They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. 26 After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. 27 In the day that he goes into the set-apart place, into the inner court, to minister in the set-apart place, he shall offer his sin offering," says Adonai יהוה.

28 "They shall have an inheritance. I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Yisra'el. I am their possession. 29 They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Yisra'el shall be theirs. 30 The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of every thing, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest. You shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. 31 The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.

45 "Moreover, when you divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to תְּמִימָן, a set-apart portion of the land. The length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the width shall be ten thousand. It shall be set-apart in all its border all around. 2 Of this there shall be a five hundred by five hundred square for the set-apart place; and fifty cubits for its suburbs all around. 3 Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a width of ten thousand. In it shall be the set-apart place, which is most set-apart. 4 It is a set-apart portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the set-apart place, who come near to minister to תְּמִימָן. It shall be a place for their houses and a set-apart place for the set-apart place. 5 Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width, shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, as a possession for themselves, for twenty rooms.

6 "You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand wide, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the set-apart portion: it shall be for the whole house of Yisra'el.

7 "What is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the set-apart offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the set-apart offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. 8 In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Yisra'el. My princes shall no more oppress My people; but they shall give the land to the house of Yisra'el according to their tribes."

9 "Thus says Adonai תְּמִימָן: "Let it suffice you, princes of Yisra'el: remove violence and plunder, and execute judgment and righteousness; dispossessing My people," says Adonai תְּמִימָן. 10 You shall have just balances, a just ephah, and a just bath. 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain one tenth of an omer, and the ephah one tenth of an omer. Its measure shall be the same as the omer. 12 The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty sheqels plus twenty-five sheqels plus fifteen sheqels shall be your mina.

13 "This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from an omer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from an omer of barley; 14 and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, one tenth of a bath out of the kor, which is ten baths, even an omer; (for ten baths are an omer;) 15 and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Yisra'el—for a meal offering, and for an ascension offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them," says Adonai תְּמִימָן. 16 "All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Yisra'el. 17 It shall be the prince's part to give the ascension offerings, the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Yisra'el. He shall prepare the sin offering, the meal offering, the ascension offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Yisra'el."

18 "Thus says Adonai תְּמִימָן: "In the first new moon, in the first day of the new moon, you shall take a young bull without defect; and you shall cleanse the set-apart place. 19 The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 So you shall do on the seventh day of the new moon for everyone who errs, and for him who is naive. So you shall make atonement for the house.

21 "In the first new moon, in the fourteenth day of the new moon, you shall have the Pesah, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 On that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. 23 The seven days of the feast he shall prepare an ascension offering to תְּמִימָן, seven bulls and seven rams without defect daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. 24 He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

25 "In the seventh new moon, in the fifteenth day of the new moon, in the feast, he shall do like that for seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the ascension offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil."

46 "Thus says Adonai תְּמִימָן: "The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his ascension offering and his peace offerings, and he shall bow down at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3 The people of the land shall bow down at the door of that gate before יהוה on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. 4 The ascension offering that the prince shall offer to יהוה shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without defect and a ram without defect; 5 and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

6 "On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without defect, and six lambs, and a ram. They shall be without defect. 7 He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 8 When the prince enters, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by its way.

9 "But when the people of the land come before יהוה in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to bow down shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by the way of the north gate. He shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go out straight before him. 10 The prince shall go in with them when they go in. When they go out, he shall go out.

11 "In the feasts and in the appointed times the meal offering shall be an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 12 When the prince prepares a freewill offering, an ascension offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to יהוה, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his ascension offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out; and after his going out one shall shut the gate. 13 You shall prepare a lamb a year old without defect for an ascension offering to יהוה daily. Morning by morning you shall prepare it. 14 You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to יהוה continually by a perpetual ordinance. 15 Thus they shall prepare the lamb, the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual ascension offering."

16 "Thus says Adonai יהוה: "If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance. It shall belong to his sons. It is their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he gives of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. 18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession. He shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that My people not each be scattered from his possession."'"

19 Then He brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the set-apart rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north. Behold, there was a place on the back part westward. 20 He said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall cook the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them out into the outer court, to set the people apart."

21 Then He brought me out into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty wide. These four in the corners were the same size. 23 There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. 24 Then he said to me, "These are the cooking houses, where the ministers of the House shall cook the sacrifice of the people."

47 He brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward (for the front of the house faced toward the east); and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. 2 Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me around by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east. Behold, waters ran out on the right side.

3 When the man went out eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. 4 Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through waters that were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a wadi that I could not pass through; for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a wadi that could not be crossed. 6 He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen?" Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the mouth of the wadi. 7 Now when I had returned, behold, on the mouth of the wadi were very many trees on the one side and on the other. 8 Then he said to me, "These waters flow out toward the eastern region, and will go down into the Aravah. Then they will go toward the sea; and flow into the sea which will be made to flow out; and the waters will be healed. 9 It will happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the wadis come, will live. Then there will be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea will be healed, and everything will live wherever the wadi comes. 10 It will happen, that fishermen will stand by it. From En Gedi even to En Eglaim will be a place for the spreading of nets. Their fish will be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceedingly many. 11 But the miry places of it, and its marshes, will not be healed. They will be given up to salt. 12 By the wadi on its mouth, on this side and on that side, will grow every tree for food, whose leaf will not wither, neither will its fruit fail. It will produce new fruit every new moon, because its waters issue out of the set-apart place. Its fruit will be for food, and its leaf for healing."

13 Thus says Adonai יְהֹוָה: "This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Yisra'el. Yoseph shall have two portions. 14 You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers. This land will fall to you for inheritance.

15 "This shall be the border of the land: "On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Tsedad; 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Dammeseq and the border of Hamath; Hatser Hattikon, which is by the border of Havran. 17 The border from the sea, shall be Hatsar Enon at the border of Dammeseq; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side. 18 The east side, between Havran and Dammeseq and Gilad, and the land of Yisra'el, shall be the Yarden; from the north border to the east sea you shall measure. This is the east side. 19 The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Merivoth Qadesh, to the wadi, to the great sea. This is the south side southward. 20 The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.

21 "So you shall divide this land to yourselves according to the tribes of Yisra'el. 22 It will happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the sojourners who live among you, who will father children among you. Then they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Yisra'el. They shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Yisra'el. 23 It shall happen, that in whatever tribe the sojourner lives, there you shall give him his inheritance," says Adonai יְהֹוָה.

48 "Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hatsar Enan at the border of Dammeseq, northward beside Hamath, (and they shall have their sides east and west), Dan, one portion.

9 "The offering that you shall offer to יְהֹוָה shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in width. 10 For these, even for the priests, shall be the set-apart offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in width, and toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the set-apart place of יְהֹוָה shall be in the middle of it.

11 It shall be for the priests who are set apart of the sons of Tsadoq, who have guarded My instruction, who did not go astray when the children of Yisra'el went astray, as the Levites went astray. 12 It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a most set-apart thing, by the border of the Levites. 13 Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width. All the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand. 14 They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is set-apart to יְהֹוָה. 15 The five thousand that are left in the width, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the middle of it.

16 "These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. 17 The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. 18 The remainder in the length, alongside the set-apart offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be alongside the set-apart offering. Its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city.

19 Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Yisra'el, shall cultivate it. 20 All the offering shall be a square of twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand. You shall offer it as a set-apart offering, with the possession of the city. 21 The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the set-apart offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, alongside the portions, it shall be for the prince. The set-apart offering and the set-apart place of the house shall be in the middle of it.

22 "Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the middle of that which is the prince's, between the border of Yehudah and the border of Benyamin, shall be for the prince.

23 "As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benyamin, one portion. 24 "By the border of Benyamin, from the east side to the west side, Shimon, one portion. 25 "By the border of Shimon, from the east side to the west side, Yissakhar, one portion. 26 "By the border of Yissakhar, from the east side to the west side, Zevulun, one portion. 27 "By the border of Zevulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion. 28 "By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Merivath Qadesh, to the wadi, to the great sea. 29 "This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Yisra'el for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says Adonai יְהוָה. 30 "These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; 31 and the gates of the city shall be named after the tribes of Yisra'el, three gates northward: the gate of Reuven, one; the gate of Yehudah, one; the gate of Levi, one. 32 "At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Yoseph, one; the gate of Benyamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. 33 "At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Shimon, one; the gate of Yissakhar, one; the gate of Zevulun, one. 34 "At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. 35 "It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, 'Yerushalayim' is there."

Hoshea (Hosea)

1 The word of יהוה that came to Hoshea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziyah, Yotham, Ahaz, and Hizqiyah, kings of Yehudah, and in the days of Yarovam the son of Yoash, king of Yisra'el. 2 When יהוה spoke at first by Hoshea, said to Hoshea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of whoring and children of whoring; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking יהוה."

3 So he went and took Gomer^a the daughter of Divlaim^b; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

4 יְהוָה said to him, "Call his name Yizre'el; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Yizre'el on the house of Yehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Yisra'el to cease. 5 It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Yisra'el in the valley of Yizre'el."

6 She conceived again, and brought a daughter. Then He said to him, "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah"; for I will no longer have compassion on the house of Yisra'el, that I should take them away. 7 But I will have compassion on the house of Yehudah, and will save them by יְדֵיהֶם their Elohim, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhmah, she conceived, and brought forth a son.

9 He said, "Call his name Lo-Ammid^d; for you are not My people, and I will not be yours. 10 Yet the number of the children of Yisra'el will be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' they will be called 'sons of the living El.' 11 The children of Yehudah and the children of Yisra'el will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Yizre'el.

2 "Say to your brothers, 'My people!'^e and to your sisters, 'My loved one!'^f 2 Contend with your mother! Contend, for she is not My wife, neither am I her husband; and let her put away her whoring from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; 3 Lest I strip her naked, and make her bare as in the day that she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and kill her with thirst. 4 Indeed, on her children I will have no compassion; they are children of whoring, 5 for their mother has whored. She who conceived them has done shamefully; for she said, 'I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

6 Therefore behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she cannot find her way. 7 She will follow after her lovers, but she will not overtake them; and she will seek them, but will not find them. Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.'

8 For she did not know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Ba'al. 9 Therefore I will take back My grain in its time, and My new wine in its season, and will pluck away My wool and My flax which should have covered her nakedness. 10 Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her out of My hand. 11 I will also cause all her celebrations to cease: her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.

12 I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, about which she has said, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forest,' and the animals of the field shall eat them. 13 I will visit on her the days of the Ba'als, to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and forgot Me," says יהוה.

14 "Therefore behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak to her from My heart. 15 I will give her vineyards from there, and the valley of Akor for a door of hope; and she will respond there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Mitsrayim. 16 It will be in that day," says הָיָה, "that you will call Me 'my husband,' and no longer call Me 'my owner.' 17 For I will take away the names of the Ba'als out of her mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name.

^b 3 דבלים (Divlaim) means "two cakes." Possibly Yisra'el and Yehudah.

^c 6 לא רחמה (Lo-Ruhmah) – Hebrew phrase meaning "without compassion."

^d 9 לֹא עַמִּי (Lo-Ammi) – Hebrew phrase meaning "not my people."

^e 1 The phrase in Hebrew for "My people" is עמי (Ammi).

^f 1 The phrase in Hebrew here translated as "My loved one" is also rendered as "My one on whom I will have compassion." The word used here is רחמה (Ruhamah).

18 In that day I will cut a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land, and will make them lie down securely. 19 I will betroth you to Me forever. Yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness, in judgment, in loving-kindness, and in compassion. 20 I will even betroth you to Me in faithfulness; and you shall know יהוה. 21 It will happen in that day, I will respond," says יהוה, "I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth; 22 and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they will respond to Yizre'el. 23 I will sow her to Me in the earth; and I will have compassion on her who had not obtained compassion; and I will tell those who were not My people, 'You are My people;' and they will say, 'My Elohim!'"

3 יהוה said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as יהוה loves the children of Yisra'el, though they turn to other elohim, and love cakes of raisins."

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and an omer and a half of barley. 3 I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not whore, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you."

4 For the children of Yisra'el shall reside many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred pillar, and without ephod or teraphim^a. 5 Afterward the children of Yisra'el shall return, and seek יהוה their Elohim, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to יהוה and to His blessings in the last days.

4 Hear the word of יהוה, you children of Yisra'el; for יהוה has a charge against the inhabitants of the land: "Indeed there is no truth, nor loving-kindness, nor knowledge of Elohim in the land. 2 There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed. 3 Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells therein will wither. All living things in her, even the animals of the field and the birds of the heavens; yes, the fish of the sea also die.

4 "Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest. 5 You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother. 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priest to Me. Because you have forgotten the Torah of your Elohim, I will also forget your children. 7 As they were multiplied, so they sinned against Me. I will change their glory into shame. 8 They feed on the sin of My people, and set their being on their iniquity. 9 It will be, like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them for their deeds. 10 They will eat, and not have enough. They will whore, and will not increase; because they have stopped guarding יהוה. 11 Whoring, wine, and new wine take away heart. 12 My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood. Indeed the spirit of whoring has led them astray, and they have been whoring from under their Elohim.

13 They slaughter on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good. Therefore your daughters whore, and your brides commit adultery. 14 I will not punish your daughters when they whore, nor your brides when they commit adultery; because the men consort with whores, and they slaughter with the shrine whores; so the people without understanding will come to ruin.

15 "Though you, Yisra'el, whore, yet do not let Yehudah offend; and do not come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven, nor swear, 'As יהוה lives.' 16 For Yisra'el has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer; then how will יהוה feed them like a lamb in a meadow?

17 Ephrayim is joined to idols. Leave him alone! 18 Their drink has become sour. They whore continually. Her rulers dearly love their shameful way. 19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings; and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.

5 "Listen to this, you priests! Listen, house of Yisra'el, and give ear, house of the king! For the judgment is against you; for you have been a snare at Mitspah, and a net spread on Tavor. 2 The rebels are deep in slaughter; but I give correction to all of them. 3 I know Ephrayim, and Yisra'el is not hidden from Me; for now, Ephrayim, you have whored. Yisra'el is defiled. 4 Their deeds will not allow them to turn to their Elohim; for the spirit of whoring is within them, and they do not know יהוה.

5 The pride of Yisra'el testifies to his face. Therefore Yisra'el and Ephrayim will stumble in their iniquity. Yehudah also will stumble with them. 6 They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek יהוה; but they will not find Him. He has withdrawn Himself from them. 7 They deal deceitfully to יִשְׂרָאֵל; for they have borne strange children. Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.

8 "Blow the shofar in Givah, and the trumpet in Ramah! Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benyamin! 9 Ephrayim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Yisra'el, I have made known that which is firm. 10 The princes of Yehudah are like those who remove a landmark. I will pour out My wrath on them like water. 11 Ephrayim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols. 12 Therefore I am to Ephrayim like a moth, and to the house of Yehudah like rottenness.

13 "When Ephrayim saw his sickness, and Yehudah his wound, then Ephrayim went to Ashuwr, and sent to King Yarev: but he is not able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound. 14 For I will be to Ephrayim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Yehudah. I Myself will tear in pieces and go away. I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver. 15 I will go and return to My place, until they acknowledge their offense, and seek My face. In their affliction they will seek Me earnestly."

6 "Come, and let us return to יִשְׂרָאֵל; for He has torn us to pieces, and He will heal us; He has injured us, and He will bind up our wounds. 2 After two days He will revive us. On the third day He will raise us up, and we will live before Him. 3 Let us acknowledge יְהוָה. Let us press on to know יְהוָה. As surely as the sun rises, יְהוָה will appear. He will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the earth."

4 "Ephrayim, what shall I do to you? Yehudah, what shall I do to you? For your love is like a morning cloud, and like the dew that disappears early. 5 Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets; I killed them with the speeches of My mouth. Your judgments are like a flash of lightning. 6 For I desire loving-kindness, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of Elohim more than ascension offerings. 7 But they, like Adam, have broken the covenant. They were deceitful to Me there. 8 Gilad is a city of those who work vain exertion; it is stained with blood. 9 As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man, so the company of priests murder on the path toward Shekhem, committing lewdness. 10 In the house of Yisra'el I have seen a horrible thing. There is whoring in Ephrayim. Yisra'el is defiled.

11 "Also, Yehudah, there is a harvest appointed for you, when I restore the fortunes of My people."

7 "When I would heal Yisra'el, then the iniquity of Ephrayim is uncovered, also the wickedness of Shom'ron; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the gang of robbers ravages outside. 2 They do not consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness. Now their own deeds have engulfed them. They are before My face. 3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. 4 They are all adulterers. They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring, from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened. 5 On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine. He joined his hand with mockers.

6 "For they have prepared their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps all the night. In the morning it burns as a flaming fire. 7 They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges. All their kings have fallen. There is no one among them who calls to me.

8 "Ephrayim, he mixes himself among the nations. Ephrayim is a cake not turned over. 9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he does not realize it. Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him, and he does not realize it. 10 The pride of Yisra'el testifies to his face; yet they have not returned to יִשְׂרָאֵל their Elohim, nor sought Him, for all this.

11 "Ephrayim is like an easily deceived dove, without heart. They call to Mitsrayim. They go to Ashuwr. 12 When they go, I will spread My net on them. I will bring them down like the birds of the heavens. I will discipline them, as their congregation has heard. 13 Woe to them! For they have wandered from Me. Destruction to them! For they have trespassed against Me. Though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against Me.

14 "They have not cried to Me with their heart, but they howl on their beds. They assemble themselves for grain and new wine. They turn away from Me. 15 Though I have disciplined and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against Me. 16 They return, but not to The Most High. They are like a faulty bow. Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Mitsrayim."

8 "Put the shofar to your lips! Something like an eagle is over the house of יִשְׂרָאֵל, because they have broken My covenant, and rebelled against My Torah. 2 They cry to Me, 'My Elohim, we, Yisra'el, acknowledge You!' 3 Yisra'el has cast off that which is good. The enemy will pursue him. 4 They have set up kings, but not by Me. They have made princes, and I did not approve. Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols, that they may be cut off. 5 Let Shom'ron throw out his calf idol! My anger burns against them! How long will it be until they are capable of purity? 6 For this is even from Yisra'el! The workman made it, and it is not Elohim; indeed, the calf of Shom'ron shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind. He has no standing grain. The stalk will yield no head. If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up. 8 Yisra'el is swallowed up. Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing. 9 For they have gone up to Ashuwr, like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephrayim has hired lovers for himself.

10 But although they sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them; and they begin to waste away because of the burden of the king's princes.

11 Because Ephrayim has multiplied altars for sinning, they became for him altars for sinning. 12 I wrote for him the many things of My Torah; but they were regarded as a strange thing. 13 As for the sacrifices of My offerings, they slaughter meat and eat it, but יהוָה does not accept them. Now He will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins. They will return to Mitsrayim. 14 For Yisra'el has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; and Yehudah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire on his cities, and it will devour its fortresses."

9 Do not rejoice exceedingly, Yisra'el, like the nations; for you went whoring from your Elohim. You love the wages of a whore at every grain threshing floor. 2 The threshing floor and the wine press will not feed them, and the new wine will fail her. 3 They will not dwell in the land of יהוָה; but Ephrayim will return to Mitsrayim, and they will eat unclean things in Ashuwr.

4 They will not pour out wine offerings to יהוָה, neither will they be pleasing to him. Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners; all who eat of it will be polluted; for their bread will be for their appetite. It will not come into the House of יהוָה.

5 What will you do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the Feast of יהוָה? 6 For, behold, they have gone away from destruction. Mitsrayim will gather them up. Noph will bury them. Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver. Thorns will be in their tents. 7 The days of visitation have come. The days of reckoning have come. Yisra'el will consider the prophet to be a fool, and the man who is inspired to be insane, because of the abundance of your sins, and because your hostility is great.

8 A prophet watches over Ephrayim with my Elohim. A Fowler's snare is on all of his paths, and hostility in the house of his Elohim. 9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Givah. He will remember their iniquity. He will punish them for their sins.

10 I found Yisra'el like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers as the first ripe fig in the fig tree at its first season; but they came to Ba'al Peor, and set themselves apart to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved.

11 "As for Ephrayim, their glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no birth, nothing in the womb, and no conception. 12 Though they bring up their children, yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left. Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from them!"

13 I have seen Ephrayim, like Tsor, planted in a pleasant place; but Ephrayim will bring out his children to the murderer. 14 Give them—תְּלִינָה, what will You give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 "All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of My House! I will love them no more. All their princes are rebels. 16 Ephrayim is struck. Their root has dried up. They will bear no fruit. Even though they give birth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb."

17 My Elohim will cast them away, because they did not listen to Him; and they will be wanderers among the nations.

10 Yisra'el is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit. According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars. As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones. 2 Their heart is divided. Now they will be found guilty. He will demolish their altars. He will destroy their sacred stones.

3 Surely now they will say, "We have no king: for we do not fear יהוָה; and the king, what can he do for us?"

4 They make promises, swearing falsely in cutting covenants. Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field. 5 The inhabitants of Shom'ron will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven; for its people will mourn over it, along with its idol-priests who rejoiced over it, for its glory, because it has departed from it.

6 It also will be carried to Ashuwr for a present to a great king. Ephrayim will receive shame, and Yisra'el will be ashamed of his own counsel. 7 Shom'ron and her king float away, like a twig on the water. 8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Yisra'el, will be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars. They will tell the mountains, "Cover us!" and the hills, "Fall on us!"^a 9 "Yisra'el, you have sinned from the days of Givah. There they remained. The battle against the children of iniquity does not overtake them in Givah. 10 When it is My desire, I will discipline them; and the nations will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions. 11 Ephrayim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck. I will set a rider on Ephrayim. Yehudah will plow. Ya'aqov will break his clods. 12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to loving-kindness. Break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek יהוה, until He comes and rains righteousness on you. 13 You have plowed wickedness. You have reaped unrighteousness. You have eaten the fruit of lies, for you relied on your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. 14 Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth Arveil in the day of battle. The mother was dashed in pieces with her children. 15 So Beth-El will do to you because of your great wickedness. At daybreak the king of Yisra'el will be destroyed."

11 "When Yisra'el was a child, then I loved him, and called My son out of Mitsrayim. 2 They called to them, so they went from them. They slaughtered to the Ba'al's, and burned incense to engraved images. 3 Yet I taught Ephrayim to walk. I took them by his arms; but they did not know that I healed them. 4 I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love; and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks; and I bent down to him and I fed him.

5 "They will not return into the land of Mitsrayim; but the Ashuwrite will be their king, because they refused to repent. 6 The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates, and will put an end to their plans. 7 My people are determined to turn from Me. Though they call to The Most High, He certainly will not exalt them.

8 "How can I give you up, Ephrayim? How can I hand you over, Yisra'el? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Tsevoym? My heart is turned within Me, My compassion is aroused. 9 I will not execute the fierceness of My anger. I will not return to destroy Ephrayim: for I am El, and not man; the Set-apart One among you; and I will not come in wrath. 10 They will walk after יהוה, who will roar like a lion; for He will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west. 11 They will come trembling like a bird out of Mitsrayim, and like a dove out of the land of Ashuwr; and I will settle them in their houses," says יהוה.

12 Ephrayim surrounds Me with falsehood, and the house of Yisra'el with deceit. Yehudah still wanders with El, and with the set-apart ones is faithful.

12 Ephrayim feeds on wind, and chases the east wind. He continually multiplies lies and desolation. They cut a covenant with Ashuwr, and oil is carried into Mitsrayim. 2 יהוה also has a controversy with Yehudah, and will punish Ya'aqov according to his ways; according to his deeds He will repay him.

3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his manhood he contended with Elohim. 4 Indeed, he struggled with the messenger, and prevailed; he wept, and made petition to Him. He found Him at Beth-El, and there He spoke with us, 5 even יהוה, Elohim Tsevaot; יהוה is His Name of renown!

6 Therefore turn to your Elohim. Guard loving-kindness and judgment, and wait continually for your Elohim.

7 A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand. He loves to defraud. 8 Ephrayim said, "Surely I have become rich, I have found myself wealth. In all my wealth they will not find in me any iniquity that is sin."

9 "But I am יהוה your Elohim from the land of Mitsrayim. I will yet again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. 10 I have also spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables. 11 If Gilad is working vain exertion, surely they are worthless. In Gilgal they slaughter bulls. Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.

12 Ya'aqov fled into the country of Aram, and Yisra'el served for a wife, and for a wife he guarded sheep.

13 By a prophet יהוה brought Yisra'el up out of Mitsrayim, and by a prophet he was guarded.

14 Ephrayim has bitterly provoked anger. Therefore his blood will be left on him, and Adonai will repay his contempt.

13 "When Ephrayim spoke, there was trembling. He exalted himself in Yisra'el, but when he became guilty in Ba'al, he died. 2 Now they sin more and more, and have made themselves molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, 'They offer human slaughtering and kiss the calves.'

3 "Therefore they will be like the morning mist, and like the dew that passes away early, like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney.

4 "Yet I am יְהוָה^a your Elohim from the land of Mitsrayim; and you shall acknowledge no el but Me, and besides Me there is no savior. 5 I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. 6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted. Therefore they have forgotten Me. 7 Therefore I am like a lion to them. Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path. 8 I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs, and will tear the covering of their heart. There I will devour them like a lioness. The wild animal will tear them."

9 "You are destroyed, Yisra'el, because you are against Me, against your help. 10 Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities? And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes?' 11 I have given you a king in My anger, and have taken him away in My wrath. 12 The guilt of Ephrayim is stored up. His sin is stored up. 13 The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him. He is an unwise son; for when it is time, he does not come to the opening of the womb.

14 "I will ransom them from the power of Sheol. I will redeem them from death! Death, where are your plagues? Sheol, where is your destruction? Compassion will be hidden from My eyes. 15 Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come, the breath^a of נֶבֶל^b coming up from the wilderness; and his spring will become dry, and his fountain will be dried up. He will plunder the storehouse of treasure. 16 Shom'ron will bear her guilt; for she has rebelled against her Elohim. They will fall by the sword. Their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open."

14 Yisra'el, return to נֶבֶל^b your Elohim; for you have fallen because of your sin. 2 Take words with you, and return to נֶבֶל^b. Tell Him, "Forgive all our sins, and accept that which is good: so we offer the bulls of our lips.^b 3 Ashuwr cannot save us. We will not ride on horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our elohim!' for in You the fatherless finds compassion."

4 "I will heal their waywardness. I will love them freely; for My anger is turned away from him. 5 I will be like the dew to Yisra'el. He will blossom like the lily, and send down his roots like Levanon. 6 His branches will spread, and his beauty will be like the olive tree, and his fragrance like Levanon. 7 Men will dwell in his shade.

They will revive like the grain, and blossom like the vine. Their fragrance will be like the wine of Levanon. 8 Ephrayim, what have I to do any more with idols? I answer, and will take care of him. I am like a green cypress tree; from Me your fruit is found."

9 Who is wise, that he may understand these things? Who is prudent, that he may know them? For the ways of נֶבֶל^b are right, and the righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them.

^a 15 Hebrew word translated as "breath" here is רוח (ruach).

^b 2 The phrase כָּרִים שְׁפָתֵינוּ (par'iyim shepa'teini), "bulls of our lips" is believed to imply offerings of praise lifted through prayer.

Yo'el (Joel)

1 The word of יהוה that came to Yo'el, the son of Pethu'el.

2 Hear this, you elders, and listen, all you inhabitants of the land. Has this ever happened in your days, or in the days of your fathers? 3 Tell your children about it, and have your children tell their children, and their children, another generation. 4 What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten. What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten. What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten. 5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number. His teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the fangs of a lioness. 7 He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree. He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away. Its branches are made white. 8 Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth! 9 The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of יהוה. The priests, the ministers of יהוה, mourn.

10 The field is laid waste. The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed, the new wine has dried up, and the oil languishes. 11 Be confounded, you farmers! Wail, you vineyard keepers; for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field has perished. 12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all of the trees of the field are dried up; for joy has dried up from the sons of man.

13 Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests! Wail, you ministers of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my Elohim, for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from the house of your Elohim. 14 Set apart a fast. Call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of יהוה, your Elohim, 3 and cry to יהוה.

15 Alas for the day! For the day of יהוה is at hand, and it will come as destruction from the Almighty.

16 Is the food not cut off before our eyes; joy and gladness from the house of our Elohim? 17 The seeds rot under their clods. The granaries are laid desolate. The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.

18 How the animals groan! The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 יְהֹוָה, I cry to You, for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. 20 Yes, the animals of the field pant to You, for the water brooks have dried up, and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 "Blow the shofar in Tsion, and sound an alarm in My set-apart mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of יהוה comes, for it is close at hand.^a 2 A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn spreading on the mountains, a great and strong people; there has never been the like, neither will there be any more after them, even to the years of many generations."^b

3 A fire devours before them, and behind them, a flame burns. The land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them, a desolate wilderness. Yes, and no one has escaped them. 4 Their appearance is as the appearance of horses, and as horsemen, so do they run. 5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 At their presence the peoples are in anguish. All faces have grown pale. 7 They run like mighty men. They climb the wall like warriors. They each march in his line, and they do not swerve off course. 8 Neither does one jostle another; they march everyone in his path, and they burst through the defenses, and do not break ranks. 9 They rush on the city. They run on the wall. They climb up into the houses. They enter in at the windows like thieves. 10 The earth quakes before them. The heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

11 יְהֹוָה thunders His voice before His army; for His forces are very great; for he is strong who obeys His command; for the day of יהוה is great and very awesome, and who can endure it?^c

12 "Yet even now," says יהוה, "turn to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning."

13 Tear your heart, and not your garments, and turn to יהוה, your Elohim; for He is kind and compassionate, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and relents from sending calamity. 14 Who knows? He may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind Him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to יְהוָה your Elohim.

15 Blow the shofar in Tsion! Set apart a fast. Call a solemn assembly. 16 Gather the people. Set the assembly apart. Assemble the elders. Gather the children, and those who nurse from breasts. Let the bridegroom go out of his room, and the bride out of her room. 17 Let the priests, the ministers of יְהוָה, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, "Spare Your people, יְהוָה, and do not give Your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their Elohim?'"

18 Then יְהוָה was jealous for His land, and had pity on His people. 19 יְהוָה answered His people, "Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied with them; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations. 20 But I will remove the northern army far away from you, and will drive it into a barren and desolate land, its front into the eastern sea, and its back into the western sea; and its stench will come up, and its bad smell will rise." Surely He has done great things.

21 Land, do not be afraid. Be glad and rejoice, for יְהוָה has done great things. 22 Do not be afraid, you animals of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness spring up, for the tree bears its fruit. The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.

23 "Be glad then, you children of Tsion, and rejoice in יְהוָה, your Elohim; for He gives you the former rain in just measure, and He causes the rain to come down for you, the former rain and the latter rain, as before. 24 The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil. 25 I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the great locust, the grasshopper, and the caterpillar, My great army, which I sent among you. 26 You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, and will praise the Name of יְהוָה, your Elohim, who has dealt wondrously with you; and My people will never again be disappointed.

27 You will know that I am among Yisra'el, and that I am יְהוָה, your Elohim, and there is no one else; and My people will never again be disappointed.^a

28 "It will happen afterward, that I will pour out My Ruah on all flesh; and your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions.^b 29 And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days, I will pour out My Ruah. 30 I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of יְהוָה comes.

32 It will happen that whoever will call on the Name of יְהוָה shall be saved; for in Mount Tsion and in Yerushalayim there will be those who escape, as יְהוָה has said, and among the remnant, those whom יְהוָה calls."^c

3 "For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I restore the fortunes of Yehudah and Yerushalayim, 2 I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the Valley of Yehoshaphat^d; and I will execute judgment on them there for My people, and for My heritage, Yisra'el, whom they have scattered among the nations. They have divided My land, 3 and have cast lots for My people, and have given a boy for a whore, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

4 "Yes, and what are you to Me, Tsor, and Tsidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Will you repay Me? And if you repay Me, I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head. 5 Because you have taken My silver and My gold, and have carried My finest treasures into your temples, 6 and have sold the children of Yehudah and the children of Yerushalayim to the sons of Yavan, that you may remove them far from their border. 7 Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them, and will return your repayment on your own head; 8 and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Yehudah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheva, to a faraway nation, for יְהוָה has spoken it."

9 Proclaim this among the nations: "Prepare for war! Stir up the mighty men. Let all the warriors draw near. Let them come up. 10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weak say, 'I am strong.'^e 11 Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves together." Cause your mighty ones to come down there, יְהוָה.

12 "Let the nations arouse themselves, and come up to the Valley of Yehoshaphat; for there will I sit to judge all the surrounding nations. 13 Put in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe. Come, tread, for the wine press is full, the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great."

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of יְהוָה יְמִינֵינוּ is near, in the valley of decision. 15 The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. 16 הַמֶּלֶךְ will roar from Tsion, and thunder from Yerushalayim; and the heavens and the earth will shake; but יְהוָה יְמִינֵינוּ will be a refuge to His people, and a stronghold to the children of Yisra'el.^a

17 "So you will know that I am הַמֶּלֶךְ, your Elohim, dwelling in Tsion, My set-apart mountain. Then Yerushalayim will be set-apart, and no strangers will pass through her any more. 18 It will happen in that day, that the mountains will drip sweet wine, the hills will flow with milk, all the channels of Yehudah will flow with waters, and a fountain will flow out from the house of הַמֶּלֶךְ, and will water the wadi of Shittim.^b 19 Mitsrayim will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Yehudah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. 20 But Yehudah will be inhabited forever, and Yerushalayim from generation to generation. 21 I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed: for הַמֶּלֶךְ dwells in Tsion."

Amos

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen^a of Teqoa, which he saw concerning Yisra'el in the days of Uzziyah king of Yehudah, and in the days of Yarovam the son of Yoash king of Yisra'el, two years before the earthquake. 2 He said: "יְהוָה will roar from Tsion, and utter His voice from Yerushalayim; and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn, and the top of Karmel will wither."

3 יְהוָה says: "For three transgressions of Dammeseq, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have threshed [the pregnant women of]^b Gilad with threshing instruments of iron; 4 but I will send a fire into the house of Haza'el, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad. 5 I will break the bar of Dammeseq, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden; and the people of Aram shall go into captivity to Qir," says יְהוָה.

6 יְהוָה says: "For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they carried away captive the whole community, to deliver them up to Edom; 7 but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour its palaces. 8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashqelon; and I will turn My hand against Eqron; and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says Adonai יְהוָה.

9 יְהוָה says: "For three transgressions of Tsor, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they delivered up the whole community to Edom, and did not remember the brotherly covenant; 10 but I will send a fire on the wall of Tsor, and it will devour its palaces."

11 נְהַרְתָּם says: "For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pity, and his anger raged continually, and he guarded his wrath forever; 12 but I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Botsrah."

13 נְהַרְתָּם says: "For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilad, that they may enlarge their border. 14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, with shouting in the day of battle, with a storm in the day of the whirlwind; 15 and their king will go into captivity, he and his princes together," says יְהוָה.

2 יְהוָה says: "For three transgressions of Moav, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime; 2 but I will send a fire on Moav, and it will devour the palaces of Qerioth; and Moav will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the voice of the shofar; 3 and I will cut off the judge from among them, and will kill all its princes with him," says יְהוָה.

4 יְהוָה says: "For three transgressions of Yehudah, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have rejected the Torah of נְהַרְתָּם, and have not guarded His statutes, and their lies have led them astray, after which their fathers walked; 5 But I will send a fire on Yehudah, and it will devour the palaces of Yerushalayim."

6 יְהוָה says: "For three transgressions of Yisra'el, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes. 7 They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and deny justice to the oppressed; and a man and his father go in to the same maiden, to profane My set-apart Name. 8 They lay themselves down beside every altar, on clothes taken in pledge; and in the house of their Elohim they drink the wine of those who have been fined. 9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. 10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Mitsrayim, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. 11 I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for separated ones. Is this not true, you children of Yisra'el?" says יְהוָה.

12 "But you gave the separated ones wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Do not prophesy!' 13 Behold, I will crush you in your place, as a cart crushes that is full of grain. 14 Flight will perish from the swift; and the strong will not strengthen his force; neither shall the mighty deliver himself; 15 neither shall he stand who handles the bow; and he who is swift of foot will not escape; neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself; 16 and he who's heart is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that day," says יְהוָה.

^a 1 Hebrew word rendered as "herdsman" here is not the common word. Rather, it is a rare Hebrew word, נֶגֶד (noqed). This is likely related to the Ugaritic word nqd (neqed),

3 Hear this word that יְהוָה has spoken against you, children of Yisra'el, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Mitsrayim, saying: 2 "I have only chosen you of all the families of the earth. Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins."

3 Do two walk together, unless they be appointed? 4 Will a lion roar in the thicket, when he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing? 5 Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth, where no snare is set for him? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when there is nothing to catch? 6 Does the shofar alarm sound in a city, without the people being afraid? Does evil happen to a city, and does יְהוָה has not done it? 7 Surely Adonai יְהוָה will do nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. 8 The lion has roared. Who will not fear? Adonai יְהוָה has spoken. Who can but prophesy? 9 Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Mitsrayim, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Shom'ron, and see what unrest is in her, and what oppression is among them."

10 "Indeed they do not know to do right," says יְהוָה, "Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces."

11 Therefore thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "An adversary will overrun the land; and he will pull down your strongholds, and your fortresses will be plundered." 12 יְהוָה says: "As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Yisra'el be rescued who sit in Shom'ron on the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed."

13 "Listen, and testify against the house of Ya'aqov," says Adonai יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot.

14 "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Yisra'el on him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-El; and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground. 15 I will strike the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end," says יְהוָה.

4 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Shom'ron, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, "Bring us drinks!"

2 Adonai יְהוָה has sworn by His set-apartness that behold, "The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks, and the last of you with fish hooks. 3 You will go out at the breaks in the wall, everyone straight before her; and you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says יְהוָה.

4 "Go to Beth-El, and sin; to Gilgal, and sin more. Bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days, 5 and offer up in smoke thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill offerings and brag about them: for this pleases you, you children of Yisra'el," says Adonai יְהוָה.

6 "I also have given you cleanness of teeth^a in all your cities, and lack of bread in every town; yet you have not returned to Me," says יְהוָה.

7 "I also have withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three new moons to the harvest; and I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city. One place was rained on, and the place where it did not rain withered. 8 So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet you have not returned to Me," says יְהוָה. 9 "I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards; and the swarming locust has devoured your fig trees and your olive trees: yet you have not returned to Me," says יְהוָה.

10 "I sent plagues among you like I did Mitsrayim. I have slain your young men with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp, yet you have not returned to Me," says יְהוָה.

11 "I have overthrown some of you, as when Elohim overthrew Sedom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire; yet you have not returned to Me," says יְהוָה. 12 "Therefore thus will I do to you, Yisra'el; because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your Elohim, Yisra'el. 13 For, behold, He who forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares to man what His thought it; who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth: יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot, is His Name."

5 Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Yisra'el.

2 "The virgin of Yisra'el has fallen, she shall rise no more. She is cast down on her land; there is no one to raise her up."

3 For thus says Adonai יְהוָה: "The city that went out with a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went out with one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Yisra'el."

4 For יְהוָה says to the house of Yisra'el: "Seek Me, and you will live; 5 but do not seek Beth-El, nor enter into Gilgal, and do not pass to Beersheva: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-El shall come to nothing. 6 Seek יְהוָה, and you will live; lest He break out like fire in the house of Yoseph, and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Beth-El. 7 You who turn judgment to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth: 8 seek Him who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the morning, and makes the day dark with night; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, 9 יְהוָה is His Name, 9 who brings sudden destruction on the strong, so that destruction comes on the fortress. 10 They hate Him who reproves in the gate, and they abhor Him who speaks blamelessly.

11 Therefore, because you trample on the poor, and take taxes from him of wheat: You have built houses of cut stone, but you will not dwell in them. You have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine. 12 For I know how many your offenses, and how great are your sins— you who afflict the just, who take a bribe, and who turn aside the needy in the courts.

13 Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time, for it is an evil time. 14 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and so יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot, will be with you, as you say. 15 Hate evil, love good, and establish judgment in the gates. It may be that יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot, will favor the remnant of Yoseph."

16 Therefore Adonai יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot says: "Wailing will be in all the wide ways; and they will say in all the streets, 'Alas! Alas!' and they will call the farmer to mourning, and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing. 17 In all vineyards there will be wailing; for I will pass through the middle of you," says יְהוָה.

18 "Woe to you who desire the day of יְהוָה! Why do you long for the day of יְהוָה? It is darkness, and not light. 19 As if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or he went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a nahash bit him. 20 Will the day of יְהוָה not be darkness, and not light? Even very dark, and no brightness in it? 21 I hate, I despise your feasts, and I cannot stand your solemn assemblies. 22 Yes, though you offer Me your ascension offerings and meal offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals. 23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs! I will not listen to the music of your harps. 24 But let judgment roll on like rivers, and righteousness like a mighty wadi.

25 "Did you bring to Me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Yisra'el? 26 You also carried the booth of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your el, which you made for yourselves.^a 27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Dammeseq," says יְהוָה, whose Name is Elohim Tsevaot.

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Tsion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Shom'ron, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Yisra'el come! 2 Go to Kalneh, and see; and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than these kingdoms? Or is their border greater than your border? 3 Those who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near; 4 Who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch themselves on their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the middle of the stall; 5 who strum on the strings of a harp; who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David; 6 who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the best oils; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Yoseph.

7 Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive; and the feasting and lounging will end.

8 Adonai יְהוָה has sworn by His being," says יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot: "I abhor the pride of Ya'aqov, and detest his fortresses. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it. 9 It will happen, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 "When a man's relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?" And he says, 'No;' then he will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention the Name of יהוה.'

11 "For, behold, יהוה commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits. 12 Do horses run on the rocky crags? Does one plow there with oxen? But you have turned judgment into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness; 13 you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, 'Have we not taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?' 14 For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Yisra'el," says יהוה, Elohim Tsevaot; "and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the wadi of the desert."

7 Thus Adonai יהוה showed me: and behold, He formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the king's harvest. 2 When they finished eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Adonai יהוה, forgive, I beg you! How could Ya'aqov stand? For he is small."

3 יהוה relented concerning this. "It shall not be," says יהוה.

4 Thus Adonai יהוה showed me and behold, Adonai יהוה called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. 5 Then I said, "Adonai יהוה, stop, I beg you! How could Ya'aqov stand? For he is small."

6 יהוה relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says Adonai יהוה.

7 Thus He showed me and behold, יהוה stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. 8 יהוה said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then יהוה said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the middle of My people Yisra'el. I will not again pass by them anymore. 9 The high places of Yitshaq will be desolate, the set-apart places of Yisra'el will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Yarovam with the sword."

10 Then Amatsyah the priest of Beth-El sent to Yarovam king of Yisra'el, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Yisra'el. The land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For Amos says, 'Yarovam will die by the sword, and Yisra'el shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

12 Amatsyah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Yehudah, and there eat bread, and prophecy there: 13 but do not prophesy again any more at Beth-El; for it is the king's set-apart place, and it is a royal house!"

14 Then Amos answered Amatsyah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; 15 and יהוה took me from following the flock, and יהוה said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Yisra'el.' 16 Now therefore listen to the word of יהוה: You say, "Do not prophesy against Yisra'el, and do not speak against the house of Yitshaq."

17 Therefore יהוה says: 'Your wife shall be a whore in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Yisra'el shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

8 Thus Adonai יהוה showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 He said, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then יהוה said to me, "The end has come on My people Yisra'el. I will not again pass by them anymore. 3 The songs of the Temple will be wailings in that day," says Adonai יהוה. "The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence. 4 Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to cease, 5 saying, 'When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel large, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit; 6 that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the sweepings with the wheat?'"^a

7 יהוה has sworn by the pride of Ya'aqov, "Surely I will never forget any of their works. 8 Will not the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River, and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Mitsrayim. 9 It will happen in that day," says Adonai יהוה, "that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day. 10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies, and baldness on every head. I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and its end like a bitter day."

11 "Behold, the days come," says Adonai יהוה, "that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of יהוה."

12 They will wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they will run back and forth to seek the word of יְהוָה, and will not find it. 13 In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint for thirst. 14 Those who swear by the sin of Shom'ron, and say, 'As your el, Dan, lives;' and, 'As the way of Beersheva lives;' they will fall, and never rise up again."

will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them. They shall also make gardens, and eat their fruit. 15 I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them," says יְהוָה your Elohim.

9 I saw יְהוָה standing beside the altar, and He said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. 2 Though they dig into Sheol, there My hand will take them; and though they climb up to the heavens, there I will bring them down. 3 Though they hide themselves in the top of Karmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hidden from My sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the nahash, and it will bite them. 4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set My eyes on them for evil, and not for good. 5 For Adonai יְהוָה Tsevaot is He who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Mitsrayim. 6 It is He who builds His rooms in the heavens, and has founded His vault on the earth; He who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; יְהוָה is His Name. 7 Are you not like the children of Kush to Me, children of Yisra'el?" says יְהוָה. "Have I not brought up Yisra'el out of the land of Mitsrayim, and the Philistines from Kaphtor, and the Arameans from Qir? 8 Behold, the eyes of Adonai יְהוָה are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Ya'aqov," says יְהוָה.

9 "For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Yisra'el among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth.

10 All the sinners of My people will die by the sword, who say, 'Evil will not overtake nor meet us.' 11 In that day I will raise up the booth of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; 12 that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by My Name," says יְהוָה who does this.

13 "Behold, the days come," says יְהוָה, "that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the one treading grapes him who sows seed; and sweet wine will drip from the mountains, and flow from the hills. 14 I will bring My people Yisra'el back from captivity, and they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them; and they

Ovadyah (Obadiah)

1 The vision of Ovadyah. This is what Adonai יְהוָה says about Edom. We have heard news from יְהוָה, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Arise, and let us rise up against her in battle. 2 Behold, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised. 3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?' 4 Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there," says יְהוָה.

5 "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—oh, what disaster awaits you—would they not only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? 6 How Esaw will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out! 7 All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him."

8 "Will I not in that day", says יְהוָה, "destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esaw? 9 Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esaw by slaughter. 10 For the violence done to your brother Ya'aqov, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. 11 In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Yerushalayim, even you were like one of them. 12 But do not look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and do not rejoice over the children of Yehudah in the day of their destruction. Do not speak proudly in the day of distress. 13 Do not enter into the gate of My people in the day of their calamity. Do not look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. 14 Do not stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Do not deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. 15 For the day of יְהוָה is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. 16 For as you have drunk on My set-apart mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. 17 But in Mount Tsion, there will be those who escape, and it will be set-apart. The house of Ya'aqov will possess their possessions. 18 The house of Ya'aqov will be a fire, the house of Yoseph a flame, and the house of Esaw for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esaw." Indeed, יְהוָה has spoken.

19 Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esaw, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephrayim, and the field of Shom'ron. Benyamin will possess Gilad. 20 The captives of this army of the children of Yisra'el, who are among the Kena'anites, will possess even to Tsarephath; and the captives of Yerushalayim, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. 21 Saviors will go up on Mount Tsion to judge the mountains of Esaw, and the kingdom will belong to יְהוָה.

Yonah (Jonah)

1 Now the word of יהוה came to Yonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their wickedness has come up before Me."

3 But Yonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of יהוה. He went down to Yapho, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of יהוה. 4 But יהוה sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his el. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the ship. But Yonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. 6 So the ship master came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your Elohim! Maybe your Elohim will notice us, so that we will not perish."

7 They all said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for this evil that is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Yonah. 8 Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"

9 He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear יהוה, the Elohim of the heavens, who has made the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What have you done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of יהוה, because he had told them. 11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy. 12 He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you."

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and stormier against them. 14 Therefore they cried to יהוה, and said, "We beg You, יהוה, we beg You, do not let us die for this man's being, and do not lay on us innocent blood; for You, יהוה, have done as it pleased You."

15 So they took up Yonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. 16 Then the men feared יהוה exceedingly; and they slaughtered a sacrifice to יהוה, and made vows.

17 יהוה prepared a great fish to swallow up Yonah, and Yonah was in the gut of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Yonah prayed to יהוה, his Elohim, out of the gut of the fish. 2 He said, "I called because of my affliction to יהוה. He answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol I cried. You heard my voice. 3 For You threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas. The flood was all around me. All Your waves and Your billows passed over me. 4 I said, 'I have been banished from Your sight; yet I will look again toward Your set-apart Temple.' 5 The waters surrounded me, even to the being. The deep was around me. The weeds were wrapped around my head. 6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains. The earth barred me in forever: yet have You brought up my life from the pit, יהוה, my Elohim.

7 "When my being fainted within me, I remembered יהוה. My prayer came in to You, into Your set-apart Temple. 8 Those who guard lying vanities forsake their own loving-kindness. 9 But I will slaughter to You with the voice of thanksgiving. I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation belongs to יהוה."

10 יהוה spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Yonah on the dry land.

3 The word of יהוה came to Yonah the second time, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out to it the message that I give you."

3 So Yonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of יהוה. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. 4 Yonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!"

5 The people of Nineveh believed Elohim; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from their greatest even to their least. 6 The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; 8 but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to Elohim. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. 9 Who knows whether Elohim will not turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we might not perish?"

10 Elohim saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. Elohim relented of the disaster which He said He would do to them, and He did not do it.

4 But it displeased Yonah exceedingly, and he was angry. 2 He prayed to יְהוָה, and said, "Please, יְהוָה, was this not what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that You are a kind Elohim, and compassionate, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and You relent of doing harm. 3 Therefore now, יְהוָה, take, I beg You, my being from me; for it is better for me to die than to live."

4 יְהוָה said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

5 Then Yonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. 6 Elohim prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Yonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Yonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. 7 But Elohim prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. 8 When the sun arose, Elohim prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Yonah's head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9 Elohim said to Yonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?" He said, "I am right to be angry, even to death."

10 يְהוָה said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night."

11 Should I not be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?"

Mikhah (Micah)

1 The word of יְהוָה that came to Mikhah the Morashtite in the days of Yotham, Ahaz, and Hizqiyah, kings of Yehudah, which he saw concerning Shom'ron and Yerushalayim.

2 Hear, you peoples, all of you. Listen, O earth, and all that is therein: and let Adonai יְהוָה be witness against you, from His set-apart Temple. 3 For, behold, יְהוָה comes out of His place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth. 4 The mountains melt under Him, and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 "All this is for the disobedience of Ya'aqov, and for the sins of the house of Yisra'el. What is the disobedience of Ya'aqov? Is it not Shom'ron? And what are the high places of Yehudah? Are they not Yerushalayim?

6 Therefore I will make Shom'ron like a rubble heap of the field, like places for planting vineyards; and I will pour down its stones into the valley, and I will uncover its foundations. 7 All her idols will be beaten to pieces, and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire, and all her images I will destroy; for of the hire of a whore has she gathered them, and to the hire of a whore shall they return."

8 For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will howl like the monsters^a, and moan like the daughters of owls. 9 For her wounds are incurable; for it has come even to Yehudah. It reaches to the gate of my people, even to Yerushalayim. 10 Do not tell it in Gath. Do not weep at all. At Beth Ophrah I have rolled myself in the dust. 11 Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame. The inhabitant of Tsa'anah will not come out. The wailing of Beth-Etsel will take from you his protection. 12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil has come down from יְהוָה to the gate of Yerushalayim. 13 Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lakish. She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Tsion; for the transgressions of Yisra'el were found in you.

14 Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath. The houses of Akziv will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Yisra'el.

15 I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah. He who is the glory of Yisra'el will come to Adullam.

16 Shave your heads, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight. Enlarge your baldness like the vulture; for they have gone into captivity from you!

2 Woe to those who devise vain exertion and work evil on their beds! When the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand. 2 They covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away; and they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. 3 Therefore יְהוָה says: "Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, from which you will not remove your necks, neither will you walk haughtily; for it is an evil time. 4 In that day they will take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying, 'We are utterly ruined! My people's possession is divided up. Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!'"

5 Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in the assembly of יְהוָה. 6 "Do not prophesy!" They prophesy. "Do not prophesy about these things. Disgrace will not overtake us." 7 Shall it be said, O house of Ya'aqov: "Is the Ruah of יְהוָה angry? Are these His doings? Do My words not do good to him who walks blamelessly?" 8 But lately My people have risen up as an enemy. You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by securely, as men returning from battle. 9 You drive the women of My people out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away My blessing forever.

10 Arise, and depart! For this is not your resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys, even with a grievous destruction. 11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies: "I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;" he would be the prophet of this people. 12 I will surely assemble, Ya'aqov, all of you; I will surely gather the remnant of Yisra'el; I will put them together as the sheep of Botsrah, as a flock in the middle of their pasture; they will swarm with people. 13 He who breaks open the way goes up before them. They break through the gate, and go out. And their king passes on before them, with יְהוָה at their head.

3 I said, "Please listen, you heads of Ya'aqov, and rulers of the house of Yisra'el: is it not for you to know judgment? 2 You who hate the good, and love the evil; who tear off their skin, and their flesh from off their bones; 3 who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as meat within the cauldron. 4 Then they will cry to יְהוָה, but He will not answer them. Yes, He will hide His face from them at that time, because they made their deeds evil."

5 יְהוָה says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, "Peace!" and whoever does not provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him:

6 "Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine; and the sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be black over them. 7 The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded. Yes, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer from Elohim."

8 But as for me, I am full of power by the Ruah of תִּדְבָּר, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Ya'aqov his disobedience, and to Yisra'el his sin. 9 Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Ya'aqov, and rulers of the house of Yisra'el, who abhor judgment, and pervert all equity. 10 They build up Tsion with blood, and Yerushalayim with unrighteousness. 11 Her leaders judge for bribes, and her priests teach for a price, and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money: yet they lean on תִּדְבָּר, and say, "Is not יְהוָה among us? No disaster will come on us."

12 Therefore Tsion for your sake will be plowed like a field, and Yerushalayim will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of the Temple like the high places of a forest.

4 But in the latter days, it will happen that the mountain of the Temple of תִּדְבָּר will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills; and peoples will stream to it. 2 Many nations will go and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of תִּדְבָּר, and to the house of the Elohim of Ya'aqov; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths." For the Torah will go out of Tsion, and the word of תִּדְבָּר from Yerushalayim; 3 and He will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off. They will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more. 4 But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and no one will make them afraid: for the mouth of תִּדְבָּר Tsevaot has spoken.

5 Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their eloheim; and we will walk in the Name of תִּדְבָּר our Elohim forever and ever.

6 "In that day," says תִּדְבָּר, "I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; 7 and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and תִּדְבָּר will reign over them on Mount Tsion from then on, even forever."

8 You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Tsion, to you it will come, yes, the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Yerushalayim. 9 Now why do you cry out aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail? 10 Be in pain, and labor to give birth, daughter of Tsion, like a woman in travail; for now you will go out of the city, and will dwell in the field, and will come even to Bavel. There you will be rescued. There תִּדְבָּר will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. 11 Now many nations have assembled against you, that say, "Let her be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Tsion."

12 But they do not know the thoughts of תִּדְבָּר, neither do they understand His counsel; for He has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor. 13 Arise and thresh, daughter of Tsion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs copper; and you will beat in pieces many peoples: and I will devote their gain to תִּדְבָּר, and their substance to the Master of the whole earth.

5 Now you shall gather yourself in troops, daughter of troops. He has laid siege against us. They will strike the judge of Yisra'el with a rod on the cheek. 2 But you, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans of Yehudah, out of you One will come out to Me that is to be ruler in Yisra'el; whose goings out are from of old, from ancient times. 3 Therefore He will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth. Then the rest of His brothers will return to the children of Yisra'el.

4 He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of תִּדְבָּר, in the majesty of the Name of תִּדְבָּר His Elohim: and they will live, for then He will be great to the ends of the earth. 5 He will be our peace when Ashuwr invades our land, and when he marches through our fortresses, then we will raise against him seven shepherds, and eight leaders of men. 6 They will rule the land of Ashuwr with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its gates. He will deliver us from the Ashuwrite, when he invades our land, and when he marches within our border. 7 The remnant of Ya'aqov will be among many peoples, like dew from תִּדְבָּר, like showers on the grass, that do not wait for man, nor wait for the sons of men. 8 The remnant of Ya'aqov will be among the nations, among many peoples, like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is no one to deliver. 9 Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all of your enemies be cut off.

10 "It will happen in that day", says מִיכָּה, "that I will cut off your horses out from among you, and will destroy your chariots. 11 I will cut off the cities of your land, and will tear down all your strongholds. 12 I will destroy witchcraft from your hand; and you shall have no soothsayers. 13 I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out from among you; and you shall no more bow down to the work of your hands. 14 I will uproot your Asherah poles out from among you; and I will destroy your cities. 15 I will execute vengeance in anger, and wrath on the nations that did not listen."

6 Listen now to what מִיכָּה says: "Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear what you have to say. 2 Hear, you mountains, the controversy of מִיכָּה, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for מִיכָּה has a controversy with His people, and He will contend with Yisra'el. 3 My people, what have I done to you? How have I burdened you? Answer Me! 4 For I brought you up out of the land of Mitsrayim, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage. I sent before you Mosheh, Aharon, and Miryam. 5 My people, remember now what Balaq king of Moav devised, and what Bil'am the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of מִיכָּה."

6 How shall I come before מִיכָּה, and bow myself before the exalted Elohim? Shall I come before Him with ascension offerings, with calves a year old? 7 Will מִיכָּה be pleased with thousands of rams? With tens of thousands of wadis of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience? The fruit of my body for the sin of my being? 8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. What does יְהוָה require of you, but to do judgment and love, and loving-kindness; and to walk humbly with your Elohim?

9 The voice of יְהוָה calls to the city, and wisdom sees Your Name: "Listen to the rod, and He who appointed it. 10 Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a short ephah that is accursed? 11 Shall I be pure with scales of wickedness, and with a bag of deceitful weights? 12 Her rich men are full of violence, her inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their speech.

13 "Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound. I have made you desolate because of your sins. 14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied. Your humiliation will be within you. You will store up, but not save; and that which you save I will give up to the sword. 15 You will sow, but will not reap. You will tread the olives, but will not anoint yourself with oil; and crush grapes, but will not drink the wine. 16 For the statutes of Omri are guarded, and all the works of Ahav's house. You walk in their counsels, that I may make you a ruin, and her inhabitants a hissing; and you will bear the reproach of My people."

7 Misery is mine! Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard: There is no cluster of grapes to eat. My being desires to eat the early fig. 2 The kind man has perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; every man hunts his brother with a net. 3 Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently. The ruler and judge ask for a bribe; and the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his being. Thus they conspire together. 4 The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen, even your visitation, has come; now is the time of their confusion. 5 Do not rely on a neighbor. Do not put confidence in a friend. With the woman lying in your embrace, guard the doors of your mouth! 6 For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 But as for me, I will look to מִיכָּה. I will wait for the Elohim of my salvation. My Elohim will hear me. 8 Do not rejoice against me, my enemy. When I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, מִיכָּה will be a light to me. 9 I will bear the indignation of מִיכָּה, because I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my case, and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light. I will see His righteousness. 10 Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me, 'where is יְהוָה your Elohim?' Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame. Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets. 11 A day to build your walls: In that day, He will extend your boundary. 12 In that day they will come to you from Ashuwr and the cities of Mitsrayim, and from Mitsrayim even to the River, and from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain. 13 Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 Shepherd Your people with Your staff, the flock of Your heritage, who dwell by themselves in a forest, in the middle of fertile pasture land, let them feed; in Bashan and Gilad, as in the days of old.

15 "As in the days of your coming out of the land of Mitsrayim, I will show them marvelous things."

16 The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might. They will lay their hand on their mouth. Their ears will be deaf. 17 They will lick the dust like a nahash. Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens. They will come with fear to פָּנָים our Elohim, and will be afraid because of you.

18 Who is an Elohim like You, who pardons iniquity, and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of His heritage? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in loving-kindness. 19 He will again have compassion on us. He will tread our iniquities under foot; and You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. 20 You will give truth to Ya'aqov, and loving-kindness to Avraham, as You have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

Nahum (Nahum)

1 The burden^a of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. 2 יהוָה is a jealous Elohim and avenges. יהוָה avenges and is full of wrath. יהוָה takes vengeance on His adversaries, and He maintains wrath against His enemies. 3 יהוָה is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. יהוָה has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet. 4 He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Karmel; and the flower of Levanon languishes. 5 The mountains quake before Him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at His presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. 6 Who can stand before His indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of His anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by Him. 7 יהוָה is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and He knows those who take refuge in Him. 8 But with an overflowing flood, He will make a full end of her place, and will pursue His enemies into darkness. 9 What do you plot against יהוָה? He will make a full end.

Affliction will not rise up the second time. 10 For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. 11 There is one gone out of you, who devises evil against יהוָה, who counsels wickedness.

12 יהוָה says: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. 13 Now will I break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart."

14 יהוָה has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your elohim, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

15 Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, Yehudah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

2 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Preserve the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your loins! Fortify your power mightily! 2 For יהוָה restores the excellency of Ya'aqov, as the excellency of Yisra'el; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. 3 The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. 4 The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the wide ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. 5 He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. 6 The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. 7 It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her servants moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. 8 But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back. 9 Plunder the silver. Plunder the gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. 10 She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. 11 Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid? 12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey.

13 "Behold, I am against you," says יהוָה Tsevaot, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

3 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey does not depart. 2 The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots, 3 the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, 4 because of the multitude of the whoring of the alluring whore, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her whoring, and families through her witchcraft.

5 "Behold, I am against you," says יהוָה Tsevaot, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. 6 I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle. 7 It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"

8 Are you better than No-Amon, who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? 9 Kush and Mitsrayim were her boundless strength. Put and Luvim were her helpers. 10 Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. 11 You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. 12 All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. 13 Behold, your troops among you are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars. 14 Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. 15 There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. 16 You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away. 17 Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. 18 Your shepherds slumber, king of Ashuwr. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. 19 There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who has not felt your endless cruelty?

Havaqquq (Habakkuk)

1 The burden^a which Havaqquq the prophet saw.
2 יְהוָה, how long will I cry, and You will not hear? I cry out to You "Violence!" and will You not save? 3 Why do You show me vain exertion, and look at toil? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up. 4 Therefore the Torah is ignored, and judgment never prevails; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore judgment comes out perverted.

5 "Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe even if it is told to you. 6 For behold, I raise up the Kaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the width of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. 7 They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are fiercer than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. 9 All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. 10 Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. 11 Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is proclaimed in his el."

12 Are You not from everlasting, יְהוָה my Elohim, my Set-apart One? We will not die. 13 You have appointed them for judgment. You, Rock, have established them to punish. 14 You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on toil, why do You tolerate those who deal deceitfully, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, 15 and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? 16 He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. 17 Therefore he slaughters to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. 18 Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without sparing?

2 I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

2 יְהוָה answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. 3 For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and will not prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It will not delay. 4 Behold, his being is puffed up. It is not upright in him; but the righteous will live by his faithfulness. 5 Yes, moreover, wine is deceitful. A haughty man who does not stay at home, who enlarges his being as Sheol, and he is like death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples."

6 "Will not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?' 7 Will your debtors not rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? 8 Because you have despoiled many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will despoil you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. 9 Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your being. 11 For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. 12 Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by unrighteousness! 13 Behold, is it not of יְהוָה Tsevaot that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? 14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of יְהוָה, as the waters cover the sea.

15 "Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies! 16 You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of the right hand of נָשָׁר will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. 17 For the violence done to Levanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.

18 "What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has imagined for it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who imagines its form relies on it, to make mute idols? 19 Woe to him who says to the wood, 'Awake!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no spirit at all within it. 20 But יהוה is in His set-apart Temple. Let all the earth be silent before Him!"

3 A prayer of Havaqquq, the prophet, set to victorious music. 2 יהוה, I have heard of Your report. I stand in awe of Your deeds, יתיר. Renew Your work in the midst of the years. In the midst of the years make it known. In wrath, You remember compassion. 3 Eloah came from Teman, the Set-apart One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and His praise filled the earth. 4 His splendor is like the sunrise. Rays shine from His hand, where His power is hidden. 5 Plague went before Him, and pestilence followed His feet. 6 He stood, and shook the earth. He looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains were crumbled. The age-old hills collapsed. His ways are eternal.

7 I saw the tents of Kushan in vain exertion. The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled. 8 Was יהוה displeased with the rivers? Was Your anger against the rivers, or Your wrath against the sea, that You rode on Your horses, on Your chariots of salvation? 9 You uncovered Your bow. You called for Your sworn arrows. Selah. You split the earth with rivers. 10 The mountains saw You, and were afraid. The storm of waters passed by. The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high. 11 The sun and moon stood still in the heavens, at the light of Your arrows as they went, at the shining of Your glittering spear. 12 You marched through the land in wrath. You threshed the nations in anger. 13 You went out for the salvation of Your people, for the salvation of Your anointed. You crushed the head of the land of the wicked. You stripped them head to foot. Selah. 14 You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears. They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret. 15 You trampled the sea with your horses, churning mighty waters. 16 I heard, and my belly trembled. My lips quivered at the voice. Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place, because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, for the coming up of the people who invade us. 17 For though the fig tree does not flourish, nor fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive fails, the fields yield no food; the flocks are cut off from the fold, and there is no herd in the stalls: 18 yet I will rejoice in יהוה. I will be joyful in the Elohim of my salvation! 19 Adonai יהוה is my strength. He makes my feet like deer's feet, and enables me to go in high places. For the music director, on my stringed instruments.

Tsephanyah (Zephaniah)

1 The word of יְהוָה which came to Tsephanyah, the son of Kushi, the son of Gedalyah, the son of Amaryah, the son of Hizqiyah, in the days of Yoshiyahu, the son of Amon, king of Yehudah.

2 "I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth," declares יְהוָה.

3 "I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the heavens, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth," declares יְהוָה.

4 "I will stretch out My hand against Yehudah, and against all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. I will cut off the remnant of Ba'al from this place: the name of the idol-priests with the priests, 5 those who bow down to the army of the heavens on the housetops, those who bow down to and swear by יְהוָה and also swear by Malkam, 6 those who have turned back from following יְהוָה, and those who have not sought יְהוָה nor inquired after Him. 7 Be silent at the presence of Adonai יְהוָה, for the day of יְהוָה is at hand. For יְהוָה has prepared a sacrifice. He has set His guests apart. 8 It will happen in the day of the sacrifice belonging to יְהוָה, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. 9 In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit."

10 "In that day," says יְהוָה, "there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maqtesh, for all the people of Kena'an are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. 12 It will happen at that time, that I will search Yerushalayim with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, 'יְהוָה will not do good, neither will He do evil.' 13 Their wealth will become a plunder, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but will not inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but will not drink their wine. 14 The great day of יְהוָה is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of יְהוָה.

The mighty man cries there bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of desolation and destruction, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, 16 a day of the shofar and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. 17 I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against יְהוָה, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. 18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of יְהוָה, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of His jealousy; for He will put an end to, yes, a terrible end, to all those who dwell in the land."

2 "Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, 2 before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of יְהוָה comes on you, before the day of the anger of יְהוָה comes on you. 3 Seek יְהוָה, all you humble of the land, who have done His judgment. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of the anger of יְהוָה. 4 For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashqelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Eqron will be rooted up. 5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Kerethites! The word of יְהוָה is against you, Kena'an, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. 6 The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. 7 The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Yehudah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashqelon, they will lie down in the evening, for יְהוָה, their Elohim, will visit them, and restore them. 8 I have heard the reproach of Moav, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached My people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 "Therefore as I live," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, the Elohim of Yisra'el, "surely Moav will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of My people will plunder them, and the survivors of My nation will inherit them. 10 This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of יְהוָה Tsevaot. 11 יְהוָה will be awesome to them, for He will famish all the elohim of the land. Men will bow down to Him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. 12 You Kushites also, you will be killed by My sword."

13 He will stretch out His hand against the north, destroy Ashuwr, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. 14 Herds will lie down in the middle of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for He has laid bare the cedar beams. 15 This is the joyous city that lived securely, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

3 "Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city! 2 She did not obey the voice. She did not receive correction. She did not rely on יְהוָה. She did not draw near to her Elohim. 3 Her princes within her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. 4 Her prophets are arrogant and deceitful people. Her priests have profaned the set-apart place. They have done violence to the Torah. 5 הַתָּהֲרֵת, within her, is righteous. He will do no unrighteousness. Every morning He brings His judgment to light. He does not fail, but the unrighteous know no shame. 6 I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant."

7 I said, "Just fear Me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling will not be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings.

8 "Therefore wait for Me," says יְהוָה, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for My judgment is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them My indignation, even all My fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of My jealousy. 9 For then I will purify the language of the peoples, that they may all call on the Name of יְהוָה, to serve Him shoulder to shoulder.^a 10 From beyond the rivers of Kush, My abundant ones, even the daughter of My dispersed people, will bring My offering. 11 In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against Me; for then I will take away out from among you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in My set-apart mountain. 12 But I will leave among you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the Name of יְהוָה. 13 The remnant of Yisra'el will not do unrighteousness, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

14 Sing, daughter of Tsion! Shout, Yisra'el! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Yerushalayim.

15 יְהוָה has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Yisra'el, יְהוָה, is among you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. 16 In that day, it will be said to Yerushalayim, "Do not be afraid, Tsion. Do not let your hands be weak." 17 הַתָּהֲרֵת, your Elohim, is among you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in His love. He will rejoice over you with singing.

18 "I will remove those who grieve about the appointed times from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. 19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. 20 At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says יְהוָה.

^a 9 Hebrew phrase rendered as "shoulder to shoulder" is שֶׁקֶם (she'khem echad) which literally means "one shoulder" but can also be rendered as "one portion."

Haggai (Haggai)

1 In the second year of Dareyavesh the king, in the sixth new moon, in the first day of the new moon, the word of יְהוָה came by Haggai, the prophet, to Zerubbavel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Yehudah, and to Yehoshua, the son of Yehotsadaq, the high priest, saying, 2 "This is what יְהוָה Tsevaot says: These people say, 'The time has not yet come, the time for the house of בָּנָה to be built.'"

3 Then the word of יְהוָה came by Haggai, the prophet, saying, 4 "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste? 5 Now therefore this is what יְהוָה Tsevaot says: Consider your ways. 6 You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you do not have enough. You drink, but you are not filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it."

7 This is what יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says יְהוָה. 9 "You looked for much, and, behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "Because of My house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. 10 Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. 11 I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground produces, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands."

12 Then Zerubbavel, the son of Shealtiel, and Yehoshua, the son of Yehotsadaq, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of יְהוָה their Elohim, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as יְהוָה their Elohim had sent him; and the people feared יְהוָה.

13 Then Haggai, the messenger of יְהוָה, spoke the message from יְהוָה to the people, saying, "I am with you," says יְהוָה.

14, בָּנָה stirred up the spirit of Zerubbavel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Yehudah, and the spirit of Yehoshua, the son of Yehotsadaq, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of יְהוָה Tsevaot, their Elohim, 15 in the twenty-fourth day of the new moon, in the sixth new moon, in the second year of Dareyavesh the king.

2 In the seventh new moon, in the twenty-first day of the new moon, the word of יְהוָה came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 2 "Speak now to Zerubbavel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Yehudah, and to Yehoshua, the son of Yehotsadaq, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, 3 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not in your eyes as nothing? 4 Yet now be strong, Zerubbavel,' says יְהוָה. 'Be strong, Yehoshua, son of Yehotsadaq, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says יְהוָה, 'and work, for I am with you,'" says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

5 "This is the word that I cut with you when you came out of Mitsrayim, and My Ruah lived among you. Do not be afraid. 6 For this is what יְהוָה Tsevaot says: 'Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; 7 and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

8 'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 9 'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says יְהוָה Tsevaot; 'and in this place will I give peace,' says יְהוָה Tsevaot."

10 In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth new moon, in the second year of Dareyavesh, the word of יְהוָה came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "יְהוָה Tsevaot says: Ask now the priests concerning the Torah, saying, 12 'If someone carries set-apart meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become set-apart?'" The priests answered, "No."

13 Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean for the being of a man touch any of these, will it be unclean?" The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

14 Then Haggai answered, "So is this people, and so is this nation before Me," says יְהוָה; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean.

15 Now, please consider from today and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the Temple of יְהוָה. 16 Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. 17 I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you did not turn to Me," says יְהוָה. 18 'Consider, please, from today and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth new moon of days, since the day that the foundation of the Temple of יהוה was laid, consider it. 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not produced. From today I will bless you."

20 The word of יהוה came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the new moon, saying,

21 "Speak to Zerubbavel, governor of Yehudah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. 22 I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother.'"

23 "In that day," says יהוה Tsevaot, "will I take you, Zerubbavel, My servant, the son of Shealti'el," says יהוה, "and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you," says יהוה Tsevaot.

Zekharyah (Zechariah)

1 In the eighth new moon, in the second year of Dareyavesh, the word of יְהוָה came to Zekharyah the son of Berekhyah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 2 "יְהוָה" was very displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore tell them: 'Return to Me,' says Tsevaot, 'and I will return to you,' says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 4 Do not you be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: יְהוָה Tsevaot says, 'Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;' but they did not hear, nor listen to Me, says יְהוָה. 5 Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But My words and My decrees, which I commanded My servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said, 'Just as יְהוָה Tsevaot determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so He has dealt with us.'"

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh new moon, which is the new moon Shevat, in the second year of Dareyavesh, the word of יְהוָה came to Zekharyah the son of Berekhyahu, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8 "I had a vision in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. 9 Then I asked, 'My master, what are these?'" The messenger who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10 The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones יְהוָה has sent to go back and forth through the earth."

11 They reported to the messenger of יְהוָה who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace."

12 Then the messenger of יְהוָה replied, "O Tsevaot, how long will You not have compassion on Yerushalayim and on the cities of Yehudah, against which You have had indignation these seventy years?"

13 נָא answered the messenger who talked with me with kind and comforting words. 14 So the messenger who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, יְהוָה Tsevaot says: 'I am jealous for Yerushalayim and for Tsion with a great jealousy. 15 I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity.'" 16 Therefore יְהוָה says: "I have returned to Yerushalayim with compassion. My house shall be built in it," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "and a line shall be stretched out over Yerushalayim."

17 "Proclaim further, saying, 'יְהוָה' Tsevaot says: 'My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and יְהוָה will again comfort Tsion, and will again choose Yerushalayim.'"

18 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns.

19 I asked the messenger who talked with me, "What are these?" He answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Yehudah, Yisra'el, and Yerushalayim."

20 יְהוָה showed me four craftsmen. 21 Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?" He said, "These are the horns which scattered Yehudah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Yehudah to scatter it."

2 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then I asked, "Where are you going?" He said to me, "To measure Yerushalayim, to see what is its width and what is its length."

3 Behold, the messenger who talked with me went out, and another messenger went out to meet him, 4 and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Yerushalayim will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it.'

5 "For I," says יְהוָה, "will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the middle of her. 6 Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north," says יְהוָה; "for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens," says יְהוָה. 7 "Come, Tsion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Bavel."

8 For יְהוָה Tsevaot says: (For honor He has sent me to the nations which despoiled you); "for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye. 9 For, behold, I will shake My hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them;" and you will know that יְהוָה Tsevaot has sent me. 10 Sing and rejoice, daughter of Tsion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell within you," says יְהוָה. 11 "Many nations shall join themselves to יְהוָה in that day, and shall be My people; and I will dwell among you," and you shall know that יְהוָה Tsevaot has sent me to you. 12 יְהוָה will inherit Yehudah as His portion in the set-apart land, and will again choose Yerushalayim. 13 Be silent, all flesh, before יהוה; for He has roused Himself from His set-apart habitation!

3 He showed me Yehoshua the high priest standing before the messenger of יהוה, and the adversary^a standing at his right hand to accuse him. 2 יהוה said to the adversary, "rebuke you, the adversary! Yes, יהוה who has chosen Yerushalayim rebuke you! Is this not a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

3 Now Yehoshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the messenger. 4 He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

5 I said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head." So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and the messenger of יהוה was standing by. 6 The messenger of יהוה protested to Yehoshua, saying, 7 "יהוה Tsevaot says: If you will walk in My ways, and if you will guard My charge, then you also shall judge My house, and shall also guard My courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. 8 Hear now, Yehoshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring out My servant, the Branch. 9 For, behold, the stone that I have set before Yehoshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave its engraving,' says יהוה Tsevaot, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 In that day,' says יהוה Tsevaot, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

4 The messenger who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. 2 He said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I have seen, and behold, a menorah all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; 3 and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."

4 I answered and spoke to the messenger who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my master?"

^a 1 Ha'Satan – Hebrew phrase usually rendered as the name "Satan." With the hey (ה) prefix the word becomes definite, adding the equivalent to the English article "the." Rendering it literally should read as "the satan." Hebrew names, however, are definite by nature, and therefore do not require the hey (ה) prefix. As such, the phrase ha'satan has been rendered literally as "the adversary" to better reflect the actual definition.

5 Then the messenger who talked with me answered me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my master."

6 Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is the word of יהוה to Zerubbavel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by My Ruah," says יהוה Tsevaot.

7 Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbavel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of Favor, favor, to it!"

8 Moreover the word of יהוה came to me, saying,

9 "The hands of Zerubbavel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it;" and you will know that יהוה Tsevaot has sent me to you. 10 Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbavel. These are the eyes of יהוה, which run back and forth through the whole earth.

11 Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lamp stand and on the left side of it?"

12 I asked him the second time, "What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?"

13 He answered me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my master."

14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed sons^b who stand by the Master of all the earth."

5 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll. 2 He said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits."

3 Then He said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. 4 I will cause it to go out," says יהוה Tsevaot, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by My Name; and it will remain in the middle of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones."

^b 14 Hebrew phrase בְּנֵי הַיִצְחָר (b'nei ha'yits'har) is translated literally as "sons of oil" or "oiled sons," though is sometimes rendered as "anointed ones." The word normally translated as "anointed" is משָׁחָר (Ma'shi'ach) or its root word, משָׁחָר (mashach). However, here the word translated as "anointed" is the word יִצְחָר (yits'har) which means "oil."

5 Then the messenger who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing."

6 I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is the ephah basket that is appearing." He said moreover, "This is their appearance in all the land 7 (and behold, a talent of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the middle of the ephah basket." 8 He said, "This is Wickedness;" and He threw her down into the middle of the ephah basket; and He threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

9 Then lifted I up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the heavens. 10 Then I said to the messenger who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?"

11 He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar^a. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

6 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of copper. 2 In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; 3 in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. 4 Then I asked the messenger who talked with me, "What are these, my master?"

5 The messenger answered me, "These are the four winds of the heavens, which go out from standing before the Master of all the earth. 6 The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went out toward the south country." 7 The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and He said, "Go around and through the earth!" So they walked back and forth through the earth.

8 Then He called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."

9 The word of יהוה came to me, saying, 10 "Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Toviyah, and of Yedayah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Yoshiyah the son of Tsephanyah, where they have come from Bavel. 11 Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Yehoshua the son of Yehotsadaq, the high priest; 12 and speak to him, saying, יהוה Tsevaot says, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the Temple of יהוה; 13 even he shall build the Temple of יהוה; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. 14 The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Toviyah, and to Yedayah, and to Hen the son of Tsephanyah, for a memorial in the Temple of יהוה. 15 Those who are far off shall come and build in the Temple of יהוה;" and you shall know that יהוה Tsevaot has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey the voice of יהוה your Elohim. ""

7 In the fourth year of King Daryavesh, the word of יהוה came to Zekharyah in the fourth day of the ninth new moon, the new moon called Kislev. 2 The people of Beth-El sent Sharetsar and Regem Melekh, and their men, to entreat the favor of יהוה, 3 and to speak to the priests of the house of יהוה Tsevaot, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth new moon, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?"

4 Then the word of יהוה Tsevaot came to me, saying,

5 "Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh new moon for these seventy years, did you at all fast to Me, really to Me? 6 When you eat, and when you drink, do not you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? 7 Are these not the words which יהוה proclaimed by the former prophets, when Yerushalayim was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?'"

8 The word of יהוה came to Zekharyah, saying, 9 "Thus has יהוה Tsevaot spoken, saying, 'Judge with true judgment, and show loving-kindness and compassion every man to his brother. 10 Do not oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the sojourner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.' 11 But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. 12 Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the Torah, and the words which יהוה Tsevaot had sent by His Ruah by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from יהוה Tsevaot. 13 It has come to pass that, as He called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen," said יהוה Tsevaot; 14 "but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate."

8 The word of יְהוָה Tsevaot came to me. 2 יְהוָה

Tsevaot says: "I am jealous for Tsion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath."

3 יְהוָה says: "I have returned to Tsion, and will dwell in the midst of Yerushalayim. Yerushalayim shall be called 'The City of Truth;' and the mountain of יְהוָה Tsevaot, 'The Set-apart Mountain.'"

4 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Yerushalayim, every man with his staff in his hand for many days of age. 5 The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

6 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in My eyes?" says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

7 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "Behold, I will save My people from the east country, and from the west country; 8 and I will bring them, and they will dwell within Yerushalayim; and they will be My people, and I will be their Elohim, in truth and in righteousness."

9 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of יְהוָה Tsevaot was laid, even the Temple, that it might be built. 10 For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. 11 But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

12 "For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. 13 It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Yehudah and house of Yisra'el, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

14 For יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked Me to wrath," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "and I did not relent; 15 so again I have thought in these days to do good to Yerushalayim and to the house of Yehudah. Do not be afraid. 16 These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, 17 and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says יְהוָה.

18 The word of יְהוָה Tsevaot came to me. 19 יְהוָה

Tsevaot says: "The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Yehudah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace."

20 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; 21 and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of יְהוָה,' and to seek יְהוָה Tsevaot. I will go also. 22 Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek יְהוָה Tsevaot in Yerushalayim, and to entreat the favor of יְהוָה. 23 יְהוָה Tsevaot says: "In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the borders of the garments of him who is a Yehudite, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that Elohim is with you.'"

9 The burden^a of the word of יְהוָה is against the land of Hadrak, and will rest upon Dammeseq; for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Yisra'el is toward יְהוָה; 2 and Hamath, also, which borders on it; Tsor and Tsidon, because they are very wise. 3 Tsor built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets. 4 Behold, יְהוָה will dispossess her, and He will strike her power in the sea; and she will be devoured with fire. 5 Ashqelon will see it, and fear; Gaza also, and will writhe in agony; as will Eqron, for her expectation will be disappointed; and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashqelon will not be inhabited.

6 "A mamzer^b will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. 7 I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also will be a remnant for our Elohim; and he will be as a chieftain in Yehudah, and Eqron as a Yevusite. 8 I will encamp around My house against the army, that no one pass through or return; and no oppressor will pass through them any more: for now I have seen with my eyes. 9 Rejoice greatly, daughter of Tsion! Shout, daughter of Yerushalayim! Behold, your King comes to you! He is righteous, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a donkey. 10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephrayim, and the horse from Yerushalayim; and the battle bow will be cut off; and He will speak peace to the nations: and His dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. 11 As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water.

12 Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope! Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. 13 For indeed I bend Yehudah as a bow for me. I have filled the bow with Ephrayim; and I will stir up your sons, Tsion, against your sons, Yavan, and will make you like the sword of a mighty man. 14 יְהוָה will be seen over them; and his arrow will go flash like lightning; and Adonai יְהוָה will blow the shofar, and will go with whirlwinds of the south. 15 יְהוָה Tsevaot will defend them; and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones; and they will drink, and roar as through wine; and they will be filled like bowls, like the corners of the altar. 16 יְהוָה their Elohim will save them in that day as the flock of His people; for they are like the jewels of a crown, lifted on high over His land. 17 For how great is His goodness, and how great is His beauty! Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

10 Ask of יְהוָה rain in the spring time, יְהוָה who makes storm clouds, and He gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field. 2 For the teraphim^a speak vain exertion, and the diviners have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams. They comfort in vain. Therefore they go their way like sheep. They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd. 3 My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the male goats; for יְהוָה Tsevaot has visited His flock, the house of Yehudah, and will make them as His majestic horse in the battle. 4 From him will come the cornerstone, from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together. 5 They shall be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because יְהוָה is with them; and the riders on horses will be confounded.

6 "I will strengthen the house of Yehudah, and I will save the house of Yoseph, and I will bring them back; for I have compassion on them; and they will be as though I had not cast them off: for I am יְהוָה their Elohim, and I will hear them. 7 Ephrayim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as through wine; yes, their children will see it, and rejoice. Their heart will be glad in יְהוָה. 8 I will signal for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them; and they will increase as they have increased. 9 I will sow them among the peoples; and they will remember Me in far countries; and they will live with their children, and will return. 10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Mitsrayim, and gather them out of Ashuwr; and I will bring them into the land of Gilad and Levanon; and there will not be room enough for them. 11 He will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile will dry up; and the pride of Ashuwr will be brought down, and the scepter of Mitsrayim will depart. 12 I will strengthen them in יְהוָה; and they will walk up and down in His Name," says יְהוָה.

11 Open your doors, Levanon, that the fire may devour your cedars. 2 Wail, cypress tree, for the cedar has fallen, because the stately ones are destroyed. Wail, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has come down. 3 A voice of the wailing of the shepherds! For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! For the pride of the Yarden is ruined.

4 יְהוָה my Elohim says: "Feed the flock of slaughter. 5 Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be יְהוָה, for I am rich;' and their own shepherds do not pity them. 6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says יְהוָה; "but, behold, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."

7 So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor", and the other I called "Union", and I fed the flock. 8 I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my being was weary of them, and their being also loathed me. 9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." 10 I took my staff 'Favor,' and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I cut with all the peoples. 11 It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that watched me knew that it was the word of יְהוָה. 12 I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. 13 יְהוָה said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of יְהוָה. 14 Then I cut apart my other staff, even 'Union,' that I might break the brotherhood between Yehudah and Yisra'el.

 said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. 16 For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will he seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the meat of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. 17 Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

12 The burden^a of the word of יְהוָה concerning Yisra'el, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: 2 "Behold, I will make Yerushalayim a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and it will also be on Yehudah in the siege against Yerushalayim. 3 It will happen in that day, that I will make Yerushalayim a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it."

4 "In that day," says יְהוָה, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open My eyes on the house of Yehudah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5 The chieftains of Yehudah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Yerushalayim are my strength in יְהוָה.' 6 Tsevaot their Elohim. 6 In that day I will make the chieftains of Yehudah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Yerushalayim will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Yerushalayim. 7 וְאַתָּה also will save the tents of Yehudah first, that the glory of David's house and the glory of the inhabitants of Yerushalayim not be magnified above Yehudah. 8 In that day יְהוָה will defend the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and David's house will be like Elohim, like the messenger of יְהוָה before them. 9 It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Yerushalayim. 10 I will pour on David's house, and on the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, the spirit of favor and of petition; and they will look toward Me, whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for Him, as one grieves for his firstborn. 11 In that day there will be a great mourning in Yerushalayim, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of David's house apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; 13 the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; 14 all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart."

13 "In that day there will be a spring opened to David's house and to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, for sin and for uncleanness. 2 It will come to pass in that day," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. 3 It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in the Name of יְהוָה'; and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. 4 It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: 5 but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' 6 One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

7 "Awake, sword, against My shepherd, and against the man who is close to Me," says יְהוָה Tsevaot. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; and I will turn My hand against the little ones. 8 It shall happen that in all the land," says יְהוָה, "two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it. 9 I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will test them like gold is tested. They will call on My Name, and I will hear them. I will say, 'It is My people;' and they will say, 'יְהוָה is my Elohim.'"

14 "Behold, a day of יְהוָה comes, when your plunder will be divided within you. 2 For I will gather all nations against Yerushalayim to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. 3 Then יְהוָה will go out and fight against those nations, as when He fought in the day of battle. 4 His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Yerushalayim on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. 5 You shall flee by the valley of My mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Atsel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziyah king of Yehudah." 6 יְהוָה my Elohim will come, and all the set-apart ones with you. 6 It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. 7 It will be a unique day which is known to הַלְלָתִים; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

8 It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Yerushalayim; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter will it be.

9 יְהוָה will be King over all the earth. In that day יְהוָה will be one, and His Name one. 10 All the land will be made like the Aravah, from Geva to Rimmon south of Yerushalayim; and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benyamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses. 11 Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Yerushalayim will dwell securely. 12 This will be the plague with which יְהוָה will strike all the peoples who have fought against Yerushalayim: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. 13 It will happen in that day, that a great panic from יְהוָה will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. 14 Yehudah also will fight at Yerushalayim; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

15 So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague. 16 It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Yerushalayim will go up from year to year to bow down to the King, יְהוָה Tsevaot, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 17 It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth does not go up to Yerushalayim to bow down to the King, יְהוָה Tsevaot, on them there will be no rain. 18 If the family of Mitsrayim does not go up, and does not come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which יְהוָה will strike the nations that do not go up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 19 This will be the punishment of Mitsrayim, and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 20 In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "Set-apart to יְהוָה;" and the pots in the house of יְהוָה will be like the bowls before the altar. 21 Yes, every pot in Yerushalayim and in Yehudah will be set-apart to יְהוָה Tsevaot; and all those who slaughter will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Kena'anite in the house of יְהוָה Tsevaot.

Malakhi (Malachi)

1 The burden^a of the word of יְהוָה to Yisra'el by Malakhi.

2 "I have loved you," says יְהוָה. Yet you say, "How have You loved us?" "Was not Esaw Ya'aqov's brother?" says יְהוָה, "Yet I loved Ya'aqov; 3 but Esaw I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the monsters of the wilderness." 4 Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" יְהוָה Tsevaot says, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Border of Wickedness,' even the people against whom יְהוָה shows wrath forever."

5 Your eyes will see, and you will say, "יְהוָה is great—even beyond the border of Yisra'el!"

6 "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due Me? Says יְהוָה Tsevaot to you, priests, who despise My Name. You say, 'How have we despised Your Name?' 7 You offer polluted bread on My altar. You say, 'How have we polluted You?' In that you say, 'The table of יְהוָה is contemptible.' 8 When you offer the blind as a slaughter, is that not evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, is that not evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

9 "Now, please entreat the favor of Elohim, that He may favor us. With this, will He accept any of you?" says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 10 "Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on My altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. 11 For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, My Name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to My Name, and a pure offering; for My Name is great among the nations," says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 12 "But you profane it, in that you say, 'The table of יְהוָה is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.' 13 You say also, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it", says יְהוָה Tsevaot; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says יְהוָה. 14 "But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and slaughters to יְהוָה a defective thing; for I am a great King," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "and My Name is awesome among the nations."

2 "Now, you priests, this command is for you. 2 If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to My Name," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. 3 Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. 4 You will know that I have sent this command to you, that My covenant may be with Levi," says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 5 "My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward Me; and he was reverent toward Me, and stood in awe of My Name. 6 The Torah of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest's lips should guard knowledge, and they should seek the Torah at his mouth; for he is the messenger of יְהוָה Tsevaot. 8 But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the Torah. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 9 "Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not guarded My ways, but have had respect for persons in the Torah."

10 Do we not all have one father? Has not one Elohim created us? Why do we deal deceitfully every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Yehudah has dealt deceitfully, and an abomination is committed in Yisra'el and in Yerushalayim; for Yehudah has profaned the set-apartness of יְהוָה which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign el. 12 יְהוָה will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Ya'aqov, and him who offers an offering to יְהוָה Tsevaot. 13 This again you do: you cover the altar of יְהוָה with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because He does not regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. 14 Yet you say, 'Why?' Because יְהוָה has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt deceitfully, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. 15 Did He not make you one, although He had the remnant of the Ruah? Why one? He sought seed of Elohim. Therefore be on guard to your spirit, and let no one deal deceitfully against the wife of his youth.

16 "For I hate divorce", says יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, "and him who covers his garment with violence!" says יְהוָה Tsevaot. "Therefore be on guard to your spirit, that you do not deal deceitfully. 17 You have wearied יְהוָה with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied Him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of יְהוָה', and He delights in them;' or 'Where is the Elohim of judgment?'

3 "Behold, I send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me; and the Master whom you seek will suddenly come to His Temple; and the Messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, He comes!" says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 2 "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who will stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap; 3 and He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to יְהוָה offerings in righteousness. 4 Then the offering of Yehudah and Yerushalayim will be pleasant to יְהוָה, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. 5 I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the sojourner of justice, and do not fear Me," says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

6 "For I, יְהוָה, do not change; therefore you, sons of Ya'aqov, are not consumed. 7 From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from My ordinances, and have not guarded them. Return to Me, and I will return to you," says יְהוָה Tsevaot. "But you say, 'How shall we return?' 8 Will a man rob Elohim? Yet you rob Me! But you say, 'How have we robbed You?' In tithes and offerings. 9 You are cursed with the curse; for you rob Me, even this whole nation. 10 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "if I will not open you the windows of the heavens, and pour you out a blessing, that there will not be room enough for. 11 I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says יְהוָה

Tsevaot. 12 "All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says יְהוָה Tsevaot.

13 "Your words have been stout against Me," says יְהוָה. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against You?'

14 You have said, 'It is vain to serve Elohim;' and 'What profit is it that we have guarded His charge, and that we have walked mournfully before His charge?' 15 Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt Elohim, and escape.' 16 Then those who feared יְהוָה spoke one with another; and יְהוָה listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before Him, for those who feared יְהוָה, and who honored His Name. 17 They shall be Mine," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "My own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. 18 Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves Elohim and him who does not serve Him.

4 "For behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says יְהוָה Tsevaot, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But to you who fear My Name, the sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in its wings^a. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. 3 You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says יְהוָה Tsevaot. 4 "Remember the Torah of Mosheh My servant, which I commanded to him in Horev for all Yisra'el, even statutes and judgments. 5 Behold, I will send you Eliyah the prophet before the great and terrible day of יְהוָה comes. 6 He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

Dani'el

1 In the third year of the reign of Yehoyaqim king of Yehudah, Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel came to Yerushalayim and besieged it. 2 וְיָהּוֹתֶה gave Yehoyaqim king of Yehudah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of Elohim; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his el. He brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his el.

3 The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the children of Yisra'el, even of the royal seed and of the nobles; 4 youths in whom was no defect, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and who had the ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Kaldeans. 5 The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine of his banquet, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Yehudah: Dani'el, Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah. 7 The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Dani'el he gave the name Belteshatsar; to Hananyah, Shadrakh; to Misha'el, Meshakh; and to Azaryah, Aved-nego.

8 But Dani'el purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine of his banquet. Therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now Elohim made Dani'el find loving-kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. 10 The prince of the eunuchs said to Dani'el, "I fear my master the king, who has appointed your food and your banquet drink. For why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? So would you endanger my head with the king."

11 Then Dani'el said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Dani'el, Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah: 12 "Test your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. 13 Then let our faces be examined before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants." 14 So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days.

15 At the end of ten days, their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. 16 So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine of the banquet, and gave them vegetables.

17 Now as for these four youths, Elohim gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom; and Dani'el had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nevukhadnetsar. 19 The king talked with them; and among them all was found no one like Dani'el, Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah. Therefore they stood before the king. 20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. 21 Dani'el continued even to the first year of King Koresh.

2 In the second year of the reign of Nevukhadnetsar, Nevukhadnetsar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Kaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. 3 The king said to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream."

4 Then the Kaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."

5 The king answered the Kaldeans, "The thing has gone from me. If you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you will be cut in pieces, and your houses will be made a dunghill. 6 But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you will receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered the second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."

8 The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see the thing has gone from me. 9 But if you do not make known to me the dream, there is but one decree for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the situation changes. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can show me its interpretation."

10 The Kaldeans answered before the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, master, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Kaldean. 11 It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the elahin^a, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

12 Because of this, the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Bavel be destroyed. 13 So the decree went out, and the wise men were to be slain. They sought Dani'el and his companions to be slain.

14 Then Dani'el returned answer with counsel and prudence to Ariokh the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Bavel. 15 He answered Ariokh the king's captain, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Ariokh made the thing known to Dani'el. 16 Dani'el went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation.

17 Then Dani'el went to his house and made the thing known to Hananyah, Mishael, and Azaryah, his companions: 18 that they would desire compassion of the Elah^b of the heavens concerning this secret; that Dani'el and his companions would not perish with the rest of the wise men of Bavel. 19 Then the secret was revealed to Dani'el in a vision of the night. Then Dani'el blessed the Elah of the heavens.

20 Dani'el answered, "Blessed be the Name of Elah forever and ever; for wisdom and might are His. 21 He changes the times and the seasons. He removes kings, and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding. 22 He reveals the deep and secret things. He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. 23 I thank You, and praise You, You O Elah of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of You; for You have made known to us the king's matter."

24 Therefore Dani'el went in to see Ariokh, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Bavel. He went and said this to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Bavel. Bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation."

25 Then Ariokh brought in Dani'el before the king in haste, and said this to him: "I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Yehudah who will make known to the king the interpretation."

26 The king answered Dani'el, whose name was Belteshatsar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

27 Dani'el answered before the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded cannot be shown to the king by wise men, enchanters, magicians, or soothsayers; 28 but there is an Elah in the heavens who reveals secrets, and He has made known to the King Nevukhadnetsar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these:

29 "As for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will happen.

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

31 "You, O king, saw, and behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its appearance was terrifying. 32 As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of copper, 33 its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. 34 You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.

35 Then the iron, the clay, the copper, the silver, and the gold were broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them. The stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 "This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. 37 You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the Elah of the heavens has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the glory. 38 Wherever the children of men dwell, He has given the animals of the field and the birds of the heavens into your hand, and has made you rule over them all. You are the head of gold.

39 "After you, another kingdom will arise that is inferior to you; and another third kingdom of copper, which will rule over all the earth. 40 The fourth kingdom will be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, it will break in pieces and crush. 41 Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but there will be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. 42 As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong, and partly broken. 43 Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they will mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they will not cling to one another, even as iron does not mix with clay.

44 "In the days of those kings the Elah of the heavens will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, nor will its sovereignty be left to another people; but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever. 45 Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the copper, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great Elah has made known to the king what will happen hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

46 Then the King Nevukhadnetsar fell on his face, prostrated himself before Dani'el, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to him. 47 The king answered to Dani'el, and said, "Of a truth your Elah is the Elah of elahin, and the Master of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret."

48 Then the king made Dani'el great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him rule over the whole province of Bavel, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Bavel. 49 Dani'el requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego over the affairs of the province of Bavel; but Dani'el was in the king's gate.

3 Nevukhadnetsar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Bavel. 2 Then Nevukhadnetsar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nevukhadnetsar the king had set up. 3 Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nevukhadnetsar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nevukhadnetsar had set up.

4 Then the herald cried aloud, "To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, 5 that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and prostrate yourself before the golden image that Nevukhadnetsar the king has set up. 6 Whoever does not fall down and prostrate himself shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace the same hour."

7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and prostrated themselves before the golden image that Nevukhadnetsar the king had set up.

8 Therefore at that time certain Kaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Yehudain. 9 They answered Nevukhadnetsar the king, "O king, live forever! 10 You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and prostrate himself before the golden image; 11 and whoever does not fall down and prostrate himself shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Yehudain whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Bavel: Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego. These men, O king, have not respected you. They do not serve your elahin, and do not prostrate themselves before the golden image which you have set up."

13 Then Nevukhadnetsar in rage and fury commanded that Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego be brought. Then these men were brought before the king.

14 Nevukhadnetsar answered them, "Is it true, Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego, that you do not serve my elah, nor bow yourselfs before the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and bow yourselfs before the image which I have made, good; but if you do not bow, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Who is that elah which will deliver you out of my hands?"

16 Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego answered the king, "Nevukhadnetsar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17 If it happens, our Elah whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18 But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your elahin or prostrate ourselves before the golden image which you have set up."

19 Then Nevukhadnetsar was full of fury, and the image of his appearance was changed against Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego. He spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. 20 He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were cast into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. 22 Therefore because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego. 23 These three men, Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego, fell down bound into the middle of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nevukhadnetsar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste. He spoke and said to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the middle of the fire?" They answered the king, "Certainly, O king."

25 He answered, "Look, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed. The appearance of the fourth is like a son of Elahin."

26 Then Nevukhadnetsar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace. He spoke and said, "Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego, you servants of the Most High Elah, come out, and come here!" Then Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego came out of the middle of the fire. 27 The satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies. The hair of their head was not singed. Their pants were not changed, the smell of fire was not even on them.

28 Nevukhadnetsar spoke and said, "Blessed be the Elah of Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego, who has sent His messenger, and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor prostrate themselves before any elah, except their own Elah. 29 Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the Elah of Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other elah who is able to deliver like this."

30 Then the king promoted Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Aved-nego in the province of Bavel.

4 Nevukhadnetsar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. 2 It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High Elah has worked toward me. 3 How great are His signs! How mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. His dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I, Nevukhadnetsar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. 5 I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. 6 Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Bavel before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. 7 Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Kaldeans, and the soothsayers came in; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. 8 But at the last Dani'el came in before me, whose name was Belteshatsar, according to the name of my elah, and in whom is the Ruah of the Set-apart Elahin. I told the dream before him, saying,

9 "Belteshatsar, master of the magicians, because I know that the Ruah of the Set-apart Elahin is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. 10 Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the middle of the earth; and its height was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the heavens, and its sight to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves of it were beautiful, and it had much fruit, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

13 "I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher^a and a set-apart one came down from the heavens. 14 He cried aloud, and said thus, 'Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches! Shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit! Let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches.'

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and copper, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the heavens. Let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. 16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let an animal's heart be given to him. Then let seven times pass over him.

17 ""The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the set-apart ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will, and sets up over it the lowest of men.'

18 "This dream I, King Nevukhadnetsar, have seen; and you, Belteshatsar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make

^a 13 Watcher – Aramaic word יָרֵא (iyr) meaning "wakeful one" or "one who watches." Equated with the Aramaic קַדְשָׁן (qaddish), meaning "set-apart one." Most likely a class of messenger. Also in verses 17 and 23. A Hebrew equivalent does not appear in the Tanakh.

known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the Ruah of the Set-apart Elahin is in you."

19 Then Dani'el, whose name was Belteshatsar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, "Belteshatsar, do not let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you." Belteshatsar answered, "My master, may the dream be for those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries.

20 The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the heavens, and its sight to all the earth; 21 whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit plentiful, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the heavens had their habitation: 22 it is you, O king, that have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown, and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

23 "Whereas the king saw a watcher and a set-apart one coming down from the heavens, and saying, 'Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and copper, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the heavens. Let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him.'

24 "This is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come on my master the king: 25 that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the heavens, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. 26 Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you will have known that the heavens do rule. 27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing loving-kindness to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquility."

28 All this came on the King Nevukhadnetsar. 29 At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Bavel. 30 The king spoke and said, "Is not this great Bavel, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?"

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, a voice came from the heavens, saying, "O King Nevukhadnetsar, to you it is spoken: 'The kingdom has departed from you. 32 You shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen. Seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will.'"

33 This was fulfilled the same hour on Nevukhadnetsar. He was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 At the end of the days I, Nevukhadnetsar, lifted up my eyes to the heavens, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored Him who lives forever; for His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom from generation to generation. 35 All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and He does according to His will in the army of the heavens, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and no one can stop His hand, or ask Him, "What are you doing?"

36 At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me. My counselors and my nobles sought me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me.

37 Now I, Nevukhadnetsar, praise and extol and honor the King of the heavens; for all His works are truth, and His ways justice; and those who walk in pride He is able to abase.

5 Belshatsar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his nobles, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshatsar, while he tasted the wine, commanded that the golden and silver vessels which Nevukhadnetsar his father had taken out of the Temple which was in Yerushalayim be brought to him; that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the Temple of the house of Elah which was at Yerushalayim; and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. 4 They drank wine, and praised the elahin of gold, and of silver, of copper, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the same hour, the fingers of a man's hand came out and wrote near the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace. The king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6 Then the king's face was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosened, and his knees struck one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Kaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Bavel, "Whoever reads this writing, and shows me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

8 Then all the king's wise men came in; but they could not read the writing, and could not make known to the king the interpretation. 9 Then King Belshatsar was greatly troubled, and his face was changed in him, and his nobles were perplexed.

10 The queen by reason of the words of the king and his nobles came into the banquet house. The queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever; do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. 11 There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the Ruah of the Set-apart Elahin; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the elahin, were found in him. The King Nevukhadnetsar your father, yes, the king, your father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Kaldeans, and soothsayers; 12 because an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting of dreams, showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts were found in the same Dani'el, whom the king named Belteshatsar. Now let Dani'el be called, and he will show the interpretation."

13 Then Dani'el was brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Dani'el, "Are you that Dani'el of the children of the captivity of Yehudah, whom the king my father brought out of Yehudah? 14 I have heard of you, that the Ruah of Elahin is in you, and that light, understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you. 15 Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. 16 But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

17 Then Dani'el answered before the king, "Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 "You, king, the Most High Elah gave Nevukhadnetsar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty. 19 Because of the greatness that He gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed whom he wanted to, and he kept alive whom he wanted to. He raised up whom he wanted to, and he put down whom he wanted to. 20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. 21 He was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens; until he knew that the Most High Elah rules in the kingdom of men, and that He sets up over it whomever He will.

22 "You, his son, Belshatsar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, 23 but have lifted up yourself against the Master of the heavens; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your nobles, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. You have praised the elahin of silver and gold, of copper, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, or hear, or know; and you have not glorified the Elah in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways. 24 Then the part of the hand was sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.

25 "This is the writing that was inscribed: 'MENE^a, MENE, TEQEL^b, UPHARSIN^c.'

26 "This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE: Elah has counted your kingdom, and brought it to an end; 27 TEQEL: you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. 28 PERES: your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Parasians." ^d 29 Then Belshatsar commanded, and they clothed Dani'el with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. 30 In that night Belshatsar the Kaldean King was slain. 31 Dareyavesh the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It pleased Dareyavesh to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three overseers, of whom Dani'el was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king should suffer no loss. 3 Then this Dani'el was distinguished above the overseers and the satraps, because an excellent spirit

^a 25 Mene – Aramaic word (מְנֵה), equivalent to the Hebrew maneh (מן), which was a measurement of weight for money.

^b 25 Teqel – Aramaic word (תְּקֵל), equivalent to the Hebrew shaqal (שָׁקֵל), meaning "to weigh." Also the root for sheqel, which referred to a specific weight or value of currency.

^c 25 Upharsin – Aramaic word (עֲפָרִין), equivalent to the Hebrew paras (פָּרָס), meaning "to split, to divide."

was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. 4 Then the overseers and the satraps sought to find occasion against Dani'el as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion or fault, because he was faithful. There was not any error or fault found in him. 5 Then these men said, "We will not find any occasion against this Dani'el, unless we find it against him concerning the decree of his Elah."

6 Then these overseers and satraps assembled together to the king, and said thus to him, "King Daryavesh, live forever! 7 All the overseers of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong injunction, that whoever asks a petition of any elah or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, establish the injunction, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the decree of the Medes and Parasians, which does not alter." 9 Therefore King Daryavesh signed the writing and the injunction.

10 When Dani'el knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Yerushalayim) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his Elohim, as he did before. 11 Then these men assembled together, and found Dani'el making petition and petition before his Elohim. 12 Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's injunction: "Have you not signed an injunction that every man who makes a petition to any elah or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered, "This thing is true, according to the decree of the Medes and Parasians, which does not alter."

13 Then they answered and said before the king, "That Dani'el, who is of the children of the captivity of Yehudah, does not respect you, O king, nor the injunction that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day." 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Dani'el to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him.

15 Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is a decree of the Medes and Parasians, that no injunction nor statute which the king establishes may be changed."

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Dani'el, and cast him into the den of lions. The king spoke and said to Dani'el, "Your Elah whom you serve continually He will deliver you."

17 A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his nobles; that nothing might be changed concerning Dani'el. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting. No musical instruments were brought before him; and his sleep fled from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. 20 When he came near to the den to Dani'el, he cried with a troubled voice. The king spoke and said to Dani'el, "Dani'el, servant of the living Elah, is your Elah, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?"

21 Then Dani'el said to the king, "O king, live forever!"

22 My Elah has sent His messenger, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm."

23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Dani'el up out of the den. So Dani'el was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his Elah.

24 The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Dani'el, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.

25 Then King Daryavesh wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: "Peace be multiplied to you. 26 I make an injunction that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the Elah of Dani'el; for He is the living Elah, and steadfast forever. His kingdom is that which will not be destroyed. His dominion will be even to the end. 27 He delivers and rescues. He works signs and wonders in the heavens and in earth, who has delivered Dani'el from the power of the lions."

28 So this Dani'el prospered in the reign of Daryavesh, and in the reign of Koresh the Parasiyan.

7 In the first year of Belshatsar king of Bavel Dani'el had a dream and visions of his head on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.

2 Dani'el spoke and said, "I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heavens broke out on the great sea. 3 Four great animals came up from the sea, different from one another.

4 "The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man. A man's heart was given to it.

5 "Behold, there was another animal, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. They said this to it: 'Arise! Devour much flesh!'

6 "After this I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 "After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, there was a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet. It was different than all the animals that were before it. It had ten horns.

8 "I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 "I watched until thrones were placed, and One who was Ancient of Days sat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of His head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire. 10 A fiery stream issued and came out from before Him. Thousands of thousands ministered to Him. Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The judgment was set. The books were opened.

11 "I watched at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke. I watched even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. 12 As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 "I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the heavens one like a Son of Man, and He came even to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him. 14 Dominion was given Him, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and His kingdom that which will not be destroyed.

15 "As for me, Dani'el, my spirit was grieved within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. 16 I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. 17 'These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who will arise out of the earth. 18 But the set-apart ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.'

19 "Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was different than all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of copper; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. 21 I saw, and the same horn made war with the set-apart ones, and prevailed against them, 22 until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given to the set-apart ones of the Most High, and the time came that the set-apart ones possessed the kingdom.

23 "Thus he said, 'The fourth animal will be a fourth kingdom on earth, which will be different than all the kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, and will tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 As for the ten horns, ten kings will arise out of this kingdom. Another will arise after them; and he will be different than the former, and he will put down three kings. 25 He will speak words against the Most High, and will wear out the set-apart ones of the Most High. He will plan to change the times and decrees; and they will be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time.'

26 "But the judgment will be set, and they will take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. 27 The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heavens, will be given to the people of the set-apart ones of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey Him.'

28 "Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Dani'el, my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart."

8 In the third year of the reign of King Belshatsar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Dani'el, after that which appeared to me at the first. 2 I saw the vision. Now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Shushan, which is in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision, and I was by the Ulai River. 3 Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. The two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward. No animals could stand before him. There was not any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5 As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground. The goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. 7 I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him. There was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8 The male goat magnified himself exceedingly. When he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the heavens.

9 Out of one of them came out a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. 10 It grew great, even to the army of the heavens; and it cast down some of the army and of the stars to the ground, and trampled on them. 11 Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from Him the continual ascension offering, and the place of His set-apart place was cast down. 12 The army was given over to it together with the continual ascension offering through disobedience. It cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered.

13 Then I heard a set-apart one speaking; and another set-apart one said to that certain one who spoke, "How long will the vision about the continual ascension offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the set-apart place and the army to be trodden under foot be?"

14 He said to me, "To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings. Then the set-apart place will be declared right."

15 When I, even I Dani'el, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. Then behold, there stood before me something like the appearance of a man. 16 I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, "Gavri'el, make this man understand the vision."

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end."

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 He said, "Behold, I will make you know what will be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. 20 The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Paras. 21 The rough male goat is the king of Yavan. The great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms will stand up out of the nation, but not with his power.

23 "In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, will stand up. 24 His power will be mighty, but not by his own power. He will destroy awesomely, and will prosper in what he does. He will destroy the mighty ones and the set-apart people. 25 Through his policy he will cause deceit to prosper in his hand. He will magnify himself in his heart, and he will destroy many in their security. He will also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he will be broken without hand.

26 "The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision, for it belongs to many days to come."

27 I, Dani'el, fainted, and was sick for some days. Then I rose up, and did the king's business. I wondered at the vision, but no one understood it.

9 In the first year of Dareyavesh the son of Ahashverosh, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Kaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Dani'el, understood by the books the number of the years about which the word of יהוה came to Yirmayah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Yerushalayim, even seventy years. 3 I set my face to יהוה Elohim, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

4 I prayed to יהוה my Elohim, and made confession, and said, "Oh, יהוה, the great and dreadful Elohim, who guards covenant and loving-kindness with those who love Him and guard His commands, 5 we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from Your precepts and from Your judgments. 6 We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your Name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 "יהוה, righteousness belongs to You, but to us confusion of face, as it is today; to the men of Yehudah, and to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and to all Yisra'el, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where You have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against You.

8 "יהוה, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You. 9 To יהוה our Elohim belong compassion and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against Him.

10 We have not obeyed the voice of יהוה our Elohim, to walk in His Torot, which He set before us by His servants the prophets.

11 "Yes, all Yisra'el have transgressed Your Torah, turning aside, that they should not obey Your voice. Therefore the curse and the oath written in the Torah of Mosheh the servant of Elohim has been poured out on us; for we have sinned against Him. 12 He has confirmed His words, which He spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole heavens, such has not been done as has been done to Yerushalayim. 13 As it is written in the Torah of Mosheh, all this evil has come on us. Yet have we not entreated the favor of יהוה our Elohim, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in Your truth. 14 Therefore יהוה has watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for יהוה our Elohim is righteous in all His works which He does, and we have not obeyed His voice.

15 "Now, יהוה our Elohim, who has brought Your people out of the land of Mitsrayim with a mighty hand, and have gotten Yourself renown, as it is today; we have sinned. We have done wickedly. 16 יהוה, according to all Your righteousness, let Your anger and please let Your wrath be turned away from Your city Yerushalayim, Your set-apart mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Yerushalayim and Your people have become a reproach to all who are around us.

17 "Now therefore, our Elohim, listen to the prayer of Your servant, and to his petitions, and cause Your face to shine on Your set-apart place that is desolate, for the sake of יהוה. 18 My Elohim, turn Your ear, and hear. Open Your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by Your Name; for we do not present our petitions before You for our righteousness, but for Your great compassion's sake. 19 יהוה, hear, forgive. 20 יהוה, listen and do. Do not defer, for Your own sake, my Elohim, because Your city and Your people are called by Your Name."

20 While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Yisra'el, and presenting my petition before יהוה my Elohim for the set-apart mountain of my Elohim; 21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gavri'el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering. 22 He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, "Dani'el, I have now come to give you wisdom and understanding. 23 At the beginning of your petitions the command went out, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved. Therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.

24 "Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your set-apart city, to finish disobedience, and to close up sins, and to make atonement for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most set-apart.

25 "Know therefore and discern that from the going out of the command to restore and to build Yerushalayim to the Messiah the Ruler, will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It will be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times. 26 After the sixty-two weeks Messiah will be cut off, and will have nothing. The people of the ruler who come will destroy the city and the set-apart place. Its end will be with a flood, and war will be even to the end. Desolations are determined.

27 He will make firm a covenant with many for one week. In the midst of the week he will cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease. On the wing of abominations it shall be made desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, wrath will be poured out on the desolate."

10 In the third year of Koresh king of Paras a thing was revealed to Dani'el, whose name was called Belteshatsar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare. He understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I, Dani'el, was mourning three whole weeks. 3 I ate no pleasant bread. No meat or wine came into my mouth. I did not anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 In the twenty-fourth day of the first new moon, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddeqel^a, 5 I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, there was a man clothed in linen, whose thighs were adorned with pure gold of Uphaz. 6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches. His arms and his feet were like polished copper. The voice of his words was like the voice of a multitude.

7 I, Dani'el, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8 So I was left alone, and saw this great vision. No strength remained in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. 9 Yet I heard the voice of his words. When I heard the voice of his words, then I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

10 Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. 11 He said to me, "Dani'el, you greatly beloved man, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I have been sent to you now." When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling.

12 Then he said to me, "Do not be afraid, Dani'el; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your Elohim, your words were heard. I have come for your words' sake. 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Paras withheld me twenty-one days; but, behold, Mikha'el, one of the chief princes, came to help me because I remained there with the kings of Paras. 14 Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days."

15 When he had spoken these words to me, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. 16 Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, "My master, by reason of the vision my sorrows have overtaken me, and I retain no strength. 17 For how can the servant of this my master talk with this my master? For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me. There was no breath left in me."

18 Then one like the appearance of a man touched me again, and he strengthened me. 19 He said, "Greatly beloved man, do not be afraid. Peace be to you. Be strong. Yes, be strong." When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my master speak; for you have strengthened me."

20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Paras. When I go out, behold, the prince of Yavan will come. 21 But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth. There is no one who holds with me against these, but Mikha'el your prince."

11 "As for me, in the first year of Dareyavesh the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

2 "Now will I show you the truth. Behold, three more kings will stand up in Paras; and the fourth will be far richer than all of them. When he has grown strong through his riches, he will stir up all against the realm of Yavan. 3 A mighty king will stand up, who will rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. 4 When he stands up, his kingdom will be broken, and will be divided toward the four winds of the heavens, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom will be plucked up, even for others besides these.

5 "The king of the south will be strong. One of his princes will become stronger than him, and have dominion. His dominion will be a great dominion. 6 At the end of years they will join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to make an upright agreement; but she will not retain the strength of her arm. He will also not stand, nor will his arm; but she will be given up, with those who brought her, and he who brought forth her, and he strengthened her in those times.

7 "But out of a shoot from her roots one will stand up in his place, who will come to the army, and will enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and will deal against them, and will prevail. 8 He will also carry their elohim, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, captive into Mitsrayim. He will refrain some years from the king of the north. 9 He will come into the realm of the king of the south, but he will return into his own land. 10 His sons will wage war, and will assemble a multitude of great forces, which will come on, and overflow, and pass through. They will return and wage war, even to his fortress.

11 "The king of the south will be moved with anger, and will come out and fight with him, even with the king of the north. He will send out a great multitude, and the multitude will be given into his hand. 12 The multitude will be lifted up, and his heart will be exalted. He will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not prevail. 13 The king of the north will return, and will send out a multitude greater than the former. He will come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance.

14 "In those times many will stand up against the king of the south. Also the children of the violent among your people will lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they will fall. 15 So the king of the north will come and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city. The forces of the south will not stand, neither will his chosen people, neither will there be any strength to stand.

16 "But he who comes against him will do according to his own will, and no one will stand before him. He will stand in the glorious land, and destruction will be in his hand. 17 He will set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions. He will perform them. He will give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she will not stand, and will not be for him.

18 "After this he will turn his face to the islands, and will take many; but a prince will cause the reproach offered by him to cease. Yes, moreover, he will cause his reproach to turn on him. 19 Then he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he will stumble and fall, and will not be found. 20 Then one who will cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory will stand up in his place; but within few days he shall be destroyed, not in anger, and not in battle.

21 "In his place a contemptible person will stand up, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom; but he will come in time of security, and will obtain the kingdom by flatteries. 22 The overwhelming forces will be overwhelmed from before him, and will be broken. Yes, also the prince of the covenant. 23 After the treaty made with him he will work deceitfully; for he will come up, and will become strong, with a small people. 24 In time of security he will come even on the fattest places of the province. He will do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers. He will scatter among them spoil, plunder, and substance. Yes, he will devise his plans against the strongholds, even for a time.

25 "He will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south will wage war in battle with an exceedingly great and mighty army; but he will not stand; for they will devise plans against him. 26 Yes, those who eat of his dainties will destroy him, and his army will be swept away. Many will fall down slain. 27 As for both these kings, their hearts will be to do mischief, and they will speak lies at one table; but it will not prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time. 28 Then he will return into his land with great wealth. His heart will be against the set-apart covenant. He will take action, and return to his own land.

29 "He will return at the appointed time, and come into the south; but it will not be in the latter time as it was in the former. 30 For ships of Kittim will come against him. Therefore he will be grieved, and will return, and have indignation against the set-apart covenant, and will take action. He will even return, and have regard to those who forsake the set-apart covenant. 31 Forces will stand on his part, and they will profane the set-apart place, even the fortress, and will take away the continual ascension offering. Then they will set up the abomination that lays waste. 32 He will pervert those who do wickedly against the covenant by flatteries; but the people who know their Elohim will be strong, and take action.

33 "Those who are wise among the people will instruct many; yet they will fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder, many days. 34 Now when they fall, they will be helped with a little help; but many will join themselves to them with flatteries. 35 Some of those who are wise will fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

36 "The king will do according to his will. He will exalt himself, and magnify himself above every el, and will speak marvelous things against the El of elohim. He will prosper until the indignation is accomplished; for that which is determined will be done. 37 He will not regard the eloah of his fathers, or the desire of women, or regard any el; for he will magnify himself above all. 38 But in his place he will honor the eloah of fortresses. He will honor an eloah whom his fathers did not know with gold, silver, and with precious stones and pleasant things. 39 He will deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign eloah. He will increase with glory whoever acknowledges him. He will cause them to rule over many, and will divide the land for a price.

40 "At the time of the end the king of the south will contend with him; and the king of the north will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, with horsemen, and with many ships. He will enter into the countries, and will overflow and pass through. 41 He will enter also into the glorious land, and many countries will be overthrown; but these will be delivered out of his hand: Edom, Moav, and the chief of the children of Ammon. 42 He will also stretch out his hand on the countries. The land of Mitsrayim will not escape. 43 But he will have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Mitsrayim. The Lubites and the Kushites will be at his steps. 44 But news out of the east and out of the north will trouble him; and he will go out with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. 45 He will plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious set-apart mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

12 "At that time Mikha'el will stand, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time. At that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. 2 Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.^a

3 "Those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the expanse. Those who turn many to righteousness will shine as the stars forever and ever. 4 But you, Dani'el, close up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end. Many will run back and forth, and knowledge will be increased."

5 Then I, Dani'el, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, and the other on the river bank on that side. 6 One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long will it be to the end of these wonders?"

7 I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to the heavens, and swore by Him who lives forever that it will be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have finished breaking in pieces the power of the set-apart people, all these things will be finished. 8 I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, "My master, what will be the outcome of these things?"

9 He said, "Go your way, Dani'el; for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many will purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked will do wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand; but those who are wise will understand. 11 From the time that the continual ascension offering is taken away, and the abomination that lays waste is set up, there will be one thousand two hundred and ninety days. 12 Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days.

13 "But go you your way until the end; for you will rest, and will stand in your inheritance at the end of the days."

Tehillim (Psalms)

1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand in the way of sinners, nor sit in the seat of scoffers; 2 but his delight is in the Torah of יְהוָה. On His Torah he meditates day and night.

3 He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaf also does not wither. Whatever he does shall prosper.

4 The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.

5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For יְהוָה knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

2 Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take counsel together, against יְהוָה, and against His Anointed, saying,

3 "Let us break their bonds apart, and cast their cords from us."

4 He who sits in the heavens will laugh. יְהוָה will have them in derision.

5 Then He will speak to them in His anger, and terrify them in His wrath:

6 "Yet I have set My King on My set-apart hill of Tsion."

7 I will tell of the decree. יְהוָה said to me, "You are My son. Today I have brought you forth. 8 Ask of Me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession. 9 You shall break them with a rod of iron. You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."

10 Now therefore be wise, you kings. Be disciplined, you judges of the earth.

11 Serve יְהוָה with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Give sincere homage to the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish on the way, for His wrath will soon be kindled. Blessed are all those who take refuge in Him.

3 A Psalm by David, when he fled from Avshalom his son.

1 O יְהוָה, how my adversaries have increased! Many are rising up against me.

2 Many are saying of my being, "There is no help for him in Elohim."

Selah.

3 But You, O יְהוָה, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

4 I cry to יְהוָה with my voice, and He answers me out of His set-apart mountain.

Selah.

5 I lay down and slept. I awoke, for יְהוָה supports me.

6 I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

7 Arise, יְהוָה! Save me, my Elohim! For You have struck all of my enemies on the cheek. You have broken the teeth^a of the wicked.

8 Salvation belongs to יְהוָה. Your blessing be on Your people.

Selah.

4 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by David.

1 Answer me when I call, O Elohim of my righteousness. You enlarged me^b when I was in distress. Be kind to me, and hear my prayer.

2 You sons of men, how long shall my glory become dishonor? Will you love vanity, and seek after falsehood?

Selah.

3 But know that יְהוָה has set apart for Himself him who is kind: יְהוָה hears when I call to Him.

4 Stand in awe, and do not sin. Search your own heart on your bed, and be still.

Selah.

5 Slaughter the sacrifices of righteousness. Rely on יְהוָה.

6 Many say, "Who will show us any good?" יְהוָה, let the light of Your face shine on us.

7 You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and their new wine are increased.

8 In peace I will both lie down and sleep, for You, יְהוָה alone, make me dwell securely.

5 For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in You. I will sing praise to Your Name, O Elyon.
3 When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish in Your presence.
4 For You have maintained my just judgment. You sit on the throne judging righteously.
5 You have rebuked the nations. You have destroyed the wicked. You have blotted out their name forever and ever.
6 The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin. The very memory of the cities which You have overthrown has perished.
7 But יְהוָה reigns forever. He has prepared His throne for judgment.
8 He will judge the world in righteousness. He will administer judgment to the peoples in uprightness.
9 יְהוָה will also be a high tower for the oppressed; a high tower in times of trouble.
10 Those who know Your Name will rely on You, for You, יְהוָה, have not forsaken those who seek You.
11 Sing praises to יְהוָה, who dwells in Tsion, and declare among the people what He has done.
12 For He who avenges blood remembers them. He does not forget the cry of the afflicted.
13 Be kind to me, יְהוָה. See my affliction by those who hate me, and lift me up from the gates of death; 14 that I may show all of Your praise. In the gates of the daughter of Tsion, I will rejoice in Your salvation.

15 The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made. In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.
16 יְהוָה has made Himself known. He has executed judgment. The wicked is snared by the work of his own hands.

Meditation. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol. Even all the nations that forget Elohim.
18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.
19 Arise, יְהוָה! Do not let man prevail. Let the nations be judged in Your eyes.
20 Put them in fear, יְהוָה. Let the nations know that they are only men.

10 Why do You stand far off, יְהוָה? Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble?
2 In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak. They are caught in the schemes that they devise.
3 For the wicked boasts of his being's desires. He blesses the greedy, and condemns יְהוָה.
4 The wicked, in the pride of his face, has no room in his thoughts for Elohim.
5 His ways are prosperous at all times. He is haughty, and Your judgments are far from his sight. As for all his adversaries, he sneers at them.
6 He says in his heart, "I shall not be shaken. For generations I shall have no trouble."
7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression. Under his tongue is toil and vain exertion.
8 He lies in wait near the villages. From ambushes, he murders the innocent. His eyes are secretly set against the helpless.
9 He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush. He lies in wait to catch the helpless. He catches the helpless, when he draws him in his net.
10 The helpless are crushed. They collapse. They fall under his strength.
11 He says in his heart, "El has forgotten. He hides His face. He will never see it."
12 Arise, יְהוָה! El, lift up Your hand! Do not forget the helpless.
13 Why does the wicked person condemn Elohim, and say in his heart, "Elohim will not call me into account?"
14 But You do see toil and grief. You consider it to take it into Your hand. You help the victim and the fatherless.

^a 5 Heb. MT contains the word אלֹהִים (elohim) as it is here. Notice this is not the word מלאך (malak) which means "messenger." LXX uses the word ἀγγελος (angelos) which does mean "messenger." Syr. agrees with the Septuagint, rendering it מַלְאָכָה (malaka), meaning "messenger." Lat. agrees with the Masoretic, rendering it with the Latin word Deo, the equivalent to the singular form El. See also Ivrim 2:7.

15 Break the arm of the wicked. As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until You find none.

16 יְהוָה יְהוָה is King forever and ever! The nations will perish out of His land.

17 יְהוָה, You have heard the desire of the humble. You will prepare their heart. You will cause Your ear to hear; 18 to judge the fatherless and the oppressed; that man, who is of the earth, may terrify no more.

11 For the Chief Musician. By David.

1 In יְהוָה, I take refuge. How can you say to my being, "Flee as a bird to your mountain!"

2 For, behold, the wicked bend their bows. They set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 יְהוָה is in His set-apart Temple. יְהוָה is on His throne in heavens. His eyes observe. His eyes examine the children of men.

5 יְהוָה examines the righteous, but the wicked and him who loves violence His being hates.

6 On the wicked He will rain blazing coals; fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For נָסָר is righteous. He loves righteousness. The upright shall see His face.

12 For the Chief Musician; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David.

1 Help, יְהוָה; for the kind one ceases. For the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 Everyone lies to his neighbor. They speak with flattering lips, and with a double heart.

3 May יְהוָה cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that boasts,

4 who have said, "With our tongue we will prevail. Our lips are our own. Who is master over us?"

5 "Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy, I will now arise," says יְהוָה; "I will set him in safety from those who malign him."

6 The speeches of יְהוָה are flawless speeches, as silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times.

7 You will guard them, יְהוָה. You will preserve them from this generation forever.

8 The wicked walk on every side, when what is vile is exalted among the sons of men.

13 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 How long, יְהוָה? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in my being, having sorrow in my heart every day? How long shall my enemy triumph over me?

3 Behold, and answer me, יְהוָה, my Elohim. Give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;

4 Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him;" Lest my adversaries rejoice when I fall.

5 But I rely on Your loving-kindness. My heart rejoices in Your salvation.

6 I will sing to יְהוָה, because He has been good to me.

14 For the Chief Musician. By David.

1 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no Elohim." They are corrupt. They have done abominable deeds. There is no one who does good.

2 יְהוָה looked down from heavens on the children of men, to see if there were any who understood, who sought after Elohim.

3 They have all gone aside. They have together become corrupt. There is no one who does good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of vain exertion no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call on יְהוָה?

5 There they were in great fear, for Elohim is in the generation of the righteous.

6 You frustrate the plan of the poor, because יְהוָה is his refuge.

7 Oh that the salvation of Yisra'el would come out of Tsion! When יְהוָה restores the fortunes of His people, then Ya'aqov shall rejoice, and Yisra'el shall be glad.

15 A Psalm by David. 1 יְהוָה, who shall dwell in Your set-apart place? Who shall live on Your set-apart hill?

2 He who walks blamelessly does what is right, and speaks truth in his heart;

3 He who does not slander with his tongue, nor does evil to his friend, nor casts slurs against his fellow man;

4 In whose eyes a vile man is despised, but who honors those who fear יְהוָה; he who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and does not change;

5 he who does not lend out his money for usury, nor take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be shaken.

16 A Poem by David.

1 Guard me, O El, for in You do I take refuge.

2 My being, you have said to נָסָר, "You are Adonai. Apart from You I have no good thing."

3 As for the set-apart ones who are in the earth, they are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.

4 Their wounds shall be multiplied who give gifts to another el. Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take their names on my lips.

5 יְהוָה assigned my portion and my cup. You made my lot secure.

6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places. Yes, I have a good inheritance.

7 I will bless יְהוָה, who has given me counsel. Yes, my kidneys discipline me in the night seasons.

8 I have set יְהוָה always before me. Because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices. My body shall also dwell securely.

10 For You will not leave my being in Sheol, neither will You allow Your Kind One to see corruption.

11 You will show me the path of life. In Your presence is fullness of joy. In Your right hand there are pleasures forever more.

17 A Prayer by David.

1 Hear, יְהוָה, my righteous plea; Give ear to my prayer, that does not go out of deceitful lips.

2 Let my judgment come out of Your presence. Let Your eyes look on uprightness.

3 You have proved my heart. You have visited me in the night. You have tried me, and found nothing. I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey.

4 As for the deeds of men, by the word of Your lips, I have guarded myself from the ways of the violent.

5 My steps have held fast to Your paths. My feet have not slipped.

6 I have called on You, for You will answer me, El. Turn Your ear to me. Hear my speech.

7 Show Your marvelous loving-kindness, You who save those who take refuge by Your right hand from their enemies.

8 Guard me as the little man^a of the daughter of the eye. Hide me under the shadow of Your wings, 9 from the wicked who oppress me, my deadly enemies, who surround me.

10 They close up their callous hearts. With their mouth they speak proudly.

11 They have now surrounded us in our steps. They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.

12 He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, יְהוָה, confront him. Cast him down. Deliver my being from the wicked by Your sword;

14 from men by Your hand, יְהוָה, from men of the world, whose portion is in this life. You fill the belly of Your cherished ones. Your sons have plenty, and they store up wealth for their children.

15 As for me, I shall see Your face in righteousness. I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing Your form.

18 For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of יְהוָה, who spoke to יְהוָה the words of this song in the day that יְהוָה delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said,
1 I love You, יְהוָה, my strength.

2 יְהוָה is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer; my El, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

3 I call on יְהוָה, who is worthy to be praised; and I am saved from my enemies.

4 The cords of death surrounded me. The wadis of Beliya'al made me afraid.

5 The cords of Sheol were around me. The snares of death came on me.

6 In my distress I called on יְהוָה, and cried to my Elohim. He heard my voice out of His Temple. My cry before Him came into His ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken, because He was angry.

8 Smoke went out of His nostrils. Consuming fire came out of His mouth. Coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down. Thick darkness was under His feet.

10 He rode on a keruv, and flew. Yes, He soared on the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness His hiding place, His pavilion around Him, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness before Him His thick clouds passed, hailstones and coals of fire.

13 יְהוָה also thundered in the heavens. Elyon uttered His voice: hailstones and coals of fire.

14 He sent out His arrows, and scattered them; Yes, great lightning bolts, and routed them.

15 Then the channels of waters appeared. The foundations of the world were laid bare at Your rebuke, יְהוָה, at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

16 He sent from on high. He took me. He drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.

18 They came on me in the day of my calamity, but יְהוָה was my support.

19 He brought me out also into a large place. He delivered me, because He delighted in me.

20 יְהוָה has rewarded me according to my righteousness. According to the cleanness of my hands has He recompensed me.

21 For I have guarded the ways of יהוה, and have not wickedly departed from my Elohim.

22 For all His judgments were before me. I did not put away His statutes from me.

23 I was also blameless with Him. I guarded myself from my iniquity.

24 Therefore יהוה has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His eyesight.

25 With the kind You will show Yourself kind. With the perfect man, You will show Yourself perfect.

26 With the pure, You will show Yourself pure. With the perverse You will show Yourself astute.

27 For You will save the afflicted people, but the haughty eyes You will bring down.

28 For You will light my lamp, יהוה. My Elohim will light up my darkness.

29 For by You, I advance through a troop. By my Elohim, I leap over a wall.

30 As for El, His way is perfect. The speeches of יהוה are tried. He is a shield to all those who take refuge in Him.

31 For who is Eloah, except יהוה? Who is a rock, besides our Elohim, 32 The El who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect?

33 He makes my feet like deer's feet, and sets me on my high places.

34 He teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of copper.

35 You have also given me the shield of Your salvation. Your right hand sustains me. Your gentleness has made me great.

36 You have enlarged my steps under me, my feet have not slipped.

37 I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them. Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.

38 I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise. They shall fall under my feet.

39 For You have armed me with strength to the battle. You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

40 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those who hate me.

41 They cried, but there was no one to save; even to יהוה, but He did not answer them.

42 Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind. I cast them out as the mire of the streets.

43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people. You have made me the head of the nations. A people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me. The sons of foreigners shall submit themselves to me.

45 The sons of foreigners shall fade away, and shall come trembling out of their close places.

46 יהוה lives; and blessed be my rock. Exalted be the Elohim of my salvation, 47 even the El who executes vengeance for me, and subdues peoples under me.

48 He rescues me from my enemies. Yes, You lift me up above those who rise up against me. You deliver me from the violent man.

49 Therefore I will give thanks to You, יהוה, among the nations, and will sing praises to Your Name.

50 He gives great deliverance to His king, and shows loving-kindness to His anointed, to David and to his seed, forever more.

19 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 The heavens declare the glory of El. The expanse shows His handiwork.

2 Day after day they pour out speech, and night after night they display knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their voice has gone out through all the earth, their sayings to the end of the world. In them He has set a tent for the sun,

5 which is as a bridegroom coming out of his room, like a strong man rejoicing to run his course.

6 His going out is from the end of the heavens, his circuit to its ends; there is nothing hidden from its heat.

7 The Torah of יהוה is perfect, restoring the being. The witness of יהוה is faithful, making wise the simple.

8 The precepts of יהוה are right, rejoicing the heart. The command of יהוה is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of יהוה is clean, enduring forever. The judgments of יהוה are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the extract of the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is Your servant warned. In guarding them there is great reward.

12 Who can discern his errors? Acquit me of hidden ones.

13 Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins. Let them not have dominion over me. Then I will be upright. I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.

14 Let the speeches of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your eyes, יהוה, my rock, and my redeemer.

20 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 May יְהוָה answer you in the day of trouble. May the Name of the Elohim of Ya'aqov set you up on high,
2 send you help from the set-apart place, sustain you from Tsion,
3 remember all your offerings, and accept your ascension offering.

Selah.

4 May He grant you your heart's desire, and fulfill all your counsel.

5 We will triumph in Your salvation. In the Name of our Elohim, we will set up our banners. May יְהוָה grant all your requests.

6 Now I know that יְהוָה saves His anointed. He will answer him from His set-apart heavens, with the saving strength of His right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we trust the Name of יְהוָה our Elohim.

8 They are bowed down and fallen, but we rise up, and stand upright.

9 Save, יְהוָה! Let the King answer us when we call!

21 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 The king rejoices in Your strength, יְהוָה! How greatly he rejoices in Your salvation!

2 You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips.

Selah.

3 For You meet him with the blessings of goodness.

You set a crown of fine gold on his head.

4 He asked life of You, You gave it to him, even length of days forever and ever.

5 His glory is great in Your salvation. You lay honor and majesty on him.

6 For You make him most blessed forever. You make him glad with joy in Your presence.

7 For the king relies on יְהוָה. Through the loving-kindness of Elyon, he shall not be moved.

8 Your hand will find out all of Your enemies. Your right hand will find out those who hate You.

9 You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of Your anger. יְהוָה will swallow them up in His wrath. The fire shall devour them.

10 You will destroy their seed from the earth, their posterity from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against You. They plotted evil against You which cannot succeed.

12 For You will make them turn their back, when You aim drawn bows at their face.

13 Be exalted, יְהוָה, in Your strength, so we will sing and praise Your power.

22 For the Chief Musician; set to "The Doe of the Morning." A Psalm by David.

1 My El, my El, why have You forsaken me? Why are You so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?

2 My Elohim, I cry in the daytime, but You do not answer; in the night season, and am not silent.

3 But You are set-apart, You who inhabit the praises of Yisra'el.

4 Our fathers relied on You. They relied, and You delivered them.

5 They cried to You, and were delivered. They relied on You, and were not disappointed.

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised by the people.

7 All those who see me mock me. They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads, saying,

8 "He trusts in יְהוָה. Let Him deliver him. Let Him rescue him, since He delights in him."

9 But You brought me out of the womb. You made me rely while at my mother's breasts.

10 I was thrown on You from my mother's womb. You are my El since my mother bore me.

11 Do not be far from me, for trouble is near. For there is no one to help.

12 Many bulls have surrounded me. Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me.

13 They open their mouths wide against me, lions tearing prey and roaring.

14 I am poured out like water. All my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax; it is melted in my gut.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd. My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have surrounded me. A company of evildoers have enclosed me. They have pierced my hands and feet^a.

17 I can count all of my bones. They look and stare at me.

18 They divide my garments among them. They cast lots for my clothing.

19 But do not be far off, יְהוָה. You are my help: hurry to help me.

20 Deliver my being from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth! Yes, from the horns

^a 16 Some Heb. MT manuscripts read, "Like a lion, they are at my hands and feet." However, various other versions such as the LXX, Syr. and DSS all agree with the rendering above.

of the wild oxen, You have answered me.

22 I will declare Your Name to my brothers. Among the assembly, I will praise You.

23 You who fear יְהוָה, praise Him! All you seed of Ya'aqov, glorify Him! Stand in awe of Him, all you seed of Yisra'el!

24 For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither has He hidden His face from him; but when he cried to Him, He heard.

25 Of You comes my praise in the great assembly. I will pay my vows before those who fear Him.

26 The humble shall eat and be satisfied. Those who seek after Him shall praise יְהוָה. Let your hearts live forever.

27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to יְהוָה. All the relatives of the nations shall bow down before You.

28 For the kingdom belongs to יְהוָה. He is the ruler over the nations.

29 All the rich ones of the earth shall eat and bow down. All those who go down to the dust shall kneel before Him, even he who cannot keep his being alive.

30 A seed shall serve Him. Future generations shall be told about יְהוָה.

31 They shall come and shall declare His righteousness to a people that shall be born, for He has done it.

23 A Psalm by David.

1 יְהוָה is my shepherd: I shall lack nothing.

2 He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters.

3 He restores my being. He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake.

4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me. Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil. My cup runs over.

6 Surely goodness and loving-kindness shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of יְהוָה forever.

24 A Psalm by David.

1 The earth belongs to יְהוָה, with its fullness; the world, and those who dwell therein.

2 For He has founded it on the seas, and established it on the floods.

3 Who may ascend to the hill of יְהוָה? Who may stand in His set-apart place?

4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up his being to falsehood, and has not sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive a blessing from יְהוָה, righteousness from the Elohim of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face—even Ya'aqov.

Selah.

7 Lift up your heads, you gates! Be lifted up, you everlasting doors, and the King of glory will come in.

8 Who is the King of glory? יְהוָה, strong and mighty, יְהוָה, mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, you gates; yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors, and the King of glory will come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? יְהוָה Tsevaot is the King of glory!

25 By David.

22 Redeem Yisra'el, Elohim, out of all his troubles.^a

26 By David.

1 Judge me, יְהוָה, for I have walked in my integrity. I have also relied on יְהוָה without wavering.

2 Examine me, יְהוָה, and prove me. Try my heart and my kidneys.

3 For Your loving-kindness is before my eyes. I have walked in Your truth.

4 I have not sat with deceitful men, neither will I go in with hypocrites.

5 I hate the assembly of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wash my hands in innocence, so I will go about Your altar, ;תְּהִלָּה

7 that I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, and tell of all Your wondrous deeds.

8 יְהוָה, I love the habitation of Your house, the place where Your glory dwells.

9 Do not gather my being with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men;

10 in whose hands is lewdness, their right hand is full of bribes.

11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me, and be kind to me.

12 My foot stands in an even place. In the congregations I will bless יְהוָה.

27 By David.

1 יְהוָה is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear?

2 יְהוָה is the strength of my life. Of whom shall I be afraid?

3 When evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

4 Though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. Though war should rise against me, even then I will be secure.

5 One thing I have asked of יְהוָה, that I will seek after: that I may dwell in the house of יְהוָה all the days of my life, to see the beauty of יְהוָה, and to inquire in His Temple.

6 For in the day of trouble He will keep me secretly in His pavilion. In the covert of His Tabernacle He will hide me. He will lift me up on a rock.

7 Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me; I will slaughter sacrifices of joy in His tent. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to יְהוָה.

^a 22 Tehillim 25 is known as an acrostic psalm. That is, the first Hebrew letter of each sentence begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew Alef-Bet. For example, the first sentence begins with an Alef, while the second sentence begins with a Bet, and the third a Gimel, and so on.

7 Hear, יְהוָה, when I cry with my voice. Be kind also to me, and answer me.

8 When You said, "Seek My face," my heart said to You, "I will seek Your face, " יְהוָה.

9 Do not hide Your face from me. Do not put Your servant away in anger. You have been my help. Do not abandon me, neither forsake me, Elohim of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then You will take me up.

11 Teach me Your way, יְהוָה. Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies.

12 Do not deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen up against me, such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I am affirmed in this: I will see the goodness of יְהוָה in the land of the living.

14 Wait for יְהוָה. Be strong, and let your heart take courage. Yes, wait for יְהוָה.

28 By David.

1 To You, יְהוָה, I call. My rock, do not be deaf to me; lest, if You are silent to me, I would become like those who go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to You, when I lift up my hands toward Your Most Set-apart Place.

3 Do not draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of vain exertion who speak peace with their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings. Give them according to the operation of their hands. Bring back on them what they deserve.

5 Because they do not respect the works of יְהוָה, nor the operation of His hands, He will break them down and not build them up.

6 Blessed be יְהוָה, because He has heard the voice of my petitions.

7 יְהוָה is my strength and my shield. My heart has relied on Him, and I am helped. Therefore my heart greatly rejoices. With my song I will thank Him.

8 יְהוָה is their strength. He is a stronghold of salvation to His anointed.

9 Save Your people, and bless Your inheritance. Be their Shepherd also, and bear them up forever.

29 A Psalm by David.

1 Ascribe to יְהוָה, you sons of the mighty, ascribe to His glory and strength.

2 Ascribe to יְהוָה the glory due to His Name. Bow down to יְהוָה in set-apart array.

3 The voice of יְהוָה is on the waters. The El of glory thunders, even יְהוָה on many waters.

4 The voice of יְהוָה is powerful. The voice of יְהוָה is full of majesty.

5 The voice of יְהוָה breaks the cedars. Yes, יְהוָה breaks in pieces the cedars of Levanon.

6 He makes them also to skip like a calf; Levanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox.

7 The voice of יְהוָה strikes with flashes of lightning.

8 The voice of יְהוָה shakes the wilderness. יְהוָה shakes the wilderness of Qadesh.

9 The voice of יְהוָה makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare. In His Temple everything says, "Glory!"

10 يְהוָה sat enthroned at the Flood. Yes, יְהוָה sits as King forever.

11 יְהוָה will give strength to His people. יְהוָה will bless His people with peace.

30 A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

1 I will extol You, יְהוָה, for You have raised me up, and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 יְהוָה my Elohim, I cried to You, and You have healed me.

3 יְהוָה, You have brought up my being from Sheol. You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing praise to יְהוָה, You set-apart ones of His. Give thanks to His set-apart Name.

5 For His anger is but for a moment. His acceptance is for a lifetime. Weeping may stay for the night, but joy comes in the morning.

6 As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved."

7 You, יְהוָה, by Your acceptance, made my mountain stand strong; but when You hid Your face, I was troubled.

8 I cried to You, יְהוָה. I made petitions to יְהוָה:

9 "What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise You? Shall it declare Your truth? 10 Hear, יְהוָה, and be kind to me. יְהוָה, be my helper."

11 You have turned my mourning into dancing for me. You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness, 12 To the end that my heart may sing praise to You, and not be silent. יְהוָה my Elohim, I will give thanks to You forever!

31 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 In You, יְהוָה, I take refuge. Let me never be disappointed. Deliver me in Your righteousness.

2 Bow down Your ear to me. Deliver me speedily. Be to me a strong rock, a house of defense to save me.

3 For You are my rock and my fortress, therefore for Your Name's sake lead me and guide me.

4 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me, for You are my stronghold.

5 Into Your hand I commend my spirit. You redeem me, יְהוָה, El of truth.

6 I hate those who gaurd lying vanities, but I rely on יְהוָה.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in Your loving-kindness, for You have seen my affliction. You have known my being in adversities.

8 You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy. You have set my feet in a large place.

9 Be kind to me, יְהוָה, for I am in distress. My eye, my being, and my belly waste away with grief.

10 For my life is spent with sorrow, my years with sighing. My strength fails because of my iniquity. My bones are wasted away.

11 Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors, a fear to my acquaintances. Those who saw me on the street fled from me.

12 I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man. I am like broken pottery.

13 For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side, while they conspire together against me, they plot to take away my life.

14 But I rely on You, יְהוָה. I said, "You are my Elohim."

15 My times are in Your hand. Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

16 Make Your face to shine on Your servant. Save me in Your loving-kindness.

17 Let me not be disappointed, יְהוָה, for I have called on You. Let the wicked be disappointed. Let them be silent in Sheol.

18 Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.

19 Oh how great is Your goodness, which You have laid up for those who fear You, which You have worked for those who take refuge in You, before the sons of men!

20 In the shelter of Your presence You will hide them from the plotting of man. You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.

21 Praise be to יְהוָה, for He has shown me His marvelous loving-kindness in a strong city.

22 As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before Your eyes." Nevertheless You heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to You.

23 Oh love יְהוָה, all you His set-apart ones! יְהוָה preserves the faithful, and fully repays him who behaves arrogantly.

24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in יְהוָה.

32 By David. A contemplative psalm.

1 Blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man to whom יְהוָה does not impute iniquity, in whose spirit there is no deceit.

3 When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

4 For day and night Your hand was heavy on me. My strength was sapped in the heat of summer.

Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin to You. I did not hide my iniquity. I said, I will confess my transgressions to יְהוָה, and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Selah.

6 For this, let everyone who is kind pray to You in a time when You may be found. Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.

7 You are my hiding place. You will preserve me from trouble. You will surround me with songs of deliverance.

Selah.

8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go. I will counsel you with my eye on you.

9 Do not be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.

10 Many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving-kindness shall surround him who relies on יְהוָה.

11 Be glad in יְהוָה, and rejoice, you righteous! Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

33 Rejoice in יְהוָה, you righteous! Praise is fitting for the upright.

2 Give thanks to יְהוָה with the lyre. Sing praises to Him with the harp of ten strings. 3 Sing to Him a new song. Play skillfully with a shout of joy!

4 For the word of יְהוָה is right. All His work is done in faithfulness.

5 He loves righteousness and judgment. The earth is full of the loving-kindness of יְהוָה.

6 By the word of יְהוָה, the heavens were made; all their army by the breath of His mouth.

7 He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap. He lays up the deeps in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear יְהוָה. Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.

9 For He spoke, and it was done. He commanded, and it stood firm.

10 יְהוָה brings the counsel of the nations to nothing. He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.

11 The counsel of יְהוָה stands fast forever, the thoughts of His heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose Elohim is יְהוָה, the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance.

13 יְהוָה looks from heavens. He sees all the sons of men.

14 From the place of His habitation He looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth, 15 He who fashions all of their hearts; and He considers all of their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an army. A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

17 A horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does he deliver any by his great power.

18 Behold, the eye of יְהוָה is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His loving-kindness;

19 to deliver their being from death, to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our being has waited for יְהוָה. He is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart rejoices in Him, because we have relied on His set-apart Name.

22 Let your loving-kindness be on us, יְהוָה, since we have hoped in You.

9 Oh fear יְהוָה, you His set-apart ones, for there is no lack with those who fear Him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek יְהוָה shall not lack any good thing.

35 By David.

1 Contend, יְהֹוָה, with those who contend with me.

Fight against those who fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.

3 Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me. Tell my being, "I am your salvation."

4 Let those who seek after my being be disappointed and brought to dishonor. Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind, the messenger of יְהֹוָה driving them on.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery, the messenger of יְהֹוָה pursuing them.

7 For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me. Without cause they have dug a pit for my being.

8 Let desolation come on him unawares. Let his net that he has hidden catch himself. Let him fall into that desolation.

9 My being shall be joyful in יְהֹוָה. It shall rejoice in His salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, "יְהֹוָה, who is like You, who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him; yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him?"

11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up. They ask me about things that I do not know about.

12 They reward me evil for good, to the bereaving of my being.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth. I afflicted my being with fasting. My prayer returned into my own bosom.

14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother. I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother.

15 But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together. The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I did not know it. They tore at me, and did not cease.

16 Like the profane mockers in bread cakes, they gnashed their teeth at me.

17 יְהֹוָה, how long will You look on? Rescue my being from their desolation, my precious life from the lions.

18 I will give You thanks in the great assembly. I will praise You among many people.

19 Do not let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes.

20 For they do not speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.

21 Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me. They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!"

22 You have seen it, יְהֹוָה. Do not keep silent. יְהֹוָה, do not be far from me.

23 Stir Yourself and awake to my judgment, O my Elohim; and my Master to my cause.

24 Vindicate me, יְהֹוָה my Elohim, according to Your righteousness. Do not let them gloat over me.

25 Do not let them say in their heart, "Aha! It is according to our being's desire!" Do not let them say, "We have swallowed him up!"

26 Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity. Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.

27 Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause. Yes, let them say continually, "יְהֹוָה be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant!"

28 My tongue shall talk about Your righteousness and about Your praise all day long.

36 For the Chief Musician. By David, the servant of יְהֹוָה.

1 An inner set-apart place is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked: "There is no fear of Elohim before his eyes."

2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes, concerning the discovery of his iniquity.

3 The words of his mouth are vain exertion and deceit. He has ceased to be wise and to do good.

4 He plots vain exertion on his bed. He sets himself in a way that is not good. He does not abhor evil.

5 Your loving-kindness, נַחַת, is in the heavens. Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

6 Your righteousness is like the mountains of El. Your judgments are like a great deep. יְהֹוָה, You preserve man and animal.

7 How precious is Your loving-kindness, Elohim! The children of men take refuge under the shadow of Your wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of Your house. You will make them drink of the wadi of Your pleasures.

9 For with You is the spring of life. In Your light shall we see light.

10 Oh continue Your loving-kindness to those who know You, Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Do not let the foot of pride come against me. Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

12 There the workers of vain exertion are fallen. They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

37 By David.

ה (Hey)

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath. Do not fret, it leads only to evildoing.

9 For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for יְהוָה shall inherit the land.

ו (Vav)

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more. Yes, though you look for his place, he is not there.

11 But the humble shall inherit the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes at him with his teeth.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but יְהוָה supports the righteous.

18 יְהוָה knows the days of the perfect. Their inheritance shall be forever.

19 They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil. In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

כ (Kaf)

38 A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

1 יְהוָה, do not rebuke me in Your wrath, neither discipline me in Your hot displeasure.

2 For Your arrows have pierced me, Your hand presses hard on me.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.

4 For my iniquities have gone over my head. As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me. 5 My wounds are loathsome and corrupt, because of my foolishness.

6 I am pained and bowed down greatly. I go mourning all day long.

7 For my loins are filled with burning. There is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am faint and severely bruised. I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.

9 יְהוָה, all my desire is before You. My groaning is not hidden from You.

10 My heart throbs. My strength fails me. As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague. My kinsmen stand far away.

12 They also who seek after my being lay snares. Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, do not hear. I am as a mute man who does not open his mouth.

14 Yes, I am as a man who does not hear, in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in You, יְהוָה, do I hope. You will answer, יְהוָה Elohim.

16 For I said, "Do not let them gloat over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."

17 For I am ready to fall. My pain is continually before me.

18 For I will declare my iniquity. I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But my enemies are vigorous and many. Those who hate me without reason are numerous.

20 They who also render evil for good are adversaries to me, because I follow what is good.

21 Do not forsake me, יְהוָה. My Elohim, do not be far from me.

22 Hurry to help me, יְהוָה my salvation.

39 For the Chief Musician. For Yeduthun. A Psalm by David.

1 I said, "I will guard my ways, so that I do not sin with my tongue. I will guard my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."

2 I was mute with silence. I held my peace, even from good. My sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me. While I meditated, the fire burned. I spoke with my tongue:

4 "יְהוָה, show me my end, what is the measure of my days. Let me know how frail I am. 5 Behold, You have made my days hand widths. My lifetime is as nothing before You. Surely every man stands as a breath."

Selah.

6 "Surely every man walks in a shadow^a. Surely they busy themselves in vain. He heaps up, and does not know who shall gather. 7 Now, יְהוָה, what do I wait for? My hope is in You. 8 Deliver me from all my transgressions. Do not make me the reproach of the foolish. 9 I was mute. I did not open my mouth, because You did it. 10 Remove Your scourge away from me. I am overcome by the blow of Your hand. 11 When You rebuke and discipline man for iniquity, You consume his wealth like a moth. Surely every man is but a breath."

Selah.

12 "Hear my prayer, יְהוָה, and give ear to my cry. Do not be silent at my tears. For I am a sojourner with You, a guest, as all my fathers were. 13 Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go away, and exist no more."

40 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 I waited patiently for יְהוָה. He turned to me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay. He set my feet on a rock, and gave me a firm place to stand.

3 He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our Elohim. Many shall see it, and fear, and shall rely on יְהוָה.

4 Blessed is the man who makes יְהוָה his trust, and does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, יְהוָה, my Elohim, are the wonderful works which You have done, and Your thoughts which are toward us. They cannot be declared back to You. If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be counted.

6 Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but a body You have prepared for me.^b You have not required ascension offering and sin offering.

7 Then I said, "Behold, I have come. It is written about me in the book in the scroll. 8 I delight to do Your will, my Elohim. Yes, Your Torah is within my gut."

9 I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly. Behold, I will not seal my lips, יְהוָה, You know.

10 I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart. I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation. I have not concealed Your loving-kindness and Your truth from the great assembly.

11 Do not withhold Your compassion from me, יְהוָה. Let Your loving-kindness and Your truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have surrounded me. My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up. They are more than the hairs of my head. My heart has failed me.

13 Be pleased, יְהוָה, to deliver me. Hurry to help me, יְהוָה.

14 Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my being to destroy it. Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.

15 Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!"

16 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You. Let such as love Your salvation say continually, "Let יְהוָה be exalted!"

17 But I am poor and needy. May יְהוָה think about me. You are my help and my deliverer. Do not delay, my Elohim.

41 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 Blessed is he who considers the poor. יְהוָה will deliver him in the day of evil.

2 יְהוָה will guard him, and keep him alive. He shall be blessed on the earth, and He will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.

3 יְהוָה will sustain him on his sickbed, and restore him from his bed of illness.

4 I said, "יְהוָה, be kind to me! Heal me, for I have sinned against You."

5 My enemies speak evil against me: "When will he die, and his name perish?"

6 If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood. His heart gathers vain exertion to itself. When he goes abroad, he tells it.

7 All who hate me whisper together against me. They imagine the worst for me.

8 "A worthless thing", they say, "has afflicted him. Now that he lies he shall rise up no more."

9 Yes, my own familiar friend, on whom I relied, who

^a 6 "Shadow" – Literally "an image."

^b 6 Heb. MT, Lat. and Syr. read, "Slaughtering You did not desire, but my ears You have dug." The LXX contains the verse as it is written above. However, we also find support for the Septuagint's translation in Ivrim 10:6, which quotes this verse as "...a body You have prepared for me." It is possible that the writer of the book of Ivrim was quoting the Septuagint, or perhaps an older Hebrew text on which the Septuagint was based that also read the same.

ate bread with me, has lifted up his heel^a against me.
10 But You, יְהוָה, be kind to me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.

11 By this I know that You delight in me, because my enemy does not triumph over me.

12 As for me, You uphold me in my integrity, and set me in Your presence forever.

13 Blessed be יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, from everlasting and to everlasting! Amein and amein.

42 For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Qorah.

1 As the deer pants for the water brooks, so my being pants after You, Elohim.

2 My being thirsts for Elohim, for the living El. When shall I come and appear before Elohim?

3 My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, "Where is your Elohim?"

4 These things I remember, and pour out my being within me, how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to the house of Elohim, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a set-apart day.

5 Why are you in despair, my being? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in Elohim! For I shall still praise Him for the saving help of His presence.

6 My Elohim, my being is in despair within me. Therefore I remember You from the land of the Yarden, the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mitsar.

7 Deep calls to deep at the noise of Your waterfalls. All Your waves and Your billows have swept over me.

8 יְהוָה will command His loving-kindness in the daytime. In the night His song shall be with me: a prayer to the El of my life.

9 I will ask El, my rock, "Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

10 As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, while they continually ask me, "Where is your Elohim?"

11 Why are you in despair, my being? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in Elohim! For I shall still praise Him, the saving help of my countenance, and my Elohim.

43 Judge me, Elohim, and plead my cause against a nation lacking loving-kindness. Oh, deliver me from deceitful and unrighteous men.

2 For You are the Elohim of my strength. Why have You rejected me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 Oh, send out Your light and Your truth. Let them lead me. Let them bring me to Your set-apart hill, to Your tents.

4 Then I will go to the altar of Elohim, to El, my exceeding joy. I will praise You on the harp, Elohim, my Elohim.

5 Why are you in despair, my being? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in Elohim! For I shall still praise Him: my Savior, my helper, and my Elohim.

44 For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Qorah. A contemplative psalm.

1 We have heard with our ears, Elohim; our fathers have told us, what work You did in their days, in the days of old.

2 You drove out the nations with Your hand, but You planted them. You afflicted the peoples, but You spread them abroad.

3 For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but Your right hand, and Your arm, and the light of Your face, because You were favorable to them.

4 You are my King, Elohim. Command victories for Ya'aqov!

5 Through You will we push down our adversaries. Through Your Name, will we tread them under who rise up against us.

6 For I will not rely on my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But You have saved us from our adversaries, and have shamed those who hate us.

8 In Elohim we have made our boast all day long, we will give thanks to Your Name forever.

Selah.

9 But now You rejected us, and brought us to dishonor, and do not go out with our armies.

10 You make us turn back from the adversary. Those who hate us take plunder for themselves.

11 You have made us like sheep for food, and have scattered us among the nations.

12 You sell Your people for nothing, and have gained nothing from their sale.

13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and a derision to those who are around us.

14 You make us a byword among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples.

15 All day long my dishonor is before me, and shame covers my face, 16 At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses, because of the enemy and the avenger.

17 All this has come on us, yet have we not forgotten You, neither have we been false to Your covenant.

18 Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps

^a Lifted up...heel – Idiom meaning "to turn against."

strayed from Your path, 19 Though You have crushed us in the haunt of monsters^a, and covered us with the shadow of death.
20 If we have forgotten the Name of our El, or spread out our hands to a strange el;
21 will not Elohim search this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart.
22 Yes, for Your sake we are killed all day long. We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.
23 Wake up! Why do You sleep, נוֹנָן? Arise! Do not reject us forever.
24 Why do You hide Your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?
25 For our being is bowed down to the dust. Our belly clings to the earth.
26 Rise up to help us. Redeem us for Your loving-kindness' sake.

45 For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A contemplation by the sons of Qorah. A wedding song.
1 My heart overflows with a noble theme. I recite my verses for the king. My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.
2 You are the most excellent of the sons of men. Favor has anointed your lips, therefore Elohim has blessed you forever.
3 Strap Your sword on Your thigh, Mighty One: Your splendor and Your majesty.
4 In Your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness. Let Your right hand display awesome deeds.
5 Your arrows are sharp. The nations fall under You, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies.
6 Your throne, Elohim, is forever and ever. A scepter of equity is the scepter of Your kingdom.
7 You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness.
 Therefore Elohim, Your Elohim, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows.
8 All Your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
 Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made
 You glad.
9 Kings' daughters are among Your honorable ones. At Your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir.
10 Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear. Forget your own people, and also your father's house.
11 So the King will desire your beauty; bow down to Him, for He is your Master.
12 The daughter of Tsor comes with a gift. The rich among the people entreat your favor.
13 The King's daughter inside is all glorious. Her clothing is interwoven with gold.
14 She shall be led to the King in embroidered work.

The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to You.

15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led. They shall enter into the King's palace.
16 Your sons will take the place of Your fathers. You shall make them princes in all the earth.
17 I will make Your Name to be remembered in all generations. Therefore the peoples shall give You thanks forever and ever.

46 For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Qorah.
 According to Alamoth.

1 Elohim is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we will not be afraid, though the earth changes, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;
3 though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling.

Selah.

4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of Elohim glad, the set-apart place of the tents of Elyon.

5 Elohim is within her. She shall not be moved. Elohim will help her at dawn.
6 The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved. He lifted His voice, and the earth melted.
7 נָתַתְתָּ Tsevaot is with us. The Elohim of Ya'aqov is our refuge.

Selah.

8 Come, see the works of נָתַתְתָּ, what desolations He has made in the earth.

9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear. He burns the chariots in the fire.
10 "Be still, and know that I am Elohim. I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth." 11 יְהִי־תְּשֵׁבָה Tsevaot is with us. The Elohim of Ya'aqov is our refuge.

47 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Qorah.

1 Oh clap your hands, all you nations. Shout to Elohim with the voice of triumph!
2 For נָתַתְתָּ Elyon is awesome. He is a great King over all the earth.
3 He subdues nations under us, and peoples under our feet.
4 He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Ya'aqov whom He loved.

^a 19 See footnote at Yeshayahu 13:22.

Selah.

5 Elohim has gone up with a shout, תְּהִלָּה with the sound of a shofar.

6 Sing praises to Elohim, sing praises. Sing praises to our King, sing praises.

7 For Elohim is the King of all the earth. Sing praises with understanding.

8 Elohim reigns over the nations. Elohim sits on His set-apart throne.

9 The princes of the peoples are gathered together, the people of the Elohim of Avraham. For the shields of the earth belong to Elohim. He is greatly exalted!

48 A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Qorah.

1 Great is תְּהִלָּה, and greatly to be praised, in the city of our Elohim, in His set-apart mountain.

2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Tsion, on the north sides, the city of the great King.

3 Elohim has shown Himself in her citadels as a refuge.

4 For, behold, the kings assembled themselves, they passed by together.

5 They saw it, then they were amazed. They were dismayed. They hurried away.

6 Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 With the east wind, You break the ships of Tarshish.

8 As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of תְּהִלָּה Tsevaot, in the city of our Elohim. Elohim will establish it forever.

Selah.

9 We have thought about Your loving-kindness, Elohim, in the middle of Your Temple.

10 As is Your Name, Elohim, so is Your praise to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let Mount Tsion be glad! Let the daughters of Yehudah rejoice, because of Your judgments.

12 Walk about Tsion, and go around her. Number its towers.

13 Mark well her bulwarks. Consider her palaces, that You may tell it to the next generation.

14 For this Elohim is our Elohim forever and ever. He will be our guide even to death.

49 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Qorah.

1 Hear this, all you peoples. Listen, all you inhabitants of the world,

2 both low and high, rich and poor together.

3 My mouth will speak words of wisdom. My heart shall utter understanding.

4 I will incline my ear to a proverb. I will open my riddle on the harp.

5 Why should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels surrounds me?

6 Those who rely on their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches—

7 none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give Elohim a ransom for him.

8 For the redemption of their life is costly, no payment is ever enough, 9 that he should live on forever, that he should not see corruption.

10 For he sees that wise men die; likewise the fool and the senseless perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever, and their dwelling places to all generations. They name their lands after themselves.

12 But man, despite his riches, does not endure. He is like the animals that perish.

13 This is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings.

Selah.

14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol. Death shall be their shepherd. The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning. Their beauty shall decay in Sheol, far from their mansion.

15 But Elohim will redeem my being from the power of Sheol, for He will receive me.

Selah.

16 Do not be afraid when a man is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

17 for when he dies he will carry nothing away. His glory will not descend after him.

18 Though while he lived he blessed his being—and men praise you when you do well for yourself—

19 he shall go to the generation of his fathers. They shall never see the light.

20 A man who has riches without understanding, is like the animals that perish.

50 A Psalm by Asaph.

1 The Mighty One, Elohim, תְּהִלָּה, speaks, and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset.

2 Out of Tsion, the perfection of beauty, Elohim shines out.

3 Our Elohim comes, and does not keep silent. A fire devours before Him. It is very stormy around Him.

4 He calls to the heavens above, to the earth, that He may judge His people:

5 "Gather my set-apart ones together to Me, those who have cut a covenant with Me by sacrifice."

6 The heavens shall declare His righteousness, for Elohim Himself is judge.

Selah.

7 "Hear, My people, and I will speak; Yisra'el, and I will testify against you. I am Elohim, your Elohim. 8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices. Your ascension offerings are continually before Me. 9 I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor male goats from your pens. 10 For every animal of the forest is Mine, and the livestock on a thousand hills. 11 I know all the birds of the mountains. The wild animals of the field are Mine. 12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is Mine, and all that is in it. 13 Will I eat the meat of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? 14 Offer to Elohim the slaughtering of thanksgiving. Pay your vows to Elyon. 15 Call on Me in the day of trouble. I will deliver you, and you will honor Me."

16 But to the wicked Elohim says, "What right do you have to declare My statutes, that you have taken My covenant on your lips, 17 since you hate correction, and throw My words behind you? 18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have participated with adulterers. 19 You give your mouth to evil. Your tongue frames deceit. 20 You sit and speak against your brother. You slander your own mother's son. 21 You have done these things, and I kept silent. You thought that I was just like you. I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes. 22 Now consider this, you who forget Eloah, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be no one to deliver. 23 Whoever offers the slaughtering of thanksgiving glorifies Me, and prepares his way so that I will show the salvation of Elohim to him."

51 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheva.

1 Be kind to me, Elohim, according to Your loving-kindness. According to the multitude of Your compassion, blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity. Cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I know my transgressions. My sin is constantly before me.

4 Against You, and You only, I have sinned, and done that which is evil in Your eyes; that You may be proved right when You speak, and declared right when You judge.

5 Behold, I was born in iniquity. In sin my mother conceived me.

6 Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts. You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.

7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

8 Let me hear joy and gladness, that the bones which You have broken may rejoice.

9 Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O Elohim. Renew a right spirit within me.

11 Do not throw me from Your presence, and do not take Your set-apart Ruah from me.

12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation. Support me with a willing spirit.

13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways. Sinners shall be converted to You.

14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O Elohim, the Elohim of my salvation. My tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness.

15 פָּנָא, open my lips. My mouth shall declare Your praise.

16 For You do not delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it. You have no pleasure in ascension offering.

17 The sacrifices of Elohim are a broken spirit. A broken and contrite heart, O Elohim, You will not despise.

18 By Your good will, do well to Tsion. Build the walls of Yerushalayim.

19 Then You will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in ascension offerings and in whole ascension offerings. Then they will offer bulls on Your altar.

52 For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Sha'ul, "David has come to Ahimelekh's house."

1 Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man? The loving-kindness of El endures continually.

2 Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth.

Selah.

4 You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.

5 El will likewise destroy you forever. He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living.

Selah.

6 The righteous also will see it, and fear, and laugh at him, saying,

7 "Behold, this is the man who did not make Elohim his strength, but relied on the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness."

8 But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of Elohim. I rely on the loving-kindness of Elohim forever and ever.

9 I will give You thanks forever, because You have done it. I will hope in Your Name, for it is good, in the presence of Your set-apart ones.

53 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahālath."

A contemplation by David.

1 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no Elohim."

They are corrupt, and have done abominable unrighteousness. There is no one who does good.

2 Elohim looks down from heavens on the children of men, to see if there are any who understood, who seek after Elohim.

3 Every one of them has gone back. They have become filthy together. There is no one who does good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of vain exertion no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call on Elohim?

5 There they were in great fear, where no fear was, for Elohim has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you. You have put them to shame, because Elohim has rejected them.

6 Oh that the salvation of Yisra'el would come out of Tsion! When Elohim brings back His people from captivity, then Ya'aqov shall rejoice, and Yisra'el shall be glad.

54 For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.

A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Sha'ul, "Is David not hiding himself among us?"

1 Save me, Elohim, by Your Name. Vindicate me in Your might.

2 Hear my prayer, Elohim. Listen to the speeches of my mouth.

3 For strangers have risen up against me. Tyrants have sought after my being. They have not set Elohim before them.

Selah.

4 Behold, Elohim is my helper. יְהוָה is the one who supports my being.

5 He will repay the evil to my enemies. Destroy them in Your truth.

6 With a freewill offering, I will slaughter to You. I will give thanks to Your Name, יְהוָה, for it is good.

7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble. My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

55 For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.

A contemplation by David.

1 Listen to my prayer, Elohim. Do not hide Yourself from my petition.

2 Attend to me, and answer me. I am restless in my complaint, and moan,

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked. For they bring vain exertion on me. In anger they hold a grudge against me.

4 My heart is severely pained within me. The terrors of death have fallen on me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling have come on me. Horror has overwhelmed me.

6 I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove! Then I would fly away, and be at rest. 7 Behold, then I would wander far off. I would lodge in the wilderness."

Selah.

8 "I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm."

9 Confuse them, יְהוָה, and confound their language, for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they prowl around on its walls. Vain exertion and toil are also within her.

11 Destructive forces are within her. Threats and lies do not depart from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy who insulted me, then I could have endured it. Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him.

13 But it was you, a man like me, my companion, and my familiar friend.

14 We took sweet fellowship together. We walked in the house of Elohim with company.

15 Let death come suddenly on them. Let them go down alive into Sheol. For wickedness is among them, in their dwelling.

16 As for me, I will call on Elohim. יְהוָה will save me.

17 Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress. He will hear my voice.

18 He has redeemed my being in peace from the battle that was against me, although there are many who oppose me.

19 El, who is enthroned forever, will hear, and answer them.

Selah.

They never change, who do not fear Elohim.

20 He raises his hands against his friends. He has violated his covenant.

21 His mouth was smooth as butter, but his heart was war. His words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.

22 Cast your burden on יְהוָה, and He will sustain you. He will never allow the righteous to be moved.

23 But You, Elohim, will bring them down into the pit of destruction. Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, but I will rely on You.

56 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

- 1 Be kind to me, Elohim, for man wants to swallow me up. All day long, he attacks and oppresses me.
- 2 My enemies want to swallow me up all day long, for they are many who fight proudly against me.
- 3 When I am afraid, I will rely on You.
- 4 In Elohim, I praise His word. I rely on Elohim. I will not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?
- 5 All day long they twist my words. All their thoughts are against me for evil.
- 6 They conspire and lurk, guarding my steps; they are eager to take my life.
- 7 Because of vain exertion, cast them forth; in anger put down the peoples, Elohim.
- 8 You count my wanderings. You put my tears into Your skin-bottle. Are they not in Your book?
- 9 Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call. I know this, that Elohim is for me.
- 10 In Elohim, I will praise His word. In יהוה, I will praise His word.
- 11 I have relied on Elohim. I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?
- 12 Your vows are on me, Elohim. I will give thank offerings to You.
- 13 For You have delivered my being from death, and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before Elohim in the light of the living.

57 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Sha'ul, in the cave.

- 1 Be kind to me, Elohim, be kind to me, for my being takes refuge in You. Yes, in the shadow of Your wings, I will take refuge, until disaster has passed.
- 2 I cry out to Elohim Elyon, to El who accomplishes my requests for me.
- 3 He will send from heavens, and save me; He rebukes the one who is pursuing me.

Selah.

Elohim will send out His loving-kindness and His truth.

- 4 My being is among lions. I lie among those who are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.
- 5 Be exalted, Elohim, above the heavens! Let Your glory be above all the earth!
- 6 They have prepared a net for my steps. My being is bowed down. They dig a pit before me. They fall into the middle of it themselves.

Selah.

7 My heart is steadfast, Elohim, my heart is steadfast. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.

8 Wake up, my glory! Wake up, lute and harp! I will wake up the dawn.

9 I will give thanks to You, יהוה, among the peoples. I will sing praises to You among the nations.

10 For Your great loving-kindness reaches to the heavens, and Your truth to the skies.

11 Be exalted, Elohim, above the heavens. Let Your glory be over all the earth.

58 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David.

- 1 Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones? Do you judge uprightly, you sons of men?
- 2 No, in your heart you plot unrighteousness. You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth.
- 3 The wicked are estranged from the womb. They are wayward from the belly, speaking lies.
- 4 Their poison is like the poison of a nahash; like a deaf cobra that stops its ear,
- 5 which does not listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be.
- 6 Break their teeth, Elohim, in their mouth. Break out the great teeth of the young lions, יהוה.
- 7 Let them vanish like water that flows away. When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.
- 8 Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away, like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.
- 9 Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns, He will sweep away the green and the burning alike.
- 10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance. He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;
- 11 so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous. Most certainly there is an Elohim who judges the earth."

59 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Sha'ul sent, and they guarded the house to kill him.

- 1 Deliver me from my enemies, my Elohim. Set me on high from those who rise up against me.
- 2 Deliver me from the workers of vain exertion. Save me from the bloodthirsty men.
- 3 For, behold, they lie in wait for my being. The mighty gather themselves together against me, not for my disobedience, nor for my sin, יהוה.
- 4 For no iniquity they run to attack me. Rise up, behold, and help me!
- 5 You, יהוה Elohim Tsevaot, the Elohim of Yisra'el, rouse Yourself to punish the nations. Do not be kind to the deceitful who work vain exertion.

Selah.

6 They return at evening, howling like dogs, and prowl around the city.

7 Behold, they spew with their mouth. Swords are in their lips, "For", they say, "who hears us?"

8 But You, יְהוָה, laugh at them. You scoff at all the nations.

9 Oh my Strength, I guard for You, for Elohim is my high tower.

10 My Elohim will go before me with His loving-kindness. Elohim will let me look at my enemies in triumph.

11 Do not kill them, or my people may forget. Scatter them by Your power, and bring them down, יְהוָה our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride, for the curses and lies which they utter.

13 Consume them in wrath. Consume them, and they will be no more. Let them know that Elohim rules in Ya'aqov, to the ends of the earth.

Selah.

14 At evening let them return. Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city.

15 They shall wander up and down for food, and wait all night if they are not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of Your strength. Yes, I will sing aloud of Your loving-kindness in the morning. For You have been my high tower, a refuge in the day of my distress.

17 To You, my strength, I will sing praises. For Elohim is my high tower, the Elohim of my loving-kindness.

60 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram-Naharayim and with Aram-Tsovah, and Yoav returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

1 Elohim, You have rejected us. You have broken us down. You have been angry. Restore us, again.

2 You have made the land tremble. You have torn it. Mend its fractures, for it quakes.

3 You have shown Your people hard things. You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.

4 You have given a banner to those who fear You, that it may be displayed because of the truth.

Selah.

5 So that Your beloved may be delivered, save with Your right hand, and answer us.

6 Elohim has spoken from His set-apart place: "I will triumph. I will divide Shekhem, and measure out the valley of Sukkoth. 7 Gilad is Mine, and Menasheh is Mine. Ephrayim also is the defense of My head. Yehudah is My scepter. 8 Moav is My wash basin. I will throw my shoe on Edom. I shout in triumph over Philistia."

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? Who has led me to Edom?

10 Have You not, Elohim, rejected us? You do not go out with our armies, Elohim.

11 Give us help against the adversary, for the help of man is vain.

12 Through Elohim we shall do valiantly, for it is He who will tread down our adversaries.

61 For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

1 Hear my cry, Elohim. Listen to my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth, I will call to You, when my heart is overwhelmed. Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For You have been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will dwell in Your tent forever. I will take refuge in the shelter of Your wings.

Selah.

5 For You, Elohim, have heard my vows. You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your Name.

6 You will prolong the king's life; his years shall be for generations.

7 He shall be enthroned in the presence of Elohim forever. Appoint Your loving-kindness and truth, that they may preserve him.

8 So I will sing praise to Your Name forever, that I may fulfill my vows daily.

62 For the Chief Musician. To Yeduthun. A Psalm by David.

1 My being rests in Elohim alone. My salvation is from Him.

2 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—I will never be greatly shaken.

3 How long will you assault a man, would all of you throw him down, like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

4 They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place. They delight in lies. They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.

Selah.

5 My being, wait in silence for Elohim alone, for my expectation is from Him.

6 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be shaken.

7 With Elohim is my salvation and my honor. The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in Elohim.

8 Rely on Him at all times, you people. Pour out your heart before Him. Elohim is a refuge for us.

Selah.

9 Surely men of low degree are just a breath, and men of high degree are a lie. In the balances they will go up.

They are together lighter than a breath.

10 Do not rely on oppression. Do not become vain in robbery. If riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

11 Elohim has spoken once; twice I have heard this, that power belongs to Elohim.

12 Also to You, תְּנַתֵּן, belongs loving-kindness, for You reward every man according to his work.

63 A Psalm by David, when he was in the wilderness of Yehudah.

1 Elohim, You are my El. I will earnestly seek You. My being thirsts for You. My flesh longs for You, in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.

2 So I have seen You in the set-apart place, watching Your power and Your glory.

3 Because Your loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You.

4 So I will bless You while I live. I will lift up my hands in Your Name.

5 My being shall be satisfied as with the richest food. My mouth shall praise You with joyful lips,

6 when I remember You on my bed, and think about You in the night watches.

7 For You have been my help. I will rejoice in the shadow of Your wings.

8 My being stays close to You. Your right hand holds me up.

9 But those who seek my being, to make it desolate, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword. They shall be monster^a food.

11 But the king shall rejoice in Elohim. Everyone who swears by Him will praise Him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

64 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 Hear my voice, Elohim, in my complaint. Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the noisy crowd of the workers of vain exertion;

3 who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and aim their arrows, deadly words,

4 to shoot innocent men from ambushes. They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.

5 They strengthen themselves in evil plans. They talk about laying snares secretly. They say, "Who will see them?"

6 They plot unrighteousness, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!" Surely man's mind and heart are cunning.

7 But Elohim will shoot at them. They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.

8 Their own tongues shall ruin them. All who see them will shake their heads.

9 All mankind shall be afraid. They shall declare the work of Elohim, and shall wisely ponder what He has done.

10 The righteous shall be glad in תִּתְהַלֵּךְ, and shall take refuge in Him. All the upright in heart shall praise Him!

65 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

1 Praise waits for You, Elohim, in Tsion. To You shall vows be performed.

2 You who hear prayer, to You all men will come.

3 Acts of iniquity overwhelmed me, but You atoned for our transgressions.

4 Blessed is one whom You choose, and cause to come near, that he may live in Your courts. We will be filled with the goodness of Your house, Your set-apart Temple.

5 By awesome deeds of righteousness, You answer us, Elohim of our salvation. You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth, of those who are far away on the sea;

6 Who by His power forms the mountains, having armed Yourself with strength;

7 who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations.

8 They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders. You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy.

9 You visit the earth, and water it. You greatly enrich it. The river of Elohim is full of water. You provide them grain, for so You have ordained it.

10 You drench its furrows. You level its ridges. You soften it with showers. You bless it with a crop.

11 You crown the year with Your bounty. Your carts overflow with abundance.

12 The wilderness grasslands overflow. The hills are clothed with gladness.

13 The pastures are covered with flocks. The valleys also are clothed with grain. They shout for joy! They also sing.

66 For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.

1 Make a joyful shout to Elohim, all the earth!

2 Sing to the glory of His Name! Offer glory and praise!

^a 10 See footnote at Yeshayahu 13:22.

3 Tell Elohim, "How awesome are your deeds! Through the greatness of Your power, Your enemies submit themselves to You.

4 All the earth will bow down to You, and will sing to You; they will sing to Your Name."

Selah.

5 Come, and see the deeds of Elohim— awesome work on behalf of the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land. They went through the river on foot. There, we rejoiced in Him.

7 He rules by His might forever. His eyes watch the nations. Do not let the rebellious rise up against Him.

Selah.

8 Praise our Elohim, you peoples! Make the sound of His praise heard, 9 who preserves our life among the living, and does not allow our feet to be moved.

10 For You, Elohim, have tested us. You have refined us, as silver is refined.

11 You brought us into prison. You laid a burden on our backs.

12 You allowed men to ride over our heads. We went through fire and through water, but You brought us to the place of abundance.

13 I will come into Your Temple with ascension offerings. I will pay my vows to You, 14 which my lips promised, and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.

15 I will offer to You ascension offerings of fat animals, with the offering of rams, I will offer bulls with goats.

Selah.

16 Come, and hear, all you who fear Elohim. I will declare what He has done for my being.

17 I cried to him with my mouth. He was extolled with my tongue.

18 If I regard vain exertion in my heart, נִתְנַטֵּן would not have listened.

19 But most certainly, Elohim has listened. He has heard the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be Elohim, who has not turned away my prayer, nor His loving-kindness from me.

67 For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

1 May Elohim be kind to us, bless us, and cause His face to shine on us.

Selah.

2 That Your way may be known on earth, and Your salvation among all nations,

3 let the peoples praise You, Elohim. Let all the peoples praise You.

4 Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for You will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations on earth.

Selah.

5 Let the peoples praise You, Elohim. Let all the peoples praise You.

6 The earth has yielded its increase. Elohim, even our own Elohim, will bless us.

7 Elohim will bless us. All the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

68 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

1 Let Elohim arise! Let His enemies be scattered! Let them who hate Him also flee before Him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away. As wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of Elohim.

3 But let the righteous be glad. Let them rejoice before Elohim. Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.

4 Sing to Elohim! Sing praises to His Name! Extol Him who rides on the clouds: to Yah, His Name! Rejoice before Him!

5 A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, is Elohim in His set-apart habitation.

6 Elohim sets the lonely in families. He brings out the prisoners with singing, but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.

7 Elohim, when You went out before Your people, when You marched through the wilderness...

Selah.

8 The earth trembled. The heavens also poured down rain at the presence of the Elohim of Sinai—at the presence of Elohim, the Elohim of Yisra'el.

9 You, Elohim, sent rain freely. You confirmed Your inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Your congregation lived therein. You, Elohim, prepared Your goodness for the poor.

11 נִתְנַטֵּן announced the word. The ones who proclaim it are a great company.

12 "Kings of armies flee! They flee!" She who waits at home divides the plunder, 13 while you sleep among the camp fires, the wings of a dove sheathed with silver, her feathers with shining gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in her, it snowed on Tsalmun.

15 The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains. The mountains of Bashan are rugged.

16 Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains, at the mountain where Elohim chooses to reign? Yes, נִתְנַטֵּן will dwell there forever.

17 The chariots of Elohim are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands. יְהוָה is among them, from Sinai, into the set-apart place.

18 You have ascended on high. You have led away captives. You have received gifts among men, yes, among the rebellious also, that Yah Elohim might dwell there.

19 Blessed be יְהוָה, who daily bears our burdens, even the Elohim who is our salvation.

Selah.

20 El is to us an El of deliverance. To Adonai יְהוָה, belongs escape from death.

21 But Elohim will strike through the head of his enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.

22 יְהוָה said, "I will bring you again from Bashan, I will bring you again from the depths of the sea;

23 That you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."

24 They have seen Your processions, Elohim, even the processions of my Elohim, my King, into the set-apart place.

25 The singers went before, the minstrels followed after, among the maidens playing with tambourines,

26 "Bless Elohim in the congregations, even יְהוָה in the assembly of Yisra'el!"

27 There is little Benyamin, their ruler, the princes of Yehudah, their council, the princes of Zevulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

28 Your Elohim has commanded your strength. Strengthen, Elohim, that which You have done for us.

29 Because of Your Temple at Yerushalayim, kings shall bring presents to You.

30 Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples. Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver. Scatter the nations that delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Mitsrayim. Kush shall hurry to stretch out her hands to Elohim.

32 Sing to Elohim, you kingdoms of the earth! Sing praises to יְהוָה!

Selah.

33 To Him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old; behold, He utters His voice, a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe strength to Elohim! His excellency is over Yisra'el, His strength is in the skies.

35 You are awesome, Elohim, in Your set-apart places. The El of Yisra'el gives strength and power to His people. Praise be to Elohim!

69 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Lilies." By David.

1 Save me, Elohim, for the waters have come up to my neck!

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold. I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary with my crying. My throat is dry. My eyes fail, looking for my Elohim.

4 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head. Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty. I have to restore what I did not take away.

5 Elohim, You know my foolishness. My sins are not hidden from You.

6 Do not let those who wait for You be shamed through me, Adonai יְהוָה Tsevaot. Do not let those who seek You be brought to dishonor through me, Elohim of Yisra'el.

7 Because for Your sake, I have borne reproach. Shame has covered my face.

8 I have become estranged from my brothers, a foreigner to my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of Your house consumes me. The reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me.

10 When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.

11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.

12 Those who sit in the gate talk about me. I am the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is to You, יְהוָה, in an acceptable time. Elohim, in the abundance of Your loving-kindness, answer me in the truth of Your salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and do not let me sink. Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15 Do not let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up. Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.

16 Answer me, יְהוָה, for Your loving-kindness is good. According to the multitude of Your compassion, turn to me.

17 Do not hide Your face from Your servant, for I am in distress. Answer me speedily!

18 Draw near to my being, and redeem it. Ransom me because of my enemies.

19 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor. My adversaries are all before You.

20 Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; for comforters, but I found none.

21 They also gave me gall for my food. In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table before them become a snare. May it become a retribution and a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see. Let their backs be continually bent.

24 Pour out Your indignation on them. Let the fierceness of Your anger overtake them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate. Let no one dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute him whom You have wounded. They tell of the sorrow of those whom You have hurt.

27 Charge them with crime upon crime. Do not let them come into Your righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am in pain and distress. Let Your salvation, Elohim, protect me.

30 I will praise the Name of Elohim with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.

31 It will please יְהוָה better than an ox, or a bull that has horns^a and hoofs.

32 The humble have seen it, and are glad. You who seek after Elohim, let Your heart live.

33 For יְהוָה hears the needy, and does not despise His captive people.

34 Let heavens and earth praise Him; the seas, and everything that moves therein!

35 For Elohim will save Tsion, and build the cities of Yehudah. They shall settle there, and own it.

36 The seed also of His servants shall inherit it. Those who love His Name shall dwell therein.

70 For the Chief Musician. By David. A reminder.

1 Hurry, Elohim, to deliver me. Come quickly to help me, יְהוָה.

2 Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my being. Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.

3 Let them be turned because of their shame Who say, "Aha! Aha!"

4 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You. Let those who love Your salvation continually say, "Let Elohim be exalted!"

5 But I am poor and needy. Come to me quickly, Elohim. You are my help and my deliverer. יְהוָה, do not delay.

71 In You, יְהוָה, I take refuge. Never let me be disappointed.

2 Deliver me in Your righteousness, and rescue me. Turn Your ear to me, and save me.

3 Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go. Give the command to save me, for You are my rock and my fortress.

4 Rescue me, my Elohim, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and sour man.

5 For You are my hope, Adonai יְהוָה; my confidence from my youth.

6 I have been supported by You from the womb. You are He who cut me from my mother's gut. I will always praise You.

7 I am a marvel to many, but You are my strong refuge.

8 My mouth shall be filled with Your praise, with Your honor all day long.

9 Do not reject me in my old age. Do not forsake me when my strength fails.

10 For my enemies talk about me. Those who guard for my being conspire together,

11 saying, "Elohim has forsaken him. Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him."

12 Elohim, do not be far from me. My Elohim, hurry to help me.

13 Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed. Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me.

14 But I will always hope, and will add to all of Your praise.

15 My mouth will tell about Your righteousness, and of Your salvation all day, though I do not know its full measure.

16 I will come with the mighty acts of Adonai יְהוָה. I will make mention of Your righteousness, even of Yours alone.

17 Elohim, You have taught me from my youth. Until now, I have declared Your wondrous works.

18 Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, Elohim, do not forsake me, until I have declared Your strength to the next generation, Your might to everyone who is to come.

19 Your righteousness also, Elohim, reaches to the heavens; You have done great things. Elohim, who is like You?

20 You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles, You will let me live. You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Increase my honor, and comfort me again.

22 I will also praise You with the harp for Your truth, my Elohim. I sing praises to You with the lyre, Set-apart One of Yisra'el.

23 My lips shall shout for joy! My being, which You have redeemed, sings praises to You! 24 My tongue will also talk about Your righteousness all day long, for they are disappointed, and they are confounded, who want to harm me.

72 By Shelomoh.

1 Elohim, give the king Your judgments; Your righteousness to the royal son.

2 He will judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor with judgment.

3 The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people. The hills bring the fruit of righteousness.

4 He will judge the poor of the people. He will save the children of the needy, and will break the oppressor in pieces.

5 They shall fear You while the sun endures; and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

6 He will come down like rain on the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.

7 In His days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.

9 Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before Him. His enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute. The kings of Sheva and Seva shall offer gifts.

11 Yes, all kings shall bow down before Him. All nations shall serve Him.

12 For He will deliver the needy when he cries; the poor, who has no helper.

13 He will have pity on the poor and needy. He will save the beings of the needy.

14 He will redeem their being from oppression and violence. Their blood will be precious in His eyes.

15 They shall live, and to Him shall be given of the gold of Sheva. Men shall pray for Him continually. They shall bless Him all day long.

16 Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land. Its fruit sways like Levanon. Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.

17 His Name endures forever. His Name continues as long as the sun. Men shall be blessed by Him. All nations will call Him blessed.

18 Praise be to Elohim, the Elohim of Yisra'el, who alone does marvelous deeds.

19 Blessed be His glorious Name forever! Let the whole earth be filled with His glory! Amein and amein.

20 This ends the prayers by David, the son of Yishai.

73 A Psalm by Asaph.

1 Surely Elohim is good to Yisra'el, to those who are pure in heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone. My steps had nearly slipped.

3 For I was envious of the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no struggles in their death, but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in toil of men, neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride is like a necklace around their neck. Violence covers them like a garment.

7 Their eyes bulge with fat. Their minds pass the limits of conceit.

8 They scoff and speak with malice. In arrogance, they threaten oppression.

9 They have set their mouth in the heavens. Their tongue walks through the earth.^a 10 Therefore their people return to them, and they drink up waters of abundance.

11 They say, "How does El know? Is there knowledge in Elyon?"

12 Behold, these are the wicked. Being always at ease, they increase in riches.

13 Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence, 14 For all day long I have been plagued, and punished every morning.

15 If I had said, "I will speak thus;" behold, I would have deceived the generation of Your children.

16 When I tried to understand this, it was toilsome for me;

17 Until I entered the set-apart place of El, and considered their latter end.

18 Surely You set them in slippery places. You throw them down to destruction.

19 How they are suddenly destroyed! They are completely swept away with terrors.

20 As a dream when one wakes up, so, פָּנָמִים, when You awake, You will despise their image.

21 For my heart was soured. I was pricked in my kidneys.

22 I was so senseless and ignorant. I was a brute beast before You.

23 Nevertheless, I am continually with You. You have held my right hand.

24 You will guide me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom do I have in heavens? There is no one on earth whom I desire besides You.

26 My flesh and my heart fails, but Elohim is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

27 For, behold, those who are far from You shall perish.

^a 9 Tongue walks through the earth – Idiom meaning "Arrogantly give orders."

You have destroyed all those who go whoring from You.

28 But it is good for me to come close to Elohim. I have made Adonai יְהוָה my refuge, that I may tell of all Your works.

74 A contemplation by Asaph.

1 Elohim, why have You rejected us forever? Why does Your anger smolder against the sheep of Your pasture?

2 Remember Your congregation, which You purchased of old, which You have redeemed to be the tribe of Your inheritance; Mount Tsion, in which You have lived.

3 Lift up Your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the set-apart place.

4 Your adversaries have roared in the middle of Your assembly. They have set up their standards as signs.

5 They behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees.

6 Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.

7 They have burned Your set-apart place to the ground. They have profaned the dwelling place of Your Name.

8 They said in their heart, "We will crush them together." They have burned up all the appointed times in the land of El.

9 We see no miraculous signs. There is no longer any prophet, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.

10 How long, Elohim, shall the adversary reproach? Shall the enemy blaspheme Your Name forever?

11 Why do You draw back Your hand, even Your right hand? Take it from Your chest and consume them!

12 Yet Elohim is my King of old, working salvation throughout the earth.

13 You divided the sea by Your strength. You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

14 You broke the heads of Livyathan in pieces. You gave him as food to people and desert creatures.

15 You opened up spring and wadi. You dried up mighty rivers.

16 The day is Yours, the night is also Yours. You have prepared the light and the sun.

17 You have set all the boundaries of the earth. You have made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy has mocked You, פָּתַח. Foolish people have blasphemed Your Name.

19 Do not deliver the being of Your dove to wild beasts. Do not forget the life of Your poor forever.

20 Honor Your covenant, for pastures of violence fill the dark places of the earth.

21 Do not let the oppressed return ashamed. Let the poor and needy praise Your Name.

22 Arise, Elohim! Plead Your own cause. Remember how the foolish man mocks You all day.

23 Do not forget the voice of Your adversaries. The tumult of those who rise up against You ascends continually.

75 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

1 We give thanks to You, Elohim. We give thanks, for Your Name is near. Men tell about Your wondrous works.

2 When I choose the appointed time, I will judge uprightly.

3 The earth and all its inhabitants quake. I firmly hold its pillars

Selah.

4 I said to the arrogant, "Do not boast!" I said to the wicked, "Do not lift up the horn. 5 Do not lift up your horn on high. Do not speak with a stiff neck."

6 For neither from the east, nor from the west, nor yet from the south, comes exaltation.

7 But Elohim is the judge. He puts down one, and lifts up another.

8 For in the hand of פָּתַח there is a cup, full of foaming wine mixed with spices. He pours it out. Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.

9 But I will declare this forever: I will sing praises to the Elohim of Ya'aqov.

10 I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

76 For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

1 In Yehudah, Elohim is known. His name is great in Yisra'el.

2 His Tabernacle is also in Shalem^a; His dwelling place in Tsion.

3 There He broke the flaming arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war.

Selah.

4 Glorious are You, and excellent, more than mountains of game.

5 Stothearted men are despoiled, they have slept their last sleep. None of the men of war can lift their hands.

6 At Your rebuke, Elohim of Ya'aqov, both chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

7 You, even You, are to be feared. Who can stand in

^a 2 שְׁלֹמֶן (Shalem) – The old name for Yerushalayim. See also Bereshiyt 14:18 and Ivrim 7:2.

Your eyes when You are angry?

8 You pronounced judgment from heavens. The earth feared, and was silent, 9 when Elohim arose to judgment, to save all the afflicted ones of the earth.

Selah.

10 Surely the wrath of man praises You. The survivors of Your wrath are restrained.

11 Make vows to יהוה your Elohim, and fulfill them! Let all of his neighbors bring presents to Him who is to be feared.

12 He will cut off the spirit of princes. He is feared by the kings of the earth.

77 For the Chief Musician. To Yeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

1 My cry goes to Elohim! Indeed, I cry to Elohim for help, and for Him to listen to me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought יהוה. My hand was stretched out in the night, and did not get tired. My being refused to be comforted.

3 I remember Elohim, and I groan. I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.

Selah.

4 You hold my eyelids open. I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I remember my song in the night. I consider in my own heart; my spirit diligently inquires:

7 "Will יהוה reject us forever? Will He be favorable no more? 8 Has His loving-kindness vanished forever? Does His promise fail for generations? 9 Has Elohim forgotten to favor? Has He, in anger, withheld His compassion?"

Selah.

10 Then I thought, "I will appeal to this: the years of the right hand of Elyon.

11 I will remember the deeds of Yah; for I will remember Your wonders of old.

12 I will also meditate on all Your work, and consider Your doings.

13 Your way, Elohim, is in the set-apart place. What else is great like Elohim?

14 You are the Elohim who does wonders. You have made Your strength known among the peoples.

15 You have redeemed Your people with Your arm, the sons of Ya'aqov and Yoseph.

Selah.

16 The waters saw You, Elohim. The waters saw You, and they writhed. The depths also convulsed.

17 The clouds poured out water. The skies resounded with thunder. Your arrows also flashed around.

18 The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind. The lightnings lit up the world. The earth trembled and shook.

19 Your way was through the sea; Your paths through the great waters. Your footsteps were not known.

20 You led Your people like a flock, by the hand of Mosheh and Aharon.

78 A contemplation by Asaph.

1 Hear my Torah, my people. Turn your ears to the speeches of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable. I will utter dark sayings of old,

3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of יהוה, His strength, and His wondrous deeds that He has done.

5 For He established a witness in Ya'aqov, and appointed a Torah in Yisra'el, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children;

6 that the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born; who should arise and tell their children,

7 that they might set their hope in Elohim, and not forget the deeds of Elohim, but preserve His commands,

8 and might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not make their hearts loyal, whose spirit was not faithful with Elohim.

9 The children of Ephrayim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They did not guard the covenant of Elohim, and refused to walk in His Torah.

11 They forgot His doings, His wondrous deeds that He had shown them.

12 He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Mitsrayim, in the field of Tsoan.

13 He split the sea, and caused them to pass through. He made the waters stand as a heap.

14 In the daytime He also led them with a cloud, and all night with a light of fire.

15 He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 Yet they still went on to sin against Him, to rebel against Elyon in the desert.

18 They tempted Elohim in their heart by asking food for their being.

19 Yes, they spoke against Elohim. They said, "Can Elohim prepare a table in the wilderness? 20 Behold, He struck the rock, so that waters gushed out, and wadis overflowed. Can He give bread also? Will He provide meat for His people?"

21 Therefore יְהוָה heard, and was angry. A fire was kindled against Ya'aqov, anger also went up against Yisra'el, 22 because they did not believe in Elohim, and did not rely on His salvation.

23 Yet He commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heavens.

24 He rained down manna on them to eat, and gave them food from the heavens.

25 Man ate the bread of messengers. He sent them food to the full.

26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens. By His power He guided the south wind.

27 He rained also meat on them as the dust; winged birds as the sand of the seas.

28 He let them fall in the middle of their camp, around their habitations.

29 So they ate, and were well filled. He gave them their own desire.

30 They were not estranged from their desires. Their food was yet in their mouths, 31 when the anger of Elohim went up against them, killed some of their fattest, and struck down the young men of Yisra'el.

32 For all this they still sinned, and did not trust in His wondrous works.

33 Therefore He consumed their days in vanity, and their years in terror.

34 When He killed them, then they inquired after Him. They returned and sought Elohim earnestly.

35 They remembered that Elohim was their rock, El Elyon, their redeemer.

36 But they flattered Him with their mouth, and lied to Him with their tongue.

37 For their heart was not right with Him, neither did they trust in His covenant.

38 But He, being compassionate, atoned for iniquity, and did not destroy them. Yes, many times He turned His anger away, and did not stir up all His wrath.

39 He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away, and does not come again.

40 How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness, and grieved Him in the desert!

41 They turned again and tempted Elohim, and provoked the Set-apart One of Yisra'el.

42 They did not remember His hand, nor the day when He redeemed them from the adversary;

43 how He set His signs in Mitsrayim, His wonders in the field of Tsoan,

44 He turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, so that they could not drink.

45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor to the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail, their sycamore fig trees with frost.

48 He gave over their livestock also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

49 He threw on them the fierceness of His anger, wrath, indignation, and trouble, and a band of evil messengers.

50 He made a path for His anger. He did not spare their being from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence, 51 and struck all the firstborn in Mitsrayim, the chief of their strength in the tents of Ḥam.

52 But He led out his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 He led them securely, so that they were not afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 He brought them to the border of His set-apart place, to this mountain, which His right hand had taken.

55 He also drove out the nations before them, allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Yisra'el to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against Elohim Elyon, and did not guard His witnesses; 57 but turned back, and dealt deceitfully like their fathers. They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked Him to anger with their high places, and moved Him to jealousy with their engraved images.

59 When Elohim heard this, He was angry, and greatly abhorred Yisra'el;

60 So that He abandoned the Tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which He placed among men;

61 and delivered his strength into captivity, his glory into the adversary's hand.

62 He also gave His people over to the sword, and was angry with His inheritance.

63 Fire devoured their young men. Their virgins had no wedding song.

64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows could not weep.

65 Then יְהוָה awakened as one out of sleep, like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.

66 He struck His adversaries backward. He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover He rejected the tent of Yoseph, and did not choose the tribe of Ephrayim, 68 But chose the tribe of Yehudah, Mount Tsion which He loved.

69 He built His set-apart place like the heights, like the earth which He has established forever.

70 He also chose David His servant, and took him from the sheepfolds;

71 from following the ewes that have their young, He brought him to be the shepherd of Ya'aqov, His people, and Yisra'el, His inheritance.

72 So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

79 A Psalm by Asaph.

1 Elohim, the nations have come into Your inheritance. They have defiled Your set-apart Temple. They have laid Yerushalayim in heaps.

2 They have given the dead bodies of Your servants to be food for the birds of the heavens, the flesh of Your set-apart ones to the animals of the earth.

3 Their blood they have shed like water around Yerushalayim. There was no one to bury them.

4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to those who are around us.

5 How long, מִתְּלַאֲנָה? Will You be angry forever? Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You; on the kingdoms that do not call on Your Name;

7 For they have devoured Ya'aqov, and destroyed his homeland.

8 Do not hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us. Let Your compassion speedily meet us, for we are in desperate need.

9 Help us, Elohim of our salvation, for the glory of Your Name. Deliver us, and atone for our sins, for Your Name's sake.

10 Why should the nations say, "Where is their Elohim?" Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes, that vengeance for Your servants' blood is being poured out.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before You. According to the greatness of Your power, preserve those who are sentenced to death.

12 Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom their reproach with which they have reproached You, מִתְּלַאֲנָה.

13 So we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture, will give You thanks forever. We will praise You forever, to all generations.

80 For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

1 Hear us, Shepherd of Yisra'el, You who lead Yoseph like a flock, You who sit above the keruvim, shine out.

2 Before Ephrayim and Benyamin and Menasheh, stir up Your might! Come to save us!

3 Turn us again, Elohim. Cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved.

4 מִתְּלַאֲנָה Elohim Tsevaot, how long will You be angry against the prayer of Your people?

5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure.

6 You make us a source of contention to our neighbors. Our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, Elohim Tsevaot. Cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved.

8 You brought a vine out of Mitsrayim. You drove out the nations, and planted it.

9 You cleared the ground for it. It took deep root, and filled the land.

10 The mountains were covered with its shadow. Its boughs were like the cedars of Elohim.

11 It sent out its branches to the sea, its shoots to the River.

12 Why have You broken down its walls, so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?

13 The boar out of the wood ravages it. The wild animals of the field feed on it.

14 Turn again, we beg You, Elohim Tsevaot. Look down from heavens, and see, and visit this vine, 15 the stock which Your right hand planted, the branch that You made strong for Yourself.

16 It is burned with fire. It is cut down. They perish at Your rebuke.

17 Let Your hand be on the One of Your right hand, on the Son of Man whom You made strong for Yourself.

18 So we will not turn away from You. Revive us, and we will call on Your Name.

19 Turn us again, מִתְּלַאֲנָה Elohim Tsevaot. Cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved.

81 For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.

1 Sing aloud to Elohim, our strength! Make a joyful shout to the Elohim of Ya'aqov!

2 Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.

3 Blow the shofar in the New Moon, at the covered^a moon, to our Feast day.

4 For it is a statute for Yisra'el, a judgment of the Elohim of Ya'aqov.

5 He appointed it in Yehoseph for a witness, when He went out over the land of Mitsrayim; I heard a language that I did not know.

^a 3 Hebrew word חֵסֶךְ (keseh) here is typically translated as "full" [moon] though the word comes from חֵסֶךְ (kasah) meaning "covered."

6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden. His hands were freed from the basket. 7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you. I answered you in the secret place of thunder. I tested you at the waters of Merivah."

Selah.

8 "Hear, My people, and I will testify to you, Yisra'el, if you would listen to Me! 9 There shall be no strange el in you, neither shall you bow down to any foreign el. 10 I am יְהוָה, your Elohim, who brought you up out of the land of Mitsrayim. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it. 11 But My people did not listen to My voice.

Yisra'el desired none of Me. 12 So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts, that they might walk in their own counsels. 13 Oh that My people would listen to Me, that Yisra'el would walk in My ways! 14 I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn My hand against their adversaries. 15 The haters of יְהוָה would cringe before Him, and their punishment would last forever. 16 But He would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat. I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock."

82 A Psalm by Asaph.

1 Elohim presides in the great assembly. He judges among the elohim.

2 How long will you judge unrighteously, and show partiality to the wicked?"

Selah.

3 Judge the weak, the poor, and the fatherless. Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed. 4 Rescue the weak and needy. Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked."

5 They do not know, neither do they understand. They walk back and forth in darkness. All the foundations of the earth are shaken.

6 I said, "You are elohim, all of you are children of Elyon. 7 Nevertheless you shall die like men, and fall like one of the rulers."

8 Arise, Elohim, judge the earth, for You inherit all of the nations.

83 A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

1 El, do not keep silent. Do not keep silent, and do not be still, Elohim.

2 For, behold, Your enemies are stirred up. Those who hate You have lifted up their heads.

3 They conspire with cunning against Your people. They plot against Your cherished ones.

4 "Come," they say, "let us destroy them as a nation, that the name of Yisra'el may be remembered no more."

5 For they have conspired together with one heart. They cut a covenant against You.

6 The tents of Edom and the Yishma'elites; Moav, and the Hagrites;

7 Geval, Ammon, and Amaleq; Philistia with the inhabitants of Tsr;

8 Ashuwr also is joined with them. They have helped the children of Lot.

Selah.

9 Do to them as You did to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Yavin, at the wadi Qishon;

10 who perished at Endor, who became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like Orev and Zeev; yes, all their princes like Zevah and Tsalmunna;

12 who said, "Let us take possession of the pasture lands of Elohim."

13 My Elohim, make them like tumbleweed; like chaff before the wind.

14 As the fire that burns the forest, as the flame that sets the mountains on fire, 15 so pursue them with Your tempest, and terrify them with Your storm.

16 Fill their faces with confusion, that they may seek Your Name, יְהוָה.

17 Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever. Yes, let them be confounded and perish;

18 that they may know that You alone, whose Name is יְהוָה, are Elyon over all the earth.

84 For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath.

A Psalm by the sons of Qorah.

1 How lovely are Your dwellings, יְהוָה Tsevaot!

2 My being longs, and even faints for the courts of יְהוָה. My heart and my flesh cry out for the living El.

3 Yes, the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young, near Your altars, יְהוָה Tsevaot, my King, and my Elohim.

4 Blessed are those who dwell in Your house. They are always praising You.

Selah.

5 Blessed are those whose strength is in You; who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.

6 Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs. Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings.

7 They go from strength to strength. Every one of them appears before Elohim in Tsion.

8 יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot, hear my prayer. Listen, Elohim of Ya'aqov.

Selah.

9 Behold, Elohim our shield, look at the face of Your anointed.

10 For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my Elohim, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For You, יְהוָה Elohim is a sun and a shield. יְהוָה will give favor and glory. He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly.

12 Tsevaot, blessed is the man who relies on You.

85 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Qorah.

1 You have been favorable to Your land. You have restored the fortunes of Ya'aqov.

2 You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people. You have covered all their sin.

Selah.

3 You have taken away all Your wrath. You have turned from the fierceness of Your anger.

4 Turn us, Elohim of our salvation, and cause Your indignation toward us to cease.

5 Will You be angry with us forever? Will You draw out Your anger to all generations?

6 Will You not revive us again, that Your people may rejoice in You?

7 Show us Your loving-kindness, יְהוָה. Grant us Your salvation.

8 I will hear what El, יְהוָה, will speak, for He will speak peace to His people, His set-apart ones; but let them not turn again to blind confidence.

9 Surely His salvation is near those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth meet together. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth springs out of the earth. Righteousness has looked down from heavens.

12 Yes, יְהוָה will give that which is good. Our land will yield its increase.

13 Righteousness goes before Him, and prepares the way for His steps.

86 A Prayer by David.

1 Hear, יְהוָה, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.

2 Guard my being, for I am kind. You, my Elohim, save Your servant who relies on You.

3 Be kind to me, יְהוָה, for I call to You all day long.

4 Bring joy to the being of Your servant, for to You, יְהוָה, do I lift up my being.

5 For You, יְהוָה, are good, and ready to forgive; abundant in loving-kindness to all those who call on You.

6 Hear, יְהוָה, my prayer. Listen to the voice of my petitions.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call on You, for You will answer me.

8 There is no one like You among the elohim, יְהוָה, nor any deeds like Your deeds.

9 All nations You have made will come and bow down before You, יְהוָה. They shall glorify Your Name.

10 For You are great, and do wondrous things. You are Elohim alone.

11 Teach me Your way, יְהוָה. I will walk in Your truth. Make my heart undivided to fear Your Name.

12 I will praise You, יְהוָה my Elohim, with my whole heart. I will glorify Your Name forever more.

13 For Your loving-kindness is great toward me. You have delivered my being from the lowest Sheol.

14 Elohim, the proud have risen up against me. A company of tyrants have sought after my being, and they do not hold regard for You before them.

15 But You, יְהוָה, are a compassionate and kind El, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness and truth.

16 Turn to me, and be kind to me! Give Your strength to Your servant. Save the son of Your servant.

17 Show me a sign of Your goodness, that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed, because You, יְהוָה, have helped me, and comforted me.

87 A Psalm by the sons of Qorah; a Song.

1 His foundation is in the set-apart mountains.

2 יְהוָה loves the gates of Tsion more than all the dwellings of Ya'aqov.

3 Glorious things are spoken about you, city of Elohim.

Selah.

4 I will record Rahav and Bavel among those who acknowledge Me. Behold, Philistia, Tsor, and also Kush: "This one was born there."

5 Yes, of Tsion it will be said, "This one and that one was born in her;" the Most High himself will establish her.

6 יְהוָה will count, when He writes up the peoples, "This one was born there."

Selah.

7 Those who sing as well as those who dance say, "All my springs are in you."

88 A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Qorah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Suffering of Affliction." A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

1 יְהוָה, the Elohim of my salvation, I have cried day and night before You.

2 Let my prayer enter into Your presence. Turn Your ear to my cry.

3 For my being is full of troubles. My life draws near to Sheol.

4 I am counted among those who go down into the pit. I am like a man who has no help,

5 set apart among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom You remember no more. They are cut off from Your hand.

6 You have laid me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.

7 Your wrath lies heavily on me. You have afflicted me with all Your waves.

Selah.

8 You have taken my friends from me. You have made me an abomination to them. I am confined, and I cannot escape.

9 My eyes are dim from grief. I have called on You daily, תְּהִלָּתֶךָ. I have spread out my hands to You.

10 Do You show wonders to the dead? Do the Rephaim rise up and praise You?

Selah.

11 Is Your loving-kindness declared in the grave? Or Your faithfulness in Avaddon?

12 Are Your wonders made known in the dark? Or Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But to You, תְּהִלָּתֶךָ, I have cried. In the morning, my prayer comes before You.

14 תְּהִלָּתֶךָ, why do You reject my being? Why do You hide Your face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up. While I suffer Your terrors, I am distracted.

16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me. Your terrors have cut me off.

17 They came around me like water all day long. They completely engulfed me.

18 You have put lover and friend far from me, and my friends into darkness.

89 A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

1 I will sing of the loving-kindness of תְּהִלָּתֶךָ forever. With my mouth, I will make known Your faithfulness to all generations.

2 I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever. You established the heavens. Your faithfulness is in them."

3 "I have cut a covenant with My chosen one, I have sworn to David, My servant, 4 I will establish your seed forever, and build up your throne to all generations."

Selah.

5 The heavens will praise Your wonders, תְּהִלָּתֶךָ; Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the set-apart ones.

6 For who in the skies can be compared to תְּהִלָּתֶךָ? Who among the sons of the mighty is like תְּהִלָּתֶךָ, 7 a very awesome El in the council of the set-apart ones, to be feared above all those who are around Him?

8 יְהוָה, Elohim Tsevaot, who is a mighty one, like You? Yah, Your faithfulness is around You.

9 You rule the pride of the sea. When its waves rise up, You calm them.

10 You have broken Rahav in pieces, like one of the slain. You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.

11 The heavens are Yours. The earth also is Yours; the world and its fullness. You have founded them.

12 The north and the south, You have created them. Tavor and Hermon rejoice in Your Name.

13 You have a mighty arm. Your hand is strong, and Your right hand is exalted.

14 Righteousness and judgment are the foundation of Your throne. Kindness and truth go before Your face.

15 Blessed are the people who learn to acclaim You. They walk in the light of Your presence, תְּהִלָּתֶךָ.

16 In Your Name they rejoice all day. In Your righteousness, they are exalted.

17 For You are the glory of their strength. In Your acceptance, our horn will be exalted.

18 For our shield belongs to תְּהִלָּתֶךָ; our king to the Set-apart One of Yisra'el.

19 Then You spoke in vision to Your set-apart ones, and said, "I have given strength to the warrior. I have exalted a young man from the people. 20 I have found David, My servant. I have anointed him with My set-apart oil, 21 with whom My hand shall be established. My arm will also strengthen him. 22 No enemy will tax him. No son of unrighteousness will oppress him. 23 I will beat down his adversaries before him, and strike those who hate him. 24 But My faithfulness and My loving-kindness will be with him. In My Name, his horn will be exalted. 25 I will set his hand also on the sea, and his right hand on the rivers. 26 He will call to me, 'You are my Father, my El, and the rock of my salvation!' 27 I will also appoint him My firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth. 28 I will guard My loving-kindness for him forever more. My covenant will be faithful with him. 29 I will also make his seed endure forever, and his throne as the days of heavens. 30 If his children forsake My Torah, and do not walk in My judgment; 31 if they break My statutes, and do not guard My commands;

32 then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. 33 But I will not completely take My loving-kindness from him, nor allow My faithfulness to fail. 34 I will not break My covenant, nor alter what my lips have uttered. 35 Once I have sworn by My set-apartness, I will not lie to David. 36 His seed will endure forever, his throne like the sun before Me. 37 It will be established forever like the moon, a faithful witness in the sky."

Selah.

38 But You have rejected and spurned. You have been angry with Your anointed. 39 You have renounced the covenant of Your servant. You have defiled his crown in the dust.

40 You have broken down all his hedges. You have brought his strongholds to ruin.

41 All who pass by the way rob him. He has become a reproach to his neighbors.

42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries. You have made all of his enemies rejoice.

43 Yes, You turn back the edge of his sword, and have not supported him in battle.

44 You have ended his splendor, and thrown his throne down to the ground.

45 You have shortened the days of his youth. You have covered him with shame.

Selah.

46 How long, יְהוָה? Will You hide Yourself forever? Will Your wrath burn like fire?

47 Remember how short my time is! For what vanity have You created all the children of men!

48 What man is he who shall live and not see death, who shall deliver his being from the power of Sheol?

Selah.

49 יְהוָה, where are Your former loving-kindnesses, which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?

50 Remember, יְהוָה, the reproach of Your servants, how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty peoples, 51 with which Your enemies have mocked: יְהוָה, with which they have mocked the footsteps of Your anointed one^a.

52 Blessed be יְהוָה forever more. Amein, and Amein.

90 A Prayer by Mosheh, the man of Elohim.

1 יְהוָה, You have been our dwelling place for all generations.

2 Before the mountains were born, before You had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, You are El.

3 You turn man to destruction, saying, "Return, You children of men."

4 For a thousand years in Your eyes are just like yesterday when it is past, like a watch in the night.

5 You sweep them away as they sleep. In the morning they sprout like new grass.

6 In the morning it sprouts and springs up. By evening, it is withered and dry.

7 For we are consumed in Your anger. We are troubled in Your wrath.

8 You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

9 For all our days have passed away in Your wrath. We bring our years to an end as a sigh.

10 The days of our years are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty years; yet their pride is but toil and vain exertion, for it passes quickly, and we fly away.

11 Who knows the power of Your anger, Your wrath according to the fear that is due to You?

12 So teach us to number our days,^b that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

13 Relent, יְהוָה! How long? Have compassion on Your servants!

14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your loving-kindness, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad for as many days as You have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen evil.

16 Let Your work appear to Your servants; Your glory to their children.

17 Let the favor of יְהוָה our Elohim be on us; establish the work of our hands for us; yes, establish the work of our hands.

91 He who dwells in the secret place of Elyon will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of יְהוָה, "He is my refuge and my fortress; my Elohim, on whom I rely."

3 For He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence.

4 He will cover you with His feathers. Under His wings you will take refuge. His truth is your shield and rampart.

5 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day; 6 nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.

7 A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it will not come near you.

8 You will only look with your eyes, and see the recompense of the wicked.

9 Because you have made יְהוָה your refuge, and Elyon your dwelling place,

10 no evil shall happen to you, neither shall any plague

^a 51 Anointed one – Hebrew word מֶשֶׁךְ (mash'iy'ach): "Messiah."

^b 12 Number...days – Idiom meaning "use time wisely."

come near your dwelling.

11 For He will put His messenger in charge of you, to guard you in all your ways.

12 They will bear you up in their hands, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.

13 You will tread on the lion and cobra. You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot.

14 "Because he has set his love on Me, therefore I will deliver him. I will set him on high, because he has known My Name. 15 He will call on me, and I will answer him. I will be with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and honor him. 16 I will satisfy him with long life, and show him My salvation."

92 A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

1 It is a good thing to give thanks to יְהוָה, to sing praises to Your Name, Elyon;

2 to proclaim Your loving-kindness in the morning, and Your faithfulness every night,

3 with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp, and with the melody of the lyre.

4 For You, יְהוָה, have made me glad through Your work. I will triumph in the works of Your hands.

5 How great are Your works, יְהוָה! Your thoughts are very deep.

6 A senseless man does not know, neither does a fool understand this:

7 though the wicked spring up as the grass, and all the workers of vain exertion flourish, they will be destroyed forever.

8 But You, יְהוָה, are on high forever more.

9 For, behold, Your enemies, יְהוָה, for, behold, Your enemies shall perish. All the workers of vain exertion will be scattered.

10 But You have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox. I am anointed with fresh oil.

11 My eye has also seen my enemies. My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree. He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 They are planted in the house of יְהוָה. They will flourish in the courts of our Elohim.

14 They will still produce fruit in old age. They will be full of sap and green, 15 to show that יְהוָה is upright. He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

93 יְהוָה reigns! He is clothed with majesty! יְהוָה is armed with strength. The world also is established. It cannot be moved.

2 Your throne is established from long ago. You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, יְהוָה, the floods have lifted up their voice. The floods lift up their waves.

4 Above the voices of many waters, the mighty breakers of the sea, יְהוָה on high is mighty.

5 Your witnesses are great and faithful. Set-apartness adorns Your house, יְהוָה, forever more.

94 יְהוָה, You, El to whom vengeance belongs, You, El to whom vengeance belongs, shine out.

2 Rise up, You judge of the earth. Pay back the proud what they deserve.

3 יְהוָה, how long will the wicked, how long will the wicked triumph?

4 They pour out arrogant words. All the workers of vain exertion boast.

5 They break Your people in pieces, יְהוָה, and afflict Your heritage.

6 They kill the widow and the sojourner, and murder the fatherless.

7 They say, "Yah will not see, neither will Ya'aqov's Elohim consider."

8 Consider, you senseless among the people; you fools, when will you be wise?

9 He who implanted the ear, will He not hear? He who formed the eye, will He not see?

10 He who disciplines the nations, will He not punish? He who teaches man knows.

11 יְהוָה knows the thoughts of man, that they are futile.

12 Blessed is the man whom You discipline, Yah, and teach out of Your Torah;

13 that You may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the wicked.

14 For יְהוָה will not reject His people, neither will He forsake His inheritance.

15 For judgment will return to righteousness. All the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will stand up for me against the workers of vain exertion?

17 Unless יְהוָה had been my help, my being would have soon lived in silence.

18 When I said, "My foot is slipping!" Your loving-kindness, יְהוָה, sustained me.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, Your comforts delight my being.

20 Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with You, which brings about toil by statute?

21 They gather themselves together against the being of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But יְהוָה has been my high tower, my Elohim, the rock of my refuge.

23 He has brought on them their own vain exertion, and will cut them off in their own wickedness. תְּהִלָּה, our Elohim, will cut them off.

95 Oh come, let us sing to תְּהִלָּה. Let us shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!

2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving. Let us extol Him with songs!

3 For תְּהִלָּה is a great El, a great King above all elohim.

4 In His hand are the deep places of the earth. The heights of the mountains are also His.

5 The sea is His, and He made it. His hands formed the dry land.

6 Oh come, let us bow down and kneel. Let us bless before תְּהִלָּה, our Maker,

7 for He is our Elohim. We are the people of His pasture, and the sheep in His care. Today, oh that you would hear His voice!

8 "Do not harden your heart, as at Merivah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, 9 when your fathers tempted Me, tested Me, and saw My work. 10 Forty long years I was grieved with that generation, and said, 'It is a people that errs in their heart. They have not known My ways.' 11 Therefore I swore in My wrath, 'they will not enter into My rest.'" 96 Sing to תְּהִלָּה a new song! Sing to תְּהִלָּה, all the earth.

2 Sing to תְּהִלָּה! Bless His Name! Proclaim His salvation from day to day!

3 Declare His glory among the nations, His marvelous works among all the peoples.

4 For great is תְּהִלָּה, and greatly to be praised! He is to be feared above all elohim.

5 For all the elohim of the peoples are idols, but תְּהִלָּה made the heavens.

6 Honor and majesty are before Him. Strength and beauty are in His set-apart place.

7 Ascribe to תְּהִלָּה, you families of nations, ascribe to תְּהִלָּה glory and strength.

8 Ascribe to תְּהִלָּה the glory due to His Name. Bring an offering, and come into His courts.

9 Bow down to תְּהִלָּה in set-apart array. Tremble before Him, all the earth.

10 Say among the nations, "תְּהִלָּה reigns." The world is also established. It cannot be moved. He will judge the peoples with uprightness.

11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice. Let the sea roar, and its fullness!

12 Let the field and all that is in it exult! Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy

13 before תְּהִלָּה; for He comes, for He comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, the peoples with His faithfulness.

97 תְּהִלָּה reigns! Let the earth rejoice! Let the multitude of islands be glad!

2 Clouds and darkness are around Him. Righteousness and judgment are the foundation of His throne.

3 A fire goes before Him, and burns up His adversaries on every side.

4 His lightning lights up the world. The earth sees, and trembles.

5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of תְּהִלָּה, at the presence of the Master of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare His righteousness. All the peoples have seen His glory.

7 Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images, who boast in their idols. Bow down to Him, all you elohim^a!

8 Tsion heard and was glad. The daughters of Yehudah rejoiced, because of Your judgments, תְּהִלָּה.

9 For You, תְּהִלָּה, are Elyon above all the earth. You are exalted far above all elohim.

10 You who love תְּהִלָּה, hate evil. He guards the beings of His set-apart ones. He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Be glad in תְּהִלָּה, you righteous people! Give thanks to His set-apart Name.

98 A Psalm.

1 Sing to תְּהִלָּה a new song, for he has done marvelous things! His right hand, and His set-apart arm, have worked salvation for Him.

2 תְּהִלָּה has made known His salvation. He has openly shown His righteousness in the sight of the nations.

3 He has remembered His loving-kindness and His faithfulness toward the house of Yisra'el. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our Elohim.

4 Make a joyful noise to תְּהִלָּה, all the earth! Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises!

5 Sing praises to תְּהִלָּה with the harp, with the harp and the voice of melody.

6 With trumpets and voice of the shofar, make a joyful noise before the King, תְּהִלָּה.

7 Let the sea roar with its fullness; the world, and those who dwell therein.

8 Let the rivers clap their hands. Let the mountains sing for joy together.

^a 7 LXX reads, "messengers" here instead of "elohim."

9 Let them sing before יְהוָה, for He comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with uprightness.

99 יְהוָה reigns! Let the peoples tremble. He sits enthroned among the keruvim. Let the earth be moved. 2 יְהוָה is great in Tsion. He is high above all the peoples.

3 Let them praise Your great and awesome Name. He is set-apart!

4 The King's strength also loves judgment. You do establish uprightness. You execute judgment and righteousness in Ya'aqov.

5 Exalt יְהוָה our Elohim. Bow down at His footstool. He is set-apart!

6 Mosheh and Aharon were among His priests, Shemu'el among those who call on His Name; they called on יְהוָה, and He answered them.

7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud. They guarded His witnesses, the statute that He gave them.

8 You answered them, יְהוָה our Elohim. You are an El who forgave them, although You took vengeance for their doings.

9 Exalt יְהוָה, our Elohim. Bow down at His set-apart hill, for יְהוָה, our Elohim, is set-apart!

100 A Psalm of thanksgiving.

1 Shout for joy to יְהוָה, all you lands!

2 Serve יְהוָה with gladness. Come before His presence with singing.

3 Know that יְהוָה, He is Elohim. It is He who has made us, and we are His. We are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.

4 Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, into His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him, and bless His Name.

5 For יְהוָה is good. His loving-kindness endures forever, His faithfulness to all generations.

101 A Psalm by David.

1 I will sing of loving-kindness and judgment. To You, יְהוָה, I will sing praises.

2 I will be careful to live a blameless life. When will You come to me? I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.

3 I will set no worthless thing before my eyes. I hate the deeds of those that turn aside. They will not cling to me.

4 A perverse heart will be far from me. I will have nothing to do with evil.

5 I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor. I will not tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.

6 My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me. He who walks in a perfect way, he will serve me.

7 He who practices deceit will not dwell within my house. He who speaks falsehood will not be established before my eyes.

8 Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land; to cut off all the workers of vain exertion from the city of יְהוָה.

102 A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before יְהוָה.

1 Hear my prayer, יְהוָה! Let my cry come to You.

2 Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my distress. Turn Your ear to me. Answer me quickly in the day when I call.

3 For my days consume away like smoke. My bones are burned as a torch.

4 My heart is blighted like grass, and withered, for I forgot to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones stick to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness. I have become as an owl of the waste places.

7 I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.

8 My enemies reproach me all day. Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears.

10 Because of Your indignation and Your wrath, for You have taken me up, and thrown me away.

11 My days are like a long shadow. I have withered like grass.

12 But You, יְהוָה, will remain forever; Your renown endures to all generations.

13 You will arise and have compassion on Tsion; for it is time to be kind to her. Yes, the set time has come.

14 For Your servants take pleasure in her stones, and have pity on her dust.

15 So the nations will fear the Name of יְהוָה; all the kings of the earth, Your glory.

16 For יְהוָה has built up Tsion. He has appeared in His glory.

17 He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.

18 This will be written for the generation to come. A people which will be created will praise Yah.

19 For He has looked down from the height of His set-apart place. From heavens, יְהוָה saw the earth; 20 to hear the groans of the prisoner; to free those who are condemned to death; 21 that men may declare the Name of יְהוָה in Tsion, and His praise in Yerushalayim;

22 when the peoples are gathered together, the kingdoms, to serve יְהוָה.

23 He weakened my strength along the course. He shortened my days.
 24 I said, "My El, do not take me away in the middle of my days. Your years are throughout all generations.
 25 Of old, You laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the work of Your hands. 26 They will perish, but You will endure. Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment. You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed. 27 But You are the same. Your years will have no end. 28 The children of Your servants will continue. Their seed will be established before You."

103 By David.

1 Praise יהוה, my being! All that is within me, praise His set-apart Name!
 2 Praise יהוה, my being, and do not forget all His benefits; 3 who forgives all your sins; who heals all your diseases; 4 who redeems your life from destruction; who crowns you with loving-kindness and compassions; 5 who satisfies your desire with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. 6 יהוה executes righteous acts, and judgments for all who are oppressed.
 7 He made known His ways to Mosheh, his deeds to the children of Yisra'el.
 8 יהוה is compassionate and kind, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness.
 9 He will not always accuse; neither will He stay angry forever.
 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities.
 11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His loving-kindness toward those who fear Him.
 12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
 13 Like a father has compassion on his children, so יהוה has compassion on those who fear Him.
 14 For He knows how we are inclined. He remembers that we are dust.
 15 As for man, his days are like grass. As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
 16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. Its place remembers it no more.
 17 But the loving-kindness of יהוה is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear Him, His righteousness to children's children;
 18 to those who guard His covenant, to those who remember to obey His precepts.
 19 יהוה has established His throne in the heavens. His kingdom rules over all.
 20 Praise יהוה, you messengers of His, who are mighty in strength, who fulfill His word, obeying the voice of His word.

21 Praise יהוה, all you armies of His, you servants of His, who do His will.
 22 Praise יהוה, all you works of His, in all places of His dominion. Praise יהוה, my being!

104 Bless יהוה, my being. יהוה, my Elohim, You are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty.
 2 He covers Himself with light as with a garment. He stretches out the heavens like a curtain.
 3 He lays the beams of His rooms in the waters. He makes the clouds His chariot. He walks on the wings of the wind.
 4 He makes His messengers winds; His servants flames of fire.
 5 He laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be moved forever.
 6 You covered it with the deep as with a cloak. The waters stood above the mountains.
 7 At Your rebuke they fled. At the voice of Your thunder they hurried away.
 8 The mountains rose, the valleys sank down, to the place which You had assigned to them.
 9 You have set a boundary that they may not pass over; that they do not turn again to cover the earth.
 10 He sends springs into the wadis. They run among the mountains.
 11 They give drink to every animal of the field. The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
 12 The birds of the heavens nest by them. They sing among the branches.
 13 He waters the mountains from His rooms. The earth is filled with the fruit of Your works.
 14 He causes the grass to grow for the livestock, and plants for the service of man, that he may produce food out of the earth: 15 wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face to shine, and bread that sustains man's heart.
 16 The trees of יהוה are well watered, the cedars of Levanon, which He has planted; 17 where the birds make their nests. The stork makes its home in the cypress trees.
 18 The high mountains are for the wild goats. The rocks are a refuge for the shaphan.
 19 He appointed the moon for seasons. The sun knows when to set.
 20 You make darkness, and it is night, in which all the animals of the forest prowl.
 21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from El.
 22 The sun rises, and they steal away, and lay down in their dens.
 23 Man goes out to his deeds, to his service until evening.

24 פָּנָצַד, how many are Your works! In wisdom have You made them all. The earth is full of Your riches.
25 There is the sea, great and wide, in which are innumerable living things, both small and large animals.
26 There the ships go, and Livyathan, whom You formed to play there.
27 These all wait for You, that You may give them their food in due season.
28 You give to them; they gather. You open Your hand; they are satisfied with good.
29 You hide Your face: they are troubled; You take away their breath: they die, and return to the dust.
30 You send out Your Ruah and they are created. You renew the face of the ground.
31 Let the glory of יְהוָה endure forever. Let יְהוָה rejoice in His works.
32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles. He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
33 I will sing to יְהוָה as long as I live. I will sing praise to my Elohim while I have any being.
34 Let my meditation be sweet to Him. I will rejoice in יְהוָה.
35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth. Let the wicked be no more. Bless פָּנָצַד, my being. Praise Yah!

105 Give thanks to יְהוָה! Call on His Name! Make His doings known among the peoples.
2 Sing to Him, sing praises to Him! Tell of all His marvelous works.
3 Glory in His set-apart Name. Let the heart of those who seek יְהוָה rejoice.
4 Seek יְהוָה and His strength. Seek His face forever more.
5 Remember His marvelous works that He has done; His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,
6 you seed of Avraham, His servant, you children of Ya'aqov, His chosen ones.
7 He is פָּנָצַד, our Elohim. His judgments are in all the earth.
8 He has remembered His covenant forever, the word which He commanded to a thousand generations,
9 the covenant which He cut with Avraham, His oath to Yitshaq,
10 and confirmed the same to Ya'aqov for a statute; to Yisra'el for an everlasting covenant,
11 saying, "To you I will give the land of Kena'an, the lot of your inheritance;"
12 when they were but a few men in number, yes, very few, and sojourners in it.
13 They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people.
14 He allowed no one to do them wrong. Yes, He reproved kings for their sakes,

15 "Do not touch My anointed ones! Do My prophets no harm!"
16 He called for a famine on the land. He destroyed the food supplies.
17 He sent a man before them. Yoseph was sold for a slave.
18 They bruised his feet with shackles. His neck was locked in irons, 19 until the time that His word came, and the speeches of פָּנָצַד tried.
20 The king sent and freed him; even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
21 He made him master of his house, and ruler of all of his possessions;
22 to discipline his princes at his pleasure, and to teach his elders wisdom.
23 Yisra'el also came into Mitsrayim. Ya'aqov lived in the land of Ham.
24 He increased His people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries.
25 He turned their heart to hate His people, to conspire against His servants.
26 He sent Mosheh, His servant, and Aharon, whom He had chosen.
27 They performed miracles among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and made it dark. They did not rebel against His words.
29 He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish.
30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the rooms of their kings.
31 He spoke, and swarms of flies came, and lice in all their borders.
32 He gave them hail for rain, with lightning in their land.
33 He struck their vines and also their fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country.
34 He spoke, and the locusts came, and the grasshoppers, without number, 35 ate up every plant in their land; and ate up the fruit of their ground.
36 He struck also all the firstborn in their land, the first fruits of all their manhood.
37 He brought them out with silver and gold. There was not one feeble person among His tribes.
38 Mitsrayim was glad when they departed, for the fear of them had fallen on them.
39 He spread a cloud for a covering, fire to give light in the night.
40 They asked, and He brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of the heavens.
41 He opened the rock, and waters gushed out. They ran as a river in the dry places.
42 For He remembered His set-apart word, and Avraham, His servant.

43 He brought His people out with joy, His chosen ones with singing.

44 He gave them the lands of the nations. They took the toil of the peoples in possession, 45 that they might guard His statutes, and preserve His Torot. Praise Yah!

106 Praise יְהוָה! Give thanks to יְהוָה, for He is good, for His loving-kindness endures forever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of יְהוָה, or fully declare all His praise?

3 Blessed are those who keep judgment. Blessed is one who does what is right at all times.

4 Remember me, פָּנָאָתִי, with the acceptance that You show to Your people. Visit me with Your salvation, 5 that I may see the prosperity of Your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, that I may glory with Your inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers. We have committed iniquity. We have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers did not understand Your wonders in Mitsrayim. They did not remember the multitude of Your loving-kindnesses, but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Sea of Reeds.

8 Nevertheless He saved them for His Name's sake, that He might make His mighty power known.

9 He rebuked the Sea of Reeds also, and it was dried up; so He led them through the depths, as through a desert.

10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

12 Then they believed His words. They sang His praise.

13 They soon forgot His works. They did not wait for His counsel, 14 but gave in to craving in the desert, and tested El in the wasteland.

15 He gave them their request, but sent leanness into their being.

16 They envied Mosheh also in the camp, and Aharon, the set-apart one of יְהוָה.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Aviram.

18 A fire was kindled in their company. The flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horev, and bowed down to a molten image.

20 Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.

21 They forgot El, their Savior, who had done great things in Mitsrayim, 22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome things by the Sea of Reeds.

23 Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had Mosheh, His chosen, not stood before Him in the breach, to turn away His wrath, so that He would not destroy them.

24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land. They did not believe His word, 25 but murmured in their tents, and did not listen to the voice of פָּנָאָתִי.

26 Therefore He swore to them that He would overthrow them in the wilderness, 27 that He would overthrow their seed among the nations, and scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also to Ba'al Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds. The plague broke in on them.

30 Then Pinehas stood up, and executed judgment, so the plague was stopped.

31 That was credited to him for righteousness, for all generations to come.

32 They angered Him also at the waters of Merivah, so that Mosheh was troubled for their sakes;

33 because they were rebellious against his spirit, he spoke rashly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the peoples, as יְהוָה commanded them, 35 but mixed themselves with the nations, and learned their works.

36 They served their idols, which became a snare to them.

37 Yes, they slaughtered their sons and their daughters to demons.

38 They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they slaughtered to the idols of Kena'an. The land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their works, and whored themselves in their deeds.

40 Therefore יְהוָה burned with anger against His people. He abhorred His inheritance.

41 He gave them into the hand of the nations. Those who hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them. They were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 He rescued them many times, but they were rebellious in their counsel, and were brought low in their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless He regarded their distress, when he heard their cry.

45 He remembered for them His covenant, and relented according to the multitude of His loving-kindnesses.

46 He made them also to be pitied by all those who carried them captive.

47 Save us, פָּנָאָתִי, our Elohim, gather us from among the nations, to give thanks to Your set-apart Name, to triumph in Your praise!

48 Blessed be פָּנָאָתִי, the Elohim of Yisra'el, from everlasting even to everlasting! Let all the people say, "Amein." Praise Yah!

107 Give thanks to יְהוָה, for He is good, for His loving-kindness endures forever.

- 2 Let the redeemed by יְהוָה say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
- 3 And gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
- 4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way. They found no city to live in.
- 5 Hungry and thirsty, their being fainted in them.
- 6 Then they cried to יְהוָה in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses,
- 7 He led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city to live in.
- 8 Let them praise יְהוָה for His loving-kindness, for His wonderful deeds to the children of men!
- 9 For He satisfies the longing being. He fills the hungry being with good.
- 10 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron, 11 because they rebelled against the speeches of El, and condemned the counsel of Elyon.
- 12 Therefore He brought down their heart with toil. They fell down, and there was no one to help.
- 13 Then they cried to יְהוָה in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses.
- 14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke away their chains.
- 15 Let them praise יְהוָה for His loving-kindness, for His wonderful deeds to the children of men!
- 16 For He has broken the gates of copper, and cut through bars of iron.
- 17 Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience, and because of their iniquities.
- 18 Their being abhors all kinds of food. They draw near to the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cry to יְהוָה in their trouble, He saves them out of their distresses.
- 20 He sends His word, and heals them, and delivers them from their graves.
- 21 Let them praise יְהוָה for His loving-kindness, for His wonderful deeds to the children of men!
- 22 Let them slaughter the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare His deeds with singing.
- 23 Those who go down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters;
- 24 These see the deeds of יְהוָה, and His wonders in the deep.
- 25 For He commands, and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up its waves.
- 26 They mount up to the heavens; they go down again to the depths. Their being melts away because of trouble.

- 27 They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end.
- 28 Then they cry to יְהוָה in their trouble, and He brings them out of their distress.
- 29 He makes the storm a calm, so that its waves are still.
- 30 Then they are glad because it is calm, so He brings them to their desired haven.
- 31 Let them praise יְהוָה for His loving-kindness, for His wonderful deeds for the children of men!
- 32 Let them exalt Him also in the assembly of the people, and praise Him in the seat of the elders.
- 33 He turns rivers into a desert, water springs into a thirsty ground, 34 and a fruitful land into a salt waste, for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
- 35 He turns the wilderness into a pool of water, and a dry land into water springs.
- 36 There He makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city to live in,
- 37 sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of increase.
- 38 He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly. He does not allow their livestock to decrease.
- 39 Again, they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
- 40 He pours contempt on princes, and causes them to wander in a trackless waste.
- 41 Yet He lifts the needy out of their affliction, and increases their families like a flock.
- 42 The upright will see it, and be glad. All the unrighteous will shut their mouths.
- 43 Whoever is wise? Let him guard these things, and consider the loving-kindnesses of יְהוָה.

108 A Song. A Psalm by David.

- 1 My heart is steadfast, Elohim. I will sing and I will make music with my being.
- 2 Wake up, harp and lyre! I will wake up the dawn.
- 3 I will give thanks to You, יְהוָה, among the nations. I will sing praises to You among the peoples.
- 4 For Your loving-kindness is great above the heavens. Your truth reaches to the skies.
- 5 Be exalted, Elohim, above the heavens! Let Your glory be over all the earth.
- 6 That Your beloved may be delivered, save with Your right hand, and answer us.
- 7 Elohim has spoken from His set-apart place: "In triumph, I will divide Shekhem, and measure out the valley of Sukkoth. 8 Gilad is Mine. Menasheh is Mine. Ephrayim also is My helmet. Yehudah is My scepter.
- 9 Moav is my wash pot. I will toss my sandal on Edom. I will shout over Philistia."

10 Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who has led me to Edom?

11 Have You not rejected us, Elohim? You do not go out, Elohim, with our armies.

12 Give us help against the enemy, for the help of man is vain.

13 Through Elohim, we will do valiantly. For it is He who will tread down our enemies.

109 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 Elohim of my praise, do not remain silent,

2 for they have opened the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit against me. They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.

3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.

4 In return for my love, they are my adversaries; but I am in prayer.

5 They have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6 Set a wicked man over him. Let an adversary stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him come out wicked. Let his prayer be turned into sin.

8 Let his days be few. Let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be wandering beggars. Let them be sought from their ruins.

11 Let the creditor seize all that he has. Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.

12 Let there be no one to extend loving-kindness to him, neither let there be anyone to have pity on his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off. In the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by חַדְשָׁה. Do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before חַדְשָׁה continually, that He may cut off their memory from the earth;

16 because he did not remember to show loving-kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy man, the broken in heart, to kill them.

17 Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him. He did not delight in blessing, and it was far from him.

18 He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment. It came into his inward parts like water, like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers himself, for the belt that is always around him.

20 This is the reward of my adversaries from חַדְשָׁה, of those who speak evil against my being.

21 But deal with me, Adonai חַדְשָׁה, for Your Name's sake, because Your loving-kindness is good, deliver me;

22 for I am poor and needy. My heart is wounded within me.

23 I fade away like an evening shadow. I am shaken off like a locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting. My body is thin and lacks fat.

25 I have also become a reproach to them. When they see me, they shake their head.

26 Help me, חַדְשָׁה, my Elohim. Save me according to Your loving-kindness;

27 that they may know that this is Your hand; that You, חַדְשָׁה, have done it.

28 They may curse, but You bless. When they arise, they will be shamed, but Your servant shall rejoice.

29 Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor. Let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.

30 I will give great thanks to יְהוָה with my mouth. Yes, I will praise Him among the multitude.

31 For He will stand at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who judge his being.

110 A Psalm by David.

1 חַדְשָׁה says to my Master, "Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool for Your feet."

2 חַדְשָׁה will send out the rod of Your strength out of Tsion. Rule among Your enemies.

3 Your people offer themselves as freewill offerings in the day of Your power, in set-apart array. Out of the womb of the morning, You have the dew of Your youth.

4 חַדְשָׁה has sworn, and will not change His mind: "You are a priest forever in the order of Malkizedeq."

5 חַדְשָׁה is at Your right hand. He will crush kings in the day of His wrath.

6 He will judge among the nations. He will heap up dead bodies. He will crush the ruler of the whole earth.

7 He will drink of the wadi on the way; therefore He will lift up His head.

113 Praise Yah! Praise, you servants of יְהוָה, praise the Name of יְהוָה.

2 Blessed be the Name of יְהוָה, from this time forward and forever more.

3 From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same, the Name of יְהוָה is to be praised.

4 יְהוָה is high above all nations, His glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like יְהוָה, our Elohim, who has His seat on high.

6 Who stoops down to see in heavens and in the earth?

7 He raises up the poor out of the dust. Lifts up the needy from the ash heap; 8 that He may set him with princes, even with the princes of His people.

9 He settles the barren woman in her home, as a joyful mother of children. Praise Yah!

114 When Yisra'el went out of Mitsrayim, the house of Ya'aqov from a people of foreign language;

2 Yehudah became His set-apart place, Yisra'el His dominion.

3 The sea saw it, and fled. The Yarden was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams, the little hills like lambs.

5 What was it, you sea, that you fled? You Yarden, that you turned back?

6 You mountains, that you skipped like rams; you little hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, you earth, at the presence of יְהוָה, at the presence of the Eloah of Ya'aqov, 8 who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of waters.

115 Not to us, יְהוָה, not to us, but to Your Name give glory, for Your loving-kindness, and for Your truth's sake.

2 Why should the nations say, "Where is their Elohim, now?"

3 But our Elohim is in the heavens. He does whatever He pleases.

4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they do not speak. They have eyes, but they do not see.

6 They have ears, but they do not hear. They have noses, but they do not smell.

7 They have hands, but they do not feel. They have feet, but they do not walk, neither do they speak through their throat.

8 Those who make them will be like them; yes, everyone who relies on them.

9 Yisra'el, rely on יְהוָה! He is their help and their shield.

10 House of Aharon, rely on יְהוָה! He is their help and their shield.

11 You who fear יְהוָה, rely on יְהוָה! He is their help and their shield.

12 יְהוָה remembers us. He will bless us. He will bless the house of Yisra'el. He will bless the house of Aharon.

13 He will bless those who fear יְהוָה, both small and great.

14 May יְהוָה increase you more and more, you and your children.

15 Blessed are you by יְהוָה, who made heavens and earth.

16 The heavens are the heavens of יְהוָה; but the earth has He given to the children of men.

17 The dead do not praise Yah, neither any who go down into silence;

18 But we will bless Yah, from this time forward and forever more. Praise Yah!

116 I love יְהוָה, because He listens to my voice, and my petitions.

2 Because He has turned His ear to me, therefore I will call on Him as long as I live.

3 The cords of death surrounded me, the pains of Sheol got a hold of me. I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then I called on the Name of יְהוָה, יְהוָה, I beg You, deliver my being."

^a 10 Tehillim 112 is known as an acrostic psalm. That is, the first Hebrew letter of each sentence begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew Alef-Bet. For example, the first sentence begins with an Alef, while the second sentence begins with a Bet, and the third a Gimel, and so on.

5 יְהוָה is kind and righteous. Yes, our Elohim is compassionate.
6 יְהוָה guards the simple. I was brought low, and He saved me.
7 Return to your rest, my being, for יְהוָה has dealt bountifully with you.
8 For You have delivered my being from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.
9 I will walk before יְהוָה in the land of the living.
10 I trusted, therefore I said, "I was greatly afflicted."
11 I said in my haste, "All men are liars."
12 What will I give to יְהוָה for all His benefits toward me?
13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the Name of יְהוָה.
14 I will pay my vows to יְהוָה, yes, in the presence of all His people.
15 Precious in the sight of יְהוָה is the death of His set-apart ones.
16 נָסַרְתִּי, truly I am Your servant. I am Your servant, the son of Your servant. You have freed me from my chains.
17 I will slaughter to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call on the Name of יְהוָה.
18 I will pay my vows to יְהוָה, yes, in the presence of all His people, 19 in the courts of the house of יְהוָה, in the middle of you, Yerushalayim. Praise Yah!

117 Praise יְהוָה, all you nations! Extol Him, all you peoples!
2 For His loving-kindness is great toward us. The truth of יְהוָה endures forever. Praise Yah!

118 Give thanks to יְהוָה, for He is good, for His loving-kindness endures forever.
2 Let Yisra'el now say that His loving-kindness endures forever.
3 Let the house of Aharon now say that His loving-kindness endures forever.
4 Now let those who fear יְהוָה say that His loving-kindness endures forever.
5 Out of my distress, I called on Yah. Yah answered me with freedom.
6 יְהוָה is on my side. I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?
7 יְהוָה is on my side among those who help me. Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.
8 It is better to take refuge in יְהוָה, than to rely on man.
9 It is better to take refuge in יְהוָה, than to rely on princes.
10 All the nations surrounded me, but in the Name of יְהוָה, I cut them off.

11 They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me. In the Name of יְהוָה I indeed cut them off.
12 They surrounded me like bees. They are quenched like the burning thorns. In the Name of יְהוָה I cut them off.
13 You pushed me back hard, to make me fall, but יְהוָה helped me.
14 Yah is my strength and song. He has become my salvation.
15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous. "The right hand of יְהוָה does valiantly.
16 The right hand of יְהוָה is exalted! The right hand of יְהוָה does valiantly!"
17 I will not die, but live, and declare the works of Yah.
18 Yah has disciplined me severely, but He has not given me over to death.
19 Open to me the gates of righteousness. I will enter into them. I will give thanks to Yah.
20 This is the gate of יְהוָה; the righteous will enter into it.
21 I will give thanks to You, for You have answered me, and have become my salvation.
22 The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
23 This is the doing of יְהוָה. It is marvelous in our eyes.
24 This is the day that יְהוָה has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it!
25 Save us now, we beg You, יְהוָה! יְהוָה, we beg You, send prosperity now.
26 Blessed is He who comes in the Name of יְהוָה! We have blessed You out of the house of יְהוָה.
27 יְהוָה is El, and He has given us light. Bind the Feast offering with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
28 You are my El, and I will give thanks to You. You are my Elohim, I will exalt You.
29 Oh give thanks to יְהוָה, for He is good, for His loving-kindness endures forever.

א (Alef)

1 Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to the Torah of יְהוָה.
2 Blessed are those who preserve His witnesses, who seek Him with their whole heart.
3 Yes, they do no unrighteousness. They walk in His ways.
4 You have commanded Your precepts, that we should fully guard them.

5 Oh that my ways were steadfast to guard Your statutes!

6 Then I would not be disappointed, when I consider all of Your commands.

7 I will give thanks to You with uprightness of heart, when I learn Your righteous judgments.

8 I will guard Your statutes. Do not utterly forsake me.

ב (Bet)

9 How can a young man keep his way pure? By guarding it according to Your word.

10 With my whole heart, I have sought You. Do not let me wander from Your commands.

11 I have hidden Your speeches in my heart, that I might not sin against You.

12 Blessed are You, יְהוָה. Teach me Your statutes.

13 With my lips, I have declared all the judgments of Your mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of Your witnesses, as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate on Your precepts, and consider Your ways.

16 I will delight myself in Your statutes. I will not forget Your word.

ג (Gimel)

17 Do good to Your servant. I will live and I will guard Your word.

18 Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of Your Torah.

19 I am a sojourner on the earth. Do not hide Your commands from me.

20 My being is consumed with longing for Your judgments at all times.

21 You have rebuked the proud who are cursed, who wander from Your commands.

22 Take reproach and contempt away from me, for I have preserved Your witnesses.

23 Though princes sit and slander me, Your servant will meditate in Your statutes.

24 Indeed Your witnesses are my delight, and my counselors.

ד (Dalet)

25 My being is laid low in the dust. Revive me according to Your word!

26 I declared my ways, and You answered me. Teach me Your statutes.

27 Let me understand the teaching of Your precepts! Then I will meditate on Your wondrous works.

28 My being is weary with sorrow: strengthen me according to Your word.

29 Keep me from the way of deceit. Grant me Your Torah favorably!

30 I have chosen the faithful way. I have set Your judgments before me.

31 I cling to Your witnesses, יְהוָה. Do not let me be disappointed.

32 I run in the path of Your commands, for You have set my heart free.

ה (Hey)

33 Teach me, יְהוָה, the way of Your statutes. I will preserve them to the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I will preserve Your Torah. Yes, I will guard it with my whole heart.

35 Direct me in the path of Your commands, for I delight in them.

36 Turn my heart toward Your witnesses, not toward selfish gain.

37 Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things. Revive me in Your ways.

38 Fulfill Your speeches to Your servant, that You may be feared.

39 Take away my disgrace that I dread, for Your judgments are good.

40 Behold, I long for Your precepts! Revive me in Your righteousness.

ו (Vav)

41 Let Your loving-kindness also come to me, יְהוָה, Your salvation, according to Your speeches.

42 So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me, for I rely on Your word.

43 Do not snatch the word of truth out of my mouth, for I hope for Your judgment.

44 So I will guard Your Torah continually, forever and ever.

45 I will walk in liberty, for I have sought Your precepts.

46 I will also speak of Your witnesses before kings, and will not be disappointed.

47 I will delight myself in Your commands, because I love them.

48 I reach out my hands for Your commands, which I love. I will meditate on Your statutes.

ז (Zayin)

49 Remember Your word to Your servant, because You gave me hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction, for Your speeches have revived me.

51 The arrogant mock me excessively, but I do not swerve from Your Torah.

52 I remember Your judgments of old, יְהוָה, and have comforted myself.

53 Indignation has taken hold on me, because of the wicked who forsake Your Torah.

54 Your statutes have been my songs, in the house where I live.

55 I have remembered Your Name, נַאֲמָן, in the night, and I guard Your Torah.

56 This is my way, that I preserve Your precepts.

וּ (Het)

57 נְדָבָן is my portion. I promised to guard Your words.

58 I sought Your face with my whole heart. Be kind to me according to Your speeches.

59 I considered my ways, and turned my steps to Your witnesses.

60 I will hurry, and not delay, to guard Your commands.

61 The ropes of the wicked bind me, but I will not forget Your Torah.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You, because of Your righteous judgments.

63 I am a friend of all those who fear You, of those who guard Your precepts.

64 The earth is full of Your loving-kindness, נַחֲתָה.

Teach me Your statutes.

טֵ (Tet)

65 Do good to Your servant, according to Your word, נַחֲתָה.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe Your commands.

67 Before I was afflicted, I went astray; but now I guard Your speeches.

68 You are good, and do good. Teach me Your statutes.

69 The proud have smeared a lie upon me. With my whole heart, I will preserve Your precepts.

70 Their heart is as callous as the fat, but I delight in Your Torah.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn Your statutes.

72 The Torah of Your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

יָ (Yod)

73 Your hands have made me and formed me. Give me understanding, that I may learn Your commands.

74 Those who fear You will see me and be glad, because I have put my hope in Your word.

75 נַהֲרָתִי, I know that Your judgments are righteous, that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.

76 Please let Your loving-kindness be for my comfort, according to Your speeches to Your servant.

77 Let Your compassion come to me, that I may live; for Your Torah is my delight.

78 Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully. I will meditate on Your precepts.

79 Let those who fear You turn to me. They will know Your witnesses.

80 Let my heart be blameless toward Your decrees, that I may not be disappointed.

כּ (Kaf)

81 My being faints for Your salvation. I hope in Your word.

82 My eyes fail for Your speeches. I say, "When will You comfort me?"

83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke. I do not forget Your statutes.

84 How many are the days of Your servant? When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me?

85 The proud have dug pits for me, contrary to Your Torah.

86 All of Your commands are trustworthy. The proud persecute me wrongfully. Help me!

87 They had almost wiped me from the earth, but I did not forsake Your precepts.

88 Preserve my life according to Your loving-kindness, so I will guard the witnesses of Your mouth.

לֶ (Lamed)

89 נְהַזֵּךְ, Your word is settled in heavens forever.

90 Your faithfulness is to all generations. You have established the earth, and it remains.

91 Your judgments remain to this day, for all things serve You.

92 Unless Your Torah had been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.

93 I will never forget Your precepts, for with them, You have revived me.

94 I am Yours. Save me, for I have sought Your precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me. I will consider Your witnesses.

96 I have seen a limit to all perfection, but Your commands are boundless.

מֵ (Mem)

97 How I love Your Torah! It is my meditation all day.

98 Your commands make me wiser than my enemies, for Your commands are always with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, for Your witnesses are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the aged, because I have preserved Your precepts.

101 I have kept my feet from every evil way, that I might guard Your word.

102 I have not turned aside from Your judgments, for You have taught me.

103 How sweet are Your speeches to my taste, more than honey to my mouth!

104 Through Your precepts, I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.

׃ (Nun)

- 105 Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path.
- 106 I have sworn, and have confirmed it, that I will guard Your righteous judgments.
- 107 I am afflicted very much. Revive me, יְהוָה, according to Your word.
- 108 Accept, I beg You, the freewill offerings of my mouth. יְהוָה, teach me Your judgments.
- 109 My being is continually in my hand, yet I will not forget Your Torah.
- 110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I have not gone astray from Your precepts.
- 111 I have taken Your witnesses as a heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.
- 112 I have set my heart to perform Your statutes forever, even to the end.

ם (Samekh)

- 113 I hate double-minded men, but I love Your Torah.
- 114 You are my hiding place and my shield. I hope in Your word.
- 115 Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may preserve the commands of my Elohim.
- 116 Uphold me according to Your speeches, that I may live. Let me not be ashamed of my hope.
- 117 Sustain me, and I will be safe, and will have respect for Your statutes continually.
- 118 You reject all those who stray from Your statutes, for their deceit is in vain.
- 119 You caused all the wicked of the earth to cease like dross. Therefore I love Your witnesses.
- 120 My flesh trembles for fear of You. I am afraid of Your judgments.

ׁ (Ayin)

- 121 I have done judgment and righteousness. Do not leave me to my oppressors.
- 122 Ensure Your servant's well-being. Do not let the proud oppress me.
- 123 My eyes fail looking for Your salvation, for Your righteous speeches.
- 124 Deal with Your servant according to Your loving-kindness. Teach me Your statutes.
- 125 I am Your servant. Give me understanding, that I may know Your witnesses.
- 126 It is time to act, יְהוָה, for they break Your Torah.
- 127 Therefore I love Your commands more than gold, yes, more than pure gold.
- 128 Therefore I consider all of Your precepts to be right. I hate every false way.

ׂ (Pe)

- 129 Your witnesses are wonderful, therefore my being preserves them.

130 The entrance of Your words gives light. It gives understanding to the simple.

131 I opened my mouth wide and panting, for I longed for Your commands.

132 Turn to me, and be kind to me, according to Your judgment; to those who love Your Name.

133 Establish my footsteps in Your speeches. Do not let any vain exertion have dominion over me.

134 Redeem me from the oppression of man, so I will guard Your precepts.

135 Make Your face shine on Your servant. Teach me Your statutes.

136 Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they do not guard Your Torah.

137 You are righteous, יְהוָה. Your judgments are upright.

138 You have commanded Your witnesses in righteousness. They are great in faithfulness.

139 My zeal wears me out, because my enemies ignore Your words.

140 Your speeches have been thoroughly tested, and Your servant loves them.

141 I am small and despised. I do not forget Your precepts.

142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness. Your Torah is truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me. Your commands are my delight.

144 Your witnesses are righteous forever. Give me understanding, that I may live.

ׁ (Qof)

145 I have called with my whole heart. Answer me, יְהוָה! I will preserve Your statutes.

146 I have called to You. Save me! I will guard Your witnesses.

147 I rise before twilight and cry for help. I put my hope in Your words.

148 My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I might meditate on Your speeches.

149 Hear my voice according to Your loving-kindness. Revive me, יְהוָה, according to Your judgment.

150 They draw near who follow after lewdness. They are far from Your Torah.

151 You are near, יְהוָה. All Your commands are truth.

152 Of old I have known from Your witnesses, that You have founded them forever.

ׂ (Resh)

153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me, for I do not forget Your Torah.

- 154 Plead my cause, and redeem me! Revive me according to Your speeches.
- 155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek Your statutes.
- 156 Great are Your compassions, תִּתְנַחֲמָה. Revive me according to Your judgment.
- 157 Many are my persecutors and my adversaries. I have not swerved from Your witnesses.
- 158 I look at the deceitful with loathing, because they do not guard Your speeches.
- 159 Consider how I love Your precepts. Revive me, תִּתְהַנֵּה, according to Your loving-kindness.
- 160 All of Your words are truth. Every one of Your righteous judgments is everlasting.

שׁ (Shin)

- 161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart stands in awe of Your words.

- 163 I hate and abhor falsehood. I love Your Torah.
- 164 Seven times a day, I praise You, because of Your righteous judgments.
- 165 Those who love Your Torah have great peace. Nothing causes them to stumble.
- 166 I have hoped for Your salvation, תִּתְהַנֵּה. I have done Your commands.
- 167 My being has guarded Your witnesses. I love them exceedingly.
- 168 I have guarded Your precepts and Your witnesses, for all my ways are before You.

תׁ (Tav)

- 169 Let my cry come before You, תִּתְהַנֵּה. Give me understanding according to Your word.
- 170 Let my petition come before You. Deliver me according to Your speeches.
- 171 Let my lips utter praise, for You teach me Your statutes.
- 172 Let my tongue sing of Your speeches, for all Your commands are righteousness.
- 173 Let Your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen Your precepts.
- 174 I have longed for Your salvation, תִּתְהַנֵּה. Your Torah is my delight.
- 175 Let my being live, that I may praise You. Let Your judgments help me.
- 176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep. Seek Your servant, for I do not forget Your commands.^a 120 A Song of Ascents.

- 1 In my distress, I cried to יְהֹוָה. He answered me.
- 2 Deliver my being, תִּתְהַנֵּה, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue.
- 3 What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you, you deceitful tongue?
- 4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.
- 5 Woe is me, that I live in Meshek, that I dwell among the tents of Qedar!
- 6 My being has had her dwelling too long with him who hates peace.
- 7 I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war.

121 A Song of Ascents.

- 1 I will lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from?
- 2 My help comes from יְהֹוָה, who made heavens and earth.
- 3 He will not allow your foot to be moved. He who guards you will not slumber.
- 4 Behold, He who guards Yisra'el will neither slumber nor sleep.
- 5 יְהֹוָה יְהֹוָה is your guard. יְהֹוָה יְהֹוָה is your shade on your right hand.
- 6 The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.
- 7 יְהֹוָה יְהֹוָה will guard you from all evil. He will guard your being.
- 8 יְהֹוָה יְהֹוָה will guard your going out and your coming in, from this time forward, and forever more.

122 A Song of Ascents. By David.

- 1 I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of יְהֹוָה!"
- 2 Our feet are standing within your gates, Yerushalayim.
- 3 Yerushalayim, that is built as a city that is compact together; 4 where the tribes go up, even the tribes of Yah, according to a witness for Yisra'el, to give thanks to the Name of יְהֹוָה.
- 5 For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of David's house.
- 6 Pray for the peace of Yerushalayim. Those who love you will prosper.
- 7 Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.
- 8 For my brothers' and companions' sakes, I will now say, "Peace be within you."

^a 176 Tehillim 119 is known as an acrostic psalm. That is, the first Hebrew letter of each sentence begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew Alef-Bet. For example, the first sentence begins with an Alef, while the second sentence begins with a Bet, and the third a Gimel, and so on.

9 For the sake of the house of יְהוָה our Elohim, I will seek your good.

123 A Song of Ascents.

1 To You I do lift up my eyes, You who sit in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes look to יְהוָה, our Elohim, until He is kind to us.

3 Be kind to us, יְהוָה, be kind to us, for we have endured much contempt.

4 Our being is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

124 A Song of Ascents. By David.

1 If it had not been יְהוָה who was on our side, let Yisra'el now say, 2 "If it had not been יְהוָה who was on our side, when men rose up against us; 3 then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us; 4 then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the wadi would have gone over our being; 5 then the proud waters would have gone over our being.

6 "Blessed be יְהוָה, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 "Our being has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare. The snare is broken, and we have escaped.

8 "Our help is in the Name of יְהוָה, who made heavens and earth."

125 A Song of Ascents.

1 Those who rely on יְהוָה are as Mount Tsion, which cannot be moved, but remains forever.

2 As the mountains surround Yerushalayim, so יְהוָה surrounds His people from this time forward and forever more.

3 For the scepter of wickedness will not remain over the allotment of the righteous; so that the righteous will not use their hands for unrighteousness.

4 Do good, יְהוָה, to those who are good, to those who are upright in their hearts.

5 But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, יְהוָה will lead them away with the workers of vain exertion. Peace be on Yisra'el.

126 A Song of Ascents.

1 When יְהוָה brought back those who returned to Tsion, we were like those who dream.

2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing. Then they said among the nations,

"יְהוָה has done great things for them."

3 יְהוָה has done great things for us, and we are glad.

4 Restore our fortunes again, יְהוָה, like the streams in the Negev.

5 Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.

6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will certainly come again with joy, carrying His sheaves.

127 A Song of Ascents. By Shalomoh.

1 Unless יְהוָה builds the house, they labor in vain who build it. Unless יְהוָה guards the city, the guard guards it in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to stay up late, eating the bread of toil; for He gives sleep to His loved ones.

3 Behold, children are a heritage of יְהוָה. The fruit of the womb is His reward.

4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of youth.

5 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them. They will not be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128 A Song of Ascents.

1 Blessed is everyone who fears יְהוָה, who walks in His ways.

2 For you will eat the labor of your hands. You will be happy, and it will be well with you.

3 Your wife will be as a fruitful vine, in the innermost parts of your house; your children like olive plants, around your table.

4 Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears יְהוָה.

5 May יְהוָה bless you out of Tsion, and may you see the good of Yerushalayim all the days of your life.

6 Yes, may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Yisra'el.

129 A Song of Ascents.

1 Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up. Let Yisra'el now say, 2 "Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up, yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 "The plowers plowed on my back. They made their furrows long.

4 "יְהוָה is righteous. He has cut apart the cords of the wicked."

5 Let them be disappointed and turned backward, all those who hate Tsion.

6 Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up; 7 with which the reaper does not fill his hand, nor he who binds sheaves, his bosom.

8 Neither do those who go by say, "The blessing of הָדָם be on you. We bless you in the Name of יְהוָה."

130 A Song of Ascents.

1 Out of the depths I have cried to You, יְהוָה.

2 יְהוָה, hear my voice. Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.

3 If You, Yah, guard iniquity, יְהוָה, who could stand?

4 But there is forgiveness with You, therefore You are feared.

5 I wait for הָדָם. My being waits. I hope in His word.

6 My being longs for יְהוָה more than watchmen long for the morning; more than watchmen for the morning.

7 Yisra'el, hope in יְהוָה, for with יְהוָה there is loving-kindness. With Him is abundant redemption.

8 He will redeem Yisra'el from all their sins.

131 A Song of Ascents. By David.

1 יְהוָה, my heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty; nor do I concern myself with great matters, or things too wonderful for me.

2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my being, like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my being within me.

3 Yisra'el, hope in הָדָם, from this time forward and forever more.

132 A Song of Ascents.

1 יְהוָה, remember David and all his affliction,

2 how he swore to הָדָם, and vowed to the Mighty One of Ya'aqov:

3 "Surely I will not come into the structure of my house, nor go up into my bed; 4 I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids; 5 until I find out a place for הָדָם, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Ya'aqov."

6 Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah. We found it in the field of Ya'ar:

7 "We will go into His dwelling place. We will bow down at His footstool. 8 Arise, הָדָם, into Your resting place; You, and the ark of Your strength. 9 Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness. Let Your set-apart ones shout for joy!"

10 For Your servant David's sake, do not turn away the face of Your anointed one^a.

11 הָדָם has sworn to David in truth. He will not turn from it: "I will set the fruit of your belly on your throne.

12 If your children will guard My covenant, My witness that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forever more."

13 For יְהוָה has chosen Tsion. He has desired it for His habitation.

14 "This is My resting place forever. Here I will live, for I have desired it. 15 I will abundantly bless her provision. I will satisfy her poor with bread. 16 Her priests I will also clothe with salvation. Her set-apart ones will shout aloud for joy. 17 There I will make the horn of David to bud. I have ordained a lamp for My anointed. 18 I will clothe His enemies with shame, but on Himself, His crown will be resplendent."

133 A Song of Ascents. By David.

1 See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity!

2 It is like the precious oil on the head, that ran down on the beard, even Aharon's beard; that came down on the edge of his robes; 3 like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills of Tsion: for there יְהוָה gives the blessing, even life forever more.

134 A Song of Ascents.

1 Look! Praise הָדָם, all you servants of הָדָם, who stand by night in the house of יְהוָה!

2 Lift up your hands in the set-apart place. Praise הָדָם!

3 May יְהוָה bless you from Tsion; even He who made heavens and earth.

135 Praise Yah! Praise the Name of הָדָם! Praise

Him, you servants of יְהוָה

2 you who stand in the house of יְהוָה, in the courts of the house of our Elohim.

3 Praise Yah, for הָדָם is good. Sing praises to His Name, for that is pleasant.

4 For Yah has chosen Ya'aqov for Himself; Yisra'el for His own possession.

5 For I know that יְהוָה is great, that Adonai is above all elohim.

6 Whatever יְהוָה pleased, that He has done, in heavens and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps; 7 who causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth; who makes lightnings with the rain; who brings the wind out of His treasuries.

8 Who struck the firstborn of Mitsrayim, both of man and animal.

9 Who sent signs and wonders into the middle of you, Mitsrayim, on Pharaoh, and on all His servants;

10 who struck many nations, and killed mighty kings, 11 Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Kena'an, 12 and gave their land for a heritage, a heritage to Yisra'el, His people.

13 Your Name, יְהוָה, endures forever; Your renown, יְהוָה, throughout all generations.

14 For יְהוָה will judge His people, and have compassion on His servants.

15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, but they cannot speak. They have eyes, but they cannot see.

17 They have ears, but they cannot hear; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 Those who make them will be like them; yes, everyone who relies on them.

19 House of Yisra'el, praise יְהוָה! House of Aharon, praise יְהוָה!

20 House of Levi, praise יְהוָה! You who fear יְהוָה, praise יְהוָה!

21 Blessed be יְהוָה from Tsion, who dwells at Yerushalayim. Praise Yah!

136 Give thanks to יְהוָה, for He is good; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

2 Give thanks to the Elohim of elohim; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

3 Give thanks to the Master of masters; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

4 To Him who alone does great wonders; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

5 To Him who by understanding made the heavens; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

6 To Him who spread out the earth above the waters; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

7 To Him who made the great lights; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

8 The sun to rule by day; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

9 The moon and stars to rule by night; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

10 To Him who struck down the Mitsrayimian firstborn; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

11 And brought out Yisra'el from among them; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

12 With a strong hand, and with an outstretched Arm; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

13 To Him who divided the Sea of Reeds apart; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

14 And made Yisra'el to pass through the middle of it; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

15 But overthrew Pharaoh and His army in the Sea of Reeds; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

16 To Him who led His people through the wilderness; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

17 To Him who struck great kings; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

18 And killed mighty kings; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

19 Sihon king of the Amorites; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

20 Og king of Bashan; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

21 And gave their land as an inheritance; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

22 Even a heritage to Yisra'el His servant; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

23 Who remembered us in our low estate; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

24 And has delivered us from our adversaries; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

25 Who gives food to every creature; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

26 Oh give thanks to the El of the heavens; for His loving-kindness endures forever.

137 By the rivers of Bavel, there we sat down. Yes, we wept, when we remembered Tsion.

2 On the willows in that land, we hung up our harps.

3 For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs. Those who tormented us demanded songs of joy: "Sing us one of the songs of Tsion!"

4 How can we sing the song of יְהוָה in a foreign land?

5 If I forget you, Yerushalayim, let my right hand forget its skill.

6 Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you; if I do not prefer Yerushalayim above my chief joy.

7 Remember, תִּנְאַגֵּת, against the children of Edom, the day of Yerushalayim; who said, "Raze it! Raze it even to its foundation!"

8 Daughter of Bavel, doomed to destruction, he will be happy who rewards you, as you have served us.

9 Happy shall he be, who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

138 By David.

1 I will give You thanks with my whole heart. Before the elohim, I will sing praises to You.^a

2 I will bow down toward Your set-apart Temple, and give thanks to Your Name for Your loving-kindness and for Your truth; for You have exalted Your Name and Your speeches above all.

^a 1 DSS reads, "I will give thanks to יְהוָה with my whole heart. I will sing praises to יְהוָה Elohim." here.

3 In the day that I called, You answered me. You assured me with strength in my being.
4 All the kings of the earth will give You thanks, יְהוָה, for they have heard the speeches of Your mouth.
5 Yes, they will sing of the ways of יְהוָה; for great is the glory of יְהוָה.
6 For though יְהוָה is high, yet He looks after the lowly; but the proud, He knows from afar.
7 Though I walk in the middle of trouble, You will revive me. You will stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies. Your right hand will save me.
8 יְהוָה will fulfill that which concerns me; Your loving-kindness, יְהוָה, endures forever. Do not forsake the works of Your own hands.

139 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.
1 יְהוָה, You have searched me, and You know me.
2 You know my sitting down and my rising up. You perceive my thoughts from afar.
3 You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.
4 For there is not a saying on my tongue, but, behold, יְהוָה, You know it altogether.
5 You hem me in behind and before. You laid Your hand on me.
6 This knowledge is beyond me. It is lofty. I cannot attain it.
7 Where could I go from Your Ruah? Or where could I flee from Your presence?
8 If I ascend up into the heavens, You are there. If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there!
9 If I take the wings of the dawn, and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea;
10 Even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will hold me.
11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me; the light around me will be night;" 12 even the darkness does not hide from You, but the night shines as the day. The darkness is like light to You.
13 For You formed my kidneys. You knit me together in my mother's womb.
14 I will give thanks to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful. My being knows that very well.
15 My frame was not hidden from You, when I was made in secret, woven together in the depths of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw my body. In Your book they were all written, the days that were ordained for me, when as yet there were none of them.
17 How precious to me are Your thoughts, El! How vast is their sum!

18 If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand. When I wake up, I am still with You.
19 If only You, Eloah, would kill the wicked. Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men!
20 For they speak against You wickedly. Bring Your enemies to naught!
21 יְהוָה, do I not hate those who hate You? Am I not grieved with those who rise up against You?
22 I hate them with perfect hatred. They have become my enemies.
23 Search me, El, and know my heart. Try me, and know my thoughts.
24 See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

140 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 Deliver me, יְהוָה, from the evil man. Preserve me from the violent man;
2 those who devise mischief in their hearts. They continually gather themselves together for war.
3 They have sharpened their tongues like a nahash. Viper's poison is under their lips.
Selah.
4 יְהוָה, guard me from the hands of the wicked. Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet.
5 The proud have hidden a snare for me, they have spread the cords of a net by the path. They have set traps for me.
Selah.
6 I said to יְהוָה, "You are my El." Listen to the cry of my petitions, יְהוָה.
7 Adonai יְהוָה, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head in the day of battle.
8 יְהוָה, do not grant the desires of the wicked. Do not let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud.
Selah.
9 As for the head of those who surround me, let the toil of their own lips cover them.
10 Let burning coals fall on them. Let them be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, from where they never rise.
11 An evil speaker will not be established in the earth. Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him.
12 I know that יְהוָה will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and judgment for the needy.
13 Surely the righteous will give thanks to Your Name. The upright will dwell in Your presence.

141 A Psalm by David.

1 הַזְעִיר, I have called on You. Come to me quickly!
 Listen to my voice when I call to You.
 2 Let my prayer be set before You like incense; the lifting up of my hands like the evening offering.
 3 Set a watch, הַזְעִיר, before my mouth. Preserve the door of my lips.
 4 Do not incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with men who work vain exertion. Do not let me eat of their delicacies.
 5 Let the righteous strike me, it is loving-kindness; let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head; do not let my head refuse it; Yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.
 6 Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock. They will hear my speeches, for they are well spoken.
 7 "As when one plows and breaks up the earth, our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol."
 8 For my eyes are on You, Adonai הָרָא. In You, I take refuge. Do not leave my being destitute.
 9 Guard me from the snare which they have laid for me, from the traps of the workers of vain exertion.
 10 Let the wicked fall together into their own nets, while I pass by.

142 A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

1 I cry with my voice to הָרָא. With my voice, I petition הָרָא.
 2 I pour out my complaint before Him. I tell Him my troubles.
 3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, You knew my route. On the path in which I walk, they have hidden a snare for me.
 4 Look on my right, and see; for there is no one who is concerned for me. Refuge has fled from me. No one cares for my being.
 5 I cried to You, הָרָא. I said, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."
 6 Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need. deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than me.
 7 Bring my being out of prison, that I may give thanks to Your Name. The righteous will surround me, for You will be good to me.

143 A Psalm by David.

1 Hear my prayer, הָרָא. Listen to my petitions. In Your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me.
 2 Do not enter into judgment with Your servant, for in Your eyes no man living is righteous.
 3 For the enemy pursues my being. He has struck my life down to the ground. He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me. My heart within me is desolate.
 5 I remember the days of old. I meditate on all Your doings. I contemplate the work of Your hands.
 6 I spread out my hands to You. My being thirsts for You, like a parched land.

Selah.

7 Hurry to answer me, הָרָא. My spirit fails. Do not hide Your face from me, so that I do not become like those who go down into the pit.
 8 Cause me to hear Your loving-kindness in the morning, for I rely on You. Cause me to know the way in which I should walk, for I lift up my being to You.
 9 Deliver me, הָרָא, from my enemies. I flee to You to hide me.
 10 Teach me to do Your will, for You are my Eloah. Your Ruah is good. Lead me in the land of uprightness.
 11 Revive me, הָרָא, for Your Name's sake. In Your righteousness, bring my being out of trouble.
 12 In Your loving-kindness, cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my being, for I am Your servant.

144 By David.

1 Blessed be הָרָא, my Rock, who teaches my hands to war, and my fingers to battle: 2 my loving-kindness, my fortress, my high tower, my deliverer, my shield, and He in whom I take refuge; who subdues my people under me.
 3 מָן הָרָא, what is man, that You care for him? Or the son of man, that You think of him?
 4 Man is like a breath. His days are like a shadow that passes away.
 5 Part Your heavens, הָרָא, and come down. Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
 6 Throw out lightning, and scatter them. Send out Your arrows, and rout them.
 7 Stretch out Your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, out of the hands of foreigners; 8 whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
 9 I will sing a new song to You, Elohim. On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to You.
 10 You are He who gives salvation to kings, who rescues David, His servant, from the deadly sword.
 11 Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners, whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
 12 Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants, our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.
 13 Our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision.

Our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.

14 Our oxen will pull heavy loads. There is no breaking in, and no going away, and no outcry in our streets.

15 Happy are the people who are in such a situation.

Happy are the people whose Elohim is יְהוָה.

145 A praise psalm by David.

א (Alef)

1 I will exalt You, my Eloah, the King. I will praise Your Name forever and ever.

ב (Bet)

2 Every day I will praise You. I will extol Your Name forever and ever.

ג (Gimel)

3 Great is יְהוָה, and greatly to be praised! His greatness is unsearchable.

ד (Daleth)

4 One generation will commend Your works to another, and will declare Your mighty acts.

ה (Hey)

5 Of the glorious majesty of Your honor, of Your wondrous works, I will meditate.

ו (Vav)

6 Men will speak of the might of Your awesome acts. I will declare Your greatness.

ז (Zayin)

7 They will utter the memory of Your great goodness, and will sing of Your righteousness.

ח (Het)

8 יְהוָה is kind, compassionate, slow to anger, and of great loving-kindness.

ט (Tet)

9 יְהוָה is good to all. His compassion is over all His works.

י (Yod)

10 All Your works will give thanks to You, יְהוָה. Your set-apart ones will extol You.

כ (Kaf)

11 They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom, and talk about Your power;

ל (Lamed)

12 to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, the glory of the majesty of His kingdom.

מ (Mem)

13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. Your dominion endures throughout all generations. [נ (Nun) יְהוָה is faithful in all His words, and loving in all His deeds.]

ס (Samekh)

14 יְהוָה supports all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down.

ע (Ayin)

15 The eyes of all wait for You. You give them their food in due season.

פ (Pe)

16 You open Your hand, and satisfy the will of every living thing.

צ (Tsade)

17 יְהוָה is righteous in all His ways, and favorable in all His works.

ק (Qof)

18 יְהוָה is near to all those who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth.

10 יהוה will reign forever; your Elohim, O Tsion, to all generations. Praise Yah!

147 Praise Yah, for it is good to sing praises to our Elohim; for it is pleasant and fitting to praise Him.

2 יהוה builds up Yerushalayim. He gathers together the outcasts of Yisra'el.

3 He heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds.

4 He counts the number of the stars. He calls them all by their names.

5 Great is our Master, and mighty in power. His understanding is infinite.

6 יהוה upholds the humble. He brings the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing to יהוה with thanksgiving. Sing praises on the harp to our Elohim, 8 who covers the heavens with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth, who makes grass grow on the mountains.

9 He provides food for the livestock, and for the young ravens when they call.

10 He does not delight in the strength of the horse. He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 יהוה takes pleasure in those who fear Him, in those who hope in His loving-kindness.

12 Praise יהוה, Yerushalayim! Praise your Elohim, Tsion!

13 For He has strengthened the bars of your gates. He has blessed your children within you.

14 He makes peace in your borders. He fills you with the finest of the wheat.

15 He sends out His command to the earth. His speeches run very swiftly.

16 He gives snow like wool, and scatters frost like ashes.

17 He hurls down his hail like pebbles. Who can stand before His cold?

18 He sends out His word, and melts them. He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 He shows His word to Ya'aqov; His statutes and His judgments to Yisra'el.

20 He has not done this for just any nation. They do not know His judgment. Praise Yah!

148 Praise Yah! Praise יהוה from the heavens! Praise Him in the heights!

2 Praise Him, all His messengers! Praise Him, all His army!

3 Praise Him, sun and moon! Praise Him, all you shining stars!

4 Praise Him, you heavens of heavens, You waters that are above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the Name of יהוה, for He commanded, and they were created.

6 He has also established them forever and ever. He has made a decree which will not pass away.

7 Praise יהוה from the earth, you great sea monsters, and all depths; 8 lightning and hail, snow and clouds; stormy wind, fulfilling His word; 9 mountains and all hills; fruit trees and all cedars; 10 wild animals and all livestock; small creatures and flying birds; 11 kings of the earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of the earth; 12 both young men and maidens; old men and children: 13 let them praise the Name of יהוה, for His Name alone is exalted. His glory is above the earth and the heavens.

14 He has lifted up the horn of His people, the praise of all His set-apart ones; even of the children of Yisra'el, a people near to Him. Praise Yah!

149 Praise יהוה! Sing to יהוה a new song, His praise in the assembly of the set-apart ones.

2 Let Yisra'el rejoice in Him who made them. Let the children of Tsion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise His Name with dance! Let them sing praises to Him with tambourine and harp!

4 For יהוה takes pleasure in His people. He crowns the humble with salvation.

5 Let the set-apart ones rejoice in honor. Let them sing for joy on their beds.

6 May the high praises of El be in their mouths, and a two-edged sword in their hand;

7 To execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 to execute on them the written judgment. All His set-apart ones have this honor. Praise Yah!

- 150 Praise Yah! Praise El in His set-apart place!
Praise Him in in His expanse of power!
2 Praise Him for His mighty acts! Praise Him according to His excellent greatness!
3 Praise Him with the sounding of the shofar! Praise
Him with harp and lyre!
4 Praise Him with tambourine and dancing! Praise Him with stringed instruments and flute!
5 Praise Him with loud cymbals! Praise Him with resounding cymbals!
6 Let everything that has breath praise Yah! Praise Yah!

Mishlei (Proverbs)

- 1 The proverbs of Shelomoh, the son of David, king of Yisra'el:
- 2 to know wisdom and correction; to discern the speeches of understanding;
 - 3 to receive correction in wise dealing, in righteousness, judgment, and uprightness;
 - 4 to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young man;
 - 5 that the wise man may hear, and increase in learning; that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsel;
 - 6 to understand a proverb, and parables, the words and riddles of the wise.
 - 7 The fear of הָנֹתֶר is the beginning of knowledge; but the foolish despise wisdom and correction.
 - 8 My son, listen to your father's correction, and do not forsake your mother's Torah:
 - 9 for they will be an ornament of favor to your head, and chains around your neck.
 - 10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
 - 11 If they say, "Come with us. Let us lay in wait for blood. Let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause. 12 Let us swallow them up alive like Sheol, and whole, like those who go down into the pit. 13 We will find all valuable wealth. We will fill our houses with plunder. 14 You shall cast your lot among us. We all have one purse."
 - 15 My son, do not walk on the path with them. Keep your foot from their path,
 - 16 for their feet run to evil. They hurry to shed blood.
 - 17 For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird:
 - 18 but these lay wait for their own blood. They lurk secretly for their own beings.
 - 19 So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain. It takes away the being of its owners.
 - 20 Wisdom calls aloud in the street. She utters her voice in the public squares.
 - 21 She calls at the head of noisy places. At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her speeches:
 - 22 "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery, and fools hate knowledge? 23 Turn at my reproof. Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you. I will make known my words to you. 24 Because I have called, and you have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention; 25 but you have ignored all my counsel, and wanted none of my reproof;
 - 26 I also will laugh at your disaster. I will mock when calamity overtakes you; 27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind; when distress and anguish come on you.

28 Then will they call on me, but I will not answer. They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me; 29 because they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of הָנֹתֶר. 30 They wanted none of my counsel. They despised all my reproof. 31 Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes. 32 For the backsliding of the simple will kill them. The careless ease of fools will destroy them. 33 But whoever listens to me will dwell securely, and will be at ease, without fear of harm."

- 2 My son, if you will receive my speeches, and store up my commands within you;
- 2 So as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding;
 - 3 Yes, if you call out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding;
 - 4 If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures:
 - 5 then you will understand the fear of הָנֹתֶר, and find the knowledge of Elohim.
 - 6 For הָנֹתֶר gives wisdom. Out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
 - 7 He lays up sound wisdom for the upright. He is a shield to those who walk in integrity, 8 that He may preserve the paths of judgment, and guard the way of His set-apart ones.
 - 9 Then you will understand righteousness and judgment, uprightness and every good path.
 - 10 For wisdom will enter into your heart. Knowledge will be pleasant to your being.
 - 11 Discretion will watch over you. Understanding will guard you, 12 to deliver you from the way of evil, from the men who speak perverse things; 13 who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; 14 who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of evil; 15 who are crooked in their ways, and wayward in their paths; 16 to deliver you from the strange woman, even from the foreigner who flatters with her speeches; 17 who forsakes the friend of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her Elohim; 18 for her house leads down to death, and her paths to the Rephaim.
 - 19 None who go to her return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life.
 - 20 So you will walk in the way of good men, and guard the paths of the righteous.
 - 21 For the upright will dwell in the land. The perfect will remain in it.
 - 22 But the wicked will be cut off from the land. The deceitful will be rooted out of it.

- 3 My son, do not forget my Torah; but let your heart preserve my commands.
- 2 For they will add length of days, and years of life, and peace to you.
- 3 Do not let loving-kindness and truth forsake you. Bind them around your neck. Write them on the tablet of your heart.
- 4 So you will find favor, and good understanding in the sight of Elohim and man.
- 5 Trust in יהוה with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.
- 6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.
- 7 Do not be wise in your own eyes. Fear יהוה, and depart from evil.
- 8 It will be health to your body, and nourishment to your bones.
- 9 Honor יהוה with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase, 10 so that your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will overflow with new wine.
- 11 My son, do not despise the correction of יהוה, nor be weary of His reproof: 12 for whom יהוה loves, He reproves; even as a father reproves the son in whom he delights.
- 13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gets understanding.
- 14 For her good profit is better than getting silver, and her return is better than fine gold.
- 15 She is more precious than rubies. None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
- 16 Length of days is in her right hand. In her left hand are riches and honor.
- 17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness. All her paths are peace.
- 18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her. Happy is everyone who retains her.
- 19 By wisdom יהוה founded the earth. By understanding, He established the heavens.
- 20 By His knowledge, the depths were broken up, and the skies drop down the dew.
- 21 My son, do not let them depart from your eyes. Preserve sound wisdom and discretion, 22 so they will be life to your being, and favor to your neck.
- 23 Then you shall walk in your way securely. Your foot will not stumble.
- 24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid. Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
- 25 Do not be afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes; 26 for יהוה will be your confidence, and will guard your foot from being taken.
- 27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it.
- 28 Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again; tomorrow I will give it to you," when you have it by you.^a
- 29 Do not devise evil against your neighbor, since he dwells securely by you.
- 30 Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm.
- 31 Do not envy the man of violence. Choose none of his ways.
- 32 For the perverse is an abomination to יהוה, but His friendship is with the upright.
- 33 The curse of יהוה is in the house of the wicked, but He blesses the habitation of the righteous.
- 34 Surely He mocks the mockers, but He gives favor to the humble.
- 35 The wise will inherit glory, but shame will be the promotion of fools.
- 4 Listen, sons, to a father's correction. Pay attention and know understanding; 2 for I give you good teaching. Do not forsake my Torah.
- 3 For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.
- 4 He taught me, and said to me: "Let your heart retain my words. Guard my commands, and live. 5 Get wisdom. Get understanding. Do not forget, neither swerve from the speeches of my mouth. 6 Do not forsake her, and she will guard you. Love her, and she will keep you. 7 Wisdom is supreme. Get wisdom. Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get understanding. 8 Esteem her, and she will exalt you. She will bring you to honor, when you embrace her. 9 She will give an ornament of favor to your head. She will deliver a crown of splendor to you."
- 10 Listen, my son, and receive my speeches. The years of your life will be many.
- 11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom. I have led you in straight paths.
- 12 When you go, your steps will not be hampered. When you run, you will not stumble.
- 13 Take a firm hold of correction. Do not let go. Preserve her, for she is your life.
- 14 Do not enter into the path of the wicked. Do not walk in the way of evil men.
- 15 Avoid it, and do not pass by it. Turn from it, and pass on.
- 16 For they do not sleep, unless they do evil. Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.
- 17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

^a 28 See Devarim 24:10-15.

18 But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light, that shines more and more until the perfect day.
 19 The way of the wicked is like darkness. They do not know what they stumble over.
 20 My son, attend to my speeches. Turn your ear to my sayings.
 21 Let them not depart from your eyes. Guard them in the midst of your heart.
 22 For they are life to those who find them, and health to their whole body.
 23 Preserve your heart with all diligence, for out of it is the wellspring of life.
 24 Put away from yourself a perverse mouth. Put corrupt lips far from you.
 25 Let your eyes look straight ahead. Fix your gaze directly before you.
 26 Make the path of your feet level. Let all of your ways be established.
 27 Do not turn to the right hand nor to the left. Remove your foot from evil.

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom. Turn your ear to my understanding, 2 so that you may guard discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge.
 3 For the lips of a strange woman drip honey. Her mouth is smoother than oil, 4 but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword.
 5 Her feet go down to death. Her steps lead straight to Sheol.
 6 She gives no thought to the way of life. Her ways are crooked, and she does not know it.
 7 Now therefore, my sons, listen to me. Do not depart from the speeches of my mouth.
 8 Remove your way far from her. Do not come near the door of her house, 9 lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel one; 10 lest strangers feast on your wealth, and your labors enrich the house of a foreigner.
 11 You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed, 12 and say, "How I have hated correction, and my heart despised reproof; 13 neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor turned my ear to those who instructed me! 14 I have come to the brink of utter ruin, among the gathered assembly."
 15 Drink water out of your own cistern, running water out of your own well.
 16 Should your springs overflow in the streets, streams of water in the public squares?
 17 Let them be for yourself alone, not for strangers with you.
 18 Let your spring be blessed. Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
 19 A loving doe and a favored deer— let her breasts satisfy you at all times. Be ravished always with her love.

 20 For why should you, my son, be captivated with a strange woman? Why embrace the bosom of a foreigner?
 21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of הָנֶגֶד. He examines all his paths.
 22 The iniquity of the wicked ensnare him. The cords of his sin hold him firmly.
 23 He will die for lack of correction. In the greatness of his foolishness, he will go astray.

6 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor, if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger, 2 you are trapped by the speeches of your mouth. You are ensnared with the speeches of your mouth.
 3 Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, since you have come into the hand of your neighbor. Go, humble yourself. Assure your neighbor.
 4 Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.
 5 Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.
 6 Go to the ant, you sluggard. Consider her ways, and be wise; 7 which – having no chief, overseer, or ruler – 8 provides her bread in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest.
 9 How long will you sleep, sluggard? When will you arise out of your sleep?
 10 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep; 11 so your poverty will come as a robber, and your scarcity as an armed man.
 12 A worthless one, a man of vain exertion, is he who walks with a perverse mouth, 13 who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet, who motions with his fingers; 14 in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually, who always sows discord.
 15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly. He will be broken suddenly, and without repair.
 16 There are six things which הָנֶגֶד hates; yes, seven which are an abomination to Him: 17 haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood; 18 a heart that devises plans of vain exertion, feet that are swift in running to evil, 19 a false witness who utters lies, and he who sends discord among brothers.
 20 My son, preserve your father's command, and do not forsake your mother's Torah.
 21 Bind them continually on your heart. Tie them around your neck.
 22 When you walk, it will lead you. When you sleep, it will guard you. When you awake, it will talk with you.
 23 For the command is a lamp, and the Torah is a light. Reproofs of correction are the way of life, 24 to guard you from the evil woman, and from the flattery of the foreign woman's tongue.

25 Do not lust after her beauty in your heart, neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.

26 For a whore reduces you to a piece of bread. The adulteress hunts for your precious being.

27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap, and his clothes not be burned?

28 Or can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be scorched?

29 So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife. Whoever touches her will not be unpunished.

30 Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry: 31 but if he is found, he shall restore seven times. He shall give all the wealth of his house.

32 He who commits adultery with a woman is void of heart. He who does it destroys his own being.

33 He will get wounds and dishonor. His reproach will not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband. He will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

7 My son, guard my speeches. Lay up my commands within you.

2 Guard my commands and live! Guard my Torah as the little man^a of your eye.

3 Bind them on your fingers. Write them on the tablet of your heart.

4 Tell wisdom, "You are my sister." Call understanding your relative,

5 that they may guard you from the strange woman, from the foreigner who flatters with her speeches.

6 For at the window of my house, I looked out through my lattice.

7 I saw among the simple ones. I discerned among the youths a young man lacking heart, 8 passing through the street near her corner, he went the way to her house, 9 in the breeze, in the evening of the day, in the middle of the night and in the darkness.

10 Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a whore, and secret of heart.

11 She is loud and defiant. Her feet do not stay in her house.

12 Now she is in the streets, now in the squares, and lurking at every corner.

13 So she caught him, and kissed him. With an impudent face she said to him: 14 "Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me. Today I have paid my vows.

15 Therefore I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face, and I have found you. 16 I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, with striped cloths of the yarn of Mitsrayim. 17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. 18 Come, let us take our fill of loving until the morning. Let us solace ourselves with loving. 19 For my husband is not at home. He has gone on a long journey. 20 He has taken a bag of money with him. He will come home at the covered moon^b.

21 With persuasive words, she led him astray. With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him.

22 He followed her immediately, as an ox goes to the slaying, as one in fetters to the correction of a fool.^c

23 Until an arrow strikes through his liver, as a bird hurries to the snare, and does not know that it will cost his being.

24 Now therefore, sons, listen to me. Pay attention to the speeches of my mouth.

25 Do not let your heart turn to her ways. Do not go astray in her paths, 26 for she has thrown down many wounded. Yes, all her slain are a mighty army.

27 Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the rooms of death.

8 Does not wisdom cry out? Does not understanding raise her voice?

2 On the top of high places by the way, where the paths meet, she stands.

3 Beside the gates, at the entry of the city, at the entry doors, she cries aloud:

4 "To you men, I call! I send my voice to the sons of mankind. 5 You simple, understand prudence. You fools, be of an understanding heart. 6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things. The opening of my lips is for uprightness. 7 For my mouth speaks truth. Wickedness is an abomination to my lips. 8 All the speeches of my mouth are in righteousness. There is nothing crooked or perverse in them. 9 They are all plain to him who understands, right to those who find knowledge.

10 Receive my correction rather than silver; knowledge rather than choice gold. 11 For wisdom is better than rubies. All the things that may be desired cannot be compared to it.

^a See footnote at Tehillim 17:8. Also in verse 9 translated as "middle."

^b See footnote at Tehillim 81:3. LXX and Syr. read, "...he will return after many days." Lat. reads, "...he will return at the full moon."

^c Syr. reads, "And he went after her like a child, and like a bull that goes with a butcher, and like a dog to captivity."

LXX reads, "And he followed her, being gently led on, and that as an ox is led to the slaughter, and as a dog to bonds, or as a deer shot in the liver with an arrow."

12 "I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling. Find out knowledge and discretion. 13 The fear of הָנֹתֶרֶת is to hate evil. I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth. 14 Counsel and sound knowledge are mine. I have understanding and power. 15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. 16 By me princes rule; nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth. 17 I love those who love me. Those who seek me diligently will find me. 18 With me are riches, honor, enduring wealth, and prosperity. 19 My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold; my yield than choice silver. 20 I walk in the way of righteousness, in the middle of the paths of judgment; 21 That I may give wealth to those who love me. I fill their treasuries.

22 "הָנֹתֶרֶת possessed me in the beginning of His work, before His deeds of old. 23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, before the earth existed. 24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. 25 Before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was brought forth; 26 while as yet He had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the beginning of the dust of the world. 27 When He established the heavens, I was there; when He set a circuit on the surface of the deep, 28 when He established the skies above, when the springs of the deep became strong, 29 when He gave to the sea its boundary, that the waters should not violate His command, when He marked out the foundations of the earth; 30 then I was the craftsman by His side. I was a delight day by day, always rejoicing before Him, 31 Rejoicing in His whole world. My delight was with the sons of men.

32 "Now therefore, my sons, listen to me, for blessed are those who guard my ways. 33 Hear correction, and be wise. Do not refuse it. 34 Blessed is the man who hears me, guarding daily at my gates, waiting at my door posts. 35 For whoever finds me, finds life, and will obtain acceptance from הָנֹתֶרֶת. 36 But he who sins against me wrongs his own being. All those who hate me, love death."

9 Wisdom has built her house. She has carved out her seven pillars.

2 She has prepared her meat. She has mixed her wine. She has also set her table.

3 She has sent out her maidens. She cries from the highest places of the city:

4 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!" As for him who lacks heart, she says to him, 5 "Come, eat some of my bread, drink some of the wine which I have mixed!

6 Leave your simple ways, and live. Walk in the way of understanding."

7 He who disciplines a mocker invites insult. He who reproves a wicked man invites abuse.

8 Do not reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you. Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.

9 Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser. Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.

10 The fear of הָנֹתֶרֶת is the beginning of wisdom. The knowledge of the Set-apart One is understanding.

11 For by me your days will be multiplied. The years of your life will be increased.

12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself. If you mock, you alone will bear it.

13 The foolish woman is loud, undisciplined, and knows nothing.

14 She sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city, 15 to call to those who pass by, who go straight on their ways, 16 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here." As for him who lacks heart, she says to him, 17 "Stolen water is sweet. Food eaten in secret is pleasant."

18 But he does not know that the Rephaim are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

10 The proverbs of Shalomoh. A wise son makes a glad father; but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, but righteousness delivers from death.

3 הָנֹתֶרֶת will not allow the being of the righteous to go hungry, but He thrusts away the desire of the wicked.

4 He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand, but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.

5 He who gathers in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.

6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the righteous is blessed, but the name of the wicked will rot.

8 The wise in heart accept commands, but a chattering fool will fall.

9 He who walks blamelessly walks securely, but he who perverts his ways will be found out.

10 One winking with the eye causes wounds, but a chattering fool will fall.

11 The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all wrongs.

13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has discernment, but a rod is for the back of him who lacks heart.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.

15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city. The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labor of the righteous leads to life. The increase of the wicked leads to sin.

17 He is in the way of life who guards correction, but he who forsakes reproof leads others astray.

18 He who hides hatred has lying lips. He who utters a slander is a fool.

19 In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience, but he who restrains his lips does wisely.

20 The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver. The heart of the wicked is of little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many, but the foolish die for lack of heart.

22 The blessing of יְהוָה brings wealth, and He adds no trouble to it.

23 It is a fool's pleasure to do lewdness, but wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure.

24 What the wicked fear, will overtake them, but the desire of the righteous will be granted.

25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more; but the righteous stand firm forever.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him.

27 The fear of יְהוָה prolongs days, but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The prospect of the righteous is joy, but the hope of the wicked will perish.

29 The way of נִזְנִית is a stronghold to the upright, but it is a destruction to the workers of vain exertion.

30 The righteous will never be removed, but the wicked will not dwell in the land.

31 The mouth of the righteous produces wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut off.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

11 A false balance is an abomination to יְהוָה, but accurate weights are His good will.

2 When pride comes, then comes shame, but with humility comes wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them, but the perverseness of the deceitful shall destroy them.

4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.

5 The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way, but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, but the deceitful will be trapped by evil desires.

7 When a wicked man dies, hope perishes, and expectation of power comes to nothing.

8 A righteous person is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked takes his place.

9 With his mouth the profane man destroys his neighbor, but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.

10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices. When the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted, but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 One who despises his neighbor lacks heart, but a man of understanding holds his peace.

13 One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, but one who is trustworthy of spirit is one who keeps a secret.

14 Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls, but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.

15 He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it, but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.

16 A favorable woman obtains honor, but tyrants obtain riches.

17 The kind man does good to his own being, but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.

18 Wicked people earn deceitful wages, but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.

19 He who is truly righteous gets life. He who pursues evil gets death.

20 Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to נִזְנִית, but those whose ways are blameless are His good will.

21 Most certainly, the evil man will not be unpunished, but the seed of the righteous will be delivered.

22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good. The expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is one who scatters, and increases yet more. There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty.

25 The generous being shall be made fat. He who waters shall be watered also himself.

26 People curse someone who withholds grain, but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

27 He who diligently seeks good seeks acceptance, but he who searches after evil, it shall come to him.

28 He who relies on his riches will fall, but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.

29 He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind. The foolish shall be servant to the wise-hearted.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life. He who is wise wins beings.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth; how much more the wicked and the sinner!

12 Whoever loves correction loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid.

2 A good man shall obtain acceptance from נִזְנִית, but He will condemn a man of wicked devices.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 A woman of valor is the crown of her husband, but a disgraceful wife is as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are judgment, but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.

6 The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood, but the speech of the upright rescues them.

7 The wicked are overthrown, and are no more, but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom, but he who has a perverse heart shall be despised.

9 Better is he who is lightly esteemed, and has a servant, than he who honors himself, and lacks bread.

10 A righteous man respects the being of his animal, but the compassion of the wicked is cruel.

11 He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread, but he who chases fantasies lacks heart.

12 The wicked desires the plunder of evil men, but the root of the righteous flourishes.

13 An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips, but the righteous shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth. The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he who is wise listens to counsel.

16 A fool shows his annoyance the same day, but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.

17 He who is trustworthy testifies honestly, but a false witness lies.

18 There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword, but the tongue of the wise heals.

19 Truth's lips will be established forever, but a lying tongue is only momentary.

20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil, but joy comes to the promoters of peace.

21 No vain exertion shall occur to the righteous, but the wicked shall be filled with evil.

22 Lying lips are an abomination to הָנִינָה, but those who are faithful are His good will.

23 A prudent man keeps his knowledge, but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.

24 The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.

25 Anxiety in a man's heart makes it bow, but a kind word makes it glad.

26 A righteous person is cautious in friendship, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.

27 The slothful man does not roast his game, but the possessions of diligent men are prized.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; in its path there is no death.

13 A wise son listens to his father's correction, but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

2 By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good; but the being of the deceitful desires violence.

3 He who guards his mouth guards his being. One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.

4 The being of the sluggard desires, and has nothing, but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.

5 A righteous man hates lies, but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.

6 Righteousness preserves the way of integrity, but sin overthrows the wicked.

7 There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing. There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.

8 The ransom of a man's being is his riches, but the poor hears no rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.

10 Pride only breeds quarrels, but with ones who take advice is wisdom.

11 Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away, but he who gathers by hand makes it grow.

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoever despises the word will pay for it, but he who respects a command will be rewarded.

14 The Torah of the wise is a spring of life, to turn from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding wins favor; but the way of the deceitful is hard.

16 Every prudent man acts from knowledge, but a fool exposes foolishness.

17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a faithful envoy gains healing.

18 Poverty and shame come to him who refuses correction, but he who guards reproof shall be honored.

19 Longing fulfilled is sweet to the being, but fools detest turning from evil.

20 One who walks with wise men grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.

21 Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the righteous.

22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous.

23 An abundance of food is in poor people's fields, but without judgment it is destroyed.

24 One who spares the rod hates his son, but one who loves him corrects him diligently.

25 The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his being, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

14 Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.

2 He who walks in his uprightness fears הָנִינָה, but he who is perverse in his ways despises Him.

3 The fool's talk brings a rod to his back, but the lips of the wise guard them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean, but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie, but a false witness pours out lies.

- 6 A scoffer seeks wisdom, and does not find it, but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.
- 7 Stay away from a foolish man, for you will not find knowledge on his lips.
- 8 The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way, but the folly of fools is deceit.
- 9 Fools mock at making atonement for sins, but among the upright there is good will.
- 10 The heart knows its own bitterness and joy; he will not share these with a stranger.
- 11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown, but the tent of the upright will flourish.
- 12 There is a way which seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death.
- 13 Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful, and mirth may end in heaviness.
- 14 The one who turns away will be repaid for his own ways; likewise a good man will be rewarded for his heart.
- 15 A simple man believes everything, but the prudent man carefully considers his ways.
- 16 A wise man fears and shuns evil, but the fool is arrogant and secure.
- 17 He who is quick to become angry will commit folly, and a crafty man is hated.
- 18 The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
- 19 The evil bow down before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
- 20 The poor person is shunned even by his own neighbor, but the rich person has many friends.
- 21 He who despises his neighbor sins, but blessed is he who has pity on the poor.
- 22 Do not they go astray who plot evil? But favor and truth belong to those who plan good.
- 23 In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.
- 24 The crown of the wise is their riches, but the folly of fools crowns them with folly.
- 25 A truthful witness saves beings, but a false witness is deceitful.
- 26 In the fear of תִּתְהַלֵּךְ is a secure fortress, and He will be a refuge for His children.
- 27 The fear of תִּתְהַלֵּךְ is a fountain of life, turning people from the snares of death.
- 28 In the multitude of people is the king's glory, but in the lack of people is the destruction of the prince.
- 29 He who is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a quick temper displays folly.
- 30 The life of the body is a heart at peace, but envy rots the bones.
- 31 He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker, but he who is kind to the needy honors Him.
- 32 The wicked is brought down in his calamity, but in death, the righteous has a refuge.

- 33 Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding, and is even made known in the inward part of fools.
- 34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people.
- 35 The king's acceptance is toward a servant who deals wisely, but his wrath is toward one who causes shame.
- 15 A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.
- 2 The tongue of the wise commands knowledge, but the mouth of fools gush out folly.
- 3 The eyes of תִּתְהַלֵּךְ are everywhere, keeping watch on the evil and the good.
- 4 A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but deceit in it crushes the spirit.
- 5 A fool despises his father's correction, but he who guards reproof shows prudence.
- 6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure, but the income of the wicked brings trouble.
- 7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so with the heart of fools.
- 8 The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to תִּתְהַלֵּךְ, but the prayer of the upright is His good will.
- 9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to תִּתְהַלֵּךְ, but He loves him who follows after righteousness.
- 10 There is stern correction for one who forsakes the way: whoever hates reproof shall die.
- 11 Sheol and Avaddon are before תִּתְהַלֵּךְ— how much more, then, the hearts of the children of men!
- 12 A scoffer does not love to be reproved; he will not go to the wise.
- 13 A glad heart makes a cheerful face; but a wounded heart breaks the spirit.
- 14 The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on folly.
- 15 All the days of the afflicted are wretched, but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual banquet.
- 16 Better is little, with the fear of תִּתְהַלֵּךְ, than great treasure with trouble.
- 17 Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is, than a fattened calf with hatred.
- 18 A wrathful man stirs up contention, but one who is slow to anger appeases strife.
- 19 The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch, but the path of the upright is a highway.
- 20 A wise son makes a father glad, but a foolish man despises his mother.
- 21 Folly is joy to one who lacks heart, but a man of understanding keeps his way straight.
- 22 Where there is no counsel, plans fail; but in a multitude of counselors they are established.
- 23 Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth. How good is a word at the right time!

- 24 The path of life leads upward for the wise, to keep him from going downward to Sheol.
- 25 תַּלְמִיד will uproot the house of the proud, but He will keep the widow's borders intact.
- 26 תַּלְמִיד detests the evil thoughts, but pure speeches are pleasant.
- 27 He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house, but he who hates bribes will live.
- 28 The heart of the righteous weighs answers, but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil.
- 29 תַּלְמִיד is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous.
- 30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart. Good news gives health to the bones.
- 31 The ear that listens to reproof lives, and will be at home among the wise.
- 32 He who refuses correction despises his own being, but he who listens to reproof gains heart.
- 33 The fear of יְהוָה is correction for wisdom. Before honor is humility.

- 16 The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from יְהוָה.
- 2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but יְהוָה weighs the motives.
- 3 Commit your deeds to יְהוָה, and your plans shall succeed.
- 4 יְהוָה has made everything for its own end— yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
- 5 Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to יְהוָה: they shall certainly not be unpunished.
- 6 By loving-kindness and truth, iniquity is atoned for. By the fear of יְהוָה men depart from evil.
- 7 When a man's ways please יְהוָה, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
- 8 Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without judgment.
- 9 A man's heart plans his course, but יְהוָה directs his steps.
- 10 Divination is on the lips of the king. His mouth shall not transgress judgment.
- 11 Balances and scales of judgment belong to יְהוָה; all the weights in the bag are His work.
- 12 It is an abomination for kings to commit wickedness, for the throne is established by righteousness.
- 13 Righteous lips are the good will of kings. They value one who speaks the truth.
- 14 The king's wrath is a messenger of death, but a wise man will atone for it.
- 15 In the light of the king's face is life. His acceptance is like a cloud of the spring rain.
- 16 How much better it is to get wisdom than gold! Yes,

- to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
- 17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil. He who guards his way preserves his being.
- 18 Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
- 19 It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, than to divide the plunder with the proud.
- 20 He who heeds the word finds prosperity. Whoever relies on תַּלְמִיד is blessed.
- 21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent. Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.
- 22 Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the correction of fools is their folly.
- 23 The heart of the wise instructs his mouth, and adds learning to his lips.
- 24 Pleasant speeches are a honeycomb, sweet to the being, and health to the bones.
- 25 There is a way which seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death.
- 26 The appetite of the laboring man labors for him; for his mouth urges him on.
- 27 A worthless man devises mischief. His speech is like a scorching fire.
- 28 A perverse man stirs up strife. A whisperer separates close friends.
- 29 A man of violence entices his neighbor, and leads him in a way that is not good.
- 30 One who winks his eyes to plot perversities, one who compresses his lips, is bent on evil.
- 31 Gray hair is a crown of glory. It is attained by a life of righteousness.
- 32 One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty; one who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.
- 33 The lot is cast into the lap, but its every judgment is from יְהוָה.
- 17 Better is a dry morsel with quietness, than a house full of sacrifice with strife.
- 2 A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers.
- 3 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold, but יְהוָה tests the hearts.
- 4 An evildoer heeds lips of vain exertion. A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.
- 5 Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker. He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.
- 6 Children's children are the crown of old men; the glory of children are their parents.
- 7 Arrogant speech is not fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a prince.
- 8 A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it; wherever he turns, he prospers.
- 9 He who covers an offense promotes love; but he who

- repeats a matter separates best friends.
- 10 A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool.
- 11 An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
- 12 Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.
- 13 Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.
- 14 The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.
- 15 He who declares right the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to תִּתְנַחֲמָה.
- 16 Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, since he has no heart?
- 17 A friend loves at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.
- 18 A man lacking heart strikes hands, and becomes a pledge in the presence of his neighbor.
- 19 He who loves disobedience loves strife. One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.
- 20 One who has a perverse heart does not find prosperity, and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.
- 21 He who becomes the father of a fool grieves. The father of a fool has no joy.
- 22 A cheerful heart makes good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.^a
- 23 A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, to pervert the ways of judgment.
- 24 Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.
- 25 A foolish son brings grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.
- 26 Also to punish the righteous is not good, nor to flog officials for their integrity.
- 27 He who spares his speeches has knowledge. He who is even tempered is a man of understanding.
- 28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise. When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.
- 18 A self-seeking man pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment.
- 2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his heart.
- 3 When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, and with shame comes disgrace.
- 4 The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters. The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing wadi.
- 5 To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good, nor to deprive the righteous of judgment.
- 6 A fool's lips come into strife, and his mouth invites beatings.
- 7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare to his being.
- 8 The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels: they go down into the inner chambers of the belly.
- 9 One who is slack in his work is brother to him who is a master of destruction.
- 10 The Name of תִּתְנַחֲמָה is a strong tower: the righteous run to him, and are safe.
- 11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, like an unscalable wall in his own imagination.
- 12 Before destruction the heart of man is proud, but before honor is humility.
- 13 He who gives answer before he hears, that is folly and shame to him.
- 14 A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness, but a crushed spirit, who can bear?
- 15 The heart of the discerning gets knowledge. The ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
- 16 A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men.
- 17 He who pleads his cause first seems right; until another comes and questions him.
- 18 The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart.
- 19 A brother offended is more difficult than a fortified city; and disputes are like the bars of a fortress.
- 20 A man's belly is filled with the fruit of his mouth^b. With the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.
- 21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue; those who love it will eat its fruit.
- 22 Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains acceptance from תִּתְנַחֲמָה.
- 23 The poor petition, but the rich answer harshly.
- 24 A man of many companions may be ruined, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

- 19 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.
- 2 It is not good to have zeal without knowledge; nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the way.
- 3 The foolishness of man subverts his way; his heart rages against תִּתְנַחֲמָה.
- 4 Wealth adds many friends, but the poor is separated from his friend.
- 5 A false witness shall not be unpunished. He who pours out lies shall not go free.
- 6 Many will entreat the favor of a ruler, and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts.
- 7 All the relatives of the poor shun him: how much more do his friends avoid him! He pursues them with speeches, but they are gone.

^b 20 Fruit of...mouth – Idiom meaning "what is said."

8 He who gains heart loves his own being. He who guards understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished. He who utters lies shall perish.

10 Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool, much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger. It is his glory to overlook an offense.

12 The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his acceptance is like dew on the grass.

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father. A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping.

14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers, but a prudent wife is from יְהוָה.

15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep. The idle being shall suffer hunger.

16 He who guards the command guards his being, but he who is contemptuous in his ways shall die.

17 He who has pity on the poor lends to יְהוָה; He will reward him.

18 Discipline your son, for there is hope; do not be a willing party to his death.

19 A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty, for if you rescue him, you must do it again.

20 Listen to counsel and receive correction, that you may be wise in your latter end.

21 There are many plans in a man's heart, but the counsel of יְהוָה will prevail.

22 That which makes a man to be desired is his loving-kindness. A poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of יְהוָה leads to life, then contentment; he rests and will not be touched by trouble.

24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence; rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.

26 He who robs his father and drives away his mother, is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

27 If you stop listening to correction, my son, you will stray from the speeches of knowledge.

28 A worthless witness mocks judgment, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down vain exertion.

29 Penalties are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

20 Wine is a mocker, and strong drink is a brawler. Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.

2 The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion. He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own being.

3 It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife; but every fool will be quarreling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter; therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Many men claim to be men of unfailing love, but who can find a trustworthy man?

7 A righteous man walks in integrity. Blessed are his children after him.

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, "I have made my heart pure. I am clean and without sin?"

10 Differing weights and differing measures, both of them alike are an abomination to יְהוָה.

11 Even a child makes himself known by his doings, whether his work is pure, and whether it is right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, יְהוָה has made even both of them.

13 Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty. Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.

14 "It is no good, it is no good," says the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasts.

15 There is gold and abundance of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.

16 Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger; and hold him in pledge for a foreign woman.

17 Fraudulent food is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.

18 Plans are established by advice; by wise guidance you wage war!

19 He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; therefore do not keep company with him who opens wide his lips.

20 Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in blackness^a of darkness.

21 An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning, will not be blessed in the end.

22 Do not say, "I will pay back evil." Wait for יְהוָה, and He will save you.

23 יְהוָה detests differing weights, and dishonest scales are not pleasing.

24 A man's steps are from יְהוָה; how then can man understand His way?

25 It is a snare to a man to make a rash dedication, then later to consider his vows.

26 A wise king winnows out the wicked, and drives the threshing wheel over them.

27 The breath of man is the lamp of יְהוָה, searching all the inner chambers of his belly.

28 Favor and truth preserve the king safe. His throne is sustained by favor.

29 The glory of young men is their strength. The splendor of old men is their gray hair.

30 Wounding blows cleanse away evil, and beatings purge the inner chambers of the belly.

21 The king's heart is in the hand of יהוה like the watercourses. He turns it wherever he desires.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but יהוה weighs the hearts.

3 To do righteousness and judgment is more acceptable to יהוה than sacrifice.

4 A high look, and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, is sin.

5 The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit; and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.

6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

7 The violence of the wicked will drive them away, because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.

9 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than in a wide house with a contentious woman.

10 The being of the wicked desires evil; his neighbor finds no loving-kindness in his eyes.

11 When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom. When the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked, and brings the wicked to ruin.

13 Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor, he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifies anger; and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the righteous to do justice; but it is a destruction to the workers of vain exertion.

16 The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the Rephaim.

17 He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man. He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous; the deceitful for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in a desert land, than with a contentious and fretful woman.

20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man swallows it up.

21 He who follows after righteousness and loving-kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.

22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and brings down the strength of its confidence.

23 Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his being from troubles.

24 The proud and haughty man, "scoffer" is his name; he works in the arrogance of pride.

25 The desire of the sluggard kills him, for his hands refuse to labor.

26 There are those who covet greedily all day long; but the righteous give and do not withhold.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more, when he brings it with lewdness!

28 A false witness will perish, and a man who listens speaks to eternity.

29 A wicked man hardens his face; but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against יהוה.

31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle; but victory is with יהוה.

22 A good name is more desirable than great riches, and loving favor is better than silver and gold.

2 The rich and the poor have this in common: יהוה is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself; but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.

4 The result of humility and the fear of יהוה is wealth, honor, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked: whoever guards his being stays from them.

6 Dedicate a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

7 The rich rule over the poor. The borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He who sows unrighteousness reaps trouble, and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.

9 He who has a good eye^a will be blessed, for he shares his food with the poor.

10 Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out; yes, quarrels and insults will stop.

11 He who loves purity of heart and speaks favorably is the king's friend.

12 The eyes of יהוה preserve knowledge; but He frustrates the words of the deceitful.

13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside! I will be killed in the streets!"

14 The mouth of a strange woman is a deep pit. He who is under the wrath of יהוה will fall into it.

15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child: the rod of correction drives it far from him.

16 Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich, both come to poverty.

17 Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise. Apply your heart to my teaching.

and beautiful treasure.

5 A wise man has great power; and a knowledgeable man increases strength;
6 for by wise guidance you wage your war; and victory is in many advisors.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he does not open his mouth in the gate.

8 One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.

9 The lewdness of foolishness is sin. The mocker is detested by men.

10 If you falter in the time of trouble, your strength is small.

11 Rescue those who are being led away to death!

Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter!

12 If you say, "Behold, we did not know this," does not He who weighs the hearts consider it? He who preserves your being, does He not know it? Shall He not render to every man according to his work?

13 My son, eat honey, for it is good; the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste.

14 Know that wisdom is such to your being; if you have found it, then there will be a reward, your hope will not be cut off.

15 Do not lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous. Do not destroy his resting place: 16 for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again; but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls. Do not let your heart be glad when he is overthrown; 18 lest יְהוָה see it, and it displease Him, and He turn away His wrath from him.

19 Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; neither be envious of the wicked: 20 for there will be no reward to the evil man; and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out.

21 My son, fear יְהוָה and the king. Do not join those who are rebellious: 22 for their calamity will rise suddenly; the destruction from them both—who knows it?

23 These also are sayings of the wise. To show partiality in judgment is not good.

24 He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous;" peoples will curse him, and nations will abhor him—

25 but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will come on them.

26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

27 Prepare your work outside, and get your fields ready. Afterwards, build your house.

28 Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause. Do not deceive with your lips.

29 Do not say, "I will do to him as he has done to me; I will render to the man according to his work."

30 I went by the field of the sluggard, by the vineyard of the man lacking heart;

31 Behold, it was all grown over with thorns. Its surface was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and considered well. I set my heart on it, and received correction: 33 a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep; 34 so your poverty will come as a robber, and your want as an armed man.

25 These also are proverbs of Shelomoh, which the men of Hizqiyah king of Yehudah copied out.

2 It is the glory of Elohim to conceal a thing, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

3 As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and material comes out for the refiner.

5 Take away the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

6 Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king, or claim a place among great men; 7 for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here," than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince, whom your eyes have seen.^a

8 Do not be hasty in bringing charges to court. What will you do in the end when your neighbor shames you?

9 Debate your case with your neighbor, and do not betray the confidence of another, 10 lest one who hears it put you to shame, and your bad reputation never depart.

11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reproof to an obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him; for he refreshes the being of his masters.

14 As clouds and wind without rain, so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.

15 By patience a ruler is persuaded. A soft tongue breaks the bone.

16 Have you found honey? Eat as much as is sufficient for you, lest you eat too much, and vomit it.

17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, lest he be weary of you, and hate you.

18 A man who gives false witness against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.

19 Trust in a deceitful man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot.

20 As one who takes away a garment in cold weather, or vinegar on lye, so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

^a 7 See Loukas 14:7-11.

21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat. If he is thirsty, give him water to drink: 22 for you will heap coals of fire on his head, and נָתַן will reward you.

23 The north wind produces rain; so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.

24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than in a wide house with a contentious woman.

25 Like cold water to a thirsty being, so is good news from a far country.

26 Like a fouled spring, and a corrupted well, so is a righteous one who gives way before the wicked.

27 It is not good to eat much honey; nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.

28 Like a city that is broken down and without walls is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

26 Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.

2 Like a fluttering sparrow, like a darting swallow, so the undeserved curse does not come to rest.

3 A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools!

4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.

6 One who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off feet and drinking violence.

7 Like the legs of the lame that hang loose, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As one who binds a stone in a sling, so is he who gives honor to a fool.

9 Like a thorn bush that goes into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 As an archer who wounds all, so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by.

11 As a dog that returns to his vomit, so is a fool who repeats his folly.

12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road! A fierce lion roams the streets!"

14 As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.

15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish. He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer with discretion.

17 Like one who grabs a dog's ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own.

18 Like a madman who shoots torches, arrows, and death, 19 is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?"

20 For lack of wood a fire goes out. Without gossip, a quarrel dies down.

21 As coals are to hot embers, and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to kindling strife.

22 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels, they go down into the inner chambers of the belly.

23 Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart.

24 A malicious man disguises himself with his lips, but he harbors evil in his heart.

25 When his speech is charming, do not trust him; for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 His malice may be concealed by deception, but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

27 Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it. Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him.

28 A lying tongue hates those it hurts; and a flattering mouth works ruin.

27 Do not boast about tomorrow; for you do not know what a day may bring.

2 Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a foreigner, and not your own lips.

3 A stone is heavy, and sand is a burden; but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming; but who is able to stand before jealousy?

5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.

6 The wounds of a friend are faithful; although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.

7 A full being loathes a honeycomb; but to a hungry being, every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his home.

9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart; so does earnest counsel from a person's friend.

10 Do not forsake your friend and your father's friend. Do not go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster: better is a neighbor who is near than a distant brother.

11 Be wise, my son, and bring joy to my heart, then I can answer my tormentor.

12 A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge; but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.

13 Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger. Hold it for a foreign woman!

14 He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse by him.

15 A continual dropping on a rainy day and a contentious wife are alike:

16 restraining her is like restraining the wind, or like grasping oil in his right hand.

17 Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens his friend's countenance.

18 Whoever preserves the fig tree shall eat its fruit. He who guards his master shall be honored.

19 Like water reflects a face, so a man's heart reflects the man.

20 Sheol and Avaddon are never satisfied; and a man's eyes are never satisfied.

21 The crucible is for silver, and the furnace for gold; but man is refined by his praise.

22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, yet his foolishness will not be removed from him.

23 Know well the state of your flocks, and set your heart to your herds: 24 for riches are not forever, nor does the crown endure to all generations.

25 The hay is removed, and the new growth appears, the grasses of the hills are gathered in.

26 The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of a field.

27 There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food, for your family's food, and for the nourishment of your maidens.

28 The wicked flee when no one pursues; but the righteous are as secure as a lion.

2 In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.

3 A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.

4 Those who forsake the Torah praise the wicked; but those who guard the Torah contend with them.

5 Evil men do not understand judgment; but those who seek תְּבִרָא understand it fully.

6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.

7 Whoever preserves the Torah is a wise son; but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.

8 He who increases his wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.

9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the Torah, even his prayer is an abomination.

10 Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, he will fall into his own trap; but the blameless will inherit good.

11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes; but the poor who has understanding sees through him.

12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.

13 He who conceals his sins does not prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds compassion.

14 Blessed is the man who always fears; but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble.

15 As a roaring lion or a charging bear, so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.

16 A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment. One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days.

17 A man who is tormented by a person's blood will be a fugitive until death; no one will support him.

18 Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.

19 One who works his land will have an abundance of food; but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.

20 A faithful man is rich with blessings; but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.

21 To show partiality is not good; yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.

22 A stingy man hurries after riches, and does not know that poverty waits for him.

23 One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.

24 Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It is not wrong." He is a partner with a destroyer.

25 One who is greedy stirs up strife; but one who relies on תְּבִרָא will prosper.

26 One who relies on himself is a fool; but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.

27 One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes his eyes will have many curses.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

29 He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.

2 When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father; but a companion of whores squanders his wealth.

4 The king, by judgment, makes the land stable, but he who takes bribes tears it down.

5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

6 An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing and be glad.

7 The righteous care about justice for the poor. The wicked are not concerned about knowledge.

8 Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger.

9 If a wise man seeks judgment with a foolish man, the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.

10 The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity; and they seek the being of the upright.

11 A fool vents all of his anger, but a wise man brings himself under control.

12 If a ruler listens to lies, all of his officials are wicked.

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: תְּבִרָא gives sight to the eyes of both.

14 The king who fairly judges the poor, his throne shall be established forever.

15 The rod of correction gives wisdom, but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked increase, sin increases; but the righteous will see their downfall.

17 Discipline your son, and he will give you peace; yes, he will bring delight to your being.

18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but one who guards the Torah is blessed.

19 A servant cannot be disciplined by words. Though he understands, yet he will not respond.

20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end.

22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin.

23 A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains honor.

24 Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own being. He takes an oath, but dares not testify.

25 The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever relies on הָנֶסֶת is kept safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favor, but a man's judgment comes from הָנֶסֶת.

27 An unrighteous man is an abomination to the righteous; and he who is upright is abominable to the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Yaqeh; the message: the man says to Ithi'el, to Ithi'el and Ukal:

2 "Surely I am the most ignorant man, and do not have a man's understanding. 3 I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Set-apart One.

4 Who has ascended up into heavens, and descended? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in His garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His Name, and what is His Son's Name, if you know?"^a 5 "All speeches of Eloah are flawless. He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him. 6 Do not add to His words, lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar.

7 Two things I have asked of you; do not deny me before I die: 8 Remove far from me falsehood and lies. Give me neither poverty nor riches. Feed me with the food that is needful for me; 9 lest I be full, deny You, and say, 'Who is הָנֶסֶת?' or lest I be poor, and steal, and so dishonor the Name of my Elohim.

10 "Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty. 11 There is a generation that curses their father, and does not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, yet are not washed from their filthiness. 13 There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes! Their eyelids are lifted up. 14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords, and their jaws like knives, to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 "The leach has two daughters: 'Give, give.' There are three things that are never satisfied; four that do not say, 'Enough.' 16 Sheol, the barren womb, the earth that is not satisfied with water; and the fire that does not say, 'Enough.' 17 The eye that mocks at his father, and scorns obedience to his mother: the ravens of the wadi shall pick it out, the young eagles shall eat it.

18 "There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I do not understand: 19 the way of an eagle in the air; the way of a nahash on a rock; the way of a ship in the heart of the sea; and the way of a man with a maiden.

20 So is the way of an adulterous woman: she eats and wipes her mouth, and says, 'I have done not worked vain exertion.'

21 For three things the earth tremble, and under four, it cannot bear up: 22 for a servant when he is king; a fool when he is filled with food; 23 for an unloved woman when she is married; and a servant who is heir to her mistress.

24 There are four things which are little on the earth, but they are exceedingly wise: 25 the ants are not a strong people, yet they provide their food in the summer.

26 The shaphan are but a feeble folk, yet they make their houses in the rocks. 27 The locusts have no king, yet they advance in ranks. 28 You can catch a lizard with your hands, yet it is in kings' palaces.

29 There are three things which are stately in their march, four which are stately in going:

30 The lion, which is mightiest among animals, and does not turn away for any;

31 the [rooster struts among the hens], the male goat also [leads the herd]; and the king [speaking before a nation].^b

32 "If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil, put your hand over your mouth.

33 For as the churning of milk produces butter, and the wringing of the nose produces blood; so the forcing of wrath produces strife."

31 The words of King Lemuel; the message with which his mother disciplined him.

2 "Oh, my son! Oh, son of my womb! Oh, son of my vows!

3 Do not give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

4 It is not for kings, Lemuel; it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for rulers to desire strong drink, 5 lest they drink and forget the statutes, and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.

6 Give strong drink to him who is perishing; and wine to the bitter in being.

7 Let him drink and forget his poverty, and remember his toil no more.

8 Open your mouth for the mute, in the cause of all who are left desolate.

9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and serve justice to the poor and needy."

^b 11 שָׁלָל (Shalal) – Hebrew word translated as "gain." Literally means "spoil."

^c 15 טְרֵפָה (Teref) – Hebrew word translated as "food." Literally means "prey."

^d 31 The last 22 verses of Mishlei 31 are an acrostic. That is, the first word of each sentence begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew Alef-Bet.

Iyyov (Job)

1 There was a man in the land of Uts, whose name was Iyyov. That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared Elohim, and turned away from evil. 2 There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. 3 His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east. 4 His sons went and held a banquet in the house of each one on his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. 5 It was so, when the days of their banquets had run their course, that Iyyov sent and set them apart, and rose up early in the morning, and offered ascension offerings according to the number of them all. For Iyyov said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced Elohim in their hearts." Iyyov did so continually.

6 Now there was the day when the sons of Elohim come to present themselves before יהוה, and the adversary^a also came among them. 7 יהוה said to the adversary, "Where have you come from?" Then the adversary answered יהוה, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

8 יהוה said to the adversary, "Have you set your heart on My servant, Iyyov? For there is no one like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears Elohim, and turns away from evil."

9 Then the adversary answered יהוה, and said, "Does Iyyov fear Elohim for nothing? 10 Have You not made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. 11 But stretch out Your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse You to Your face."

12 יהוה said to the adversary, "Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only do not stretch out your hand on^b him." So the adversary went out from the presence of יהוה.

13 It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, 14 that there came a messenger to Iyyov, and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them, 15 and the Saveans attacked, and took them away.

Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

16 While he was still speaking, there also came another, and said, "The fire of Elohim has fallen from the heavens, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

17 While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Kaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

18 While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, 19 and behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."

20 Then Iyyov arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell onto the ground, and bowed down. 21 He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. יהוה gave, and יהוה has taken away. Blessed be the Name of יהוה." 22 In all this, Iyyov did not sin, nor charge Elohim with wrongdoing.

2 Again, on the day when the sons of Elohim came to present themselves before יהוה, the adversary came also among them to present himself before יהוה. 2 יהוה said to the adversary, "Where have you come from?" the adversary answered יהוה, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

3 יהוה said to the adversary, "Have you set your heart on My servant Iyyov? For there is no one like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears Elohim, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to ruin him without cause."

4 The adversary answered יהוה, and said, "Skin for skin. Yes, all that a man has he will give for his being. 5 But stretch out Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse You to Your face."

6 יהוה said to the adversary, "Behold, he is in your hand. Only guard his being."

^a See footnote at Zekharyah 3:1.

^b 12 Stretch out...hand on – Idiom meaning "harm."

7 So the adversary went out from the presence of יְהוָה, and struck Iyyov with painful sores from the sole of his foot to his head. 8 He took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat among the ashes. 9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still maintain your integrity? Curse Elohim, and die."

10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of Elohim, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Iyyov did not sin with his lips. 11 Now when Iyyov's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Tsophar the Na'amathite; and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him.

12 When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and did not recognize him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the heavens. 13 So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

3 After this Iyyov opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth.

2 Iyyov answered: 3 "Let the day perish in which I was born, the night which said, 'A male child!' 4 Let that day be darkness. Do not let Eloah from above seek for it, neither let the light shine on it. 5 Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. Let a cloud dwell on it. Let all that makes black the day terrify it. 6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year. Let it not come into the number of the months. 7 Behold, let that night be barren. Let no joyful voice come therein. 8 Let them curse it who curse the day, who are ready to rouse up Livyathan. 9 Let the stars of its twilight be dark. Let it look for light, but have none, neither let it see the eyelids of the morning, 10 because it did not close up the doors of my mother's womb, nor did it hide toil from my eyes.

11 "Why did I not die from the womb? Why did I not give up the spirit when my mother bore me? 12 Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breast, that I should nurse? 13 For now should I have lain down and been quiet. I should have slept, then I would have been at rest, 14 with kings and counselors of the earth, who built up waste places for themselves; 15 or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver: 16 or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been, as infants who never saw light. 17 There the wicked cease from troubling. There the weary are at rest. 18 There the prisoners are at ease together. They do not hear the voice of the taskmaster. 19 The small and the great are there. The servant is free from his master.

20 "Why is light given to him who labors, life to the bitter in being, 21 who long for death, but it does not come; and dig for it more than for hidden treasures, 22 who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave? 23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, whom Eloah has hedged in? 24 For my sighing comes before I eat. My groanings are poured out like water. 25 For the thing which I fear comes on me, that which I am afraid of comes to me. 26 I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest; but trouble comes."

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, 2 "If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved? But who can withhold himself from saying? 3 Behold, you have disciplined many, you have strengthened the weak hands. 4 Your sayings have supported him who was falling, You have made firm the feeble knees. 5 But now it has come to you, and you faint. It touches you, and you are troubled. 6 Is your reverence not your confidence? Is the integrity of your ways not your hope?

7 "Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent? Or where were the upright cut off? 8 According to what I have seen, those who plow vain exertion, and sow toil, reap the same. 9 By the breath of Eloah they perish. By the blast of His anger are they consumed. 10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions, are broken. 11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey. The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad.

12 "Now a thing was secretly brought to me. My ear received a whisper of it. 13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, 14 fear came on me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake. 15 Then a spirit passed before my face. The hair of my flesh stood up. 16 It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes. Silence, then I heard a voice, saying, 17 'Shall mortal man be more righteous than Eloah? Shall a man be more pure than his Maker? 18 Behold, He puts no trust in His servants. He charges His messenger with error. 19 How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth! 20 Between morning and evening they are destroyed. They perish forever without any regarding it. 21 Is their tent cord not plucked up within them? They die, and that without wisdom.'"

5 "Call now; is there any who will answer you? To which of the set-apart ones will you turn? 2 For resentment kills the foolish man, and jealousy kills the simple. 3 I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly I cursed his habitation. 4 His children are far from safety. They are crushed in the gate. Neither is there any to deliver them, 5 whose harvest the hungry eats up, and take it even out of the thorns. The snare gapes for their substance. 6 For vain exertion does not come out of the dust, neither does toil spring out of the ground; 7 but man is born to toil, as the sparks fly upward.

8 "But as for me, I would seek El. I would commit my cause to Elohim, 9 who does great things that cannot be fathomed, marvelous things without number; 10 who gives rain on the earth, and sends waters on the fields; 11 so that He sets up on high those who are low, those who mourn are exalted to safety. 12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise. 13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness; the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong. 14 They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope at noonday as in the night. 15 But He saves from the sword of their mouth, even the needy from the hand of the mighty. 16 So the poor has hope, and unrighteousness shuts her mouth.

17 "Behold, happy is the man whom Eloah corrects. Therefore do not despise the correction of the Almighty. 18 For He wounds, and binds up. He injures, and His hands make whole. 19 He will deliver you in six troubles; yes, in seven no evil shall touch you. 20 In famine He will redeem you from death; in war, from the power of the sword. 21 You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes. 22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh, neither shall you be afraid of the animals of the earth. 23 For you shall be allied with the stones of the field. The animals of the field shall be at peace with you. 24 You shall know that your tent is in peace. You shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing. 25 You shall know also that your offspring shall be great, your seed will be as the grass of the earth. 26 You shall come to your grave in a full age, like a shock of grain comes in its season. 27 Look at this, we have searched it, and so it is. Hear it, and know it for your good."

6 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "Oh that my anguish were weighed, and all my calamity laid in the balances! 3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas, therefore have my words been rash. 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me. My spirit drinks up their poison. The terrors of Eloah set themselves in array against me. 5 Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass? Or does the ox low over his fodder? 6 Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg? 7 My being refuses to touch them. They are as loathsome food to me.

8 "Oh that I might have my request, that Eloah would grant the thing that I long for, 9 even that it would please Eloah to crush me; that He would let loose His hand, and cut me off! 10 Be it still my consolation, yes, let me exult in pain that does not spare, that I have not denied the speeches of the Set-apart One. 11 What is my strength, that I should wait? What is my end, that I should prolong my being? 12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of copper? 13 Is it not that I have no help in me, that wisdom is driven quite from me?

14 "To him who is ready to faint, loving-kindness should be shown from his friend; even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty. 15 My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a wadi, as the cannel of wadis that pass away; 16 Which are black by reason of the ice, in which the snow hides itself. 17 In the dry season, they vanish. When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place. 18 The caravans that travel beside them turn aside. They go up into the waste, and perish. 19 The caravans of Tema looked. The companies of Sheva waited for them. 20 They were distressed because they were confident. They came there, and were confounded. 21 For now you are nothing. You see a terror, and are afraid. 22 Did I say, 'Give to me?' or, 'Offer a present for me from your substance?' 23 or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand?' or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the tyrants?'

24 "Teach me, and I will hold my peace. Cause me to understand wherein I have erred. 25 How forcible are speeches of uprightness! But your reproof, what does it reprove? 26 Do you intend to reprove sayings, since the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind? 27 Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless, and make merchandise of your friend. 28 Now therefore be pleased to look at me, for surely I shall not lie to your face. 29 Please return. Let there be no unrighteousness. Yes, return again. My cause is righteous. 30 Is there unrighteousness on my tongue? Cannot my taste discern mischievous things?"

7 "Is a man not forced to labor on earth? Are his days not like the days of a hired hand? 2 As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow, as a hireling who looks for his wages, 3 so am I made to possess months of misery, toilsome nights are appointed to me. 4 When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?' I toss and turn until the twilight of the day. 5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust. My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh. 6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope. 7 Oh remember that my life is a breath. My eye shall no more see good. 8 The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more. Your eyes shall be on me, but I shall not be. 9 As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol shall come up no more. 10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him anymore.

11 "Therefore I will not keep silent. I will speak in the anguish of my spirit. I will complain in the bitterness of my being. 12 Am I a sea, or a sea monster, that you put a guard over me? 13 When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me. My couch shall ease my complaint,' 14 then You scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions: 15 so that my being chooses strangling, death rather than my bones. 16 I loathe my life. I do not want to live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath. 17 What is man, that You should magnify him, that You should set Your heart on him, 18 that You should visit him every morning, and test him every moment? 19 How long will You not look away from me, nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle? 20 If I have sinned, what do I do to You, You preserver of men? Why have You set me as a mark for You, so that I am a burden to myself?^a 21 Why do You not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity? For now shall I lie down in the dust. You will seek me diligently, but I shall not be."

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, 2 "How long will you speak these things? Shall the speeches of your mouth be a mighty wind? 3 Does El pervert judgment? Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness? 4 If your children have sinned against Him, He has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience. 5 If you want to seek El diligently, make your petition to the Almighty. 6 If you were pure and upright, surely now He would awaken for you, and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous. 7 Though your beginning was small, yet your latter end would greatly increase.

8 "Please inquire of past generations. Find out about the learning of their fathers. 9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow.) 10 Shall they not teach you, tell you, and bring forth sayings out of their heart?

11 "Can the papyrus grow up without mire? Can the rushes grow without water? 12 While it is yet in its greenness, not cut down, it withers before any other reed. 13 So are the paths of all who forget El. The hope of the profane man shall perish, 14 Whose confidence shall break apart, whose trust is a spider's web. 15 He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand. He shall cling to it, but it shall not endure. 16 He is green before the sun. His shoots go out along his garden. 17 His roots are wrapped around the rock pile. He sees the place of stones. 18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.' 19 Behold, this is the joy of his way: out of the earth, others shall spring.

20 "Behold, El will not cast away a blameless man, neither will he uphold the evildoers. 21 He will still fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting. 22 Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame. The tent of the wicked shall be no more."

9 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "Truly I know that it is so, but how can man be declared right with El? 3 If He is pleased to contend with him, he cannot answer Him one time in a thousand. 4 Elohim who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who has hardened himself against Him, and prospered? 5 He removes the mountains, and they do not know it, when He overturns them in His anger. 6 He shakes the earth out of its place. Its pillars tremble. 7 He commands the sun, and it does not rise, and seals up the stars. 8 He alone stretches out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea. 9 He makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and the rooms of the south. 10 He does great things past finding out; yes, marvelous things without number. 11 Behold, He goes by me, and I do not see Him. He passes on also, but I do not perceive Him. 12 Behold, He snatches away. Who can hinder Him? Who will ask Him, 'What are You doing?'

13 "Eloah will not withdraw His anger. The helpers of arrogance stoop under Him. 14 How much less shall I answer Him, and choose my words to argue with Him? 15 Though I were righteous, yet I would not answer Him. I would make petitions to my judge. 16 If I had called, and He had answered me, yet I still would not believe that He listened to my voice. 17 For He breaks me with a storm, and multiplies my wounds without cause. 18 He will not allow me to catch my breath, but fills me with bitterness. 19 If it is a matter of strength, behold, He is mighty! If of judgment, 'Who,' says He, 'will summon Me?' 20 Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn me. Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse. 21 I am blameless. I do not respect myself. I despise my life.

^a 20 Some Masoretic Hebrew manuscripts and the LXX read, "...a burden to You?" instead of "...a burden to myself?"

22 "It is all the same. Therefore I say He destroys the blameless and the wicked. 23 If the scourge kills suddenly, he will mock at the trial of the innocent. 24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of its judges. If not He, then who is it?

25 "Now my days are swifter than a runner. They flee away, they see no good. 26 They have passed away as the swift ships, as the eagle that swoops on the prey.

27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face, and will smile;' 28 I am afraid of all my wounds, I know that you will not hold me innocent. 29 I shall be condemned. Why then do I labor in vain? 30 If I wash myself with snow, and cleanse my hands with lye, 31 yet You will plunge me in the ditch. My own clothes shall abhor me. 32 For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him, that we should come together in judgment. 33 There is no mediator between us, that might lay his hand on us both. 34 Let Him take His rod away from me. Let his terror not make me afraid; 35 then I would speak, and not fear Him, for I am not so in myself."

10 "My being is weary of my life. I will give free course to my complaint. I will speak in the bitterness of my being. 2 I will tell Eloah, 'Do not condemn me. Show me why You contend with me. 3 Is it good to you that You should oppress, that You should despise the work of Your hands, and smile on the counsel of the wicked? 4 Do You have eyes of flesh? Or do You see as man sees? 5 Are Your days as the days of mortals, or Your years as man's years, 6 that You inquire after my iniquity, and search after my sin? 7 Although You know that I am not wicked, there is no one who can deliver out of Your hand.

8 "Your hands have framed me and fashioned me altogether, yet You destroy me. 9 Remember, I beg You, that You have fashioned me as clay. Will You bring me into dust again? 10 Have You not poured me out like milk, and curdled me like cheese? 11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews. 12 You have granted me life and loving-kindness. Your visitation has preserved my spirit. 13 Yet You hid these things in Your heart. I know that this is with You: 14 if I sin, then You guard me. You will not acquit me from my iniquity. 15 If I am wicked, woe to me. If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head, being filled with disgrace, and conscious of my affliction. 16 If my head is held high, You hunt me like a lion. Again You show yourself powerful to me. 17 You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your indignation on me. Changes and warfare are with me.

18 "Why, then, have You brought me out of the womb? Oh that I had perished, and no eye had seen me. 19 I should have been as though I had not been. I should have been carried from the womb to the grave. 20 Are not my days few? Cease then. Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort, 21 before I go where I shall not return from, to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death; 22 the land dark as midnight, of the shadow of death, without any order, where the light is as midnight."

11 Then Tsophar, the Na'amathite, answered,

2 "Should not the multitude of words be answered? Should a man full of talk be declared right? 3 Should your boastings make men hold their peace? When you mock, shall no man make you ashamed? 4 For you say, 'My doctrine is pure. I am clean in Your eyes.' 5 But oh that Eloah would speak, and open His lips against you, 6 that He would show you the secrets of wisdom! For true wisdom has two sides. Know therefore that Eloah exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.

7 "Can you fathom the mystery of Eloah? Or can you probe the limits of the Almighty? 8 They are high as heavens. What can you do? They are deeper than Sheol. What can you know? 9 Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. 10 If He passes by, or confines, or convenes a court, then who can oppose Him? 11 For He knows false men. He sees vain exertion also, even though He does not consider it. 12 An empty-headed man becomes wise when a man is born as a wild donkey's colt.

13 "If you set your heart aright, stretch out your hands toward Him. 14 If vain exertion is in your hand, put it far away. Do not let unrighteousness dwell in your tents. 15 Surely then you shall lift up your face without spot; yes, you shall be steadfast, and shall not fear: 16 for you shall forget your toil. You shall remember it like waters that have passed away. 17 Life shall be clearer than the noonday. Though there is darkness, it shall be as the morning. 18 You shall be secure, because there is hope. Yes, you shall search, and shall lie down securely. 19 Also you shall crouch, and no one shall make you afraid. Yes, many shall entreat your face. 20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail. They shall have no way to flee. Their hope shall be the giving up of the being."

12 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "No doubt, but you are the people, and wisdom shall die with you. 3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Yes, who does not know such things as these? 4 I am like one who is a joke to his neighbor, I, who called on Eloah, and He answered. The just, the blameless man is a joke. 5 In the thought of Him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune. It is ready for them whose foot slips. 6 The tents of robbers prosper. Those who provoke El are secure, who carry their eloah in their hands.

7 "But ask the animals, now, and they shall teach you; the birds of the heavens, and they shall tell you. 8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you. The fish of the sea shall declare to you. 9 Who does not know that in all these, the hand of תְּבִנָה has done this, 10 in whose hand is the being of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind? 11 Does not the ear try sayings, even as the palate tastes its food? 12 With aged men is wisdom, in length of days understanding.

13 "With Elohim is wisdom and might. He has counsel and understanding. 14 Behold, He breaks down, and it cannot be built again. He imprisons a man, and there can be no release. 15 Behold, He withholds the waters, and they dry up. Again, He sends them out, and they overturn the earth. 16 With him is strength and wisdom. The deceived and the deceiver are His. 17 He leads counselors away stripped. He makes judges fools. 18 He loosens the correction of kings. He binds their loins with a belt. 19 He leads priests away stripped, and overthrows the mighty. 20 He removes the speech of those who are trusted, and takes away the understanding of the elders. 21 He pours contempt on princes, and loosens the belt of the strong. 22 He uncovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death. 23 He increases the nations, and He destroys them. He enlarges the nations, and He leads them captive. 24 He takes away heart from the chiefs of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. 25 They grope in the dark without light. He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

13 "Behold, my eye has seen all this. My ear has heard and understood it. 2 What you know, I know also. I am not inferior to you.

3 "Surely I would speak to the Almighty. I desire to reason with El. 4 But you are forgers of lies. You are all physicians of no value. 5 Oh that you would be completely silent! Then you would be wise. 6 Hear now my reasoning. Listen to the pleadings of my lips. 7 Will you speak unrighteously for El, and talk deceitfully for Him? 8 Will you show partiality to Him? Will you contend for El? 9 Is it good that He should search you out? Or as one deceives a man, will you deceive Him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if you secretly show partiality. 11 Shall not His majesty make you afraid, and His dread fall on you? 12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, your defenses are defenses of clay.

13 "Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak. Let come on me what will. 14 Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my being in my hand? 15 Behold, He will kill me. I have no hope. Nevertheless, I will maintain my ways before Him. 16 This also shall be my salvation, that a profane man shall not come before Him. 17 Hear diligently my saying. Let my declaration be in your ears. 18 See now, I have set my judgment in order. I know that I am righteous. 19 Who is he who will contend with me? For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit.

20 "Only do not do two things to me; then I will not hide myself from Your face: 21 withdraw Your hand far from me; and do not let Your terror make me afraid. 22 Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and You answer me. 23 How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my disobedience and my sin. 24 Why do You hide Your face, and hold me for Your enemy? 25 Will You harass a driven leaf? Will You pursue the dry stubble? 26 For You write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth: 27 You also put my feet in the stocks, and guard all my paths. You set a bound to the soles of my feet, 28 though I am decaying like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 "Man, who is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble. 2 He grows up like a flower, and is cut down. He also flees like a shadow, and does not continue. 3 Do you open your eyes on such a one, and bring me^a into judgment with you? 4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one. 5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his new moons is with you, and you have appointed his bounds that he cannot pass; 6 Look away from him, that he may rest, until he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

7 "For there is hope for a tree, If it is cut down, that it will sprout again, that the tender branch of it will not cease. 8 Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stock dies in the ground, 9 yet through the scent of water it will bud, and sprout boughs like a plant. 10 But man dies, and is laid low. Yes, man gives up the spirit, and where is he? 11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the river wastes and dries up, 12 so man lies down and does not rise. Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, nor be roused out of their sleep.

13 "Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, that You would keep me secret, until Your wrath is past, that You would appoint me a set time, and remember me! 14 If a man dies, shall he live again? All the days of my warfare would I wait, until my release should come.

^a 3 LXX, Syr. and Lat. all read "him" instead of "me" here.

15 You would call, and I would answer You. You would have a desire to the work of Your hands. 16 But now You count my steps. Do You not guard my sin? 17 My disobedience is sealed up in a bag. You fasten up my iniquity.

18 "But the mountain falling comes to nothing. The rock is removed out of its place; 19 The waters wear the stones. The torrents of it wash away the dust of the earth. So You destroy the hope of man. 20 You forever prevail against him, and he departs. You change his face, and send him away. 21 His sons come to honor, and he does not know it. They are brought low, but he does not perceive it of them. 22 But his flesh on him has pain, and his being mourns over him."

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, 2 "Should a wise man answer with vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? 3 Should he reason with useless talk, or with sayings with which he can do no good? 4 Yes, you do away with fear, and hinder devotion before El. 5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the language of the crafty. 6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I. Yes, your own lips testify against you.

7 "Are you the first man who was born? Or were you brought out before the hills? 8 Have you heard the secret counsel of Eloah? Do you limit wisdom to yourself? 9 What do you know, that we do not know? What do you understand, which is not in us? 10 With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men, much elder than your father. 11 Are the consolations of El too small for you, even the word that is gentle toward you? 12 Why does your heart carry you away? Why do your eyes flash, 13 That you turn your spirit against El, and let such sayings go out of your mouth? 14 What is man, that he should be clean? What is he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? 15 Behold, He puts no trust in His set-apart ones. Yes, the heavens are not clean in His eyes; 16 how much less one who is abominable and corrupt, a man who drinks unrighteousness like water!

17 "I will show you, listen to me; that which I have seen I will declare 18 (which wise men have told by their fathers, and have not hidden it; 19 to whom alone the land was given, and no stranger passed among them): 20 the wicked man writhes in pain all his days, even the number of years that are laid up for the tyrant. 21 A sound of terrors is in his ears. In prosperity the destroyer shall come on him. 22 He does not believe that he shall return out of darkness. He is waited for by the sword. 23 He wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?' He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. 24 Distress and anguish make him afraid. They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle. 25 Because he has stretched out his hand against El, and behaves himself proudly against the Almighty; 26 he runs at Him with a stiff neck, with the thick shields of his bucklers; 27 because he has covered his face with his fatness, and gathered fat on his thighs. 28 He has lived in desolate cities, in houses which no one inhabited, which were ready to become heaps. 29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth. 30 He shall not depart out of darkness. The flame shall dry up his branches. By the breath of the mouth of Elohim shall he go away. 31 Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; for emptiness shall be his reward. 32 It shall be accomplished before his time. His branch shall not be green. 33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive tree. 34 For the company of the profane shall be barren, and fire shall consume the tents of bribery. 35 They conceive toil, and produce vain exertion. Their belly prepares deceit."

16 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "I have heard many such things. You toilsome comforters! 3 Shall vain words have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer? 4 I also could speak as you do. If your being were in my being's place, I could join sayings together against you, and shake my head at you, 5 but I would strengthen you with my mouth. The solace of my lips would relieve you.

6 "Though I speak, my grief is not subsided. Though I forbear, what am I eased? 7 But now, Elohim, You have surely worn me out. You have made desolate all my company. 8 You have shriveled me up. This is a witness against me. My leanness rises up against me. It testifies to my face. 9 He has torn me in His wrath, and persecuted me. He has gnashed on me with His teeth. My adversary sharpens his eyes on me. 10 They have gaped on me with their mouth. They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully. They gather themselves together against me. 11 El delivers me to the profane, and casts me into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, and He broke me apart. Yes, He has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces. He has also set me up for His target. 13 His archers surround me. He splits my kidneys apart, and does not spare. He pours out my gall on the ground. 14 He breaks me with breach on breach. He runs on me like a giant. 15 I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, and have thrust my horn in the dust. 16 My face is red with weeping. Deep darkness is on my eyelids. 17 Although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

18 "Earth, do not cover my blood. Let my cry have no place to rest. 19 Even now, behold, my witness is in heavens. He who vouches for me is on high. 20 My friends scoff at me. My eyes pour out tears to Eloah, 21 that He would maintain the right of a man with Eloah, of a son of man with his neighbor! 22 For when a few years have come, I shall go the way of no return.

17 "My spirit is consumed. My days are extinct and the grave is ready for me. 2 Surely there are mockers with me. My eye dwells on their provocation.

3 "Now give a pledge, be collateral for me with yourself. Who is there who will strike hands with me? 4 For you have hidden their heart from understanding, therefore you shall not exalt them. 5 He who denounces his friends for plunder, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 "But he has made me a byword of the people. They spit in my face. 7 My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow. All my members are as a shadow. 8 Upright men shall be astonished at this. The innocent shall stir up himself against the profane. 9 Yet shall the righteous hold on his way. He who has clean hands shall grow stronger and stronger. 10 But as for you all, come on now again; I shall not find a wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my plans are broken off, as are the thoughts of my heart. 12 They change the night into day, saying 'The light is near' in the presence of darkness.

13 If I look for Sheol as my house, if I have spread my couch in the darkness, 14 if I have said to corruption, 'You are my father,' to the worm, 'My mother,' and 'my sister,' 15 where then is my hope? As for my hope, who shall see it? 16 Shall it go down with me to the gates of Sheol, or descend together into the dust?"

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, 2 "How long will you hunt for sayings? Consider, and afterwards we will speak. 3 Why are we counted as animals, which have become unclean in your eyes? 4 You who tear yourself in your anger, shall the earth be forsaken for you? Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?

5 "Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, the spark of his fire shall not shine. 6 The light shall be dark in his tent. His lamp above him shall be put out. 7 The steps of his strength shall be shortened. His own counsel shall cast him down. 8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he wanders into its mesh. 9 A snare will take him by the heel. A trap will catch him. 10 A noose is hidden for him in the ground, a trap for him on the path. 11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall chase him at his heels. 12 His strength shall be famished. Calamity shall be ready at his side. 13 The members of his body shall be devoured. The firstborn of death shall devour his members. 14 He shall be rooted out of the security of his tent. He shall be brought to the king of terrors. 15 There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his. Sulfur shall be scattered on his habitation. 16 His roots shall be dried up beneath. Above shall his branch be cut off. 17 His memory shall perish from the earth. He shall have no name in the street. 18 He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world. 19 He shall have neither son nor grandson among his people, nor any remaining where he lived. 20 Those who come after shall be astonished at his day, as those who went before were frightened. 21 Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous. This is the place of him who does not know El."

19 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "How long will you torment me, and crush me with sayings? 3 You have reproached me ten times. You are not ashamed that you attack me. 4 If it is true that I have erred, my error remains with myself. 5 If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach; 6 know now that Eloah has subverted me, and has surrounded me with His net.

7 "Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard. I cry for help, but there is no judgment. 8 He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass, and has set darkness in my paths. 9 He has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. 10 He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone. He has plucked up my hope like a tree. 11 He has also kindled His wrath against me. He counts me among His adversaries. 12 His troops come on together, build a siege ramp against me, and encamp around my tent.

13 "He has put my brothers far from me. My acquaintances are wholly estranged from me. 14 My relatives have gone away. My familiar friends have forgotten me. 15 Those who dwell in my house and my maids consider me a stranger. I am a foreigner in their sight. 16 I call to my servant, and he gives me no answer. I beg him with my mouth. 17 My breath is strange to my wife. I entreated the children of my belly. 18 Even young children despise me. If I arise, they speak against me. 19 All my familiar friends abhor me. They whom I loved have turned against me. 20 My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh. I have escaped by the skin of my teeth. 21 Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends; for the hand of Eloah has touched me. 22 Why do You persecute me as El, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 "Oh that my sayings were now written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book! 24 That with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever! 25 But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end, He will rise upon the dust. 26 After my skin is destroyed, then in my flesh shall I see Eloah, 27 whom I, even I, shall see on my side. My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger. My heart is consumed within me.

28 "If you say, 'How will we persecute him, because the root of the matter is found in me?^a' 29 be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the iniquity of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment."

20 Then Tsophar the Na'amathite answered,

2 "Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me, even by reason of my haste that is in me. 3 I have heard the correction which puts me to shame. The spirit of my understanding answers me. 4 Do you not know this from old time, since man was placed on earth, 5 that the triumphing of the wicked is short, the joy of the profane but for a moment? 6 Though his height mount up to the heavens, and his head reach to the clouds, 7 yet he shall perish forever like his own dung. Those who have seen him shall say, 'Where is he?' 8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found. Yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night. 9 The eye which saw him shall see him no more, neither shall his place anymore see him. 10 His children shall seek the favor of the poor. His hands shall give back his wealth. 11 His bones are full of his youth, but youth shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 "Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue, 13 though he spare it, and will not let it go, but keep it still within his mouth; 14 yet his food in his gut is turned. It is cobra venom within him. 15 He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again. El will cast them out of his belly. 16 He shall suck cobra venom. The viper's tongue shall kill him. 17 He shall not see the divions of rivers, the wadis of honey and butter. 18 That for which he labored he shall restore, and shall not swallow it down. According to the substance that he has gotten, he shall not rejoice. 19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor. He has violently taken away a house, and he shall not build it up.

20 "Because he knew no quietness in his belly,^b he shall not save anything of that in which he delights. 21 There was nothing left that he did not devour, therefore his prosperity shall not endure. 22 In the fullness of his sufficiency, distress shall overtake him. The hand of everyone who labors shall come on him. 23 When he is about to fill his belly, Elohim will cast the fierceness of His wrath on him. It will rain on him while he is eating. 24 He shall flee from the iron weapon. The copper arrow shall strike him through. 25 He draws it out, and it comes out of his body. Yes, the glittering point comes out of his liver. Terrors are on him. 26 All darkness is laid up for his treasures. An unfanned fire shall devour him. It shall consume that which is left in his tent.

27 The heavens shall reveal his iniquity. The earth shall rise up against him. 28 The increase of his house shall depart. They shall rush away in the day of his wrath. 29 This is the portion of a wicked man from El, the heritage spoken to him by Elohim."

21 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "Listen diligently to my saying. Let this be your consolation. 3 Allow me, and I also will speak; after I have spoken, mock on. 4 As for me, is my complaint to man? Why should I not be impatient? 5 Look at me, and be astonished. Lay your hand on your mouth. 6 When I remember, I am troubled. Horror takes hold of my flesh.

7 "Why do the wicked live, become old, yes, and grow mighty in power? 8 Their child is established with them in their sight, their seed before their eyes. 9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of Eloah upon them. 10 Their bulls breed without fail. Their cows calve, and do not miscarry. 11 They send out their little ones like a flock. Their children dance. 12 They sing to the tambourine and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the pipe. 13 They spend their days in prosperity. In an instant they go down to Sheol. 14 They tell El, 'Depart from us, for we do not want to know about Your ways. 15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? What profit should we have, if we pray to Him?' 16 Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand. The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 "How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out, that their calamity comes on them, that Elohim distributes sorrows in His anger? 18 How often is it that they are as stubble before the wind, as chaff that the storm carries away? 19 You say, 'Eloah lays up his vain exertion for his children.' Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it. 20 Let his own eyes see his destruction. Let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty. 21 For what does he care for his house after him, when the number of his new moons is cut off?

22 "Shall any teach El knowledge, since He judges those who are on high? 23 One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet. 24 His pails are full of milk. The marrow of his bones is moistened. 25 Another dies in bitterness of being, and never tastes of good. 26 They lie down alike in the dust. The worm covers them.

^a 28 LXX and Lat. read, "him" instead of "me" here.

^b 20 Knew no quietness in...belly – Idiom meaning "to be greedy."

27 "Behold, I know your thoughts, the devices with which you would wrong me. 28 For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?' 29 Have you not asked wayfaring men? Do you not know their evidences, 30 that the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity, that they are led out to the day of wrath? 31 Who shall declare his way to his face? Who shall repay him what he has done? 32 Yet he will be borne to the grave. Men shall keep watch over the tomb. 33 The clods of the wadi shall be sweet to him. All men shall draw after him, as there were innumerable before him. 34 So how can you comfort me with nonsense, because in your answers there remains only falsehood?"

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, 2 "Can a man be useful to El? Surely he who is wise is useful to himself? 3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous? Or does it benefit Him, that you make your ways perfect? 4 Is it for your fear that He reproves you, that He enters with you into judgment? 5 Is not your wickedness great? Neither is there any end to your iniquities. 6 For you have taken pledges from your brother for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing. 7 You have not given water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry. 8 But as for the man of power, he had the earth. The honorable man, he lived in it. 9 You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken. 10 Therefore snares are around you. Sudden fear troubles you, 11 or darkness, so that you cannot see, and floods of waters cover you.

12 "Is not Eloah in the heights of heavens? See the height of the stars, how high they are! 13 You say, 'What does El know? Can He judge through the thick darkness?' 14 Thick clouds are a covering to Him, so that He does not see. He walks on the circuit of the heavens.' 15 Will you guard the old way, which men of vain exertion have trodden, 16 who were snatched away before their time, whose foundation was poured out as a stream, 17 who said to El, 'Depart from us;' and, 'What can the Almighty do for us?' 18 Yet He filled their houses with good things, but the counsel of the wicked is far from me. 19 The righteous see it, and are glad. The innocent ridicule them, 20 saying, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off. The fire has consumed their remnant.'

21 "Make yourself useful toward Him, now, and be at peace. Thereby good shall come to you. 22 Please receive instruction from His mouth, and lay up His speeches in your heart. 23 If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up, if you put away unrighteousness far from your tents. 24 Lay your treasure in the dust, the gold of Ophir among the stones of the wadis. 25 The Almighty will be your treasure, and precious silver to you. 26 For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and shall lift up your face to Eloah. 27 You shall make your prayer to Him, and He will hear you. You shall pay your vows. 28 You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you. Light shall shine on your ways. 29 When they cast down, you shall say, 'be lifted up.' He will save the humble person. 30 He will even deliver him who is not innocent. Yes, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."

23 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "Even today my complaint is rebellious. His hand is heavy in spite of my groaning. 3 Oh that I knew where I might find Him! That I might come even to His seat! 4 I would set my judgment in order before Him, and fill my mouth with arguments. 5 I would know the sayings which He would answer me, and understand what He would tell me. 6 Would He contend with me in the greatness of His power? No, but He would listen to me. 7 There the upright might reason with Him, so I should be delivered forever from my judge.

8 "If I go east, He is not there; if west, I cannot find Him; 9 He works to the north, but I cannot see Him. He turns south, but I cannot catch a glimpse of Him. 10 But He knows the way that I take. When he has tried me, I shall come out like gold. 11 My foot has held fast to His steps. I have guarded His way, and not turned aside. 12 I have not gone back from the command of His lips. I have treasured up the speeches of His mouth more than my necessary food. 13 But He stands alone, and who can oppose Him? What His being desires, even that He does. 14 For He performs that which is appointed for me. Many such things are with Him. 15 Therefore I am terrified at His presence. When I consider, I am afraid of Him. 16 For El has made my heart faint. The Almighty has terrified me. 17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither did He cover the thick darkness from my face.

24 "Why are times not laid up by the Almighty? Why do those who know Him not see His days? 2 There are people who remove the landmarks. They violently take away flocks, and feed them. 3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless, and they take the widow's ox for a pledge. 4 They turn the needy out of the way. The poor of the earth all hide themselves. 5 Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, they go out to their work, seeking diligently for food. The wilderness yields them bread for their children. 6 They cut their food in the field. They glean the vineyard of the wicked. 7 They lie all night naked without clothing, and have no covering in the cold. 8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter. 9 There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor, 10 So that they go around naked without clothing. Being hungry, they carry the sheaves. 11 They make oil within the walls of these men. They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst.

12 From out of the populous city, men groan. The being of the wounded cries out, yet Eloah does not regard the folly.

13 "These are of those who rebel against the light. They do not know its ways, nor stay in its paths. 14 The murderer rises with the light. He kills the poor and needy. In the night he is like a thief. 15 The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye shall see me.' He disguises his face. 16 In the dark they dig through houses. They shut themselves up in the daytime. They do not know the light. 17 For the morning is to all of them like thick darkness, for they know the terrors of the thick darkness.

18 "They are foam on the surface of the waters. Their portion is cursed in the earth. They do not turn into the way of the vineyards. 19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters, so does Sheol those who have sinned. 20 The womb shall forget him. The worm shall feed sweetly on him. He shall be no more remembered. Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree. 21 He devours the barren who do not bear. He shows no kindness to the widow. 22 Yet Elohim preserves the mighty by his power. He rises up who has no assurance of life. 23 Elohim gives them security, and they rest in it. His eyes are on their ways. 24 They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone. Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain. 25 If it is not so now, who will prove me a liar, and make my saying worth nothing?"

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, 2 "Dominion and fear are with Him. He makes peace in His high places. 3 Can His armies be counted? On whom does His light not arise? 4 How then can man be declared right with El? Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean? 5 Behold, even the moon has no brightness, and the stars are not pure in His eyes; 6 How much less man, who is a worm, the son of man, who is a worm!"

26 Then Iyyov answered, 2 "How have you helped him who is without power? How have you saved the arm that has no strength? 3 How have you counseled him who has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge? 4 To whom have you uttered sayings? Whose breath came out of you?

5 "The Rephaim tremble, those beneath the waters and all that live in them. 6 Sheol is naked before Elohim, and Avaddon has no covering. 7 He stretches out the north over empty space, and hangs the earth on nothing. 8 He binds up the waters in His thick clouds, and the cloud is not burst under them. 9 He encloses the face of His throne, and spreads His cloud on it. 10 He has described a boundary on the surface of the waters, and to the confines of light and darkness. 11 The pillars of heavens tremble and are astonished at His rebuke. 12 He stirs up the sea with His power, and by His understanding He strikes through arrogance. 13 By His Ruah the heavens are garnished. His hand has pierced the swift nahash. 14 Behold, these are but the outskirts of His ways. How small a whisper do we hear of Him! But the thunder of His power, who can understand?"

27 Iyyov again took up his parable, and said, 2 "As El lives, who has taken away my judgment, the Almighty, who has made my being bitter 3 (for the length of my life is still in me, and the Ruah of Eloah is in my nostrils); 4 surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness, neither shall my tongue utter deceit. 5 Far be it from me that I should declare you right. Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me. 6 I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go. My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 "Let my enemy be as the wicked. Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous. 8 For what is the hope of the profane, when he is cut off, when Eloah takes away his being? 9 Will El hear his cry when trouble comes on him? 10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty, and call on Eloah at all times? 11 I will teach you about the hand of El. That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal. 12 Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; why then have you become altogether vain?

13 "This is the portion of a wicked man with El, the inheritance of tyrants, which they receive from the Almighty. 14 If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword. His offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. 15 Those who remain of him shall be buried in death. His widows shall make no lamentation. 16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare clothing as the clay; 17 he may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver. 18 He builds his house as the moth, as a booth which the watchman makes. 19 He lies down rich, but he shall not do so again. He opens his eyes, and he is not. 20 Terrors overtake him like waters. A storm steals him away in the night. 21 The east wind carries him away, and he departs. It sweeps him out of his place. 22 For it hurls at him, and does not spare, as he flees away from his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

28 "Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold which they refine. 2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted out of the ore. 3 Man sets an end to darkness, and searches out, to the furthest bound, the stones of obscurity and of thick darkness. 4 He breaks open a wadi away from where people live. They are forgotten by the foot. They hang far from men, they swing back and forth. 5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread; underneath it is turned up as it were by fire. 6 Sapphires come from its rocks. It has dust of gold. 7 No bird of prey knows that path, neither has the falcon's eye seen it. 8 The proud animals have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed by there. 9 He puts his hand on the flinty rock, and he overturns the mountains by the roots. 10 He cuts out channels among the rocks. His eye sees every precious thing. 11 He binds the streams that they do not trickle.^a The thing that is hidden He brings out to light.

12 "But where shall wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding? 13 Man does not know its price; neither is it found in the land of the living. 14 The deep says, 'It is not in me.' The sea says, 'It is not with me.' 15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for its price. 16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire. 17 Gold and glass cannot equal it, neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold. 18 No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal. Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies. 19 The topaz of Kush shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold. 20 Where then does wisdom come from? Where is the place of understanding? 21 Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the heavens. 22 Avaddon and Death say, 'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.'

23 "Elohim understands its way, and He knows its place. 24 For He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole heavens. 25 He establishes the force of the wind. Yes, He measures out the waters by measure. 26 When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder, 27 then He saw it and declared it. He established it, yes, and searched it out. 28 To man He said, 'Behold, the fear of תְּבוּנָה that is wisdom. To depart from evil is understanding.'"

29 Iyyov again took up his parable, and said, 2 "Oh that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when

Eloah guarded me; 3 when His lamp shone on my head, and by His light I walked through darkness, 4 as I was in the ripeness of my days, when the friendship of Eloah was in my tent, 5 when the Almighty was yet with me, and my children were around me, 6 when my steps were washed with butter, and the rock poured out streams of oil for me; 7 when I went out to the city gate, when I prepared my seat in the street. 8 The young men saw me and hid themselves. The aged rose up and stood. 9 The princes refrained from saying anything, and laid their hand on their mouth. 10 The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth. 11 For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it commanded me: 12 Because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless also, who had no one to help him, 13 the blessing of him who was ready to perish came on me, and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. My judgment was as a robe and a diadem. 15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame. 16 I was a father to the needy. The cause of him who I did not know, I searched out. 17 I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, and plucked the prey out of his teeth. 18 Then I said, 'I shall die in my own house, I shall count my days as the sand. 19 My root is spread out to the waters. The dew lies all night on my branch. 20 My glory is fresh in me. My bow is renewed in my hand.'

21 "Men listened to me, waited, and kept silence for my counsel. 22 After my words they did not speak again. My saying fell on them. 23 They waited for me as for the rain. Their mouths drank as with the spring rain. 24 I smiled on them when they had no confidence. They did not reject the light of my face. 25 I chose out their way, and sat as chief. I lived as a king in the army, as one who comforts the mourners."

30 "But now those who are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs. 2 Of what use is the strength of their hands to me, a man in whom ripe age has perished? 3 They are gaunt from lack and famine. They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation. 4 They pluck salt herbs by the bushes. The roots of the broom are their food. 5 They are driven out from among men. They cry after them as after a thief; 6 so that they dwell in frightful wadis, and in holes of the earth and of the rocks. 7 Among the bushes they bray; and under the nettles they are gathered together. 8 They are children of fools, yes, children without a name. They were flogged out of the land.

^a 11 LXX and Lat. both read, "He searches out the streams." Instead of "He binds up the streams that they do not trickle."

9 "Now I have become their song. Yes, I am a bad saying to them. 10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, and do not hesitate to spit in my face. 11 For He has untied His cord, and afflicted me; and they have thrown off restraint before me. 12 On my right hand rise the rabble. They thrust aside my feet, they cast up against me their ways of destruction. 13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, without anyone's help. 14 As through a wide breach they come, in the middle of the desolation they roll themselves in. 15 Terrors have turned on me. They chase my honor as the wind. My welfare has passed away as a cloud.

16 "Now my being is poured out within me. Days of affliction have taken hold on me. 17 In the night season my bones are pierced in me, and the pains that gnaw me take no rest. 18 By great force is my garment disfigured. It binds me about as the collar of my coat. 19 He has cast me into the mire. I have become like dust and ashes. 20 I cry to You, and You do not answer me. I stand up, and You gaze at me. 21 You have turned to be cruel to me. With the might of Your hand You persecute me. 22 You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it. You dissolve me in the storm. 23 For I know that You will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all living.

24 "However, does one not stretch out a hand in his fall? Or in his calamity therefore cry for help? 25 Did I not weep for him who was in trouble? Was my being not grieved for the needy? 26 When I looked for good, then evil came; When I waited for light, there came darkness. 27 My gut boils, and does not rest. Days of affliction have come on me. 28 I go mourning without the sun. I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help. 29 I am a brother to monsters, and a companion to ostriches. 30 My skin grows black and peels from me. My bones are burned with heat. 31 Therefore my harp has turned to mourning, and my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

31 "I cut a covenant with my eyes; how then should I look lustfully at a virgin? 2 For what is the portion from Eloah above, and the heritage from the Almighty on high? 3 Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, and disaster to the workers of vain exertion? 4 Does He not see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 "If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to deceit, 6 let me be weighed in an even balance, that Eloah may know my integrity; 7 if my step has turned out of the way, if my heart walked after my eyes, if any defilement has stuck to my hands, 8 then let me sow, and let another eat. Yes, let my offspring be rooted out. 9 If my heart has been enticed to a woman, and I have laid wait at my neighbor's door, 10 then let my wife grind for another, and let others kneel over^a her. 11 For that would be lewdness. Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges. 12 For it is a fire that consumes to Avaddon, and would root out all my increase.

13 "If I have despised the judgment of my male servant or of my female servant, when they contended with me, 14 what then shall I do when El rises up? When He visits, what shall I answer Him? 15 Did He who made me in the womb not also make him? Did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 "If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, 17 or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it 18 (no, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, her I have guided from my mother's womb); 19 if I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or that the needy had no covering; 20 if his loins has not blessed me, if he has not been warmed with my sheep's fleece; 21 if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate, 22 then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and my arm be broken from the bone. 23 For calamity from El is a terror to me. Because of His majesty, I can do nothing.

24 "If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence;' 25 If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much; 26 if I have seen the sun when it shined, or the moon moving in splendor, 27 and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, 28 this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges; for I should have denied the El who is above. 29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him 30 (yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking his being with a curse); 31 if the men of my tent have not said, 'Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?' 32 (the sojourner has not camped in the street, but I have opened my doors to the traveler); 33 if like Adam I have covered my transgressions, by hiding my iniquity in my heart, 34 because I feared the great multitude, and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and did not go out of the door— 35 oh that I had one to hear me! Behold, here is my signature! Let the Almighty answer me! Let the accuser write my indictment! 36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; and I would bind it to me as a crown. 37 I would declare to Him the number of my steps. As a prince would I go near to Him. 38 If my land cries out against me, and its furrows weep together; 39 if I have eaten its fruits without money, or have caused its owners to lose their being, 40 let briers grow instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley." The words of Iyyov are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Iyyov, because he was righteous in his own eyes. 2 Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barakel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Iyyov. His wrath was kindled because he declared himself right, rather than Elohim. 3 Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Iyyov. 4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Iyyov, because they were elder than he. 5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

6 Elihu the son of Barakel the Buzite answered, "I am young, and you are very old; therefore I held back, and did not dare show you my opinion. 7 I said, 'Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.' 8 But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding. 9 It is not the great who are wise, nor the aged who understand judgment. 10 Therefore I said, 'Listen to me; I also will show my opinion.'

11 "Behold, I waited for your words, and I listened for your reasoning, while you searched out a saying.

12 Yes, I gave you my full attention, but there was no one who convinced Iyyov, or who answered his speeches, among you. 13 Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom, El may refute him, not man;' 14 for he has not directed his sayings against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 "They are dismayed. They do not answer, and have left of saying. 16 Shall I wait, because they do not speak, because they stand still, and answer no more? 17 I also will answer my part, and I also will show my opinion. 18 For I am full of sayings. The spirit in my belly constrains me. 19 Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; like new wineskins it is ready to burst. 20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed. I will open my lips and answer. 21 Please do not let me respect any man's person, neither will I give flattering titles to any man. 22 For I do not know how to give flattering titles; or else my Maker would soon take me away."

33 "However, Iyyov, please hear my sayings, and listen to all my words. 2 See now, I have opened my mouth. My tongue has spoken in my mouth. 3 My speeches shall utter the uprightness of my heart. That which my lips know they shall speak sincerely. 4 The Ruah of El has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life. 5 If you can, answer me. Set your words in order before me, and stand up. 6 Behold, I am toward El even as you are. I am also formed out of the clay. 7 Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my pressure be heavy on you.

8 "Surely you have spoken in my hearing, I have heard the voice of your sayings, 9 I am clean, without disobedience. I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me. 10 Behold, He finds occasions against me. He counts me for His enemy. 11 He puts my feet in the stocks. He guards all my paths.'

12 "Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not righteous, for Eloah is greater than man. 13 Why do you strive against Him, because He does not give account of any of His matters? 14 For El speaks once, yes twice, though man pays no attention. 15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, in slumbering on the bed; 16 Then He opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction, 17 That He may withdraw man from His purpose, and hide pride from man. 18 He keeps back his being from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. 19 He is chastened also with pain on his bed, with continual strife in his bones; 20 So that his life abhors bread, and his being dainty food. 21 His flesh is so consumed away, that it cannot be seen. His bones that were not seen stick out. 22 Yes, his being draws near to the pit, and his life to the destroyers.

23 "If there is a messenger beside him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show to man what is right for him; 24 then Elohim favors him, and says, 'Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom.' 25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's. He returns to the days of his youth. 26 He prays to Eloah, and He is favorable to him, so that he sees His face with joy. He restores to man his righteousness. 27 He sings before men, and says, 'I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it did not profit me. 28 He has redeemed my being from going into the pit. My life shall see the light.'

29 "Behold, El does all these things, twice, yes three times, with a man, 30 to bring back his being from the pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of the living. 31 Mark well, Iyyov, and listen to me. Hold your peace, and I will speak. 32 If you have a saying, answer me. Speak, for I desire to declare you right. 33 If not, listen to me. Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

34 Moreover Elihu answered, 2 "Hear my sayings, you wise men. Give ear to me, who have knowledge. 3 For the ear tries sayings as the palate tastes food. 4 Let us choose judgment for ourselves. Let us know among ourselves what is good. 5 For Iyyov has said, 'I am righteous, El has taken away my judgment: 6 notwithstanding my judgment I am considered a liar. My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience.' 7 What man is like Iyyov, who drinks scorn like water, 8 who goes in company with the workers of vain exertion, and walks with men of wickedness? 9 For he has said, 'It is not useful for a man that he should delight himself with Elohim.'

10 "Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: far be it from El, that He should do wickedness, from the Almighty, that He should commit unrighteousness. 11 For the work of a man He will render to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. 12 Yes surely, El will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment. 13 Who put Him in charge of the earth? Or who has appointed Him over the whole world? 14 If He set His heart on him, if He gathered to Himself his spirit and his breath, 15 all flesh would perish together, and man would turn again to dust.

16 "If now you have understanding, hear this. Listen to the voice of my sayings. 17 Shall even one who hates judgment govern? Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty? 18 Who says to a king, 'Worthless!' or to nobles, 'Wicked!?' 19 Who does not respect the persons of princes, nor respects the rich more than the poor; for they all are the work of His hands. 20 In a moment they die, even at midnight. The people are shaken and pass away. The mighty are taken away without a hand.

21 "For His eyes are on the ways of a man. He sees all his goings. 22 There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, where the workers of vain exertion may hide themselves. 23 For He does not need to consider a man further, that he should go before El in judgment. 24 He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding out, and sets others in their place. 25 Therefore He takes knowledge of their works. He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed. 26 He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others; 7 because they turned aside from following Him, and would not pay attention to any of His ways, 28 so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him. He heard the cry of the afflicted. 29 When He gives quietness, who then can condemn? When He hides His face, who then can see Him? Alike whether to a nation, or to a man, 30 that the profane man may not reign, that there be no one to ensnare the people.

31 "For has any said to El, 'I am guilty, but I will not offend any more. 32 Teach me that which I do not see.

If I have done unrighteousness, I will do it no more?" 33 Shall His recompense be as you desire, that you refuse it? For you must choose, and not I. Therefore speak what you know. 34 Men of understanding will tell me, yes, every wise man who hears me: 35 'Iyyov speaks without knowledge. His words are without wisdom.' 36 My desire is that Iyyov were tried to the end, because of his answering like men of vain exertion. 37 For he adds rebellion to his sin. He claps his hands among us, and multiplies his speeches against El."

35 Moreover Elihu answered, 2 "Do you think this is according to judgment, or do you say, 'My righteousness is more than that of El,' 3 That you ask, 'What use will it be to you? What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?' 4 I will say to you, and your companions with you. 5 Look to the heavens, and see. See the skies, which are higher than you. 6 If you have sinned, what effect do you have against Him? If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him? 7 If you are righteous, what do you give Him? Or what does He receive from your hand? 8 Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are, and your righteousness may profit a son of man.

9 "By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out. They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty. 10 But no one says, 'Where is Eloah my Maker, who gives songs in the night, 11 who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?' 12 There they cry, but no one gives answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely El will not hear an empty cry, neither will the Almighty regard it. 14 How much less when you say you do not see Him. The cause is before Him, and you wait for Him! 15 But now, because He has not visited in His anger, neither does He greatly regard arrogance.

16 Therefore Iyyov opens his mouth with empty talk, and he multiplies sayings without knowledge."

36 Elihu also continued, and said, 2 "Bear with me a little, and I will show you; for I still have a saying on the behalf of Eloah. 3 I will get my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker. 4 For truly my sayings are not false. One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

5 "Behold, El is mighty, and does not reject anyone. He is mighty in strength of heart. 6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked, but gives to the afflicted their judgment. 7 He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous, but with kings on the throne, He sets them forever, and they are exalted. 8 If they are bound in fetters, and are taken in the cords of afflictions, 9 then He shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly. 10 He also opens their ears to correction, and commands that they return from vain exertion. 11 If they listen and serve Him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures. 12 But if they do not listen, they shall perish by the sword; they shall die without knowledge.

13 "But those who are profane in heart lay up anger. They do not cry for help when he binds them. 14 They die in youth. Their life perishes among the unclean.

15 He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear in oppression. 16 Yes, He would have allured you out of distress, into a wide place, where there is no restriction. That which is set on your table would be full of fatness.

17 "But you are full of the judgment of the wicked. Judgment and justice take hold of you. 18 Do not let riches entice you to wrath, neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside. 19 Would your wealth sustain you in distress, or all the might of your strength? 20 Do not desire the night, when people are cut off in their place. 21 Be on guard, do not regard vain exertion; for you have chosen this rather than affliction. 22 Behold, El is exalted in His power. Who is a teacher like Him? 23 Who has prescribed His way for Him? Or who can say, 'You have committed unrighteousness'?

24 "Remember that you magnify His work, whereof men have sung. 25 All men have looked on it. Man sees it afar off. 26 Behold, El is great, and we do not know Him. The number of His years is unsearchable. 27 For He draws up the drops of water, which distill in rain from His vapor, 28 which the skies pour down and which drop on man abundantly. 29 Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds, and the thunderings of His pavilion? 30 Behold, He spreads His light around it. He covers the bottom of the sea. 31 For by these He judges the people. He gives food in abundance. 32 He covers His hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark. 33 Its noise tells about Him, and the livestock also concerning the storm that comes up."

37 "Yes, at this my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place. 2 Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice, the sound that goes out of His mouth. 3 He sends it out under the whole heavens, and His lightning to the ends of the earth. 4 After it a voice roars. He thunders with the voice of His majesty. He does not hold back anything when his voice is heard. 5 El thunders marvelously with His voice. He does great things, which we cannot comprehend. 6 For He says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth,' likewise to the shower of rain, and to the showers of His mighty rain. 7 He seals up the hand of every man, that all men whom He has made may know it. 8 Then the animals take cover, and remain in their dens. 9 Out of its room comes the storm, and cold out of the north. 10 By the breath of El, ice is given, and the width of the waters is frozen. 11 Yes, He loads the thick cloud with moisture. He spreads abroad the cloud of His lightning. 12 It is turned around by His guidance, that they may do whatever He commands them on the surface of the habitable world, 13 whether it is for correction, or for His land, or for loving-kindness, that He causes it to come.

14 "Listen to this, Iyyov. Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of El. 15 Do you know how Eloah controls them, and causes the lightning of His cloud to shine? 16 Do you know the workings of the clouds, the wondrous works of Him who is perfect in knowledge? 17 You whose clothing is warm, when the earth is still by reason of the south wind? 18 Can you, with Him, spread out the sky, which is strong as a cast metal mirror? 19 Teach us what we shall tell Him, for we cannot make our case by reason of darkness. 20 Will it be told Him that I would speak? Or should a man ask to be swallowed up? 21 Now men do not see the light which is bright in the skies, but the wind passes, and clears them. 22 Out of the north comes golden splendor. With Eloah is awesome majesty. 23 We cannot reach the Almighty. He is exalted in power. In judgment and great righteousness, He will not oppress. 24 Therefore men revere Him. He does not regard any who are wise of heart."

38 Then נָאָתָה answered Iyyov out of the whirlwind, 2 "Who is this who darkens counsel by sayings without knowledge? 3 Gird your loins like a man, for I will question you, then you answer Me!"

4 "Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if you have understanding. 5 Who determined its measures, if you know? Or who stretched the line on it? 6 Whereupon were its foundations fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone, 7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of Elohim shouted for joy?"

8 "Or who closed up the sea with doors, when it broke out of the womb, 9 when I made clouds its garment, and wrapped it in thick darkness, 10 marked out for it my bound, set bars and doors, 11 and said, 'Here you may come, but no further. Here your proud waves shall be stayed'?"

12 "Have you commanded the morning in your days, and caused the dawn to know its place; 13 that it might take hold of the ends of the earth, and shake the wicked out of it? 14 It is changed as clay under the seal, and presented as a garment. 15 From the wicked, their light is withheld. The high arm is broken."

16 "Have you entered into the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep? 17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death? 18 Have you comprehended the earth in its width? Declare, if you know it all.

19 "What is the way to the dwelling of light? As for darkness, where is its place, 20 that you should take it to its bound, that you should discern the paths to its house? 21 Surely you know, for you were born then, and the number of your days is great! 22 Have you entered the treasures of the snow, or have you seen the treasures of the hail, 23 which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war? 24 By what way is the lightning distributed, or the east wind scattered on the earth? 25 Who has cut a channel for the flood water, or the path for the thunderstorm; 26 To cause it to rain on a land where no man is; on the wilderness, in which there is no man; 27 to satisfy the waste and desolate ground, to cause the tender grass to grow? 28 Does the rain have a father? Or who fathers the drops of dew? 29 Out of whose womb came the ice? The gray frost of the heavens, who has given birth to it? 30 The waters become hard like stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen.

31 "Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion? 32 Can you lead the constellations out in their season? Or can you guide the Bear with her cubs? 33 Do you know the statutes of heavens? Can you establish its dominion over the earth?

34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover you? 35 Can you send out lightnings, that they may go? Do they report to you, 'Here we are?' 36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the mind? 37 Who can count the skies by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of the heavens, 38 when the dust runs into a mass, and the clods of earth stick together? 39 Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, or satisfy the stomach of the young lions, 40 when they crouch in their dens, and lie in wait in the thicket? 41 Who provides for the raven his prey, when his young ones cry to El, and wander for lack of food?"

39 "Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth? Do you guard when the doe bears fawns? 2 Can you count the months that they fulfill? Or do you know the time when they give birth? 3 They bow themselves, they bear their young. They end their labor pains. 4 Their young ones become strong. They grow up in the open field. They go out, and do not return again. 5 Who has set the wild donkey free? Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey, 6 whose home I have made the wilderness, and the salt land his dwelling place? 7 He scorns the tumult of the city, neither does he hear the shouting of the driver. 8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, he searches after every green thing.

9 "Will the wild ox be content to serve you? Or will he stay by your feeding trough? 10 Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with his harness? Or will he till the valleys after you? 11 Will you rely on him, because his strength is great? Or will you leave to him your labor? 12 Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed, and gather the grain of your threshing floor?

13 The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; but are they the feathers and plumage of love? 14 For she leaves her eggs on the earth, warms them in the dust, 15 and forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild animal may trample them. 16 She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers. Though her labor is in vain, she is without fear, 17 because Elohim has deprived her of wisdom, neither has he imparted to her understanding. 18 When she lifts up herself on high, she scorns the horse and his rider.

19 "Have you given the horse might? Have you clothed his neck with a quivering mane? 20 Have you made him to leap as a locust? The glory of his snorting is awesome. 21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength. He goes out to meet the armed men. 22 He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed, neither does he turn back from the sword. 23 The quiver rattles against him, the flashing spear and the javelin. 24 He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, neither does he stand still at the sound of the shofar. 25 As often as the shofar sounds he snorts, 'Aha!' He smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and stretches her wings toward the south? 27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up, and makes his nest on high? 28 On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home, on the point of the cliff, and the stronghold. 29 From there he spies out the prey. His eyes see it afar off. 30 His young ones also suck up blood. Where the slain are, there he is."

40 Moreover נָתַן answered Iyyov,

2 "Shall he who argues contend with the Almighty? He who argues with Eloah, let him answer it."

3 Then Iyyov answered נָתַן, 4 "Behold, I am of small account. What shall I answer you? I lay my hand on my mouth. 5 I have spoken once, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

6 Then בָּבֶן answered Iyyov out of the whirlwind,
7 "Now gird up your loins like a man. I will question you, and you will answer Me. 8 Will you even annul My judgment? Will you condemn Me, so that you may be declared right? 9 Or do you have an arm like El? Can you thunder with a voice like Him? 10 Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity. Array yourself with honor and majesty. 11 Pour out the fury of your anger. Look at everyone who is proud, and bring him low. 12 Look at everyone who is proud, and humble him. Crush the wicked in their place. 13 Hide them in the dust together. Bind their faces in the hidden place. 14 Then I will also admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

15 "See now, behemoth, which I made as well as you. He eats grass as an ox. 16 Look now, his strength is in his loins. His force is in the muscles of his belly. 17 He moves his tail like a cedar. The sinews of his thighs are knit together. 18 His bones are like tubes of copper. His limbs are like bars of iron. 19 He is the chief of the ways of El. He who made him draws near His sword.

20 Surely the mountains produce food for him, where all the animals of the field play. 21 He lies under the lotus trees, in the covert of the reed, and the marsh. 22 The lotuses cover him with their shade. The willows of the wadi surround him. 23 Behold, if a river overflows, he does not tremble. He is secure, though the Yarden swells even to his mouth. 24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch, or pierce through his nose with a snare?"

41 "Can you draw out Livyathan with a fish hook, or press down his tongue with a cord? 2 Can you put a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook? 3 Will he make many petitions to you, or will he speak soft words to you? 4 Will he cut a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever? 5 Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your girls? 6 Will traders barter for him? Will they part him among the merchants? 7 Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, or his head with fish spears? 8 Lay your hand on him. Remember the battle, and do so no more. 9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain. Will one not be cast down even at the sight of him? 10 None is so fierce that he dare stir him up. Who then is he who can stand before Me? 11 Who has first given to Me, that I should repay him? Everything under the heavens are Mine.

12 "I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame. 13 Who can strip off his outer garment? Who shall come within his jaws? 14 Who can open the doors of his face? Around his teeth is terror. 15 Strong scales are his pride, closed up together with a tight seal. 16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them. 17 They are joined to one another. They stick together, so that they cannot be pulled apart. 18 His sneezing flashes out light. His eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. 19 Out of his mouth go burning torches. Sparks of fire leap out. 20 Out of his nostrils a smoke goes, as of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds. 21 His being kindles coals. A flame goes out of his mouth. 22 There is strength in his neck. Terror dances before him. 23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together. They are firm on him. They cannot be moved. 24 His heart is as firm as a stone, yes, firm as the lower millstone. 25 When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid. They retreat before his thrashing. 26 If one attacks him with the sword, it cannot prevail; nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft. 27 He counts iron as straw; and copper as rotten wood. 28 The arrow cannot make him flee. Sling stones are like chaff to him. 29 Clubs are counted as stubble. He laughs at the rushing of the javelin. 30 His undersides are like sharp potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge. 31 He makes the deep to boil like a pot. He makes the sea like a pot of ointment. 32 He makes a path shine after him. One would think the deep had white hair. 33 On earth there is not his equal, that is made without fear. 34 He sees everything that is high. He is king over all the sons of pride."

42 Then Iyyov answered בָּבֶן, saying, 2 "I know that You can do all things, and that no purpose of Yours can be restrained. 3 You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. 4 You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer Me.' 5 I had heard of You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You. 6 Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

7 It was so, that after בָּבֶן had spoken these words to Iyyov, בְּנֵי הַדָּבָר said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Iyyov has. 8 Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Iyyov, and offer up for yourselves an ascension offering; and My servant Iyyov shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your senseless behavior. For you have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Iyyov has."

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Tsophar the Na'amathite went, and did what יְהוָה commanded them, and did what בְּנֵי הַדָּבָר accepted Iyyov. 10 יְהוָה turned the captivity of Iyyov, when he prayed for his friends. נָתָן gave Iyyov twice as much as he had before. 11 Then came there to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that נָזְרָה had brought on him. Everyone also gave him a piece of money, and everyone a ring of gold.

12 So נָזְרָה blessed the latter end of Iyyov more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys. 13 He had also seven sons and three daughters. 14 He called the name of the first, Yemimah; and the name of the second, Qetsiah; and the name of the third, Qeren Happukh. 15 In all the land were no women found as beautiful as the daughters of Iyyov. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. 16 After this Iyyov lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations. 17 So Iyyov died, being old and full of days.

Shir Ha'Shirim (Song of Songs)

1 The Song of songs, which is Shalomoh's.^a

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for your love is better than wine. 3 Your oils have a pleasing fragrance. Your name is oil poured out, therefore the maidens love you. 4 Take me away with you. Let us hurry. The king has brought me into his rooms.

We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will praise your love more than wine!

The upright love you. 5 I am dark, but lovely, you daughters of Yerushalayim, like Qedar's tents, like Shalomoh's curtains. 6 Do not stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me. My mother's sons were angry with me. They made me keeper of the vineyards. I have not kept my own vineyard. 7 Tell me, you whom my being loves, where you graze your flock, where you rest them at noon; for why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

8 If you do not know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of the sheep. Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents. 9 I have compared you, my darling, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots. 10 Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels. 11 We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver.

12 While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance. 13 My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts. 14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

15 Behold, you are beautiful, my darling. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves.

16 Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant; and our couch is verdant.

17 The beams of our house are cedars. Our rafters are firs.

2 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

2 As a lily among thorns, so is my darling among the daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, his fruit was sweet to my taste. 4 He brought me to the banquet hall. His banner over me is love.^b 5 Support me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples; for I am faint with love. 6 His left hand is under my head. His right hand embraces me. 7 I adjure you, daughters of Yerushalayim, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires. 8 The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes, leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills. 9 My beloved is like a roe or a young deer. Behold, he stands behind our wall! He looks in at the windows. He glances through the lattice. 10 My beloved spoke, and said to me, "Rise up, my darling, my beautiful one, and come away. 11 For, behold, the winter is past. The rain is over and gone. 12 The flowers appear on the earth. The time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land. 13 The fig tree ripens her green figs. The vines are in blossom. They give out their fragrance. Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, and come away."

14 My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places of the mountainside. Let me see your face. Let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely. 15 Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that plunder the vineyards; for our vineyards are in blossom.

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his. He browses among the lilies. 17 Until the day breathes,^c and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be like a roe or a young deer on the mountains of Bether.

3 By night on my bed, I sought him whom my being loves. I sought him, but I did not find him. 2 I will get up now, and go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my being loves. I sought him, but I did not find him. 3 The guards who go about the city found me; "Have you seen him whom my being loves?" 4 I had scarcely passed from them, when I found him whom my being loves. I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the room of her who conceived me. 5 I adjure you, daughters of Yerushalayim, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires. 6 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed

^a 1 The structure of Shir Ha'Shirim is written to indicate two primary contributors, usually called "the bride" and "the bridegroom." The gender of the words used in the text switches periodically between masculine and feminine, indicating a change of speakers. Occasionally the third person is used, possibly indicating a group commonly called "friends of the bridegroom."

^b 4 Banner over...is love – Idiom meaning "greatly love."

^c 17 Day breathes – Idiom meaning "dawn."

with myrrh and frankincense, with all spices of the merchant? 7 Behold, it is Shelomoh's carriage! Sixty mighty men are around it, of the mighty men of Yisra'el. 8 They all handle the sword, and are expert in war. Every man has his sword on his thigh, because of fear in the night. 9 King Shelomoh made himself a carriage of the wood of Levanon. 10 He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple, the middle of it being paved with love, from the daughters of Yerushalayim. 11 Go out, you daughters of Tsion, and see King Shelomoh, with the crown with which his mother has crowned him, in the day of his weddings, in the day of the gladness of his heart.

4 Behold, you are beautiful, my darling. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is as a flock of goats, that descend from Mount Gilad. 2 Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock, which have come up from the washing, where every one of them has twins. None is missing among them. 3 Your lips are like scarlet thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. 4 Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, whereon a thousand shields hang, all the shields of the mighty men. 5 Your two breasts are like two fawns that are twins of a roe, which feed among the lilies. 6 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, I will go to the mountain of myrrh, to the hill of frankincense. 7 You are altogether beautiful, my darling. There is no blemish in you. 8 Come with me from Levanon, my bride, with me from Levanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. 9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride. You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. 10 How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine! The fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices! 11 Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb. Honey and milk are under your tongue. The smell of your garments is like the smell of Levanon. 12 A locked up garden is my sister, my bride; a locked up spring, a sealed fountain. 13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits: henna with spikenard plants, 14 spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree; myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, 15 a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, flowing streams from Levanon.

16 Awake, north wind; and come, you south! Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and taste his precious fruits.

5 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Eat, friends! Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

2 I was asleep, but my heart was awake. It is the voice of my beloved who knocks: "Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my undefiled; for my head is filled with dew, and my hair with the dampness of the night." 3 I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on? I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them? 4 My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening. My gut hummed for him. 5 I rose up to open for my beloved. My hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock. 6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved left; and had gone away. My being went out when he spoke. I looked for him, but I did not find him. I called him, but he did not answer. 7 The guards who go about the city found me. They beat me. They bruised me. The guards of the walls took my cloak away from me. 8 I adjure you, daughters of Yerushalayim, if you find my beloved, that you tell him that I am faint with love.

9 How is your beloved better than another beloved, you fairest among women? How is your beloved better than another beloved, that you do so adjure us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy. The best among ten thousand. 11 His head is like the purest gold. His hair is bushy, black as a raven. 12 His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks, washed with milk, mounted like jewels. 13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes. His lips are like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh. 14 His hands are like rings of gold set with beryl. His gut is like bright ivory overlaid with sapphires. 15 His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine gold. His appearance is like Levanon, excellent as the cedars. 16 His mouth is sweetness; yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, daughters of Yerushalayim.

6 Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women? Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

2 My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. 3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. He browses among the lilies.

4 You are beautiful, my darling, as Tirtsah, lovely as Yerushalayim, awesome as an army with banners.

5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they have assured me. Your hair is like a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilad. 6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, which have come up from the washing; of which every one has twins; no one is bereaved among them. 7 Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. 8 There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and maidens without number. 9 My dove, my perfect one, is unique. She is her mother's only daughter. She is the favorite one of her who bore her. The daughters saw her, and called her blessed; the queens and the concubines, and they praised her. 10 Who is she who looks out as the morning, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun, and awesome as an army with banners? 11 I went down into the nut tree grove, to see the blossoms of the wadi, to see whether the vine budded, and the pomegranates were in flower. 12 Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

13 Return, return, Shulammite! Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammite, as at the dance of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O nobleman's daughter! The curves of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful workman. 2 Your navel is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is lacking. Your belly is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies. 3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle. 4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Levanon which looks toward Dammeseq. 5 Your head on you is like Karmel. The hair of your head like purple. The king is held captive in its locks. 6 How beautiful and how pleasant you are, love, with your dainties! 7 This, your stature, is like a palm tree, your breasts like its clusters. 8 I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree. I will take hold of its fruit-stalks." And now it shall be, your breasts are like clusters of the vine, the smell of your nose like apples.

9 And the roof of your mouth is like the good wine, that goes down in smoothness for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep. 10 I am my beloved's. His turning is toward me. 11 Come, my beloved, let us go out into the field. Let us lodge in the villages. 12 Let us go early up to the vineyards. Let us see whether the vine has budded, its blossom is open, and the pomegranates are in flower. There I will give you my love. 13 The mandrakes give a scent. At our doors are all kinds of excellent fruits, new and old, which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

8 Oh that you were like my brother, who nursed from the breasts of my mother! If I found you outside, I would kiss you; yes, and no one would despise me. 2 I would lead you, bringing you into my mother's house, who would instruct me. I would cause you to drink spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate. 3 His left hand would be under my head. His right hand would embrace me. 4 I adjure you, daughters of Yerushalayim, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires.

5 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved? Under the apple tree I aroused you. There your mother was in travail with you. There she was in travail that brought you forth.^a 6 Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm; for love is strong as death. Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a very flame of הַנִּירָא.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, he would be utterly scorned.

8 We have a little sister. She has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for? 9 If she is a wall, we will build on her a turret of silver. If she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers, then I was in his eyes like one who found peace. 11 Shelomoh had a vineyard at Ba'al Hamon. He leased out the vineyard to keepers. Each was to bring a thousand sheqels of silver for its fruit. 12 My own vineyard is before me. The thousand are for you, Shelomoh; two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

13 You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice!

14 Come away, my beloved! Be like a gazelle or a young fawn on the mountains of spices!

^a Hebrew word translated as "travail" here is הַבָּרֶךְ (habal), meaning literally "to bind tightly" and is often given the association of a tightly knit band of corrupt men. The Lat.

renders this sentence as, "there your mother was corrupted, there she that brought you forth was deflowered."

Ruth

1 In the days when the judges judged, there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Beth-lehem Yehudah went to live in the country of Moav, he, and his wife, and his two sons. 2 The name of the man was Elimelekh, and the name of his wife was Naomi. The names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem Yehudah. They came into the country of Moav, and lived there. 3 Elimelekh, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left with her two sons. 4 They took for themselves wives of the women of Moav. The name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other was Ruth. They lived there about ten years.

5 Mahlon and Kilion both died, and the woman was bereaved of her two children and of her husband.

6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moav; for she had heard in the country of Moav how יְהוָה had visited His people in giving them bread. 7 She went out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her. They went on the way to return to the land of Yehudah. 8 Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house. May יְהוָה deal in loving-kindness with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. 9 May יְהוָה grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices, and wept.

10 They said to her, "No, but we will return with you to your people."

11 Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Do I still have sons in my gut, that they may be your husbands? 12 Go back, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, 'I have hope,' if I should even have a husband tonight, and should also bear sons; 13 would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from having husbands? No, my daughters, for it grieves me seriously for your sakes, for the hand of יְהוָה has gone out against me."

14 They lifted up their voices, and wept again; then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth joined with her. 15 She said, "Behold, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people, and to her elohim. Follow your sister-in-law."

16 Ruth said, "Do not urge me to leave you, and to return from following you; for where you go, I will go, and where you stay, I will stay. Your people will be my people, and your Elohim will be my Elohim. 17 Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May יְהוָה do so to me, and more also, if anything but death parts you and me."

18 When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her.

19 So they both went until they came to Beth-lehem. When they had come to Beth-lehem, all the city was excited about them, and they asked, "Is this Naomi?"

20 She said to them, "Do not call me Naomi^a. Call me Mara^b; for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, and יְהוָה has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since יְהוָה has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?" 22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moavitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moav. They came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

2 Naomi had a relative of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelekh, and his name was Boaz. 2 Ruth the Moavitess said to Naomi, "Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I find favor." She said to her, "Go, my daughter."

3 She went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelekh.

4 Behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said to the reapers, "May יְהוָה be with you." They answered him, "May יְהוָה bless you."

5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

6 The servant who was set over the reapers answered, "It is the young Moavite woman who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moav. 7 She said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that she rested a little in the house."

^a 20 נָעִמָה (Naomi) means "pleasant."

^b 20 מָרָא (Mara) means "bitter."

8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field, and do not go from here, but stay here close to my maidens. 9 Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink from that which the young men have drawn."

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take knowledge of me, since I am a foreigner?"

11 Boaz answered her, "I have been fully told about all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you did not know before.

12 May יְהוָה repay your work, and a full reward be given to you from יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, under whose wings you have come to take refuge." 13 Then she said, "Let me find favor in your eyes, my master, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken from your heart to your servant, though I am not as one of your servants."

14 At meal time Boaz said to her, "Come here, and eat some bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar." She sat beside the reapers, and they passed her parched grain, and she ate, and was satisfied, and left some of it. 15 When she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her. 16 Also pull out some for her from the bundles, and leave it. Let her glean, and do not rebuke her."

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening; and she beat out that which she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley. 18 She took it up, and went into the city. Then her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned; and she brought out and gave to her that which she had left after she had enough. 19 Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? Where have you worked? Blessed be he who noticed you." She told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz." 20 Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by יְהוָה, who has not left off His loving-kindness to the living and to the dead." Naomi said to her, "The man is a close relative to us, one of our kinsman-redeemers." 21 Ruth the Moavitess said, "Yes, he said to me, 'You shall stay close to my young men, until they have finished all my harvest.'"

22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, and that they not meet you in any other field." 23 So she stayed close to the maidens of Boaz, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

3 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? 2 Now is Boaz not our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? Behold, he will be winnowing barley tonight on the threshing floor. 3 Therefore wash yourself, anoint yourself, get dressed, and go down to the threshing floor, but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 It shall be, when he lies down, that you shall note the place where he is lying. Then you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lay down. Then he will tell you what to do."

5 She said to her, "All that you say, I will do." 6 She went down to the threshing floor, and did everything that her mother-in-law told her. 7 When Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. She came softly, uncovered his feet, and laid down. 8 At midnight, the man was startled and turned himself; and behold, a woman lay at his feet. 9 He said, "Who are you?" She answered, "I am Ruth your servant. Therefore spread the corner of your garment over your servant; for you are a kinsman-redeemer."

10 He said, "You are blessed by יְהוָה, my daughter. You have shown more loving-kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, because you did not follow young men, whether poor or rich. 11 Now, my daughter, do not be afraid. I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people knows that you are a woman of valor.

12 Now it is true that I am a kinsman-redeemer.

However, there is a kinsman-redeemer nearer than I.

13 Stay this night, and in the morning, if he will redeem you, good. Let him redeem you^a. But if he will not redeem you, then I will redeem you, as יְהוָה lives. Lie down until the morning."

14 She lay at his feet until the morning, then she rose up before one could discern another. For he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

15 He said, "Bring the mantle that is on you, and hold it." She held it; and he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her; then he went into the city.

16 When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "How did it go, my daughter?" She told her all that the man had done for her. 17 She said, "He gave me these six measures of barley; for he said, 'Do not go empty to your mother-in-law.'" 18 Then she said, "Wait, my daughter, until you know what will happen; for the man will not rest until he has settled this today."

4 Now Boaz went up to the gate, and sat down there. And behold, the kinsman-redeemer of whom Boaz spoke came by. He said to him, "Come over here, friend, and sit down!" He turned aside, and sat down. 2 He took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here," and they sat down.

3 He said to the kinsman-redeemer, "Naomi, who has come back out of the country of Moav, is selling the parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelekh's. 4 I thought I should tell you, saying, 'Buy it before those who sit here, and before the elders of my people.' If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know. For there is no one to redeem it besides you, and I am after you." And he said, "I will redeem it."

5 And Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must buy it also from Ruth the Moavitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance." 6 And the kinsman-redeemer said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption for yourself; for I cannot redeem it."

7 Now this was the custom in former time in Yisra'el concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a man took off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was the witness in Yisra'el.

8 So the kinsman-redeemer said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself," then he took off his shoe.

9 Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, "You are witnesses today, that I have bought all that was Elimelekh's, and all that was Kilion's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi. 10 Moreover Ruth the Moavitess, the wife of Mahlon, I have purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today."

11 All the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May תְּהִלָּה make the woman who has come into your house like Raheil and like Leah, which both built the house of Yisra'el; and treat you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Beth-lehem. 12 Let your house be like the house of Perets, whom Tamar bore to Yehudah, of the seed which תְּהִלָּה will give you by this young woman."

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and תְּהִלָּה enabled her to conceive, and she brought forth a son. 14 The women said to Naomi, "Blessed be תְּהִלָּה, who has not ceased from you today without a near kinsman-redeemer. Let his name be famous in Yisra'el. 15 He shall be to you a restorer of your being, and sustain you in your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him." 16 Naomi took the child, and laid him in her bosom, and became a faithful nurse to him. 17 The women, her neighbors, gave him a name, saying, "A son is born to Naomi." They named him Oved. He is the father of Yishai, the father of David.

18 Now this is the history of the generations of Perets: Perets brought forth Hetsron, 19 and Hetsron brought forth Ram, and Ram brought forth Amminadav, 20 and Amminadav brought forth Nahshon, and Nahshon brought forth Salmon, 21 and Salmon brought forth Boaz, and Boaz brought forth Oved, 22 and Oved brought forth Yishai, and Yishai brought forth David.

Eikhah (Lamentations)

1 א (Alef)

1 How the city sits solitary, that was full of people! She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations! She who was a princess among the provinces has become a slave!

ב (Bet)

2 She weeps bitterly in the night. Her tears are on her cheeks. Among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her. All her friends have dealt deceitfully with her. They have become her enemies.

ג (Gimel)

3 Yehudah has gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great service. She dwells among the nations. She finds no rest. All her persecutors overtook her within the straits.

ד (Dalet)

4 The roads to Tsion mourn, because no one comes to the solemn assembly. All her gates are desolate. Her priests sigh. Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

ה (Hey)

5 Her adversaries have become the head. Her enemies prosper; for יְהוָה has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions. Her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary.

ו (Vav)

6 All majesty has departed from the daughter of Tsion. Her princes have become like deer that find no pasture. They have gone without strength before the pursuer.

ז (Zayin)

7 Yerushalayim remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old; when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her. The adversaries saw her. They mocked at her desolations.

ח (Het)

8 Yerushalayim has grievously sinned. Therefore she has become unclean. All who honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness. Yes, she sighs, and turns backward.

ט (Tet)

9 Her filthiness was in her skirts. She did not remember her latter end. Therefore she has come down astoundingly. She has no comforter. "See, יְהוָה, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself."

י (Yod)

10 The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things; for she has seen that the nations have entered into her set-apart place, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

כ (Kaf)

11 All her people sigh. They seek bread. They have given their pleasant things for food to refresh their being. "Look, יְהוָה", and see; for I have become despised."

ל (Lamed)

12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me, with which יְהוָה has afflicted me in the day of His fierce anger.

מ (Mem)

13 "From on high has He sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them. He has spread a net for my feet. He has turned me back. He has made me desolate and I am sick^a all day long.

נ (Nun)

14 "The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand. They are knit together. They have come up on my neck. He made my strength fail. יְהוָה has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

ס (Samekh)

15 "יְהוָה has set at nothing all my mighty men within me. He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men. יְהוָה has trodden the virgin daughter of Yehudah as in a wine press.

ע (Ayin)

16 "For these things I weep. My eye, my eye runs down with water, because the comforter who should refresh my being is far from me. My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed."

פ (Pe)

17 Tsion spreads out her hands. There is no one to comfort her. יְהוָה has commanded concerning Ya'aqov, that those who are around him should be his adversaries. Yerushalayim is among them as an unclean thing.

ש (Tsade)

18 "תְּבִדֵּל is righteous; for I have rebelled against His command. Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow. My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

ת (Qof)

19 "I called for my lovers, but they deceived me. My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city, while they sought food for themselves to refresh their beings.

ר (Resh)

20 "Look, תְּבִדֵּל; for I am in distress. My gut is troubled. My heart turns over within me, for I have grievously rebelled. Abroad, the sword bereaves. At home, it is like death.

ש (Shin)

21 "They have heard that I sigh. There is no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble. They are glad that You have done it. You will bring the day that You have proclaimed, and they will be like me.

ט (Tav)

22 "Let all their wickedness come before You. Do to them as You have done to me for all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2 א (Alef)

1 How has תְּבִדֵּל covered the daughter of Tsion with a cloud in His anger! He has cast the beauty of Yisra'el down from heavens to earth, and has not remembered His footstool in the day of His anger.

ב (Bet)

2 תְּבִדֵּל has swallowed up all the dwellings of Ya'aqov without pity. He has thrown down in His wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Yehudah. He has brought them down to the ground. He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

ג (Gimel)

3 He has cut off all the horn of Yisra'el in fierce anger. He has drawn back His right hand from before the enemy. He has burned up Ya'aqov like a flaming fire, which devours all around.

ד (Daleth)

4 He has bent His bow like an enemy. He has stood with His right hand as an adversary. Has killed all that were pleasant to the eye. In the tent of the daughter of Tsion, He has poured out His wrath like fire.

ה (Hey)

5 תְּבִדֵּל has become as an enemy. He has swallowed up Yisra'el. He has swallowed up all her palaces. He has destroyed His strongholds. He has multiplied mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Yehudah.

ו (Vav)

6 He has violently taken away His Tabernacle, as if it were of a garden. He has destroyed His place of assembly. תְּבִדֵּל has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Tsion. In the indignation of His anger, He has despised the king and the priest.

ז (Zayin)

7 תְּבִדֵּל has cast off His altar. He has abhorred His set-apart place. He has given the walls of her palaces into the hand of the enemy. They have made a noise in the house of תְּבִדֵּל, as in the day of a solemn assembly.

ח (Het)

8 תְּבִדֵּל has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Tsion. He has stretched out the line. He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying; He has made the rampart and wall lament. They wither together.

ט (Tet)

9 Her gates have sunk into the ground. He has destroyed and broken her bars. Her king and her princes are among the nations where the Torah is no more. Yes, her prophets find no vision from תְּבִדֵּל.

י (Yod)

10 The elders of the daughter of Tsion sit on the ground. They keep silence. They have cast up dust on their heads. They have clothed themselves with sackcloth. The virgins of Yerushalayim hang down their heads to the ground.

כ (Kaf)

11 My eyes fail with tears. My gut is troubled. My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.

ל (Lamed)

12 They ask their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?" when they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their being is poured out into their mothers' bosom.

מ (Mem)

13 What shall I testify to you? What shall I liken to you, daughter of Yerushalayim? What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Tsion? For your breach is as big as the sea. Who can heal you?

׃(Nun)

14 Your prophets have seen false and foolish visions for you. They have not uncovered your iniquity, to reverse your captivity, but have seen for you false revelations and causes of banishment.

ם(Samekh)

15 All that pass by clap their hands at you. They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Yerushalayim, saying, "Is this the city that men called 'The perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth'?"

ׁ(Ayin)

16 All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you. They hiss and gnash their teeth. They say, "We have swallowed her up. Certainly this is the day that we looked for. We have found it. We have seen it."

ׂ(Pe)

17 יְהוָה has done that which He planned. He has fulfilled His speeches that He commanded in the days of old. He has thrown down, and has not pitied. He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you. He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

ׄ(Tsade)

18 Their heart cried to יְהוָה. O wall of the daughter of Tsion, let tears run down like a wadi day and night. Give yourself no relief. Do not let your eyes rest.

׆(Qof)

19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches! Pour out your heart like water before the face of הַנּוּן. Lift up your hands toward Him for the being of your young children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

׈(Resh)

20 "Look, יְהוָה, and see to whom You have done thus! Should the women eat their offspring, the children that they held and bounced on their knees? Should the priest and the prophet be killed in the set-apart place of יְהוָה?"

ׁ(Shin)

21 "The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets. My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword. You have killed them in the day of Your anger. You have slaughtered, and not pitied.

ׅ(Tav)

22 "You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side. There was no one that escaped or remained in the day of the anger of הַנּוּן. My enemy has consumed those whom I have cared for and brought up.

ׁ(Alef)

1 I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of His wrath. 2 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light. 3 Surely He turns His hand against me again and again all day long.

ׂ(Bet)

4 He has made my flesh and my skin old. He has broken my bones. 5 He has built against me, and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship. 6 He has made me dwell in dark places, as those who have been long dead.

ׁ(Gimel)

7 He has walled me about, so that I cannot go out. He has made my chain heavy. 8 Yes, when I cry, and call for help, He shuts out my prayer. 9 He has walled up my ways with cut stone. He has made my paths crooked.

׆(Dalet)

10 He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places. 11 He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces. He has made me desolate. 12 He has bent His bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

ׄ(Hey)

13 He has caused the shafts of His quiver to enter into my kidneys. 14 I have become a derision to all my people, and their song all day long. 15 He has filled me with bitterness. He has stuffed me with wormwood.

ׁ(Vav)

16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel. He has covered me with ashes. 17 You have removed my being far away from peace. I forgot prosperity. 18 I said, "My strength has perished, along with my expectation from הַנּוּן."

׈(Zayin)

19 Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the bitterness. 20 My being still remembers them, and is bowed down within me. 21 This I recall to my heart; therefore I have hope.

׆(Het)

22 It is because of the loving-kindnesses of יְהוָה that we are not consumed, because His compassion does not fail. 23 They are new every morning. Great is Your faithfulness. 24 "הַנּוּן is my portion," says my being. "Therefore I will hope in Him."

ׁ(Tet)

25 הַנּוּן is good to those who wait for Him, to the being who seeks Him. 26 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of יְהוָה. 27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

ו (Vav)

6 For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown as in a moment. No hands were laid on her.

ז (Zayin)

7 Her separated ones were purer than snow. They were whiter than milk. They were more ruddy in body than rubies. Their polishing was like sapphire.

ח (Het)

8 Their appearance is blacker than a coal. They are not known in the streets. Their skin clings to their bones. It is withered. It has become like a stick.

ט (Tet)

9 Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger; for these pine away, stricken through, for lack of the fruits of the field.

י (Yod)

10 The hands of the pitiful women have cooked their own children. They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

כ (Kaf)

11 הַנְּאָזֶן has accomplished His wrath. He has poured out His fierce anger. He has kindled a fire in Tsion, which has devoured its foundations.

ל (Lamed)

12 The kings of the earth did not believe, neither did all the inhabitants of the world, that the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Yerushalayim.

מ (Mem)

13 It is because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the middle of her.

נ (Nun)

14 They wander as blind men in the streets. They are polluted with blood, so that men cannot touch their garments.

ס (Samekh)

15 "Go away!" they cried to them. "Unclean! Go away! Go away! Do not touch! When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, "They cannot live here anymore."

ע (Ayin)

16 The anger of הַנְּאָזֶן has scattered them. He will not pay attention to them anymore. They did not respect the persons of the priests. They did not favor the elders.

פ (Pe)

17 Our eyes still fail, looking in vain for our help. In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.

צ (Tsade)

18 They hunt our steps, so that we cannot go in our streets. Our end is near. Our days are fulfilled, for our end has come.

ק (Qof)

19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heavens. They chased us on the mountains. They set an ambush for us in the wilderness.

ר (Resh)

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of הַנְּאָזֶן, was taken in their pits; of whom we said, under his shadow we will live among the nations.

ש (Shin)

21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwells in the land of Uz. The cup will pass through to you also. You will be drunken, and will make yourself naked.

ת (Tav)

22 Your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Tsion. He will no more carry you away into captivity. He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom. He will uncover your sins.

5 Remember, הַנְּאָזֶן, what has come on us. Look, and see our reproach. 2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our houses to foreigners.

3 We are orphans and fatherless. Our mothers are as widows. 4 We have drunken our water for money. Our wood is sold to us. 5 Our pursuers are on our necks. We are weary, and have no rest. 6 We have given our hands to the Mitsrites, and to the Ashuwrites, to be satisfied with bread. 7 Our fathers sinned, and are no more. We have borne their iniquities. 8 Servants rule over us. There is no one to deliver us out of their hand. 9 We get our bread at the peril of our beings, because of the sword of the wilderness. 10 Our skin is black like an oven, because of the burning heat of famine. 11 They ravished the women in Tsion, the virgins in the cities of Yehudah.

12 Princes were hanged up by their hands. The faces of elders were not honored. 13 The young men carry millstones. The children stumbled under loads of wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, and the young men from their music. 15 The joy of our heart has ceased. Our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned! 17 For this our heart is sick^a. For these things our eyes are dim. 18 For the mountain of Tsion, which is desolate. The foxes walk on it.

19 You, יְהוָה, remain forever. Your throne is from generation to generation. 20 Why do You forget us forever, and forsake us for so long a time? 21 Turn us to Yourself, יְהוָה, and we will be turned. Renew our days as of old. 22 But You have utterly rejected us. You are very angry against us.

קָהֶלֶת

Qoheleth (Ecclesiastes)

1 The words of the Qoheleth^a, the son of David, king in Yerushalayim:

2 "Vanity of vanities," says the Qoheleth; "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." 3 What does man gain from all his toil in which he labors under the sun? 4 One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. 5 The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. 6 The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. 7 All the wadis run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the wadis flow, there they flow again. 8 All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. 9 That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is nothing new under the sun. 10 Is there a thing of which it may be said, "Behold, this is new?" It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. 11 There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

12 I, the Qoheleth, was king over Yisra'el in Yerushalayim. 13 I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the heavens. It is a heavy burden that Elohim has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is lacking cannot be counted. 16 I said in my heart, "Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Yerushalayim. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." 17 I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. 18 For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

2 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;" and behold, this also was vanity. 2 I said of laughter, "It is foolishness;" and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"

3 I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under the heavens all the days of their lives. 4 I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. 5 I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. 6 I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. 7 I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Yerushalayim; 8 I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. 9 So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Yerushalayim. My wisdom also remained with me.

10 Whatever my eyes desired, I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my toil, and this was my portion from all my toil. 11 Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the toil that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. 13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. 14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. 15 Then I said in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then wiser?" Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. 16 For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool!

17 So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 18 I hated all my toil in which I labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. 19 Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my toil in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

^a 1 קָהֶלֶת (Qoheleth) – Hebrew word typically rendered as "proclaimer." It literally means "the assembler" or "the collector." This in the sense of leading an assembly, or lecturing.

20 Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the toil in which I had labored under the sun. 21 For there is a man whose toil is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22 For what has a man of all his toil, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? 23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. 24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his being enjoy good in his toil. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of Elohim. 25 For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? 26 For to the man who pleases Him, Elohim gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner He gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that He may give to him who pleases Elohim. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

3 For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heavens: 2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; 3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; 6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to guard, and a time to cast away; 7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; 8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

9 What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? 10 I have seen the burden which Elohim has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man cannot find out the work that Elohim has done from the beginning even to the end. 12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. 13 Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his toil, is the gift of Elohim. 14 I know that whatever Elohim does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and Elohim has done it, that men should fear before him. 15 That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and Elohim seeks again that which is passed away.

16 Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. 17 I said in my heart, "Elohim will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." 18 I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, Elohim tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. 19 For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. 20 All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. 21 Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

22 Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. 2 Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. 3 Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. 4 Then I saw all the toil and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

5 The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. 6 Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with toil and chasing after wind.

7 Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. 8 There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his toil, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. "For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my being of enjoyment?" This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business.

9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. 10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and does not have another to lift him up. 11 Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? 12 If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who does not know how to receive admonition any more. 14 For out of prison he came out to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. 15 I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him.

16 There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

5 Guard your steps when you go to the house of Elohim; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil. 2 Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to utter anything before Elohim; for Elohim is in heavens, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. 3 For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. 4 When you vow a vow to Elohim, do not defer to pay it; for He has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. 5 It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. 6 Do not allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Do not protest before the messenger that this was done unknowingly. Why should Elohim be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? 7 For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear Elohim.

8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of judgment and righteousness in a district, do not marvel at the matter: for one official is guarded by a higher one; and there are officials over them.

9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

10 He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. 11 When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth guarded by its owner to his harm. 14 Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. 15 As he came out of his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his toil, which he may carry away in his hand. 16 This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? 17 All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

18 Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his toil, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which Elohim has given him; for this is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom Elohim has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his toil—this is the gift of Elohim. 20 For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because Elohim occupies him with the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: 2 a man to whom Elohim gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his being of all that he desires, yet Elohim gives him no power to eat of it, but a foreigner eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his being is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: 4 for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. 5 Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other.

6 Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, do not all go to one place? 7 All the toil of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. 8 For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? 9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the being. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. 10 Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. 11 For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? 12 For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

7 A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. 2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of banquets: for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. 3 Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. 4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. 5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. 6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. 7 Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. 8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning. The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. 9 Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. 10 Do not say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

11 Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. 12 For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

13 Consider the work of Elohim, for who can make straight, that which He has made crooked? 14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, Elohim has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

15 All this I have seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. 16 Do not be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? 17 Do not be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? 18 It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also do not withdraw your hand from that; for he who fears Elohim will come out of them all. 19 Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. 20 Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and does not sin. 21 Also do not take to your heart to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; 22 for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. 23 All this I have proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. 24 That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? 25 I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

26 I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases Elohim shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

27 "Behold, I have found this," says the Qoheleth, "to one another, to find out the scheme; 28 which my being still seeks; but I have not found. I have found one man among a thousand; but I have not found a woman among all those. 29 Behold, I have only found this: that Elohim made man upright; but they search for many schemes."

8 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. 2 I say, "Guard the king's command!" because of the oath to Elohim. 3 Do not be hasty to go out of his presence. Do not persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, 4 for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" 5 Whoever guards the command shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and judgment. 6 For there is a time and judgment for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. 7 For he does not know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? 8 There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

9 All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt.

10 So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from set-apartness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. 11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. 12 Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear Elohim, who are reverent before him. 13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he does not fear Elohim.

14 There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. 15 Then I commanded mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his toil all the days of his life which Elohim has given him under the sun.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), 17 then I saw all the work of Elohim, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he will not find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he will not be able to find it.

9 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of Elohim; whether it is love or hatred, man does not know it; all is before them.

2 All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good,^a to the clean, to the unclean, to him who slaughters, and to him who does not slaughter. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. 3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4 For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. 5 For the living know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. 6 Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

7 Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for Elohim has already accepted your works. 8 Let your garments be always white, and do not let your head lack oil. 9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your toil in which you labor under the sun. 10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you are going.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all.

12 For man also does not know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. 14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. 15 Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 Then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. 17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. 18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to produce an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. 3 Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his heart fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. 4 If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for gentleness lays great sins to rest.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of thing done unknowingly which proceeds from the ruler. 6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. 7 I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. 8 He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a nahash. 9 Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby. 10 If the ax is blunt, and one does not sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success.

11 If the nahash bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue. 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are favorable; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. 14 A fool also multiplies words. Man does not know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? 15 The toil of fools wearies every one of them; for he does not know how to go to the city.

16 Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning! 17 Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks. 19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad; and money is the answer for all things. 20 Do not curse the king, no, not in your thoughts; and do not curse the rich in your bedroom: for a bird of the heavens may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters; for you shall find it after many days. 2 Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you do not know what evil will be on the earth.

3 If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be. 4 He who guards the wind will not sow; and he who regards the clouds will not reap. 5 As you do not know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; even so you do not know the work of Elohim who does all. 6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand; for you do not know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun. 8 Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity. 9 Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things Elohim will bring you into judgment. 10 Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;" 2 Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain; 3 in the day when the guards of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened, 4 and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; 5 yes, they shall be afraid of heights, and terrors will be on the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets: 6 Remember him before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the spring, or the wheel broken at the cistern, 7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to Elohim who gave it. 8 "Vanity of vanities," says the Qoheleth. "All is vanity!"

9 Further, because the Qoheleth was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. 10 The Qoheleth sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. 11 The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. 12 Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 Let us hear the end of the matter: fear Elohim, and guard His commands: for this is for all mankind. 14 For Elohim will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Hadassah (Esther)

1 Now in the days of Ahashverosh (this is Ahashverosh who reigned from Hodu even to Kush, over one hundred twenty-seven provinces), 2 in those days, when the King Ahashverosh sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace, 3 in the third year of his reign, he made a banquet for all his princes and his servants; the power of Paras and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him. 4 He displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred eighty days. 5 When these days were fulfilled, the king made a seven day banquet for all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. 6 There were hangings of white, green, and blue material, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble. 7 They gave them drinks in golden vessels of various kinds, including royal wine in abundance, according to the hand^a of the king. 8 In accordance with the decree, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had instructed all the officials of his house, that they should do according to every man's will.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a banquet for the women in the royal house which belonged to King Ahashverosh.

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harvonah, Bigha, and Avagtha, Zethar, and Karkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Ahashverosh the king, 11 to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to show the people and the princes her beauty; for she was beautiful. 12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command by the eunuchs. Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him.

13 Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times (for it was the king's custom to consult those who knew decree and judgment; 14 and the next to him were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memukan, the seven princes of Paras and Media, who saw the king's face,^b and sat first in the kingdom), 15 "What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to decree, because she has not done the bidding of the King Ahashverosh by the eunuchs?"

16 Memukan answered before the king and the princes, "Vashti the queen has not done wrong to just the king, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the King Ahashverosh. 17 For this deed of the queen will become known to all women, causing them to show contempt for their husbands, when it is reported, 'King Ahashverosh commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she did not come.' 18 Today, the princesses of Paras and Media who have heard of the queen's deed will tell all the king's princes. This will cause much contempt and wrath.

19 "If it please the king, let a royal command go from him, and let it be written among the decrees of the Parasiens and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before King Ahashverosh; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. 20 When the king's edict which he shall make is published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give their husbands honor, both great and small."

21 This advice pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memukan. 22 for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, that every man should rule his own house, speaking in the language of his own people.

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahashverosh was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. 2 Then the king's servants who served him said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. 3 Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Shushan, to the women's house, to the custody of Hegai the king's eunuch, guard of the women. Let cosmetics be given them; 4 and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." The thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5 There was a certain Yehudite in the citadel of Shushan, whose name was Mordekhai, the son of Yair, the son of Shimi, the son of Qish, a Benyamite, 6 who had been carried away from Yerushalayim with the captives who had been carried away with Yekonyah king of Yehudah, whom Nevukhadnetsar the king of Bavel had carried away. 7 He was the faithful nurturing father of Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother. The maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordekhai took her for his own daughter.

^a 7 According to the hand – Idiom meaning "according to the generosity."

^b 14 Saw...face – Idiom meaning "had access to."

8 So, when the king's word and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to the citadel of Shushan, to the custody of Hegai, Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, guard of the women. 9 The maiden pleased him, and she obtained loving-kindness from him. He quickly gave her cosmetics and her portions of food, and the seven choice maidens who were to be given her out of the king's house. He moved her and her maidens to the best place in the women's house. 10 Esther had not made known her people nor her relatives, because Mordekhai had instructed her that she should not make it known. 11 Mordekhai walked every day in front of the court of the women's house, to find out how Esther was doing, and what would become of her.

12 Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahashverosh after her purification for twelve new moons (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, six new moons with oil of myrrh, and six new moons with sweet fragrances and with preparations for beautifying women). 13 The young woman then came to the king like this: whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the women's house to the king's house. 14 In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second women's house, to the custody of Sha'ashgaz, the king's eunuch, who guarded the concubines. She came in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name. 15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Avihayil the uncle of Mordekhai, who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the guard of the women, advised. Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked at her.

16 So Esther was taken to King Ahashverosh into his royal house in the tenth new moon, which is the new moon Tevet, in the seventh year of his reign. 17 The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she obtained favor and loving-kindness in his eyes more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. 18 Then the king made a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, even Esther's banquet; and he proclaimed a rest in the provinces, and gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

19 When the virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordekhai was sitting in the king's gate. 20 Esther had not yet made known her relatives nor her people, as Mordekhai had commanded her; for Esther obeyed

Mordekhai, like she did when she was brought up by him. 21 In those days, while Mordekhai was sitting in the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bighan and Teresh, who were doorkeepers, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the King Ahashverosh. 22 This thing became known to Mordekhai, who informed Esther the queen; and Esther informed the king in Mordekhai's name. 23 When this matter was investigated, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence.

3 After these things King Ahashverosh promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. 2 All the king's servants who were in the king's gate knelt, and bowed down to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordekhai did not kneel or bow down to him. 3 Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordekhai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?" 4 Now it came about, when they spoke daily to him, and he did not listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordekhai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Yehudite. 5 When Haman saw that Mordekhai did not kneel, nor bow down, Haman was full of wrath. 6 But he scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordekhai alone, for they had made known to him Mordekhai's people. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Yehudim who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahashverosh, even Mordekhai's people.

7 In the first new moon, which is the new moon Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahashverosh, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from new moon to new moon, and chose the twelfth new moon, which is the new moon Adar. 8 Haman said to King Ahashverosh, "There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom, and their decrees are different than other people's. They do not keep the king's decrees. Therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them to remain. 9 If it pleases the king, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who are in charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

10 The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Yehudim. 11 The king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good in your eyes."

12 Then the king's scribes were called in on the first new moon, on the thirteenth day; and all that Haman commanded was written to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of King Ahashverosh, and it was sealed with the king's ring. 13 Letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Yehudim, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth new moon, which is the new moon Adar, and to plunder their spoils. 14 A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. 15 The couriers went out in haste by the king's command, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Shushan. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

4 Now when Mordekhai found out all that was done, Mordekhai tore his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the middle of the city, and wailed loudly and bitterly. 2 He came even before the king's gate, for no one is allowed inside the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. 3 In every province, wherever the king's word and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Yehudim, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and told her this, and the queen was exceedingly grieved. She sent clothing to Mordekhai, to replace his sackcloth; but he did not receive it. 5 Then Esther called for Hathakh, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to attend her, and commanded him to go to Mordekhai, to find out what this was, and why it was. 6 So Hathakh went out to Mordekhai, to city square which was before the king's gate. 7 Mordekhai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Yehudim. 8 He also gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to urge her to go in to the king, to seek favor from him, and to make request before him, for her people.

9 Hathakh came and told Esther the words of Mordekhai. 10 Then Esther spoke to Hathakh, and gave him a message to Mordekhai: 11 "All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, know, that whoever, whether man or woman, comes to the king into the inner court without being called, there is one decree for him, that he be put to death, except those to whom the king might hold out the golden scepter, that he may live. I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days."

12 They told Esther's words to Mordekhai. 13 Then Mordekhai asked them to return this answer to Esther: "Do not think to yourself that you will escape in the king's house any more than all the Yehudim. 14 For if you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will come to the Yehudim from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows if you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

15 Then Esther asked them to answer Mordekhai, 16 "Go, gather together all the Yehudim who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my maidens will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the decree; and if I perish, I perish." 17 So Mordekhai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

5 Now on the third day, Esther put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, next to the king's house. The king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, next to the entrance of the house. 2 When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favor in his eyes; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther came near, and touched the top of the scepter. 3 Then the king asked her, "What would you like, queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom."

4 Esther said, "If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5 Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, so that it may be done as Esther has said." So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 The king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed."

7 Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this. 8 If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said."

9 Then Haman went out that day joyful and glad of heart, but when Haman saw Mordekhai in the king's gate, that he did not stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordekhai. 10 Nevertheless Haman restrained himself, and went home. There, he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife.

11 Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the multitude of his children, all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. 12 Haman also said, "Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together with the king. 13 Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordekhai the Yehudite sitting at the king's gate."

14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the king about hanging Mordekhai on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet." This pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

6 On that night, the king could not sleep. He commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the king. 2 It was found written that Mordekhai had told of Bighana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the King Ahashverosh. 3 The king said, "What honor and dignity has been given to Mordekhai for this?" Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

4 The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordekhai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 The king's servants said to him, "Behold, Haman stands in the court." The king said, "Let him come in." 6 So Haman came in. The king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor?" Now Haman said in his heart, "Who would the king delight to honor more than myself?" 7 Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, 8 let royal clothing be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a royal crown is set. 9 Let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man whom the king delights to honor with them, and have him ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor'!"

10 Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordekhai the Yehudite, who sits at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken."

11 Then Haman took the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordekhai, and had him ride through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!"

12 Mordekhai came back to the king's gate, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered. 13 Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordekhai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Yehudite seed, you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before him." 14 While they were yet talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 The king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition, queen Esther? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed."

3 Then Esther the queen answered, "If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it please the king, let my being be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. 4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for male and female slaves, I would have held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's loss."

5 Then King Ahashverosh said to Esther the queen, "Who is he, and where is he who dared presume in his heart to do so?"

6 Esther said, "An adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman!" Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. 7 The king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden. Haman stood up to make request for his being to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. 8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he even subdue the queen in front of me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 Then Harvonah, one of the eunuchs who were with the king said, "Behold, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordekhai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at Haman's house." The king said, "Hang him on it!"

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordekhai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

8 On that day, King Ahashverosh gave the house of Haman, the enemy of the Yehudim, to Esther the queen. Mordekhai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her. 2 The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordekhai. Esther set Mordekhai over the house of Haman.

3 Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Yehudim. 4 Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. 5 She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his eyes, and the thing seem right to the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Yehudim who are in all the king's provinces. 6 For how can I endure to see the evil that would come to my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives?"

7 Then King Ahashverosh said to Esther the queen and to Mordekhai the Yehudite, "See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged on the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Yehudim.

8 Write also to the Yehudim, as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may not be reversed by any man."

9 Then the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third new moon, which is the new moon Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written according to all that Mordekhai commanded to the Yehudim, and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from Hodu to Kush, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Yehudim in their writing, and in their language.

10 He wrote in the name of King Ahashverosh, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bred from swift steeds. 11 In those letters, the king granted the Yehudim who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to defend their being, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to plunder their spoils, 12 on one day in all the provinces of King Ahashverosh, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth new moon, which is the new moon Adar. 13 A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that the Yehudim should be ready for that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. 14 So the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's command. The decree was given out in the citadel of Shushan.

15 Mordekhai went out of the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan shouted and was glad. 16 The Yehudim had light, gladness, joy, and honor. 17 In every province, and in every city, wherever the king's command and his decree came, the Yehudim had gladness, joy, a banquet, and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Yehudim; for the fear of the Yehudim was fallen on them.

9 Now in the twelfth new moon, which is the new moon Adar, on the thirteenth day, when the king's command and his decree came near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Yehudim hoped to conquer them, (but it was turned out the opposite happened, that the Yehudim conquered those who hated them), 2 the Yehudim gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the King Ahashverosh, to lay hands on those who wanted to harm them. No one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen on all the people.

3 All the princes of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and those who did the king's business helped the Yehudim, because the fear of Mordekhai had fallen on them. 4 For Mordekhai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordekhai grew greater and greater. 5 The Yehudim struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what to those who hated them as they willed. 6 In the citadel of Shushan, the Yehudim killed and destroyed five hundred men. 7 They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, 8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, 9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha, 10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Yehudim, but they did not lay their hand on the plunder.

11 On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Shushan was brought before the king.

12 The king said to Esther the queen, "The Yehudim have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Shushan, including the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your further request? It shall be done."

13 Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Yehudim who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

14 The king commanded this to be done. A decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. 15 The Yehudim who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the new moon Adar, and killed three hundred men in Shushan; but they did not lay their hand on the plunder. 16 The other Yehudim who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, defended their beings, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hand on the plunder.

17 This was done on the thirteenth day of the new moon Adar; and on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of banquets and gladness. 18 But the Yehudim who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth days; and on the fifteenth they rested, and made it a day of banquets and gladness. 19 Therefore the Yehudim of the villages, who live in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the new moon Adar a day of gladness and banquets, a good day, and a day of sending presents of food to one another.

20 Mordekhai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Yehudim who were in all the provinces of the King Ahashverosh, both near and far, 21 to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the new moon Adar yearly, 22 as the days in which the Yehudim had rest from their enemies, and the new moon which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of banquets and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy. 23 The Yehudim accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordekhai had written to them; 24 because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Yehudim, had plotted against the Yehudim to destroy them, and had cast "Pur", that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; 25 but when this became known to the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Yehudim, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Therefore they called these days "Purim," from the word "Pur." Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, 27 the Yehudim established, and imposed on themselves, and on their seed, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to what was written, and according to its appointed time, every year; 28 and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Yehudim, nor their memory perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Avihayil, and Mordekhai the Yehudite, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. 30 He sent letters to all the Yehudim, to the hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahashverosh, with words of peace and truth, 31 to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, as Mordekhai the Yehudite and Esther the queen had decreed, and as they had imposed upon themselves and their seed, in the matter of the fastings and their cry. 32 The command of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

10 King Ahashverosh laid a tribute on the land, and on the islands of the sea. 2 All the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordekhai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Paras? 3 For Mordekhai the Yehudite was next to King Ahashverosh, and great among the Yehudim, and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

Ezra

1 Now in the first year of Koresh king of Paras, that the word of יְהוָה by Yirmayah's mouth might be accomplished, נָתַן stirred up the spirit of Koresh king of Paras, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, 2 "Thus says Koresh king of Paras, נָתַן, the Elohim of the heavens, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and He has commanded me to build Him a house in Yerushalayim, which is in Yehudah. 3 Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his Elohim be with him, and let him go up to Yerushalayim, which is in Yehudah, and build the house of נָתַן, the Elohim of Yisra'el (He is Elohim), which is in Yerushalayim. 4 Whoever is left, in any place where he lives, let the men of his place help him with silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, besides the freewill offering for the house of Elohim which is in Yerushalayim."

5 Then the heads of fathers' households of Yehudah and Benyamin, the priests, and the Levites, all whose spirit Elohim had stirred to go up rose up to build the house of נָתַן which is in Yerushalayim. 6 All those who were around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. 7 Also Koresh the king brought out the vessels of the house of נָתַן, which Nevukhadnetsar had brought out of Yerushalayim, and had put in the house of his eloheim; 8 even those, Koresh king of Paras brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to Sheshbatsar, the prince of Yehudah. 9 This is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, one-thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, 10 thirty bowls of gold, four-hundred and ten silver bowls of a second sort, and one-thousand other vessels. 11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five-thousand and four-hundred. Sheshbatsar brought all these up when the captives were brought up from Bavel to Yerushalayim.

2 Now these are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nevukhadnetsar the king of Bavel had carried away to Bavel, and who returned to Yerushalayim and Yehudah, everyone to his city; 2 who came with Zerubbavel, Yeshua, Nehemyah, Serayah, Reelayah, Mordekhai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Ba'anah. The number of the men of the people of Yisra'el:

3 The children of Parosh, two-thousand one-hundred seventy-two. 4 The children of Shephatyah, three-hundred seventy-two. 5 The children of Arah, seven-hundred seventy-five. 6 The children of Pahath-Moav, of the children of Yeshua and Yoav, two-thousand eight-hundred twelve. 7 The children of Elam, one-thousand two-hundred fifty-four. 8 The children of Zattu, nine-hundred forty-five. 9 The children of Zakai, seven hundred sixty. 10 The children of Vani, six-hundred forty-two. 11 The children of Bebai, six-hundred twenty-three. 12 The children of Azgad, one-thousand two-hundred twenty-two. 13 The children of Adoniqam, six-hundred sixty-six. 14 The children of Bigvai, two-thousand fifty-six. 15 The children of Adin, four-hundred fifty-four. 16 The children of Ater, of Hizqiyah, ninety-eight. 17 The children of Betsai, three-hundred twenty-three. 18 The children of Yorah, one-hundred twelve. 19 The children of Hashum, two-hundred twenty-three. 20 The children of Gibbar, ninety-five. 21 The children of Beth-lehem, one-hundred twenty-three. 22 The men of Netophah, fifty-six. 23 The men of Anathoth, one-hundred twenty-eight. 24 The children of Azmaveth, forty-two. 25 The children of Qiryath Arim, Kephirah, and Beeroth, seven-hundred forty-three. 26 The children of Ramah and Geva, six-hundred twenty-one. 27 The men of Mikmas, one-hundred twenty-two. 28 The men of Beth-El and Ai, two-hundred twenty-three. 29 The children of Nevo, fifty-two. 30 The children of Magbish, one-hundred fifty-six. 31 The children of the other Elam, one-thousand two-hundred fifty-four. 32 The children of Harim, three-hundred twenty. 33 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven-hundred twenty-five. 34 The children of Yeriho, three-hundred forty-five. 35 The children of Sena'ah, three thousand six hundred thirty.

40 The Levites: the children of Yeshua and Qadmi'el, of the children of Hodavyah, seventy-four. 41 The singers: the children of Asaph, one-hundred twenty-eight.

59 These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Ḥarsha, Keruv, Addan, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, and their seed, whether they were of Yisra'el: 60 the children of Delayah, the children of Toviyah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two. 61 Of the children of the priests: the children of Ḥavayah, the children of Haqots, and the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Giladite, and was called after their name. 62 These sought their place among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they deemed disqualified and removed from the priesthood. 63 The governor told them that they should not eat of the most set-apart things until a priest stood up to serve with Urim and with Thummim.

64 The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three-hundred sixty, 65 besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven-thousand three-hundred thirty-seven; and they had two-hundred singing men and singing women. 66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; 67 their camels, four-hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six-thousand seven-hundred twenty.

68 Some of the heads of fathers' households, when they came to the house of תְּהִלָּה which is in Yerushalayim, offered willingly for the house of Elohim to set it up in its place. 69 They gave according to their ability into the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, and five-thousand minas of silver, and one-hundred priests' tunics.

70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Temple servants, lived in their cities, and all Yisra'el in their cities.

3 When the seventh new moon had come, and the children of Yisra'el were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Yerushalayim. 2 Then Yeshua the son of Yotsadaq stood up with his brothers the priests, and Zerubbavel the son of Shealti'el and his brothers, and built the altar of the Elohim of Yisra'el, to offer ascension offerings on it, as it is written in the Torah of Mosheh the man of Elohim. 3 In spite of their fear because of the peoples of the surrounding lands, they set the altar on its base; and they offered ascension offerings on it to תְּהִלָּה, even ascension offerings morning and evening. 4 They kept the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily ascension offerings by number, according to the judgment, as the duty of every day required; 5 and afterward the continual ascension offering, the offerings of the new moons, of all the set Feasts of תְּהִלָּה that were set apart, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to תְּהִלָּה. 6 From the first day of the seventh new moon, they began to offer ascension offerings to תְּהִלָּה; but the foundation of the Temple of תְּהִלָּה was not yet laid. 7 They also gave money to the masons, and to the carpenters. They also gave food, banquet drink, and oil to the people of Tsidon and Tsor, to bring cedar trees from Levanon to the sea, to Yapho, according to the grant that they had from Koresh King of Paras.

8 Now in the second year of their coming to the house of Elohim at Yerushalayim, in the second new moon, Zerubbavel the son of Shealti'el, and Yeshua the son of Yotsadaq, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Yerushalayim, began the work and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the house of תְּהִלָּה. 9 Then Yeshua stood with his sons and his brothers, Qadmi'el and his sons, the sons of Yehudah, together, to have the oversight of the workmen in the house of Elohim: the sons of Ḥenadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites. 10 When the builders laid the foundation of the Temple of תְּהִלָּה, they set the priests in their clothing with trumpets, with the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise תְּהִלָּה, according to the directions of David king of Yisra'el. 11 They sang to one another in praising and giving thanks to יְהוָה, "For He is good, for His loving-kindness endures forever toward Yisra'el." All the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised יְהוָה, because the foundation of the house of יְהוָה had been laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' households, the old men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice. Many also shouted aloud for joy, 13 so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard far away.

4 Now when the adversaries of Yehudah and Benyamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a Temple to יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el; 2 they came near to Zerubbavel, and to the heads of fathers' households, and said to them, "Let us build with you; for we seek your Elohim, as you do; and we have been slaughtering to him since the days of Esar-Haddon king of Ashuwr, who brought us up here."

3 But Zerubbavel and Yeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' households of Yisra'el, said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our Elohim; but we ourselves together will build to יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, as King Koresh the king of Paras has commanded us."

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Yehudah, and troubled them in building.

5 They hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Koresh king of Paras, even until the reign of Dareyavesh king of Paras. 6 In the reign of Ahashverosh, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Yehudah and Yerushalayim.

7 In the days of Artahshashta, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tave'el, and the rest of his companions, wrote to Artahshashta king of Paras; and the writing of the letter was written in Aramaic, and translated in the Aramaic.^a 8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Yerushalayim to Artahshashta the king as follows, 9 then Rehum the chancellor, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathkites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Arkevites, the Bavelians, the Shushankites, the Dehaites, the Elamites, 10 and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asenappar brought over, and set in the city of Shom'ron, and in the rest of the country beyond the River, and so forth, wrote. 11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent: "To King Artahshashta, from your servants the men beyond the River.

12 Let it be known to the king that the Yehudain who came up from you have come to us to Yerushalayim. They are building the rebellious and bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations. 13 Be it known now to the king that if this city is built and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings. 14 Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and informed the king, 15 that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. You will see in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have started rebellions within it in the past. That is why this city was destroyed. 16 We inform the king that, if this city is built and the walls finished, then you will have no possession beyond the River."

17 Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who live in Shom'ron, and in the rest of the country beyond the River: "Peace."

18 The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. 19 I decreed, and search has been made, and it was found that this city has made insurrection against kings in the past, and that rebellion and revolts have been made in it. 20 There have also been mighty kings over Yerushalayim, who have ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them. 21 Make a decree now to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree is made by me. 22 Be careful that you not be slack doing so. Why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?"

23 Then when the copy of King Artahshashta's letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Yerushalayim to the Yehudain, and made them to cease by force of arms.

24 Then work stopped on the house of Elah which is at Yerushalayim. It stopped until the second year of the reign of Dareyavesh king of Paras.

5 Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zekharyah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Yehudain who were in Yehudah and Yerushalayim. They prophesied to them in the name of the Elah of Yisra'el. 2 Then Zerubbavel the son of Shealti'el and Yeshua the son of Yotsadaq rose up and began to build the house of Elah which is at Yerushalayim; and with them were the prophets of Elah, helping them. 3 At the same time Tattenai, the governor beyond the River came to them, with Shetharbozenai, and their companions, and asked them, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" 4 They also asked for the names of the men who were making this building. 5 But the eye of their Elah was on the elders of the Yehudain, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Dareyavesh, and an answer should be returned by letter concerning it.

6 The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and his companions the Apharsakites, who were beyond the River, sent to Dareyavesh the king follows. 7 They sent a letter to him, in which was written: "To Dareyavesh the king, all peace.

8 "Be it known to the king that we went into the province of Yehudah, to the house of the great Elah, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls. This work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. 9 Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, 'Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?' 10 We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. 11 Thus they returned us answer, saying, 'We are the servants of the Elah of the heavens and the earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Yisra'el built and finished. 12 But after that our fathers had provoked the Elah of the heavens to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel, the Kaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Bavel. 13 But in the first year of Koresh king of Bavel, Koresh the king made a decree to build this house of Elah. 14 The gold and silver vessels of the house of Elah, which Nevukhadnetsar took out of the Temple that was in Yerushalayim, and brought into the temple of Bavel, those Koresh the king also took out of the temple of Bavel, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbatsr, whom he had made governor. 15 He said to him, "Take these vessels, go, put them in the Temple that is in Yerushalayim, and let the house of Elah be built in its place." 16 Then the same Sheshbatsr came and laid the foundations of the house of Elah which is in Yerushalayim. Since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed.'

17 "Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Bavel, whether it is so, that a decree was made of Koresh the king to build this house of Elah at Yerushalayim; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter."

6 Then Dareyavesh the king made a decree, and the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Bavel, was searched. 2 A scroll was found at Ahmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, and in it this was written for a record:

3 "In the first year of Koresh the king, Koresh the king made a decree: Concerning the house of Elah at Yerushalayim, let the house be built, the place where they offer slaughterings, and let its foundations be strongly laid; with its height sixty cubits, and its width sixty cubits; 4 with three courses of great stones and a course of new timber. Let the expenses be given out of the king's house. 5 Also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of Elah, which Nevukhadnetsar took out of the Temple which is at Yerushalayim, and brought to Bavel, be restored and brought again to the Temple which is at Yerushalayim, everything to its place. You shall put them in the house of Elah."

6 "Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your companions the Apharsakites, who are beyond the River, you must stay far from there. 7 Leave the work of this house of elah alone; let the governor of the Yehudain and the elders of the Yehudain build this house of Elah in its place.

8 Moreover I make a decree what you shall do for these elders of the Yehudain for the building of this house of Elah: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses must be given with all diligence to these men, that they not be hindered. 9 That which they have need of, including young bulls, rams, and lambs, for ascension offerings to the Elah of the heavens; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Yerushalayim, let it be given them day by day without fail; 10 that they may offer slaughterings of pleasant aroma to the Elah of the heavens, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. 11 I have also made a decree that whoever alters this message, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened on it; and let his house be made a dunghill for this. 12 May the Elah who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who stretch out their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of Elah which is at Yerushalayim. I Dareyavesh have made a decree. Let it be done with all diligence."

13 Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their companions did accordingly with all diligence, because Dareyavesh the king had sent a decree.

14 The elders of the Yehudain built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zekharyah the son of Iddo. They built and finished it, according to the command of the Elohim of Yisra'el, and according to the decree of Koresh, Daryavesh, and Artahshashta king of Paras. 15 This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Daryavesh the king.

16 The children of Yisra'el, the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of Elah with joy. 17 They offered at the dedication of this house of Elah one-hundred bulls, two-hundred rams, four-hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Yisra'el, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Yisra'el.

18 They set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of Elah, which is at Yerushalayim, as it is written in the book of Mosheh.

19 The children of the captivity kept the Pesah on the fourteenth day of the first new moon. 20 Because the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together, all of them were pure. They killed the Pesah for all the children of the captivity, for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. 21 The children of Yisra'el who had returned out of the captivity, and all who had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, ate, 22 and kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; because יְהוָה had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Ashuwr to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of Elohim, the Elohim of Yisra'el's house.

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artahshashta king of Paras, Ezra the son of Serayah, the son of Azaryah, the son of Hilqiyah, 2 the son of Shallum, the son of Tsadoq, the son of Ahituv, 3 the son of Amaryah, the son of Azaryah, the son of Meraioth, 4 the son of Zerahyah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Buqi, 5 the son of Avishua, the son of Pinehas, the son of Elazar, the son of Aharon the chief priest—6 this Ezra went up from Bavel. He was a skilled scribe in the Torah of Mosheh, which יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of יְהוָה his Elohim that was on him. 7 Some of the children of Yisra'el, including some of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Temple servants went up to Yerushalayim in the seventh year of Artahshashta the king. 8 He came to Yerushalayim in the fifth new moon, which was in the seventh year of the king. 9 For on the first day of the first new moon he began to go up from Bavel; and on the first day of the fifth new moon he came to Yerushalayim, according to the good hand of his Elohim on him. 10 For Ezra had set his heart to seek the Torah of יְהוָה, and to do it, and to teach statutes and judgments in Yisra'el.

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the King Artahshashta gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of commands of יְהוָה, and of His statutes to Yisra'el:

12 "Artahshashta, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the decree of the perfect Elah of the heavens.^a 13 I make a decree, that all those of the people of Yisra'el, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, who intend of their own free will to go to Yerushalayim, go with you. 14 Because you are sent by the king and his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Yehudah and Yerushalayim, according to the decree of your Elah which is in your hand, 15 and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the Elah of Yisra'el, whose habitation is in Yerushalayim, 16 and all the silver and gold that you will find in all the province of Bavel, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their Elah which is in Yerushalayim; 17 therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your Elah which is in Yerushalayim. 18 Whatever seems good in your eyes and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that according to the will of your Elah.

19 The vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your Elah, deliver before the Elah of Yerushalayim. 20 Whatever more will be needed for the house of your Elah, which you may have occasion to give, give it out of the king's treasure house.

21 "I, even I Artahshashta the king, make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the decree of the Elah of the heavens, requires of you, it shall be done with all diligence, 22 up to one-hundred talents of silver, and to one-hundred cors of wheat, and to one-hundred baths of wine, and to one-hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. 23 Whatever is commanded by the Elah of the heavens, let it be done exactly for the house of the Elah of the heavens; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 "Also we inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll, on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Temple servants, or laborers of this house of Elah.

25 "You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your Elah that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, who all know the decrees of your Elah; and teach him who does not know them. 26 Whoever will not do the decree of your Elah and the decree of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it is to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment."

^a 12 The text of Ezra 7:12-26 is in Aramaic.

27 Blessed be יהוה, the Elohim of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of יהוה which is in Yerushalayim; 28 and has extended loving-kindness to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. I was strengthened according to the hand of יהוה my Elohim that was on me, and I gathered together chief men out of Yisra'el to go up with me.

8 Now these are the heads of their fathers' households, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Bavel, in the reign of Artahshashta the king: 2 Of the sons of Pinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Dani'el. Of the sons of David, Hattush. 3 Of the sons of Shekanyah, of the sons of Parosh, Zekharyah; and with him were listed by genealogy of the males one-hundred fifty. 4 Of the sons of Pahath-Moav, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahyah; and with him two-hundred males. 5 Of the sons of Shekanyah, the son of Yahazi'el; and with him three-hundred males. 6 Of the sons of Adin, Eved the son of Yonathan; and with him fifty males. 7 Of the sons of Elam, Yeshayah the son of Athalyah; and with him seventy males. 8 Of the sons of Shephatyah, Zevadyah the son of Mikha'el; and with him eighty males. 9 Of the sons of Yoav, Ovadyah the son of Yehi'el; and with him two-hundred eighteen males. 10 Of the sons of Shelomith, the son of Yosiphyah; and with him one-hundred sixty males. 11 Of the sons of Bebai, Zekharyah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males. 12 Of the sons of Azgad, Yoḥanan the son of Haqqatan; and with him one-hundred ten males. 13 Of the sons of Adonikam, who were the last; and these are their names: Eliphelet, Yeu'el, and Shemayah; and with them sixty males. 14 Of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy males.

15 I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I looked around at the people the priests, and found there were none of the sons of Levi. 16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ari'el, for Shemayah, for Elnathan, for Yariv, for Elnathan, for Nathan, for Zekharyah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Yoyeriv and for Elnathan, who were teachers. 17 I sent them out to Iddo the chief at the place Kasiphia; and I told them what they should tell Iddo, and his brothers the Temple servants, at the place Kasiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our Elohim. 18 According to the good hand of our Elohim on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Yisra'el; and Sherevyah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen; 19 and Hashavyah, and with him Yeshayah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty; 20 and of the Temple servants, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two-hundred twenty Temple servants. All of them were mentioned by name.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the Ahava River, that we might humble ourselves before our Elohim, to seek from Him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our possessions. 22 For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our Elohim is on all those who seek Him, for good; but His power and His wrath is against all those who forsake Him." 23 So we fasted and begged our Elohim for this: and He granted our request.

24 Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherevyah, Hashavyah, and ten of their brothers with them, 25 and weighed to them the silver, the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our Elohim, which the king, his counselors, his princes, and all Yisra'el there present, had offered. 26 I weighed into their hand six-hundred fifty talents of silver, one-hundred talents of silver vessels; one-hundred talents of gold, 27 twenty bowls of gold weighing one-thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright copper, precious as gold. 28 I said to them, "You are set-apart to יהוה, and the vessels are set-apart. The silver and the gold are a freewill offering to יהוה, the Elohim of your fathers.

29 Watch and guard them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' households of Yisra'el, at Yerushalayim, in the rooms of the house of יהוה."

30 So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Yerushalayim to the house of our Elohim. 31 Then we departed from the Ahava River on the twelfth day of the first new moon, to go to Yerushalayim. The hand of our Elohim was on us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way. 32 We came to Yerushalayim, and stayed there three days. 33 On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our Elohim into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriyah the priest; and with him was Elazar the son of Pinehas; and with them was Yozavad the son of Yeshua, and Noadyah the son of Binnui, the Levite; 34 everything by number and by weight; and all the weight was written at that time.

35 The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered ascension offerings to the Elohim of Yisra'el, twelve bulls for all Yisra'el, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering. All this was an ascension offering to יְהוָה.

36 They delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the River. So they supported the people and the house of Elohim.

9 Now when these things were done, the princes came near to me, saying, "The people of Yisra'el, the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, following their abominations, even those of the Kena'anites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Yevusites, the Ammonites, the Moavites, the Mitsrites, and the Amorites. 2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the set-apart seed have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands. Yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass."

3 When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled the hair out of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded. 4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of the Elohim of Yisra'el were assembled to me, because of their trespass of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering.

5 At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to יְהוָה my Elohim; 6 and I said, "My Elohim, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to You, my Elohim; for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. 7 Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is today. 8 Now for a little moment favor has been shown from יְהוָה our Elohim, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in His set-apart place, that our Elohim may lighten our eyes, and revived us a little in our bondage. 9 For we are bondservants; yet our Elohim has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving-kindness to us in the eyes of the kings of Paras, to revive us, to set up the house of our Elohim, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Yehudah and in Yerushalayim.

10 "Now, our Elohim, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commands, 11 which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land, to which You go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. 12 Now therefore do not give your daughters to their sons. Do not take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever."^a 13 "After all that has come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, since You, our Elohim, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant, 14 shall we again break Your commands, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? Would You not be angry with us until You had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant, nor any to escape? 15 יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, You are righteous; for we are left a remnant that has escaped, as it is today. Behold, we are before You in our guiltiness; for no one can stand before You because of this."

10 Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of Elohim, there was gathered together to him out of Yisra'el a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very bitterly. 2 Shekanyah the son of Yehi'el, one of the sons of Elam, answered Ezra, "We have trespassed against our Elohim, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land. Yet now there is hope for Yisra'el concerning this thing. 3 Now therefore let us cut a covenant with our Elohim to put away all the wives, and those who as are born of them, according to the counsel of my master, and of those who tremble at the command of our Elohim. Let it be done according to the Torah. 4 Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you. Be strengthened, and do it."

5 Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Yisra'el, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore. 6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of Elohim, and went into the room of Yehohanan the son of Elyashiv. When he came there, he ate no bread, nor drank water; for he mourned because of their trespass of the captivity. 7 They made a proclamation throughout Yehudah and Yerushalayim to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Yerushalayim; 8 and that whoever did not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his possessions should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity. 9 Then all the men of Yehudah and Benyamin gathered themselves together to Yerushalayim within the three days. It was the ninth new moon, on the twentieth day of the new moon; and all the people sat in the wide place in front of the house of Elohim, trembling because of this matter, and because of the great rain.

10 Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Yisra'el. 11 Now therefore make confession to הָאֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of your fathers, and do His will; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women."

12 Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "As you have said concerning us, so must we do. 13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside. This is not a work of one day or two, for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. 14 Now let our princes be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our Elohim is turned from us, until this matter is resolved."

15 Only Yonathan the son of Asah'el and Yahzeyah the son of Tikvah stood up against this; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. 16 The children of the captivity did so. Ezra the priest, with certain heads of fathers' households, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were set apart; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth new moon to examine the matter. 17 They finished with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first new moon.

18 Among the sons of the priests there were found who had married foreign women: of the sons of Yeshua, the son of Yotsadaq, and his brothers, Ma'aseyah, and Eliezer, and Yariv, and Gedalyah. 19 They gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt.

20 Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zevadyah. 21 Of the sons of Harim: Ma'aseyah, and Eliyah, and Shemayah, and Yehi'el, and Uzziyah. 22 Of the sons of Pash'hur: Elioenai, Ma'aseyah, Yishma'el, Nethan'el, Yozavad, and Elasar.

23 Of the Levites: Yozavad, and Shimei, and Qelayah (also called Qelita), Pethayah, Yehudah, and Eliezer.

24 Of the singers: Elyashiv. Of the gatekeepers: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

25 Of Yisra'el: Of the sons of Parosh: Ramyah, and Izzyah, and Malkiyah, and Miyamin, and Elazar, and Malkiyah, and Benayah. 26 Of the sons of Elam: Mattanyah, Zekharyah, and Yehi'el, and Abdi, and Yeremoth, and Eliyah. 27 Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Elyashiv, Mattanyah, and Yeremoth, and Zavad, and Aziza. 28 Of the sons of Bebai: Yehohanah, Hananyah, Zabbai, Athlai. 29 Of the sons of Vani: Meshullam, Mallukh, and Adayah, Yashuv, and Sheal, Yeremoth.

30 Of the sons of Pahath-Moav: Adna, and Kelal, Benayah, Ma'aseyah, Mattanyah, Betsal'el, and Binnui, and Menasheh. 31 Of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Yishiyah, Malkiyah, Shemayah, Shimon, 32 Benyamin, Mallukh, Shemaryah. 33 Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zavad, Eliphelet, Yeremai, Menasheh, Shimi.

34 Of the sons of Vani: Ma'adai, Amram, and U'el, 35 Benayah, Bedeyah, Keluhi, 36 Vanyah, Meremoth, Elyashiv, 37 Mattanyah, Mattenai, and Ya'asu, 38 and Vani, and Binnui, Shimi, 39 and Shelemyah, and Nathan, and Adayah, 40 Maknadevai, Shashai, Sharai, 41 Azar'el, and Shelemyah, Shemaryah, 42 Shallum, Amaryah, Yoseph.

43 Of the sons of Nevo: Ye'i'l, Mattithyah, Zavad, Zevina, Iddo, and Yo'e'l, Benayah.

44 All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Nehemyah (Nehemiah)

1 The words of Nehemyah the son of Hakalyah. Now in the new moon Kislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, 2 Hanani, one of my brothers, came; he and certain men out of Yehudah, and I asked them about the Yehudim who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Yerushalayim.

3 They said to me, "The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach. The wall of Yerushalayim is also broken down, and its gates are burned with fire."

4 When I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and mourned several days; and I fasted and prayed before the Elohim of the heavens, 5 and said, "I beg You, יהוה, the Elohim of the heavens, the great and awesome Elohim, who guards covenant and loving-kindness with those who love Him and guard His commands: 6 Let Your ear now be attentive, and Your eyes open, that You may listen to the prayer of Your servant, which I pray before You at this time, day and night, for the children of Yisra'el Your servants, while I confess the sins of the children of Yisra'el, which we have sinned against You. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned. 7 We have dealt very corruptly against You, and have not guarded the commands, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which you commanded Your servant Mosheh.

8 "Remember, I beg You, the word that You commanded Your servant Mosheh, saying, 'If you trespass, I will scatter you among the peoples; 9 but if you return to Me, and guard My commands and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause My Name to dwell there.'

10 "Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand. 11 יהוה, I beg You, let Your ear be attentive now to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants, who delight to fear Your Name; and please prosper Your servant today, and grant him compassion in the sight of this man." Now I was cup bearer to the king.

2 In the new moon Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artahshashta the king, when wine was before him, I picked up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad before in his presence. 2 The king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart." Then I was very much afraid. 3 I said to the king, "Let the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates have been consumed with fire?"

4 Then the king said to me, "What is your request?" So I prayed to the Elohim of the heavens. 5 I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your eyes, that you would send me to Yehudah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it."

6 The king said to me (the queen was also sitting by him), "How long will your journey be? When will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me, and I set a time for him. 7 Moreover I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Yehudah; 8 and a letter to Asaph the guard of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the Temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house that I will occupy." The king granted my requests, because of the good hand of my Elohim on me.

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. 10 When Sanvallat the Horonite, and Toviyah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Yisra'el. 11 So I came to Yerushalayim, and was there three days. 12 I arose in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my Elohim put into my heart to do for Yerushalayim. There was not even any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. 13 I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the dragon's well, then to the dung gate, and inspected the walls of Yerushalayim, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. 14 Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king's pool, but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. 15 Then went I up in the night by the wadi, and inspected the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. 16 The rulers did not know where I went, or what I did. I had not as yet told it to the Yehudim, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work.

17 Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation that we are in, how Yerushalayim lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let us build up the wall of Yerushalayim, that we will not be disgraced." 18 I told them of the hand of my Elohim which was good on me, as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me.

They said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

19 But when Sanvallat the Horonite, Toviyah the Ammonite servant, and Geshem the Aravian, heard it, they ridiculed us, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?"

20 Then I answered them, and said to them, "The Elohim of the heavens will prosper us. Therefore we, His servants, will arise and build; but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Yerushalayim."

3 Then Elyashiv the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the sheep gate. They set it apart, and set up its doors. They set it apart even to the tower of Hammehah, to the tower of Hananel. 2 Next to him the men of Yericho built. Next to them Zakur the son of Imri built.

3 The sons of Hassena'ah built the fish gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

4 Next to them, Meremoth the son of Uriyah, the son of Haqots made repairs. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berekhyah, the son of Meshezav'el made repairs.

Next to them, Tsadoq the son of Ba'anah made repairs.

5 Next to them, the Tequites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their necks to the service of their masters.

6 Yoyada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeyah repaired the old gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars. 7 Next to them, Melatyah the Givonite, and Yadon the Meronothite, the men of Givon and of Mitspah, repaired the residence of the governor beyond the River. 8 Next to him, Uzzi'el the son of Harhayah, goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him, Hananyah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they fortified Yerushalayim even to the wide wall. 9 Next to them, Rephayah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Yerushalayim, made repairs. 10 Next to them, Yedayah the son of Harumaph made repairs across from his house. Next to him, Hattush the son of Hashavneyah made repairs.

11 Malkiyah the son of Harim, and Hashuv the son of Pahath-Moav, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces. 12 Next to him, Shallum the son of Hallohesch, the ruler of half the district of Yerushalayim, he and his daughters, made repairs.

13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the valley gate. They built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and one-thousand cubits of the wall to the dung gate.

14 Malkiyah the son of Rekhav, the ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem repaired the dung gate. He built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

15 Shallun the son of Kolhozeh, the ruler of the district of Mitspah repaired the spring gate. He built it, and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and the wall of the pool of Shiloah by the king's garden, even to the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him, Nehemyah the son of Azbuq, the ruler of half the district of Beth-Tsur, made repairs to the place opposite the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men. 17 After him, the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani made repairs. Next to him, Hashavyah, the ruler of half the district of Qeilah, made repairs for his district. 18 After him, their brothers, Bavvai the son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Qeilah made repairs. 19 Next to him, Ezer the son of Yeshua, the ruler of Mitspah, repaired another portion, across from the ascent to the armory at the turning of the wall. 20 After him, Barukh the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired another portion, from the turning of the wall to the door of the house of Elyashiv the high priest. 21 After him, Meremoth the son of Uriyah the son of Haqots repaired another portion, from the door of the house of Elyashiv even to the end of the house of Elyashiv. 22 After him, the priests, the men of the Plain made repairs. 23 After them, Benyamin and Hashuv made repairs across from their house. After them, Azaryah the son of Ma'aseyah the son of Ananyah made repairs beside his own house. 24 After him, Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another portion, from the house of Azaryah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner. 25 Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the turning of the wall, and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedayah the son of Parosh made repairs. 26 (Now the Temple servants lived in Ophel, to the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that stands out.) 27 After him the Tequites repaired another portion, over against the great tower that stands out, and to the wall of Ophel.

28 Above the horse gate, the priests made repairs, everyone across from his own house. 29 After them, Tsadoq the son of Immer made repairs across from his own house. After him, Shemayah the son of Shekanyah, the guard of the east gate made repairs. 30 After him, Hananyah the son of Shelemyah, and Hanun the sixth son of Tsalaph, repaired another portion. After him, Meshullam the son of Berekhyah made repairs across from his room. 31 After him, Malkiyah, one of the goldsmiths to the house of the Temple servants, and of the merchants, made repairs opposite the gate of Hammiphkad, and to the ascent of the corner.

32 Between the ascent of the corner and the sheep gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

4 But when Sanvallat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and was very indignant, and mocked the Yehudim. 2 He spoke before his brothers and the army of Shom'ron, and said, "What are these feeble Yehudim doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they slaughter? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, since they are burned?"

3 Now Toviyah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "What they are building, if a fox climbed up it, he would break down their stone wall."

4 "Hear, our Elohim; for we are despised; and turn back their reproach on their own head, give them up for a plunder in a land of captivity; 5 do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You; for they have insulted the builders."

6 So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height: for the people had a heart to work.

7 But when Sanvallat, Toviyah, the Aravians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Yerushalayim went forward, and that the breaches began to be filled, they were very angry; 8 and they all conspired together to come and fight against Yerushalayim, and to cause confusion among us. 9 But we made our prayer to our Elohim, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 Yehudah said, "The strength of the bearers of burdens is fading, and there is much rubble; so that we are not able to build the wall." 11 Our adversaries said, "They will not know or see, until we come in among them and kill them, and cause the work to cease."

12 When the Yehudim who lived by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, "Wherever you turn, they will attack us."

13 Therefore I set guards in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places. I set the people by family groups with their swords, their spears, and their bows. 14 I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them! Remember יְהוָה, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses."

15 When our enemies heard that it was known to us, and Elohim had brought their counsel to nothing, all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work. 16 From that time forth, half of my servants did the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Yehudah. 17 Those who built the wall, and those who bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one of his hands did the work, and with the other held his weapon. 18 Among the builders, everyone wore his sword at his side, and so built. He who sounded the shofar was by me. 19 I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from one another. 20 Wherever you hear the sound of the shofar, rally there to us. Our Elohim will fight for us."

21 So we did the work. Half of the people held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. 22 Likewise at the same time I said to the people, "Let everyone with his servant lodge within Yerushalayim, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labor in the day." 23 So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes. Everyone took his weapon to the water.

5 Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Yehudim. 2 For there were that said, "We, our sons and our daughters, are many. Let us get grain, that we may eat and live." 3 There were also some that said, "We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses. Let us get grain, because of the famine." 4 There were also some who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute using our fields and our vineyards as collateral. 5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children. Behold, we bring our sons and our daughters into bondage to be servants, and some of our daughters have been brought into bondage. It is also not in our power to help it, because other men have our fields and our vineyards."

6 I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. 7 Then I consulted with my heart, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, "You exact usury, everyone of his brother." I held a great assembly against them. 8 I said to them, "We, after our ability, have redeemed our brothers the Yehudim that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us?" Then they held their peace, and found not a word to say. 9 Also I said, "The thing that you do is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our Elohim, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? 10 I likewise, my brothers and my servants, lend them money and grain. Please let us stop this usury. 11 Please restore to them, even today, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you are charging them."

12 Then they said, "We will restore them, and will require nothing of them. We will do so, even as you say." Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise. 13 Also I shook out my lap, and said, "So may Elohim shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that does not perform this promise; even be he shaken out, and emptied like this." All the assembly said, "Amen," and praised יְהוָה. The people did according to this promise.

14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Yehudah, from the twentieth year even to the thirty-second year of Artahshashta the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors who were before me were supported by the people, and took bread and wine from them, plus forty sheqels of silver; yes, even their servants ruled over the people; but I did not do so, because of the fear of Elohim. 16 Yes, I also continued in the work of this wall. We^a did not buy any land. All my servants were gathered there to the work.

17 Moreover there were at my table, of the Yehudim and the rulers, one-hundred fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were around us. 18 Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days a store of all sorts of wine. Yet for all this, I did not demand the governor's pay, because the service was heavy on this people.

19 Remember to me, my Elohim, for good, all that I have done for this people.

6 Now when it was reported to Sanvallat, Toviyah, and Geshem the Aravian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates) 2 Sanvallat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to harm me.

3 I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you?"

4 They sent to me four times like this; and I answered them the same way. 5 Then Sanvallat sent his servant to me the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, 6 in which was written, "It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Yehudim intend to rebel. Because of that, you are building the wall. You would be their king, according to these words. 7 You have also appointed prophets to proclaim of you at Yerushalayim, saying, 'There is a king in Yehudah!' Now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together."

8 Then I sent to him, saying, "There are no such things done as you say, but you imagine them out of your own heart." 9 For they all would have made us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it not be done." But now, strengthen my hands.

10 I went to the house of Shemayah the son of Delayah the son of Mehetav'el, who was shut in at his home; and he said, "Let us meet together in the house of Elohim, within the Temple, and let us shut the doors of the Temple; for they will come to kill you. Yes, in the night will they come to kill you."

11 I said, "Should a man like me flee? Who is there that, being such as I, would go into the Temple to save his life? I will not go in." 12 I discerned, and behold, Elohim had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me. Toviyah and Sanvallat had hired him. 13 He hired so that I would be afraid, do so, and sin, and that they might have material for an evil report, that they might reproach me. 14 "Remember, my Elohim, Toviyah and Sanvallat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiyah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear."

15 So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. 16 When all our enemies heard of it, all the nations that were around us were afraid, and they lost their confidence; for they perceived that this work was done by our Elohim. 17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Yehudah sent many letters to Toviyah, and Toviyah's letters came to them. 18 For there were many in Yehudah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shekanyah the son of Arah; and his son Yehoḥanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berekyah as wife. 19 Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Toviyah sent letters to put me in fear.

7 Now when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed, 2 I put my brother Hanani, and Hananyah the governor of the fortress, in charge of Yerushalayim; for he was a man of truth, and feared Elohim above many. 3 I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Yerushalayim be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors, and you bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of ^a 16 LXX, Syr. and Lat. all read, "I" instead of "We" here.

Yerushalayim, everyone in his watch, with everyone near his house."

4 Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built.

5 My Elohim put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be listed by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found this written in it:

6 These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nevukhadnetsar the king of Bavel had carried away, and who returned to Yerushalayim and to Yehudah, everyone to his city; 7 who came with Zerubbavel, Yeshua, Nehemyah, Azaryah, Ra'amyah, Nahamani, Mordekhai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Ba'anah. The number of the men of the people of Yisra'el:

8 The children of Parosh, two-thousand one-hundred seventy-two. 9 The children of Shephatyah, three-hundred seventy-two. 10 The children of Arah, six-hundred fifty-two. 11 The children of Pahath-Moav, of the children of Yeshua and Yoav, two-thousand eight-hundred eighteen. 12 The children of Elam, one-thousand two-hundred fifty-four. 13 The children of Zattu, eight-hundred forty-five. 14 The children of Zakai, seven-hundred sixty. 15 The children of Binnui, six-hundred forty-eight. 16 The children of Bebai, six-hundred twenty-eight. 17 The children of Azgad, two-thousand three-hundred twenty-two. 18 The children of Adoniqam, six-hundred sixty-seven. 19 The children of Bigvai, two-thousand sixty-seven. 20 The children of Adin, six-hundred fifty-five. 21 The children of Ater, of Hizqiyah, ninety-eight. 22 The children of Hashum, three-hundred twenty-eight. 23 The children of Betsai, three-hundred twenty-four. 24 The children of Hariph, one-hundred twelve. 25 The children of Givon, ninety-five. 26 The men of Beth-lehem and Netophah, one-hundred eighty-eight. 27 The men of Anathoth, one-hundred twenty-eight. 28 The men of Beth Azmaveth, forty-two. 29 The men of Qiryath Yearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth, seven-hundred forty-three. 30 The men of Ramah and Geva, six-hundred twenty-one. 31 The men of Mikmas, one-hundred twenty-two. 32 The men of Beth-El and Ai, one-hundred twenty-three.

33 The men of the other Nevo, fifty-two. 34 The children of the other Elam, one-thousand two-hundred fifty-four. 35 The children of Harim, three-hundred twenty. 36 The children of Yeriho, three-hundred forty-five. 37 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven-hundred twenty-one. 38 The children of Sena'ah, three-thousand nine-hundred thirty. 39 The priests: The children of Yedayah, of the house of Yeshua, nine-hundred seventy-three. 40 The children of Immer, one-thousand fifty-two. 41 The children of Pashhur, one-thousand two-hundred forty-seven. 42 The children of Harim, one-thousand seventeen. 43 The Levites: the children of Yeshua, of Qadm'i'el, of the children of Hodevah, seventy-four.

44 The singers: the children of Asaph, one-hundred forty-eight.

61 These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Keruv, Addon, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, nor their seed, whether they were of Yisra'el:

62 The children of Delayah, the children of Toviyah, the children of Nekoda, six-hundred forty-two.

63 Of the priests: the children of Havayah, the children of Haqots, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Giladite, and was called after their name.

64 These searched for their genealogical records, but could not find them. Therefore were they deemed disqualified and removed from the priesthood. 65 The governor told that they should not eat of the most set-apart things until a priest stood up to minister with Urim and Thummim.^a

66 The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three-hundred sixty, 67 besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven-thousand three-hundred thirty-seven; and they had two-hundred forty-five singing men and singing women. 68 Their horses were seven-hundred thirty-six; their mules, two-hundred forty-five; 69 their camels, four-hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six-thousand seven-hundred twenty.

70 Some from among the heads of fathers' households gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred thirty priests' tunics. 71 Some of the heads of fathers' households gave into the treasury of the work twenty-thousand darics of gold, and two-thousand two-hundred minas of silver. 72 That which the rest of the people gave was twenty-thousand darics of gold, plus two-thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the Temple servants, and all Yisra'el, lived in their cities. When the seventh new moon had come, the children of Yisra'el were in their cities.

8 All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the wide place that was in front of the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the Torah of Mosheh, which תְּהִלָּתְךָ had commanded to Yisra'el. 2 Ezra the priest brought the Torah before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh new moon. 3 He read from it before the wide place that was in front of the water gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand. The ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the Torah. 4 Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithyah, Shema, Anayah, Uriyah, Hilqiyah, and Ma'aseyah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedayah, Misha'el, Malkiyah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zekharyah, and Meshullam. 5 Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people (for he was above all the people), and when he opened it, all the people stood up. 6 Then Ezra blessed תְּהִלָּתְךָ, the great Elohim. All the people answered, "Amein, Amein," with the lifting up of their hands. They stooped low, and bowed down to תְּהִלָּתְךָ with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Yeshua, Vani, Sherevyah, Yamin, Aquv, Shabbethai, Hodyah, Ma'aseyah, Qelita, Azaryah, Yozavad, Hanan, Pelayah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the Torah; and the people stayed in their place. 8 They read in the book, in the Torah of Elohim, distinctly; and they gave the sense of it, so that they understood the reading^b.

9 Nehemyah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, "Today is set-apart to תְּהִלָּתְךָ your Elohim. Do not mourn, nor weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the Torah. 10 Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared, for today is set-apart to Adonai. Do not be grieved, for the joy of תְּהִלָּתְךָ is your strength."

11 So the Levites calmed all the people, saying, "Hold your peace, for the day is set-apart. Do not be grieved."

12 All the people went their way to eat, to drink, to send portions, and to celebrate, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

13 On the second day, the heads of fathers' households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered together to Ezra the scribe, to study the words of the Torah. 14 They found written in the Torah how תְּהִלָּתְךָ had commanded by Mosheh that the children of Yisra'el should dwell in booths in the Feast of the seventh new moon; 15 and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Yerushalayim, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and get olive branches, branches of wild olive, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make temporary shelters, as it is written."^c

16 So the people went out, and brought them, and made themselves temporary shelters, everyone on the roof of his house, in their courts, in the courts of the house of Elohim, in the wide place of the water gate, and in the wide place of Ephrayim's gate. 17 All the assembly of those who had come back out of the captivity made temporary shelters, and lived in the booths; for since the days of Yeshua the son of Nun to that day the children of Yisra'el had not done so. There was very great gladness. 18 Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the book of the Torah of Elohim. They kept the Feast for seven days; and on the Eighth Day was a solemn assembly, according to the judgment.

9 Now in the twenty-fourth day of this new moon the children of Yisra'el were assembled with fasting, with sackcloth, and dirt on them. 2 The seed of Yisra'el separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. 3 They stood up in their place, and read in the book of the Torah of יְהוָה their Elohim a fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they confessed, and bowed down to יְהוָה their Elohim. 4 Then Yeshua, Vani, Qadmi'el, Shevanyah, Banni, Sherevyah, Bani, and Kenani of the Levites stood up on the stairs, and cried with a loud voice to יְהוָה their Elohim.

5 Then the Levites, Yeshua, and Qadmi'el, Bani, Hashavneyah, Sherevyah, Hodyah, Shevanyah, and Pethahyah, said, "Stand up and bless יְהוָה your Elohim from everlasting to everlasting! Blessed be Your glorious Name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise! 6 You are יְהוָה, even You alone. You have made the heavens, the heaven of the heavens, with all their army, the earth and all things that are on it, the seas and all that is in them, and You preserve them all. The army of the heavens bow down to You. 7 You are יְהוָה, the Elohim who chose Avram, brought him out of Ur of the Kaldeans, gave him the name of Avraham, 8 found his heart faithful before You, and cut a covenant with him to give the land of the Kena'anite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Yevusite, and the Gergashite, to give it to his seed, and have performed Your words; for You are righteous.

9 "You saw the affliction of our fathers in Mitsrayim, and heard their cry by the Sea of Reeds, 10 and showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, and against all his servants, and against all the people of his land; for You knew that they dealt proudly against them, and made a Name for Yourself, as it is today. 11 You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the middle of the sea on the dry land; and You cast their pursuers into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters. 12 Moreover, in a pillar of cloud You led them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go.

13 "You also came down on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heavens, and gave them upright judgments and the Torah of truth, good statutes and commands, 14 and made known to them Your Set-apart Sabbath, and commanded them commands, statutes, and a Torah, by Mosheh Your servant, 15 and gave them bread from the heavens for their hunger, and brought water out of the rock for them for their thirst, and commanded them that they should go in to possess the land which You had sworn to give them.

16 "But they and our fathers behaved proudly, stiffened their neck, did not listen to Your commands, 17 and refused to obey. They were not mindful of Your wonders that You did among them, but stiffened their neck, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But You are an Elohim ready to pardon, kind and compassionate, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and did not forsake them. 18 Yes, when they had made themselves a molten calf, and said, 'This is your Elohim who brought you up out of Mitsrayim,' and had committed awful blasphemies. 19 Yet You in Your great compassion did not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud did not depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither did the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. 20 You gave also Your good Ruah to instruct them, and did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst. 21 Yes, forty years You sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing. Their clothes did not grow old, and their feet did not swell. 22 Moreover You gave them kingdoms and peoples, which You allotted according to their portions. So they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. 23 You also multiplied their children as the stars of the heavens, and brought them into the land concerning which You said to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 "So the children went in and possessed the land, and You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Kena'anites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they willed. 25 They took fortified cities and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns dug out, vineyards, and olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled, became fat, and delighted themselves in Your great goodness.

26 "Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against You, cast Your Torah behind their back, killed Your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to You, and they committed awful blasphemies. 27 Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them. In the time of their trouble, when they cried to You, You heard from heavens; and according to Your great compassion You gave them saviors who saved them out of the hands of their adversaries. 28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before You; therefore You left them in the hands of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned, and cried to You, You heard from heavens; and many times You delivered them according to Your compassion, 29 and testified against them, that You might bring them again to Your Torah. Yet they were arrogant, and did not listen to Your commands, but sinned against Your judgments (which if a man does, he shall live in them), turned their backs, stiffened their neck, and would not hear. 30 Yet many years You put up with them, and testified against them by Your Ruah through Your prophets. Yet would they not give ear. Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

31 "Nevertheless in your great compassion You did not consume them, nor forsake them; for You are a kind and compassionate El. 32 Now therefore, our Elohim, the great, the mighty, and the awesome Elohim, who guards covenant and loving-kindness, do not let all the travail seem little before You, that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, on our priests, on our prophets, on our fathers, and on all Your people, since the time of the kings of Ashuwr to this day.

33 However, You are just in all that has come on us; for You have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly.

34 Also our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept Your Torah, nor listened to Your commands and Your witness with which You testified against them. 35 For they have not served You in their kingdom, and in Your great goodness that You gave them, and in the large and rich land which You gave before them. They did not turn from their wicked works.

36 "Behold, we are servants today, and as for the land that You gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and its good, behold, we are servants in it. 37 It yields much increase to the kings whom You have set over us because of our sins. Also they have power over our bodies and over our livestock, at their will, and we are in great distress. 38 Yet for all this, we cut a firm covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our priests, seal it."

10 Now those who sealed were: Nehemyah the governor, the son of Ḥakalyah, and Tsidqiyyah, 2 Serayah, Azaryah, Yiremyah, 3 Pash̄ur, Amaryah, Malkiyah, 4 Ḥattush, Shevanyah, Mallukh, 5 Harim, Meremoth, Ovadyah, 6 Dani'el, Ginnethon, Barukh, 7 Meshullam, Aviyah, Miyamin, 8 Ma'azyah, Bilgai, and Shemayah. These were the priests.

9 The Levites: namely, Yeshua the son of Azanyah, Binnui the sons of Henadad, Qadmi'el; 10 and their brothers, Shevanyah, Hodyah, Qelita, Pelayah, Ḥanan, 11 Mika, Rehov, Ḥashavyah, 12 Zakur, Sherevyah, Shevanyah, 13 Hodyah, Vani, and Beninu.

14 The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Paḥath-Moav, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, 16 Adoniyyah, Bigvai, Adin, 17 Ater, Ḥizqiyah, Azzur, 18 Hodyah, Ḥashum, Betsai, 19 Ḥariph, Anathoth, Novai, 20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, 21 Meshezabel, Tsadoq, Yaddua, 22 Pelatyah, Ḥanan, Anayah, 23 Hoshea, Ḥananyah, Ḥashuv, 24 Halloḥesh, Pilha, Shoveq, 25 Reḥum, Ḥashavnah, Ma'aseyah, 26 and Ahyah, Ḥanan, Anan, 27 Mallukh, Harim, and Ba'anah.

28 The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Temple servants, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Torah of Elohim, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge, and understanding—29 they joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in the Torah of Elohim, which was given by Mosheh the servant of Elohim, and to guard and do all the commands of יהוה our Master, and His judgments and His statutes; 30 and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; 31 and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy from them on the Sabbath, or on a set-apart day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

32 Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our Elohim; 33 for the show bread, for the continual meal offering, for the continual ascension offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the set-apart things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Yisra'el, and for all the work of the house of our Elohim. 34 We cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our Elohim, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of יהוה our Elohim, as it is written in the Torah; 35 and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all kinds of trees, year by year, to the house of יהוה; 36 also the firstborn of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the Torah, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our Elohim, to the priests who minister in the house of our Elohim; 37 and that we should bring the first fruits of our dough, our wave offerings, the fruit of all kinds of trees, and the new wine and the oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our Elohim; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all our cities of service. 38 The priest the son of Aharon shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes. The Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our Elohim, to the rooms, into the treasure house.

39 For the children of Yisra'el and the children of Levi shall bring the wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the rooms, where the vessels of the set-apart place are, and the priests who minister, with the gatekeepers and the singers. We will not forsake the house of our Elohim.

11 The princes of the people lived in Yerushalayim. The rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Yerushalayim the set-apart city, and nine parts in the other cities. 2 The people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Yerushalayim.

3 Now these are the chiefs of the province who lived in Yerushalayim; but in the cities of Yehudah everyone lived in his possession in their cities: Yisra'el, the priests, the Levites, the Temple servants, and the children of Shelomoh's servants. 4 Some of the children of Yehudah and of the children of Benyamin lived in Yerushalayim. Of the children of Yehudah: Athayah the son of Uzziyah, the son of Zekharyah, the son of Ammaryah, the son of Shephatyah, the son of Mahalal'el, of the children of Perets; 5 and Ma'aseyah the son of Barukh, the son of Kolhozeh, the son of Hazayah, the son of Adayah, the son of Yoyeriv, the son of Zekharyah, the son of the Shilonite. 6 All the sons of Perets who lived in Yerushalayim were four-hundred sixty-eight valiant men.

7 These are the sons of Benyamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Yoed, the son of Pedayah, the son of Qolayah, the son of Ma'aseyah, the son of Ithi'el, the son of Yesayah. 8 After him Gabbai, Sallai, nine-hundred twenty-eight. 9 Yo'el the son of Zikri was their overseer; and Yehudah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

10 Of the priests: Yedayah the son of Yoyeriv, Yakin, 11 Serayah the son of Hilqiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Tsadoq, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahituv, the ruler of the house of Elohim, 12 and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight-hundred twenty-two; and Adayah the son of Yeroham, the son of Pelalyah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zekharyah, the son of Pash'hur, the son of Malkiyah, 13 and his brothers, chiefs of fathers' households, two-hundred forty-two; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14 and their brothers, mighty men of valor, one-hundred twenty-eight; and their overseer was ZAvdi'el, the son of Hagedolim.

15 Of the Levites: Shemayah the son of Hasshuv, the son of Azriqam, the son of Hashavyah, the son of Buni; 16 and Shabbethai and Yozavad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of the house of Elohim; 17 and Mattanyah the son of Mika, the son of Zavdi, the son of Asaph, who was the chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Baqbuqyah, the second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Yeduthun. 18 All the Levites in the set-apart city were two-hundred eighty-four.

19 Moreover the gatekeepers, Aquv, Talmon, and their brothers, who guarded at the gates, were one-hundred seventy-two. 20 The remnant of Yisra'el, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Yehudah, everyone in his inheritance. 21 But the Temple servants lived in Ophel: and Tsiha and Gishpa were over the Temple servants.

22 The overseer also of the Levites at Yerushalayim was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashavyah, the son of Mattanyah, the son of Mika, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of the house of Elohim. 23 For there was a command from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required. 24 Pethahyah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Yehudah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 As for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Yehudah lived in Qiryath Arba and its towns, in Divon and its towns, in YeQavtse'el and its villages, 26 in Yeshua, in Moladah, Beth Pelet, 27 in Hatsar Shual, in Beersheva and its towns, 28 in Tsiqlag, in Mekonah and in its towns, 29 in En Rimmon, in Tsorah, in Yarmuth, 30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lakish and its fields, and Azeqah and its towns. So they encamped from Beersheva to the valley of Hinnom. 31 The children of Benyamin also lived from Geva onward, at Mikmash and Aiya, and at Beth-El and its towns, 32 at Anathoth, Nov, Ananyah, 33 Hatsor, Ramah, Gittaim, 34 Hadid, Tsevoym, Nevallat, 35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. 36 Of the Levites, certain divisions in Yehudah settled in Benyamin's territory.

12 Now these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbavel the son of Shealti'el, and Yeshua: Serayah, Yirmeyah, Ezra, 2 Ammaryah, Mallukh, Ḥattush, 3 Shekanyah, Rehum, Meremoth, 4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Aviyah, 5 Miyamin, Ma'adyah, Bilgah, 6 Shemayah, and Yoyeriv, Yedayah. 7 Sallu, Amoq, Hilqiyah, and Yedayah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Yeshua.

8 Moreover the Levites: Yeshua, Binnui, Qadmi'el, Sherevyah, Yehudah, and Mattanyah, who was over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers. 9 Also Baqbuqyah and Unno, their brothers, were close to them according to their offices. 10 Yeshua brought forth Yoyaqim, and Yoyaqim brought forth Elyashiv, and Elyashiv brought forth Yoyada, 11 and Yoyada brought forth Yonathan, and Yonathan brought forth Yaddua.

12 In the days of Yoyaqim were priests, heads of fathers' households: of Serayah, Merayah; of Yirmeyah, Hananyah; 13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amaryah, Yehohanan; 14 of Malluki, Yonathan; of Shevanyah, Yoseph; 15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helqai; 16 of Iddo, Zekharyah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; 17 of Aviyah, Zikri; of Minyamin, of Moadyah, Piltai; 18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemayah, Yehonathan; 19 and of Yoyeriv, Mattenai; of Yedayah, Uzzi; 20 of Sallai, Qallai; of Amoq, Ever; 21 of Hilqiyah, Hashavyah; of Yedayah, Nathan'el.

22 As for the Levites, in the days of Elyashiv, Yoyada, and Yohanan, and Yaddua, there were recorded the heads of fathers' households; also the priests, in the reign of Daryavesh the Parasian. 23 The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' households, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Yohanan the son of Elyashiv. 24 The chiefs of the Levites: Hashavyah, Sherevyah, and Yeshua the son of Qadmi'el, with their brothers close to them, to praise and give thanks, according to the command of David the man of Elohim, watch next to watch. 25 Mattanyah, and Baqbuqyah, Ovadyah, Meshullam, Talmon, Aquv, were gatekeepers guarding the watch at the storehouses of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Yoyaqim the son of Yeshua, the son of Yotsadaq, and in the days of Nehemyah the governor, and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

27 At the dedication of the wall of Yerushalayim, they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Yerushalayim, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with giving thanks, and with singing, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and with harps. 28 The sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain around Yerushalayim and from the villages of the Netophathites; 29 also from Beth Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geva and Azmaveth: for the singers had built themselves villages around Yerushalayim. 30 The priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Yehudah on the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand on the wall toward the dung gate; 32 and after them went Hoshayah, with half of the princes of Yehudah, 33 and Azaryah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Yehudah, Benyamin, Shemayah, Yirmeyah, 35 and some of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zekharyah the son of Yonathan, the son of Shemayah, the son of Mattanyah, the son of Mikhayah, the son of Zakur, the son of Asaph; 36 and his brothers, Shemayah, Azar'el, Milalai, Gilalai, Ma'ai, Nathan'el, Yehudah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of Elohim; and Ezra the scribe was before them. 37 By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above David's house, even to the water gate eastward.

38 The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even to the wide wall, 39 and above the gate of Ephrayim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of Hammehah, even to the sheep gate: and they stood still in the gate of the guard. 40 So the two companies of those who gave thanks in the house of Elohim stood, and I, and the half of the rulers with me; 41 and the priests, Elyaqim, Ma'aseyah, Minyamin, Mikhayah, Elionai, Zekharyah, and Hananyah, with trumpets; 42 and Ma'aseyah, Shemayah, Elazar, Uzzi, Yehohanan, Malkiyah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loud, with Yizrahyah their overseer. 43 They slaughtered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for Elohim had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women and the children also rejoiced; so that the joy of Yerushalayim was heard even far away.

44 On that day were men appointed over the rooms for the treasures, for the wave offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the Torah for the priests and Levites; for Yehudah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited. 45 They guarded the charge of their Elohim, and the charge of the purification, and so did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David, and of Shelomoh his son. 46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to Elohim. 47 All Yisra'el in the days of Zerubbavel, and in the days of Nehemyah, gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, as every day required; and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aharon.

13 On that day they read in the book of Moshe in the hearing of the people; and it was found written in it that an Ammonite and a Moavite should not enter into the assembly of Elohim forever, 2 because they did not meet the children of Yisra'el with bread and with water, but hired Bil'am against them, to curse them; however our Elohim turned the curse into a blessing. 3 It came about, when they had heard the Torah, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Yisra'el.

4 Now before this, Elyashiv the priest, who was appointed over the rooms of the house of our Elohim, being allied to Toviyah, 5 had prepared for him a great room, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by command to the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers; and the wave offerings for the priests. 6 But in all this, I was not at Yerushalayim; for in the thirty-second year of Artahshashta king of Bavel I went to the king; and after some days I asked leave of the king, 7 and I came to Yerushalayim, and understood the evil that Elyashiv had done for Toviyah, in preparing him a room in the courts of the house of Elohim. 8 It grieved me severely. Therefore I threw all Toviyah's household stuff out of the room.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the rooms. I brought into them the vessels of the house of Elohim, with the meal offerings and the frankincense again.

10 I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had each fled to his field. 11 Then I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of Elohim forsaken?" I gathered them together, and set them in their place. 12 Then all Yehudah brought the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the treasuries. 13 I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemyah the priest, and Tsadoq the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedayah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zakur, the son of Mattanyah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers.

14 Remember me, my Elohim, concerning this, and do not wipe out my loving-kindness that I have done for the house of my Elohim, and for its observances. 15 In those days saw I in Yehudah some men treading wine presses on the Sabbath, bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; also with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Yerushalayim on the Sabbath day; and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. 16 Some men of Tsor also lived there, who brought in fish and all kinds of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Yehudah, and in Yerushalayim. 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Yehudah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day? 18 Did your fathers not do thus, and did our Elohim not bring all this evil on us, and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Yisra'el by profaning the Sabbath."

19 It came about that when the gates of Yerushalayim began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I set some of my servants over the gates, so that no burden should be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares camped outside of Yerushalayim once or twice. 21 Then I testified against them, and said to them, "Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on, they did not come on the Sabbath. 22 I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and guard the gates, to set the Sabbath day apart. Remember to me, my Elohim, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your loving-kindness.

23 In those days I also saw the Yehudim who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moav; 24 and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Yehudite language, but according to the language of each people. 25 I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by Elohim, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves. 26 Did Shelomoh king of Yisra'el not sin by doing these things? Yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his Elohim, and Elohim made him king over all Yisra'el. Nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin. 27 Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our Elohim in marrying foreign women?"

28 One of the sons of Yoyada, the son of Elyashiv the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanvallat the Horonite; therefore I chased him from me. 29 Remember them, my Elohim, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

30 Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed duties for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work; 31 and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my Elohim, for good.

All these were the sons of Yoqtan. 24 Shem, Arpakshad, Shelah, 25 Ever, Peleg, Reu, 26 Serug, Nahor, Terah, 27 Avram (also called Avraham). 28 The sons of Avraham: Yitshaq and Yishma'el. 29 These are their generations: the firstborn of Yishma'el, Nevaioth; then Qedar, Adbe'el, Mivsam, 30 Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Ḥudad, Tema, 31 Yetur, Naphish, and Qedemah. These are the sons of Yishma'el. 32 The sons of Qeturah, Avraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, Yoqshan, Medan, Midian, Yishbaq, and Shuaḥ. The sons of Yoqshan: Sheva and Dedan. 33 The sons of Midian: Ephah, Epher, Hanokh, Avida, and Eld'aah. All these were the sons of Qeturah. 34 Avraham brought forth Yitshaq. The sons of Yitshaq: Esaw and Yisra'el. 35 The sons of Esaw: Eliphaz, Reu'el, Yeush, Yalam, and Qorah. 36 The sons of Eliphaz: Teman, Omar, Tsephi, Gatam, Qenaz, Timna, and Amaleq. 37 The sons of Reu'el: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. 38 The sons of Seir: Lotan, Shoval, Tsivon, Anah, Dishon, Etser, and Dishan. 39 The sons of Lotan: Ḥori and Homam; and Timna was Lotan's sister. 40 The sons of Shoval: Alian, Manahath, Eyval, Shephi, and Onam. The sons of Tsivon: Aiyah and Anah. 41 The son of Anah: Dishon. The sons of Dishon: Ḥamran, Eshban, Yithran, and Keran. 42 The sons of Etser: Bilhan, Za'avān, and Ya'aqan. The sons of Dishan: Uts and Aran.

43 Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before any king reigned over the children of Yisra'el: Bela the son of Beor; and the name of his city was Dinhavah. 44 Bela died, and Yovav the son of Zeraḥ of Botsrah reigned in his place. 45 Yovav died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. 46 Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moav, reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Avith. 47 Hadad died, and Samlah of Masreqah reigned in his place. 48 Samlah died, and Sha'ul of Rehovoṭ by the River reigned in his place. 49 Sha'ul died, and Ba'al Ḥanan the son of Akbor reigned in his place. 50 Ba'al Ḥanan died, and Hadad reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai: and his wife's name was Mehetav'el, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahav. 51 Then Hadad died. The chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Yetheth, 52 chief Oholivamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, 53 chief Qenaz, chief Teman, chief Mivtsar, 54 chief Magdi'el, and chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom.

2 These are the sons of Yisra'el: Reuven, Shimon, Levi, Yehudah, Yissakhar, Zevulun, 2 Dan, Yoseph, Benyamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. 3 The sons of Yehudah: Er, Onan, and Shelah; which three were born to him of Shua's daughter the Kena'anitess. Er, Yehudah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of יהודָה; and He killed him. 4 Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Perets and Zeraḥ. All the sons of Yehudah were five. 5 The sons of Perets: Ḥetsron and Ḥamul. 6 The sons of Zeraḥ: Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Kalkol, and Dara; five of them in all. 7 The son of Karmi: Akar, the troubler of Yisra'el, who committed a trespass in the devoted thing. 8 The son of Ethan: Azaryah. 9 The sons also of Hetsron, who were born to him: Yerahme'el, Ram, and Keluvai. 10 Ram brought forth Amminadav, and Amminadav brought forth Nahshon, prince of the children of Yehudah; 11 and Nahshon brought forth Salma, and Salma brought forth Boaz, 12 and Boaz brought forth Oved, and Oved brought forth Yishai; 13 and Yishai brought forth his firstborn Eliav, and Avinadav the second, and Shimea the third, 14 Nethan'el the fourth, Raddai the fifth, 15 Otsem the sixth, David the seventh; 16 and their sisters were Tseruyah and Avigayil. The sons of Tseruyah: Avishai, Yoav, and Asah'el, three. 17 Avigayil bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Yether the Yishma'elite.

18 Kaleb the son of Hetsron brought forth children of Azuvah his wife, and of Yerioth; and these were her sons: Yesher, Shovav, and Ardon. 19 Azuvah died, and Kaleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur. 20 Hur brought forth Uri, and Uri brought forth Betsal'el.

21 Afterward Hetsron went in to the daughter of Makir the father of Gilad, whom he took as wife when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Seguv. 22 Seguv brought forth Yair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilad. 23 Geshur and Aram took the towns of Yair from them, with Qenath, and its villages, even sixty cities. All these were the sons of Makir the father of Gilad. 24 After Hetsron died in Kaleb Ephrathah, Aviyah Hetsron's wife bore him Ashl̄ur the father of Teqoa. 25 The sons of Yerahme'el the firstborn of Hetsron were Ram the firstborn, Bunah, Oren, Otsem, and Ahiyah. 26 Yerahme'el had another wife, whose name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam. 27 The sons of Ram the firstborn of Yerahme'el were Ma'ats, Yamin, and Eger. 28 The sons of Onam were Shammai and Yada. The sons of Shammai: Nadav and Avishur. 29 The name of the wife of Avishur was Avihayil; and she bore him Ahban and Molid. 30 The sons of Nadav: Seled and Appaim; but Seled died without children. 31 The son of Appaim: Yishi. The son of Yishi: Sheshan. The son of Sheshan: Ahlai. 32 The sons of Yada the brother of Shammai: Yether and Yonathan; and Yether died without children. 33 The sons of Yonathan: Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Yerahme'el. 34 Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. Sheshan had a servant, a Mitsrite, whose name was Yarha. 35 Sheshan gave his daughter to Yarha his servant as wife; and she bore him Attai. 36 Attai brought forth Nathan, and Nathan brought forth Zavad, 37 and Zavad brought forth Ephlal, and Ephlal brought forth Oved, 38 and Oved brought forth Yehu, and Yehu brought forth Azaryah, 39 and Azaryah brought forth Helets, and Helets brought forth Eleasah, 40 and Eleasah brought forth Sismai, and Sismai brought forth Shallum, 41 and Shallum brought forth Yeqamyah, and Yeqamyah brought forth Elishama. 42 The sons of Kaleb the brother of Yerahme'el were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hevron. 43 The sons of Hevron: Qorah, Tappuah, Reqem, and Shema. 44 Shema brought forth Raham, the father of Yorqeam; and Reqem brought forth Shammai. 45 The son of Shammai was Maon; and Maon was the father of Beth-Tsur. 46 Ephah, Kaleb's concubine, bore Ḥaran, Motsa, and Gazez; and Ḥaran brought forth Gazez. 47 The sons of Yahdai: Regem, Yothan, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph. 48 Ma'akah, Kaleb's concubine, bore Shever and Tirhanah. 49 She bore also Sha'aph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Makbena, and the father of Gibea; and the daughter of Kaleb was Aksah. 50 These were the sons of Kaleb, the son of Ḥur, the firstborn of Ephrathah: Shoval the father of Qiryath Yearim, 51 Salma the father of Beth-lehem, and Ḥareph the father of Beth Gader. 52 Shoval the father of Qiryath Yearim had sons: Haroeh, half of the Menuhoth. 53 The families of Qiryath Yearim: the Yithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; from them came the Tsorathites and the Eshtaoletes. 54 The sons of Salma: Beth-lehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Yoav, and half of the Manahathites, the Tsorites. 55 The families of scribes who lived at Yabets: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sukathites. These are the Qenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rekhav.

3 Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hevron: the firstborn, Amnon, of Ahinoam the Yizre'elitess; the second, Dani'el, of Avigayil the Karmelite; 2 the third, Avshalom the son of Ma'akah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth, Adoniyah the son of Haggith; 3 the fifth, Shephatyah of Avital; the sixth, Yithream by Eglah his wife: 4 six were born to him in Hevron; and he reigned there seven years and six new moons. He reigned thirty-three years in Yerushalayim; 5 and these were born to him in Yerushalayim: Shimea, Shovav, Nathan, and Shelomoh, four, of Bathshua the daughter of Ammi'el; 6 and Yivhar, Elishama, Eliphelet, 7 Nogah, Nepheg, Yaphia, 8 Elishama, Elyada, and Eliphelet, nine. 9 All these were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was their sister.

10 Shelomoh's son was Reḥavam, Aviyah his son, Asa his son, Yehoshaphat his son, 11 Yoram his son, Ahazyahu his son, Yoash his son, 12 Amatsyahu his son, Azaryah his son, Yotham his son, 13 Ahaz his son, Ḥizkiyahu his son, Menasheh his son, 14 Amon his son, and Yoshiyahu his son. 15 The sons of Yoshiyahu: the firstborn Yohanan, the second Yehoyaqim, the third Tsidqiyah, and the fourth Shallum. 16 The sons of Yehoyaqim: Yekonyah his son, and Tsidqiyah his son. 17 The sons of Yekonyah, the captive: Shealti'el his son, 18 Malkiram, Pedayah, Shenatsar, Yeqamyah, Hoshama, and Nedavyah. 19 The sons of Pedayah: Zerubbavel and Shimi. The sons of Zerubbavel: Meshullam and Ḥananyah; and Shelomith was their sister; 20 and Hashuvah, Ohel, Berekyah, Ḥasadyah, and Yushav-Ḥesed, five. 21 The sons of Ḥananyah: Pelatyah and Yesayah; the sons of Rephayah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Ovadyah, the sons of Shekanyah. 22 The son of Shekanyah: Shemayah. The sons of Shemayah: Hattush, Yigal, Bariyah, Nearyah, and Shaphat, six. 23 The sons of Nearyah: Elioenai, Ḥizqiyah, and Azriqam, three. 24 The sons of Elioenai:

Hodavyah, Elyashiv, Pelayah, Aquv, Yohanan, Delayah, and Anani, seven.

4 The sons of Yehudah: Perets, Hetsron, Karmi, Hur, and Shoval. 2 Reayah the son of Shoval brought forth Yaḥath; and Yaḥath brought forth Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Tsorathites. 3 These were the sons of the father of Etam: Yizre'el, Yishma, and Yidbash. The name of their sister was Hatseleponi. 4 Penu'el was the father of Gedor and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Beth-lehem. 5 Ashlur the father of Teqoa had two wives, Helah and Na'arah. 6 Na'arah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Ha'ahashatari. These were the sons of Na'arah. 7 The sons of Helah were Tsereth, Yitshar, and Ethan. 8 Haqots brought forth Anuv, Tsovevah, and the families of Aḥarḥel the son of Harum.

9 Yabets was more honorable than his brothers. His mother named him Yabets, saying, "Because I bore him with sorrow."

10 Yabets called on the Elohim of Yisra'el, saying, "Oh that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my border! May Your hand be with me, and may You keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" Elohim granted him that which he requested.

11 Keluv the brother of Shuhah brought forth Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. 12 Eshton brought forth Beth Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir Nahash. These are the men of Rekah. 13 The sons of Qenaz: Othni'el and Serayah. The sons of Othni'el: Hathath. 14 Meonothai brought forth Ophrah: and Serayah brought forth Yoav the father of Ge Harashim; for they were craftsmen. 15 The sons of Kalev the son of Yephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Na'am. The son of Elah: Qenaz. 16 The sons of Yehallel'el: Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel. 17 The sons of Ezrah: Yether, Mered, Epher, and Yalon; and she bore Miryam, Shammai, and Yishbah the father of Eshtemoa. 18 His wife the Yehudiyah bore Yered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soko, and Yequthi'el the father of Zanoah. These are the sons of Bithyah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. 19 The sons of the wife of Hodiyah, the sister of Naham, were the father of Qeileh the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Ma'akathite. 20 The sons of Shimon: Amnon, Rinnah, Ben Hanan, and Tilon. The sons of Yishi: Zoheth, and Ben Zoheth. 21 The sons of Shelah the son of Yehudah: Er the father of Lekah, La'adah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen servers, of the house of Ashbea; 22 and Yoqim, and the men of Kozeva, and Yoash, and Saraph, who had dominion in Moav, and Yashuvi-lehem. These records are ancient. 23 These were the potters, and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah: they lived there with the king for his work. 24 The sons of Shimon: Nemu'el, Yamin, Yariv, Zerah, Sha'ul; 25 Shallum his son, Mivsam his son, and Mishma his son. 26 The sons of Mishma: Ḥammel his son, Zakkur his son, Shimi his son. 27 Shimi had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many children, and all their family did not multiply like the children of Yehudah. 28 They lived at Beersheva, Moladah, Hatsarshual, 29 at Bilhah, at Etsem, at Tolad, 30 at Bethu'el, at Hormah, at Tsiqlag, 31 at Beth Markaboth, Hatsar Susim, at Beth Biri, and at Sha'araim. These were their cities until David's reign. 32 Their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token, and Ashan, five cities; 33 and all their villages that were around the same cities, to Ba'al. These were their settlements, and they have their genealogy. 34 Meshovav, Yamlekh, Yoshah the son of Amatsyah, 35 Yo'el, Yehu the son of Yoshiyahu, the son of Serayah, the son of Asi'el, 36 Elionenai, Ya'aqovah, Yeshohayah, Asayah, Adi'el, Yesimi'el, Benayah, 37 and Ziza the son of Shippi, the son of Allon, the son of Yedayah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemayah—38 these mentioned by name were princes in their families. Their fathers' houses increased greatly.

39 They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 They found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceful; for those who lived there before were ḥamites. 41 These written by name came in the days of Hizqiyahu king of Yehudah, and struck their tents. The Meunim who were found there, and they destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place; because there was pasture there for their flocks. 42 Some of them, even of the sons of Shimon, five hundred men, went to Mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatyah, Nearyah, Rephayah, and Uzzi'el, the sons of Yishi. 43 They struck the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

5 The sons of Reuven the firstborn of Yisra'el (for he was the firstborn; but, because he defiled his father's couch, his birthright was given to the sons of Yoseph the son of Yisra'el; and the genealogy is not to be listed according to the birthright. 2 For Yehudah prevailed above his brothers, and from him came the prince; but the birthright was Yoseph's). 3 The sons of Reuven the firstborn of Yisra'el: Hanokh, Pallu, Hetsron, and Karmi. 4 The sons of Yo'el: Shemayah his son, Gog his son, Shimi his son, 5 Miknah his son, Reayah his son, Ba'al his son, 6 and Beerah his son, whom Tilgath Pilneser king of Ashuwr carried away captive. He was prince of the Reuvenites. 7 His brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was listed: the chief, Yei'el, and Zekharyah,^a 8 and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Yo'el, who lived in Aroer, even to Nevo and Ba'al Meon; 9 and he lived eastward even to the entrance of the wilderness from the Perath River^a, because their livestock were multiplied in the land of Gilad.

10 In the days of Sha'ul, they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they lived in their tents throughout all the land east of Gilad. 11 The sons of Gad lived over against them, in the land of Bashan to Salekah: 12 Yo'el the chief, Shapham the second, Yanai, and Shaphat in Bashan. 13 Their brothers of their fathers' houses: Mikha'el, Meshullam, Sheva, Yorai, Yakan, Zia, and Ever, seven. 14 These were the sons of Avihayil, the son of Huri, the son of Yaroah, the son of Gilad, the son of Mikha'el, the son of Yeshishai, the son of Yahdo, the son of Buz; 15 Ahî the son of Avdi'el, the son of Guni, chief of their fathers' houses. 16 They lived in Gilad in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, as far as their borders. 17 All these were listed by genealogies in the days of Yotham king of Yehudah, and in the days of Yarovam king of Yisra'el.

18 The sons of Reuven, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Menasheh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred sixty, that were able to go out to war. 19 They made war with the Hagrites, with Yetur, and Naphish, and Nodav. 20 They were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them; for they cried to Elohim in the battle, and He answered them, because they relied on Him. 21 They took away their livestock; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred fifty thousand, and of donkeys two thousand, and the beings of men one hundred thousand. 22 For many fell slain, because the war was of Elohim. They lived in their place until the captivity. 23 The children of the half-tribe of Menasheh lived in the land: they increased from Bashan to Ba'al Hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon. 24 These were the heads of their fathers' houses: even Epher, Yishi, Eli'el, Azri'el, Yirmeyah, Hodavyah, and Yahdi'el, mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their fathers' houses. 25 They trespassed against the Elohim of their fathers, and whored after the elohim of the peoples of the land, whom Elohim destroyed before them. 26 So the Elohim of Yisra'el stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Ashuwr, and the spirit of Tilgath Pilneser king of Ashuwr, and he carried them away, even the Reuvenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Menasheh, and brought them to Ḥalah, Ḥavor, Hara, and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

6 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Qohath, and Merari.

2 The sons of Qohath: Amram, Yitshar, and Ḥevron, and Uzzi'el. 3 The children of Amram: Aharon, Mosheh, and Miryam. 8 Sha'haram brought forth children in the field of Moav, after he had sent away Hushim and Ba'ara his wives. 9 By Hodesh his wife, he brought forth Yovav, Tsibya, Mesha, Malkam, 10 Yeuts, Shakia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of fathers' households. 11 By Hushim, he brought forth Avitub and Elpa'al. 12 The sons of Elpa'al: Ever, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod, with its towns; 13 and Beriah, and Shema, who were heads of fathers' households of the inhabitants of Aiyalon, who put to flight the inhabitants of Gath; 14 and Ahyo, Shashaq, Yeremoth, 15 Zevadyah, Arad, Eder, 16 Mikha'el, Yispah, Yoḥa, the sons of Beriah, 17 Zevadyah, Meshullam, Hizqi, Heber, 18 Yishmerai, Yizliah, Yovav, the sons of Elpa'al, 19 Yaqim, Zikri, Zavdi, 20 Elienai, Tsillethai, Eli'el, 21 Adayah, Berayah, Shimrath, the sons of Shimi, 22 Yishpan, Ever, Eli'el, 23 Abdon, Zikri, Hanan, 24 Hananyah, Elam, Anthothiyah, 25 Yiphdeyah, Penu'el, the sons of Shashaq, 26 Shamsherai, Sheharyah, Athalyah, 27 Ya'areshyah, Eliyah, Zikri, and the sons of Yeroham. 28 These were heads of fathers' households throughout their generations, chief men. These lived in Yerushalayim.

29 The father of Givon, whose wife's name was Ma'akah, lived in Givon, 30 with his firstborn son Abdon, Tsur, Qish, Ba'al, Nadav, 31 Gedor, Ahyo, and Zeker. 32 Miqloth brought forth Shimeah. They also lived with their brothers in Yerushalayim, near their brothers. 33 Ner brought forth Qish. Qish brought forth Sha'ul. Sha'ul brought forth Yehonathan, Malkishua, Avinadav, and Eshba'al. 34 The son of Yehonathan was Meriv-Ba'al. Meriv-Ba'al brought forth Mikhah. 35 The sons of Mikhah: Pithon, Melek, Tarea, and Ahaz. 36 Ahaz brought forth Yehoaddah. Yehoaddah brought forth Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri brought forth Motsa. 37 Motsa brought forth Binea. Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, and Atsel his son. 38 Atsel had six sons, whose names are these: Azriqam, Bokeru, Yishma'el, Shearyah, Ovadyah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Atsel.

39 The sons of Eshek his brother: Ulam his firstborn, Yeush the second, and Eliphelet the third. 40 The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, one hundred fifty. All these were of the sons of Benyamin.

9 So all Yisra'el were listed by genealogies; and behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el. Yehudah was carried away captive to Bavel for their disobedience. 2 Now the first inhabitants who lived in their possessions in their cities were Yisra'el, the priests, the Levites, and the Temple servants. 3 In Yerushalayim lived of the children of Yehudah, of the children of Benyamin, and of the children of Ephrayim and Menasheh: 4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perets the son of Yehudah. 5 Of the Shilonites: Asayah the firstborn, and his sons. 6 Of the sons of Zerah: Yeu'el and their brothers, six hundred ninety. 7 Of the sons of Benyamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodavyah, the son of Hassenuah, 8 and Yivneyah the son of Yero'ham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Mikri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatyah, the son of Reu'el, the son of Yivniyah; 9 and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six. All these men were heads of fathers' households by their fathers' houses.

10 Of the priests: Yedayah, Yehoyariv, Yakin, 11 and Azaryah the son of Hilqiyyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Tsadoq, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahituv, the ruler of the house of Elohim; 12 and Adayah the son of Yero'ham, the son of Pash'hur, the son of Malkiyah, and Ma'asai the son of Adi'el, the son of Yahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; 13 and their brothers, heads of their fathers' houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty; very able men for the work of the service of the house of Elohim.

14 Of the Levites: Shemayah the son of Hashuv, the son of Azriqam, the son of Hashavyah, of the sons of Merari; 15 and Baqbaqqar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattanyah the son of Mika, the son of Zikri, the son of Asaph, 16 and Ovadyah the son of Shemayah, the son of Galal, the son of Yeduthun, and Berekhyah the son of Asa, the son of Elqanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 The gatekeepers: Shallum, Aquv, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the chief), 18 who previously served in the king's gate eastward. They were the gatekeepers for the camp of the children of Levi. 19 Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Evyashaph, the son of Qorah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Qorahites, were over the work of the service, guards of the thresholds of the tent. Their fathers had been over the camp of פָּנָים, guards of the entry.

20 Pinehas the son of Elazar was ruler over them in time past, and פָּנָים was with him. 21 Zekharyah the son of Meshelemyah was gatekeeper of the door of the Tent of Appointment. 22 All these who were chosen to be gatekeepers in the thresholds were two hundred twelve. These were listed by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Shemu'el the seer ordained in their office of faithfulness. 23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of פָּנָים, even the house of the tent, by wards. 24 On the four sides were the gatekeepers, toward the east, west, north, and south. 25 Their brothers, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them: 26 for the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were in an office of faithfulness, and were over the rooms and over the treasures in the house of Elohim. 27 They stayed around the house of Elohim, because that duty was on them; and to their duty was its opening morning by morning.

28 Certain of them were in charge of the vessels of service; for these were brought in by count, and these were taken out by count. 29 Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the set-apart place, over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices.

30 Some of the sons of the priests prepared the mixing of the spices. 31 Mattithyah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Qorahite, had the faithful office over the things that were baked in pans. 32 Some of their brothers, of the sons of the Qohathites, were over the show bread, to prepare it every Sabbath.

33 These are the singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the rooms and were free from other service; for they were employed in their work day and night. 34 These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief men. These lived at Yerushalayim.

35 Yei'el the father of Givon, whose wife's name was Ma'akah, lived in Givon with 36 his firstborn son Abdon, Tsur, Qish, Ba'al, Ner, Nadav, 37 Gedor, Ahyo, Zekharyah, and Miqloth. 38 Miqloth brought forth Shimeam. They also lived with their brothers in Yerushalayim, near their brothers. 39 Ner brought forth Qish. Qish brought forth Sha'ul. Sha'ul brought forth Yehonathan, Malkishua, Avinadav, and Eshba'al. 40 The son of Yehonathan was Meriv-Ba'al. Meriv-Ba'al brought forth Mikhah. 41 The sons of Mikhah: Pithon, Melek, Tahrea, and Ahaz. 42 Ahaz brought forth Yarah. Yarah brought forth Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri brought forth Motsa. 43 Motsa brought forth Binea; and Rephayah his son, Eleasah his son, and Atsel his son. 44 Atsel had six sons, whose names are these: Azriqam, Bokeru, Yishma'el, Shearyah, Ovadyah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Atsel.

10 Now the Philistines fought against Yisra'el, and the men of Yisra'el fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. 2 The Philistines followed hard after Sha'ul and after his sons; and the Philistines killed Yonathan, Avinadav, and Malkishua, the sons of Sha'ul. 3 The battle went hard against Sha'ul, and the archers overtook him; and he was distressed by reason of the archers. 4 Then Sha'ul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me." But his armor bearer would not; for he was terrified. Therefore Sha'ul took his sword, and fell on it. 5 When his armor bearer saw that Sha'ul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died. 6 So Sha'ul died with his three sons; and all his house died together. 7 When all the men of Yisra'el who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

8 On the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Sha'ul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. 9 They stripped him, and took his head and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people. 10 They put his armor in the house of their elohim, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. 11 When all Yavesh Gilad heard all that the Philistines had done to Sha'ul, 12 all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Sha'ul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Yavesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Yavesh, and fasted seven days. 13 So Sha'ul died for his trespass which he committed against יהוה, because of the word of יהוה, which he did not guard; and also because he asked counsel of a medium, to inquire, 14 and did not inquire of יהוה. Therefore He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Yishai.

11 Then all Yisra'el gathered themselves to David to Hevron, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. 2 In times past, even when Sha'ul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Yisra'el. יהוה your Elohim said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of My people Yisra'el, and you shall be prince over My people Yisra'el.'"

3 So all the elders of Yisra'el came to the king to Hevron; and David cut a covenant with them in Hevron before יהוה; and they anointed David king over Yisra'el, according to the word of יהוה by Shemu'el. 4 David and all Yisra'el went to Yerushalayim (also called Yevus); and the Yevusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. 5 The inhabitants of Yevus said to David, "You will not come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Tsion. The same is the city of David. 6 David said, "Whoever strikes the Yevusites first shall be chief and captain." Yoav the son of Tseruyah went up first, and was made chief. 7 David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David. 8 He built the city all around, from Millo even around; and Yoav repaired the rest of the city. 9 David grew greater and greater; for יהוה Tsevaot was with him. 10 Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who showed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Yisra'el, to make him king, according to the word of יהוה concerning Yisra'el.

11 This is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Yashovam, the son of a Hakmonite, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time. 12 After him was Elazar the son of Dodo, the Alohite, who was one of the three mighty men. 13 He was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. 14 They stood in the middle of the plot, defended it, and killed the Philistines; and יהוה saved them by a great victory. 15 Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. 16 David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was in Beth-lehem at that time. 17 David longed, and said, "Oh that one would give me water to drink from the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!"

18 The three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David; but David would not drink any of it, but poured it out to הַמִּתְהָרָת, 19 and said, "My Elohim forbid me, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their beings in jeopardy?" For they risked their beings to bring it. Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

20 Avishai, the brother of Yoav, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. 21 Of the three, he was more honorable than the two, and was made their captain; however he was not included in the three. 22 Benayah the son of Yehoyada, the son of a valiant man of Qavtse'el, who had done mighty deeds, killed the two sons of Ari'el of Moav. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day. 23 He killed a Mitsrite, a man of great stature, five cubits high. In the Mitsrite's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, plucked the spear out of the Mitsrite's hand, and killed him with his own spear. 24 Benayah the son of Yehoyada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. 25 Behold, he was more honorable than the thirty, but he did not attain to the three; and David set him over his guard.

26 The mighty men of the armies also include Asah'el the brother of Yoav, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem, 27 Shammoth the Harorite, Ḥelets the Pelonite, 28 Ira the son of Iqqesh the Tekoite, Aviezer the Anathothite, 29 Sibbekai the Ḥushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, 30 Maherai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Ba'anah the Netophathite, 31 Ithai the son of Rivai of Givah of the children of Benyamin, Benayah the Pirathonite, 32 Ḥurai of the wadis of Ga'ash, Avi'el the Arvathite, 33 Azmveth the Baharumite, Elyahba the Sha'alvонite, 34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Yonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite, 35 Ahyam the son of Sakar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur, 36 Ḥepher the Mekerathite, Ahiyah the Pelonite, 37 Ḥetsro the Karmelite, Na'arai the son of Ezbai, 38 Yo'el the brother of Nathan, Mivhar the son of Hagri, 39 Tseleq the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Yoav the son of Tseruyah, 40 Ira the Yithrite, Garev the Yithrite, 41 Uriyah the Ḥittite, Zavad the son of Ahlai, 42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reuvenite, a chief of the Reuvenites, and thirty with him, 43 Hanan the son of Ma'akah, and Yoshaphat the Mithnite, 44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Ye'i'l the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, 45 Yediya'el the son of Shimri, and Yoḥa his brother, the Titsite, 46 Eli'el the Maḥavite, and Yeribai, and Yoshavyah, the sons of Elna'am, and Tithmah the Moavite, 47 Eli'el, and Oved, and Ya'asi'el the Metsobaite.

12 Now these are those who came to David to Tsīqlag, while he was a fugitive from Sha'ul the son of Qish. They were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. 2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in sling stones and in shooting arrows from the bow. They were of Sha'ul's relatives of the tribe of Benyamin. 3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Yoash, the sons of Shema'ah the Givathite; Yezi'el and Pelet, the sons of Azmveth; Berakah; Yehu the Anathothite; 4 Yishmayah the Givonite, a mighty man among the thirty and a leader of the thirty; Yiremyah; Yaḥazi'el; Yoḥanan; Yozavad the Gederathite; 5 Eluzai; Yerimoth; Bealyah; Shemaryah; Shephatyah the Ḥaruphite; 6 Elqanah, Yishshiyahu Azar'el, Yoezer, and Yashovam, the Qorahites; 7 and Yo'elah and Zevadyah, the sons of Yeroḥam of Gedor. 8 Some Gadites joined David in the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains: 9 Ezer the chief, Ovadyah the second, Eliav the third, 10 Mishmannah the fourth, Yiremyah the fifth, 11 Attai the sixth, Eli'el the seventh, 12 Yoḥanan the eighth, Elzavad the ninth, 13 Yirmeyah the tenth, and Makhbannai the eleventh. 14 These of the sons of Gad were captains of the army: he who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand. 15 These are those who went over the Yarden in the first new moon, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all who lived in the valleys, both toward the east and toward the west.

16 Some of the children of Benyamin and Yehudah came to the stronghold to David. 17 David went out to meet them, and answered them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the Elohim of our fathers see this and rebuke it."

18 Then the Ruah came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and he said, "We are yours, David, and on your side, you son of Yishai. Peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your Elohim helps you." Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. 19 Some of Menasheh also joined David, when he came with the Philistines against Sha'ul to battle; but they did not help them; for the princes of the Philistines sent him away after consultation, saying, "He will desert to his master Sha'ul to the jeopardy of our heads."

20 As he went to Tsillag, some from Menasheh joined him: Adnah, Yozavad, Yediya'el, Mikha'el, Yozavad, Elihu, and Tsillethai, captains of thousands who were of Menasheh. 21 They helped David against the band of rovers; for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the army. 22 For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army, like the army of Elohim.

23 These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Ḥevron, to turn the kingdom of Sha'ul to him, according to the word of תְּנִינָה.

24 The children of Yehudah who bore shield and spear were six thousand eight hundred, armed for war.

25 Of the children of Shimon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand six hundred.

27 Yehoyada was the leader of the household of Aharon; and with him were three thousand seven hundred, 28 and Tsadoq, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains.

29 Of the children of Benyamin, Sha'ul's relatives, three thousand: for until then, the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to Sha'ul's house.

30 Of the children of Ephrayim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses.

31 Of the half-tribe of Menasheh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king.

32 Of the children of Yissakhar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Yisra'el ought to do, their heads were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their command.

33 Of Zevulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, with all kinds of instruments of war, fifty thousand, and who could command and were not of double heart.

34 Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand.

35 Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred.

36 Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand.

37 On the other side of the Yarden, of the Reuvenites, the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Menasheh, with all kinds of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand. 38 All these were men of war, who could order the battle array, and came with a perfect heart to Ḥevron, to make David king over all Yisra'el; and all the rest also of Yisra'el were of one heart to make David king. 39 They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had supplied provisions for them.

40 Moreover those who were near to them, as far as Yissakhar, Zevulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, on camels, on mules, and on oxen: supplies of flour, cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep in abundance; for there was joy in Yisra'el.

13 David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. 2 David said to all the assembly of Yisra'el, "If it seems good in your eyes, and if it is of תְּנִינָה our Elohim, let us send word everywhere to our brothers who are left in all the land of Yisra'el, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us. 3 Also, let us again bring the ark of our Elohim back to us; for we did not seek it in the days of Sha'ul."

4 All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. 5 So David assembled all Yisra'el together, from the Shihor the brook of Mitsrayim even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of Elohim from Qiryath Yearim.

6 David went up with all Yisra'el to Ba'alah, that is, to Qiryath Yearim, which belonged to Yehudah, to bring up from there the ark of Elohim תְּנִינָה that sits above the keruvim, that is called by the Name. 7 They carried the ark of Elohim on a new cart, and brought it out of Avinadav's house; and Uzza and Ahyo drove the cart. 8 David and all Yisra'el played before Elohim with all their might, even with songs, with harps, with stringed instruments, with tambourines, with cymbals, and with trumpets. 9 When they came to Kidon's threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. 10 The anger of תְּנִינָה burned against Uzza, and He struck him, because he put his hand on the ark; and he died there before Elohim. 11 David was displeased, because תְּנִינָה had broken out against Uzza. He called that place Perets Uzza, to this day. 12 David was afraid of Elohim that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of Elohim home to me?" 13 So David did not move the ark with him into the city of David, but carried it aside into Oved-Edom the Gittite's house. 14 The ark of Elohim remained with the family of Oved-Edom in his house three new moons; and תְּנִינָה blessed Oved-Edom's house and all that he had.

14 Hiram king of Tsor sent messengers to David with cedar trees, masons, and carpenters, to build him a house. 2 David perceived that יְהוָה had established him king over Yisra'el; for his kingdom was exalted on high, for His people Yisra'el's sake. 3 David took more wives at Yerushalayim, and David brought forth more sons and daughters. 4 These are the names of the children whom he had in Yerushalayim: Shammua, Shovav, Nathan, Shelomoh, 5 Yivhar, Elishua, Elpelet, 6 Nogah, Nepheg, Yaphia, 7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

8 When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Yisra'el, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went out against them. 9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. 10 David inquired of Elohim, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?" 11 יהוה said to him, "Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand."

11 So they came up to Ba'al Peratsim, and David defeated them there. David said, "Elohim has broken my enemies by my hand, like waters breaking out." Therefore they called the name of that place Ba'al Peratsim. 12 They left their elohim there; and David gave a command, and they were burned with fire.

13 The Philistines made another raid in the valley.

14 David inquired again of Elohim; and Elohim said to him, "You shall not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come on them opposite the mulberry trees. 15 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then go out to battle; for Elohim has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."

16 David did as Elohim commanded him; and they attacked the army of the Philistines from Givon even to Gezer. 17 The fame of David went out into all lands; and יהוה brought the fear of him on all nations.

15 David made himself houses in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of Elohim, and pitched a tent for it. 2 Then David said, "No one ought to carry the ark of Elohim but the Levites. For יהוה has chosen them to carry the ark of Elohim, and to minister to Him forever."

3 David assembled all Yisra'el at Yerushalayim, to bring up the ark of יהוה to its place, which he had prepared for it. 4 David gathered together the sons of Aharon and the Levites: 5 of the sons of Qohath, Uri'el the chief, and his brothers one hundred twenty; 6 of the sons of Merari, Asayah the chief, and his brothers two hundred twenty; 7 of the sons of Gershom, Yo'el the chief, and his brothers one hundred thirty; 8 of the sons of Elitsaphan, Shemayah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; 9 of the sons of Hevron, Eli'el the chief, and his brothers eighty; 10 of the sons of Uzzi'el, Amminadav the chief, and his brothers one hundred twelve. 11 David called for Tsadoq and Evyathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uri'el, Asayah, Yo'el, Shemayah, Eli'el, and Amminadav, 12 and said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites. Set yourselves apart, both you and your brothers, that you may bring the ark of יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, up to the place that I have prepared for it. 13 For because you did not carry it at first, יהוה our Elohim broke out in anger against us, because we did not seek Him according to the judgment."

14 So the priests and the Levites set themselves apart to bring up the ark of יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el. 15 The children of the Levites bore the ark of Elohim on their shoulders with its poles, as Mosheh commanded according to the word of יהוה. 16 David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers with instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up their voices with joy. 17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Yo'el; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berekhyahu; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Qushayahu; 18 and with them their brothers of the second rank, Zekharyah, Ben, Ya'azi'el, Shemiramoth, Yehi'el, Unni, Eliav, Benayahu, Ma'aseyahu, Mattithyahu, Eliphelehu, Miqneyahu, Oved-Edom, and Yei'el, the doorkeepers. 19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were given cymbals of copper to sound aloud; 20 and Zekharyahu, Azi'el, Shemiramoth, Yehi'el, Unni, Eliav, Ma'aseyahu, and Benayahu, with stringed instruments set to Alamoth; 21 and Mattithyahu, Eliphelehu, Miqneyahu, Oved-Edom, Yei'el, and Azazyahu, with harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead. 22 Kenanyahu, chief of the Levites, was over the singing. He disciplined the singers, because he was skillful. 23 Berekhyah and Elqanah were doorkeepers for the ark. 24 Shevanyah, Yoshaphat, Nethan'el, Amasai, Zekharyahu, Benayahu, and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the ark of Elohim; and Oved-Edom and Yehiyah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So David, the elders of Yisra'el, and the captains over thousands, went to bring the ark of the covenant of יהוה up out of the house of Oved-Edom with joy. 26 When Elohim helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of יהוה, they slaughtered seven bulls and seven rams. 27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Kenanyah the choir master with the singers; and David had an ephod of linen on him.

28 Thus all Yisra'el brought the ark of the covenant of יְהוָה up with shouting, with the voice of the shofar, with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. 29 As the ark of the covenant of יְהוָה came to the city of David, Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul looked out at the window, and saw King David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

16 They brought in the ark of Elohim, and set it in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it; and they offered ascension offerings and peace offerings before Elohim. 2 When David had finished offering the ascension offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of יְהוָה. 3 He gave to everyone of Yisra'el, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. 4 He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of יְהוָה, and to commemorate, to thank, and to praise יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el: 5 Asaph the chief, and second to him Zekharyah, then Yei'el, Shemiramoth, Yehi'el, Mattithyah, Eliav, Benayahu, Oved-Edom, and Yei'el, with stringed instruments and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud; 6 with Benayahu and Yahazi'el the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of Elohim.

7 Then on that day David first ordained to give thanks to יְהוָה, by the hand of Asaph and his brothers.

8 Oh give thanks to יְהוָה. Call on His Name. Make known among the peoples what He has done.

9 Sing to Him. Sing praises to Him. Tell of all His marvelous works.

10 Glory in His set-apart Name. Let the heart of those who seek יְהוָה rejoice.

11 Seek יְהוָה and His strength. Seek His face forever more.

12 Remember His marvelous works that He has done, His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth, 13 you seed of Yisra'el His servant, you children of Ya'aqov, His chosen ones.

14 He is יְהוָה our Elohim. His judgments are in all the earth.

15 Remember His covenant forever, the word which He commanded to a thousand generations,

16 the covenant which He cut with Avraham, His oath to Yitshaq.

17 He confirmed the same to Ya'aqov for a statute, and to Yisra'el for an everlasting covenant,

18 saying, "I will give you the land of Kena'an, the lot of your inheritance," 19 when you were but a few men in number, yes, very few, and foreigners were in it.

20 They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people.

21 He allowed no man to do them wrong. Yes, He reproved kings for their sakes,

22 "Do not touch My anointed ones! Do My prophets no harm!"

23 Sing to יְהוָה, all the earth! Display His salvation from day to day.

24 Declare His glory among the nations, and His marvelous works among all the peoples.

25 For great is יְהוָה, and greatly to be praised. He also is to be feared above all elohim.

26 For all the elohim of the peoples are idols, but יְהוָה made the heavens.

27 Honor and majesty are before Him. Strength and gladness are in His place.

28 Ascribe to יְהוָה, you relatives of the peoples, ascribe to יְהוָה glory and strength!

29 Ascribe to יְהוָה the glory due to His Name. Bring an offering, and come before Him. Bow down to יְהוָה in set-apart array.

30 Tremble before Him, all the earth. The world also is established that it cannot be moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice! Let them say among the nations, "יְהוָה reigns!"

32 Let the sea roar, and its fullness! Let the field exult, and all that is in it!

33 Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before יְהוָה, for He comes to judge the earth.

34 Oh give thanks to יְהוָה, for He is good, for His loving-kindness endures forever.

35 Say, "Save us, Elohim of our salvation! Gather us together and deliver us from the nations, to give thanks to Your set-apart Name, to triumph in Your praise."

36 Blessed be יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, from everlasting even to everlasting. All the people said, "Amein," and praised יְהוָה.

37 So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of יְהוָה, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required; 38 and Oved-Edom with their brothers, sixty-eight; Oved-Edom also the son of Yeduthun and Hosah to be doorkeepers; 39 and Tsadoq the priest, and his brothers the priests, before the Tabernacle of יְהוָה in the high place that was at Givon, 40 to offer ascension offerings to יְהוָה on the altar of ascension offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the Torah of יְהוָה, which He commanded to Yisra'el; 41 and with them Heman and Yeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to יְהוָה, because His loving-kindness endures forever;

42 and with them Heman and Yeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should sound aloud, and with instruments for the songs of Elohim; and the sons of Yeduthun to be at the gate. 43 All the people departed, each man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

17 When David lived in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of יהוה is in a tent."

2 Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart; for Elohim is with you."

3 That same night, the word of Elohim came to Nathan, saying, 4 "Go and tell David My servant, 'יה' says, 'You shall not build Me a house to dwell in; 5 for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Yisra'el to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tent to another. 6 In all places in which I have walked with all Yisra'el, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Yisra'el, whom I commanded to be shepherd of My people, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?'''"

7 "Now therefore, you shall tell My servant David, 'יה' Tsevaot says, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, to be prince over My people Yisra'el. 8 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. 9 I will appoint a place for My people Yisra'el, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more. The children of unrighteousness will not waste them any more, as at the first, 10 and from the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Yisra'el. I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that יהה will build you a house. 11 It will happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. 12 He will build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. 13 I will be his father, and he will be My son. I will not take My loving-kindness away from him, as I took it from him that was before you; 14 but I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever. His throne will be established forever."'''

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

16 Then David the king went in, and sat before יהוה; and he said, "Who am I, הָאֵל יְהוָה Elohim, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far? 17 This was a small thing in Your eyes, Elohim; but You have spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have respected me according to the standard of a man of high degree, יהָאֵל Elohim. 18 What can David say yet more to You concerning the honor which is done to Your servant? For You know Your servant. 19 יהָאֵל, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, to make known all these great things. 20 הָאֵל, there is no one like You, neither is there any Elohim besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 21 What one nation in the earth is like your people Yisra'el, whom Elohim went to redeem to Himself for a people, to make You a Name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeem out of Mitsrayim?

22 "For You made Your people Yisra'el Your own people forever; and You, יהָאֵל, became their Elohim.

23 Now, יהָאֵל, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house, be firm forever, and do as You have spoken. 24 Let Your Name be firm and magnified forever, saying, יהָאֵל Tsevaot is the Elohim of Yisra'el, even a Elohim to Yisra'el. The house of David Your servant is established before You.' 25 For You, my Elohim, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You. 26 Now, יהָאֵל, You are Elohim, and have promised this good thing to Your servant. 27 Now it has pleased You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You; for You, יהָאֵל, have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

18 After this, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 2 He defeated Moav; and the Moavites became servants to David, and brought tribute. 3 David defeated Hadadezer king of Tsoyah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the Perath River^a. 4 David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them enough for one hundred chariots. 5 When the Arameans of Dammeseq came to help Hadadezer king of Tsoyah, David struck twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians. 6 Then David put garrisons in Aram of Dammeseq; and the Arameans became servants to David, and brought tribute. ¶ gave victory to David wherever he went. 7 David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Yerushalayim. 8 From Tibhath and from Kun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much copper, with which Shelomoh made the copper sea, the pillars, and the vessels of copper.

9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer king of Tsovah, 10 he sent Hadoram his son to King David, to greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him (for Hadadezer had wars with Tou); and he had with him all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and copper. 11 King David also dedicated these to ¶, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, from Moav, from the children of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amaleq. 12 Moreover Avishai the son of Tseruyah struck eighteen thousand of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt. 13 He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. ¶ gave victory to David wherever he went.

14 David reigned over all Yisra'el; and he executed judgment and righteousness for all his people. 15 Yoav the son of Tseruyah was over the army; Yehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; 16 Tsadoq the son of Ahituv, and Avimelekh the son of Evyathar, were priests; Shavsha was scribe; 17 and Benayahu the son of Yehoyada was over the Kerethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief officials serving the king.

19 After this, Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. 2 David said, "I will show loving-kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed loving-kindness to me."

So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. 3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Have his servants not come to you to search, to overthrow, and to spy out the land?" 4 So Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle at their buttocks, and sent them away. 5 Then some people went and told David how the men were treated. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Yeriho until your beards have grown, and then return."

6 When the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen out of Aram-Naharayim, out of Aram-ma'akah, and out of Tsovah. 7 So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Ma'akah with his people, who came and encamped near Medeva. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. 8 When David heard of it, he sent Yoav with all the army of the mighty men.

9 The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city; and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. 10 Now when Yoav saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose some of all the choice men of Yisra'el, and put them in array against the Arameans. 11 The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Avishai his brother; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon. 12 He said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. 13 Be strengthened, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our Elohim. May ¶ do that which seems good to Him."

14 So Yoav and the people who were with him came near to the front of the Arameans to the battle; and they fled before him. 15 When the children of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before Avishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Yoav came to Yerushalayim.

16 When the Arameans saw that they were defeated by Yisra'el, they sent messengers, and called out the Arameans who were beyond the River, with Shophak the captain of the army of Hadadezer leading them. 17 David was told about it; so he gathered all Yisra'el together, passed over the Yarden, came to them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Arameans, they fought with him. 18 The Arameans fled before Yisra'el; and David killed of the Aramean men seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and also killed Shophak the captain of the army. 19 When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Yisra'el, they made peace with David, and served him. The Arameans would not help the children of Ammon any more.

20 At the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, Yoav led out the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Yerushalayim. Yoav struck Rabbah, and overthrew it. 2 David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. It was set on David's head, and he brought very much plunder out of the city. 3 He brought out the people who were in it, and had them cut with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. David did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Yerushalayim.

4 After this, war arose at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbekai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the sons of the Rephaim; and they were subdued.

5 Again there was war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Yair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. 6 There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was born to the Rephaim. 7 When he defied Yisra'el, Yehonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him. 8 These were born to the Rephaim in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

21 Satan^a stood up against Yisra'el, and moved David to number Yisra'el. 2 David said to Yoav and to the princes of the people, "Go, count Yisra'el from Beersheva even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know how many there are."

3 Yoav said, "May יהוה make His people a hundred times as many as they are. But, my master the king, are they not all my master's servants? Why does my master require this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Yisra'el?"

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Yoav. Therefore Yoav departed, and went throughout all Yisra'el, then came to Yerushalayim. 5 Yoav gave up the sum of the census of the people to David. All those of Yisra'el were one million one hundred thousand men who drew a sword; and in Yehudah were four hundred seventy thousand men who drew a sword. 6 But he did not count Levi and Benyamin among them; for the king's word was abominable to Yoav.

7 Elohim was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Yisra'el. 8 David said to Elohim, "I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. But now put away, I beg You, the iniquity of Your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

9 יהוה spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, 10 "Go and speak to David, saying, יהוה says, 'I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you.'"

11 So Gad came to David, and said to him, "יהוה says, 'Take your choice: 12 either three years of famine; or three new moons to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of יהוה, even pestilence in the land, and the messenger of יהוה destroying throughout all the borders of Yisra'el.' Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."

13 David said to Gad, "I am in distress. Let me fall, I pray, into the hand of יהוה; for His compassion is very great. Do not let me fall into man's hand."

14 So יהוה sent a pestilence on Yisra'el, and seventy thousand men of Yisra'el fell. 15 Elohim sent a messenger to Yerushalayim to destroy it. As he was about to destroy, יהוה saw, and he relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying messenger, "It is enough. Now withdraw your hand." The messenger of יהוה was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite. 16 David lifted up his eyes, and saw the messenger of יהוה standing between earth and the heavens, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Yerushalayim. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. 17 David said to Elohim, "Is it not I who commanded the people to be counted? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand, O יהוה my Elohim, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against Your people, that they should be plagued."

18 Then the messenger of יהוה commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up and raise an altar to יהוה on the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite. 19 David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the Name of יהוה.

20 Ornan turned back, and saw the messenger; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. 21 As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

^a See footnote at Zekharyah 3:1. Here in Hebrew, the word sa'tahn is missing the definite article hey (ה) prefix. Thus here it has been rendered as "Satan" rather than "the adversary."

22 Then David said to Ornan, "Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar to יְהוָה on it. You shall sell it to me for the full price, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people."

23 Ornan said to David, "Take it for yourself, and let my master the king do that which is good in his eyes. Behold, I give the oxen for ascension offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all."

24 King David said to Ornan, "No; but I will most certainly buy it for the full price. For I will not take that which is yours for יְהוָה, nor offer an ascension offering that costs me nothing."

25 So David gave to Ornan six hundred sheqels of gold by weight for the place. 26 David built an altar to יְהוָה there, and offered ascension offerings and peace offerings, and called on יְהוָה; and He answered him from the heavens by fire on the altar of ascension offering.

27 Then יְהוָה commanded the messenger, and he put his sword back into its sheath. 28 At that time, when David saw that יְהוָה had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite, then he slaughtered there. 29 For the Tabernacle of יְהוָה, which Moshe made in the wilderness, and the altar of ascension offering, were at that time in the high place at Givon. 30 But David could not go before it to inquire of Elohim; for he was afraid because of the sword of the messenger of יְהוָה.

22 Then David said, "This is the house of יְהוָה Elohim, and this is the altar of ascension offering for Yisra'el."

2 David gave orders to gather together the sojourners who were in the land of Yisra'el; and he set masons to cut dressed stones to build the house of Elohim. 3 David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and copper in abundance without weight; 4 and cedar trees without number, for the Tsidonians and the people of Tzor brought cedar trees in abundance to David. 5 David said, "Shelomoh my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for יְהוָה must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries. I will therefore make preparation for it." So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 Then he called for Shelomoh his son, and commanded him to build a house for יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el.

7 David said to Shelomoh his son, "As for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the Name of יְהוָה my Elohim. 8 But the word of יְהוָה came to me, saying, 'You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars. You shall not build a house to My Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.'

9 Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of peace. I will give him rest from all his enemies all around; for his name shall be Shelomoh, and I will give peace and quietness to Yisra'el in his days. 10 He shall build a house for My Name; and he will be My son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Yisra'el for ever.' 11 Now, my son, may יְהוָה be with you and prosper you, and build the house of יְהוָה your Elohim, as He has spoken concerning you.

12 May יְהוָה give you discretion and understanding, and put you in charge of Yisra'el; that so you may guard the Torah of יְהוָה your Elohim. 13 Then you will prosper, if you guard to do the statutes and the judgments which יְהוָה gave Moshe concerning Yisra'el. Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed. 14 Now, behold, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of יְהוָה one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and copper and iron without weight; for it is in abundance. I have also prepared timber and stone; and you may add to them. 15 There are also workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of men who are skillful in every kind of work; 16 of the gold, the silver, the copper, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may יְהוָה be with you."

17 David also commanded all the princes of Yisra'el to help Shelomoh his son, saying, 18 "Is יְהוָה your Elohim not with you? Has He not given you rest on every side? For He has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before יְהוָה, and before His people. 19 Now set your heart and your being to follow יְהוָה your Elohim. Arise therefore, and build the set-apart place of יְהוָה Elohim, to bring the ark of the covenant of יְהוָה and the set-apart vessels of Elohim into the house that is to be built for the Name of יְהוָה."

23 Now David was old and full of days; and he made Shelomoh his son king over Yisra'el. 2 He gathered together all the princes of Yisra'el, with the priests and the Levites. 3 The Levites were counted from thirty years old and upward; and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty-eight thousand. 4 David said, "Of these, twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of יְהוָה, six thousand were officers and judges, 5 four thousand were doorkeepers, and four thousand praised הָלֹא with the instruments which I made for giving praise."

6 David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Qohath, and Merari.

7 Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimi. 8 The sons of Ladan: Yehi'el the chief, Zetham, and Yo'el, three. 9 The sons of Shimi: Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan. 10 The sons of Shimi: Yahath, Zina, Yeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimi. 11 Yahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Yeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they became a fathers' house in one reckoning.

12 The sons of Qohath: Amram, Yitshar, Hevron, and Uzzi'el, four. 13 The sons of Amram: Aharon and Mosheh; and Aharon was separated, that he should set apart the most set-apart things, he and his sons, forever, to burn incense before הַנִּזְבֵּחַ, to minister to Him, and to bless in His Name, forever. 14 But as for Mosheh the man of Elohim, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi. 15 The sons of Mosheh: Gershom and Eliezer. 16 The sons of Gershom: Shevu'el the chief. 17 The sons of Eliezer were: Rehavyah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rehavyah were very many. 18 The sons of Yitshar: Shelomith the chief. 19 The sons of Hevron: Yeriyahu the chief, Amaryah the second, Yaḥazi'el the third, and Yeqameam the fourth. 20 The sons of Uzzi'el: Mikhah the chief, and Yishshiyah the second. 21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Elazar and Qish. 22 Elazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only: and their brothers the sons of Qish took them as wives. 23 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Yeremot, three.

24 These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of the fathers' houses of those who were counted individually, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of הַנִּזְבֵּחַ, from twenty years old and upward.

25 For David said, "הַנִּזְבֵּחַ", the Elohim of Yisra'el, has given rest to His people; and He dwells in Yerushalayim forever. 26 Also the Levites will no longer need to carry the Tabernacle and all its vessels for its service."

27 For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were counted, from twenty years old and upward. 28 For their office was to wait on the sons of Aharon for the service of the house of הַנִּזְבֵּחַ, in the courts, and in the rooms, and in the purifying of all set-apart things, even the work of the service of the house of Elohim; 29 for the show bread also, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all measurements of quantity and size; 30 and to stand every morning to thank and praise הָלֹא, and likewise in the evening; 31 and to offer all ascension offerings to הָלֹא, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set Feasts, in number according to the judgment concerning them, continually before הַנִּזְבֵּחַ; 32 and that they should guard the charge of the Tent of Appointment, the charge of the set-apart place, and the charge of the sons of Aharon their brothers, for the service of the house of הַנִּזְבֵּחַ.

24 These were the divisions of the sons of Aharon.

The sons of Aharon: Nadav, Avihu, Elazar, and Ithamar. 2 But Nadav and Avihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Elazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. 3 David with Tsadoq of the sons of Elazar, and Ahimelekh of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service.

4 There were more chief men found of the sons of Elazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and they were divided like this: of the sons of Elazar there were sixteen, heads of fathers' houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight. 5 Thus were they divided impartially by drawing lots; for there were princes of the set-apart place, and princes of Elohim, both of the sons of Elazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 Shemayah the son of Nathan'el the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, the princes, Tsadoq the priest, Ahimelekh the son of Evyathar, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites; one fathers' house being taken for Elazar, and one taken for Ithamar. 7 Now the first lot came out to Yehoyariv, the second to Yedayah, 8 the third to Ḥarim, the fourth to Seorim, 9 the fifth to Malkiyah, the sixth to Miyamin, 10 the seventh to Haqots, the eighth to Aviyah, 11 the ninth to Yeshua, the tenth to Shekanyahu, 12 the eleventh to Elyashiv, the twelfth to Yakim, 13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Yeshevav, 14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, 15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteen to Happitsets, 16 the nineteenth to Pethahyah, the twentieth to Yehezqel, 17 the twenty-first to Yakin, the twenty-second to Gamul, 18 the twenty-third to Delayahu, and the twenty-fourth to Ma'azyahu. 19 This was their ordering in their service, to come into the house of הַנִּזְבֵּחַ according to the judgment given to them by Aharon their father, as הַנִּזְבֵּחַ, the Elohim of Yisra'el, had commanded him.

20 Of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shuvael; of the sons of Shuva'el, Yehdeyahu. 21 Of Rehavyahu: of the sons of Rehavyahu, Yishshiyah the chief. 22 Of the Yitsharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Yahath. 23 The sons of Hevron: Yeriyahu, Amaryahu the second, Yaħazi'el the third, and Yekameam the fourth. 24 The sons of Uzzi'el: Mikhah; of the sons of Mikhah, Shamir. 25 The brother of Mikhah: Yishshiyah; of the sons of Yishshiyah, Zekharyahu. 26 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The son of Ya'aziyahu: Beno. 27 The sons of Merari: of Ya'aziyah, Beno, Shoham, Zakkur, and Ivri. 28 Of Mahli: Elazar, who had no sons. 29 Of Qish, the son of Qish: Yerahme'el. 30 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Yerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after their fathers' houses. 31 These likewise cast lots even as their brothers the sons of Aharon in the presence of David the king, Tsadoq, Ahimelekh, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites; the fathers' households of the chief even as those of his younger brother.

25 Moreover, David and the captains of the army set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Yeduthun, who were to prophesy with harps, with stringed instruments, and with cymbals. The number of those who did the work according to their service was: 2 of the sons of Asaph: Zakkur, Yoseph, Nethanyah, and Asharelah. The sons of Asaph were under the hand of Asaph, who prophesied at the order of the king. 3 Of Yeduthun; the sons of Yeduthun: Gedalyahu, Tseri, Yeshayahu, Shimi, Hashavyahu, and Mattithyahu, six, under the hands of their father Yeduthun, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising יְהוָה with the harp. 4 Of Heman; the sons of Heman: Buqqiyahu, Mattanyahu, Uzzi'el, Shevu'el, Yerimoth, Hananyah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Yoshbeqashah, Mallohi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. 5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of Elohim, to lift up the horn. Elohim gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. 6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of יְהוָה, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the house of Elohim; Asaph, Yeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the king. 7 The number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to יְהוָה, even all who were skillful, was two hundred eighty-eight. 8 They cast lots for their offices, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher as well as the student.

9 Now the first lot came out for Asaph to Yoseph; the second to Gedalyah, he and his brothers and sons were twelve; 10 the third to Zakkur, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 11 the fourth to Yitsri, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 12 the fifth to Nethanyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 13 the sixth to Buqqiyah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 14 the seventh to Yesharelah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 15 the eighth to Yeshayahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 16 the ninth to Mattanyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 17 the tenth to Shimi, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 18 the eleventh to Azar'el, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 19 the twelfth to Hashavyah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 20 for the thirteenth, Shuva'el, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 21 for the fourteenth, Mattithyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 22 for the fifteenth to Yeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 23 for the sixteenth to Hananyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 24 for the seventeenth to Yoshbeqashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 25 for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 26 for the nineteenth to Mallohi, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 27 for the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 28 for the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 29 for the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 30 for the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 31 for the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

26 For the divisions of the doorkeepers: of the Qorahites, Meshelemyahu the son of Qore, of the sons of Asaph. 2 Meshelemyahu had sons: Zekharyahu the firstborn, Yediya'el the second, Zevadyahu the third, Yathni'el the fourth, 3 Elam the fifth, Yehohanah the sixth, and Eliehoenai the seventh. 4 Oved-Edom had sons: Shemayah the firstborn, Yehozavad the second, Yoah the third, Sakar the fourth, Nethan'el the fifth, 5 Ammi'el the sixth, Yissakhar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth; for Elohim blessed him. 6 Sons were also born to Shemayah his son, who ruled over the house of their father; for they were mighty men of valor. 7 The sons of Shemayah: Othni, Repha'el, Oved, and Elzavad, whose brothers were valiant men, Elihu, and Semakyahu. 8 All these were of the sons of Oved-Edom: they and their sons and their brothers, able men in strength for the service; sixty-two of Oved-Edom. 9 Meshelemyahu had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen. 10 Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him chief), 11 Hilqiyyahu the second, Tevalyah the third, and Zekharyahu the fourth: all the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen. 12 Of these were the divisions of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having offices like their brothers, to minister in the house of יְהוָה.

13 They cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for every gate. 14 The lot eastward fell to Shelemyahu. Then for Zekharyahu his son, a wise counselor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. 15 To Oved-Edom southward; and to his sons the storehouse. 16 To Shuppim and Ḥosah westward, by the gate of Shallekheth, at the causeway that goes up, watchman opposite watchman.

17 Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and for the storehouse two and two. 18 For Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar. 19 These were the divisions of the doorkeepers; of the sons of the Qorahites, and of the sons of Merari.

20 Of the Levites, Ahiyah was over the treasures of the house of Elohim and over the treasures of the dedicated things. 21 The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers' households belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Yehi'eli. 22 The sons of Yehi'eli: Zetham, and Yo'el his brother, over the treasures of the house of פֶּתַח־תְּהִלָּה. 23 Of the Amramites, of the Yitsharites, of the Hevronites, of the Uzzi'elites: 24 and Shevu'el the son of Gershom, the son of Mosheh, was ruler over the treasures. 25 His brothers: of Eliezer, Reḥavyahu his son, and Yeshayahu his son, and Yoram his son, and Zikri his son, and Shelomoth his son. 26 This Shelomoth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' households, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated. 27 They dedicated some of the plunder won in battles to repair the house of פֶּתַח־תְּהִלָּה. 28 All that Shemu'el the seer, and Sha'ul the son of Qish, and Avner the son of Ner, and Yoav the son of Tseruyah, had dedicated, whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomoth, and of his brothers.

29 Of the Yitsharites, Kenanyahu and his sons were for the outward business over Yisra'el, for officers and judges. 30 Of the Hevronites, Hashavyahu and his brothers, men of valor, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Yisra'el beyond the Yarden westward, for all the business of פֶּתַח־תְּהִלָּה, and for the service of the king. 31 Of the Hevronites was Yeriyah the chief, even of the Hevronites, according to their generations by fathers' households. They were sought for in the fortieth year of the reign of David, and mighty men of valor were found among them at Yazer of Gilad. 32 His brothers, men of valor, were two thousand seven hundred, heads of fathers' households, whom King David made overseers over the Reuvenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Menashites, for every matter pertaining to Elohim, and for the affairs of the king.

27 Now the children of Yisra'el after their number, the heads of fathers' households and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king, in any matter of the divisions which came in and went out new moon by new moon throughout all the new moons of the year—of every division were twenty-four thousand. 2 Over the first division for the first new moon was Yashovam the son of ZAvdi'el: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. 3 He was of the children of Perets, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first new moon. 4 Over the division of the second new moon was Dodai the Ahohite, and his division; and Miqloth the ruler: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

5 The third captain of the army for the third new moon was Benayahu, the son of Yehoyada the priest, chief: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. 6 This is that Benayahu who was the mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty: and of his division was Ammizavad his son.

7 The fourth captain for the fourth new moon was Asah'el the brother of Yoav, and Zevadyah his son after him: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

8 The fifth captain for the fifth new moon was Shamhuth the Yitsrahite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

9 The sixth captain for the sixth new moon was Ira the son of Iqqesh the Teqoite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

10 The seventh captain for the seventh new moon was Helets the Pelonite, of the children of Ephrayim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

11 The eighth captain for the eighth new moon was Sibbekai the ḥushathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

12 The ninth captain for the ninth new moon was Aviezer the Anathothite, of the Benyamites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

13 The tenth captain for the tenth new moon was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh new moon was Benayah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephrayim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth new moon was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othni'el: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

16 Furthermore over the tribes of Yisra'el: of the Reuvenites was Eliezer the son of Zikri the ruler; of the Shimonites, Shephatyahu the son of Ma'akah; 17 of Levi, Hashavyah the son of Qemu'el; of Aharon, Tsadoq; 18 of Yehudah, Elihu, one of the brothers of David; of Yissakhar, Omri the son of Mikha'el; 19 of Zevulun, Yishmayahu the son of Ovadyahu; of Naphtali, Yeremoth the son of Azri'el; 20 of the children of Ephrayim, Hoshea the son of Azazyahu; of the half-tribe of Menasheh, Yo'el the son of Pedayah; 21 of the half-tribe of Menasheh in Gilad, Iddo the son of Zekharyahu; of Benyamin, Ya'asi'el the son of Avner; 22 of Dan, Azar'el the son of Yeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Yisra'el. 23 But David did not take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because יְהוָה had said he would increase Yisra'el like the stars of the heavens. 24 Yoav the son of Tseruyah began to take a census, but did not finish; and wrath came on Yisra'el for this. The number was not put into the account in the chronicles of King David.

25 Over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adi'el; and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Yehonathan the son of Uzziyah; 26 over those who did the work of the field for service of the ground was Ezri the son of Keluv; 27 and over the vineyards was Shimi the Ramathite; and over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zavdi the Shiphmite; 28 and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Ba'al Hanan the Gederite; and over the cellars of oil was Yoash; 29 and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite; and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai; 30 and over the camels was Ovil the Yishma'elite; and over the donkeys was Yehdeyah the Meronothite; and over the flocks was Yaziz the Hagrite. 31 All these were the rulers of the property which was King David's.

32 Also Yehonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Yehi'el the son of Hakmoni was with the king's sons. 33 Ahithophel was the king's counselor: and Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend. 34 After Ahithophel was Yehoyada the son of Benayahu, and Evyathar. Yoav was the captain of the king's army.

28 David assembled all the princes of Yisra'el, the princes of the tribes, the captains of the companies who served the king by division, the captains of thousands, the captains of hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officers and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valor, to Yerushalayim. 2 Then David the king stood up on his feet, and said, "Hear me, my brothers, and my people! As for me, it was in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of יְהוָה, and for the footstool of our Elohim; and I had prepared for the building. 3 But Elohim said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My Name, because you are a man of war, and have shed blood.' 4 However יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Yisra'el forever. For He has chosen Yehudah to be prince; and in the house of Yehudah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Yisra'el. 5 Of all my sons (for יְהוָה has given me many sons), He has chosen Shelomoh my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of יְהוָה over Yisra'el.

6 He said to me, 'Shelomoh, your son, shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his father. 7 I will establish his kingdom forever if he continues to do My commands and My judgments, as it is today.'

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Yisra'el, the assembly of יְהוָה, and in the audience of our Elohim, guard and seek out all the commands of יְהוָה your Elohim; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever. 9 You, Shelomoh my son, know the Elohim of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing being; for יְהוָה searches all hearts, and understands all the inclinations of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever. 10 Take heed now; for יְהוָה has chosen you to build a house for the set-apart place. Be strong, and do it."

11 Then David gave to Shelomoh his son the plans for the porch of the Temple, for its houses, for its treasuries, for its upper rooms, for its inner rooms, for the place of the lid; 12 and the plans of all that he had by the Ruah, for the courts of the house of יְהוָה, for all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the house of Elohim, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; 13 also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of יְהוָה, and for all the vessels of service in the house of יְהוָה; 14 of gold by weight for the gold, for all vessels of every kind of service; for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; 15 by weight also for the menorot of gold, and for its lamps, of gold, by weight for every menorah and for its lamps; and for the menorot of silver, by weight for every menorah and for its lamps, according to the service of every menorah; 16 and the gold by weight for the tables of show bread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver; 17 and the forks, the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl; 18 and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the plans for the chariot, and the keruvim that spread out and cover the ark of the covenant of יְהוָה. 19 "All this", said David, "I have been made to understand in writing from the hand of יְהוָה, even all the works of this pattern."

20 David said to Shalomoh his son, "Be strong and courageous, and do it. Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; for יְהוָה Elohim, even my Elohim, is with you. He will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of יְהוָה is finished.

21 Behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of Elohim. Every willing wise man, for any kind of service, shall be with you in all kinds of work. Also the captains and all the people will be entirely at your command."

29 David the king said to all the assembly, "Shelomoh my son, whom alone Elohim has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for יְהוָה Elohim. 2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my Elohim: the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, the copper for the things of copper, iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; also onyx stones, stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 "In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my Elohim, since I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my Elohim, over and above all that I have prepared for the set-apart house, 4 even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; 5 of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be made by the hands of artisans. Who then offers willingly to set himself apart today to יְהוָה?"

6 Then the princes of the fathers' households, and the princes of the tribes of Yisra'el, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly; 7 and they gave for the service of the house of Elohim of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, of silver ten thousand talents, of copper eighteen thousand talents, and of iron one hundred thousand talents.

8 People with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of יְהוָה, under the hand of Yehi'el the Gershonite. 9 Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to יְהוָה; and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 Therefore David blessed יְהוָה before all the assembly; and David said, "You are blessed, יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el our father, forever and ever.

11 Yours, יְהוָה, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty! For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is Yours. Yours is the kingdom, יְהוָה, and You are exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honor come from You, and You rule over all! In Your hand is power and might! It is in Your hand to make great, and to give strength to all! 13 Now therefore, our Elohim, we thank You, and praise Your glorious Name.

14 "But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from You, and of Your own have we given You. 15 For we are sojourners before You, and guests, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no remaining. 16 יְהוָה our Elohim, all this store that we have prepared to build You a house for Your set-apart Name comes from Your hand, and is all Your own. 17 I know also, my Elohim, that You try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. Now I have seen with joy Your people, who are present here, offer willingly to You. 18 יְהוָה, the Elohim of Avraham, of Yitshaq, and of Yisra'el, our fathers, guard this desire forever in the inclinations of the heart of Your people, and prepare their heart for You; 19 and give to Shelomoh my son a perfect heart, to guard Your commands, Your witnesses, and Your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision."

20 Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless יְהוָה your Elohim!" All the assembly blessed יְהוָה, the Elohim of their fathers, and stooped their heads low and bowed themselves down before יְהוָה and the king.

21 They slaughtered sacrifices to יְהוָה, and offered ascension offerings to יְהוָה, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and slaughterings in abundance for all Yisra'el, 22 and ate and drank before יְהוָה on that day with great gladness. They made Shelomoh the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before יְהוָה to be prince, and Tsadoq to be priest.

23 Then Shelomoh sat on the throne of יְהוָה as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Yisra'el obeyed him. 24 All the princes, the mighty men, and also all of the sons of King David submitted themselves to Shelomoh the king. 25 יְהוָה magnified Shelomoh exceedingly in the sight of all Yisra'el, and gave to him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Yisra'el.

26 Now David the son of Yishai reigned over all Yisra'el. 27 The time that he reigned over Yisra'el was forty years; he reigned seven years in Ḥevron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Yerushalayim. 28 He died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor; and Shelomoh his son reigned in his place. 29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Shemu'el the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, 30 with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Yisra'el, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

דִּבְרֵי הַיּוֹםִים ב

Divrei Ha'Yamim ב (2 Chronicles)

1 Shelomoh the son of David was firmly established in his kingdom, and יהוה his Elohim was with him, and made him exceedingly great. 2 Shelomoh spoke to all Yisra'el, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every prince in all Yisra'el, the heads of the fathers' households. 3 So Shelomoh, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Givon; for the Tent of Appointment of Elohim was there, which Mosheh the servant of יהוה had made in the wilderness. 4 But David had brought the ark of Elohim up from Qiryath Yearim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Yerushalayim. 5 Moreover the copper altar that Betsal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there before the Tabernacle of יהוה; and Shelomoh and the assembly were seeking counsel there. 6 Shelomoh went up there to the copper altar before יהוה, which was at the Tent of Appointment, and offered one thousand ascension offerings on it.

7 That night, Elohim appeared to Shelomoh and said to him, "Ask for what you want Me to give you."

8 Shelomoh said to Elohim, "You have shown great loving-kindness to David my father, and have made me king in his place. 9 Now, יהוה Elohim, let Your promise to David my father be faithful; for You have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. 10 Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?"

11 Elohim said to Shelomoh, "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, honor, or the life of those who hate you, nor yet have you asked for long life; but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people, over whom I have made you king, 12 therefore wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. I will give you riches, wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you had, and none after you will have."

13 So Shelomoh came from the high place that was at Givon, from before the Tent of Appointment, to Yerushalayim; and he reigned over Yisra'el.

14 Shelomoh gathered chariots and horsemen. He had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Yerushalayim. 15 The king made silver and gold to be as common as stones in Yerushalayim, and he made cedars to be as common as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland. 16 The horses which Shelomoh had were brought out of Mitsrayim and from Que. The king's merchants purchased them from Que. 17 They brought up and brought out of Mitsrayim a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty. They also exported them to the Hittite kings and the Aramean kings.

2 Now Shelomoh decided to build a house for the Name of יהוה, and a house for his kingdom.

2 Shelomoh counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand men who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them. 3 Shelomoh sent to Huram the king of Tsor, saying, "As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build him a house in which to dwell, so deal with me. 4 Behold, I am about to build a house for the Name of יהוה my Elohim, to dedicate it to Him, to burn before Him incense of sweet spices, for the continual show bread, and for the ascension offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set Feasts of יהוה our Elohim. This is an ordinance forever to Yisra'el.

5 "The house which I am building will be great; for our Elohim is greater than all elohim. 6 But who is able to build Him a house, since the heavens and the heaven of the heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a house, except just to burn incense before Him? 7 Now therefore send me a man skillful to work in gold, in silver, in copper, in iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave engravings, to be with the skillful men who are with me in Yehudah and in Yerushalayim, whom David my father provided. 8 Send me also cedar trees, cypress trees, and algum trees out of Levanon; for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Levanon. Behold, my servants will be with your servants, 9 even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

10 Behold, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand cors of beaten wheat, twenty thousand baths of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil."

11 Then Huram the king of Tsor answered in writing, which he sent to Shelomoh, "Because יהוה loves His people, He has made you king over them." 12 Huram continued, "Blessed be יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, who made the heavens and the earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who would build a house for יהוה, and a house for his kingdom. 13 Now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, of Huram my father's, 14 the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tsor, skillful to work in gold, in silver, in copper, in iron, in stone, in timber, and in purple, in blue, in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any kind of engraving and to devise any device; that there may be a place appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my master David your father. 15 Now therefore the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my master has spoken of, let him send to his servants; 16 and we will cut wood out of Levanon, as much as you need. We will bring it to you in floats by sea to Yapho; and you shall carry it up to Yerushalayim."

17 Shelomoh counted all the sojourners of the men who were in the land of Yisra'el, after the numbering with which David his father had counted them; and they found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred. 18 He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to assign the people their work.

3 Then Shelomoh began to build the house of יהוה at Yerushalayim on Mount Moriah, where יהוה appeared to David his father, which he prepared in the place that David had appointed, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite. 2 He began to build in the second day of the second new moon, in the fourth year of his reign. 3 Now these are the foundations which Shelomoh laid for the building of the house of Elohim. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits. 4 The porch that was in front, its length, according to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold. 5 He made the larger room with a ceiling of cypress wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains. 6 He decorated the house with precious stones for beauty. The gold was gold from Parvaim. 7 He also overlaid the house, the beams, the thresholds, its walls, and its doors with gold; and engraved keruvim on the walls.

8 He made the most set-apart place. Its length, according to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. 9 The weight of the nails was fifty sheqels of gold. He overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

10 In the most set-apart place he made two keruvim by carving; and they overlaid them with gold. 11 The wings of the keruvim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other keruv. 12 The wing of the other keruv was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, joining to the wing of the other keruv. 13 The wings of these keruvim spread themselves out twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house. 14 He made the veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and ornamented it with keruvim.

15 Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits height, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. 16 He made chains in the inner set-apart place, and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. 17 He set up the pillars before the Temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Yakin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

4 Then he made an altar of copper, twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high. 2 Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim. It was round, five cubits high, and thirty cubits in circumference. 3 Under it was the likeness of oxen, which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. 4 It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hindquarters were inward. 5 It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily. It received and held three thousand baths. 6 He also made ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them. The things that belonged to the ascension offering were washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 He made the ten menorot of gold according to the judgment concerning them; and he set them in the Temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. 8 He made also ten tables, and placed them in the Temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. He made one hundred basins of gold. 9 Furthermore he made the court of the priests, the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with copper. 10 He set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.

11 Huram made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Huram finished doing the work that he did for King Shelomoh in the house of Elohim: 12 the two pillars, the bowls, the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, 13 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars. 14 He also made the bases, and he made the basins on the bases; 15 one sea, and the twelve oxen under it.

16 Huram his father also made the pots, the shovels, the forks, and all its vessels for King Shelomoh, for the house of יהוה, of bright copper. 17 The king cast them in the plain of the Yarden, in the clay ground between Sukkoth and Tseredah. 18 Thus Shelomoh made all these vessels in great abundance; for the weight of the copper could not be determined.

19 Shelomoh made all the vessels that were in the house of Elohim, the golden altar also, and the tables with the show bread on them; 20 and the menorot with their lamps, to burn according to the judgment before the inner set-apart place, of pure gold; 21 and the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold that was perfect gold; 22 and the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and the fire pans of pure gold. As for the entry of the house, its inner doors for the most set-apart place and the doors of the main hall of the Temple were of gold.

5 Thus all the work that Shelomoh did for the house of יהוה was finished. Shelomoh brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasures of the house of Elohim.

2 Then Shelomoh assembled the elders of Yisra'el, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' households of the children of Yisra'el, to Yerushalayim, to bring up the ark of the covenant of יהוה out of the city of David, which is Tsion. 3 So all the men of Yisra'el assembled themselves to the king at the Feast, which was in the seventh new moon. 4 All the elders of Yisra'el came. The Levites took up the ark; 5 and they brought up the ark, the Tent of Appointment, and all the set-apart vessels that were in the Tent; these the priests the Levites brought up. 6 King Shelomoh and all the congregation of Yisra'el, who were assembled to him, were before the ark, slaughtering sheep and cattle that could not be counted or counted for multitude. 7 The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of יהוה to its place, into the inner set-apart place of the house, to the most set-apart place, even under the wings of the keruvim. 8 For the keruvim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, and the keruvim covered the ark and its poles above. 9 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark in front of the inner set-apart place; but they were not seen outside; and it is there to this day. 10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Mosheh put at Horev, when יהוה cut a covenant with the children of Yisra'el, when they came out of Mitsrayim.

11 When the priests had come out of the set-apart place (for all the priests who were present had set themselves apart, and did not guard their divisions; 12 also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Yeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with trumpets); 13 when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking יהוה; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised יהוה, saying, "For He is good; for His loving-kindness endures for ever!" then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of יהוה, 14 so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of יהוה filled the house of Elohim.

6 Then Shelomoh said, "יהוה has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. 2 But I have built You a house and home, a place for You to dwell in forever."

3 The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Yisra'el: and all the assembly of Yisra'el stood. 4 He said, "Blessed be יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, who spoke with His mouth to David my father, and has with His hands fulfilled it, saying, 5 'Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Mitsrayim, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Yisra'el to build a house in, that My Name might be there and I chose no man to be prince over My people Yisra'el; 6 but now I have chosen Yerushalayim, that My Name might be there; and I have chosen David to be over My people Yisra'el.' 7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the Name of יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el. 8 But יהוה said to David my father, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for My Name, you did well that it was in your heart; 9 nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who will come out of your loins, he shall build the house for My Name.'

10 "יהוה has performed His word that He spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Yisra'el, as יהוה promised, and have built the house for the Name of יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el. 11 There I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of יהוה, which He cut with the children of Yisra'el."

12 He stood before the altar of יהוה in the presence of all the assembly of Yisra'el, and spread out his hands

13 (for Shelomoh had made a copper basin, five cubits long, and five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the middle of the court; and he stood on it, and knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Yisra'el, and spread out his hands toward the heavens)

14 and he said, "תְּהִלָּתִי, the Elohim of Yisra'el, there is no Elohim like You in heavens or on earth; You who guard covenant and loving-kindness with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart;

15 who have guarded with Your servant David my father that which You promised him. Yes, You spoke with Your mouth, and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is today.

16 "Now therefore, תְּהִלָּתִי, the Elohim of Yisra'el, guard with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him, saying, 'There shall not be cut off from you a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Yisra'el, if only your children guard their way, to walk in My Torot as you have walked before Me.'

17 Now therefore, תְּהִלָּתִי, the Elohim of Yisra'el, let Your word be faithful, which You spoke to Your servant David.

18 But will Elohim indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heaven of the heavens cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built!?

19 Yet have respect for the prayer of Your servant, and to his petition, תְּהִלָּתִי my Elohim, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You;

20 that Your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place where You have said that You would put Your Name; to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place.

21 Listen to the petitions of Your servant, and of Your people Yisra'el, when they pray toward this place. Yes, hear from Your dwelling place, even from the heavens; and when You hear, forgive.

22 "If a man sins against his neighbor, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swears before Your altar in this house;

23 then hear from the heavens, act, and judge Your servants, bringing retribution to the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and declaring the righteous right, to give him according to his righteousness.

24 "If Your people Yisra'el are struck down before the enemy because they have sinned against You, and they turn again and confess Your Name, and pray and make petition before You in this house;

25 then hear from the heavens, and forgive the sin of Your people Yisra'el, and bring them again to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers.

26 When the heavens are closed up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You; if they pray toward this place, and confess Your Name, and turn from their sin, when You afflict them;

27 then hear in the heavens, and forgive the sin of Your servants of Your people Yisra'el, when You teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

28 "If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

29 whatever prayer and petition is made by any man, or by all Your people Yisra'el, who will each know his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread out his hands toward this house;

30 then hear from the heavens Your dwelling place and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You, even You only, know the hearts of the children of men)

31 that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways, so long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

32 "Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of Your people Yisra'el, when he comes from a far country for Your great Name's sake, and Your mighty hand, and Your outstretched Arm; when they come and pray toward this house;

33 then hear from the heavens, even from Your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to You for; that all the peoples of the earth may know Your Name and fear You, as do Your people Yisra'el, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your Name.

34 "If Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You send them, and they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your Name;

35 then hear from the heavens their prayer and their petition, and maintain their judgment.

36 If they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin), and You are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near;

37 yet if they come to their senses in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make petition to You in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly';

38 if they return to You with all their heart and with all their being in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which You gave to their fathers, and the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your Name;

39 then hear from the heavens, even from Your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions, and maintain their judgment, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

40 "Now, my Elohim, let, I beg You, let Your eyes be open, and let Your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now therefore arise, תְּהִלָּתִי Elohim, into Your resting place, You, and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests, יְהוָה Elohim, be clothed with salvation, and let Your set-apart ones rejoice in goodness. 42 יְהוָה Elohim, do not turn away the face of Your anointed. Remember Your loving-kindnesses to David Your servant."

7 Now when Shelomoh had finished praying, fire came down from the heavens and consumed the ascension offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of יְהוָה filled the house. 2 The priests could not enter into the house of יְהוָה, because the glory of יְהוָה filled the house of יְהוָה. 3 All the children of Yisra'el looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of יְהוָה was on the house. They bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, bowed down, and gave thanks to יְהוָה, saying, "For He is good; for His loving-kindness endures forever."

4 Then the king and all the people slaughtered sacrifices before יְהוָה. 5 King Shelomoh slaughtered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of Elohim. 6 The priests stood, according to their positions; the Levites also with instruments of music of יְהוָה, which David the king had made to give thanks to יְהוָה, when David praised by their ministry, saying "For His loving-kindness endures for ever." The priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Yisra'el stood.

7 Moreover Shelomoh made the middle of the court that was before the house of יְהוָה set-apart; for there he offered the ascension offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the copper altar which Shelomoh had made was not able to receive the ascension offering, the meal offering, and the fat.

8 So Shelomoh held the Feast at that time for seven days, and all Yisra'el with him, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the wadi of Mitsrayim.

9 On the Eighth Day, they held a solemn assembly; for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the Feast seven days. 10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh new moon, he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that יְהוָה had shown to David, and to Shelomoh, and to Yisra'el His people.

11 Thus Shelomoh finished the house of יְהוָה and the king's house; and he successfully completed all that came into Shelomoh's heart to make in the house of יְהוָה and in his own house. 12 יְהוָה appeared to Shelomoh by night, and said to him, "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for Myself for a house of sacrifice.

13 "If I close up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people; 14 if My people, who are called by My Name, will humble themselves, pray, seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from the heavens, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 15 Now My eyes will be open My ears attentive to prayer that is made in this place. 16 For now I have chosen and made this house set-apart, that My Name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

17 "As for you, if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will guard My statutes and My judgments; 18 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according to how I cut a covenant with David your father, saying, 'There shall not be cut off from you a man to be ruler in Yisra'el.'

19 "But if you turn away, and forsake My statutes and My commands which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other elohim, and bow down to them; 20 then I will pluck them up by the roots out of My land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made set-apart for My Name, I will cast out of My sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. 21 This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, 'Why has יְהוָה done this to this land and to this house?' 22 They shall answer, 'Because they abandoned יְהוָה, the Elohim of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim, and took other elohim, bowed down to them, and served them. Therefore He has brought all this evil on them.'"

8 At the end of twenty years, in which Shelomoh had built the house of יְהוָה and his own house, 2 Shelomoh built the cities which Huram had given to Shelomoh, and caused the children of Yisra'el to dwell there.

3 Shelomoh went to Hamath-Tsoval, and prevailed against it. 4 He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities, which he built in Hamath. 5 Also he built Beth Horon the upper and Beth Horon the lower, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; 6 and Ba'alath, and all the storage cities that Shelomoh had, and all the cities for his chariots, the cities for his horsemen, and all that Shelomoh desired to build for his pleasure in Yerushalayim, in Levanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

7 As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Yevusites, who were not of Yisra'el; 8 of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Yisra'el did not finish off, of them Shelomoh conscripted forced labor to this day. 9 But of the children of Yisra'el, Shelomoh made no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. 10 These were the chief officers of King Shelomoh, even two-hundred fifty, who ruled over the people.

11 Shelomoh brought up Pharaoh's daughter out of the city of David to the house that he had built for her; for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Yisra'el, because the places where the ark of יהוה has come to are set-apart."

12 Then Shelomoh offered ascension offerings to יהוה on the altar of יהוה, which he had built in front of the porch, 13 even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the command of Mosheh, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set Feasts, three times per year, during the Feast of Unleavened Bread, during the Feast of Weeks, and during the Feast of Tabernacles. 14 He appointed, according to the judgment of David his father, the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their divisions at every gate, for David the man of Elohim had so commanded. 15 They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Shelomoh was prepared from the day of the foundation of the house of יהוה until it was finished. So the house of יהוה was completed.

17 Then Shelomoh went to Etsion Gever and to Eloth, on the seashore in the land of Edom. 18 Huram sent him ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea by the hands of his servants; and they came with the servants of Shelomoh to Ophir, and brought from there four hundred fifty talents of gold, and brought them to King Shelomoh.

9 When the queen of Sheva heard of the fame of Shelomoh, she came to test Shelomoh with hard questions at Yerushalayim, with a very great caravan, including camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones. When she had come to Shelomoh, she talked with him about all that was in her heart. 2 Shelomoh answered all her questions. There was not anything hidden from Shelomoh which he did not tell her. 3 When the queen of Sheva had seen the wisdom of Shelomoh, the house that he had built, 4 the food of his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his ministers, their clothing, his cup bearers also, their clothing, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of יהוה; there was no more spirit in her.

5 She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom.

6 However I did not believe their words until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame that I heard! 7 Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. 8 Blessed be יהוה your Elohim, who delighted in you, to set you on his throne, to be king for יהוה your Elohim; because your Elohim loved Yisra'el, to establish them forever. Therefore He made you king over them, to do judgment and righteousness."

9 She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones. There was never before such spice as the queen of Sheva gave to King Shelomoh. 10 The servants of Huram and the servants of Shelomoh, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought alnum trees and precious stones. 11 The king used alnum tree wood to make terraces for the house of יהוה and for the king's house, and harps and stringed instruments for the singers. There were none like these seen before in the land of Yehudah. 12 King Shelomoh gave to the queen of Sheva all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.

13 Now the weight of gold that came to Shelomoh in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold, 14 besides that which the traders and merchants brought. All the kings of Aravia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Shelomoh.

15 King Shelomoh made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold. Six hundred sheqels of beaten gold went to one buckler. 16 He made three hundred shields of beaten gold. Three hundred sheqels of gold went to one shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Levanon. 17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. 18 There were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and armrests on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. 19 Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps. There was nothing like it made in any other kingdom. 20 All King Shelomoh's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Levanon were of pure gold.

Silver was not considered valuable in the days of Shelomoh. 21 For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with Huram's servants. Once every three years, the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

22 So King Shelomoh exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. 23 All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Shelomoh, to hear his wisdom, which Elohim had put in his heart. 24 They each brought tribute, vessels of silver, vessels of gold, clothing, armor, spices, horses, and mules every year. 25 Shelomoh had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he stationed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Yerushalayim. 26 He ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Mitsrayim. 27 The king made silver as common in Yerushalayim as stones, and he made cedars to be as abundant as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland. 28 They brought horses for Shelomoh out of Mitsrayim and out of all lands.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Shelomoh, first and last, are they not written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahiyah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Yarovam the son of Nevat? 30 Shelomoh reigned in Yerushalayim over all Yisra'el forty years. 31 Shelomoh slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of his father David: and Reḥavam his son reigned in his place.

10 Reḥavam went to Shekhem; for all Yisra'el had come to Shekhem to make him king. 2 When Yarovam the son of Nevat heard of it (for he was in Mitsrayim, where he had fled from the presence of King Shelomoh), Yarovam returned out of Mitsrayim. 3 They sent and called him; and Yarovam and all Yisra'el came, and they spoke to Reḥavam, saying, 4 "Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you."

5 He said to them, "Come again to me after three days." So the people departed. 6 King Reḥavam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Shelomoh his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me about how to answer these people?"

7 They spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to these people, please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

8 But he abandoned the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. 9 He said to them, "What counsel do you give, that we may give an answer to these people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?'"

10 The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall tell the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter on us;' thus you shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. 11 Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will do so with scorpions.'"

12 So Yarovam and all the people came to Reḥavam the third day, as the king asked, saying, "Come to me again the third day." 13 The king answered them roughly; and King Reḥavam abandoned the counsel of the old men, 14 and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will do so with scorpions."

15 So the king did not listen to the people; for it was brought about by Elohim, that תְּנַהֲרָן might establish His word, which He spoke by Ahiyah the Shilonite to Yarovam the son of Nevat. 16 When all Yisra'el saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? We do not have an inheritance in the son of Yishai! Every man to your tents, Yisra'el! Now see to your own house, David." So all Yisra'el departed to their tents. 17 But as for the children of Yisra'el who lived in the cities of Yehudah, Reḥavam reigned over them. 18 Then King Reḥavam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and the children of Yisra'el stoned him to death with stones. King Reḥavam hurried to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Yerushalayim. 19 So Yisra'el rebelled against David's house to this day.

11 When Reḥavam had come to Yerushalayim, he assembled the house of Yehudah and Benyamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Yisra'el, to bring the kingdom again to Reḥavam. 2 But the word of תְּנַהֲרָן came to Shemayah the man of Elohim, saying, 3 "Speak to Reḥavam the son of Shelomoh, king of Yehudah, and to all Yisra'el in Yehudah and Benyamin, saying, 4 תְּנַהֲרָן says, 'You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers! Every man return to his house; for this thing is of Me.'" So they listened to the words of תְּנַהֲרָן, and returned from going against Yarovam.

5 Reḥavam lived in Yerushalayim, and built cities for defense in Yehudah. 6 He built Beth-lehem, Etam, Teqoa, 7 Beth-Tsur, Soko, Adullam, 8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, 9 Adoraim, Lakish, Azeqah, 10 Tsorah, Aiyalon, and Hevron, which are fortified cities in Yehudah and in Benyamin. 11 He fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil and wine. 12 He put shields and spears in every city, and made them exceedingly strong. Yehudah and Benyamin belonged to him.

13 The priests and the Levites who were in all Yisra'el stood with him out of all their territory. 14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Yehudah and Yerushalayim; for Yarovam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the priest's office to יהוָה. 15 He himself appointed priests for the high places, for the male goats, and for the calves which he had made. 16 After them, out of all the tribes of Yisra'el, those who set their hearts to seek יהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, came to Yerushalayim to slaughter to יהוָה, the Elohim of their fathers. 17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Yehudah, and made Reḥavam the son of Shelomoh strong for three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Shelomoh.

18 Reḥavam took a wife for himself, Mahalath the daughter of Yerimoth the son of David and of Avihayil the daughter of Eliav the son of Yishai. 19 She bore him sons: Yeush, Shemaryah, and Zaham. 20 After her, he took Ma'akah the daughter of Avshalom; and she bore him Aviyah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. 21 Reḥavam loved Ma'akah the daughter of Avshalom above all his wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and brought forth twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. 22 Reḥavam appointed Aviyah the son of Ma'akah to be chief, the prince among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. 23 He dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Yehudah and Benyamin, to every fortified city. He gave them food in abundance and he sought many wives for them.

12 When the kingdom of Reḥavam was established and he was strong, he abandoned the Torah of יהוָה, and all Yisra'el with him. 2 In the fifth year of King Reḥavam, Shishaq king of Mitsrayim came up against Yerushalayim – because they had trespassed against 3 – יהוָה with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Mitsrayim: the Luvim, the Suqqim, and the Kushites. 4 He took the fortified cities which belonged to Yehudah, and came to Yerushalayim. 5 Now Shemayah the prophet came to Reḥavam, and to the princes of Yehudah, who were gathered together to Yerushalayim because of Shishaq, and said to them, "יהוָה says, 'You have forsaken Me, therefore I have also left you in the hand of Shishaq.'"

6 Then the princes of Yisra'el and the king humbled themselves; and they said, "יהוָה is righteous."

7 When יהוָה saw that they humbled themselves, the word of יהוָה came to Shemayah, saying, "They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and My wrath will not be poured out on Yerushalayim by the hand of Shishaq. 8 Nevertheless they will be his servants, that they may know My service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

9 So Shishaq king of Mitsrayim came up against Yerushalayim and took away the treasures of the house of יהוָה and the treasures of the king's house. He took it all away. He also took away the shields of gold which Shelomoh had made. 10 King Reḥavam made shields of copper in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, the guards of the door of the king's house. 11 As often as the king entered into the house of יהוָה, the guard came and bore them, then brought them back into the guard room. 12 When he humbled himself, the wrath of יהוָה turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether. Moreover, there were good things found in Yehudah.

13 So King Reḥavam strengthened himself in Yerushalayim and reigned; for Reḥavam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Yerushalayim, the city which יהוָה had chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra'el to put His Name there. His mother's name was Na'amah the Ammonitess. 14 He did that which was evil, because he did not set his heart to seek יהוָה.

15 Now the acts of Reḥavam, first and last, are they not written in the histories of Shemayah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, in the genealogies? There were wars between Reḥavam and Yarovam continually.

16 Reḥavam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and Aviyah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Yarovam, Aviyah began to reign over Yehudah. 2 He reigned three years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Mikhayah the daughter of Uri'el of Givah. There was war between Aviyah and Yarovam. 3 Aviyah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men; and Yarovam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valor. 4 Aviyah stood up on Mount Tsemara'im, which is in the hill country of Ephrayim, and said, "Hear me, Yarovam and all Yisra'el: 5 Ought you not to know that יהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, gave the kingdom over Yisra'el to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? 6 Yet Yarovam the son of Nevat, the servant of Shelomoh the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his master. 7 Vain men were gathered to him, sons of Beliyya'al, who strengthened themselves against Reḥavam the son of Shelomoh, when Reḥavam was young and tender hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 "Now you intend to withstand the kingdom of יְהוָה in the hand of the sons of David. You are a great multitude, and the golden calves which Yarovam made for you for elohim are with you. 9 Have you not driven out the priests of יְהוָה, the sons of Aharon, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves according to the ways of the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to set himself apart with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of those who are no elohim.

10 "But as for us, יְהוָה is our Elohim, and we have not forsaken Him. We have priests serving יְהוָה, the sons of Aharon, and the Levites in their work; 11 and they burn to יְהוָה every morning and every evening ascension offerings and sweet incense. They also set the show bread in order on the pure table; and the menorah of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening; for we guard the charge of יְהוָה our Elohim, but you have forsaken Him. 12 Behold, Elohim is with us at our head, and His priests with the trumpets of sounding to sound an alarm against you. Children of Yisra'el, do not fight against יְהוָה, the Elohim of your fathers; for you will not prosper."

13 But Yarovam caused an ambush to come about behind them; so they were before Yehudah, and the ambush was behind them. 14 When Yehudah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to יְהוָה, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. 15 Then the men of Yehudah gave a shout. As the men of Yehudah shouted, Elohim struck Yarovam and all Yisra'el before Aviyah and Yehudah. 16 The children of Yisra'el fled before Yehudah, and Elohim delivered them into their hand. 17 Aviyah and his people killed them with a great slaughter, so five hundred thousand chosen men of Yisra'el fell down slain. 18 Thus the children of Yisra'el were brought under at that time, and the children of Yehudah prevailed, because they relied on יְהוָה, the Elohim of their fathers. 19 Aviyah pursued Yarovam, and took cities from him, Beth-El with its villages, Yeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages.

20 Yarovam did not recover strength again in the days of Aviyah. יְהוָה struck him, and he died. 21 But Aviyah grew mighty, and took for himself fourteen wives, and brought forth twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters. 22 The rest of the acts of Aviyah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Aviyah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days, the land was quiet ten years. 2 Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of יְהוָה his Elohim; 3 for he took away the foreign altars and the high places, broke down the pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, 4 and commanded Yehudah to seek יְהוָה, the Elohim of their fathers, and to obey His Torah and command. 5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Yehudah the high places and the sun-pillars; and the kingdom was quiet before him. 6 He built fortified cities in Yehudah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because יְהוָה had given him rest. 7 For he said to Yehudah, "Let us build these cities, and make walls around them, with towers, gates, and bars. The land is yet before us, because we have sought יְהוָה our Elohim. We have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

8 Asa had an army of three hundred thousand out of Yehudah who bore bucklers and spears, and two hundred eighty thousand out of Benyamin who bore shields and drew bows. All these were mighty men of valor.

9 Zerah the Kushite came out against them with an army of a million troops and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah. 10 Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Tsephathah at Mareshah. 11 Asa cried to יְהוָה his Elohim, and said, "יְהוָה, there is no one besides You to help, between the mighty and him who has no strength. Help us, יְהוָה our Elohim; for we rely on You, and in Your Name are we come against this multitude. יְהוָה, You are our Elohim. Do not let man prevail against You."

12 So יְהוָה struck the Kushites before Asa and before Yehudah; and the Kushites fled. 13 Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and so many of the Kushites fell that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before יְהוָה and before His army; and they carried away very much spoil. 14 They struck all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of יְהוָה came on them, and they plundered all the cities; for there was much plunder in them. 15 They also struck the tents of livestock, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Yerushalayim.

15 The Ruah of Elohim came on Azaryahu the son of Oded: 2 and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him,

"Hear me, Asa, and all Yehudah and Benyamin! יְהוָה is with you, while you are with Him; and if you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. 3 Now for a long time Yisra'el was without the true Elohim, without a teaching priest, and without Torah. 4 But when in their distress they turned to יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, and sought Him, He was found by them. 5 In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands. 6 They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for Elohim troubled them with all adversity. 7 But you be strong, and do not let your hands be slack; for your work will be rewarded."

8 When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he was strengthened, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Yehudah and Benyamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephrayim; and he renewed the altar of יְהוָה that was before the porch of יְהוָה. 9 He gathered all Yehudah and Benyamin, and those who lived with them out of Ephrayim, Menasheh, and Shimon; for they came to him out of Yisra'el in abundance when they saw that יְהוָה his Elohim was with him. 10 So they gathered themselves together at Yerushalayim in the third new moon, in the fifteenth year of Asa's reign. 11 They slaughtered to יְהוָה in that day, of the plunder which they had brought, seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep.

12 They entered into the covenant to seek יְהוָה, the Elohim of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their being; 13 and that whoever would not seek יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. 14 They swore to יְהוָה with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets, and with shofars. 15 All Yehudah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought Him with their whole desire; and He was found by them. Then יְהוָה gave them rest all around.

16 Also Ma'akah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; so Asa cut down her image, ground it into dust, and burned it at the wadi Qidron. 17 But the high places were not taken away out of Yisra'el; nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. 18 He brought the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, gold, and vessels into the house of Elohim. 19 There was no more war to the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

16 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Ba'asha king of Yisra'el went up against Yehudah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Yehudah. 2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of יְהוָה and of the king's house, and sent to Ben Hadad king of Aram, who lived at Dammeseq, saying, 3 "Let there be a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Ba'asha king of Yisra'el, that he may depart from me."

4 Ben Hadad listened to King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Yisra'el; and they struck Iyon, Dan, Aviel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali. 5 When Ba'asha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and let his work cease. 6 Then Asa the king took all Yehudah, and they carried away the stones of Rama, and its timber, with which Ba'asha had built; and he built Geva and Mitspah with them. 7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Yehudah, and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Aram, and have not relied on יְהוָה your Elohim, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand. 8 Were the Kushites and the Luvim not a huge army, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? Yet, because you relied on יְהוָה, He delivered them into your hand. 9 For the eyes of יְהוָה run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him. You have done foolishly in this; for from now on you will have wars."

10 Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the prison; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. 11 Behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yehudah and Yisra'el. 12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa was diseased in his feet. His disease was exceedingly great: yet in his disease he did not seek יְהוָה, but just the physicians. 13 Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the forty-first year of his reign. 14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had dug out for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumers' art; and they made a very great fire for him.

17 Yehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Yisra'el. 2 He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Yehudah, and set garrisons in the land of Yehudah, and in the cities of Ephrayim, which Asa his father had taken. 3 יְהוָה was with Yehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and did not seek the Ba'als, 4 but sought to the Elohim of his father, and walked in His commands, and not in the ways of Yisra'el. 5 Therefore יְהוּדָה established the kingdom in his hand. All Yehudah brought tribute to Yehoshaphat, and he had riches and honor in abundance. 6 His heart was lifted up in the ways of יְהוּדָה. Furthermore, he took away the high places and the Asherah poles out of Yehudah. 7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, even Ben Hayil, Ovadyah, Zekharyah, Nethan'el, and Mikhayahu, to teach in the cities of Yehudah; 8 and with them the Levites, even Shemayah, Nethanyahu, Zevadyahu, Asah'el, Shemiramoth, Yehonathan, Adoniyah, Toviyahu, and Tov-Adoniyah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Yehoram, the priests. 9 They taught in Yehudah, having the book of the Torah of יְהוָה with them. They went about throughout all the cities of Yehudah and taught among the people. 10 The fear of יְהוָה fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Yehudah, so that they made no war against Yehoshaphat. 11 Some of the Philistines brought Yehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute. The Aravians also brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams, and seven thousand seven hundred male goats. 12 Yehoshaphat grew exceedingly great; and he built fortresses and store cities in Yehudah. 13 He had many works in the cities of Yehudah; and men of war, mighty men of valor, in Yerushalayim. 14 This was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: From Yehudah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor; 15 and next to him Yehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred eighty thousand; 16 and next to him Amasyah the son of Zikri, who willingly offered himself to יְהוָה, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. 17 From Benyamin: Elyada, a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; 18 and next to him Yehozavad, and with him one hundred eighty thousand ready and prepared for war. 19 These were those who waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Yehudah.

18 Now Yehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and he allied himself with Ahav. 2 After some years, he went down to Ahav to Shom'ron. Ahav slaughtered sheep and cattle for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilad.

3 Ahav king of Yisra'el said to Yehoshaphat king of Yehudah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilad?" He answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people. We will be with you in the war." 4 Yehoshaphat said to the king of Yisra'el, "Please inquire first for the word of יְהוָה."

5 Then the king of Yisra'el gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to Ramoth Gilad to battle, or shall I forbear?" They said, "Go up; for Elohim will deliver it into the hand of the king."

6 But Yehoshaphat said, "Is there not a prophet of יְהוָה here besides, that we may inquire of Him?"

7 The king of Yisra'el said to Yehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of יְהוָה; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Mikhayahu the son of Yimla." Yehoshaphat said, "Do not let the king say so."

8 Then the king of Yisra'el called an officer, and said, "Get Mikhayahu the son of Yimla quickly."

9 Now the king of Yisra'el and Yehoshaphat the king of Yehudah each sat on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Shom'ron; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. 10 Tsidqiyahu the son of Kena'anah made himself horns of iron and said, "יְהוָה says, 'With these you shall push the Arameans, until they are consumed.'"

11 All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilad, and prosper; for תְּנַנֶּה will deliver it into the hand of the king."

12 The messenger who went to call Mikhayahu spoke to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Let your word therefore, please be like one of theirs, and speak good."

Mikhayahu said, "As יְהוָה lives, what my Elohim says, that will I speak."

14 When he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Mikhah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilad to battle, or shall I forbear?" He said, "Go up, and prosper. They shall be delivered into your hand."

15 The king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the Name of יְהוָה?"

16 He said, "I saw all Yisra'el scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. יְהוָה said, 'These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace.'"

17 The king of Yisra'el said to Yehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

18 Mikhayahu said, "Therefore hear the word of יְהוָה: I saw יְהוָה sitting on His throne, and all the army of the heavens standing on His right hand and on His left.

19 יְהוָה said, 'Who will entice Ahav king of Yisra'el, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilad?" One spoke saying in this way, and another saying in that way. 20 A spirit came out, stood before יהוה, and said, 'I will entice him.' "יהוה" said to him, 'How?' 21 "He said, 'I will go, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' "He said, 'You will entice him, and will prevail also. Go and do so.'

22 "Now therefore, behold, יהוה has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and יהוה has spoken evil concerning you."

23 Then Tsidqiyahu the son of Kena'nah came near, and struck Mikhayahu on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the Ruah of יהוה go from me to speak to you?"

24 Mikhayahu said, "Behold, you shall see on that day, when you go into an inner room to hide yourself."

25 The king of Yisra'el said, "Take Mikhayahu, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Yoash the king's son; 26 and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.'"

27 Mikhayahu said, "If you return at all in peace, יהוה has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, you people, all of you!"

28 So the king of Yisra'el and Yehoshaphat the king of Yehudah went up to Ramoth Gilad. 29 The king of Yisra'el said to Yehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Yisra'el disguised himself; and they went into the battle. 30 Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Do not fight with small nor great, except only with the king of Yisra'el."

31 When the captains of the chariots saw Yehoshaphat, they said, "It is the king of Yisra'el!" Therefore they turned around to fight against him. But Yehoshaphat cried out, and יהוה helped him; and Elohim moved them to depart from him. 32 When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Yisra'el, they turned back from pursuing him. 33 A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Yisra'el between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am severely wounded." 34 The battle increased that day. However the king of Yisra'el propped himself up in his chariot against the Arameans until the evening; and at about sunset, he died.

19 Yehoshaphat the king of Yehudah returned to his house in peace to Yerushalayim. 2 Yehu the son of חנани the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Yehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate יהוה? Because of this, wrath is on you from before יהוה. 3 Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek Elohim."

4 Yehoshaphat lived at Yerushalayim; and he went out again among the people from Beersheva to the hill country of Ephrayim, and brought them back to יהוה, the Elohim of their fathers. 5 He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Yehudah, city by city, 6 and said to the judges, "Consider what you do, for you do not judge for man, but for יהוה; and He is with you in the judgment. 7 Now therefore let the fear of יהוה be on you. Guard and do it; for there is no unrighteousness with יהוה our Elohim, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes."

8 Moreover in Yerushalayim Yehoshaphat appointed Levites and priests, and of the heads of the fathers' households of Yisra'el, for the judgment of יהוה, and for controversies. They returned to Yerushalayim. 9 He commanded them, saying, "You shall do this in the fear of יהוה, in faithfulness, and with a perfect heart.

10 Whenever any controversy comes to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between Torah and command, statutes and judgments, you must warn them, that they not be guilty towards יהוה, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers. Do this, and you will not be guilty. 11 Behold, Amaryahu the chief priest is over you in all matters of יהוה; and Zevadyahu the son of Yishma'el, the ruler of the house of Yehudah, in all the king's matters. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Be strengthened, and may יהוה be with the good."

20 After this, the children of Moav, the children of Ammon, and with them some of the Ammonites, came against Yehoshaphat to battle. 2 Then some came who told Yehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea from Aram. Behold, they are in Hatsatson-Tamar" (that is, En Gedi).

3 Yehoshaphat was alarmed, and set himself to seek to יהוה. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Yehudah. 4 Yehudah gathered themselves together to seek help from יהוה. They came out of all the cities of Yehudah to seek יהוה.

5 Yehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Yehudah and Yerushalayim, in the house of יהוה, before the new court; 6 and he said, "יהוה, the Elohim of our fathers, are You not Elohim in heavens? Are You not ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand, so that no one is able to withstand You.

7 Did You not, our Elohim, drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Yisra'el, and give it to the seed of Avraham Your friend forever? 8 They lived in it, and have built You a set-apart place in it for Your Name, saying, 9 'If evil comes on us—the sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this house, and before You (for Your Name is in this house), and cry to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save.' 10 Now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moav and Mount Seir, whom You would not let Yisra'el invade when they came out of the land of Mitsrayim, but they turned aside from them, and did not destroy them; 11 behold, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of Your possession, which You have given us to inherit. 12 Our Elohim, will You not judge them? For we have no might against this great company that comes against us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on You."

13 All Yehudah stood before יהוה, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 Then the Ruah of יהוה came on Yahazi'el the son of Zekharyahu, the son of Benayah, the son of Ye'i'el, the son of Mattanyah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, in the middle of the assembly; 15 and he said, "Listen, all Yehudah, and you inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and you, King Yehoshaphat. יהוה says to you, Do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed because of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but rather it belongs to Elohim. 16 Tomorrow, go down against them. Behold, they are coming up by the ascent of Tsits. You will find them at the end of the wadi, before the wilderness of Yeru'el. 17 You will not need to fight this battle. Set yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of יהוה with you, O Yehudah and Yerushalayim. Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed. Go out against them tomorrow, for יהוה is with you."

18 Yehoshaphat stooped his head with his face to the ground; and all Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim fell down before יהוה, bowing down to יהוה. 19 The Levites, of the children of the Qohathites and of the children of the Qorahites, stood up to praise יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, with an exceeding loud voice.

20 They rose early in the morning, and went out into the wilderness of Teqoa. As they went out, Yehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, Yehudah, and you inhabitants of Yerushalayim! Trust יהוה your Elohim, so you will be trusted! Trust His prophets, so you will prosper."

21 When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to תהלים, and give praise in set-apart array, as they go out before the army, and say, "Give thanks to יהוה; for His loving-kindness endures for ever." 22 When they began to sing and to praise, תהלים set ambushers against the children of Ammon, Moav, and Mount Seir, who had come against Yehudah; and they were struck. 23 For the children of Ammon and Moav stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them: and when they had finished the inhabitants of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another.

24 When Yehudah came to the place overlooking the wilderness, they looked at the multitude; and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped. 25 When Yehoshaphat and his people came to plunder the spoil, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. They plundered the spoil for three days, it was so much. 26 On the fourth day, they assembled themselves in Berakah^a Valley, for there they blessed יהוה. Therefore the name of that place was called "Berakah Valley" to this day. 27 Then they returned, every man of Yehudah and Yerushalayim, with Yehoshaphat in front of them, to go again to Yerushalayim with joy; for יהוה had made them to rejoice over their enemies. 28 They came to Yerushalayim with stringed instruments, harps, and trumpets to the house of יהוה. 29 The fear of Elohim was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that תהלים fought against the enemies of Yisra'el. 30 So the realm of Yehoshaphat was quiet, for his Elohim gave him rest all around.

31 Yehoshaphat reigned over Yehudah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Azuvah the daughter of Shilhi. 32 He walked in the way of Asa his father, and did not turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of יהוה.

33 However the high places were not taken away, and the people had still not set their hearts on the Elohim of their fathers. 34 Now the rest of the acts of Yehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Yehu the son of Hanani, which is included in the book of the kings of Yisra'el. 35 After this, Yehoshaphat king of Yehudah joined himself with Ahaziyah king of

^a 26 בָּרְכָה (Berakah) – Hebrew word meaning "blessing."

Yisra'el. The same did very wickedly. 36 He joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish. They made the ships in Etsion Gever. 37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Yehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have joined yourself with Ahazyahu, אַחֲזָה has destroyed your works." The ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 Yehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Yehoram his son reigned in his place. 2 He had brothers, the sons of Yehoshaphat: Azaryah, Yehi'el, Zekharyahu, Azaryahu, Mikha'el, and Shephatyahu. All these were the sons of Yehoshaphat king of Yisra'el. 3 Their father gave them great gifts of silver, of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Yehudah; but he gave the kingdom to Yehoram, because he was the firstborn. 4 Now when Yehoram had risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and also some of the princes of Yisra'el. 5 Yehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Yerushalayim. 6 He walked in the way of the kings of Yisra'el, as did Ahav's house; for he had Ahav's daughter as his wife. He did that which was evil in the sight of יהוה. 7 However יהוה would not destroy David's house, because of the covenant that He cut with David, and as He promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always.

8 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Yehudah, and made a king over themselves. 9 Then Yehoram went there with his captains and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots. 10 So Edom revolted from under the hand of Yehudah to this day. Then Livnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken יהוה, the Elohim of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Yehudah, and made the inhabitants of Yerushalayim whore, and led Yehudah astray. 12 A letter came to him from Eliyahu the prophet, saying, "יהוה, the Elohim of David your father, says, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Yehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Yehudah, 13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Yisra'el, and have made Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim to whore like Ahav's house did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself, 14 behold, יהוה' will strike your people with a great plague, including your children, your wives, and all your possessions; 15 and you will have great sickness with a disease of your guts, until your guts fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day."

16 יהוה stirred up the spirit of the Philistines against Yehoram, and of the Aravians who are beside the Kushites; 17 and they came up against Yehudah, broke into it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, including his sons and his wives; so that there was no son left him, except Yehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 After all this יהוה struck him in his guts with an incurable disease. 19 In process of time, at the end of two years, his guts fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of severe diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. 20 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Yerushalayim eight years. He departed without being missed; and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 The inhabitants of Yerushalayim made Ahazyahu his youngest son king in his place, because the band of men who came with the Aravians to the camp had slain all the oldest. So Ahazyahu the son of Yehoram king of Yehudah reigned. 2 Ahazyahu was forty-two^a years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Athalyahu the daughter of Omri. 3 He also walked in the ways of Ahav's house, because his mother was his counselor in acting wickedly. 4 He did that which was evil in the sight of יהוה, as did Ahav's house, for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction. 5 He also followed their counsel, and went with Yehoram the son of Ahav king of Yisra'el to war against Haza'el king of Aram at Ramoth Gilad, and the Arameans wounded Yoram. 6 He returned to be healed in Yizre'el of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Haza'el king of Aram. Azaryahu the son of Yehoram king of Yehudah went down to see Yehoram the son of Ahav in Yizre'el, because he was sick.

7 Now the destruction of Ahazyahu was of Elohim, in that he went to Yoram; for when he had come, he went out with Yehoram against Yehu the son of Nimshi, whom יהוה had anointed to cut off Ahav's house.

8 When Yehu was executing judgment on Ahav's house, he found the princes of Yehudah and the sons of the brothers of Ahazyahu, serving Ahazyahu, and killed them. 9 He sought Ahazyahu, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Shom'ron), and they brought him to Yehu, and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Yehoshaphat, who sought יְהוָה with all his heart." The house of Ahazyahu had no power to hold the kingdom.

^a 2 Some LXX manuscripts and the Syr. read, "twenty-two" instead of "forty-two" here, which agrees with Melakhim 2:26.

10 Now when Athalyahu the mother of Ahazyahu saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Yehudah. 11 But Yehoshabeath, the king's daughter, took Yoash the son of Ahazyahu, and stealthily rescued him from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Yehoshabeath, the daughter of King Yehoram, the wife of Yehoyada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahazyahu), hid him from Athalyahu, so that she did not kill him. 12 He was with them hidden in the house of Elohim six years while Athalyah reigned over the land.

23 In the seventh year, Yehoyada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azaryah the son of Yeroham, Yishma'el the son of Yehohanan, Azaryahu the son of Oved, Ma'aseyah the son of Adayahu, and Elishaphat the son of Zikri, into a covenant with him. 2 They went around in Yehudah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Yehudah, and the heads of fathers' households of Yisra'el, and they came to Yerushalayim. 3 All the assembly cut a covenant with the king in the house of Elohim. He said to them, "Behold, the king's son must reign, as יְהוָה has spoken concerning the sons of David. 4 This is the thing that you must do. A third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be gatekeepers of the thresholds. 5 A third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation. All the people will be in the courts of the house of יְהוָה. 6 But let no one come into the house of יְהוָה except the priests and those who minister of the Levites. They shall come in, for they are set-apart, but all the people shall guard the charge of יְהוָה. 7 The Levites shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever comes into the house, let him be slain. Be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out."

8 So the Levites and all Yehudah did according to all that Yehoyada the priest commanded: and they each took his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Yehoyada the priest did not dismiss the shift. 9 Yehoyada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been King David's, which were in the house of Elohim.

10 He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, near the altar and the house, around the king. 11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the witness, and made him king. Yehoyada and his sons anointed him, and they said, "Long live the king!"

12 When Athalyahu heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of יְהוָה. 13 Then she looked, and, behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king. All the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. The singers also played musical instruments, and led the singing of praise. Then Athalyahu tore her clothes, and said, "Treason! treason!"

14 Yehoyada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Do not kill her in the house of יְהוָה." 15 So they made way for her. She went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house; and they killed her there.

16 Yehoyada cut a covenant between himself, all the people, and the king, that they should be the people of יְהוָה. 17 All the people went to the house of Ba'al, broke it down, broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Ba'al before the altars.

18 Yehoyada appointed the officers of the house of יְהוָה under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of יְהוָה, to offer the ascension offerings of יְהוָה, as it is written in the Torah of Mosheh, with rejoicing and with singing, as David had ordered. 19 He set the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of יְהוָה, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in. 20 He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of יְהוָה. They came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.

21 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. They had slain Athalyahu with the sword.

24 Yoash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Tsivyah, of Beersheva. 2 Yoash did that which was right in the eyes of יְהוָה all the days of Yehoyada the priest. 3 Yehoyada took for him two wives, and he brought forth sons and daughters.

4 After this it came to heart for Yoash to restore the house of יְהוָה. 5 He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Yehudah, and gather money to repair the house of your Elohim from all Yisra'el from year to year. See that you expedite this matter." However the Levites did not do it right away. 6 The king called for Yehoyada the chief, and said to him, "Why have you not required of the Levites to bring in the portion of Mosheh the servant of יהוה, and of the assembly of Yisra'el, out of Yehudah and out of Yerushalayim, for the tent of the witness?" 7 For the sons of Athalyahu, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of Elohim; and they also gave all the dedicated things of the house of יהוה to the Ba'al's.

8 So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of יהוה. 9 They made a proclamation through Yehudah and Yerushalayim, to bring in for יהוה the portion that Mosheh the servant of Elohim laid on Yisra'el in the wilderness. 10 All the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had filled it. 11 Whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. 12 The king and Yehoyada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of יהוה. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of יהוה, and also those who worked iron and copper to repair the house of יהוה. 13 So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands. They set up the house of Elohim as it was designed, and strengthened it. 14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Yehoyada, from which were made vessels for the house of יהוה, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, including spoons and vessels of gold and silver. They offered ascension offerings in the house of יהוה continually all the days of Yehoyada.

15 But Yehoyada grew old and was full of days, and he died. He was one hundred thirty years old when he died. 16 They buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Yisra'el, and toward Elohim and His house.

17 Now after the death of Yehoyada, the princes of Yehudah came, and bowed down to the king. Then the king listened to them. 18 They abandoned the house of יהוה, the Elohim of their fathers, and served the Asherah poles and the idols, so wrath came on Yehudah and Yerushalayim for this their guiltiness. 19 Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them again to יהוה, and they testified against them; but they would not listen.

20 The Ruah of Elohim came on Zekharyah the son of Yehoyada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says Elohim, 'Why do you disobey the commands of יהוה, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken יהוה, He has also forsaken you.'"

21 They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the command of the king in the court of the house of יהוה. 22 Thus Yoash the king did not remember the loving-kindness which Yehoyada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he said, "May יהוה look at it, and repay it."

23 At the end of the year, the army of the Arameans came up against him: and they came to Yehudah and Yerushalayim, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all their plunder to the king of Dammeseq. 24 For the army of the Arameans came with a small company of men; and יהוה delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken יהוה, the Elohim of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Yoash.

25 When they had departed from him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Yehoyada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died. They buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings. 26 These are those who conspired against him: Zavad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess and Yehozavad the son of Shimrith the Moavitess. 27 Now concerning his sons, the greatness of the burdens laid on him, and the rebuilding of the house of Elohim, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amatsyahu his son reigned in his place.

25 Amatsyahu was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Yehoaddan, of Yerushalayim. 2 He did that which was right in the eyes of יהוה, but not with a perfect heart. 3 Now when the kingdom was established to him, he killed his servants who had killed his father the king. 4 But he did not put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the Torah in the book of Mosheh, as יהוה commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin."

5 Moreover Amatsyahu gathered Yehudah together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Yehudah and Benyamin. He counted them from twenty years old and upward, and found that there were three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go out to war, who could handle spear and shield. 6 He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Yisra'el for one hundred talents of silver. 7 A man of Elohim came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Yisra'el go with you, for יְהוּדָה is not with Yisra'el, with all the children of Ephrayim. 8 But if you will go, take action, and be strong for the battle. Elohim will overthrow you before the enemy; for Elohim has power to help, and to overthrow."

9 Amatsyahu said to the man of Elohim, "But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Yisra'el?" The man of Elohim answered, "יְהוּדָה is able to give you much more than this."

10 Then Amatsyahu separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephrayim, to go home again. Therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Yehudah, and they returned home in fierce anger.

11 Amatsyahu took courage, and led his people out, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck ten thousand of the children of Seir. 12 The children of Yehudah carried away ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. 13 But the men of the army whom Amatsyahu sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Yehudah, from Shomron even to Beth Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and plundered much plunder.

14 Now after Amatsyahu had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the elohim of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his elohim, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them.

15 Therefore the anger of יְהוּדָה burned against Amatsyahu, and He sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have you sought after the elohim of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand?"

16 As he talked with him, the king said to him, "Have we made you one of the king's counselors? Stop! Why should you be struck down?" Then the prophet stopped, and said, "I know that Elohim has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel."

17 Then Amatsyahu king of Yehudah consulted his advisers, and sent to Yoash, the son of Yehoahaz the son of Yehu, king of Yisra'el, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face^a."

18 Yoash king of Yisra'el sent to Amatsyahu king of Yehudah, saying, "The thistle that was in Levanon sent to the cedar that was in Levanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as his wife.' Then a wild animal that was in Levanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. 19 You say to yourself that you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home. Why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall, even you, and Yehudah with you?"

20 But Amatsyahu would not listen; for it was of Elohim, that He might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the elohim of Edom. 21 So Yoash king of Yisra'el went up, and he and Amatsyahu king of Yehudah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Yehudah. 22 Yehudah was defeated by Yisra'el; and they every man fled to his tent.

23 Yoash king of Yisra'el took Amatsyahu king of Yehudah, the son of Yoash the son of Yehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh, and brought him to Yerushalayim, and broke down the wall of Yerushalayim from the gate of Ephrayim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. 24 He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of Elohim with Oved-Edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Shomron.

25 Amatsyahu the son of Yoash king of Yehudah lived for fifteen years after the death of Yoash son of Yehoahaz king of Yisra'el. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Amatsyahu, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Yehudah and Yisra'el? 27 Now from the time that Amatsyahu turned away from following יְהוּדָה, they made a conspiracy against him in Yerushalayim. He fled to Lakish, but they sent after him to Lakish, and killed him there. 28 They brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the City of Yehudah.

26 All the people of Yehudah took Uzziyah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amatsyahu. 2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Yehudah, after that the king slept with his fathers. 3 Uzziyah was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Yekolyah, of Yerushalayim. 4 He did that which was right in the eyes of יְהוּדָה, according to all that his father Amatsyahu had done. 5 He set himself to seek Elohim in the days of Zekharyahu, who had understanding in the vision of Elohim; and as long as he sought יְהוָה, Elohim made him prosper.

6 He went out and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Yabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines. 7 Elohim helped him against the Philistines, and against the Aravians who lived in Gur Ba'al, and the Meunim. 8 The Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziyahu. His name spread abroad even to the entrance of Mitsrayim; for he grew exceedingly strong. 9 Moreover Uzziyahu built towers in Yerushalayim at the corner gate, at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. 10 He built towers in the wilderness, and dug out many cisterns, for he had much livestock; in the lowland also, and in the plain. He had farmers and vineyard keepers in the mountains and in the fruitful fields, for he loved farming. 11 Moreover Uzziyah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Yei'el the scribe and Ma'aseyahu the officer, under the hand of Hananyahu, one of the king's captains. 12 The whole number of the heads of fathers' households, even the mighty men of valor, was two thousand six hundred. 13 Under their hand was an army, three hundred seven thousand five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. 14 Uzziyahu prepared for them, even for all the army, shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and stones for slinging. 15 In Yerushalayim, he made devices, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad, because he was marvelously helped until he was strong.

16 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against יְהוָה his Elohim; for he went into the Temple of יְהוָה to burn incense on the altar of incense. 17 Azaryahu the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of יְהוָה, who were valiant men. 18 They resisted Uzziyahu the king, and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziyahu, to burn incense to יְהוָה, but for the priests the sons of Aharon, who are set apart to burn incense. Go out of the set-apart place, for you have trespassed. It will not be for your honor from יְהוָה Elohim."

19 Then Uzziyahu was angry. He had a censer in his hand to burn incense, and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of יְהוָה, beside the altar of incense. 20 Azaryahu the chief priest, and all the priests, looked at him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there. Yes, he himself also hurried to go out, because יְהוָה had struck him.

21 Uzziyahu the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of יְהוָה. Yotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. 22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziyahu, first and last, Yeshayahu the prophet, the son of Amots, wrote. 23 So Uzziyahu slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Yotham his son reigned in his place.

27 Yotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Yerushah the daughter of Tsadoq. 2 He did that which was right in the eyes of יְהוָה, according to all that his father Uzziyahu had done. However he did not enter into the Temple of יְהוָה. The people still acted corruptly. 3 He built the upper gate of the house of יְהוָה, and he built much on the wall of Ophel. 4 Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Yehudah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers. 5 He also fought with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand cors of wheat, and ten thousand cors of barley. The children of Ammon also gave that much to him in the second year, and in the third. 6 So Yotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before יְהוָה his Elohim. 7 Now the rest of the acts of Yotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el and Yehudah. 8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. 9 Yotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. He did not do that which was right in the eyes of יְהוָה, like David his father, 2 but he walked in the ways of the kings of Yisra'el, and also made molten images for the Ba'als. 3 Moreover he burned incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom יְהוָה cast out before the children of Yisra'el. 4 He slaughtered and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. 5 Therefore his Elohim delivered him into the hand of the king of Aram. They struck him, and carried away from him a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Dammeseq. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Yisra'el, who struck him with a great slaughter. 6 For Peqah the son of Remalyahu killed in Yehudah one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men, because they had forsaken יהוה, the Elohim of their fathers. 7 Zikri, a mighty man of Ephrayim, killed Ma'aseyahu the king's son, Azriqam the ruler of the house, and Elqanah who was next to the king. 8 The children of Yisra'el carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and plundered much plunder from them, and brought the spoil to Shom'ron. 9 But a prophet of יהוה was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out to meet the army that came to Shom'ron, and said to them, "Behold, because יהוה, the Elohim of your fathers, was angry with Yehudah, He has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heavens. 10 Now you intend to degrade the children of Yehudah and Yerushalayim as male and female slaves for yourselves. Are there not even with you trespasses of your own against יהוה your Elohim? 11 Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives that you have taken captive from your brothers, for the fierce wrath of יהוה is on you." 12 Then some of the heads of the children of Ephrayim, Azaryahu the son of Yoḥanan, Berekhhyahu the son of Meshillemoth, Yehizqiyahu the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Ḥadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, 13 and said to them, "You must not bring in the captives here, for you intend that which will bring on us a trespass against יהוה, to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Yisra'el."

14 So the armed men left the captives and the plunder before the princes and all the assembly. 15 The men who have been mentioned by name rose up and took the captives, and with the plunder clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them, gave them sandals, and gave them something to eat and to drink, anointed them, carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Yeriho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Shom'ron.

16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Ashuwr to help him. 17 For again the Edomites had come and struck Yehudah, and carried away captives. 18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Yehudah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aiyalon, Gedereth, Soko with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and also Gimzo and its villages; and they lived there. 19 For יהוה brought Yehudah low because of Ahaz king of Yisra'el, because he acted without restraint in Yehudah and trespassed severely against יהוה. 20 Tilgath Pilneser king of Ashuwr came to him, and gave him trouble, but did not strengthen him. 21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of יהוה, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Ashuwr; but it did not help him.

22 In the time of his distress, he trespassed yet more against יהוה, this same King Ahaz. 23 For he slaughtered to the elohim of Dammeseq, which struck him. He said, "Because the elohim of the kings of Aram helped them, so I will slaughter to them, that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Yisra'el. 24 Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of Elohim, and cut the vessels of the house of Elohim in pieces, and closed up the doors of the house of יהוה; and he made himself altars in every corner of Yerushalayim. 25 In every city of Yehudah he made high places to burn incense to other elohim, and provoked יהוה, the Elohim of his fathers, to anger. 26 Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yehudah and Yisra'el. 27 Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Yerushalayim, because they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Yisra'el; and Hizqiyahu his son reigned in his place.

29 Hizqiyahu began to reign when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Aviyah, the daughter of Zekharyahu. 2 He did that which was right in the eyes of יהוה, according to all that David his father had done. 3 In the first year of his reign, in the first new moon, he opened the doors of the house of יהוה, and repaired them. 4 He brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the wide place on the east, 5 and said to them, "Listen to me, you Levites! Now set yourselves apart, and set יהוה, the Elohim of your fathers' house apart, and carry the filthiness out of the set-apart place. 6 For our fathers were treacherous, and have done that which was evil in the sight of יהוה our Elohim, and have forsaken Him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of יהוה, and turned their backs. 7 Also they have closed up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered ascension offerings in the set-apart place to the Elohim of Yisra'el. 8 Therefore the wrath of יהוה was on Yehudah and Yerushalayim, and He has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. 9 For, behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. 10 Now it is in my heart to cut a covenant with יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, that His fierce anger may turn away from us. 11 My sons, do not be negligent now; for יְהוָה has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers, and burn incense."

12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Yo'el the son of Azaryahu, of the sons of the Qohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Qish the son of Abdi, and Azaryahu the son of Yehallel'el; and of the Gershonites, Yoah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Yoah; 13 and of the sons of Elitsaphan, Shimri and Ye'u'el; and of the sons of Asaph, Zekharyahu and Mattanyahu; 14 and of the sons of Heman, Yehi'el and Shimi; and of the sons of Yeduthun, Shemayah and Uzzi'el. 15 They gathered their brothers, set themselves apart, and went in, according to the command of the king by the words of יְהוָה, to cleanse the house of יְהוָה. 16 The priests went into the inner part of the house of יְהוָה to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Temple of יְהוָה into the court of the house of יְהוָה. The Levites took it from there to carry it out to the wadi Qidron. 17 Now they began on the first day of the first new moon to set apart, and on the eighth day of the new moon they came to the porch of יְהוָה. They set apart the house of יְהוָה in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first new moon they finished. 18 Then they went in to Hizqiyahu the king within the palace, and said, "We have cleansed all the house of תְּמִימָה, including the altar of ascension offering with all its vessels, and the table of show bread with all its vessels. 19 Moreover all the vessels, which King Ahaz in his reign threw away when he was treacherous, have we prepared and set apart. Behold, they are before the altar of יְהוָה."

20 Then Hizqiyahu the king arose early, gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of יְהוָה. 21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the set-apart place, and for Yehudah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aharon to offer them on the altar of תְּמִימָה. 22 So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar. They killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. 23 They brought near the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them. 24 Then the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Yisra'el; for the king commanded that the ascension offering and the sin offering should be made for all Yisra'el.

25 He set the Levites in the house of יְהוָה with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the command of David, of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the command was from יְהוָה by His prophets. 26 The Levites stood with David's instruments, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 Hizqiyahu commanded them to offer the ascension offering on the altar. When the ascension offering began, the song of יְהוָה also began, along with the trumpets and the instruments of David king of Yisra'el. 28 All the assembly bowed down, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the ascension offering was finished.

29 When they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him knelt themselves and bowed down. 30 Moreover Hizqiyahu the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to יְהוָה with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they stooped low and bowed down.

31 Then Hizqiyahu answered, "Now you have set yourselves apart to יְהוָה. Come near and bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings into the House of יְהוָה." The assembly brought in sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought ascension offerings. 32 The number of the ascension offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs. All these were for an ascension offering to יְהוָה. 33 The set apart things were six hundred head of cattle and three thousand sheep. 34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the ascension offerings. Therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had set themselves apart; for the Levites were more upright in heart to set themselves apart than the priests. 35 Also the ascension offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every ascension offering. So the service of the house of תְּמִימָה was set in order.

36 Hizqiyahu and all the people rejoiced, because of that which Elohim had prepared for the people; for the thing was done suddenly.

30 Hizqiyahu sent to all Yisra'el and Yehudah, and wrote letters also to Ephrayim and Menasheh, that they should come to the house of תְּמִימָה at Yerushalayim, to keep the Pesah to תְּמִימָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el. 2 For the king had taken counsel with his princes and all the assembly in Yerushalayim to keep the Pesah in the second new moon. 3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not set themselves apart in sufficient number, and the people had not gathered themselves together to Yerushalayim. 4 The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. 5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Yisra'el, from Beersheva even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Pesah to יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, at Yerushalayim, for they had not kept it in great numbers in the way it is written.

6 So the couriers went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Yisra'el and Yehudah, and according to the command of the king, saying, "You children of Yisra'el, turn again to יהוה, the Elohim of Avraham, Yitshaq, and Yisra'el, that He may return to the remnant of you that have escaped out of the hand of the kings of Ashuwr. 7 Do not be like your fathers and like your brothers, who trespassed against יהוה, the Elohim of their fathers, so that He gave them up to desolation, as you see. 8 Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to יהוה, and enter into His set-apart place, which He has set apart forever, and serve יהוה your Elohim, that His fierce anger may turn away from you. 9 For if you turn again to יהוה, your brothers and your children will find compassion before those who led them captive, and will come again into this land, because יהוה your Elohim is kind and compassionate, and will not turn away His face from you, if you return to Him."

10 So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephrayim and Menasheh, even to Zevulun, but people ridiculed them and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless some men of Asher and Menasheh and of Zevulun humbled themselves, and came to Yerushalayim. 12 Also the hand of Elohim came on Yehudah to give them one heart, to do the command of the king and of the princes by the word of יהוה.

13 Many people assembled at Yerushalayim to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second new moon, a very great assembly. 14 They arose and took away the altars that were in Yerushalayim, and they took away all the altars for incense and threw them into the wadi Qidron. 15 Then they killed the Pesah on the fourteenth day of the second new moon. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and set themselves apart, and brought ascension offerings into the house of יהוה.

16 They stood in their place after their judgment, according to the Torah of Mosheh the man of Elohim. The priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the assembly who had not set themselves apart: therefore the Levites were in charge of killing the Pesah lambs for everyone who was not clean, to set them apart to יהוה.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephrayim, Menasheh, Yissakhar, and Zevulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Pesah other than the way it is written. For Hizqiyahu had prayed for them, saying, "May the good יהוה cover everyone

19 who sets his heart to seek Elohim, יהוה, the Elohim of his fathers, even if they are not clean according to the purification of the set-apart place."

20 Hizqiyahu listened to Hizqiyahu, and healed the people.

21 The children of Yisra'el who were present at Yerushalayim kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great gladness. The Levites and the priests praised יהוה day by day, singing with loud instruments to יהוה. 22 Hizqiyahu spoke from his heart to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of יהוה. So they ate throughout the Feast for the seven days, slaughtering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to יהוה, the Elohim of their fathers.

23 The whole assembly took counsel to keep another seven days, and they kept another seven days with gladness. 24 For Hizqiyahu king of Yehudah gave to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests set themselves apart. 25 All the assembly of Yehudah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Yisra'el, and the sojourners who came out of the land of Yisra'el, and who lived in Yehudah, rejoiced. 26 So there was great joy in Yerushalayim; for since the time of Shalomoh the son of David king of Yisra'el there was nothing like this in Yerushalayim. 27 Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people. Their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to His set-apart habitation, even to heavens.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Yisra'el who were present went out to the cities of Yehudah, and broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the Asherah poles, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Yehudah and Benyamin, also in Ephrayim and Menasheh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Yisra'el returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 Hizqiyahu appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for ascension offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of יהוה. 3 He also appointed the king's portion of his possessions for the ascension offerings, for the morning and evening ascension offerings, and the ascension offerings for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, and for the set Feasts, as it is written in the Torah of יהוה. 4 Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Yerushalayim to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might strengthen themselves in the Torah of יהוה. 5 As soon as the command went out, the children of Yisra'el gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey, and of all the increase of the field; and they brought in the tithe of all things abundantly. 6 The children of Yisra'el and Yehudah, who lived in the cities of Yehudah, also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were set apart to יהוה their Elohim, and laid them in heaps.

7 In the third new moon they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh new moon. 8 When Hizqiyahu and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed יהוה and His people Yisra'el. 9 Then Hizqiyahu questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps. 10 Azaryahu the chief priest, of the house of Tsadoq, answered him and said, "Since people began to bring the offerings into the house of יהוה, we have eaten and had enough, and have plenty left over, for יהוה has blessed His people; and that which is left is this great store."

11 Then Hizqiyahu commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of יהוה, and they prepared them. 12 They brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things in faithfulness. Konanyahu the Levite was ruler over them, and Shimi his brother was second.

13 Yehi'el, Azazyahu, Nahath, Asah'el, Yerimoth, Yozavad, Eli'el, Yismakyahu, Maḥath, and Benayahu were overseers under the hand of Konanyahu and Shimi his brother, by the appointment of Hizqiyahu the king and Azaryahu the ruler of the house of Elohim. 14 Qore the son of Yimnah the Levite, the gatekeeper at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of Elohim, to distribute the offerings of יהוה and the most set-apart things. 15 Under him were Eden, Minyamin, Yeshua, Shemayahu, Amaryahu, and Shekanyahu, in the cities of the priests, in their faithful office, to give to their brothers by divisions, to the great as well as to the small; 16 besides those who were listed by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of יהוה, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions; 17 and those who were listed by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; 18 and those who were listed by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation; for in their faithful office they set themselves apart in set-apartness. 19 Also for the sons of Aharon the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were listed by genealogy among the Levites. 20 Hizqiyahu did so throughout all Yehudah; and he did that which was good, right, and true before יהוה his Elohim. 21 In every work that he began in the service of the house of Elohim, in the Torah, and in the commands, to seek his Elohim, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

32 After these things and this truth, Sanheriv king of Ashuwr came, entered into Yehudah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and intended to win them for himself. 2 When Hizqiyahu saw that Sanheriv had come, and that he was planning to fight against Yerushalayim, 3 he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city, and they helped him. 4 So, many people gathered together and they stopped all the springs and the wadi that flowed through the middle of the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Ashuwr come, and find abundant water?"

5 And he strengthened himself, built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised it up to the towers, with the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. 6 He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the wide place at the gate of the city, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying, 7 "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or dismayed because of the king of Ashuwr, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater one with us than with him. 8 An arm of flesh is with him, but יהוה our Elohim is with us to help us and to fight our battles." The people leaned on the words of Hizqiyahu king of Yehudah.

9 After this, Sanheriv king of Ashuwr sent his servants to Yerushalayim, (now he was before Lakish, and all his power with him), to Hizqiyahu king of Yehudah, and to all Yehudah who were at Yerushalayim, saying, 10 Thus says Sanheriv king of Ashuwr, "On whom do you rely, that you remain under siege in Yerushalayim? 11 Does not Hizqiyahu persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, 'יהוה our Elohim will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Ashuwr'?

12 Has the same Hizqiyahu not taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Yehudah and Yerushalayim, saying, 'You shall bow down before one altar, and you shall burn incense on it'? 13 Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the elohim of the nations of the lands in any way able to deliver their land out of my hand?

14 Who was there among all the elohim of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your Elohim should be able to deliver you out of my hand? 15 Now therefore do not let Hizqiyahu deceive you, nor persuade you in this way. Do not believe him, for no el of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will your Elohim deliver you out of my hand?"

16 His servants spoke yet more against יהוָה Elohim, and against His servant Hizqiyahu. 17 He also wrote letters insulting יהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, and speaking against Him, saying, "As the elohim of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the Elohim of Hizqiyahu not deliver His people out of my hand." 18 They called out with a loud voice in the Yehudite language to the people of Yerushalayim who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. 19 They spoke of the Elohim of Yerushalayim as of the elohim of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands.

20 Hizqiyahu the king and Yeshayahu the prophet the son of Amots, prayed because of this, and cried to the heavens. 21 יהוָה sent a messenger, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Ashuwr. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he had come into the house of his el, those who came out of his own gut killed him there with the sword. 22 Thus יהוָה saved Hizqiyahu and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim from the hand of Sanheriv the king of Ashuwr and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

23 Many brought gifts to יהוָה to Yerushalayim, and precious things to Hizqiyahu king of Yehudah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from then on.

24 In those days Hizqiyahu was terminally ill, and he prayed to יהוָה; and He spoke to him, and gave him a sign. 25 But Hizqiyahu did not return the repayment of the benefit done for him, because his heart was lifted up. Therefore there was wrath on him, and on Yehudah and Yerushalayim. 26 Notwithstanding Hizqiyahu humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, so that the wrath of יהוָה did not come on them in the days of Hizqiyahu.

27 Hizqiyahu had exceedingly vast riches and honor. He provided himself with treasures for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of valuable vessels; 28 also storehouses for the increase of grain, new wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks in folds. 29 Moreover he provided for himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for Elohim had given him abundant possessions. 30 This same Hizqiyahu also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of David. Hizqiyahu prospered in all his works. 31 However concerning the ambassadors of the princes of Bavel, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, Elohim left him, to try him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hizqiyahu, and his loving-kindness, behold, they are written in the vision of Yeshayahu the prophet the son of Amots, and in the book of the kings of Yehudah and Yisra'el.

33 Hizqiyahu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David. All Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim honored him at his death. Menasheh his son reigned in his place.

33 Menasheh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Yerushalayim. 2 He did that which was evil in the sight of יהוָה, after the abominations of the nations whom יהוָה cast out before the children of Yisra'el. 3 For he built again the high places which Hizqiyahu his father had broken down; and he raised up altars for the Ba'als, made Asheroth, and bowed down to all the army of the heavens, and served them. 4 He built altars in the house of יהוָה, of which יהוָה said, "My Name shall be in Yerushalayim forever." 5 He built altars for all the army of the heavens in the two courts of the house of יהוָה.

6 He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom. He practiced sorcery, divination, and witchcraft, and dealt with mediums, and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of יהוָה, to provoke Him to anger. 7 He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in the house of Elohim, of which Elohim said to David and to Shelomoh his son, "In this house, and in Yerushalayim, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra'el, will I put My Name forever. 8 I will not any more remove the foot of Yisra'el from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will guard to do all that I have commanded them, even all the Torah, the statutes, and the judgments given by the hand of Mosheh."

9 Menasheh seduced Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, so that they did more evil than the nations whom יהוָה destroyed before the children of Yisra'el did.

10 יְהוָה spoke to Menasheh, and to his people; but they did not listen. 11 Therefore יְהוָה brought on them the captains of the army of the king of Ashuwr, who took Menasheh in chains, bound him with fetters, and carried him to Bavel. 12 When he was in distress, he begged יְהוָה his Elohim, and humbled himself greatly before the Elohim of his fathers. 13 He prayed to Him; and He was entreated by him, and heard his petition, and brought him again to Yerushalayim into his kingdom. Then Menasheh knew that יְהוָה was Elohim.

14 Now after this, he built an outer wall to the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the wadi, even to the entrance at the fish gate. He encircled Ophel with it, and raised it up to a very great height; and he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Yehudah. 15 He took away the foreign elohim and the idol out of the house of יהוה, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of יהוה, and in Yerushalayim, and cast them out of the city. 16 He built up the altar of יהוה, and slaughtered sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving on it, and commanded Yehudah to serve יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el. 17 Nevertheless the people still slaughtered in the high places, but only to יהוה their Elohim.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Menasheh, and his prayer to his Elohim, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the Name of יְהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, behold, they are written among the acts of the kings of Yisra'el. 19 His prayer also, and how Elohim was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherah poles and the engraved images, before he humbled himself: behold, they are written in the history of the seers. 20 So Menasheh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house; and Amon his son reigned in his place.

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Yerushalayim. 22 He did that which was evil in the sight of יהוה, as did Menasheh his father; and Amon slaughtered to all the engraved images which Menasheh his father had made, and served them. 23 He did not humble himself before יהוה, as Menasheh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more. 24 His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. 25 But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon; and the people of the land made Yoshiyahu his son king in his place.

34 Yoshiyahu was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Yerushalayim. 2 He did that which was right in the eyes of הָאֱלֹהִים, and walked in the ways of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. 3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the Elohim of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Yehudah and Yerushalayim from the high places, the Asherah poles, the engraved images, and the molten images. 4 They broke down the altars of the Ba'als in his presence; and he cut down the sun-pillars that were on high above them. He broke the Asherah poles, the engraved images, and the molten images in pieces, made dust of them, and scattered it on the graves of those who had slaughtered to them. 5 He burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Yehudah and Yerushalayim. 6 He did this in the cities of Menasheh, Ephrayim, and Shimon, even to Naphtali, around in their ruins. 7 He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherah poles and the engraved images into powder, and cut down all the sun-pillars throughout all the land of Yisra'el, then returned to Yerushalayim.

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Atsalyahu, and Ma'aseyah the governor of the city, and Yoah the son of Yoahaz the recorder, to repair the house of יהוה his Elohim. 9 They came to Ḥilqiyahu the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into the house of Elohim, which the Levites, the guards of the threshold, had gathered from the hands of Menasheh, Ephrayim, of all the remnant of Yisra'el, of all Yehudah and Benyamin, and of the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. 10 They delivered it into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of יהוה; and the workmen who labored in the house of יהוה gave it to mend and repair the house. 11 They gave it to the carpenters and to the builders, to buy cut stone and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Yehudah had destroyed. 12 The men did the work in faithfulness. Their overseers were Yahath and Ovadyahu, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zekharyah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Qohathites, to give direction; and others of the Levites, who were all skillful with musical instruments. 13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and directed all who did the work in every kind of service. Of the Levites, there were scribes, officials, and gatekeepers.

14 When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of יהוָה, Hilqiyyahu the priest found the book of the Torah of יהוָה given by the hand of Mosheh. 15 Hilqiyahu answered Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of the Torah in the house of יהוָה." So Hilqiyahu delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, "All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. 17 They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of יהוָה, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen."

18 Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilqiyahu the priest has delivered to me a book." Shaphan read from it to the king.

19 When the king had heard the words of the Torah, he tore his clothes. 20 The king commanded Hilqiyahu, Ahiqam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Mikkah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asayah the king's servant, saying, 21 "Go inquire of יהוָה for me, and for those who are left in Yisra'el and in Yehudah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of יהוָה that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not guarded the word of יהוָה, to do according to all that is written in this book."

22 So Hilqiyahu, and they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Toqhat, the son of Hasrah, guard of the wardrobe (now she lived in Yerushalayim in the second quarter), and they spoke to her to that effect.

23 She said to them, "יהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el says: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, 24 יהוָה' says, 'Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Yehudah. 25 Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other elohim, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath is poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched.'" 26 But to the king of Yehudah, who sent you to inquire of יהוָה, you shall tell him this, 27 יהוָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el says: "About the words which you have heard, 28 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before Elohim, when you heard His words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before Me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says יהוָה. 28 "Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the evil that I will bring on this place and on its inhabitants. 29 They brought back word to the king.

29 Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Yehudah and Yerushalayim. 30 The king went up to the house of יהוָה, with all the men of Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, both great and small; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of יהוָה. 31 The king stood in his place, and cut a covenant before יהוָה, to walk after יהוָה, and to guard His commands, and His witnesses, and His statutes, with all his heart, and with all his being, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. 32 He caused all who were found in Yerushalayim and Benyamin to stand. The inhabitants of Yerushalayim did according to the covenant of Elohim, the Elohim of their fathers.

33 Yoshiyahu took away all the abominations out of all the countries that belonged to the children of Yisra'el, and made all who were found in Yisra'el to serve, even to serve יהוָה their Elohim. All his days they did not depart from following יהוָה, the Elohim of their fathers.

35 Yoshiyahu kept a Pesah to יהוָה in Yerushalayim. They killed the Pesah on the fourteenth day of the first new moon. 2 He set the priests in their offices, and strengthened them in the service of the house of יהוָה.

3 He said to the Levites who taught all Yisra'el, who were set-apart to יהוָה, "Put the set-apart ark in the house which Shelomoh the son of David king of Yisra'el built. It will no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve יהוָה your Elohim, and His people Yisra'el. 4 Prepare yourselves after your fathers' houses by your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Yisra'el, and according to the writing of Shelomoh his son. 5 Stand in the set-apart place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brothers the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a fathers' house of the Levites. 6 Kill the Pesah, set yourselves apart, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of יהוָה by the hand of Mosheh."

7 Yoshiyahu gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and young goats, all of them for the Pesah offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls. These were of the king's substance. 8 His princes gave for a freewill offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilqiyah, Zekharyahu, and Yehi'el, the rulers of the house of Elohim, gave to the priests for the Pesah offerings two thousand six hundred small livestock, and three hundred head of cattle. 9 Konanyahu also, and Shemayah and Nethan'el, his brothers, and Hashavyahu, Yei'el, and Yozavad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Pesah offerings five thousand small livestock and five hundred head of cattle.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king's command. 11 They killed the Pesah, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of their hand, and the Levites flayed them. 12 They removed the ascension offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to תְּהִלָּתָה, as it is written in the book of Mosheh. They did the same with the cattle. 13 They cooked the Pesah with fire according to the judgment. They cooked the set-apart offerings in pots, in cauldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people. 14 Afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aharon were busy with offering the ascension offerings and the fat until night. Therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aharon. 15 The singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Yeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers were at every gate. They did not need to depart from their service, because their brothers the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of תְּהִלָּתָה was prepared the same day, to keep the Pesah, and to offer ascension offerings on the altar of תְּהִלָּתָה, according to the command of King Yoshiyahu. 17 The children of Yisra'el who were present kept the Pesah at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread they kept for seven days. 18 There was no Pesah like that kept in Yisra'el from the days of Shemu'el the prophet, nor did any of the kings of Yisra'el keep such a Pesah as Yoshiyahu kept, with the priests, the Levites, and all Yehudah and Yisra'el who were present, and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. 19 This Pesah was kept in the eighteenth year of the reign of Yoshiyahu.

20 After all this, when Yoshiyahu had prepared the Temple, Neko king of Mitsrayim went up to fight against Karkemish by the Euphrates, and Yoshiyahu went out against him. 21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, you king of Yehudah? I come not against you today, but against the house with which I have war. Elohim has commanded me to make haste. Beware that it is Elohim who is with me, that He not destroy you."

22 Nevertheless Yoshiyahu would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and did not listen to the words of Neko from the mouth of Elohim, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. 23 The archers shot at King Yoshiyahu; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, because I am seriously wounded!"

24 So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Yerushalayim; and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Yehudah and Yerushalayim mourned for Yoshiyahu. 25 Yirmeyahu lamented for Yoshiyahu, and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Yoshiyahu in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Yisra'el. Behold, they are written in the lamentations. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Yoshiyahu, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the Torah of תְּהִלָּתָה, 27 and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el and Yehudah.

36 Then the people of the land took Yehoahaz the son of Yoshiyahu, and made him king in his father's place in Yerushalayim. 2 Yoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three new moons in Yerushalayim. 3 The king of Mitsrayim removed him from office at Yerushalayim, and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. 4 The king of Mitsrayim made Elyaqim his brother king over Yehudah and Yerushalayim, and changed his name to Yehoyaqim. Neko took Yoahaz his brother, and carried him to Mitsrayim.

5 Yehoyaqim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim. He did that which was evil in the sight of תְּהִלָּתָה his Elohim. 6 Nevukhadnetsar king of Bavel came up against him, and bound him in fetters to carry him to Bavel. 7 Nevukhadnetsar also carried some of the vessels of the house of תְּהִלָּתָה to Bavel, and put them in his temple at Bavel. 8 Now the rest of the acts of Yehoyaqim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el and Yehudah; and Yehoyakin his son reigned in his place.

9 Yehoyakin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three new moons and ten days in Yerushalayim. He did that which was evil in the sight of תְּהִלָּתָה. 10 At the turn of the year, King Nevukhadnetsar sent and brought him to Bavel, with the valuable vessels of the house of תְּהִלָּתָה, and made Tsidqiyyahu his brother king over Yehudah and Yerushalayim.

11 Tsidqiyyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim. 12 He did that which was evil in the sight of תְּהִלָּתָה his Elohim. He did not humble himself before Yirmeyahu the prophet speaking from the mouth of תְּהִלָּתָה. 13 He also rebelled against King Nevukhadnetsar, who had made him swear by Elohim; but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to תְּהִלָּתָה, the Elohim of Yisra'el. 14 Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of יהוה which He had made set-apart in Yerushalayim. 15 יהוה, the Elohim of their fathers, sent to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending, because He had compassion on His people, and on His dwelling place; 16 but they mocked the messengers of Elohim, and despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of יהוה arose against His people, until there was no remedy.

17 Therefore He brought on them the king of the Kaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their set-apart place, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or gray-headed. He gave them all into his hand. 18 All the vessels of the house of Elohim, great and small, and the treasures of the house of יהוה, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he brought to Bavel. 19 They burned the house of Elohim, and broke down the wall of Yerushalayim, and burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all of its valuable vessels. 20 He carried those who had escaped from the sword away to Bavel, and they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Paras, 21 to fulfill the word of יהוה by Yirmeyahu's mouth, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. As long as it lay desolate, it ceases in its Sabbaths, to fulfill seventy years.

22 Now in the first year of Koresh king of Paras, that the word of יהוה by the mouth of Yirmeyahu might be accomplished, יהוה stirred up the spirit of Koresh king of Paras, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, 23 "Thus says Koresh king of Paras, יהוה, the Elohim of the heavens, has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me; and He has commanded me to build Him a house in Yerushalayim, which is in Yehudah. Whoever there is among you of all His people; יהוה his Elohim be with him, and let him go up."

Mattithyahu (Matthew)

Genealogy of מֶשֶׁךְ Messiah

1 The book of the generations of יֵשׁוּעַ the Messiah^a, the son of David, the son of Avraham.

2 Avraham brought forth Yitshaq, Yitshaq brought forth Ya'aqov, and Ya'aqov brought forth Yehudah and his brothers. 3 Yehudah brought forth Perets and Zeraḥ by Tamar, Perets brought forth Hetsron, and Hetsron brought forth Ram. 4 Ram brought forth Amminadav, Amminadav brought forth Nahshon, and Nahshon brought forth Salmon. 5 Salmon brought forth Boaz by Rahav, Boaz brought forth Oved by Ruth, and Oved brought forth Yishai. 6 Yishai brought forth David the king. David brought forth Shalomoh by Bathsheva who had been the wife of Uriyah. 7 Shalomoh brought forth Rehavam, Rehavam brought forth Aviyah, and Aviyah brought forth Asa. 8 Asa brought forth Yehoshaphat, Yehoshaphat brought forth Yoram, and Yoram brought forth Uzziyah. 9 Uzziyah brought forth Yotham, Yotham brought forth Ahaz, and Ahaz brought forth Hizqiyahu. 10 Hizqiyahu brought forth Menasheh, Menasheh brought forth Amon, and Amon brought forth Yoshiyahu. 11 Yoshiyahu brought forth Yekonyahu and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Bavel.

12 After the deportation to Bavel: Yekonyahu brought forth Shealti'el, and Shealti'el brought forth Zerubbavel.

13 Zerubbavel brought forth Avihud, Avihud brought forth Elyaqim, and Elyaqim brought forth Azor. 14 Azor brought forth Tsadoq, Tsadoq brought forth Akim, and Akim brought forth Eliud. 15 Eliud brought forth Elazar, Elazar brought forth Matthan, and Matthan brought forth Ya'aqov. 16 Ya'aqov brought forth Yoseph the husband^b of Miryam, by whom יֵשׁוּעַ was brought forth, who is called the Messiah.

17 So all the generations from Avraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the deportation to Bavel, fourteen generations; and from the deportation to Bavel to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

Birth of יֵשׁוּעַ

18 Now the birth of יֵשׁוּעַ Messiah was as follows: when His mother Miryam had been betrothed to Yoseph, before they came together she was found to be with child from the Set-apart Ruah. 19 And Yoseph her husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to disgrace her, planned to renege the marriage vow secretly.

20 But when he had considered this, behold, a messenger of הָרָאָה appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Yoseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Miryam as your wife; for the Child who has been conceived in her is from the Set-apart Ruah. 21 She will bear a Son; and you shall call His Name יֵשׁוּעַ, for He will save His people^c from their sins." 22 Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by הָרָאָה through the prophet Yeshayahu: 23 "Behold, the maiden shall be with child and shall bear a son, and they shall call His name Imman'u'el," which translated means, "El with us." 24 And Yoseph awoke from his sleep and did as the messenger of הָרָאָה commanded him, and took Miryam as his wife, 25 but he did not know her until she gave birth to a Son; and he called His name יֵשׁוּעַ.

Visit of the Magi

2 Now after יֵשׁוּעַ was born in Beth-lehem of Yehudah in the days of Herod the king, magi from the east arrived in Yerushalayim, saying, 2 "Where is He who has been born King of the Yehudim? For we saw His star in the east and have come to bow down to Him."

3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Yerushalayim with him. 4 Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. 5 They said to him, "In Beth-lehem of Yehudah; for this is what has been written by the prophet:

6 'And you, Beth-lehem, land of Yehudah, are by no means least among the leaders of Yehudah; for out of you shall come forth a Ruler who will shepherd My people Yisra'el.'^d

7 Then Herod secretly called the magi and determined from them the exact time the star appeared. 8 And he sent them to Beth-lehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may come and bow down to meaning literally "husband, man, or male human."

Him." 9 After hearing the king, they went their way; and the star, which they had seen in the east, went on before them until it came and stood over the place where the Child was. 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy. 11 After coming into the house they saw the Child with Miryam His mother; and having fallen down they bowed down to Him. Then, opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. 12 And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, the magi left for their own country by another way.

Flight to Mitsrayim

13 Now when they had gone, behold, a messenger of תִּנְהַלָּת appeared to Yoseph in a dream and said, "Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Mitsrayim, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is going to search for the Child to destroy Him."

14 So Yoseph got up and took the Child and His mother while it was still night, and left for Mitsrayim. 15 He remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by יְהוָה through the prophet Hoshea: "out of Mitsrayim I called My Son."^a

Herod Slaughters the Male Children

16 Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became very enraged, and sent and slew all the male children who were in Beth-lehem and all its vicinity, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the magi. 17 Then what had been spoken through Yirmeyahu the prophet was fulfilled: 18 "A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Raheil weeping for her children; and she refused to be comforted, because they were no more."^b

19 But when Herod died, behold, a messenger of תִּנְהַלָּת appeared in a dream to Yoseph in Mitsrayim, and said, 20 "Get up, take the Child and His mother, and go into the land of Yisra'el; for those who sought the Child's life are dead." 21 So Yoseph got up, took the Child and His mother, and entered the land of Yisra'el. 22 But when he heard that Arhelaus was reigning over Yehudah in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Then after being warned in a dream, he left for the regions of the Galil, 23 and came and lived in a city called Nazareth. This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets: "He shall be called a Nazarene."

Work of Yohanan the Immerser

3 Now in those days Yohanan the Immerser came, proclaiming in the wilderness of Yehudah, saying, 2 "Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is at hand."

3 For this is the one referred to by Yeshayahu the prophet when he said, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, make ready the way of תִּנְהַלָּת, make His paths straight!"^c

4 Now Yohanan himself had a garment of camel's hair and a leather belt around his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey. 5 Then Yerushalayim was going out to him, and all Yehudah and all the district around the Yarden; 6 and they were being immersed by him in the Yarden River, as they confessed their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for immersion, he said to them, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore bear fruit in keeping with repentance; 9 and do not suppose that you can say to yourselves, 'We have Avraham for our father;' for I say to you that from these stones Elohim is able to raise up children to Avraham. 10 The axe is already laid at the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

11 "As for me, I immerse you with water for repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, and I am not fit to remove His sandals; He will immerse you with the Set-apart Ruah and fire. 12 His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clear His threshing floor; and He will gather His wheat into the barn, but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

Immersion of עֵשֶׂב

13 Then עֵשֶׂב arrived from the Galil at the Yarden coming to Yohanan, to be immersed under him. 14 But Yohanan prevented Him, saying, "I have need to be immersed under You, and You come to me?"

15 But עֵשֶׂב answering said to him, "Permit it at this time; for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he permitted Him. 16 After being immersed, עֵשֶׂב came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Ruah of Elohim descending as a dove and lighting on Him, 17 and behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I am well-pleased."

Temptation of Yeshua'

4 Then יְשֻׁעָה was led up by the Ruah into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 And having fasted forty days and forty nights, He afterwards became hungry. 3 And the tempter came and said to Him, "If You are the Son of Elohim, command that these stones become bread." 4 But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of Hashem.'"^a

5 Then the devil took Him into the set-apart city and had Him stand on the pinnacle of the Temple,

6 and said to Him, "If You are the Son of Elohim, throw Yourself down; for it is written, 'He will command His messengers concerning you;' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'"^b

7 said to him, "On the other hand, it is written, 'You shall not put Hashem your Elohim to the test.'"^c

8 Again, the devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory; 9 and he said to Him, "All these things I will give You, if in falling down, You will bow down to me."

10 Then יְשֻׁעָה said to him, "Go, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall bow down to Hashem your Elohim, and serve Him only.'"^d 11 Then the devil left Him; and behold, messengers came and ministered to Him.

12 Now when He heard that Yohanan had been taken into custody, He withdrew into the Galil; 13 and leaving Nazareth, He came and settled in Kaphar-nahum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zevulun and Naphtali.

14 This was to fulfill what was spoken through Yeshayahu the prophet:

15 "The land of Zevulun and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, beyond the Yarden, the Galil of the nations—16 The people who were sitting in darkness saw a great light, and those who were sitting in the land and shadow of death, upon them a light dawned."^e

17 From that time יְשֻׁעָה began to proclaim and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is at hand."

Calling of Shimon, Andreas, Ya'akov, and Yohanan

18 Now as He was walking by the Sea of the Galil, He saw two brothers, Shimon called Kepha,^f and Andreas his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19 And He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." 20 Immediately they left their nets and followed Him. 21 Going on from there He saw two other brothers, Ya'akov the son of Zevadyahu, and Yohanan his brother, in the boat with Zevadyahu their father, mending their nets; and He called them. 22 Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

23 He was going throughout all the Galil, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people.

24 [The news about Him spread throughout all Syria^g; and they brought to Him all who were ill, those suffering with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, paralytics;]^h and He healed them. 25 Large crowds followed Him from the Galil and the Decapolis and Yerushalayim and Yehudah and from beyond the Yarden.

5 When יְשֻׁעָה saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain; and after He sat down, His talmidim came to Him. 2 He opened His mouth and began to teach them, saying,

3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

4 "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

5 "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

7 "Blessed are the kind, for they shall receive kindness.

8 "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see Elohim.

9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of Elohim.

10 "Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

11 "Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me. 12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in the heavens is great; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Talmidim to the World

13 "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has become tasteless, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except for throwing out and being trampled underfoot by men.

14 "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden; 15 nor does anyone light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on the menorah, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in the heavens.

The Torah and the Prophets

17 "Do not think that I came to abolish the Torah or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill^a. 18 For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one yod^b or one stroke^c shall pass from the Torah until all is accomplished. 19 Whoever then annuls^d one of the least of these commands, and teaches others the same, shall be called least in the kingdom of the heavens; but whoever keeps and teaches, he shall be called great^e in the kingdom of the heavens.

20 "For I say to you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Personal Relationships

21 "You have heard that the ancients were told, 'You shall not commit murder'^f and 'Whoever commits murder shall be liable to judgment.' 22 But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother [without cause]^g shall be liable before judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Rhaka^h', shall be liable before the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be liable enough to go into the Gehenna of fire.

23 "Therefore if you are presenting your offering at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your offering there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

25 Make friends quickly with your opponent at lawⁱ while you are with him on the way, so that your opponent may not hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.

26 Truly I say to you, you will not come out of there until you have paid up the last cent.

27 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery'^j; 28 but I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If your right eye makes you stumble, tear it out and throw it from you; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body, than for your whole body to be thrown into Gehenna. 30 If your right hand makes you stumble, cut it off and throw it from you; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body, than for your whole body to go into Gehenna.

31 "It was said, 'Whoever sends his wife away, let him give her a certificate of divorce'^k; 32 but I say to you that everyone sending away his wife, except for reason of whoring, makes her commit adultery; and whoever marries a woman that was sent away commits adultery.

33 "Again, you have heard that the ancients were told, 'You shall not make false vows, but shall fulfill your vows to יְהוָה.'^l 34 But I say to you, make no oath at all,

^a 17 Greek word for "fulfill" here is πληρωο (pleroo), meaning "to fill up, bring about fullness, amply supply." Literally, to "fill to the fullest." Sha'ul uses the same word in Romaious 15:19 when he says he "fully proclaimed."

^b 18 Yod – In Greek this appears as Iota (Iota) which is the name of the Greek equivalent to the English I or the Hebrew Yod (י). It is used here in reference to the smallest letter of the alphabet. Syr. uses the word γενίς (yud) which means the same. Given that Greek letters do not have "horns" (see note E), it is clear that the Hebrew alphabet is being mentioned. Thus "Yod" was used in place of "Iota."

^c 18 Stroke – Greek word κεραία (ker'aia) literally means "horn." This refers to the small "horn" or stroke at the top of some Hebrew letters, which are considered the smallest part of the aleph-bet. These "horns" help to differentiate between characters such as hey (ה) from het (ה) or dalet (ד) from resh (ר). Syr. uses the word سرطان (seret) meaning "scratch."

^d 19 While the Greek uses two different words in verses 17 & 19 for "abolish" and "annul", the Syriac uses the same word for both, שׁרֵשׁ (shri). Thus, in verse 17 עֲשֵׂה states that

He did not come to shri the Torah, and in verse 19 He says that whoever shris the least of these commands, would be called least. Shri means "to loosen, weaken."

^e 19 Syr. uses the word רַבָּא (rabba) here, meaning "great one" or "chief one." The personal possessive form of this word is Rabbi, meaning "my chief one."

^f 21 See Shemot 20:13.

^g 22 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek texts.

^h 22 Rhaka – From the Aramaic word רָקָא (raqa) meaning "empty." It implies empty-headedness. Similar to calling someone "good-for-nothing." Culturally, this phrase can also mean, "I spit on you."

ⁱ 25 That is, someone opposing you in a legal battle, such as a lawsuit.

either by heaven, for it is the throne of Elohim, 35 or by the earth, for it is the footstool of His feet, or by Yerushalayim, for it is the city of the Great King. 36 Nor shall you make an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 But let your statement be, 'Yes, yes or 'No, no; anything beyond these is evil.

38 "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.'^a 39 "But I say to you, do not resist the evil; but whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. 40 And to the one desiring to sue you and take your shirt, let him have your coat also. 41 Whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two.^b 42 Give to him who asks of you, and do not turn away from him who wants to borrow from you.

43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor'^c and 'Hate your enemy.' 44 But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 so that you may be sons of your Father who is in the heavens; for He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 47 If you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the pagans^d do the same? 48 Therefore you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Teaching about Giving

6 "Beware of practicing your righteousness before men to be noticed by them; otherwise you have no reward with your Father who is in the heavens. 2 So when you give to the poor, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be honored by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. 3 But when you give to the poor, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 so that your giving will be in secret; and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you.

Teaching about Prayer

5 "When you pray, you are not to be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners so that they may be seen by men.

Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. 6 But you, when you pray, go into your inner room, close your door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you [openly].^e

7 "And when you are praying, do not use meaningless repetition as the pagans do, for they suppose that they will be heard for their many words. 8 So do not be like them; for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

Model Prayer

9 "Pray, then, in this way: 'Our Father who is in the heavens, may Your Name be set-apart. 10 Let Your kingdom come. Let Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.'

11 Give us each day our daily bread. 12 And forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. 13 And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory to the ages. Amein.]^f

14 "For if you forgive others for their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But if you do not forgive [the transgressions of]^g them, neither will your Father forgive your transgressions.

Fasting; True Treasure; Wealth

16 "Whenever you fast, do not be gloomy in appearance as the hypocrites, for they neglect their appearance so that they will be noticed by men when they are fasting. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. 17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face 18 so that your fasting will not be noticed by men, but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you.

19 "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; 21 for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. 22 The eye is the lamp of the body; so then if your eye is clear,^h your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is 24 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve Elohim and money.

Teaching about Worry

25 "For this reason I say to you, do not be worried about your life, as to what you will eat [or what you will drink]^b; nor for your body, as to what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? 26 Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they? 27 And who of you by being worried can add a single cubit to his stature? 28 And why are you worried about clothing? Observe how the lilies of the field grow; they do not toil nor do they spin, 29 yet I say to you that not even Shalomoh in all his glory was clothed like one of these. 30 But if Elohim so clothes the grass of the field, which exists today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? O you of little faith! 31 Do not worry then, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear for clothing?' 32 For the nations eagerly seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33 But seek first the Kingdom [of Elohim]^c and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

34 "So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will worry for itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."

Judgment

7 "Do not judge so that you will not be judged. 2 For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured again to you. 3 Why do you look at the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the wooden beam that is in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' and behold, the wooden beam is in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the wooden beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

6 "Do not give what is set-apart to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before swine, or they will trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

Ask, Seek, Knock

7 "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. 9 Or what man is there among you who, when his son asks for a loaf, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for a fish, he will not give him a snake, will he? 11 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in the heavens give good things to those who ask Him! 12 In everything, therefore, treat people the same way you want them to treat you, for this is the Torah and the Prophets.

Entering the Kingdom

13 Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it. 14 For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

A Tree and its Fruit

15 "Beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves.

16 You will know them by their fruits. Grapes are not gathered from thorns nor figs from thistles, are they?

17 So every useful tree bears good fruit, but the worthless tree bears evil fruit. 18 A useful tree cannot produce evil fruit, nor can a worthless tree produce good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 So then, you will know them by their fruits.

21 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Master, Master,' will enter the kingdom of the heavens, but he who does the will of My Father who is in the heavens will enter.^d

22 Many will say to Me on that day, 'Master, Master, did we not prophesy in Your Name, and in Your Name cast out demons, and in Your Name perform many miracles?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who work lawlessness.^e

The Two Foundations

24 "Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them, will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. 25 And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and yet it did not fall, for it had been founded on the rock. 26 Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. 27 The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and it fell, and its fall was great."

28 When ישׁוּעָה had finished these words, the crowds were amazed at His teaching; 29 for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

Healing a Leper; Centurion's Faith

8 When He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. 2 And a leper approached Him and bowed down to Him, and said, "Master, if You are willing, You can make me clean." 3 And having stretched out His hand He touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 And ישׁוּעָה said to him, "See that you tell no one; but go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering that Mosheh commanded, as a witness to them."

5 And when He entered Kaphar-nahum, a centurion came to Him, imploring Him, 6 and saying, "Master, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, fearfully tormented."

7 And He said to him, "I will come and heal him."

8 But the centurion said, "Master, I am not worthy for You to come under my roof, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed. 9 For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my bondservant, 'Do this!' and he does."

10 Now when ישׁוּעָה heard this, He marveled and said to those who were following, "Truly I say to you, not even in Yisra'el have I found so much faith. 11 I say to you that many will come from east and west, and recline at the table with Avraham, Yits'haq and Ya'aqov in the kingdom of the heavens; 12 but the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 13 And ישׁוּעָה said to the centurion, "Go; as you have believed, so it shall be done for you." And the servant was healed in that hour.

Healing of Kepha's Mother-in-Law and Others

14 When ישׁוּעָה came into Kepha's home, He saw his mother-in-law lying sick in bed with a fever. 15 He touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she got up and served Him. 16 When evening came, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were ill. 17 This was done to fulfill what was spoken through Yeshayahu the prophet: "He Himself took our infirmities and carried away our diseases."^a

Cost of Following Messiah

18 Now when ישׁוּעָה saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to depart to the other side of the sea. 19 Then a scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go." 20 ישׁוּעָה said to him, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." 21 Another of the talmidim said to Him, "Master, permit me first to go and bury my father." 22 But ישׁוּעָה said to him, "Follow Me, and allow the dead to bury their own dead."

23 When He got into the boat, His talmidim followed Him. 24 And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being covered with the waves; but ישׁוּעָה Himself was asleep. 25 And they came to Him and woke Him, saying, "Save us, Master; we are perishing!" 26 He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became perfectly calm. 27 The men were amazed, and said, "What kind of a man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"

Demons Cast out into Swine

28 When He came to the other side into the country of the Girgashites, two men who were demon-possessed met Him as they were coming out of the tombs. They were so extremely violent that no one could pass by that way. 29 And they cried out, saying, "What business do we have with each other, Son of Elohim? Have You come here to torment us before the time?"

30 Now there was a herd of many swine feeding at a distance from them. 31 The demons began to entreat Him, saying, "If You cast us out, send us into the swine." 32 And He said to them, "Go!" And they came out and went into the swine, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the waters. 33 The herdsmen ran away, and went to the city and reported everything, including what had happened to the demoniacs. 34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet יִשְׁעָה; and when they saw Him, they implored Him to leave their region.

9 Getting into a boat, יִשְׁעָה crossed over the sea and came to His own city.

Healing a Paralytic

2 And they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. Seeing their faith, יִשְׁעָה said to the paralytic, "Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven." 3 And some of the scribes said to themselves, "This fellow blasphemes." 4 And יִשְׁעָה knowing their thoughts said, "Why are you thinking evil in your hearts? 5 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, and walk?' 6 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"— then He said to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your bed, and go home." 7 And he got up and went home. 8 But when the crowds saw this, they were awestruck, and glorified Elohim, who had given such authority to men.

Calling of Mattithyahu

9 As יִשְׁעָה went on from there, He saw a man called Mattithyahu, sitting in the tax collector's booth; and He said to him, "Follow Me!" And he got up and followed Him.

10 Then it happened that as He was reclining at the table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were dining with יִשְׁעָה and His talmidim.

11 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to His talmidim, "Why is your Teacher eating with the tax collectors and sinners?" 12 Having heard this, He said, "It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick. 13 But go and learn what this means: 'I desire loving-kindness, and not sacrifice,'^a for I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners [to repentance].^b"

Question about Fasting

14 Then the talmidim of Yohanan came to Him, asking, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but Your talmidim do not fast?" 15 And יִשְׁעָה said to them, "The sons of the bridechamber^c cannot mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them, can they? But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16 But no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and a worse tear results. 17 Nor do people put new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the wineskins burst, and the wine pours out and the wineskins are ruined; but they put new wine into renewed wineskins, and both are preserved."

Miracles of Healing

18 While He was saying these things to them, a synagogue official came and bowed down to Him, and said, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live." 19 יִשְׁעָה got up and began to follow him, and so did His talmidim. 20 And a woman who had been suffering from a flow of blood for twelve years, came up behind Him and touched the tsitsit of His cloak; 21 for she was saying to herself, "If I only touch His garment, I will be saved." 22 But יִשְׁעָה turning and seeing her said, "Daughter, take courage; your faith has saved you." The woman was saved that very hour.

23 When יִשְׁעָה came into the official's house, and saw the flute-players and the crowd in noisy disorder, 24 He was saying to them, "Leave; for the girl has not died, but is asleep." And they began laughing at Him. 25 But when the crowd had been sent out, He entered and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. 26 This news of her spread throughout all that land.

27 As יִשְׁעָה went on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, "Be kind to us, Son of David!"

28 When He entered the house, the blind men came up to Him, and יִשְׁעָה said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Master." 29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, "It shall be done to you according to your faith." 30 And their eyes were opened. And יִשְׁעָה sternly warned them: "See that no one knows about this!" 31 But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout all that land.

32 As they were going out, a mute, demon-possessed man was brought to Him. 33 After the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke; and the crowds were amazed, and were saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Yisra'el." 34 But the Pharisees were saying, "He casts out the demons by the ruler of the demons."

35 יִשְׁעָה was going through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. 36 Seeing the people, He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and dispirited like sheep without a shepherd. 37 Then He said to His talmidim, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. 38 Therefore pray earnestly to the Master of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest."

^a 13 See Hoshea 6:6.

Twelve Talmidim; Instructions for Service

10 And having called the twelve talmidim to Himself, He gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. 2 Now the names of the twelve shelihim are these: The first, Shimon, called Kepha, and Andreas his brother; and Ya'aqov the son of Zevadyahu, and Yoḥanan his brother; 3 Philippos and Bar-Talmai; Taom and Mattithyahu the tax collector; Ya'aqov the son of Heleph, and [Labbeus also called]^a Thaddaeus; 4 Shimon the Zealot^b, and Yehudah Ish-Qerioth, the one who betrayed Him.

5 These twelve שָׁלֵיחַ sent out after instructing them: "Do not go in the way of the nations, and do not enter any city of the Shom'ronites; 6 but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'el. 7 And as you go, proclaim, saying, 'The kingdom of the heavens is at hand.' 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. Freely you received, freely give. 9 Do not acquire gold, or silver, or copper for your money belts, 10 or a money bag for your journey, or even two coats, or sandals, or a staff; for the worker is worthy of his food. 11 But into whatever city or village you might enter, inquire who is worthy in it, and stay at his house until you leave that city. 12 As you enter the house, give it your greeting. 13 If the house is worthy, give it your blessing of peace. But if it is not worthy, take back your blessing of peace. 14 Whoever does not receive you, nor heed your words, as you go out of and away from that house or that city, shake the dust off your feet. 15 Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sedom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

Persecution Predicted

16 "Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be shrewd as the serpents and innocent as the doves. 17 But beware of men, for they will hand you over to the Sanhedrin and scourge you in their synagogues; 18 and you will even be brought before governors and kings on my account, as a witness to them and to the nations. 19 But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you are to say; for it will be given you in that hour what you are to say. 20 For it is not you who speak, but it is the Ruah of your Father speaking in you.

21 "Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. 22 You will be hated by all because of My Name, but the one who has endured to the end will be saved. 23 But whenever they persecute you in one city, flee to the next; for truly I say to you, you will not finish going through the cities of Yisra'el until the Son of Man comes. 24 A talmid is not above his teacher, nor a bondservant above his master. 25 It is enough for the talmid that he become like his teacher, and the bondservant like his master. If they have called the head of the house Beelzebul^c, how much more will they malign the members of His household!

26 "Therefore do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. 27 What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim upon the housetops. 28 Do not fear those who kill the body but are unable to kill the being; but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both being and body in Gehenna. 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a cent? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

32 "Therefore everyone who confesses Me before men, I will also confess him before My Father who is in the heavens. 33 But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father who is in the heavens.

34 "Do not think that I came to bring peace on the earth; I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. 35 For I came to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; 36 and a man's enemies will be the members of his household.^d 37 "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. 38 And he who does not take his stake and follow after Me is not worthy of Me.

^a 3 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek and Syriac texts.

^b 4 Zealot – Translated from the Greek Καυαναος (ka'nā'a'ios). This is most likely a transliteration of the Hebrew קָנָה (qa'nah) meaning "to have Zeal." Some scholars argue it actually means "Kena'anite."

^c 25 Beelzebul – Greek transliteration of Hebrew

"Ba'alzevuv" meaning "master of flies." A name for Satan.

^d 35-36 See Mikhah 7:6.

39 He who has found his life will lose it, and he who has lost his life for My sake will find it.

Reward of Service

40 He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me. 41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And whoever in the name of a talmid gives to one of these little ones even a cold cup to drink, truly I say to you, he shall not lose his reward."

Yohanan's Inquiry

11 When יִשְׁעָׁה had finished giving instructions to His twelve talmidim, He departed from there to teach and proclaim in their cities.

2 Now when Yohanan, while imprisoned, heard of the works of Messiah, he sent word by his talmidim 3 and said to Him, "Are You the Coming One, or shall we look for another?" 4 יִשְׁעָׁה answered and said to them, "Go and report to Yohanan what you hear and see: 5 the blind receive sight and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them.^a 6 And blessed is he who does not stumble in Me."

יִשְׁעָׁה Testifies about Yohanan

7 As these men were going, יִשְׁעָׁה began to speak to the crowds about Yohanan, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8 But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in delicacies? Those who wear soft clothing are in kings' palaces! 9 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and one who is more than a prophet. 10 This is the one about whom it is written, 'Behold, I send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way before You.'^b 11 "Truly I say to you, among those born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than Yohanan the Immerser! Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he. 12 From the days of Yohanan the Immerser until now the kingdom of the heavens suffers violence, and violent men take it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the Torah prophesied until Yohanan. 14 And if you are willing to accept it, he himself is Eliyahu who was to come. 15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

16 "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market places, who call out to others, 17 saying, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we lamented, and you did not mourn.'

18 For Yohanan came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon!' 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is declared right by her works."

Unrepentant Cities

20 Then He began to denounce the cities in which most of His miracles were done, because they did not repent.

21 "Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Beth-tsaida! For if the miracles had occurred in Tsor and Tsidon which occurred in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 Nevertheless I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tsor and Tsidon in the day of judgment than for you. 23 And you, Kaphar-naum, will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down to Sheol; for if the miracles had occurred in Sodom which occurred in you, it would have remained to this day. 24 Nevertheless I say to you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for you."

Rest for the Weary

25 At that time יִשְׁעָׁה said, "I praise You, Father, Master of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to infants. 26 Yes, Father, for this way was well-pleasing in Your eyes. 27 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father; nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.

28 Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your beings.^c 30 For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Son of Man is Master of the Sabbath

12 At that time יִשְׁעָׁה went through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His talmidim became hungry and began to pick the heads of grain to eat. 2 But when the Pharisees saw, they said to Him, "Look, Your talmidim do what is not lawful to do on Sabbath." 3 But He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he became hungry, he and his companions, 4 how he entered the house of Elohim, and they ate the set-apart^a bread, which was not lawful for him to eat nor for those with him, but for the priests alone? 5 Or have you not read in the Torah, that on the Sabbath the priests in the Temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? 6 But I say to you that something greater than the Temple is here. 7 But if you had known what this means, 'I desire loving-kindness, and not sacrifice,^b you would not have condemned the innocent. 8 For the Son of Man is Master of the Sabbath."

^a See also Yeshayahu 42.

^c See also Yirmeyahu 6:16.

9 Departing from there, He went into their synagogue. 10 And there was a man whose hand was withered. And they questioned Him, asking, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" – so that they might accuse Him. 11 And He said to them, "What man is there among you who has a sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not take hold of it and lift it out? 12 How much more valuable then is a man than a sheep! So then, it is lawful to do what is right on the Sabbath." 13 Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand!" He stretched it out, and it was restored to normal, like the other. 14 But the Pharisees went out and conspired against Him, as to how they might destroy Him.

15 But יְהֹוָה, aware of this, withdrew from there. Many followed Him, and He healed them all, 16 and warned them not to tell who He was. 17 This was to fulfill what was spoken through Yeshayahu the prophet:

18 "Behold, My Servant whom I have chosen; My Beloved in whom My being is well-pleased; I will put My Ruah upon Him, and He shall proclaim justice to the nations. 19 He will not quarrel, nor cry out; nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets. 20 A battered reed He will not break off, and a smoldering wick He will not put out, until He leads justice to victory. 21 And in His Name the nations will hope."^c

Healings; Pharisees Rebuked

22 Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and deaf-mute was brought to יְהֹוָה, and He healed him, so that the mute man spoke and saw. 23 All the crowds were amazed, and were saying, "This man cannot be the Son of David, can he?" 24 But when the Pharisees heard, they said, "This man casts out demons only by Beelzebul^d the ruler of demons." 25 And knowing their thoughts He said to them, "Any kingdom divided against itself is laid waste; and any city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand? 27 If I by Beelzebul cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? For this reason they will be your judges. 28 But if I cast out demons by the Ruah of Elohim, then the kingdom of Elohim has come upon you. 29 Or how can anyone enter the strong man's house and carry off his property, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.

Unforgiveable Sin

30 "He who is not with Me is against Me; and he who does not gather with Me scatters. 31 Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the Ruah shall not be forgiven. 32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Set-apart Ruah, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

A Tree is Known by its Fruit

33 "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for the tree is known from its fruit. 34 You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak what is good? For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart. 35 The good man brings out of his good treasure what is good; and the evil man brings out of his evil treasure what is evil. 36 But I tell you that every careless word that people speak, they shall give an accounting for it in the day of judgment. 37 For from your words you will be declared right, and from your words you will be condemned."

Sign of Yonah

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

39 But He answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation searches for a sign; and no sign will be given to it but the sign of Yonah the prophet; 40 for just as Yonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish,^e so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh will stand up with this generation at the judgment, and will condemn it because they repented at the proclaiming of Yonah; and behold, something greater than Yonah is here. 42 The Queen of the South will rise up with this generation at the judgment and will condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Shealomoh; and behold, something greater than Shealomoh is here."

Return of an Unclean Spirit

43 "Now when the unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and does not find it. 44 Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came;' and when it comes, it finds it unoccupied, swept, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and takes along with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. That is the way it will also be with this evil generation."

The Brothers and Mother of יִשְׁעָׁת

46 While He was still speaking to the crowds, behold, His mother and brothers were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him. 47 [Someone said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside seeking to speak to You."] ^a 48 But יִשְׁעָׁת answered the one who was telling Him and said, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" 49 And stretching out His hand toward His talmidim, He said, "Behold My mother and My brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of My Father who is in the heavens, he is My brother and sister and mother."

Parable of the Sower

13 That day יִשְׁעָׁת went out of the house and was sitting by the sea. 2 And large crowds gathered to Him, so He got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd was standing on the beach.

3 And He spoke many things to them in parables, saying, "Behold, the sower went out to sow; 4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and ate them up. 5 Others fell on the rocky places, where they did not have much soil; and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of soil. 6 But when the sun had risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. 7 Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them out. 8 And others fell on the good soil and yielded a crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty. 9 He who has ears, let him hear."

The Purpose of the Parables

10 And the talmidim came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

11 וַיֹּאמֶר לָהֶם יִשְׁעָׁת answering them, "To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens, but to them it has not been granted. 12 For whoever has, to him more shall be given, and he will have an abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him. 13 Therefore I speak to them in parables; because while seeing they do not see, and while hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. 14 In their case the prophecy of Yeshayahu is being fulfilled, which says, You will keep on hearing, but will not understand; you will keep on seeing, but will not perceive;

15 For the heart of this people has become dull, with their ears they scarcely hear, and they have closed their eyes, otherwise they would see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them.^b

16 "But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. 17 For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

Parable of the Sower Explained

18 "Hear then the parable of the sower. 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is the one on whom seed was sown beside the road. 20 The one on whom seed was sown on the rocky places, this is the man who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; 21 yet he has no firm root in himself, but is only temporary, and when affliction or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22 And the one on whom seed was sown among the thorns, this is the man who hears the word, and the worry of the age and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 23 And the one on whom seed was sown on the good soil, this is the man who hears the word and understands it; who indeed bears fruit and brings forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty."

Parable of the Tares

24 He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. 25 But while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the wheat sprouted and bore grain, then the tares became evident also. 27 The bondservants of the landowner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?' 28 And he said to them, 'A man, an enemy has done this!' The bondservants said to him, 'Do you want us, then, to go and gather them up?' 29 But he said, 'No; for while you are gathering up the tares, you may uproot the wheat with them. 30 Let both to grow together until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather up the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them up; but gather the wheat into my barn."'

^b 15 See Yeshayahu 6:9-10.

Parable of the Mustard Seed; Parable of the Leaven

31 He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field; 32 and this is smaller than all other seeds, but when it is full grown, it is larger than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

33 He spoke another parable to them, "The kingdom of the heavens is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour until it was all leavened."

34 All these things ישׁוּעָה spoke to the crowds in parables, and He did not speak to them without a parable.

35 This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet: "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world."^a

Parable of the Tares Explained

36 Then He left the crowds and went into the house. And His talmidim came to Him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."

37 And He said, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, 38 and the field is the world; and as for the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one; 39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the completion of the age; and the reapers are messengers. 40 So just as the tares are gathered up and burned with fire, so will it be at the completion of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send forth His messengers, and they will gather out of His kingdom all stumbling blocks, and those who commit lawlessness, 42 and will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun^b in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear."

Parable of the Treasure; Parable of the Pearl

44 "The kingdom of the heavens is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid again; and from joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

45 "Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 and upon finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Parable of the Net

47 "Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a dragnet cast into the sea, and gathering fish of every kind; 48 and when it was filled, they drew it up on the beach; and they sat down and gathered the good fish into containers, but the bad they threw away. 49 So will it be at the completion of the age; the messengers will come forth and take out the evil from among the righteous, 50 and will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 "Have you understood all these things?" They said to Him, "Yes."

52 And He said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has become a talmid of the kingdom of the heavens is like a head of a household, who brings out of his treasure things renewed and old."

ישׁוּעָה Revisits His Hometown

53 When ישׁוּעָה had finished these parables, He departed from there. 54 He came to His hometown and began teaching them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers? 55 Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Miryam, and His brothers, Ya'akov and Yoseph and Shimon and Yehudah? 56 And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this man get all these things?" 57 And they stumbled at Him. But ישׁוּעָה said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household." 58 And He did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

Yohanan the Immerser Killed

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the news about ישׁוּעָה, 2 and said to his servants, "This is Yohanan the Immerser; he has risen from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

^a 35 See Tehillim 78:2

^b 43 See Tehillim 37:6.

3 For when Herod had Yohanan arrested, he bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philippos. 4 For Yohanan had been saying to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 Although Herod wanted to put him to death, he feared the crowd, because they regarded Yohanan as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod, 7 so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. 8 Having been prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me here on a platter the head of Yohanan the Immerser." 9 Although he was grieved, the king commanded it to be given because of his oaths, and because of his dinner guests. 10 He sent and had Yohanan beheaded in the prison. 11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. 12 His talmidim came and took away the corpse and buried it; and they went and reported to יִשְׁעָר.

Feeding Five Thousand

13 Now when יִשְׁעָר heard about Yohanan, He withdrew from there in a boat to a wilderness region by Himself; and when the people heard of this, they followed Him on foot from the cities. 14 When He went ashore, He saw a large crowd, and felt compassion for them and healed their sick.

15 When it was evening, the talmidim came to Him and said, "This place is a wilderness and the hour is already late; so send the crowds away, that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

16 But יִשְׁעָר said to them, "They do not need to go away; you give them something to eat!"

17 They said to Him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."

18 And He said, "Bring them here to Me." 19 Ordering the people to sit down on the grass, He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He spoke a blessing, and breaking the loaves He gave them to the talmidim, and the talmidim gave them to the crowds, 20 and they all ate and were satisfied. They picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve full baskets. 21 There were about five thousand men who ate, besides women and children.

^a 36 Syr. does not use the word for tsitsiyot here, but rather uses קַנֵּף (kanaph), which means "border" or "corner."

Compare Bemidbar 15:38, as the Hebrew word translated as "border" there is קַנֵּף (kanaph). However, the Greek uses the word κρασπέδων (kraspedon) which is the Greek counterpart to the Hebrew word קַנֵּף (tsitsit).

Walking on Water

22 Immediately He made the talmidim get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away. 23 After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray; and when it was evening, He was there alone. 24 But the boat was already a long distance from the land, tormented by the waves; for the wind was contrary. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea. 26 When the talmidim saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. 27 But immediately יִשְׁעָר spoke to them, saying, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

28 Kepha said to Him, "Master, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water." 29 And He said, "Come!" And Kepha got out of the boat, and walked on the water and came toward יִשְׁעָר. 30 But seeing the wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Master, save me!" 31 Immediately יִשְׁעָר stretched out His hand and took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32 When they got into the boat, the wind stopped. 33 And those who were in the boat bowed down to Him, saying, "Truly, You are the Son of Elohim."

34 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Kinnereth. 35 And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent word into all that surrounding district and brought to Him all who were sick; 36 and they implored Him that they might just touch the tsitsit^a of His cloak; and as many as touched it were cured.

Precepts of Men

15 Then some Pharisees and scribes came to יִשְׁעָר from Yerushalayim and said, 2 "Why do Your talmidim violate the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 And He answered and said to them, "Why do you yourselves violate the command of Elohim for the sake of your tradition? 4 For Elohim said, 'honor your father and mother',^b and, 'he who curses his father or mother is to be put to death.'^c 5 But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, "From whatever I have that would help you has been given to Elohim,"' 6 he is not to honor his father or his mother.' And you nullify the word of Elohim for the sake of your tradition. 7 You hypocrites, rightly did Yeshayahu prophesy of you:

8 This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far away from Me. 9 But in vain do they fear Me, teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.^a

10 And having called the crowd to Him, He said to them, "Hear and understand. 11 It is not what enters into the mouth that defiles the man, but what goes forth out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

12 Then the talmidim came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees stumbled when they heard this statement?" 13 But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father did not plant shall be uprooted. 14 Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

The Heart of Man

15 Kepha said to Him, "Explain the parable to us."

16 He said, "Are you still lacking in understanding also? 17 Do you not understand that everything that goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and is cast out to the drain? 18 But the things that proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man. 19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, whorings, thefts, false witnesses, slanders. 20 These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

Kena'anite Woman's Faith

21 Yeshua went away from there, and withdrew into the district of Tsor and Tsidon. 22 And a Kena'anite woman from that region came out and cried out, saying, "Be kind to me, Master, Son of David; my daughter is cruelly demon-possessed." 23 But He did not answer her a word. And His talmidim came and implored Him, saying, "Send her away, because she keeps shouting at us."

24 But He answered and said, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'el." 25 But she came and began to bow down to Him, saying, "Master, help me!" 26 And He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." 27 But she said, "Yes, Master; but even the dogs feed on the crumbs which fall from their masters' table." 28 Then Yeshua said to her, "O woman, your faith is great; it shall be done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed at once.

Feeding Four Thousand

29 Departing from there, Yeshua went along by the Sea of the Galil, and having gone up on the mountain, He was sitting there. 30 And large crowds came to Him, bringing with them those who were lame, crippled, blind, mute, and many others, and they laid them down at His feet; and He healed them. 31 So the crowd marveled as they saw the mute speaking, the crippled restored, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the Elohim of Yisra'el.

32 And Yeshua called His talmidim to Him, and said, "I feel compassion for the people, because they have remained with Me now three days and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, for they might faint on the way."

33 The talmidim said to Him, "Where would we get so many loaves in this desolate place to satisfy such a large crowd?"

34 And Yeshua said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

35 And He directed the people to sit down on the ground; 36 and He took the seven loaves and the fish; and giving thanks, He broke them and started giving them to the talmidim, and the talmidim gave them to the crowds. 37 And they all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, seven large baskets full. 38 And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 And sending away the crowds, Yeshua got into the boat and came to the region of Magdala.

Pharisees and Sadducees Seek a Sign

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and testing Him, they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven. 2 But He replied to them, ["When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the heavens are red.' 3 And in the morning, 'There will be a storm today, for the heavens are red and threatening.'] Do you know how to discern the appearance of the heavens, but cannot discern the signs of the times?^b 4 An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and a sign will not be given it, except the sign of Yonah." And He left them and went away.[\]

^a 8-9 See Yeshayahu 29:13.

Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees

5 And the talmidim came to the other side of the sea, but they had forgotten to bring any bread. 6 And ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Watch out and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 7 They began to discuss among themselves, saying, "He said that because we did not bring bread." 8 But ישׁוּעָה, knowing this, said, "You men of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have no bread? 9 Do you not yet understand or remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many hand-baskets you picked up? 10 Or the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many large baskets you picked up? 11 How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 12 Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Kepha Affirms ישׁוּעָה as Messiah, Son of Elohim

13 Now when ישׁוּעָה came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, He was asking His talmidim, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" 14 And they said, "Some say Yohanan the Immerser; and others, Eliyahu; but still others, Yirmeyahu, or one of the prophets."

15 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

16 Shimon Kepha answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living El." 17 Then ישׁוּעָה said to him, "Blessed are you, Shimon Bar-Yonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in the heavens. 18 I also say to you that you are petros^a, and upon this Petra^b I will build My assembly; and the gates of Sheol will not overpower it. 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in the heavens, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in the heavens."^c 20 Then He warned the talmidim that they should tell no one that He was the Messiah.

ישׁוּעָה Predicts His Death and Resurrection

21 From that time ישׁוּעָה began to show His talmidim that He must go to Yerushalayim, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised up on the third day. 22 Kepha took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Elohim forbid it, Master! This shall never happen to You."

23 But He turned and said to Kepha, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for your thoughts are not the things of Elohim, but of men."

24 Then ישׁוּעָה said to His talmidim, "If anyone desires to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his stake and follow Me. 25 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his being? Or what will a man give in exchange for his being? 27 For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His messengers, and will then repay every man according to his deeds.

28 "Truly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

Vision of Transformation

17 Six days later ישׁוּעָה took with Him Kepha and Ya'aqov and Yoḥanan his brother, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. 2 And He was transformed before them; and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as light. 3 And behold, Mosheh and Eliyahu appeared to them, talking with Him. 4 Kepha said to ישׁוּעָה, "Master, it is good for us to be here; if You desire, I will make three Tabernacles here, one for You, and one for Mosheh, and one for Eliyahu."

5 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen^d to Him!" 6 When the talmidim heard this, they fell face down to the ground and were terrified. 7 And ישׁוּעָה came to them and touched them and said, "Get up, and do not be afraid." 8 And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one except ישׁוּעָה Himself alone.

9 As they were coming down from the mountain, ישׁוּעָה commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is raised from the dead." 10 And the talmidim asked Him, "Why then do the scribes say that Eliyahu must come first?" 11 And He answered and said, "Eliyahu is coming and will restore all things; 12 but I say to you that Eliyahu already came, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they desired. So also the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands." 13 Then the talmidim understood that He had spoken to them about Yohanan the Immerser.

Healing of a Boy with a Demon

14 When they came to the crowd, a man came up to Him, falling on his knees before Him and saying, 15 "Master, be kind to my son, for he is epileptic and is very ill; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. 16 I brought him to Your talmidim, and they could not heal him." 17 And ישׁוּעָה answered and said, "You faithless and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me." 18 And שְׁלֹמֹן rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was healed that hour.

19 Then the talmidim came to ישׁוּעָה privately and said, "Why could we not drive it out?" 20 And He said to them, "Because of the littleness of your faith; for truly I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you. 21 [But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.]^a"

ישׁוּעָה Predicts His Death and Resurrection

22 And while they were gathering together in the Galil, ישׁוּעָה said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men; 23 and they will kill Him, and He will be raised on the third day." And they were deeply grieved.

Tax Money from the Fish

24 When they came to Kaphar-nahum, those who collected the double-drachma tax came to Kepha and said, "Does your teacher not pay the two-drachma tax?" 25 He said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, ישׁוּעָה spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Shimon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect tribute or tax, from their sons or from foreigners?" 26 When he said, "From foreigners," ישׁוּעָה said to him, "Then the sons are exempt. 27 However, so that we do not cause them to stumble, go to the sea and throw in a hook, and take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a sheqel.^b Take that and give it to them for you and Me."

The Greatest in the Kingdom

18 In that hour the talmidim came to Him and said, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?" 2 And He called a child to Himself and set him before them, 3 and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of the heavens. 4 Whoever then humbles himself as this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens. 5 And whoever receives one such child in My Name receives Me; 6 but whoever causes one of these little ones believing in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone hung around his neck, and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Stumbling Blocks

7 "Woe to the world because of its stumbling blocks! For it is inevitable that stumbling blocks come; but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block comes!

8 "If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it from you; it is better for you to enter life crippled or lame, than to have two hands or two feet and be cast into the everlasting fire. 9 If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it from you. It is better for you to enter life with one eye, than to have two eyes and be cast into Gehenna.

Parable of the Lost Sheep

10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their messengers in the heavens continually see the face of My Father who is in the heavens. 11 [For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost].^c 12 "What do you think? If any man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go and search for the one that is straying? 13 If it turns out that he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray. 14 So it is not the will of your Father who is in the heavens that one of these little ones perish.

Rebuking a Brother

15 "If your brother sins [against you]^a, go and rebuke^b him between you and him alone; if he listens to you, you have won your brother.

16 But if he does not listen, take one or two more with you, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every fact may be confirmed.^c 17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly; and if he refuses to listen even to the assembly, let him be to you as a pagan and a tax collector. 18 Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven^d.

19 "Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in the heavens. 20 For where two or three have gathered together in My Name, I am there in their midst."

Forgiveness

21 Then Kepha came and said to Him, "Master, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Up to seven times?" 22 יְהוָה said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.

23 "On account of this the kingdom of the heavens may be compared to a king who desired to settle accounts with his bondservants. 24 When he had begun to settle them, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him. 25 But since he did not have the means to repay, his master commanded him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and repayment to be made. 26 So the bondservant fell to the ground and bowed down to him, saying, 'Have patience with me and I will repay you everything.' 27 And the master of that bondservant felt compassion and released him and forgave him the debt.

28 "But that bondservant went out and found one of his fellow bondservants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he seized him and began to choke him, saying, 'Pay back anything you owe.' 29 So his fellow bondservant fell to the ground and began to plead with him, saying, 'Have patience with me and I will repay you.' 30 But he was unwilling and went and threw him in prison until he should pay back what was owed. 31 So when his fellow bondservants saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and came and reported to their own master all that had happened.

32 Then summoning him, his master said to him, 'You evil bondservant, I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. 33 Should you not also have been kind to your fellow bondservant, in the same way that I was kind to you?' 34 And his master, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed him. 35 My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart."

Teaching about Divorce

19 When יְהוָה had finished these words, He departed from the Galil and came into the region of Yehudah beyond the Yarden; 2 and large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

3 Some Pharisees came, testing Him and asking, "Is it lawful for a man to send away his wife for every reason?" 4 And He answered and said, "Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning made them male and female^e, 5 and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'?"^f 6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore Elohim has joined together, let no man separate."

7 They said to Him, "Why then did Mosheh command to give her a certificate of divorce and send her away?"^g 8 He said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart Mosheh permitted you to send away your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way. 9 And I say to you, whoever sends away his wife – except for whoring – and marries another woman commits adultery."

10 The talmidim said to Him, "If the relationship of the man with his wife is like this, it is better not to marry." 11 But He said to them, "Not all men can accept this statement, but only those to whom it has been given. 12 For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are also eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of the heavens. He who is able to accept this, let him accept it."

^b 15 Greek word rendered "rebuke" here is ἐλεγξον (elegxon), which literally means "to rebuke, expose, show guilt." Syr. uses the word κασ (kas), meaning "to chew;" this is an Aramaic idiom for confrontation and reproach.

Blessing on the Children

13 Then some children were brought to Him so that He might lay His hands on them and pray; and the talmidim rebuked them. 14 But יְהוָה said, "Permit the children, and do not hinder them from coming to Me; for the kingdom of the heavens belongs to such as these." 15 After laying His hands on them, He departed from there.

Rich Young Man

16 And someone came to Him and said, "Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may obtain everlasting life?" 17 And He said to him, "Why are you asking Me about what is good? There is only One who is good; but if you desire to enter into life, guard the commands." 18 Then he said to Him, "Which ones?" And יְהוָה said, "You shall not commit murder;^a you shall not commit adultery;^b you shall not steal;^c you shall not bear false witness;^d 19 honor your father and mother;^e and you shall love your neighbor as yourself."^f 20 The young man said to Him, "All these things I have guarded; what am I still lacking?"

21 יְהוָה said to him, "If you desire to be complete, go sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come, follow Me." 22 But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieving; for he was one who owned much property.

23 And יְהוָה said to His talmidim, "Truly I say to you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of the heavens. 24 Again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of Elohim." 25 When the talmidim heard this, they were very astonished and said, "Then who can be saved?" 26 And looking at them יְהוָה said to them, "With people this is impossible, but with Elohim all things are possible."

Reward of the Talmidim

27 Then Kepha said to Him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed You; what then will there be for us?"

28 And יְהוָה said to them, "Truly I say to you, that you who have followed Me, in the regeneration^g when the Son of Man will sit on His glorious throne, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Yisra'el. 29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or farms for My Name's sake, will receive many times as much, and will inherit everlasting life. 30 But many who are first will be last; and the last, first."

Parable of the Vineyard Workers

20 "For the kingdom of the heavens is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. 2 Now he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius for the day, so he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the market place; 4 and to those he said, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' And so they went. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did the same thing. 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why have you been standing here idle all day long?' 7 They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You go into the vineyard too.'

8 "When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last group to the first.'

9 When those hired about the eleventh hour came, each one received a denarius. 10 When those hired first came, they thought that they would receive more; but each of them also received a denarius. 11 When they received it, they grumbled at the landowner, 12 saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the scorching heat of the day.' 13 But he answered and said to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius? 14 Take what is yours and go, but I desire to give to this last man the same as to you. 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I desire with what is my own? Or is your eye evil because I am generous?' 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last. [For many are called, but few are chosen.]^h"

the way He said to them, 18 "Behold, we are going up to Yerushalayim; and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn Him to death, 19 and will hand Him over to the nations to mock and scourge and crucify Him, and on the third day He will be raised up."

Preference Requested; Teaching about Serving

20 Then the mother of the sons of Zevadyahu came to Him with her sons, bowing down and making a request of Him. 21 And He said to her, "What do you want?" She said to Him, "Command that in Your kingdom these two sons of mine may sit one on Your right and one on Your left."

22 But ישׁוּב answered, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to Him, "We are able." 23 He said to them, "My cup you shall drink; but to sit on My right and on My left, this is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."

24 And hearing this, the ten became indignant with the two brothers. 25 But ישׁוּב called them to Himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the nations are in authority over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. 26 It is not this way among you; whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant, 27 and whomever desires to be first among you shall be your bondservant; 28 just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom^a for many."

Healing of the Blind

29 As they were leaving Yeriho, a large crowd followed Him. 30 And two blind men sitting by the road, hearing that ישׁוּב was passing by, cried out, "Master, be kind to us, Son of David!" 31 The crowd sternly told them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more, "Master, Son of David, be kind to us!" 32 And ישׁוּב stopped and called them, and said, "What do you want Me to do for you?" 33 They said to Him, "Master, we want our eyes to be opened." 34 Moved with compassion, ישׁוּב touched their eyes; and immediately they regained their sight and followed Him.

Entering Yerushalayim

21 When they had approached Yerushalayim and had come to Beth-phag, at the Mount of Olives, then ישׁוּב sent two talmidim, 2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied there and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to Me. 3 If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Master has need of them,' and immediately he will send them." 4 This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

5 "Say to the daughter of Tsion, 'Behold your King is coming to you, gentle, and mounted on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden.'"^b

6 The talmidim went and did just as ישׁוּב had instructed them, 7 and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their coats on them; and He sat on the coats. 8 Most of the crowd spread their coats in the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them in the road.

9 The crowds going ahead of Him, and those who followed, were shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He who comes in the Name of יהוָה!^c Hosanna in the highest!"

10 When He had entered Yerushalayim, all the city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?" 11 And the crowds were saying, "This is the prophet ישׁוּב", from Nazareth in the Galil."

Turning over Tables in the Temple

12 And ישׁוּב entered the Temple [of Elohim]^d and drove out all those who were buying and selling in the Temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who were selling doves.

13 And He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer'; but you are making it a robbers' den."^e

14 And the blind and the lame came to Him in the Temple, and He healed them. 15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that He had done, and the children who were shouting in the Temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became indignant 16 and said to Him, "Do You hear what these children are saying?" And ישׁוּב said to them, "Yes; have you never read, 'Out of the mouth of infants and nursing babies You have prepared praise for Yourself?'^f 17 And He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

Barren Fig Tree

18 Now in the morning, when He was returning to the city, He became hungry. 19 Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it except leaves only; and He said to it, "No longer shall there ever be any fruit from you to the age." And at once the fig tree withered.

20 Seeing this, the talmidim were amazed and asked, "How did the fig tree wither all at once?" 21 And ישׁוּעָה answered and said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it will happen. 22 And all things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

Authority Questioned

23 When He entered the Temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority?" 24 ישׁוּעָה said to them, "I will also ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The immersion of Yohanan was from what source, from heaven or from men?" And they began reasoning among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Then why did you not faith him?' 26 But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the people; for they all regard Yohanan as a prophet." 27 And answering ישׁוּעָה, they said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of the Two Sons

28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.' 29 And he answered, 'I will not'; but afterward he regretted it and went. 30 The man came to the second and said the same thing; and he answered, 'I will, sir'; but he did not go. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first."^a ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and whores will get into the kingdom of Elohim before you. 32 For Yohanan came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and whores did believe him; and you, seeing this, did not even feel remorse afterward so as to believe him.

Parable of the Landowner

33 "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard and put a wall around it and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower^b, and rented it out to vine-growers and went on a journey. 34 When the harvest time approached, he sent his bondservants to the vine-growers to receive his produce. 35 The vine-growers took his bondservants and beat one, and killed another, and stoned a third. 36 Again he sent another group of bondservants larger than the first; and they did the same thing to them. 37 But afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect^c my son.' 38 But when the vine-growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.' 39 They took him, and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. 40 Therefore when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine-growers?" 41 They said to Him, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end, and will rent out the vineyard to other vine-growers who will pay him the proceeds at the proper seasons."

42 ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected, this became the chief corner stone; this came about from תַּלְתָּן, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"^d

43 "Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of Elohim will be taken away from you and given to a people, producing the fruit of it. 44 And he who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust."

45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they understood that He was speaking about them. 46 When they sought to seize Him, they feared the people, because they considered Him to be a prophet.

Parable of the Wedding Feast

22 ישׁוּעָה spoke to them again in parables, saying, 2 "The kingdom of the heavens may be compared to a man, a king, who gave a wedding feast for his son. 3 And he sent out his bondservants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, and they were unwilling to come. 4 Again he sent out other bondservants saying, 'Tell those who have been invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fattened livestock are all slaughtered and everything is ready; come to the wedding feast."⁵ But they paid no attention and went their way, one to his own farm, another to his business,⁶ and the rest seized his bondservants and mistreated them and killed them.⁷ But the king was enraged, and he sent his armies and destroyed those murderers and set their city on fire.⁸ Then he said to his bondservants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.⁹ Go therefore to the main highways, and as many as you find there, invite to the wedding feast.'¹⁰ Those bondservants went out into the streets and gathered together all they found, both the evil and the good; and the wedding was filled with dinner guests.

11 "But when the king came in to look over the dinner guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed in wedding clothes,¹² and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here without wedding clothes?' And the man was speechless.¹³ Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen."

Render to Caesar the Things of Caesar

15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted together how they might trap Him in what He said.¹⁶ And they sent their talmidim to Him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are truthful and teach the way of Elohim in truth, and defer to no one; for You are not partial to any.¹⁷ Tell us then, what do You think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?"¹⁸ But יִשְׁעָר perceived their malice, and said, "Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites?¹⁹ Show Me the coin used for the tribute." And they brought Him a denarius.²⁰ And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"²¹ They said to Him, "Caesar's." Then He said to them, "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and the things of Elohim to Elohim."²² And hearing this, they were amazed, and leaving Him, they went away.

Response to the Sadducees Concerning Resurrection

23 On that day some Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to Him and questioned Him,^a asking, "Teacher, Mosheh said, 'If a man dies having no children, his brother as next of kin shall marry his wife, and raise up seed for his brother.'^b

25 Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and died, and having no seed left his wife to his brother;^c so also the second, and the third, unto the seventh.^d 27 Last of all, the woman died.^e 28 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her."

29 But יִשְׁעָר answered and said to them, "You lead astray, not understanding the Scriptures nor the power of Elohim.^f 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry [women] nor are [women] given [to men] in marriage, but are like messengers in heaven.^g 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by Elohim:³² 'I am the Elohim of Avraham, and the Elohim of Yitschaq, and the Elohim of Ya'aqov'^h He is not the Elohim of the dead but of the living."ⁱ 33 When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

Great Command

34 But when the Pharisees heard that יִשְׁעָר had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered themselves together.^j 35 One of them, a lawyer, asked Him, testing Him,^k 36 "Teacher, which is the great command in the Torah?"^l 37 And He said to him, "You shall love יְהוָה your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your mind."^m 38 "This is the great and foremost command. 39 "The second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'ⁿ 40 On these two commands hang the whole Torah and the Prophets."

Whose Son is Messiah?

41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, יִשְׁעָר asked them a question:^o 42 "What do you think about the Messiah, whose son is He?" They said to Him, "The son of David." 43 He said to them, "Then how does David in the Ruah call Him 'Master', saying, 'תְּהִלֵּם יְהוָה לִבְנֵךְ מֶלֶךְ אַנְתָּךְ יְהוָה יְהוָה תְּהִלֵּם לִבְנֵךְ מֶלֶךְ אַנְתָּךְ יְהוָה יְהוָה' said to my Master, "Sit at My right hand, until I put Your enemies beneath Your feet"^p?"

45 "If David then calls Him 'Master,' how is He his son?"^q

46 No one was able to answer Him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day on to ask Him another question.

Teaching about the Pharisee

23 Then שׁוֹעַ spoke to the crowds and to His talmidim, 2 saying: "The scribes and the Pharisees have seated themselves in the seat of Mosheh; 3 therefore all that they tell you, do and guard, but do not do according to their deeds; for they say things and do not do them. 4 They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on men's shoulders, but they themselves are unwilling to move them with a finger. 5 But they do all their deeds to be noticed by men; for they broaden their phylacteries and lengthen the tsitsiyot^a of their garments. 6 They love the place of honor at banquets and the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 and respectful greetings in the market places, and being called 'Rabbi' by men. 8 But you are not to be called Rabbi; for One is your Teacher, and you are all brothers. 9 Do not call anyone on earth your father; for One is your Father, He who is heavenly. 10 Do not be called guides; for One is your Guide: Messiah. 11 But the greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.

Woe to the Scribes and Pharisees

13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you shut off the kingdom of the heavens from people; for you do not enter in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in. 14 [Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you devour widows' houses, and for a pretense you make long prayers; therefore you will receive greater judgment].^b

15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel around on sea and land to make one proselyte^c; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as yourselves. 16 Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the dwelling place, that is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the dwelling place is obligated.' 17 You fools and blind men! Which is more important, the gold or the dwelling place that set the gold apart? 18 And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, that is nothing, but whoever swears by the offering on it, he is obligated.' 19 You blind men, which is more important, the offering, or the altar that sets the offering apart? 20 Therefore, whoever swears by the altar, swears both by the altar and by everything on

it. 21 And whoever swears by the dwelling place, swears both by it and by Him who dwells within it. 22 And whoever swears by heaven, swears both by the throne of Elohim and by Him who sits upon it.

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the Torah: justice and loving-kindness and faithfulness; but these you should have done without leaving the others aside. 24 You blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!

25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of robbery and self-indulgence.

26 You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup [and of the dish]^d, so that the outside of it may become clean also.

27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. 28 So you, too, outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, 30 and say, 'If we had been living in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' 31 So you testify against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. 32 Fill up, then, the measure of the guilt of your fathers. 33 You serpents, you brood of vipers, how will you escape the sentence of Gehenna?

34 "Therefore, behold, I am sending you prophets and wise men and scribes; some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city, 35 so that upon you may fall the guilt of all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Havel to the blood of Zekharyah, the son of Berekhyah, whom you murdered between the dwelling place and the altar.

36 Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

^a 5 Syr. reads תְּקִלָּת (tekleta) here. Teklata is the Aramaic equivalent of the Hebrew תְּקֵלֶת (tekhelet) which means "blue." This states that the habit of the Pharisees was to lengthen only the blue cord. See Bemidbar 15:37-41.

Lamentation over Yerushalayim

37 "Yerushalayim, Yerushalayim, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling. 38 Behold, your house is being left to you a wilderness! 39 For I say to you, from now on you will not see Me until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the Name of יהוָה!'"

Prophecy of Temple Destruction

24 יעשׂ came out from the Temple and was going away when His talmidim came up to point out the Temple buildings to Him. 2 And He said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, not one stone here will be left upon another, which will not be torn down."

3 As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the talmidim came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the completion of the age?"

4 And יעשׂ answered and said to them, "Take heed, that no one misleads you. 5 For many will come in My Name, saying, 'I am the Messiah,' and will mislead many. 6 You will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be famines and earthquakes. 8 But all these things are merely the beginning of childbirth pains.

9 "Then they will deliver you to affliction, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all nations because of My Name. 10 At that time many will stumble and will betray one another and hate one another. 11 Many false prophets will arise and will mislead many. 12 Because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold. 13 But the one who endures to the end, he will be saved. 14 This good news of the Kingdom shall be proclaimed in the whole world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

Abomination that Lays Waste

15 "Therefore when you see the abomination that lays waste^b which was spoken of through Dani'el the prophet, standing in the set-apart place (let the reader understand), 16 then those who are in Yehudah must flee to the mountains. 17 Whoever is on the housetop must not go down to get the things out that are in his house. 18 Whoever is in the field must not turn back to get his cloak. 19 But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 20 But pray that your flight will not be in the winter, or on a Sabbath. 21 For then there will be a great affliction, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will again. 22 Unless those days had been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.

23 Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, the Messiah is here,' or 'There,' do not believe them. 24 For false Messiahs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect. 25 Behold, I have told you in advance. 26 So if they say to you, 'Behold, He is in the wilderness,' do not go out, or, 'Behold, He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe them. 27 For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes even to the west, so will the coming of the Son of Man be. 28 Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.

Return of the Son of Man

29 "But immediately after the affliction of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall^c from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 30 And then the sign^d of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky^e with power and great glory. 31 And He will send forth His messengers with a great shofar and they will gather together^f His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

Parable of the Fig Tree

32 "Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near; 33 so, you too, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door. 34 Truly I say to you, this generation

^d 30 Greek word rendered as "sign" here is σημεῖον (semeion) meaning "sign", "mark" or "indication." However, the Syr. uses the word צדקה (niyshah) meaning "standard" or will not pass away until all these things take place. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

"banner." While semeion is used more than 70 times in the Greek Shelichim Writings, niyshah is only used twice in the Syriac, the other occurrence being in Philippesious 3:14.

36 "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the messengers of the heavens, nor the Son, but the Father alone. 37 As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be at the coming of the Son of Man. 38 For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, 39 and they did not understand until the flood came and took them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be. 40 Then there will be two people in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. 41 Two will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one will be left.

Be Ready for His Coming

42 "Therefore be on the alert, for you do not know which day^a your Master is coming. 43 But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 44 For this reason you also must be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not think He will.

45 "Who then is the faithful and sensible bondservant whom his master put in charge of his household to give them their food at the proper time? 46 Blessed is that bondservant whom his master finds so doing when he comes. 47 Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions. 48 But if that wicked bondservant says in his heart, 'My master is not coming for a long time,' 49 and begins to beat his fellow bondservants and eat and drink with drunkards; 50 the master of that bondservant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour which he does not know, 51 and will cut him in pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Parable of the Ten Virgins

25 "Then the kingdom of the heavens will be comparable to ten virgins, who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3 For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in flasks along with their lamps. 5 Now while the bridegroom was delaying, they all got drowsy and began to sleep. 6 But at midnight there was a shout, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' 7 Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. 8 The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, 'No, there will not be enough for us and you; go instead to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' 10 And while they were going away to purchase some, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast; and the door was shut. 11 Later the other virgins also came, saying, 'Master, master, open up for us.' 12 But he answered, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you.' 13 Be on the alert then, for you do not know the day nor the hour.

Parable of the Talents

14 "For it is just like a man about to go on a journey, who called his own bondservants and entrusted his possessions to them. 15 To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and he went on his journey. 16 Immediately the one who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and gained five more talents. 17 In the same manner the one who had received the two talents gained two more. 18 But he who received the one talent went away, and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

19 "Now after a long time the master of those bondservants came and settled accounts with them.

20 The one who had received the five talents came up and brought five more talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me. See, I have gained five more talents.' 21 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful bondservant. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

22 "Also the one who had received the two talents came up and said, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have gained two more talents.' 23 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful bondservant. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

24 "And the one also who had received the one talent came up and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you scattered no seed.' 25 And I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.'

26 "But his master answered and said to him, 'You evil, lazy bondservant, you knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I scattered no seed.' 27 Then you ought to have placed my money with the money-changers, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest. 28 Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.'

29 "For to everyone who has, more shall be given, and he will have an abundance; but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away. 30 Throw out the worthless bondservant into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Sheep and the Goats

31 "But when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the messengers with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats; 33 and He will put the sheep on His right, and the goats on the left.

34 "Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; 36 naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.' 37 Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Master, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink? 38 And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You? 39 When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' 40 The King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.'

41 "Then He will also say to those on His left, Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the everlasting fire which has been prepared for the devil and his messengers; 42 for I was hungry, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me nothing to drink; 43 I was a stranger, and you did not invite Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me.' 44 Then they themselves also will answer, 'Master, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not take care of You?' 45 Then He will answer them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.' 46 These will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life."

Prediction of Death; Plot to Kill יִשְׁעָה

26 When יִשְׁעָה had finished all these words, He said to His talmidim, 2 "You know that after two days the Pesah is coming, and the Son of Man is to be handed over to be crucified."

3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, named Qayapha; 4 and they plotted together to seize יִשְׁעָה by trickery and kill Him. 5 But they were saying, "Not during the Feast, otherwise a riot might occur among the people."

Costly Perfume

6 Now when יִשְׁעָה was in Bethany, at the home of Shimon the leper, 7 a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume, and she poured it on His head as He reclined. 8 But the talmidim were indignant when they saw this, and said, "Why this waste? 9 For this perfume might have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor." 10 But יִשְׁעָה, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you bother the woman? For she has done a good deed to Me. 11 For you always have the poor with you; but you do not always have Me. 12 For when she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial. 13 Truly I say to you, wherever this good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."

Yehudah's Price; The Last Supper

14 Then one of the twelve, named Yehudah Ish-Qerioth, went to the chief priests 15 and said, "What are you willing to give me to betray Him to you?" And they weighed out thirty pieces of silver to him. 16 From then on he looked for a good opportunity to betray יִשְׁעָה.

17 Now on the first of Unleavened Bread, the talmidim came to יִשְׁעָה and asked, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Pesah?" 18 And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near; with you I will make the Pesah, with My talmidim.'" 19 The talmidim did as יִשְׁעָה had directed them; and prepared the Pesah.

20 Now when evening came, יִשְׁעָה was reclining at the table with the twelve talmidim. 21 As they were eating, He said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me." 22 Being deeply grieved, they each one began to say to Him, "Surely not I, Master?"

23 And He answered, "He who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl is the one who will betray Me. 24 The Son of Man is to go, just as it is written of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born." 25 And Yehudah, who was betraying Him, said, "Surely it is not I, Rabbi?" And He said to him, "You have said it."

26 While they were eating, ישעֵת took some bread, and after a blessing, He broke it and gave it to the talmidim, and said, "Take, eat; this is My body." 27 And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; 28 for this is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for forgiveness of sins. 29 But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it renewed with you in My Father's kingdom."

30 After singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

31 Then שׁוֹעַב said to them, "You will all stumble because of Me this night, for it is written, 'I will strike down the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered.'"^a 32 But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you to the Galil." 33 But Kepha said to Him, "Even though all may stumble because of You, I will never stumble." 34 שׁוֹעַב said to him, "Truly I say to you that this night, before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." 35 Kepha said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You." All the talmidim said the same thing too.

Garden of Gath-shehmen; Betrayal; Arrest

36 Then ישׁוּבָה came with them to a place called Gath-shehmen, and said to His talmidim, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." 37 And He took with Him Kepha and the two sons of Zevadyahu, and began to be grieved and distressed. 38 Then He said to them, "My being is deeply grieved, to the point of death; remain here and keep watch with Me."

39 And He went a little beyond them, and fell on His face and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; yet not as I will, but as You will." 40 And He came to the talmidim and found them sleeping, and said to Kepha, "So, you could not keep watch with Me for one hour? 41 Keep watching and praying that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

42 He went away again a second time and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done." 43 Again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And He left them again, and went away and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more. 45 Then He came to the talmidim and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Get up, let us be going; behold, the one who betrays Me has drawn near!"

47 While He was still speaking, behold, Yehudah, one of the twelve, came up accompanied by a large crowd with swords and clubs, who came from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now he who was betraying Him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the one; seize Him." 49 Immediately Yehudah went to ישוע and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed Him. 50 And ישע said to him, "Friend, do what you have come for." Then they came and laid hands on ישוע and seized Him.

51 And behold, one of those who were with שׁוֹבֵן reached and drew out his sword, and struck the bondservant of the high priest and cut off his ear.
52 Then שׁוֹבֵן said to him, "Put your sword back into its place; for all those who take up the sword shall perish in the sword. 53 Or do you think that I cannot appeal to My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve legions of messengers?^b 54 How then will the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say that it must happen this way?"

55 In that hour, ישׁוּעָה said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would against a robber? Every day I used to sit in the Temple teaching and you did not seize Me. 56 But all this has taken place to fulfill the Scriptures of the prophets." Then all the talmidim left Him and fled.

בְּשַׁׁי' Before Qayapha

57 Those who had seized יְשֻׁלָּם led Him away to Qayapha, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. 58 But Kepha was following Him at a distance as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and entered in, and sat down with the officers to see the outcome.

59 Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin kept trying to obtain false witness against ישוע, so that they might put Him to death. 60 They did not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. But later on two came forward, 61 and said, "This man stated, 'I am able to destroy the dwelling place of Elohim and to rebuild it in three days.'" 62 The high priest stood up and

^a 31 See Zekharyah 13:7.

^b 53 Legion – Latin term referring to a military unit. Legions commonly had between 3,000 and 6,000 soldiers.

said to Him, "Do You not answer? What is it that these men are testifying against You?" 63 But יְשַׁעַת kept silent. And the high priest said to Him, "I adjure You by the living Elohim, that You tell us whether You are the Messiah, the Son of Elohim." 64 יְשַׁעַת said to him, "You say it; nevertheless I tell you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting from the right hand of power^a, and coming on the clouds of heaven.^b"

65 Then the high priest tore his robes and said, "He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, you have now heard the blasphemy; 66 what do you think?" They answered, "He deserves death!"

67 Then they spat in His face and beat Him with their fists; and others slapped Him, 68 and said, "Prophesy to us, You Messiah; who is the one who hit You?"

Kepha's Denials

69 Now Kepha was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant-girl came to him and said, "You too were with יְשַׁעַת the Galilean." 70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about."

71 When he had gone out to the gateway, another saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was with יְשַׁעַת of Nazareth." 72 And again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man." 73 A little later the bystanders came up and said to Kepha, "Surely you too are one of them; for even the way you talk gives you away." 74 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know the man!" And immediately a rooster crowed.

75 And Kepha remembered the word which יְשַׁעַת had said, "Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

27 Now when morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people conferred together against יְשַׁעַת to put Him to death; 2 and they bound Him, and led Him away and delivered Him to Pilate the governor.

Yehudah's Remorse and Suicide

3 Then when Yehudah, who had betrayed Him, saw that He had been condemned, he felt remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? See to that yourself!" 5 And he threw the pieces of silver into the dwelling place and departed; and he went away and hanged himself. 6 The chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the Temple treasury, since it is the price of blood." 7 And they conferred together and with the money bought the Potter's Field as a burial place for strangers. 8 For this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day. 9 Then that which was spoken through the prophet [Yirmeyahu]^c was fulfilled: "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of the one whose price had been set by the sons of Yisra'el; 10 and they gave them for the potter's field, as הַמִּזְבֵּחַ directed me."^d

יעש Before Pilate; Crowd Chooses Bar-Abba

11 Now יְשַׁעַת stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Yehudim?" And יְשַׁעַת said to him, "You say it."

12 And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, He did not answer. 13 Then Pilate said to Him, "Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?" 14 And He did not answer him with regard to even a single charge, so the governor was quite amazed.

15 Now at the Feast the governor was accustomed to release for the people any one prisoner whom they wanted. 16 At that time they were holding a notorious prisoner, called Bar-Abba.^e 17 So when the people gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you? Bar-Abba, or יְשַׁעַת who is called Messiah?" 18 For he knew that because of envy they had handed Him over.

19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous Man; for last night I suffered greatly in a dream because of Him." 20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Bar-Abba and to put יְשַׁעַת to death. 21 But the governor said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Bar-Abba." 22 Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with שָׁעַט who is called Messiah?" They all said, "Crucify Him!" 23 And he said, "Why, what wickedness has He done?" But they kept shouting all the more, saying, "Crucify Him!"

24 When Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but rather that a riot was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this Man's blood; see to that yourselves."

^e 16 Bar-Abba – Aramaic בֶּן־אָבָה meaning "son of the father."

25 And all the people said, "His blood shall be on us and on our children!" 26 Then he released Bar-Abba for them; but after having ישוע scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

ישוע Mocked; Crucified

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took ישוע into the Praetorium and gathered the whole Roman cohort around Him. 28 They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him. 29 And after twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand; and they knelt down before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Yehudim!" 30 They spat on Him, and took the reed and began to beat Him on the head. 31 After they had mocked Him, they took the scarlet robe off Him and put His own garments back on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

32 As they were coming out, they found a man of Kurene named Shimon, whom they pressed into service to bear His stake. 33 And when they came to a place called Gulgoleth, which means Place of a Skull, 34 they gave Him wine to drink mixed with gall; and after tasting, He was unwilling to drink.

35 And when they had crucified Him, they divided up His garments among themselves by casting lots. 36 And sitting down, they began to guard Him there. 37 And above His head they put up the charge against Him which read, "This is ישוע the King of the Yehudim."

38 At that time two robbers were crucified with Him, one on the right and one on the left. 39 And those passing by were hurling abuse at Him, wagging their heads 40 and saying, "You who are going to destroy the dwelling place and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of Elohim, come down from the stake." 41 In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders, were mocking Him and saying, 42 "He saved others; He cannot save Himself. He is the King of Yisra'el; let Him now come down from the stake, and we will believe Him. 43 He believes in Elohim; let Elohim rescue Him now, if He delights in Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of Elohim.'" 44 The robbers who had been crucified with Him were also insulting Him with the same words. 45 Now from the sixth hour darkness fell upon all the land until the ninth hour. 46 About the ninth hour ישוע cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lema sabahthani?" that is, "My El, My El, why have You forsaken Me?"^a 47 And some of those who were standing there, when they heard it, began saying, "This man is calling for Eliyahu."

48 Immediately one of them ran, and taking a sponge, he filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and gave Him a drink. 49 But the rest of them said, "Let us see whether Eliyahu will come to save Him." 50 And ישוע cried out again with a loud voice, and yielded up His spirit. 51 And behold, the veil of the dwelling place was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth shook and the rocks were split. 52 The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the set-apart ones who had fallen asleep were raised; 53 and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection they entered the set-apart city and appeared to many. 54 Now the centurion, and those who were with him keeping guard over ישוע, when they saw the earthquake and the things that were happening, became very frightened and said, "Truly this was the Son of Elohim!"

55 Many women were there looking on from a distance, who had followed ישוע from the Galil while ministering to Him. 56 Among them was Miryam from Magdala, and Miryam the mother of Ya'aqov and Yoseph, and the mother of the sons of Zevadyahu.

Burial of ישוע

57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Ramah, named Yoseph, who himself had also become a talmid of ישוע. 58 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of ישוע. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. 59 And Yoseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his own renewed tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the entrance of the tomb and went away. 61 And Miryam from Magdala was there, and the other Miryam, sitting opposite the tomb.

62 Now on the next day, the day after the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together with Pilate, 63 and said, "Sir, we remember that when He was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I am to rise again.' 64 Therefore, give orders for the tomb to be made secure until the third day, otherwise His talmidim may come and steal Him away and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first." 65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go, make it as secure as you know how." 66 And they went and made the tomb secure, and along with the guard they set a seal on the stone.

The Resurrection

28 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Miryam from Magdala and the other Miryam came to look at the tomb. 2 And behold, a severe earthquake had occurred, for a messenger of הָלֹה descended from heaven and came and rolled away the stone and sat upon it. 3 And his appearance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow. 4 The guards shook for fear of him and became like dead men. 5 The messenger said to the women, "Do not be afraid; for I know that you are looking for ישׁוּעָה who has been crucified. 6 He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said. Come, see the place where He was lying. 7 Go quickly and tell His talmidim that He has risen from the dead; and behold, He is going ahead of you into the Galil, there you will see Him; behold, I have told you."

8 And they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy and ran to report it to His talmidim. 9 And behold, ישׁוּעָה met them and greeted them. And they came up and took hold of His feet and bowed down to Him. 10 Then ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and take word to My brethren to leave for the Galil, and there they will see Me."

11 Now while they were on their way, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened. 12 And when they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 and said, "You are to say, 'His talmidim came by night and stole Him away while we were asleep.' 14 And if this should come to the governor's ears, we will win him over and keep you out of trouble." 15 And they took the money and did as they had been instructed; and this story was widely spread among the Yehudim, and is to this day.

Command to Teach the Nations

16 But the eleven talmidim proceeded to the Galil, to the mountain which ישׁוּעָה had designated. 17 When they saw Him, they bowed down, but some were doubtful. 18 And ישׁוּעָה came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. [19 Having gone, therefore, make talmidim of all the nations, immersing them in the Name of the Father and the Son and the Set-apart Ruah, 20 teaching them to guard all that I commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, even to the completion of the age."^a]

^a 19-20 The earliest quoted account of verse 19, as recorded in Eusebius' Ecclesiastical History and other pre-Nicene writings, instead reads, "Go and make talmidim of all the nations, immersing them in My Name." All extant manuscripts, however, read as above. Compare also Loukas

MAPKOC

Markos (Mark)

Work of Yohanan the Immerser

1 The beginning of the good news of ישׁוּעָה Messiah, the Son of Elohim.

2 As it is written in Yeshayah the prophet: "Behold, I send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way."^a 3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'make ready the way of יְהוָה, make His paths straight.'^b"

4 Yohanan the Immerser appeared in the wilderness proclaiming an immersion of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. 5 And all the country of Yehudah was going out to him, and all the people of Yerushalayim; and they were being immersed by him in the Yarden River, confessing their sins. 6 Yohanan was clothed with camel's hair and wore a leather belt around his waist, and his diet was locusts and wild honey. 7 And he was proclaiming, and saying, "After me, One is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to stoop down and untie the thong of His sandals. 8 I immersed you with water; but He will immerse you with the Set-apart Ruah."

Immersion of יְשׁוּעָה

9 In those days ישׁוּעָה came from Nazareth in the Galil and was immersed under Yohanan in the Yarden.

10 Immediately coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens being parted, and the Ruah like a dove descending upon Him; 11 and a voice came out of the heavens: "You are My beloved Son, in You I am well-pleased."

12 Immediately the Ruah drove Him out into the wilderness. 13 And He was in the wilderness forty days being tempted by Satan; and He was with the wild beasts, and the messengers were attending to Him.

ישׁוּעָה Teaches in the Galil

14 Now after Yohanan had been taken into custody, ישׁוּעָה came into the Galil, proclaiming the good news of Elohim, 15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of Elohim is at hand; repent and believe in the good news."

16 As He was going along by the Sea of the Galil, He saw Shimon and Andreas, the brother of Shimon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen. 17 And ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men." 18 Immediately they left the nets and followed Him. 19 Going on a little farther, He saw Ya'aqov the son of Zevadyahu, and Yohanah his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. 20 Immediately He called them; and they left their father Zevadyahu in the boat with the hired servants, and went away to follow Him.

21 They went into Kaphar-nahum; and immediately on the Sabbath, having entered into the synagogue, He taught. 22 They were amazed at His teaching; for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 saying, "What business do we have with each other, ישׁוּעָה of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Set-apart One of Elohim!" 25 And ישׁוּעָה rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" 26 Throwing him into convulsions, the unclean spirit cried out with a loud voice and came out of him. 27 They were all amazed, so that they debated among themselves, saying, "What is this? A renewed teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him." 28 Immediately the news about Him spread everywhere into all the surrounding district of the Galil.

Crowds Healed

29 And immediately after they came out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Shimon and Andreas, with Ya'aqov and Yohanan. 30 Now Shimon's mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever; and immediately they spoke to ישׁוּעָה about her. 31 And He came to her and raised her up, taking her by the hand, and the fever left her, and she waited on them.

32 When evening came, after the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were ill and those who were demon-possessed. 33 And the whole city had gathered at the door. 34 And He healed many who were ill with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and He was not permitting the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.

35 Early in the night, ישׁוּעָה got up, left, and went away to a wilderness region, and was praying there. 36 Shimon and his companions searched for Him; 37 they found Him, and said to Him, "Everyone is looking for You." 38 He said to them, "Let us go elsewhere to the towns nearby, so that I may proclaim there also; for that is what I came for." 39 And He went into their synagogues throughout all the Galil, proclaiming and casting out the demons.

^a See Malakhi 3:1.

^b See Yeshayah 40:3.

40 And a leper came to יִשְׁעָה, imploring Him and falling on his knees before Him, and saying, "If You are willing, You can make me clean." 41 [Moved with compassion]^a, He stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing; be cleansed." 42 Immediately the leprosy left him and he was cleansed. 43 And He sternly warned him and immediately sent him away, 44 and He said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moshe commanded, as a witness to them." 45 But he went out and began to proclaim it freely and to spread the news around, to such an extent that יִשְׁעָה could no longer publicly enter a city, but stayed out in wilderness regions; and they were coming to Him from everywhere.

Paralytic Healed

2 When He had come back to Kaphar-nahum several days afterward, it was heard that He was at home. 2 And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room, not even near the door; and He was speaking the word to them. 3 And they came, bringing to Him a paralytic, carried by four men. 4 Being unable to get to Him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Him; and when they had dug an opening, they let down the bed where the paralytic was lying. 5 And יִשְׁעָה seeing their faith said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven." 6 But some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, 7 "Why does this man speak that way? He is blaspheming; who can forgive sins but Elohim alone?" 8 Immediately יִשְׁעָה, aware in His spirit that they were reasoning that way within themselves, said to them, "Why are you reasoning about these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Get up, and pick up your pallet and walk?' 10 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" – He said to the paralytic, 11 "I say to you, get up, pick up your bed and go home." 12 And he got up and immediately picked up the bed and went out in the sight of everyone, so that they were all amazed and were glorifying Elohim, saying, "We have never seen anything like this."

13 And He went out again by the seashore; and all the people were coming to Him, and He was teaching them.

Calling of Levi

14 As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Heleph sitting in the tax booth, and He said to him, "Follow Me!" And he got up and followed Him.

15 And it came about that He was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners were dining with יִשְׁעָה and His talmidim; for there were many of them, and they were following Him. 16 When the scribes of the Pharisees saw that He eats with sinners and tax collectors, they said to His talmidim, "Why is He eating and drinking with tax collectors and sinners?" 17 And hearing this, יִשְׁעָה said to them, "It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick; I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners [to repentance]."^b

18 Yohanan's talmidim and the Pharisees were fasting; and they came and said to Him, "Why do Yohanan's talmidim and the talmidim of the Pharisees fast, but Your talmidim do not fast?" 19 And יִשְׁעָה said to them, "While the bridegroom is with them, the sons of the bridechamber cannot fast, can they? So long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.^c 20 But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.

21 "No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; otherwise the patch pulls away from it, the renewed from the old, and a worse tear results. 22 No one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost and the skins as well; but new wine is put into renewed wineskins."

Questions about the Sabbath

23 And it came about that He was passing through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His talmidim began to make their way along while picking the heads of grain. 24 The Pharisees were saying to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?" 25 And He said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and he and his companions became hungry; 26 how he entered the house of Elohim [when Evyathar was high priest,]^d and ate the set apart^e bread, which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests, and he also gave it to those who were with him?"^a 27 " said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. 28 So the Son of Man is Master even of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

3 He entered again into a synagogue; and a man was there whose hand was withered. 2 They were watching Him to see if He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him. 3 He said to the man with the withered hand, "Get up and come forward!" 4 And He said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the Sabbath, to save a life or to kill?" But they kept silent. 5 After looking around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. 6 The Pharisees went out and immediately began conspiring with the Herodians against Him, as to how they might destroy Him.

7 withdrew to the sea with His talmidim; and a great multitude from the Galil followed; and from Yehudah, 8 and from Yerushalayim, and from Edom, and beyond the Yarden, and the vicinity of Tsor and Tsidon, a great number of people heard of all that He was doing and came to Him. 9 And He told His talmidim that a boat should stand ready for Him because of the crowd, so that they would not crowd Him; 10 for He had healed many, with the result that all those who had afflictions pressed around Him in order to touch Him. 11 Whenever the unclean spirits saw Him, they would fall down before Him and shout, "You are the Son of Elohim!" 12 And He earnestly warned them not to tell who He was.

Appointment of the Twelve

13 And He went up on the mountain and summoned those whom He Himself wanted, and they came to Him. 14 And He appointed twelve, [which He named shelihim]^b so that they would be with Him and that He could send them out to proclaim, 15 and to have authority to cast out the demons. 16 [And He appointed the twelve]:^c Shimon (to whom He gave the name Kepha), 17 and Ya'aqov, the son of Zevadyahu, and Yoḥanan the brother of Ya'aqov (to them He gave the name Boanerges, which means, "Sons of Thunder"); 18 and Andreas, and Philippos, and Bar-Talmai, and Mattithyahu, and Taom, and Ya'aqov the son of Heleph, and Thaddaeus, and Shimon the Zealot^d; 19 and Yehudah Ish-Qerioth, who betrayed Him.

20 And He came to a house, and the crowd gathered again, to such an extent that they could not even eat a meal. 21 When His own people heard of this, they went out to take custody of Him; for they were saying, "He has lost His senses." 22 The scribes who came down from Yerushalayim were saying, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "He casts out the demons by the ruler of the demons." 23 And He called them to Himself and began speaking to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. 26 If Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but he is finished! 27 But no one can enter the strong man's house and plunder his property unless he first binds the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.

28 "Truly I say to you, all sins shall be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter; 29 but whoever blasphemes against the Set-apart Ruah never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin"— 30 because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

31 Then His mother and His brothers arrived, and standing outside they sent word to Him and called Him. 32 A crowd was sitting around Him, and they said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers [and Your sisters]^e are outside looking for You." 33 Answering them, He said, "Who are My mother and My brothers?" 34 Looking about at those who were sitting around Him, He said, "Behold My mother and My brothers! 35 For whoever does the will of Elohim, he is My brother and sister and mother."

Parable of the Sower

4 He began to teach again by the sea. And such a very large crowd gathered to Him that He got into a boat in the sea and sat down; and the whole crowd was by the sea on the land. 2 And He was teaching them many things in parables, and was saying to them in His teaching, 3 "Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow; 4 as he was sowing, some seed fell beside the road, and the birds came and ate it up. 5 Other seed fell on the rocky ground where it did not have much soil; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of soil. 6 And after the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it yielded no crop. 8 Other seeds fell into the good soil, and as they grew up and increased, they yielded a crop and produced thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold." 9 And He was saying, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 And as soon as He was alone, His followers, along with the twelve, began asking Him about the parables. 11 And He was saying to them, "To you has been given [the knowledge of]^a the mystery of the kingdom of Elohim, but those who are outside get everything in parables, 12 so that while seeing, they may see and not perceive, and while hearing, they may hear and not understand, otherwise they might return and be forgiven.^b"

Parable of the Sower Explained

13 And He said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How will you understand all the parables? 14 The sower sows the word. 15 These are the ones who are beside the road where the word is sown; and when they hear, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word which has been sown in them. 16 And these are the ones on whom seed was sown on the rocky places, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy; 17 and they have no firm root in themselves, but are only temporary; then, when affliction or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble. 18 And others are the ones on whom seed was sown among the thorns; these are the ones who have heard the word, 19 but the worries of the age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 And those are the ones on whom seed was sown on the good soil; and they hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold."

21 And He was saying to them, "A lamp is not brought to be put under a basket, is it, or under a bed? Is it not brought to be put on the menorah? 22 For nothing is hidden, except that to be revealed; nor has anything been secret, but that it would come to light. 23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear." 24 And He was saying to them, "Take care what you listen to. By your standard of measure it will be measured to you; and more still will be added to you [that hear]^c. 25 For whoever has, to him more shall be given; and whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him."

Parable of the Seed

26 And He was saying, "The kingdom of Elohim is like a man who casts seed upon the soil; 27 and he goes to bed at night and gets up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows-- how, he himself does not know. 28 The soil produces crops by itself; first the blade, then the head, then the mature grain in the head. 29 But when the crop permits, he immediately puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

Parable of the Mustard Seed

30 And He said, "How shall we liken the kingdom of Elohim, or by what parable shall we present it? 31 It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the soil, though it is smaller than all the seeds that are upon the soil, 32 yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and forms large branches; so that the birds of the air can nest under its shade."

33 With many such parables He was speaking the word to them, so far as they were able to hear it; 34 and He did not speak to them without a parable; but He was explaining everything privately to His own talmidim.

Calmng of the Sea

35 On that day, when evening came, He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side." 36 Leaving the crowd, they took Him along with them in the boat, just as He was; and other boats were with Him. 37 And there arose a fierce gale of wind, and the waves were breaking over the boat so much that the boat was already filling up. 38 עִשְׂוָה Himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?" 39 And He got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Hush, be still." And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm. 40 And He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?" 41 They became very much afraid and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

Legion Cast out into Swine

5 They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gergashites. 2 When He got out of the boat, immediately a man from the tombs with an unclean spirit met Him, 3 and he had his dwelling among the tombs. And no one was able to bind him anymore, even with a chain; 4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him and the shackles broken in pieces, and no one was strong enough to subdue him. 5 Constantly, night and day, he was screaming among the tombs and in the mountains, and cutting himself with stones. 6 Seeing יִשְׁעָה from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him; 7 and shouting with a loud voice, he said, "What business do we have with each other, יִשְׁעָה, Son of El Elyon^a? I implore You by Elohim, do not torment me!" 8 For He had been saying to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" 9 And He was asking him, "What is your name?" And he said to Him, "My name is Legion; for we are many." 10 And he began to implore Him earnestly not to send them out of the country. 11 Now there was a large herd of swine feeding nearby on the mountain. 12 They implored Him, saying, "Send us into the swine so that we may enter them." 13 He permitted them, and coming out, the unclean spirits entered the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, about two thousand of them; and they were drowned in the sea.

14 Their herdsmen ran away and reported it in the city and in the country. And the people came to see what it was that had happened. 15 They came to יִשְׁעָה and observed the man who had been demon-possessed sitting down, clothed and in his right mind, the very man who had had the "legion;" and they became frightened. 16 Those who had seen it described to them how it had happened to the demon-possessed man, and all about the swine. 17 And they began to implore Him to leave their region. 18 As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed was imploring Him that he might accompany Him. 19 And He did not let him, but He said to him, "Go home to your people and report to them what great things תָּלִיתָה has done for you, and how He was kind to you." 20 And he went away and began to proclaim in Decapolis what great things יִשְׁעָה had done for him; and everyone was amazed.

Miracles and Healing

21 When יִשְׁעָה had crossed over again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him; and so He stayed by the seashore. 22 One of the synagogue officials named Yair came up, and on seeing Him, fell at His feet 23 and implored Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death; please come and lay Your hands on her, so that she will be saved and live." 24 And He went off with him; and a large crowd was following Him and pressing in on Him.

25 A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, 26 and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse; 27 after hearing about יִשְׁעָה, she came up in the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak. 28 For she thought, "If I just touch His garments, I will be saved." 29 Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. 30 Immediately יִשְׁעָה, perceiving in Himself that the power proceeding from Him had gone forth, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My garments?" 31 And His talmidim said to Him, "You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'" 32 And He looked around to see the woman who had done this. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. 34 And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you; go in peace and be healed of your affliction."

35 While He was still speaking, they came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher anymore?" 36 But יִשְׁעָה, ignoring what was being spoken, said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid, only believe." 37 And He allowed no one to accompany Him, except Kepha and Ya'aqov and Yohanan the brother of Ya'aqov. 38 They came to the house of the synagogue official; and He saw a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing. 39 And entering in, He said to them, "Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is asleep." 40 They began laughing at Him. But putting them all out, He took along the child's father and mother and His own companions, and entered the room where the child was. 41 Taking the child by the hand, He said to her, "Talitha qum!" (which translated means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!"). 42 Immediately the girl got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were completely astounded. 43 And He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and He said that something should be given her to eat.

יִשְׁעָה Revisits His Hometown

6 יִשְׁעָה went out from there and came into His hometown; and His talmidim followed Him. 2 When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue; and the many listeners were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things, and what is this wisdom given to Him, and such miracles as these performed by

^a 7 פַּרְעֹה (Elyon) – Hebrew word meaning "Most High." One of the Titles of הָאֱלֹהִים.

His hands? 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Miryam, and brother of Ya'aqov and Yoseph and Yehudah and Shimon? Are not His sisters here with us?" And they stumbled at Him. 4 יְשֻׁרּוּן said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his household." 5 And He could do no miracle there except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. 6 And He wondered at their disbelief. And He was going around the villages teaching.

The Twelve Sent Out

7 And He summoned the twelve and began to send them out in pairs, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits; 8 and He instructed them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a mere staff-- no bread, no bag, no money in their belt—9 but to wear sandals; and He added, "Do not put on two tunics." 10 And He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave town. 11 Any place that does not receive you or listen to you, as you go out from there, shake the dust off the soles of your feet for a witness against them." 12 They went out and proclaimed that men should repent. 13 And they were casting out many demons and were anointing with oil many sick people and healing them.

Yohanan's Death Recalled

14 And King Herod heard of it, for His name had become well known; and people were saying, "Yohanan the Immerser has risen from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him." 15 But others were saying, "He is Eliyahu." And others were saying, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." 16 But when Herod heard of it, he kept saying, "Yohanan, whom I beheaded, has risen!"^a 17 For Herod himself had sent and had Yohanan arrested and bound in prison on account of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philippos, because he had married her. 18 For Yohanan had been saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." 19 Herodias had a grudge against him and wanted to put him to death and could not do so; 20 for Herod was afraid of Yohanan, knowing that he was a righteous and set-apart man, and he kept him safe. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed; but he used to enjoy listening to him.

21 A suitable day came when Herod, on his birthday, gave a banquet for his great men and military commanders and the leading men of the Galil; 22 and when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you." 23 And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask of me, I will give it to you; up to half of my kingdom." 24 And she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?" And she said, "The head of Yohanan the Immerser." 25 Immediately she came in a hurry to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of Yohanan the Immerser on a platter." 26 And although the king was very sorry, because of his oaths and because of his dinner guests, he was unwilling to refuse her. 27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded to bring his head. And he went and had him beheaded in the prison, 28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 When his talmidim heard about this, they came and took away his body and laid it in a tomb.

30 The shelihim gathered together with יְשֻׁרּוּן; and they reported to Him all that they had done and taught. 31 And He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a wilderness region and rest a while." (For there were many people coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.) 32 They went away in the boat to a wilderness region by themselves.

Feeding Five Thousand

33 The people saw them going, and many recognized them and ran there together on foot from all the cities, and got there ahead of them. 34 And having gone out, He saw a large crowd, and He felt compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things. 35 And when the hour was already late, His talmidim came to Him and said, "This place is a wilderness and the hour is already late; 36 send them away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat." 37 But He answered them, "You give them something to eat!" And they said to Him, "Shall we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread and give them something to eat?" 38 And He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go look!" And when they found out, they said, "Five, and two fish." 39 And He commanded them all to sit down by groups on the green grass. 40 They sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties. 41 And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward the heaven, He blessed the food and broke the loaves and He kept giving them to the talmidim to set before them; and He divided up the two fish among them all. 42 They all ate and were satisfied, 43 and they picked up twelve full baskets of the broken pieces, and also of the fish.

^a 16 Syr. adds the words מִן־הַבָּיִת (meyn beyt mi'te), which means "from among the dead."

44 There were five thousand men who ate the loaves.

Walking on Water

45 Immediately עִירָשָׁנִים made His talmidim get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side to Beth-tsaida, while He Himself was sending the crowd away.
46 After bidding them farewell, He left for the mountain to pray.

47 When it was evening, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He was alone on the land. 48 Seeing them tormented at the oars, for the wind was against them, at about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea; and He intended to pass by them. 49 But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw Him and were terrified. But immediately He spoke with them and said to them, "Take courage; it is I, do not be afraid." 51 Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped; and they were utterly astonished, 52 for they had not gained any insight from the incident of the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

Healing at Kinnereth

53 When they had crossed over they came to land at Kinnereth, and moored to the shore. 54 When they got out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, 55 and ran about that whole country and began to carry here and there on their pallets those who were sick, to the place they heard He was. 56 Wherever He entered villages, or cities, or countryside, they were laying the sick in the market places, and imploring Him that they might just touch the tsitsit of His cloak; and as many as touched it were being saved.

Precepts of Men

7 The Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered around Him when they had come from Yerushalayim, 2 and had seen that some of His talmidim were eating their bread with impure hands, that is, unwashed. 3 (For the Pharisees and all the Yehudim do not eat unless they carefully wash their hands, thus observing the traditions of the elders; 4 and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they cleanse themselves; and there are many other things which they have received in order to observe, such as the washing of cups and pitchers and copper pots^a.) 5 The Pharisees and the scribes asked Him, "Why do Your talmidim not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unclean hands?"

6 And He said to them, "Rightly did Yeshayahu prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written: 'This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far away from Me.' 7 But in vain do they fear Me, teaching as doctrines the precepts of men."^b

8 "Having left the command of Elohim, you hold to the tradition of men, [with immersions of cups and vessels, and many things like this you do.]"^c"

9 He was also saying to them, "You are experts at setting aside the command of Elohim in order to uphold your tradition. 10 For Mosheh said, 'honor your father and your mother^d; and, 'he who speaks evil of father or mother, is to be put to death'^e; 11 but you say, 'If a man says to his father or his mother, whatever I have from me that would help you is Qorban (that is to say, given to Elohim);' 12 you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or his mother; 13 thus making of no effect the word of Elohim by your tradition which you have handed down; and you do many things such as that."

The Heart of Man

14 After He called the crowd to Him again, He began saying to them, "Listen to Me, all of you, and understand: 15 there is nothing outside the man which can defile him if it goes into him; but the things which proceed out of the man are what defile the man. 16 [If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.]"^f"

17 When he had left the crowd and entered the house, His talmidim questioned Him about the parable. 18 And He said to them, "Are you so lacking in understanding also? Do you not understand that whatever goes into the man from outside cannot defile him, 19 because it does not go into his heart, but into his belly, and goes out into the drain and is cleansed." 20 And He was saying, "That which proceeds out of the man, that is what defiles the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed the evil thoughts, whorings, thefts, murders, 22 adulteries, deeds of coveting and wickedness, deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. 23 All these evil things proceed from within and defile the man."

Syro-Phoenician Woman's Faith

24 וְיַעֲשֵׂה got up and went away from there to the region of Tsor. And when He had entered a house, He wanted no one to know of it; yet He could not escape notice. 25 But after hearing of Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately came and fell at His feet. 26 Now the woman was Greek, of the Syro-Phoenician people. And she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter. 27 And He was saying to her, "Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." 28 But she answered and said to Him, "Master, even the dogs under the table feed on the children's crumbs." 29 And He said to her, "Because of this answer go; the demon has gone out of your daughter." 30 And going back to her home, she found the child lying on the bed, the demon having left.

31 Again He went out from the region of Tsor, and came through Tsidon to the Sea of the Galil, within the region of Decapolis. 32 They brought to Him one who was deaf and spoke with difficulty, and they implored Him to lay His hand on him. 33 וְיַעֲשֵׂה took him aside from the crowd, by himself, and put His fingers into his ears, and after spitting, He touched his tongue; 34 and looking up to heaven with a deep sigh, He said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!" 35 And his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was removed, and he began speaking plainly. 36 And He gave them orders not to tell anyone; but the more He ordered them, the more widely they continued to proclaim it. 37 They were utterly astonished, saying, "He has done all things well; He makes even the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Feeding Four Thousand

8 In those days, when there was again a large crowd and they had nothing to eat, He called His talmidim and said to them, 2 "I feel compassion for the people because they have remained with Me now three days and have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way; and some of them have come from a great distance." 4 And His talmidim answered Him, "Where will anyone be able to find enough bread here in this desolate place to satisfy these people?" 5 And He was asking them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven." 6 And He directed the people to sit down on the ground; and taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks and broke them, and started giving them to His talmidim to serve to them, and they served them to the people. 7 They also had a few small fish; and after He had blessed them, He ordered these to be served as well. 8 And they ate and were satisfied; and they picked up seven large baskets full of what was left over of the broken pieces. 9 About four thousand were there; and He sent them away. 10 And immediately He entered the boat with His talmidim and came to the district of Dalmanutha.

11 The Pharisees came out and began to argue with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, to test Him. 12 Sighing deeply in His spirit, He said, "Why does this generation seek for a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation." 13 Leaving them, He again embarked and went away to the other side.

14 And they had forgotten to take bread, and did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them. 15 And He was giving orders to them, saying, "Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod." 16 They began to discuss with one another the fact that they had no bread. 17 And וְיַעֲשֵׂה, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you discuss the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet see or understand? Do you have a hardened heart? 18 having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear?"^a And do you not remember, 19 when I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces you picked up?" They said to Him, "Twelve." 20 "When I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of broken pieces did you pick up?" And they said to Him, "Seven." 21 And He was saying to them, "Do you not yet understand?"

22 And they came to Beth-tsaida. And they brought a blind man to וְיַעֲשֵׂה and implored Him to touch him. 23 Taking the blind man by the hand, He brought him out of the village; and after spitting on his eyes and laying His hands on him, He asked him, "Do you see anything?" 24 And he looked up and said, "I see men, for I see them like trees, walking around." 25 Then again He laid His hands on his eyes; and he looked intently and was restored, and began to see everything clearly. 26 And He sent him to his home, saying, "Do not even enter the village."

Kepha's Affirmation of וְיַעֲשֵׂה as Messiah

27 וְיַעֲשֵׂה went out, along with His talmidim, to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way He questioned His talmidim, saying to them, "Who do people say that I am?" 28 They told Him, saying, "Yohanan the Immerser; and others, Eliyahu; but others, one of the prophets." 29 And He continued by questioning them, "But who do you say that I am?" Kepha answered and said to Him, "You are the

^a 18 See Yirmeyahu 5:21-31.

Messiah." 30 And He warned them to tell no one about Him.

31 And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And He was stating the matter plainly. And Kepha took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. 33 But turning around and seeing His talmidim, He rebuked Kepha and said, "Get behind Me, Satan; for you are not setting your mind on the interests of Elohim, but of man."

34 And He summoned the crowd with His talmidim, and said to them, "If anyone desires to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his stake and follow Me. 35 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for the sake of Me and the good news will save it. 36 For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his being? 37 For what will a man give in exchange for his being? 38 For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the set-apart messengers."

Vision of Transformation

9 And יְהָוָה was saying to them, "Truly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of Elohim after it has come with power."

2 Six days later, יְהָוָה took with Him Kepha and Ya'aqov and Yohanan, and brought them up on a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them; 3 and His garments became radiant and exceedingly white, as no launderer on earth can whiten them. 4 Eliyahu appeared to them along with Mosheh; and they were talking with יְהָוָה. 5 Kepha said to יְהָוָה, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three Tabernacles, one for You, and one for Mosheh, and one for Eliyahu." 6 For he did not know what to answer; for they became terrified. 7 Then a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is My beloved Son, listen to Him!" 8 All at once they looked around and saw no one with them anymore, except יְהָוָה alone.

9 As they were coming down from the mountain, He gave them orders not to relate to anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man rose from the dead. 10 They seized upon that statement, discussing with one another what rising from the dead meant. 11 They asked Him, saying, "Why is it that the scribes say that Eliyahu must come first?" 12 And He said to them, "Eliyahu does first come and restore all things. And yet how is it written of the Son of Man that He will suffer many things and be treated with contempt? 13 But I say to you that Eliyahu has indeed come, and they did to him whatever they desired, just as it is written of him."

All Things are Possible

14 When they came back to the talmidim, they saw a large crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them. 15 Immediately, when the entire crowd saw Him, they were amazed and began running up to greet Him. 16 And He asked them, "What are you discussing with them?" 17 And one of the crowd answered Him, "Teacher, I brought You my son, possessed with a spirit which makes him mute; 18 and whenever it seizes him, it slams him to the ground and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth and stiffens out. I told Your talmidim to cast it out, and they could not." 19 And He answered them and said, "O unfaithful generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me!" 20 They brought the boy to Him. When he saw Him, immediately the spirit threw him into a convulsion, and falling to the ground, he began rolling around and foaming at the mouth. 21 And He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. 22 It has often thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!" 23 And יְהָוָה said to him, "If You can? All things are possible to him who believes."

24 Immediately the boy's father cried out and said, "I do believe; help my lack of faith." 25 When יְהָוָה saw that a crowd was rapidly gathering, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You deaf and mute spirit, I command you, come out of him and do not enter him again." 26 After crying out and throwing him into terrible convulsions, it came out; and the boy became so much like a corpse that most of them said, "He is dead!" 27 But יְהָוָה took him by the hand and raised him; and he got up. 28 When He came into the house, His talmidim began questioning Him privately, "Why could we not drive it out?" 29 And He said to them, "This kind cannot come out by anything but prayer."

Predicts His Death and Resurrection

30 From there they went out and began to go through the Galil, and He did not want anyone to know about it. 31 For He was teaching His talmidim and telling them, "The Son of Man is to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him; and when He has been killed, He will rise after three days." 32 But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him.

33 They came to Kaphar-nahum; and when He was in the house, He began to question them, "What were you discussing on the way?" 34 But they kept silent, for on the way they had discussed with one another which of them was the greatest. 35 Sitting down, He called the twelve and said to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all." 36 Taking a child, He set him before them, and taking him in His arms, He said to them, 37 "Whoever receives one child like this in My Name receives Me; and whoever receives Me does not receive Me, but Him who sent Me."

Warnings

38 Yohanan said to Him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in Your Name, and we tried to prevent him because he was not following us." 39 But שׁוֹנֵם said, "Do not hinder him, for there is no one who will perform a miracle in My Name, and be able soon afterward to speak wicked of Me. 40 For he who is not against us is for us. 41 For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of your name in Messiah, truly I say to you, he will not lose his reward.

42 "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believes to stumble, it would be better for him if, with a heavy millstone hung around his neck, he had been cast into the sea. 43 If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life crippled, than, having your two hands, to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire, 44 [where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched]^a. 45 If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame, than, having your two feet, to be cast into Gehenna, 46 [where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched]. 47 If your eye causes you to stumble, throw it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of Elohim with one eye, than, having two eyes, to be cast into Gehenna, 48 where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.^b

49 "For everyone will be salted with fire [and every sacrifice will be salted with salt]^c. 50 Salt is good; but if the salt becomes unsalty, with what will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Teaching about Divorce

10 Getting up, He went from there to the region of Yehudah and beyond the Yarden; crowds gathered around Him again, and, according to His custom, He taught them again.

2 And having come to Him, the Pharisees began to question Him whether it was lawful for a man to send away a wife. 3 And He answered and said to them, "What did Moshe command you?" 4 They said, "Moshe permitted to write a certificate of divorce and send her away.^d" 5 But ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this command. 6 But from the beginning of creation, Elohim made them male and female.^e 7 For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother, and the two shall become one flesh;^f so they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 What therefore Elohim has joined together, let no man separate."

10 In the house the talmidim began questioning Him about this again. 11 And He said to them, "Whoever sends away his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her. 12 And if she herself has sent away her husband and marries another man, she is committing adultery."

Blessing of the Children

13 And they were bringing children to Him so that He might touch them; but the talmidim rebuked them. 14 But when שׁוֹנֵם saw this, He was indignant and said to them, "Permit the children to come to Me; do not hinder them; for the kingdom of Elohim belongs to such as these. 15 Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of Elohim like a child will not enter it." 16 And He took them in His arms and blessed them, laying His hands on them.

Rich Young Man

17 As He was setting out on a journey, a man ran up to Him and knelt before Him, and asked Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life?" 18 And ישׁוּעָה said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except Elohim alone. 19 You know the commands, 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, do not defraud, honor your father and mother'.^g" 20 And he said to Him, "Teacher, I have guarded all these things from my youth up." 21 Looking at him, שׁוֹנֵם felt a love for him and said to him, "One thing you lack: go and sell all you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me." 22 But at these words he was saddened, and he went away grieving, for he was one who owned much property.

23 And שׁוֹעַ, looking around, said to His talmidim, "How hard it will be for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of Elohim!" 24 The talmidim were amazed at His words. But שׁוֹעַ answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is^a to enter the kingdom of Elohim! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of Elohim." 26 They were even more astonished and said to Him, "Then who can be saved?" 27 Looking at them, שׁוֹעַ said, "With people it is impossible, but not with Elohim; for all things are possible with Elohim."

28 Kepha began to say to Him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed You." 29 יְשָׁעָה said, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or farms, for the sake of Me and the good news, 30 but that he will receive a hundred times as much now in the present age, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and farms, along with persecutions; and in the age to come, everlasting life. 31 But many who are first will be last, and the last, first."

שׁוֹעַ Predicts His Death and Resurrection

32 They were on the road going up to Yerushalayim, and שׁוֹעַ was walking on ahead of them; and they were amazed, and those who followed were fearful. And again He took the twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him, 33 saying, "Behold, we are going up to Yerushalayim, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and will hand Him over to the nations. 34 They will mock Him and spit on Him, and scourge Him and kill Him, and after three days He will rise again."

35 Ya'aqov and Yoḥanan, the two sons of Zevadyahu, came up to שׁוֹעַ, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of You." 36 And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?" 37 They said to Him, "Grant that we may sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory." 38 But שׁוֹעַ said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be immersed with the immersion with which I am immersed?" 39 They said to Him, "We are able." And יְשָׁעָה said to them, "The cup that I drink you shall drink; and you shall be immersed with the immersion with which I am immersed. 40 But to sit on My right or on My left, this is not Mine to give; but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

41 Hearing this, the ten began to feel indignant with Ya'aqov and Yoḥanan. 42 Calling them to Himself, שׁוֹעַ said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the nations are in authority over them; and their great men exercise authority over them. 43 But it is not this way among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant; 44 and whoever desires to be first among you shall be bondservant of all. 45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Bartimaeus Receives Sight

46 Then they came to Yeriḥo. And as He was leaving Yeriḥo with His talmidim and a large crowd, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus,^b the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the road. 47 When he heard that it was ישָׁעָה the Nazarene, he began to cry out and say, "שׁוֹעַ, Son of David, be kind to me!" 48 Many were sternly telling him to be quiet, but he kept crying out all the more, "Son of David, be kind to me!" 49 And שׁוֹעַ stopped and said, "Call him here." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage, stand up! He is calling for you." 50 Throwing aside his cloak, he jumped up and came to שׁוֹעַ. 51 And answering him, יְשָׁעָה said, "What do you want Me to do for you?" And the blind man said to Him, "Rabboni, I want to regain my sight!" 52 And שׁוֹעַ said to him, "Go; your faith has saved you." Immediately he regained his sight and began following Him on the road.

Entering Yerushalayim

11 As they approached Yerushalayim, at Beth-phag and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His talmidim, 2 and said to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one yet has ever sat; untie it and bring it. 3 If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' you say, 'The Master has need of it'; and immediately he will send it back here." 4 They went away and found a colt tied at the door, outside in the street; and they untied it. 5 Some of the bystanders were saying to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" 6 They spoke to them just as שׁוֹעַ had told them, and they gave them permission. 7 They brought the colt to שׁוֹעַ and put their coats on it; and He sat on it. 8 And many spread their coats in the road, and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields.

9 Those who went in front and those who followed were shouting: "Hosanna!^a Blessed is He who comes in the Name of יהָנָן^b

10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David; Hosanna in the highest!"

11 And He entered Yerushalayim and came into the Temple; and after looking around at everything, He left for Bethany with the twelve, since the hour was already late.

12 On the next day, when they had left Bethany, He became hungry. 13 Seeing at a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if perhaps He would find anything on it; and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14 He said to it, "May no one eat fruit from you to the age!" And His talmidim were listening.

Driving Out the Money Changers from the Temple

15 Then they came to Yerushalayim, and He entered the Temple and began to drive out those who were buying and selling in the Temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who were selling doves; 16 and He would not permit anyone to carry merchandise through the Temple. 17 And He began to teach and say to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a robbers' den.^d" 18 The chief priests and the scribes heard this, and began seeking how to destroy Him; for they were afraid of Him, for the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching.

19 When evening came, they would go out of the city.

20 As they were passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots up. 21 Being reminded, Kepha said to Him, "Rabbi, look, the fig tree which You cursed has withered." 22 And שׁוֹרֵךְ answered saying to them, "Believe in Elohim. 23 Truly I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is going to happen, it will be granted him. 24 Therefore I say to you, all things for which you pray and ask, believe that you have received them, and they will be granted you. 25 Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father who is in the heavens will also forgive you your transgressions. 26 [But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in the heavens forgive your transgressions.]^e

Authority of שׁוֹרֵךְ Questioned

27 They came again to Yerushalayim. And as He was walking in the Temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to Him, 28 and began saying to Him, "By what authority are You doing these things, or who gave You this authority to do these things?" 29 And שׁוֹרֵךְ said to them, "I will ask you one question, and you answer Me, and then I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 Was the immersion of Yohanan from heaven, or from men? Answer Me." 31 They began reasoning among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Then why did you not believe him?' 32 But shall we say, 'From men?' – they were afraid of the crowd, for everyone considered Yohanan to have been a real prophet. 33 Answering שׁוֹרֵךְ, they said, "We do not know." And שׁוֹרֵךְ said to them, "Nor will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

Parable of the Vineyard

12 And He began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard and put a wall around it, and dug a vat under the wine press and built a tower,^f and rented it out to vine-growers and went on a journey. 2 At the harvest time he sent a bondservant to the vine-growers, in order to receive some of the produce of the vineyard from the vine-growers. 3 They took him, and beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 4 Again he sent them another bondservant, and they wounded him in the head, and treated him shamefully. 5 And he sent another, and that one they killed; and so with many others, beating some and killing others. 6 He had one more, a beloved son; he sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7 But those vine-growers said to one another, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours!' 8 They took him, and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard. 9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vine-growers, and will give the vineyard to others.

שְׁאַלָּה Answers the Pharisees, Sadducees, and Scribes

13 Then they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Him in order to trap Him in a statement. 14 They came and said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are truthful and defer to no one; for You are not partial to any, but teach the way of Elohim in truth. Is it lawful to pay tribute to Caesar, or not? Shall we give or shall we not give?" 15 But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a denarius to look at." 16 They brought one. And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" And they said to Him, "Caesar's." 17 And שְׁנִי said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to Elohim the things that belong to Elohim." And they were amazed at Him.

18 And some of the Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection) came to Him, questioning Him, saying,

19 Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves behind a wife and leaves no child, his brother should marry the wife and raise up seed to his brother.^b 20 There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife, and died leaving no seed.

21 The second one married her, and died leaving behind no seed; and the third likewise; 22 and so all seven left no seed. Last of all the woman died also. 23 In the resurrection, when they rise again, which one's wife will she be? For all seven had married her."

שׁוֹעַב 24 said to them, "Is this not the reason you are mistaken, that you do not understand the Scriptures or the power of Elohim? 25 For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry [women] nor are [women] given [to men] in marriage, but are like messengers in the heavens.^c 26 But regarding the fact that the dead rise again, have you not read in the book of Mosheh, about the burning bush, how Elohim spoke to him, saying, 'I am the Elohim of Avraham, and the Elohim of Yitshaq, and the Elohim of Ya'aqov'?^d 27 He is not the Elohim of the dead, but of the living; you are greatly mistaken."

38 In His teaching He was saying: "Beware of the scribes who like to walk around in long robes, and like respectful greetings in the market places, 39 and chief seats in the synagogues and first places at Feasts, 40 who devour widows' houses, and for appearance's sake offer long prayers; these will receive greater judgment."

Widow's Two Copper Coins

41 And He sat down opposite the treasury, and began observing how the people were putting money into the treasury; and many rich people were putting in large sums. 42 A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which amount to a cent. 43 Calling His talmidim to Him, He said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the contributors to the treasury; 44 for they all put in out of their surplus, but she, out of her poverty, put in all she owned, all she had to live on."

Things to Come

13 As He was going out of the Temple, one of His talmidim said to Him, "Teacher, behold what wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!" 2 And עִישׂוּ said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left upon another which will not be torn down."

3 As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the Temple, Kepha and Ya'aqov and Yohanan and Andreas were questioning Him privately, 4 "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are going to be fulfilled?" 5 And עִישׂוּ began to say to them, "See to it that no one misleads you. 6 Many will come in My Name, saying, 'I am' and will mislead many. 7 When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be frightened; those things must take place; but the end is not yet. 8 For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. These things are the beginning of birth pangs.

9 "But be on your guard; for they will deliver you to the Sanhedrins, and you will be flogged in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for My sake, as a witness to them. 10 The good news must first be proclaimed to all the nations. 11 When they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour; for it is not you who speak, but the Set-apart Ruah. 12 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and have them put to death. 13 You will be hated by all because of My Name, but the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Abomination that Lays Waste

14 "But when you see the abomination that lays waste^a standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then those who are in Yehudah must flee to the mountains. 15 The one who is on the housetop must not go down, or go in to get anything out of his house; 16 and the one who is in the field must not turn back to get his coat. 17 But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 18 But pray that it may not happen in the winter. 19 For those days will be a time of affliction such as has not occurred since the beginning of the creation which Elohim created until now, and never will. 20 Unless תַּעֲמִיד had shortened those days, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom He chose, He shortened the days. 21 And then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is the Messiah'; or, 'Behold, He is there'; do not believe; 22 for false Messiahs and false prophets will arise, and will show signs and wonders, in order to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. 23 But take heed; behold, I have told you everything in advance.

Return of the Son of Man

24 But in those days, after that affliction, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light, 25 and the stars will be falling^b from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. 26 Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds^c with great power and glory. 27 And then He will send forth the messengers, and will gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest end of the earth to the farthest end of heaven.

Parable of the Fig Tree

28 "Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. 29 Even so, you too, when you see these things happening, recognize that He is near, right at the door. 30 Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away. 32 But of that day or hour no one knows, not even the messengers in heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone.

33 "Take heed, keep on the alert; for you do not know when the time will come. 34 It is like a man away on a journey, who upon leaving his house and putting his bondservants in charge, assigning to each one his task, also commanded the doorkeeper to stay on the alert. 35 Therefore, be on the alert-- for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning-- 36 in case he should come suddenly and find you asleep. 37 What I say to you I say to all, 'Be on the alert!!!'

Plot to Kill עֵנָן; Costly Perfume

14 Now the Pesah and Feast of Unleavened Bread were two days away; and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to seize Him by stealth and kill Him; 2 for they were saying, "Not during the festival, otherwise there might be a riot of the people."

3 While He was in Bethany at the home of Shimon the leper, and reclining at the table, there came a woman with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume of pure nard; she broke the vial and poured it over His head. 4 But some were indignantly remarking to one another, "Why has this perfume been wasted? 5 For this perfume might have been sold for over three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor." And they were scolding her. 6 But עִזָּה said, "Let her alone; why do you bother her? She has done a good deed to Me. 7 For you always have the poor with you,^a and whenever you desire you can do good to them; but you do not always have Me. 8 She has done what she could; she has anointed My body beforehand for the burial. 9 Truly I say to you, wherever the good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."

10 Then Yehudah Ish-Qerioth, who was one of the twelve, went off to the chief priests in order to betray Him to them. 11 They were glad when they heard this, and promised to give him money. And he began seeking how to betray Him at an opportune time.

Last Supper

12 And the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread came, when the Pesah was to be slaughtered; His talmidim said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Pesah?" 13 And He sent two of His talmidim and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him; 14 and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is My guest room in which I might eat the Pesah with My talmidim?"' 15 And he himself will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; prepare for us there." 16 The talmidim went out and came to the city, and found it just as He had told them; and they prepared the Pesah.

17 When it was evening He came with the twelve. 18 As they were reclining at the table and eating, עִזָּה said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me-- one who is eating with Me." 19 They began to be grieved and to say to Him one by one, "Surely not I!" 20 And He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who dips with Me in the bowl. 21 For the Son of Man is to go just as it is written of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

22 While they were eating, He took some bread, and after a blessing He broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is My body." 23 And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. 24 And He said to them, "This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. 25 Truly I say to you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it renewed in the kingdom of Elohim."

Kepha's Denial Predicted

26 After singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. 27 And עִזָּה said to them, "You will all stumble, because it is written, I will strike down the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.^b 28 But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you to the Galil." 29 But Kepha said to Him, "Even though all may stumble, yet I will not." 30 And עִזָּה said to him, "Truly I say to you, that this very night, before a rooster crows, you yourself will deny Me three times." 31 But he kept saying insistently, "If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And they all were saying the same thing also.

Garden of Gath-shehmen; Betrayal; Arrest

32 They came to a place named Gath-shehmen; and He said to His talmidim, "Sit here until I have prayed." 33 And He took with Him Kepha and Ya'aqov and Yohanan, and began to be very distressed and troubled. 34 And He said to them, "My being is deeply grieved to the point of death; remain here and keep watch."

35 And He went a little beyond them, and fell to the ground and began to pray that if it were possible, the hour might pass Him by. 36 And He was saying, "Abba!^c Father! All things are possible for You; remove this cup from Me; yet not what I will, but what You will." 37 And He came and found them sleeping, and said to Kepha, "Shimon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? 38 Keep watching and praying that you may not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39 Again He went away and prayed, saying the same words. 40 And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him. 41 And He came the third time, and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough; the hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Get up, let us be going; behold, the one who betrays Me is at hand!"

43 Immediately while He was still speaking, Yehudah, one of the twelve, came up accompanied by a crowd with swords and clubs, who were from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 Now he who was betraying Him had given them a signal, saying,

^a 7 See Devarim 15:11.

^b 27 See Zekharyah 13:7.

^c 36 Abba – Aramaic word meaning "father."

"Whomever I kiss, He is the one; seize Him and lead Him away under guard."

45 After coming, Yehudah immediately went to Him, saying, "Rabbi!" and kissed Him. 46 They laid hands on Him and seized Him. 47 But one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the bondservant of the high priest and cut off his ear. 48 And יעשׂ said to them, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me, as you would against a robber? 49 Every day I was with you in the Temple teaching, and you did not seize Me; but this has taken place to fulfill the Scriptures." 50 And they all left Him and fled.

51 A young man was following Him, wearing nothing but a linen sheet over his naked body; and they seized him. 52 But he pulled free of the linen sheet and escaped naked.

יעשׂ Before the Sanhedrin

53 They led יעשׂ away to the high priest; and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes gathered together. 54 Kepha had followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers and warming himself at the fire. 55 Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin kept trying to obtain witness against יעשׂ to put Him to death, and they were not finding any. 56 For many were giving false witness against Him, but their witness was not consistent. 57 Some stood up and began to give false witness against Him, saying, 58 "We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this dwelling place made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" 59 Not even in this respect was their witness consistent. 60 The high priest stood up and came forward and questioned יעשׂ, saying, "Do You not answer? What is it that these men are testifying against You?" 61 But He kept silent and did not answer. Again the high priest was questioning Him, and saying to Him, "Are You the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?" 62 And יעשׂ said, "I am; and you shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."^a 63 Tearing his clothes, the high priest said, "What further need do we have of witnesses? 64 You have heard the blasphemy; how does it seem to you?" And they all condemned Him to be deserving of death. 65 Some began to spit at Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists, and to say to Him, "Prophesy!" And the officers received Him with slaps in the face.

Kepha's Denials

66 As Kepha was below in the courtyard, one of the servant-girls of the high priest came, 67 and seeing Kepha warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with יעשׂ the Nazarene." 68 But he denied, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are talking about." And he went out onto the porch, and a rooster crowed.

69 The servant-girl saw him, and began once more to say to the bystanders, "This is one of them!" 70 But again he denied it. And after a little while the bystanders were again saying to Kepha, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean too." 71 But he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this man you are talking about!" 72 Immediately a rooster crowed. And Kepha remembered how יעשׂ had made the remark to him, "Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he began to weep.

יעשׂ Before Pilate

15 Early in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes and the whole Sanhedrin, immediately held a consultation; and binding יעשׂ, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pilate. 2 Pilate questioned Him, "Are You the King of the Yehudim?" And He answered him, "You say it." 3 The chief priests began to accuse Him harshly. 4 Then Pilate questioned Him again, saying, "Do You not answer? See how many charges they bring against You!" 5 But יעשׂ made no further answer; so Pilate was amazed.

Crowd Chooses Bar-Abba

6 Now at the Feast he used to release for them any one prisoner whom they requested. 7 The man named Bar-Abba had been imprisoned with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the insurrection. 8 The crowd went up and began asking him to do as he had been accustomed to do for them. 9 Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Yehudim?" 10 For he was aware that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to ask him to release Bar-Abba for them instead. 12 Answering again, Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Him whom you call the King of the Yehudim?" 13 They shouted back, "Crucify Him!" 14 But Pilate said to them, "Why, what wicked thing has He done?" But they shouted all the more, "Crucify Him!" 15 Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Bar-Abba for them, and after having עִזָּה scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

^a 62 See Tehillim 110:1; Dani'el 7:13.

16 The soldiers took Him away into the palace that is, the Praetorium, and they called together the whole Roman cohort. 17 They dressed Him up in purple, and after twisting a crown of thorns, they put it on Him; 18 and they began to acclaim Him, "Hail, King of the Yehudim!" 19 They kept beating His head with a reed, and spitting on Him, and kneeling and bowing down before Him. 20 After they had mocked Him, they took the purple robe off Him and put His own garments on Him. And they led Him out to crucify Him. 21 They pressed into service a passer-by coming from the country, Shimon of Kurene (the father of Alexander and Rufus), to bear His stake.

עִזָּה Crucified

22 Then they brought Him to the place Gulgoleth, which is translated, 'Place of a Skull.' 23 They tried to give Him wine mixed with myrrh; but He did not take it. 24 And they crucified Him, and divided up His garments among themselves, casting lots for them to decide what each man should take. 25 It was the third hour when they crucified Him. 26 The inscription of the charge against Him read, "THE KING OF THE YEHUDIM."

27 They crucified two robbers with Him, one on His right and one on His left. 28 [And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "And He was numbered with the lawless."^a]^b 29 Those passing by were hurling abuse at Him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who will destroy the dwelling place and rebuild it in three days, 30 save Yourself, and come down from the stake!" 31 In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes, were mocking Him among themselves and saying, "He saved others; He cannot save Himself. 32 Let this Messiah, the King of Yisra'el, now come down from the stake, so that we may see and believe!" Those who were crucified with Him were also insulting Him.

33 When the sixth hour came, darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 At the ninth hour עִזָּה cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabathani?" which is translated, "My El, My El, why have You forsaken Me?" 35 When some of the bystanders heard it, they began saying, "Behold, He is calling for Eliyahu." 36 Someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed, and gave Him a drink, saying, "Let us see whether Eliyahu will come to take Him down." 37 And עִזָּה uttered a loud cry, and breathed His last. 38 And the veil of the dwelling place was torn in two from top to bottom. 39 When the centurion, who was standing right in front of Him, saw the way He breathed His last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of Elohim!" 40 There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Miriam from Magdala, and Miryam the mother of Ya'aqov the Less and Yoseph, and Shalom. 41 When He was in the Galil, they used to follow Him and minister to Him; and many other women who came up with Him to Yerushalayim.

The Burial of עִזָּה

42 When evening had already come, because it was the preparation day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Yoseph of Ramah came, a prominent member of the Sanhedrin, who himself was waiting for the kingdom of Elohim; and he gathered up courage and went in before Pilate, and asked for the body of עִזָּה. 44 Pilate wondered if He was dead by this time, and summoning the centurion, he questioned him as to whether He was already dead. 45 And ascertaining this from the centurion, he granted the body to Yoseph.

46 Yoseph bought a linen cloth, took Him down, wrapped Him in the linen cloth and laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. 47 Miryam from Magdala and Miryam the mother of Yoseph were looking on where He was laid.

The Resurrection

16 When the Sabbath was over, Miryam from Magdala, and Miryam the mother of Ya'aqov, and Shalom, bought spices, so that they might come and anoint Him. 2 Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. 3 They were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" 4 Looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, although it was extremely large. 5 Entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting at the right, wearing a white robe; and they were amazed. 6 And he said to them, "Do not be amazed; you are looking for עִזָּה the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen; He is not here; behold, here is the place where they laid Him. 7 But go, tell His talmidim and Kepha, He is going ahead of you to the Galil; there you will see Him, just as He told you." 8 They went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had gripped them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

9 [Now after He had risen, early on the first day of the week He first appeared to Miryam from Magdala, from whom He had cast out seven demons. 10 She went and reported to those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping. 11 When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe her. 12 After that, He appeared in a different form to two of them while they were walking along on their way to the country. 13 They went away and reported it to the others, but they did not believe them either.

14 Afterward He appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table; and He reproached them for their lack of faith and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen Him after He had risen. 15 And He said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to all creation. 16 He who has believed and has been immersed shall be saved; but he who has not believed shall be condemned. 17 These signs will accompany those who have believed: in My Name they will cast out demons, they will speak with renewed tongues; 18 they will pick up serpents, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

19 So then, when the Master יהשׁוּא had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of Elohim.

20 And they went out and proclaimed everywhere, while the Master worked with them, and confirmed the word by the signs that followed. And they promptly reported all these instructions to Kepha and his companions. And after that, יהשׁוּא Himself sent out through them from east to west the sacred and imperishable proclamation of everlasting salvation.]^a

ΛΟΥΚΑΣ

Loukas (Luke)

Introduction

1 Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us, 2 even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, 3 it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; 4 that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

Birth of Yohanan the Immerser Foretold

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Yehudah, a certain priest named Zekharyah, of the priestly division of Aviyah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aharon, and her name was Elisheva. 6 They were both righteous before Elohim, walking blamelessly in all the commands and righteous deeds of הָיוֹם. 7 But they had no child, because Elisheva was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. 8 Now while he executed the priest's office before Elohim in the order of his division, 9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the dwelling place of הָיוֹם and burn incense. 10 The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

11 A messenger of הָיוֹם appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 Zekharyah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the messenger said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zekharyah, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elisheva, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name Yohanan. 14 You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. 15 For he will be great in the sight of הָיוֹם, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Set-apart Ruah, even from his mother's womb. 16 He will turn many of the children of Yisra'el to הָיוֹם their Elohim. 17 He will go before Him in the spirit and power of Eliyahu, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,'^a and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to prepare a people prepared for הָיוֹם."

18 Zekharyah said to the messenger, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

19 The messenger answered him, "I am Gavri'el, who stands in the presence of Elohim. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. 20 Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

21 The people were waiting for Zekharyah, and they marveled that he delayed in the dwelling place. 22 When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the dwelling place. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. 23 When the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. 24 After these days Elisheva, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five new moons, saying, 25 "Thus has הָיוֹם done to me in the days in which He looked at me, to take away my reproach among men."

Birth of Yeshua Foretold

26 Now in the sixth new moon, the messenger Gavri'el was sent from Elohim to a city of the Galil, named Nazareth, 27 to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Yoseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Miryam. 28 Having come in, the messenger said to her, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! הָיוֹם is with you."

29 But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. 30 The messenger said to her, "Do not be afraid, Miryam, for you have found favor with Elohim. 31 Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and give birth to a son, and will call His Name 'ישׁוּעָה'. 32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of Elyon^b. הָיוֹם Elohim will give Him the throne of His father, David, 33 and He will reign over the house of Ya'aqov to the ages. There will be no end to His Kingdom."

34 Miryam said to the messenger, "How can this be, seeing I have not known a man?"

35 The messenger answered her, "The Set-apart Ruah will come on you, and the power of Elyon will overshadow you. Therefore also the set-apart One who is born will be called the Son of Elohim. 36 Behold, Elisheva, your relative, also has conceived a son, in her old age; and this is the sixth new moon with her who was called barren. 37 For nothing is impossible with Elohim."

^a 17 See Malakhi 4:6.

^b 32 & 35 עֶלְיוֹן (Elyon) – Hebrew word meaning "Most High." One of the Titles of הָיוֹם.

38 Miryam said, "Behold, the servant of יהוה; let it be done to me according to your word." The messenger departed from her.

Miryam Visits Elisheva

39 Miryam arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Yehudah, 40 and entered into the house of Zekharyah and greeted Elisheva. 41 When Elisheva heard Miryam's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elisheva was filled with the Set-apart Ruah. 42 She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43 Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Master should come to me? 44 For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy! 45 Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from יהוה!"

Miryam's Words of Praise

46 Miryam said, "My being magnifies יהוה. 47 My spirit has rejoiced in Elohim my Savior, 48 for He has looked at the humble state of His servant. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed. 49 For He who is mighty has done great things for me. Set-apart is His Name. 50 His loving-kindness is for generations of generations on those who fear Him. 51 He has shown strength with His arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. 52 He has put down princes from their thrones. And has exalted the lowly.^a 53 He has filled the hungry with good things. He has sent the rich away empty. 54 He has given help to Yisra'el, His servant, that he might remember loving-kindness, 55 as He spoke to our fathers, to Avraham and his seed to the age."

56 Miryam stayed with her about three new moons, and then returned to her house.

Birth of Yohanan

57 Now the time that Elisheva should give birth was fulfilled, and she gave birth to a son. 58 Her neighbors and her relatives heard that יהוה^b had magnified His loving-kindness towards her, and they rejoiced with her. 59 On the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zekharyah, after the name of his father. 60 His mother answered, "Not so; but he will be called Yohanan."

61 They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name." 62 They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.

63 He asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is Yohanan." They all marveled. 64 His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing Elohim. 65 Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Yehudah. 66 All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What then will this child be?" The hand of יהוה was with him.

Zekharyah's Words of Praise, Prophecy

67 His father, Zekharyah, was filled with the Set-apart Ruah, and prophesied, saying, 68 "Blessed be יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra'el, for He has visited and redeemed His people; 69 and has raised up a horn of salvation^c for us in the house of His servant David 70 (as He spoke by the mouth of His set-apart prophets who have been from the age), 71 salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us; 72 to show loving-kindness towards our fathers, to remember His set-apart covenant, 73 the oath which He swore to Avraham, our father, 74 to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve Him without fear, 75 in set-apartness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

76 "And you, child, will be called a prophet of Elyon^d, for you will go before יהוה to prepare His ways, 77 to give knowledge of salvation to His people by the remission of their sins, 78 because of the tender loving-kindness of our Elohim, whereby the dawn from on high will visit us, 79 to shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death; to guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 The child was growing, and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the wildernesses until the day of his public appearance to Yisra'el.

Birth of Yeshua

2 Now in those days, a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. 2 This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. 3 All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city. 4 Yoseph also went up from the Galil, out of the city of Nazareth, into Yehudah, to the city of David, which is called Beth-lehem, because he was of the house and family of David; 5 to enroll himself with Miryam, who was betrothed to him, being pregnant.

6 While they were there, the day had come for her to give birth. 7 She gave birth to her Firstborn Son. She wrapped Him in bands of cloth, and laid Him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the guestroom. 8 There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and guarding watch by night over their flock. 9 Behold, a messenger of תִּבְרָא^a stood by them, and the glory of תִּבְרָא^b shone around them, and they feared with great fear. 10 The messenger said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. 11 For there is born to you today, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Messiah the Master^c. 12 This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough." 13 Suddenly, there was with the messenger a multitude of the heavenly army praising Elohim, and saying,

14 "Glory to Elohim in the highest; on earth: peace among whom He is pleased."

15 When the messengers went away from them into the heavens, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go to Beth-lehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which הָיָה has made known to us." 16 They came with haste, and found both Miryam and Yoseph, and the baby was lying in the feeding trough. 17 When they saw it, they made known the saying which was spoken to them about this Child. 18 All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds. 19 But Miryam kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. 20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising Elohim for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

Yeshua's Circumcision and Presentation at the Temple

21 When eight days were fulfilled to circumcise Him, His Name was called שְׁמַעְיָה, which was given by the messenger before He was conceived in the womb.

22 When the days of their purification^b according to the Torah of Moshe were fulfilled, they brought Him up to Yerushalayim, to present Him to 23 יְהוָה (as it is written in the Torah of יְהוָה, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called set-apart to יְהוָה,")^c 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the Torah of תְּלִינָה, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons."^{dn}

25 Behold, there was a man in Yerushalayim whose name was Shimon. This man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Yisra'el, and the Set-apart Ruah was on him. 26 It had been revealed to him by the Set-apart Ruah that he should not see death before he had seen the Messiah of נָתָן. 27 He came in the Ruah into the Temple. When the parents brought in the child, שׁוֹשָׁנָה, that they might do concerning Him according to the custom of the Torah, 28 then he received Him into his arms, and blessed Elohim, and said, 29 "Now You are releasing Your bondservant, Master, according to Your word, in peace; 30 for my eyes have seen Your salvation, 31 which You have prepared before the face of all peoples; 32 a light for revelation to the nations, and the glory of Your people Yisra'el."

33 Yoseph and His mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning Him, 34 and Shimon blessed them, and said to Miryam, his mother, "Behold, this Child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Yisra'el, and for a sign which is spoken against. 35 Yes, a sword will pierce through your own being, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

36 There was one Hannah, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanu'el, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who did not depart from the Temple, serving with fastings and petitions night and day.

דז 38 Coming up at that very hour, giving thanks to God, and spoke of Him to all those who were looking for redemption in Yerushalayim.

39 When they had accomplished all things that were according to the Torah of יהוה, they returned into the Galil, to their own city, Nazareth. 40 The Child was growing, and was becoming strong, being filled with wisdom, and the favor of Elohim was upon Him.

בָּיִת הַמִּזְבֵּחַ in the Temple at Twelve Years Old

41 His parents went every year to Yerushalayim at the Feast of the Pesah. 42 When He was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast, 43 and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy ישׁוּב stayed behind in Yerushalayim. His parents did not know it, 44 but supposing Him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for Him among their relatives and acquaintances. 45 When they did not find ^a 11 Syr. uses the ܡܰܪܝܼ (Mar-ya) instead of "Master" here.

Him, they returned to Yerushalayim, looking for Him. 46 After three days they found Him in the Temple, sitting in the middle of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. 47 All who heard Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers.

48 When they saw Him, they were astonished, and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us this way? Behold, Your father and I were anxiously looking for You."

49 He said to them, "Why were you looking for Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" 50 They did not understand the saying which He spoke to them. 51 And He went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and His mother kept all these sayings in her heart. 52 And שׁוּעַ increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with Elohim and men.

Work of Yohanan the Immerser

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Yehudah, and Herod being tetrarch of the Galil, and his brother Philippos tetrarch of the region of Yetur and Trahonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 in the high priesthood of Hananyah and Qayapha, the word of Elohim came to Yohanan, the son of Zekharyah, in the wilderness. 3 He came into all the region around the Yarden, proclaiming the immersion of repentance for remission of sins. 4 As it is written in the book of the words of Yeshayah the prophet, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make ready the way of הָמְלָאָת. Make His paths straight. 5 Every valley will be filled. Every mountain and hill will be brought low. The crooked will become straight, and the rough ways smooth. 6 All flesh will see the salvation of Elohim."^a

7 He said therefore to the crowds who went out to be immersed by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Avraham for our father;' for I tell you that Elohim is able to raise up children to Avraham from these stones! 9 Even now the ax also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not produce good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

10 The crowds asked him, "What then must we do?"

11 He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

12 Tax collectors also came to be immersed, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?" 13 He said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you." 14 Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?" He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

15 As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning Yohanan, whether perhaps he was the Messiah, 16 Yohanan answered them all, "I indeed immerse you with water, but He comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will immerse you in the Set-apart Ruah and fire, 17 whose fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly cleanse His threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into His barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18 Then with many other exhortations he proclaimed good news to the people, 19 but Herod the tetrarch – being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done – 20 added this also to them all, that he closed up Yohanan in prison.

Immersion of שׁוּעַ

21 Now when all the people were immersed, שׁוּעַ also had been immersed, and was praying. The heavens were opened, 22 and the Set-apart Ruah descended in a bodily form like a dove on Him; and a voice came out of the heavens, saying "You are My beloved Son. In You I am well-pleased."

23 שׁוּעַ himself, when He began to teach, was about thirty years old, being son (as was supposed) of Yoseph, of Eli, 24 of Methuselah, of Levi, of Malki, of Yanna, of Yoseph, 25 of Mattithyahu, of Amos, of Nahum, of Elihoenai, of Nogah, 26 of Ma'ath, of Mattithyahu, of Shimi, of Yoseph, of Yehudah, 27 of Yohanan, of Rephayah, of Zerubbavel, of Shealtiel, of Neri, 28 of Malki, of Addi, of Qasam, of Almodad, of Er, 29 of Yehoshua, of Eliezer, of Yoram, of Methuselah, of Levi, 30 of Shimon, of Yehudah, of Yoseph, of Yonan, of Elyaqim, 31 of Melea, of Menan, of Mattatha, of Nathan, of David, 32 of Yishai, of Oved, of Boaz, of Salmon, of Nahshon, 33 of Amminadav, of Aram, of Hetsron, of Perets, of Yehudah, 34 of Ya'akov, of Yitschaq, of Avraham, of Terah, of Nahor, 35 of Serug, of Reu, of Peleg, of Ever, of Shelah, 36 of Kena'an, of Arpakshad, of Shem, of Noah, of Lamekh, 37 of Methuselah, of Hanokh, of Yared, of Mahalale'l, of Qenan, 38 of Enosh, of Sheth, of Adam, of Elohim.

Temptation of עִישׂוֹן

4 עִישׂוֹן, full of the Set-apart Ruah, returned from the Yarden, and was led by the Ruah into the wilderness 2 for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. When they were completed, He was hungry. 3 The devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of Elohim, command this stone to become bread."

4 עִישׂוֹן answered him, saying, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, [but by every word of Elohim.]^a'"

5 He, leading Him up, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6 The devil said to Him, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want. 7 If You therefore will bow down before me, it will all be Yours."

8 עִישׂוֹן answered him, "[Get behind me Satan!]^b For it is written, 'You shall bow down to יְהוָה your Elohim, and you shall serve Him only.'^c"

9 He led Him to Yerushalayim, and set Him on the pinnacle of the Temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of Elohim, cast Yourself down from here, 10 for it is written, 'He will put His messengers in charge of you, to guard you;'^d 11 and, 'On their hands they will bear you up, lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone.'^d

12 עִישׂוֹן answering, said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt יְהוָה your Elohim.'^e"

13 When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from Him until another time. 14 עִישׂוֹן returned in the power of the Ruah into the Galil, and news about Him spread through all the surrounding area. 15 He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

Teaching in Nazareth

16 He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. He entered, as was His custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. 17 The book of the prophet Yesayahu was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,

18 "The Ruah of יְהוָה is on Me, because He has anointed Me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent Me [to heal the broken hearted],^f to proclaim release to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to deliver those who are crushed, 19 and to proclaim the acceptable year of יְהוָה."^g

20 He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on Him. 21 He began to tell them, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

22 All testified about Him, and wondered at the favorable words which proceeded out of His mouth, and they said, "Is this not Yoseph's son?"

23 He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done at Kaphar-nahum, do also here in your hometown.'"

24 He said, "Most certainly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. 25 But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Yisra'el in the days of Eliyahu, when the heavens were closed up for three years and six new moons, when a great famine came over all the land. 26 Eliyahu was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Tsidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 There were many lepers in Yisra'el in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed except Na'amana, the Aramean."

28 They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. 29 They rose up, threw Him out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw Him off the cliff. 30 But He, passing through the middle of them, went His way.

Demon Cast Out

31 He came down to Kaphar-nahum, a city of the Galil. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, 32 and they were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority. 33 In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 saying, "Ah! what have we to do with You, עִישׂוֹן of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know You and who You are: the Set-apart One of Elohim!"

35 וַיְשִׁיבֵנִי rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in the middle of them, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

36 Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" 37 News about Him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

Healing of Kepha's Mother-in-Law and Others

38 He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Shimon's house. Shimon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged Him for her. 39 He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. 40 When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them. 41 Demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Son of Elohim!" Rebuking them, He did not allow them to speak, because they knew that He was the Messiah.

42 When it was day, He departed and went into a wilderness region, and the crowds looked for Him, and came to Him, and held on to Him, so that He would not go away from them. 43 But He said to them, "I must proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of Elohim to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent." 44 He was proclaiming in the synagogues of Yehudah^a.

The First Talmidim

5 Now while the crowd pressed on Him and heard the word of Elohim, He was standing by the lake of Kinnereth. 2 He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. 3 He entered into one of the boats, which was Shimon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. 4 When He had finished speaking, He said to Shimon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

5 Shimon answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at Your word I will let down the nets." 6 When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. 7 They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But Shimon Kepha, when he saw it, fell down at יְשִׁיעָה's knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Master." 9 For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; 10 and so also were Ya'aqov and Yoḥanan, sons of Zevadyahu, who were partners with Shimon. 11 וַיֹּאמֶר said to Shimon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive."

11 When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed Him.

Healing of a Leper and Paralytic

12 While He was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw יְשִׁיעָה, he fell on his face, and begged Him, saying, "Master, if You want to, You can make me clean."

13 He stretched out His hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy left him. 14 He commanded him to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the priest,^b and offer for your cleansing according to what Mosheh commanded, for a witness to them." 15 But the report concerning Him spread much more, and great crowds came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities. 16 But He withdrew Himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 On one of those days, He was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of the Galil, Yehudah, and Yerushalayim. The power of הַנָּזֵן was with Him to heal. 18 Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before יְשִׁיעָה.

19 Not finding a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the middle before יְשִׁיעָה. 20 Seeing their faith, He said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21 The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but Elohim alone?"

22 But יְשִׁיעָה, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts? 23 Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you;' or to say, 'Arise and walk?' 24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."

^a 44 Later Greek and Syriac texts read, "the Galil" instead of "Yehudah" here.

^b 14 See Vayyiqra 13.

25 Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying Elohim. 26 Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified Elohim. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

Calling of Levi

27 After these things He went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow Me!"

28 He left everything, and rose up and followed Him.

29 Levi made a great feast for Him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. 30 Their scribes and the Pharisees grumbled against His talmidim, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?"

31 ישׁוּעָה answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

33 They said to Him, "Yohanan's talmidim often fast and pray, likewise also the talmidim of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink."

34 He said to them, "Can you make the sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?"

35 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days." 36 He also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a renewed garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the renewed, and also the piece from the renewed will not match the old. 37 No one puts new wine into old wine skins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. 38 But new wine must be put into renewed wine skins. 39 No man having drunk old wine desires new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

Master of the Sabbath

6 Now on the Sabbath, He was going through the grain fields. His talmidim plucked the heads of grain and ate, rubbing them in their hands. 2 But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?"

3 ישׁוּעָה, answering them, said, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him; 4 how he entered into the house of Elohim, and took and ate the set-apart^b bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?"^c 5 He said to them, "The Son of Man is Master of the Sabbath."

6 It also happened on another Sabbath that He entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered. 7 The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether He would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against Him. 8 But He knew their thoughts; and He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise up, and stand in the middle." He arose and stood. 9 Then ישׁוּעָה said to them, "I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to destroy?" 10 He looked around at them all, and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did, and his hand was restored [as the other]^d. 11 But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to ישׁוּעָה.

Choosing the Twelve

12 In these days, He went out to the mountain to pray, and He continued all night in prayer to Elohim.

13 When it was day, He called His talmidim, and from them He chose twelve, whom He also named shelihim:

14 Shimon, whom He also named Kepha; Andreas, his brother; Ya'aqov; Yohanan; Philippos; Bar-Talmai;

15 Mattithyahu; Taom; Ya'aqov, the son of Heleph; Shimon, who was called the Zealot; 16 Yehudah the son of Ya'aqov; and Yehudah Ish-Qerioth, who also became a traitor. 17 He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a large crowd of His talmidim, and a great number of the people from all Yehudah and Yerushalayim, and the sea coast of Tsur and Tsidon, who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases; 18 as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed. 19 All the crowd sought to touch Him, for power came out of Him and healed them all.

20 He lifted up His eyes to His talmidim, and said, "Blessed are you who are poor, the Kingdom of Elohim is yours.

21 "Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

22 "Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake. 23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.

24 "But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation. 25 Woe to you, you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep. 26 Woe, when men speak well of you, for their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.

27 "But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you. 29 To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your coat also. 30 Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.

31 "As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them. 32 If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. 33 If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. 34 If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much. 35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of Elyon^a, for He is kind toward the unthankful and evil.

36 "Therefore be kind, even as your Father is also kind. 37 Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Set free, and you will be set free.

38 "Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you. For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you."

39 He spoke a parable to them. "Can the blind guide the blind? Will they both not fall into a pit? 40 A talmid is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. 41 Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye, but do not consider the beam that is in your own eye? 42 Or how can you tell your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye. 43 For there is no good tree that produces bad fruit; nor again a bad tree that produces good fruit. 44 For each tree is known from its own fruit. For people do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. 45 The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings out that which is good, and the evil man brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.

Builders and Foundations

46 "Why do you call Me, 'Master, Master,' and do not do the things which I say?^b 47 Everyone who comes to Me, and hears My words, and does them, I will show you who he is like. 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was built well. 49 But he who hears, and does not do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

Healing of a Centurion's Servant

7 After He had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, He entered into Kaphar-nahum. 2 A certain centurion's bondservant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. 3 When he heard about יְשֻׁרִין, he sent to Him elders of the Yehudim, asking Him to come and save his bondservant. 4 When they came to יְשֻׁרִין, they begged Him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for You to do this for him, 5 for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us." 6 יְשֻׁרִין went with them. When He was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, "Master, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy for You to come under my roof. 7 Therefore I did not even think myself worthy to come to You; but say the word, and my servant will be healed. 8 For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my bondservant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9 When יְשֻׁרִין heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned and said to the crowd who followed Him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Yisra'el." 10 Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the bondservant who had been sick was well.

11 Soon afterwards, He went to a city called Na'ah. His talmidim, along with a great crowd, went with Him.

^a 35 עֶלְיוֹן (Elyon) – Hebrew word meaning "Most High." One of the Titles of הָרָה.

^b 46 See also Malakhi 1:6.

12 Now when He came near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only begotten son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her. 13 When the Master saw her, He had compassion on her, and said to her, "Do not cry." 14 He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" 15 He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother.

16 Fear took hold of all, and they glorified Elohim, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "Elohim has visited His people!" 17 This report went out concerning Him in the whole of Yehudah, and in all the surrounding region.

Questions from Yohanan

18 The talmidim of Yohanan told him about all these things. 19 Yohanan, calling to himself two of his talmidim, sent them to עִירָה, saying, "Are You the one who is coming, or should we look for another?"

20 When the men had come to him, they said, "Yohanan the Immerser has sent us to You, saying, 'Are You He who comes, or should we look for another?'"

21 In that hour He cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind He gave sight. 22 עִירָה answered them, "Go and tell Yohanan the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news proclaimed to them."^a

23 Blessed is he who does not stumble in Me."

24 When Yohanan's messengers had departed, he began to tell the crowds about Yohanan, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. 26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You.'^b

28 "For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Yohanan, yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Elohim is greater than he."

29 When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared Elohim to be just, having been immersed with Yohanan's immersion. 30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of Elohim, not being immersed by him themselves.

31 "To what then will I liken the people of this generation? What are they like? 32 They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call to one another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you did not dance. We mourned, and you did not weep.' 33 For Yohanan the Immerser came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35 Wisdom is justified by all her children."

36 One of the Pharisees invited Him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat at the table.

37 Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that He was reclining in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. 38 Standing behind at His feet weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed His feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if He were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches Him, that she is a sinner."

Parable of Two Debtors

40 שִׁמְעוֹן answered him, "Shimon, I have something to tell you." He said, "Teacher, say on."

41 "A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 When they could not pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?"

43 Shimon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most." He said to him, "You have judged correctly."

44 Turning to the woman, He said to Shimon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has wet My feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45 You gave Me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss My feet. 46 You did not anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with ointment. 47 Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little." 48 He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

49 Those who sat at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

^a 22 See Yeshayahu 35:5; 61:1-2.

^b 27 See Malakhi 3:1.

50 He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Service of Women

8 Soon afterwards, He went about through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the Kingdom of Elohim. With Him were the twelve, 2 and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Miryam who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; 3 and Yoanna, the wife of Huzas, Herod's steward; Shoshannah; and many others; who served them from their possessions.

4 When a great crowd came together, and people from every city were coming to Him, He spoke by a parable.

Parable of the Sower

5 "The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the heavens devoured it. 6 Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. 7 Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.

8 Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and produced one hundred times as much fruit." As He said these things, He called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

9 Then His talmidim asked Him, "What does this parable mean?"

10 He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Elohim, but to the rest it is given in parables; that 'seeing they may not perceive, and hearing they may not understand.'^a 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of Elohim. 12 Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. 14 That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15 Those in the good ground, these are those who with an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and produce fruit with perseverance.

Teaching about the Lamp

6 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. 17 For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret that will not be known and come to light. 18 Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

19 His mother and brothers came to Him, and they could not come near Him for the crowd. 20 Some people told Him, "Your mother and Your brothers stand outside, desiring to see You."

21 But He answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of Elohim, and do it."

Calming of the Storm

22 Now on one of those days, He entered into a boat, Himself and His talmidim, and He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. 23 But as they sailed, He fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. 24 They came to Him, and awoke Him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm. 25 He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying to one another, "Who is this then, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?" 26 They arrived at the country of the Gergashites, which is opposite the Galil.

Demons Cast Out into Swine

27 When שָׁוֹעַ stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met Him. He wore no clothes, and did not live in a house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw שְׁאוּל, he cried out, and fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with You, שְׁאוּל, You Son of El Elyon^b? I beg You, do not torment me!" 29 For שְׁאוּל was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was guarded, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bonds apart, he was driven by the demon into the wildernesses.

30 שְׁאוּל asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him.

31 They begged Him that He would not command them to go into the abyss. 32 Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain, and they begged Him that He would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them. 33 The demons came out of the man, and entered into the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. 34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

^a 10 See Yeshayahu 6:9.

^b 28 עֶלְיוֹן (Elyon) – Hebrew word meaning "Most High." One of the Titles of הָאֱלֹהִים.

35 People went out to see what had happened. They came to יִשְׁעָה, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at יִשְׁעָה's feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 36 Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was saved. 37 All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked Him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned. 38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged Him that he might go with Him, but יִשְׁעָה sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your house, and declare what great things Elohim has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things יִשְׁעָה had done for him.

Miracles of Healing

40 When יִשְׁעָה returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him. 41 Behold, there came a man named Yair, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at יִשְׁעָה's feet, and begged Him to come into his house, 42 for he had an only begotten daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as He went, the crowds pressed against Him. 43 A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, [who had spent all her living on physicians,]^a and could not be healed by any, 44 came behind Him, and touched the tsitsit of His cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped.

45 يִשְׁעָה said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Kepha and those with him said, "Master, the crowds press and jostle You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"

46 But יִשְׁעָה said, "Someone did touch Me, for I perceived that power has gone out of Me." 47 When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before Him declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she was healed immediately. 48 He said to her, "Daughter, take courage. Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

49 While He still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher."

50 But יִשְׁעָה hearing it, answered him, "Do not be afraid. Only believe, and she will be saved." 51 When He came to the house, He did not allow anyone to enter in, except Kepha, Yohanan, Ya'aqov, the father of the child, and her mother. 52 All were weeping and mourning her, but He said, "Do not weep. She is not dead, but sleeping."

53 They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead. 54 But He put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, He called, saying, "Child, arise!" 55 Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat. 56 Her parents were amazed, but He commanded them to tell no one what had been done.

Authority of the Twelve

9 He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.

2 He sent them out to proclaim the Kingdom of Elohim and to heal the sick. 3 He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey—neither staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats each. 4 Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there. 5 As many as do not receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a witness against them."

6 They departed, and went throughout the villages, proclaiming the good news, and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that Yohanan had risen from the dead, 8 and by some that Eliyahu had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. 9 Herod said, "Yohanan I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" He sought to see Him.

10 The shelihim, when they had returned, told Him what things they had done. He took them, and withdrew apart to a city called Beth-tsaida. 11 But the crowds, perceiving it, followed Him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of the Kingdom of Elohim, and He cured those who needed healing. 12 The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to Him, "Send the crowd away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a wilderness region."

Feeding Five Thousand

13 But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people." 14 For they were about five thousand men. He said to His talmidim, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15 They did so, and made them all sit down.

^a 43 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek and Syriac texts.

16 He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the heavens, He blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the talmidim to set before the crowd.

17 They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

18 As he was praying alone, the talmidim were with Him, and He asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" 19 They answered, "'Yohanan the Immerser,' but others say, 'Eliyahu,' and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again."

20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Kepha answered, "The Messiah of Elohim."

21 But He warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, 22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

23 He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his stake daily, and follow Me. 24 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for My sake, the same will save it. 25 For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? 26 For whoever will be ashamed of Me and of My words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when He comes in His glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the set-apart messengers. 27 But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Kingdom of Elohim."

Vision of Transformation

28 About eight days after these sayings, He took with Him Kepha, Yohanan, and Ya'aqov, and went up onto the mountain to pray. 29 As He was praying, the appearance of His face was altered, and His clothing became white and dazzling. 30 Behold, two men were talking with Him, who were Mosheh and Eliyahu, 31 who appeared in glory, and spoke of His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Yerushalayim.

32 Now Kepha and those who were with Him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw His glory, and the two men who stood with Him.

33 As they were parting from Him, Kepha said to יְהוָה, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tents: one for You, and one for Mosheh, and one for Eliyahu," not knowing what he said.

34 While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. 35 A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, My Chosen One. Listen to Him!" 36 When the voice came, יְהוָה was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met Him. 38 Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, for he is my only begotten child."

39 Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. 40 I begged your talmidim to cast it out, and they could not."

41 יְהוָה answered, "Unfaithful and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

42 While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But יְהוָה rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43 They were all astonished at the majesty of Elohim. But while all were marveling at all the things which יְהוָה did, He said to his talmidim, 44 "Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men." 45 But they did not understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

Test of Greatness

46 There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. 47 יְהוָה, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by His side, 48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in My Name receives Me. Whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."

49 Yohanan answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your Name, and we forbade him, because he does not follow with us." 50 יְהוָה said to him, "Do not forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us."

51 It came to be, when the days were near for His ascension, He intently set His face to go to Yerushalayim, 52 and sent messengers before His face. They went, and entered into a village of the Shom'ronites, so as to prepare for Him. 53 They did not receive Him, because He was traveling with His face set towards Yerushalayim. 54 When His talmidim, Ya'aqov and Yohanan, saw this, they said, "Master, do You want us to command fire to come down from the heavens, and destroy them?"^a

55 But He turned and rebuked them, [and said, "You do not know of what kind of spirit you are; 56 for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."]^b And they went to another village. 57 As they went on the way, a certain man said to Him, "I want to follow You wherever You go, Master."

Cost of Following יִשְׁעָה

58 יִשְׁעָה said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heavens have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

59 He said to another, "Follow Me!" But he said, "Master, allow me first to go and bury my father."

60 But יִשְׁעָה said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce the Kingdom of Elohim."

61 Another also said, "I want to follow You, Master, but first allow me to say good-bye to those who are at my house."

62 But יִשְׁעָה said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of Elohim."

Seventy-Two Sent Out

10 Now after these things, the Master also appointed seventy-two^c others, and sent them two by two ahead of Him into every city and place, where He was about to come. 2 Then He said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Master of the harvest, that He may send out laborers into His harvest. 3 Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. 4 Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. 5 Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' 6 If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. 7 Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house. 8 Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. 9 Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, 'The Kingdom of Elohim has come near to you.' 10 But into whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say, 11 'Even the dust from your city that clings to our feet, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this: the Kingdom of Elohim has come near to you.' 12 I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.

13 "Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Beth-tsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tsor and Tsidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it will be more tolerable for Tsor and Tsidon in the judgment than for you. 15 You, Kaphar-nahum, you will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down to Sheol. 16 Whoever listens to you listens to Me, and whoever rejects you rejects Me. Whoever rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

The Seventy-Two Return with Joy

17 The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Master, even the demons are subject to us in Your Name!"

18 He said to them, "I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in the heavens."

21 In that same hour יִשְׁעָה rejoiced in the Set-apart Ruah, and said, "I thank You, O Father, Master of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in Your eyes."

22 "All things have been delivered to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal Him."

23 Turning to the talmidim, He said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see, 24 for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and did not see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and did not hear them."

25 Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life?"

26 He said to him, "What is written in the Torah? How do you read it?"

27 He answered, "You shall love יְהוָה your Elohim with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.^a 28 He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."

29 But he, desiring to justify himself, asked יְשֻׁעָה, "Who is my neighbor?"

The Good Shom'ronite

30 יְשֻׁעָה answered, "A certain man was going down from Yerushalayim to Yeriho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Shom'ronite, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw, he was moved with compassion, 34 came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 On the next day he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' 36 Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

37 He said, "He who showed loving-kindness to him." Then יְשֻׁעָה said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Martha and Miryam

38 As they went on their way, He entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received Him. 39 She had a sister called Miryam, who also sat at the feet of יְשֻׁעָה, and heard His word. 40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came up to Him, and said, "Master, do you not care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."

41 יְשֻׁעָה answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, 42 but one thing is needed. Miryam has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."

Teaching about Prayer

11 When He finished praying in a certain place, one of His talmidim said to Him, "Master, teach us to pray, just as Yoḥanan also taught his talmidim."

2 He said to them, "When you pray, say, '[Our]^b Father [in the heavens], may Your Name be kept set-apart. May Your Kingdom come. [May Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.]

3 "Give us each day our daily bread. 4 Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. Bring us not into temptation, [but deliver us from the evil one]."

5 He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, 6 for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,' 7 and he from within will answer and say, 'Do not bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give it to you?' 8 I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

9 "I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. 10 For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.

11 "Which of you fathers, if your son asks for [bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for]^c a fish, he will not give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? 12 Or if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? 13 If you then, being wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Set-apart Ruah to those who ask Him?"

A House Divided

14 He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the crowds marveled. 15 But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons." 16 Others, testing Him, sought from him a sign from heaven. 17 But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls. 18 If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. 19 But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges. 20 But if I by the finger of Elohim cast out demons, then the Kingdom of Elohim has come to you.

21 "When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe. 22 But when someone stronger attacks him and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he believed, and divides his plunder.

23 "He that is not with Me is against Me. He who does not gather with Me scatters. 24 The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, 'I will turn back to my house from which I came out.' 25 When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order. 26 Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

27 It came about, as He said these things, a certain woman out of the crowd lifted up her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!"

28 But He said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of Elohim, and guard it."

The Sign of Yonah

29 When the crowds were gathering together to him, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Yonah [the prophet]^a. 30 For even as Yonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation. 31 The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Shalomoh; and behold, one greater than Shalomoh is here. 32 The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the proclaiming of Yonah, and behold, one greater than Yonah is here.

33 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light. 34 The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. 35 Therefore see whether the light that is in you is not darkness. 36 If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light."

Woes to the Pharisees

37 Now as He spoke, a Pharisee asked Him to dine with Him. He went in, and sat at the table. 38 When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed Himself before dinner. 39 The Master said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40 You foolish ones, did He who made the outside not make the inside also? 41 But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you. 42 But woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces. 44 Woe to you, [scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!]^b For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them do not know it."

45 One of the lawyers answered Him, "Teacher, in saying this you insult us also."

46 He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves will not even lift one finger to help carry those burdens. 47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 So you are witnesses and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs. 49 Therefore also the wisdom of Elohim said, 'I will send to them prophets and shelohim; and some of them they will kill and persecute, 50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51 from the blood of Havel to the blood of Zekharyah, who perished between the altar and the set-apart place.' Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. 52 Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered."

53 As He went away from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of Him; 54 lying in wait for Him, and seeking to catch Him in something He might say, that they might accuse Him.

Leaven of the Pharisees

12 Meanwhile, when a crowd of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, He began to tell His talmidim first of all, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known. 3 Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Fear Elohim

4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear Him, who after He has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear Him.

6 "Are five sparrows not sold for two cents? Not one of them is forgotten by Elohim. 7 But the very hairs of your head are all counted. Therefore do not be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.

8 "I tell you, everyone who confesses Me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the messengers of Elohim; 9 but he who denies Me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the messengers of Elohim. 10 Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Set-apart Ruah will not be forgiven. 11 When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say; 12 for the Set-apart Ruah will teach you in that same hour what you must say."

13 One of the people of the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

14 But He said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or a divider over you?" 15 He said to them, "Beware! Guard yourselves against all covetousness, for a man's life does not consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses."

Parable of the Rich Fool

16 He spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man produced abundantly. 17 He reasoned within himself, saying, 'What will I do, because I do not have room to store my crops?' 18 He said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all the grain and my goods. 19 I will tell my being, "Being, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.""

20 "But Elohim said to him, 'You foolish one, tonight your being is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?' 21 So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward Elohim."

Teaching about Worry

22 He said to His talmidim, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. 23 Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens: they do not sow, they do not reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and Elohim feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds! 25 Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his height? 26 If then you are not able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow. They do not toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Shalomoh in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 But if this is how Elohim clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith? 29 Do not seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious. 30 For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things. 31 But seek His Kingdom, and these things will be added to you. 32 Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. 33 Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Be Ready for Service

35 "Let your waist be dressed and your lamps burning.

36 Be like men watching for their master, when he returns from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him.

37 Blessed are those bondservants, whom the master will find watching when he comes. Most certainly I tell you, that he will dress himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them. 38 They will be blessed whether he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so. 39 But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have [watched, and]^a not allowed his house to be broken into. 40 Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you do not expect him."

41 Kepha said to Him, "Master, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?"

42 The Master said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times?

43 Blessed is that bondservant whom his master will find doing so when he comes. 44 Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has. 45 But if that bondservant says in his heart, 'My master delays his coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken, 46 then the master of that bondservant will come in a day when he is not expecting him, and in an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful. 47 That bondservant, who knew his master's will, and did not prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, 48 but he who did not know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked.

Not Peace, but Division

49 "I came to throw fire on the earth. I desire that it were already kindled. 50 But I have an immersion to be immersed with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! 51 Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. 52 For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. 53 They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54 He said to the crowds also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens. 55 When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens. 56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the heavens, but how is it that you do not interpret this time? 57 Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? 58 For when you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be released from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. 59 I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last penny."

Call to Repent

13 Now there were some present at the same time who told Him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 יעשׂ answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered these things? 3 I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way. 4 Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Shiloah fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Yerushalayim? 5 I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way."

6 He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none. 7 He said to the vine dresser, 'Behold, these three years now I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?' 8 He answered, 'Master, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it. 9 If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.'"

Healing on the Sabbath

10 He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day. 11 Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up. 12 When יעשׂ saw her, He called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." 13 He laid His hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified Elohim.

14 The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because יעשׂ had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!"

15 Therefore the Master answered him, "You hypocrites! Does each one of you not free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water? 16 Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Avraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

17 As He said these things, all His adversaries were disappointed, and all the crowd rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him.

Parable of the Mustard Seed; Parable of Leaven

18 He said, "What is the Kingdom of Elohim like? To what shall I compare it? 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a tree, and the birds of the heavens live in its branches."

20 Again He said, "To what shall I compare the Kingdom of Elohim? 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened."

Teaching in Villages

22 He went on His way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Yerushalayim. 23 One said to Him, "Master, are they few who are saved?" He said to them, 24 "Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. 25 When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, 'Master, open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I do not know you or where you come from.' 26 Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' 27 He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of lawlessness.' 28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Avraham, Yitshaq, Ya'aqov, and all the prophets, in the Kingdom of Elohim, and yourselves being thrown outside. 29 They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in the Kingdom of Elohim. 30 Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."

31 In that same hour some Pharisees came, saying to Him, "Get out of here, and go away, for Herod wants to kill You."

32 He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform healings today and tomorrow, and the third day I will be perfected. 33 Nevertheless I must go on My way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it cannot be that a prophet would perish outside of Yerushalayim.'

34 "Yerushalayim, Yerushalayim, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused! 35 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see Me, until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the Name of יהיְה!'^a"

Healing on the Sabbath

14 When He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching Him. 2 Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of Him. 3 שׁוּעַ, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?"

4 But they were silent. He took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5 He answered them, "Which of you, if your son or an ox fell into a well, would not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

6 They could not answer Him regarding these things.

Parable of the Wedding Feast

7 He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when He noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, 8 "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, 9 and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored before all who sit at the table with you. 11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

12 He also said to the one who had invited Him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, do not call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. 13 But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind; 14 and you will be blessed, because they do not have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."

15 When one of those who sat at the table with Him heard these things, he said to Him, "Blessed is he who will eat bread in the Kingdom of Elohim!"

Parable of the Supper

16 But He said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people. 17 He sent out his bondservant at supper time to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.' 18 They all as one began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.' 19 Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.' 20 Another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' 21 That bondservant came, and told his master these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his bondservant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.'

22 "The bondservant said, 'Master, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.'

23 "The master said to the bondservant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'"

^a 35 See Tehillim 118:26.

25 Now great crowds were going with him. He turned and said to them, 26 "If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My talmid. 27 Whoever does not bear his own stake, and come after Me, cannot be My talmid. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? 29 Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, 30 saying, 'This man began to build, and was not able to finish.' 31 Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace. 33 So therefore whoever of you who does not renounce all that he has, he cannot be My talmid. 34 Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it? 35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Lost Sheep

15 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to Him to hear Him. 2 The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."

3 He told them this parable: 4 "Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, would not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? 5 When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!' 7 "I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.

Lost Coin

8 "Or what woman, if she had ten drachma coins, if she lost one drachma coin, would not light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it? 9 When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.' 10 Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the messengers of Elohim over one sinner repenting."

Prodigal Son

11 He said, "A certain man had two sons. 12 The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of your property.' He divided his livelihood between them. 13 Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living. 14 When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. 15 He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. 16 He wanted to be satisfied from the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. 17 But when he came to himself he said, 'How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough to spare, and I am dying with hunger! 18 I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your eyes. 19 I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants."

20 "He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. 21 The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your eyes. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 "But the father said to his bondservants, 'Quickly, bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened calf, slaughter it, and let us eat, and celebrate; 24 for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' They began to celebrate.

25 "Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. 27 He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.' 28 But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him. 29 But he answered his father, 'Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a command of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. 30 But when your son came, who has devoured your living with whores, you slaughtered the fattened calf for him.'

31 "He said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. 32 But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and lived. He was lost, and is found.'"

The Unrighteous Steward

16 He also said to His talmidim, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. 2 He called him, and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.'

3 "The manager said within himself, 'What will I do, seeing that my master is taking away the management position from me? I do not have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. 4 I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.' 5 Calling each one of his master's debtors to him, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my master?' 6 He said, 'A hundred baths of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' 7 Then he said to another, 'How much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred cors of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

8 "His master commended the dishonest manager because he had done wisely, for the children of this age are, in their own generation, wiser than the children of the light. 9 I tell you, make for yourselves friends from means of unrighteous mammon, so that when it fails, they may receive you into the everlasting tents. 10 He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. 11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will entrust to you the true riches? 12 If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? 13 No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You are not able to serve Elohim and mammon."

14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at Him. 15 He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but Elohim knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of Elohim. 16 The Torah and the prophets were until Yohanan. From that time the good news of the Kingdom of Elohim is proclaimed, and everyone is forcing his way into it. 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one stroke^a of a pen in the Torah to fall. 18 Everyone who sends away his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is sent away from a husband commits adultery.

Elazar and the Rich Man

19 "Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. 20 A certain beggar, named Elazar, was taken to his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 The beggar died, and he was carried away by the messengers to Avraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. 23 In Sheol, he lifted up his eyes, being in trial^b, and saw Avraham far off, and Elazar at his bosom. 24 He cried and said, 'Father Avraham, be kind to me, and send Elazar, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.'

25 "But Avraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Elazar, in the same way, bad things. But here he is now comforted, and you are in anguish. 26 Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that no one may cross over from there to us.'

27 "He said, 'I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house; 28 for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they will not also come into this place of torment.'

29 "But Avraham said to him, 'They have Mosheh and the prophets. Let them listen to them.'

30 "He said, 'No, father Avraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

31 "He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Mosheh and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.'"

Teachings about Forgiveness, Faith

17 He said to the talmidim, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! 2 It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Be careful. If your brother sins [against you]^c, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. 4 If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

5 The shelihim said to the Master, "Increase our faith."

6 The Master said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. 7 But who is there among you, having a bondservant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table,' 8 and will not rather tell him, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink?' 9 Does he thank that bondservant because he did the things that were commanded? 10 Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy bondservants. We have done our duty.'"

^a 17 See footnote at Mattithyahu 5:18.

Ten Lepers Cleansed

11 As He was on His way to Yerushalayim, He was passing along the borders of Shom'ron and the Galil.

12 As He entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met Him, who stood at a distance. 13 They lifted up their voices, saying, "עָזָזֶל, Master, be kind to us!"

14 When He saw them, He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." As they went, they were cleansed. 15 One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying Elohim with a loud voice. 16 He fell on his face at the feet of שׁוֹבֵן, giving Him thanks; and he was a Shom'ronite. 17 שׁוֹבֵן answered, "Were not the ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18 Were there none found who returned to give glory to Elohim, except this stranger?" 19 Then He said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has saved you."

20 Being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of Elohim would come, He answered them, "The Kingdom of Elohim does not come with observation; 21 neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 'there!' for behold, the Kingdom of Elohim is within you."

Return of the Son of Man

22 He said to the talmidim, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23 They will tell you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Do not go away, nor follow after them, 24 for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the heavens, shines to the other part under the heavens; so will the Son of Man be in His day. 25 But first, He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. 26 As it was in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise, even as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29 but in the day that Lot went out from Sedom, it^a rained fire and sulfur from the heavens, and destroyed them all. 30 It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed. 31 In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back. 32 Remember Lot's wife! 33 Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it. 34 I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. 35 There will be two women grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other will be left. 36 [Two men will be in the field; one will be taken, the other will be left.]^b 37 They, answering, asked him, "Where, Master?" He said to them, "Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together."

Parables on Prayer

18 He also spoke a parable to them that it is necessary for them to always pray, and not give up, 2 saying, "There was a judge in a certain city who did not fear Elohim, and did not respect man. 3 A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, 'Defend me from my adversary!' 4 He would not for a while, but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear Elohim, nor respect man, 5 yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.'"

6 The Master said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. 7 Will not Elohim avenge His chosen ones, who are crying out to Him day and night, and yet He exercises patience with them? 8 I tell you that He will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9 He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. 10 Two men went up into the Temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: 'Elohim, I thank You that I am not like the rest of men, extortionists, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.' 13 But the tax collector, standing far away, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'Elohim, be kind to me, a sinner!' 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

15 They were also bringing their babies to Him, that He might touch them. But when the talmidim saw it, they rebuked them. 16 שׁוֹשָׁן summoned them, saying, "Allow the little children to come to me, and do not hinder them, for the Kingdom of Elohim belongs to such as these. 17 Most certainly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of Elohim like a little child, he will in no way enter into it."

Rich Ruler

18 A certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life?"

19 שׁוֹשָׁן asked him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—Elohim. 20 You know the commands: 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not give false witness,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'^a"

21 He said, "I have guarded all these things from my youth up."

22 When שׁוֹשָׁן heard, He said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come, follow Me."

23 But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

24 שׁוֹשָׁן, seeing that he became very sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of Elohim! 25 For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of Elohim."

26 Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"

27 But He said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with Elohim."

28 Kepha said, "Look, we have left all our possessions, and followed You."

29 He said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of Elohim, 30 who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come, everlasting life."

31 He took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Yerushalayim, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. 32 For He will be delivered up to the nations, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. 33 They will scourge and kill Him. On the third day, He will rise again."

34 They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things that were said.

Blind Man Healed

35 As He came near Yericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. 36 Hearing a crowd going by, he asked what this meant. 37 They told him that שׁוֹשָׁן of Nazareth was passing by. 38 He cried out, "שׁוֹשָׁן, You son of David, be kind to me!" 39 Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "You son of David, be kind to me!"

40 Standing still, שׁוֹשָׁן commanded him to be brought to Him. When he had come near, He asked him, 41 "What do you want Me to do?" He said, "Master, that I may see again."

42 שׁוֹשָׁן said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has saved you."

43 Immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying Elohim. All the people, when they saw it, praised Elohim.

Zakai the Tax Collector

19 He entered and was passing through Yericho.

2 There was a man named Zakai. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3 He was trying to see who שׁוֹשָׁן was, and could not because of the crowd, because he was short. 4 He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. 5 When שׁוֹשָׁן came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zakai, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." 6 He hurried, came down, and received Him joyfully. 7 When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."

8 Zakai stood and said to the Master, "Behold, Master, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."

9 שׁוֹשָׁן said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Avraham. 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

^a See Shemot 20:12-16; Devarim 5:16-20.

Parable of Ten Minas

11 As they heard these things, He went on and told a parable, because He was near Yerushalayim, and they supposed that the Kingdom of Elohim would be revealed immediately. 12 He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 He called ten bondservants of his, and gave them ten mina coins, and told them, 'Conduct business until I come.' 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.'

15 "When he had come back again, having received the kingdom, he commanded these bondservants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business. 16 The first came before him, saying, 'Master, your mina has made ten more minas.'

17 "He said to him, 'Well done, you good bondservant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.'

18 "The second came, saying, 'Your mina, Master, has made five minas.'

19 "So he said to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.' 20 Another came, saying, 'Master, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief, 21 for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you did not lay down, and reap that which you did not sow.'

22 "He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you evil bondservant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I did not lay down, and reaping that which I did not sow. 23 Then why did you not deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?' 24 He said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.'

25 "They said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas!' 26 For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who does not have, even that which he has will be taken away. 27 But bring those enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me."

Entering Yerushalayim

28 Having said these things, He went on ahead, going up to Yerushalayim. 29 When He came near to Beth-phag and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, He sent two of his talmidim, 30 saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, which no man had ever sat upon. Untie it, and bring it. 31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say to him: 'The Master needs it.'

32 Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them. 33 As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34 They said, "The Master needs it." 35 They brought it to עַזְוָן. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set עַזְוָן on them. 36 As he went, they spread their cloaks on the road. 37 As He was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the talmidim began to rejoice and praise Elohim with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen, 38 saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the Name of מֶלֶךְ! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!"

39 Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your talmidim!"

40 He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

Weeping for Yerushalayim

41 When He came near, He saw the city and wept over it, 42 saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side, 44 and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you did not know the time of your visitation."

Driving the Money Changers out of the Temple

45 He entered into the Temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it, 46 saying to them, "It is written, 'My house will be a house of prayer,^a but you have made it a 'den of robbers!^b'"

47 He was teaching daily in the Temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy Him. 48 They could not find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that He said.

Authority of עַזְוָן Questioned

20 On one of those days, as He was teaching the people in the Temple and proclaiming the good news, the chief priests and scribes came to Him with the elders. 2 They asked Him, "Tell us: by what authority do

^a 46 See Yeshayahu 56:7.

^b 46 See Yirmeyahu 7:11.

You do these things? Or who is giving You this authority?"

3 He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me: 4 the immersion of Yohanan, was it from heaven, or from men?"

5 They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why did you not believe him?' 6 But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that Yohanan was a prophet." 7 They answered that they did not know where it was from.

8 יעשׂ said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

Parable of the Vineyard

9 He began to tell the people this parable. "A man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time. 10 At the proper season, he sent a bondservant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 He sent yet another bondservant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out. 13 The master of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that they will respect him.'

14 "But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.' 15 They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the master of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others." When they heard it, they said, "May it never be!"

17 But He looked at them, and said, "Then what is this that is written, 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the chief cornerstone.'^a 18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it falls on to dust."

Render to Caesar the things of Caesar

19 The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him that very hour, but they feared the people—for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.

20 They watched Him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap Him in something He said, so as to deliver Him up to the power and authority of the governor. 21 They asked Him, "Teacher, we know that You say and teach what is right, and You are not partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of Elohim. 22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

23 But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "[Why do you test Me?]^b 24 Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?" They answered, "Caesar's." 25 He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to Elohim the things of Elohim."

26 And they were not able to seize Him in His words before the people. They marveled at His answer, and were silent.

Sadducees Question the Resurrection

27 Some of the Sadducees came to Him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. 28 They asked Him, "Teacher, Mosheh wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed for his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. 30 The second [took her as wife, and he died childless].^c 31 And the third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."

34 ישׂרָאֵל said to them, "The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage. 35 But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. 36 For they cannot die any more, for they are like the messengers, and are children of Elohim, being children of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Mosheh showed at the bush, when he called אֱלֹהִים אֶבְרָהָם, אֱלֹהִים יַעֲקֹב,^d 38 Now He is not the Elohim of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to Him."

39 Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, You speak well." 40 They did not dare to ask Him any more questions.

Whose Son is Messiah?

41 He said to them, "Why do they say that the Messiah is David's son? 42 David himself says in the book of Psalms, 'לְכָלְךָ כִּי תְּדַבֵּר מִלְּפָנֵיךְ' said to my Master, "Sit at My right hand, 43 until I make Your enemies the footstool of Your feet.^a 44 David therefore calls Him Master, so how is He his son?"

Beware of the Scribes

45 In the hearing of all the people, He said to His talmidim, 46 "Beware of those scribes who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at Feasts; 47 who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater judgment."

Widow's Copper Coins

21 He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury. 2 He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small copper coins. 3 He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them, 4 for all these put in gifts [for Elohim]^b from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on."

5 As some were talking about the Temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, He said, 6 "As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."

7 They asked Him, "Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?"

8 He said, "Watch out that you do not get led astray, for many will come in My Name, saying, 'I am,' and, 'The time is at hand.' Therefore do not follow them. 9 When you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end will not come immediately."

Things to Come

10 Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11 There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. 12 But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for My Name's sake. 13 It will turn out as a witness for you. 14 Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, 15 for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. 16 You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death. 17 You will be hated by all men for My Name's sake. 18 And not a hair of your head will perish.

19 "By your endurance you will win your lives.

20 "But when you see Yerushalayim surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand. 21 Then let those who are in Yehudah flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the middle of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein. 22 For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. 24 They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Yerushalayim will be trampled down by the nations, until the times of the nations are fulfilled.

Return of the Son of Man

25 There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves; 26 men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 27 Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.^c 28 But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."

29 He told them a parable. "See the fig tree, and all the trees. 30 When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. 31 Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of Elohim is near. 32 Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all are accomplished. 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

34 "So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. 35 For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. 36 Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

37 Every day ישָׁר^d was teaching in the Temple, and every night He would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. 38 All the people came early in the morning to Him in the Temple to hear Him.

Plot to Kill ḥuwd'

22 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Pesah, was approaching. 2 The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put Him to death, for they feared the people. 3 Satan entered into Yehudah, who was also called Ish-Qerioth, who was counted with the twelve. 4 He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver Him to them. 5 They were glad, and agreed to give him money. 6 He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver Him to them in the absence of the crowd.

Last Supper

7 The Day of Unleavened Bread came, on which the Pesah must be slaughtered. 8 He sent Kepha and Yoḥanan, saying, "Having gone, prepare the Pesah for us, that we might eat."

9 They said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare?"

10 He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters. 11 Tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, 'Where is the guest room, in which I might eat the Pesah with My talmidim?'" 12 He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there."

13 They went, found things as He had told them, and they prepared the Pesah. 14 When the hour had come, He reclined with His shelihim. 15 He said to them, "With desire I have desired to eat this Pesah with you before I suffer, 16 for I tell you, I will by no means eat of it until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of Elohim." 17 He received a cup, and when He had given thanks, He said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves, 18 for I tell you, I will not drink from now on from the fruit of the vine, until the Kingdom of Elohim comes."

19 He took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me."

20 Likewise, He took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the renewed covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you. 21 But behold, the hand of him who betrays Me is with Me on the table. 22 The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom He is betrayed!"

23 They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

Who is Greatest

24 There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. 25 He said to them, "The kings of the nations hold it over them, and those who have authority over them are called 'benefactors.'

26 But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves. 27 For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. 28 But you are those who have continued with Me in My trials. 29 I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Father conferred on Me, 30 that you may eat and drink at My table in My Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Yisra'el."

31 [The Master said]^a, "Shimon, Shimon, behold, Satan asked to have all of you, that he might sift you as wheat, 32 but I prayed for you, that your faith would not fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers."

33 He said to Him, "Master, I am ready to go with You both to prison and to death!"

34 He said, "I tell you, Kepha, the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know Me three times."

35 He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing."

36 Then He said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, must sell his cloak, and buy a sword. 37 For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in Me: 'He was numbered with the lawless.'^b For that which concerns Me has an end."

38 They said, "Master, behold, here are two swords." He said to them, "That is enough."

Prayer in the Garden

39 He came out, and went, as His custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His talmidim also followed Him.

^a 31 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek texts. Some Syriac texts read, "עֲשֵׂה" rather than "the Master" here.

^b 37 See Yeshayahu 53:12.

40 When He was at the place, He said to them, "Pray that you do not enter into temptation."

41 He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed, 42 saying, "Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me. Nevertheless, not My will, but Yours, be done."

[43 A messenger from heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him. 44 Being in agony He prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.]^a 45 When He rose up from His prayer, He came to the talmidim, and found them sleeping because of grief, 46 and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

Betrayal and Arrest

47 While He was still speaking, behold, a crowd, and He who was called Yehudah, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came near to 48 kiss Him. 48 But 49 said to him, "Yehudah, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49 When those who were around Him saw what was about to happen, they said to Him, "Master, shall we strike with the sword?" 50 A certain one of them struck the bondservant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 But 52 answered, "Permit this much"—and He touched his ear, and healed him. 52 53 said to the chief priests, captains of the Temple, and elders, who had come against Him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? 53 When I was with you in the Temple daily, you did not stretch out your hands against Me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

Kepha's Denial

54 They seized Him, and led Him away, and brought Him into the high priest's house. But Kepha followed from a distance. 55 When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Kepha sat among them. 56 A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with Him."

57 He denied 58, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

58 After a little while someone else saw him, and said, "You also are one of them!" But Kepha answered, "Man, I am not!"

59 After about one hour passed, another confidently insisted, saying, "Truly this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean!"

60 But Kepha said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. 61 The Master turned, and looked at Kepha. Then Kepha remembered the Master's word, how He said to him, "Before the rooster crows today you will deny Me three times." 62 He went out, and wept bitterly.

63 The men who held 64 mocked Him and beat Him.

64 Having blindfolded Him, they [struck Him on the face and]^b asked Him, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck You?" 65 They spoke many other things against Him, insulting Him.

Before the Sanhedrin

66 As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people were gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led Him away into their Sanhedrin, saying, 67 "If You are the Messiah, tell us." But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe, 68 and if I ask, you will in no way answer Me or let Me go. 69 But from now on the Son of Man will be sitting at the right hand of the power of Elohim."

70 They all said, "Are you then the Son of Elohim?" He said to them, "You say that I am." 71 They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from His own mouth!"

Before Pilate

23 The whole company of them rose up and brought Him before Pilate. 2 They began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is Messiah, a king."

3 Pilate asked Him, "Are you the King of the Yehudim?" He answered him, "So you say."

4 Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

5 But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Yehudah, beginning from the Galil even to this place." 6 But when Pilate heard [the Galil mentioned]^a, he asked if the man was a Galilean. 7 When he found out that He was in Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Yerushalayim during those days.

Υἱὸς Before Herod

8 Now when Herod saw Υἱὸς, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had heard about Him. He hoped to see some miracle done by Him. 9 He questioned him with many words, but He gave no answers. 10 The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing Him. 11 Herod with his soldiers humiliated Him and mocked Him. Dressing Him in luxurious clothing, they sent Him back to Pilate. 12 Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.

Pilate Seeks to Release Υἱὸς

13 Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, 14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and behold, having examined Him before you, I found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse Him. 15 Neither has Herod, for he sent Him back to us, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by Him. 16 I will therefore chastise Him and release Him."

[17 Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the Feast.]^b 18 But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Bar-Abba!"— 19 one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder.

20 Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release Υἱὸς, 21 but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify Him!"

22 He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and release Him." 23 But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that He might be crucified. Their voices [and the voices of the chief priests]^c prevailed. 24 Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done. 25 He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Υἱὸς up to their will.

Shimon Carries the Stake

26 When they led him away, they grabbed one Shimon of Kurene, coming from the country, and laid on him the stake, to carry it after Υἱὸς. 27 A great multitude of the people followed Him, including women who also mourned and lamented Him. 28 But Υἱὸς, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Yerushalayim, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29 For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' 30 Then they will begin to tell the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and tell the hills, 'Cover us.' 31 For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?"

32 There were also others, two criminals, led with Him to be put to death.

Υἱὸς Crucified

33 When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.

34 [Υἱὸς] said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." ^d Dividing His garments among them, they cast lots. 35 The people stood watching. The rulers also scoffed at Him, saying, "He saved others. Let Him save Himself, if this is the Messiah of Elohim, His chosen one!"

36 The soldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him and offering Him vinegar, 37 and saying, "If You are the King of the Yehudim, save Yourself!" 38 An inscription was also written over Him [in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew]^e: "This is the King of the Yehudim."

39 One of the criminals who was hanged insulted Him, saying, "You are the Messiah, are You not? Save Yourself and us!"

40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Do you not even fear Elohim, seeing you are under the same judgment? 41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." 42 He said, "Υἱὸς, remember me when You come into Your Kingdom."

43 He said to him, "Assuredly I tell you today, you will be with Me in Paradise."

44 It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. 45 The sun's light failed, and the veil of the dwelling place was torn in two. 46 עִירָנֵי, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit!"^a Having said this, He breathed His last.

47 When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified Elohim, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man."

48 All the crowds that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts. 49 All His acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from the Galil, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Burial of עִירָנֵי

50 Behold, a man named Yoseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man 51 (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Ramah, a city of the Yehudim, who was also waiting for the Kingdom of Elohim: 52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of עִירָנֵי. 53 He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid. 54 It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. 55 The women, who had come with Him out of the Galil, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how His body was laid. 56 They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the command.

The Resurrection

24 But on day one of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 They entered in, and did not find the body of Master עִירָנֵי. 4 While they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. 5 Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but is risen. Remember what He told you when He was still in the Galil, 7 saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"

8 They remembered His words, 9 returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 Now they were Miryam from Magdala, Yoanna, and Miryam the mother of Ya'aqov. The other women with them told these things to the shelihim.

11 These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they did not believe them. 12 But Kepha got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen by themselves, and he departed by himself, wondering what had happened.

Road to Emmaus

13 Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Yerushalayim. 14 They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. 15 While they talked and questioned together, עִירָנֵי Himself came near, and went with them. 16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him. 17 He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"

18 One of them, named Kleopas, answered Him, "Are you the only stranger in Yerushalayim who does not know the things which have happened there in these days?"

19 He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "The things concerning עִירָנֵי, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before Elohim and all the people; 20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him up to the judgment of death, and crucified Him. 21 But we were hoping that it was He who would redeem Yisra'el. Yes, and besides all this, this brings the third day since these things happened. 22 Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; 23 and when they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of messengers, who said that He was alive. 24 Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they did not see Him."

25 He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did the Messiah not have to suffer these things and to enter into His glory?" 27 Beginning from Mosheh and from all the prophets, He explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself. 28 They came near to the village, where they were going, and He acted like He would go further. 29 They urged Him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is almost over." He went in to stay with them. 30 When He had sat down at the table with them, He took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, He gave it to them. 31 Their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him, and He vanished out of their sight. 32 They said to one another, "Were our hearts not burning within us, while He spoke to us along the way, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 They rose up that very hour, returned to Yerushalayim, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, 34 saying, "The Master is risen indeed, and has appeared to Shimon!" 35 They related the things that happened along the way, and how

^a 46 See Tehillim 31:5.

He was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

Other Appearances

36 As they said these things, גַּם Himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you." 37 But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 See My hands and My feet, that it is truly Me. Touch Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see that I have." [40 When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.]^a 41 While they still could not believe it for their joy, and wondered, He said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

42 They gave him a piece of a broiled fish [and some honeycomb]^b. 43 He took them, and ate in front of them. 44 He said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the Torah of Mosheh, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning Me must be fulfilled."

45 Then He opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. 46 He said to them, "Thus it is written, for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, 47 and that repentance for forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His Name to all the nations, beginning at Yerushalayim. 48 You are witnesses of these things. 49 Behold, I send out the promise of My Father on you. But wait in the city of Yerushalayim until you are clothed with power from on high."

50 He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands, and blessed them. 51 While He blessed them, He withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven. 52 And they, having bowed down to Him, returned to Yerushalayim with great joy, 53 and were continually in the Temple, blessing Elohim.

Yohanan (John)

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the word, and the word was with Elohim, and the word was Elohim. 2 The same was in the beginning with Elohim. 3 All things came into being through Him. Without Him nothing has come into being, that has come to be. 4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. 6 There came a man, having been sent from Elohim, whose name was Yohanan. 7 The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 This one was not the light, but was sent that he might witness about the light. 9 The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world came into being through Him, and the world did not know Him. 11 He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him. 12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the authority to become children of Elohim, to those believing in His Name; 13 who have not been born of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of Elohim. 14 And the Word became flesh, and tabernacled among us. We saw His glory, glory as of an only begotten with a father, full of favor and truth. 15 Yohanan testified about Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, 'He who is coming after me has been before me, for He was before me.'"^a 16 From His fullness we have all received favor upon favor. 17 For the Torah was given through Mosheh. Favor and truth came to be through ישׁוּעָה Messiah. 18 No one has seen Elohim at any time. The only begotten Elohim^b, being in the bosom of the Father, He^c has declared Him.

Work of Yohanan

19 This is Yohanan's witness, when the Yehudim sent priests and Levites from Yerushalayim to ask him, "Who are you?" 20 He declared, and did not deny, but he declared, "I am not the Messiah."

21 They asked him, "What then? Are you Eliyahu?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No." 22 They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of תְּבוּנָה',^d as Yeshayahu the prophet said."

24 The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees. 25 They asked him, "Why then do you immerse, if you are not the Messiah, nor Eliyahu, nor the prophet?"

26 Yohanan answered them, "I immerse in water, but among you stands one whom you do not know. 27 He is the one who comes after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loosen." 28 These things were done in Bethany beyond the Yarden, where Yohanan was immersing.

Behold the Lamb of Elohim

29 The next day, he saw שׁוֹרֵן coming to him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of Elohim, who takes away the sin of the world! 30 This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who has surpassed me, for He was above me.' 31 I did not know Him, but for this reason I came immersing in water: that He would be revealed to Yisra'el." 32 Yohanan testified, saying, "I have seen the Ruah descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on Him. 33 I did not recognize Him, but He who sent me to immerse in water, He said to me, 'On whomever you will see the Ruah descending, and remaining on Him, the same is He who immerses in the Set-apart Ruah.'^e 34 I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of Elohim."^f

35 Again, the next day, Yohanan was standing with two of his talmidim, 36 and he looked at שׁוֹרֵן as He walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of Elohim!" 37 The two talmidim heard him speak, and they followed שׁוֹרֵן.

38 שׁוֹרֵן turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to Him, "Rabbit" (which is to say, being translated, "Teacher")^f, "where are you staying?"

39 He said to them, "Come, and see." They came and saw where He was staying, and they stayed with Him

^a 15 The first word translated as "before" ("...has been before me...") is εμπροσθεν (emprosthen) which means, "before, in the presence of, in front of." The second word translated as "before" ("...was before me.") is πρωτος (protos), which means "first, prior, beforehand."

^b 18 Later Greek texts read, "Son" here. However, the reading of "Elohim" is found in both the early Greek and Syriac texts.

^c 18 This "He" refers to the only begotten.

^d 23 See Yeshayahu 40:3.

^e 34 Some early Greek and Syriac manuscripts read "the Elect One" here, rather than "the Son of Elohim."

that day. It was about the tenth hour. 40 One of the two who heard Yohanan, and followed him, was Andreas, Shimon Kepha's brother. 41 He first found his own brother, Shimon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being translated, Messiah). 42 He brought him to ישוע. ישוע looked at him, and said, "You are Shimon the son of Yonah. You shall be called Kepha" (which is by translation, Petros).

Calling of Philippos and Nathana'el

43 On the next day, He was determined to go out into the Galil, and He found Philippos. ישוע said to him, "Follow Me." 44 Now Philippos was from Beth-tsaida, of the city of Andreas and Kepha. 45 Philippos found Nathana'el, and said to him, "We have found Him, of whom Mosheh in the Torah, and the prophets, wrote: ישוע of Nazareth, the son of Yoseph."

46 Nathana'el said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philippos said to him, "Come and see."

47 ישוע saw Nathana'el coming to Him, and said about him, "Behold, a Yisra'elite^a indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

48 Nathana'el said to him, "How do You know me?" ישוע answered him, "Before Philippos called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

49 Nathana'el answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of Elohim! You are King of Yisra'el!"

50 ישוע answered him, "Because I told you, 'I saw you underneath the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these!" 51 He said to him, "Most certainly, I tell you all, you will see heaven opened, and the messengers of Elohim ascending and descending on the Son of Man."^b"

Wedding in Qanah

2 The third day, there was a wedding in Qanah of the Galil. The mother of ישוע was there. 2 ישוע also was invited, with His talmidim, to the wedding. 3 When the wine ran out, the mother of ישוע said to Him, "They have no wine."

4 ישוע said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and Me? My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it." 6 Now there were six water pots of stone set there for the purifying of the Yehudim, containing two or three metretes apiece. 7 ישוע said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim. 8 He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it. 9 When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom, 10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is inferior. You have guarded the good wine until now!" 11 This beginning of His signs ישוע did in Qanah of the Galil, and revealed His glory; and His talmidim believed in Him.

12 After this, He went down to Kaphar-nahum; He, and His mother, His brothers, and His talmidim; and they stayed there a few days.

Driving the Money Changers out of the Temple

13 The Pesah of the Yehudim was at hand, and ישוע went up to Yerushalayim. 14 He found in the Temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting. 15 He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the Temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and He poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables. 16 To those who sold the doves, He said, "Take these things out of here! Do not make My Father's house a marketplace!" 17 His talmidim remembered that it was written, "Zeal for Your house will consume me."^c"

18 The Yehudim therefore answered Him, "What sign do You show us, seeing that You do these things?"

19 ישוע answered them, "Destroy this dwelling place, and in three days I will raise it up."

20 The Yehudim therefore said, "It took forty-six years to build this dwelling place! Will you raise it up in three days?" 21 But He spoke of the dwelling place of His body. 22 When therefore He was raised from the dead, His talmidim remembered that He said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which ישוע had said.

23 Now when He was in Yerushalayim at the Pesah, during the Feast, many believed in His Name, observing His signs which He did. 24 But ישוע did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew everyone, 25 and because He did not need for anyone to witness concerning man; for He Himself knew what was in man.

Born from Above

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nikodemos, a ruler of the Yehudim. 2 The same came to Him by night, and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from Elohim, for no one can do these signs that You do, unless Elohim is with him."

3 יְהוָה answered him, "Most certainly, I tell you, unless one is born from above, he cannot see the Kingdom of Elohim."

4 Nikodemos said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

5 יְהוָה answered, "Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of Elohim. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Ruah is spirit. 7 Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' 8 The spirit breathes where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Ruah."

9 Nikodemos answered Him, "How can these things be?"

10 יְהוָה answered him, "Are you the teacher of Yisra'el, and do not understand these things? 11 Most certainly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you do not receive our witness. 12 If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 No one has ascended into heaven, but He who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, [who is in heaven]^a. 14 As Mosheh lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 that whoever believes in Him might have everlasting life. 16 Thus, Elohim so loved the world^b, that He gave the only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For Elohim did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. 18 The one believing in Him is not judged. He who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of Elohim. 19 This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. 20 For everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. 21 But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in Elohim."

Yohanan Affirms יְהוָה

22 After these things, יְהוָה came with His talmidim into the land of Yehudah. He stayed there with them, and immersed. 23 Yohanan also was immersing in Ain near Salem, because there was much water there. They came, and were immersed. 24 For Yohanan was not yet thrown into prison. 25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of Yohanan's talmidim with a Yehudite about purification. 26 They came to Yohanan, and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Yarden, to whom you have testified, behold, the same immerses, and everyone is coming to Him."

27 Yohanan answered, "A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given to him from heaven. 28 You yourselves testify to me that I said, 'I am not the Messiah,' but, 'I have been sent before Him.' 29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all.

32 What He has seen and heard, of that He testifies; and no one receives His witness. 33 He who has received His witness has set His seal to this, that Elohim is true. 34 For He whom Elohim has sent speaks the words of Elohim; for He gives the Ruah without measure. 35 The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. 36 The one who believes in the Son has everlasting life, but the one who disobeys the Son will not see life, but the wrath of Elohim remains on him."

4 Therefore when the Master knew that the Pharisees had heard that יְהוָה was making and immersing more talmidim than Yohanan 2 (although יְהוָה Himself was not immersing, but His talmidim were), 3 He left Yehudah, and went again into the Galil. 4 He needed to pass through Shom'ron.

^b 16 Greek word rendered as "world" here is κοσμός (kosmos) which means literally "world" or "universe."

However, the Syr. uses the word נפש (l'alma) meaning "age" or "eternity." A possible Aramaic word-play between this word here and the words chai'ye d'l'alam (chai'ye d'l'alam) meaning "everlasting life" at the end of the verse.

Woman at the Well

5 So He came to a city of Shom'ron, called Shekhem, near the parcel of ground that Ya'aqov gave to his son, Yoseph. 6 Ya'aqov's well was there. יְשֻׁעָה therefore, being tired from His journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. 7 A woman of Shom'ron came to draw water. שָׂרֶב said to her, "Give me a drink." 8 For His talmidim had gone away into the city to buy food. 9 The Shom'ronite woman therefore said to him, "How is it that You, being a Yehudite, ask for a drink from me a Shom'ronite woman?" (For Yehudim have no dealings with Shom'ronites).

10 שָׂרֶב answered her, "If you knew the gift of Elohim, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

11 The woman said to Him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. So where do you get that living water? 12 Are you greater than our father, Ya'aqov, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his livestock?"

13 שָׂרֶב answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst to the age; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to everlasting life."

15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I do not get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

16 שָׂרֶב said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered and said to Him, "I have no husband." יְשֻׁעָה said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' 18 for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers bowed down in this mountain, and you Yehudim say that in Yerushalayim is the place where people ought to bow down."

21 שָׂרֶב said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Yerushalayim, will you bow down to the Father. 22 You bow down to that which you do not know. We bow down to that which we know; for salvation is from the Yehudim. 23 But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshipers will bow down before the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to bow down to Him. 24 Elohim is spirit, and those who bow down to Him must bow down to Him in spirit and truth."

25 The woman said to him, I know that Mashiah^a comes, He who is called Messiah. When He has come, He will declare to us all things."

26 יְשֻׁעָה said to her, "I am He, the one who speaks to you." 27 At this, His talmidim came. They marveled that He was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?" 28 So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Messiah?"

30 They went out of the city, and were coming to Him. 31 In the meanwhile, the talmidim urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But He said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."

33 The talmidim therefore said to one another, "Has anyone brought Him something to eat?"

34 שָׂרֶב said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to accomplish His work. 35 Do you not say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest?' Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already. 36 He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to everlasting life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37 For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' 38 I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

39 From that city many of the Shom'ronites believed in Him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I did." 40 So when the Shom'ronites came to Him, they begged Him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. 41 Many more believed because of His word. 42 They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed [the Messiah,]^b the Savior of the world."

43 After the two days He went into the Galil. 44 For יְשֻׁעָה Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in His own country. 45 So when He came into the Galil, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did in Yerushalayim at the Feast, for they also went to the Feast.

Nobleman's Son Healed

46 "Yeshua" came therefore again to Qanah of the Galil, where He made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Kaphar-nahum.

47 When he heard that "Yeshua" had come out of Yehudah into the Galil, he went to Him, and begged Him that He would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48 "Yeshua" therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

49 The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50 "Yeshua" said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that "Yeshua" spoke to him, and he went his way. 51 As he was now going down, his bondservants met him saying his child lives. 52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left him." 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which "Yeshua" said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house.

54 This is again the second sign that "Yeshua" did, having come out of Yehudah into the Galil.

Pool at Bethesda; Healing on the Sabbath

5 After these things, there was a feast of the Yehudim, and "Yeshua" went up to Yerushalayim. 2 Now in Yerushalayim by the sheep gate, there was a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda", having five porches. 3 In these lay a multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, [waiting for the moving of the water; 4 for a messenger went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was healed of whatever disease he had.]^a 5 A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years. 6 When "Yeshua" saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

7 The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me."

8 "Yeshua" said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."

9 Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked. Now it was the Sabbath on that day.

10 So the Yehudim said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat."

11 He answered them, "He who made me well, the same said to me, 'Take up your mat, and walk.'"

12 Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up and walk'?"

13 But he who was healed did not know who it was, for "Yeshua" had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.

14 Afterward "Yeshua" found him in the Temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."

15 The man went away, and told the Yehudim that it was "Yeshua" who had made him well. 16 Because of this the Yehudim persecuted "Yeshua", [and sought to kill Him,]^b because He did these things on the Sabbath. 17 But "Yeshua" answered them, "My Father is still working, so I am working, too." 18 For this cause therefore the Yehudim sought all the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the Sabbath, but also called Elohim His own Father, making Himself equal with Elohim.

The Son Does Only the Will of the Father

19 "Yeshua" therefore answered them, "Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father doing. For whatever things He does, these the Son also does likewise. 20 For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does. He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel. 21 For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom He desires. 22 For the Father judges no one, but He has given all judgment to the Son, 23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

24 "Most certainly I tell you, he who hears My word, and believes Him who sent Me, has everlasting life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. 25 Most certainly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of Elohim; and those who hear will live. 26 For as the Father has life in Himself, even so He gave to the Son also to have life in Himself. 27 He also gave Him authority to execute judgment, because He is a son of man. 28 Do not marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear His voice, 29 and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. 30 I can do nothing of Myself. As I hear, I judge, and My judgment is righteous; because I do not seek My own will, but the will of the One who sent Me.

31 "If I testify about Myself, My witness is not valid. 32 It is another who testifies about Me. I know that the witness which He testifies about Me is true. 33 You have sent to Yohanan, and he has testified to the truth. 34 But the witness which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved. 35 He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for an hour in his light. 36 But the witness which I have is greater than that of Yohanan, for the works which the Father gave Me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about Me, that the Father has sent Me. 37 The Father Himself, who sent Me, has testified about Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form. 38 You do not have His word living in you; because you do not believe Him whom He sent.

39 "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have everlasting life; and these are they which testify about Me. 40 Yet you will not come to Me, that you may have life. 41 I do not receive glory from men. 42 But I know you, that you do not have the love of Elohim in yourselves. 43 I have come in My Father's Name, and you do not receive Me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44 How can you believe, you who receive glory from one another, and do not seek the glory that comes from the only Elohim?

45 "Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Mosheh, in whom you have set your hope. 46 For if you believed Mosheh, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me. 47 But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?"

Feeding Five Thousand

6 After these things, ישׁוּעָה went away to the other side of the Sea of the Galil, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. 2 A great crowd followed Him, because they saw the signs which He did on those who were sick. 3 ישׁוּעָה went up into the mountain, and He sat there with His talmidim. 4 Now the Pesah, the Feast of the Yehudim, was at hand. 5 ישׁוּעָה therefore lifting up His eyes, and seeing that a great crowd was coming to Him, said to Philippus, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" 6 This He said to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

7 Philippos answered Him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."

8 One of His talmidim, Andreas, Shimon Kepha's brother, said to Him, 9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

10 ישׁוּעָה said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11 ישׁוּעָה took the loaves; and having given thanks, He distributed to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. 12 When they were filled, He said to His talmidim, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the sign which ישׁוּעָה did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world." 15 ישׁוּעָה therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take Him by force, to make Him king, withdrew again to the mountain by Himself.

Walking on Water

16 When evening came, His talmidim went down to the sea, 17 and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Kaphar-nahum. It was now dark, and ישׁוּעָה had not come to them. 18 The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. 19 When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw ישׁוּעָה walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. 20 But He said to them, "I am. Do not be afraid." 21 They were willing therefore to receive Him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

Bread of Life

22 On the next day, the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except one, and that ישׁוּעָה had not entered with His talmidim into the boat, but His talmidim had gone away alone. 23 However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Master had given thanks. 24 When the crowd therefore saw that ישׁוּעָה was not there, nor His talmidim, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Kaphar-nahum, seeking ישׁוּעָה. 25 When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they asked Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?"

26 וְשָׁעַן^a answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, you seek Me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled. 27 Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For Elohim the Father has sealed Him."

28 They said therefore to Him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of Elohim?"

29 וְשָׁעַן^b answered them, "This is the work of Elohim, that you believe in Him whom He has sent."

30 They said therefore to Him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread out of heaven to eat.'^c"

32 וְשָׁעַן^b therefore said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, it was not Mosheh who gave you the bread out of heaven; but My Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. 33 For the bread of Elohim is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."

34 They said therefore to Him, "Master, always give us this bread."

35 וְשָׁעַן^b said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me will not be hungry, and he who believes in Me will never thirst. 36 But I told you that you have seen Me, and yet you do not believe. 37 All those whom the Father gives Me will come to Me. He who comes to Me I will in no way throw out. 38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. 39 This is the will of the One who sent Me, that of all He has given to Me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day. 40 This is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in Him, should have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

41 The Yehudim therefore grumbled concerning Him, because He said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven." 42 They said, "Is this not יִשְׂרָאֵל^b, the son of Yoseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does He say, 'I have come down out of heaven'?"

43 Therefore יִשְׂרָאֵל^b answered them, "Do not grumble among yourselves. 44 No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by נָבוּכֶדֶן.'^b Therefore everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to Me.

46 Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from Elohim. He has seen the Father. 47 Most certainly, I tell you, he who believes [in Me]^c has everlasting life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. 50 This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live to the age. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is My flesh."

52 The Yehudim therefore contended with one another, saying, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?"

53 וְשָׁעַן^b therefore said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves. 54 He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has everlasting life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood lives in Me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on Me, he will also live because of Me. 58 This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not as the fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live to the age." 59 He said these things in the synagogue, as He taught in Kaphar-nahum.

60 Therefore many of His talmidim, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?"

Words of Eternal Life

61 But יִשְׂרָאֵל^b knowing in Himself that His talmidim grumbled at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble? 62 Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before? 63 It is the Ruah that gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. 64 But there are some of you who do not believe." For יִשְׂרָאֵל^b knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray Him. 65 He said, "For this cause I have said to you that no one can come to Me, unless it is given to him by the Father."

66 At this, many of His talmidim went back, and walked no more with Him. 67 יִשְׂרָאֵל^b said therefore to the twelve, "You do not also want to go away, do you?"

68 Shimon Kepha answered Him, "Master, to whom would we go? You have the words of everlasting life.

69 We have come to believe and know that You are the Set-apart One of Elohim.^a"

70 He answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?" 71 Now he spoke of Yehudah, the son of Shimon Ish-Qerieth, for it was he who would betray Him, being one of the twelve.

Feast of Tabernacles

7 After these things, ישׁוּעָה was walking in the Galil, for He would not walk in Yehudah, because the Yehudim sought to kill Him. 2 Now the Feast of the Yehudim, the Feast of Tabernacles, was near. 3 His brothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here, and go into Yehudah, that Your talmidim also may see Your works which You do. 4 For no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, reveal Yourself to the world." 5 For even His brothers did not believe in Him.

6 ישׁוּעָה therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. 7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. 8 You go up to the Feast. I am not yet going up to this Feast, because My time is not yet fulfilled."

9 Having said these things to them, He stayed in the Galil. 10 But when His brothers had gone up to the Feast, then He also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11 The Yehudim therefore sought Him at the Feast, and said, "Where is He?" 12 There was much complaining among the crowds concerning Him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, but He leads the crowd astray." 13 Yet no one spoke openly of Him for fear of the Yehudim. 14 But when it was now the middle of the Feast, עִזָּה went up into the Temple and taught. 15 The Yehudim therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"

16 ישׁוּעָה therefore answered them, "My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me. 17 If anyone desires to do His will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from Elohim, or if I am speaking from Myself. 18 He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 Did Mosheh not give you the Torah, and yet none of you keep^b the Torah? Why do you seek to kill Me?"

20 The crowd answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

21 ישׁוּעָה answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. 22 Mosheh has given you circumcision (not that it is of Mosheh, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. 23 If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the Torah of Mosheh may not be broken, are you angry with Me, because I made a man completely whole on the Sabbath? 24 Do not judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

25 Therefore some of them of Yerushalayim said, "Is this not He whom they seek to kill? 26 Behold, He speaks openly, and they say nothing to Him. Can it be that the rulers truly know that this is the Messiah?

27 However, we know where this man comes from, but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where He comes from."

28 ישׁוּעָה therefore cried out in the Temple, teaching and saying, "You both know Me, and know where I am from. I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know. 29 I know Him, because I am from Him, and He sent Me."

30 They sought therefore to take Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come.

31 But of the crowd, many believed in Him. They said, "When the Messiah comes, He will not do more signs than those which this man has done, will He?"

Attempt to Arrest עִזָּה

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd grumbling these things concerning Him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest Him.

33 Then ישׁוּעָה said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to Him who sent me. 34 You will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come."

35 The Yehudim therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we will not find Him? Will He go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? 36 What is this word that He said, 'You will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come'?"

Living Water

37 Now on the last and greatest day of the Feast, עִזָּה stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come

^a 69 Later Greek and Syriac texts read, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the Living El." Some Syriac texts read the same without the phrase "the Messiah."

^b 19 Keep – Greek word ποιει (poiei), literally meaning "work."

to Me and drink! 38 He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." 39 But He said this about the Ruah, which those believing in Him were to receive. For the Ruah was not yet given, because עִזָּת was not yet glorified.

40 Some of the crowd therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet." 41 Others said, "This is the Messiah." But some said, "What, does the Messiah come out of the Galil? 42 Has the Scripture not said that the Messiah comes of the seed of David, and from Beth-lehem, the village where David was?" 43 So there arose a division in the crowd because of Him.

44 Some of them would have arrested Him, but no one laid hands on Him. 45 The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?"

46 The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!" 47 The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You are not also led astray, are you? 48 Have any of the rulers believed in Him, or of the Pharisees? 49 But this crowd, which does not know the law, is accursed."

50 Nikodemos (he who came to Him before, being one of them) said to them, 51 "Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

52 They answered him, "Are you also from the Galil? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of the Galil."^a [53 Everyone went to his own house.]

Woman Caught in Adultery

8 [1] But עִזָּת went to the Mount of Olives. 2 Now very early in the morning, He came again into the Temple, and all the people came to Him. He sat down, and taught them. 3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the middle, 4 they told Him, "Teacher, this woman has been taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now in the Torah, Mosheh commanded us to stone such women. What then do You say about her?" 6 They said this testing Him, that they might have something to accuse Him of. But עִזָּת stooped down, and wrote on the ground with His finger. 7 But when they continued asking Him, He looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her." 8 Again He stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground. 9 They, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. שׁוֹעַב was left alone with the woman where she was, in the middle. 10 יְשֻׁעָה, standing up, saw her and said, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

11 She said, "No one, Master." שׁוֹעַב said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more."^b

Light of the World

12 Again, therefore, עִזָּת spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

13 The Pharisees therefore said to Him, "You testify about Yourself. Your witness is not valid."

14 עִזָּת answered them, "Even if I testify about Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you do not know where I came from, or where I am going. 15 You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. 16 Even if I do judge, My judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me. 17 It is also written in your law that the witness of two people is valid. 18 I am one who testifies about Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies about Me."

19 They said therefore to Him, "Where is your Father?" שׁוֹעַב answered, "You know neither Me, nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would know My Father also."

20 שׁוֹעַב spoke these words in the treasury, as He taught in the Temple. Yet no one arrested Him, because His hour had not yet come. 21 יְשֻׁעָה said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek Me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you cannot come."

22 The Yehudim therefore said, "Will He kill Himself, because He says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?"

23 He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. 24 I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am, you will die in your sins."

25 They said therefore to Him, "Who are You?" שׁוֹעַב said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However He who sent Me is true; and the things which I heard from Him, these I say to the world."

27 They did not understand that He spoke to them about the Father. 28 יִשְׁעָה therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am, and I do nothing of Myself, but as My Father taught Me, I say these things. 29 He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to Him." 30 As He spoke these things, many believed in Him.

The Truth Will Make You Free

31 יִשְׁעָה therefore said to those Yehudim who had believed Him, "If you remain in My word, then you are truly My talmidim. 32 You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

33 They answered Him, "We are Avraham's seed, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do You say, 'You will be made free'?"

34 יִשְׁעָה answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin.^a 35 A bondservant does not live in the house to the age. A son remains to the age. 36 If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. 37 I know that you are Avraham's seed, yet you seek to kill Me, because My word finds no place in you. 38 I speak the things which I have seen with the Father; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father."

39 They answered Him, "Our father is Avraham." יִשְׁעָה said to them, "If you were Avraham's children, you would do the works of Avraham. 40 But now you seek to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from Elohim. Avraham did not do this. 41 You do the works of your father." They said to him, "We were not born of whoring. We have one Father, Elohim."

42 Therefore יִשְׁעָה said to them, "If Elohim were your father, you would love Me, for I have come forth from Elohim. For I have not come of Myself, but He sent Me. 43 Why do you not understand My speech? Because you cannot hear My word. 44 You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and the father of them. 45 But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me. 46 Which of you convicts Me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me? 47 He who is of Elohim hears the words of Elohim. For this cause you do not hear, because you are not of Elohim."

48 Then the Yehudim answered Him, "Do we not say well that You are a Shom'ronite, and have a demon?"

49 יִשְׁעָה answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. 50 But I do not seek My own glory. There is one who seeks and judges.

51 Most certainly, I tell you, if a person guards My word, he will never see death to the age."

52 Then the Yehudim said to Him, "Now we know that You have a demon. Avraham died, and the prophets; and You say, 'If a man guards My word, he will never taste of death to the age.' 53 Are You greater than our father, Avraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do You make Yourself out to be?"

Before Avraham

54 יִשְׁעָה answered, "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is our Elohim. 55 You have not known Him, but I know Him. If I said, 'I do not know Him,' I would be like you, a liar. But I know Him, and guard His word. 56 Your father Avraham rejoiced to see My day. He saw it, and was glad."

57 The Yehudim therefore said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and You have seen Avraham?"

58 יִשְׁעָה said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, before Avraham has come into existence, I am."

59 Therefore they took up stones to throw at Him, but יִשְׁעָה was hidden, and went out of the Temple, [having gone through the middle of them, and so passed by]^b.

Healing of a Blind Man

9 As He passed by, He saw a man blind from birth.

2 His talmidim asked Him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 יִשְׁעָה answered, "Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but, that the works of Elohim might be revealed in him. 4 We^c must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. 5 While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." 6 When He had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud, 7 and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Shiloah" (which is translated "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. 8 The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was a beggar before, said, "Is this not he who sat and begged?" 9 Others were saying, "It is he." Still others were saying, "No, but he is like him." He said, "I am." 10 They therefore were asking him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered, "A man called יְשֻׁעָה made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to [the pool of]^a Shiloah, and wash.' So I went away and washed, and I received sight."

12 Then they asked him, "Where is He?" He said, "I do not know."

The Pharisees Investigate

13 They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. 14 It was a Sabbath day when יְשֻׁעָה made the mud and opened his eyes. 15 Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."

16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from Elohim, because he does not guard the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was division among them.

17 Therefore they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about Him, because He opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

18 The Yehudim therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, 19 and asked them, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20 His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; 21 but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself." 22 His parents said these things because they feared the Yehudim; for the Yehudim had already agreed that if any man would confess Him as Messiah, he would be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

24 So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to Elohim. We know that this man is a sinner."

25 He therefore answered, "I do not know if He is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see."

26 They said to him, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You do not also want to become His talmidim, do you?"

28 They insulted him and said, "You are His talmid, but we are talmidim of Mosheh. 29 We know that Elohim has spoken to Mosheh. But as for this man, we do not know where He comes from."

30 The man answered them, "How amazing! You do not know where He comes from, yet He opened my eyes."

31 We know that Elohim does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is an Elohim-fearer, and does His will, He listens to him. 32 From the age of old it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. 33 If this man were not from Elohim, He could do nothing."

34 They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw him out.

35 יְשֻׁעָה heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, He said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

36 He answered, "Who is He, Master, that I may believe in Him?"

37 יְשֻׁעָה said to him, "You have both seen Him, and it is He who speaks with you."

38 He said, "Master, I believe!" and he bowed down to Him.

39 יְשֻׁעָה said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who do not see may see; and that those who see may become blind."

40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to Him, "Are we also blind?"

41 יְשֻׁעָה said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Your sin remains."

Parable of the Shepherd

10 "Most certainly, I tell you, one who does enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2 But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. 4 Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5 They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they do not know the voice of strangers." 6 יִשְׁעָע spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

7 יִשְׁעָע therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door. 8 All who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. 9 I am the door. If anyone enters in by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. 10 The thief only comes to steal, slaughter, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. 11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. 12 He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them. 13 The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and does not care for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd. I know My own, and My own know Me; 15 even as the Father knows Me, and I know the Father. I lay down My life for the sheep. 16 I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear My voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd. 17 Therefore the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, that I may take it again. 18 No one takes it away from Me, but I lay it down by Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this command from My Father."

19 Therefore a division arose again among the Yehudim because of these words. 20 Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to Him?" 21 Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It is not possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"

Hanukkah

22 It was the Feast of the Dedication^a at Yerushalayim, and it was winter^b. 23 יִשְׁעָע was walking in the Temple, in Shelomoh's porch. 24 The Yehudim therefore came around Him and said to Him, "How long will You hold us in suspense? If You are the Messiah, tell us plainly."

¶ and the Father are One

25 יִשְׁעָע answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in My Father's Name, these testify about Me. 26 But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep. 27 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. 28 I give everlasting life to them. They will not perish to the age, and no one will snatch them out of My hand. 29 What My Father has given to Me is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are one."

31 Therefore Yehudim took up stones again to stone Him. 32 יִשְׁעָע answered them, "I have shown you many good works from My Father. For which of those works do you stone Me?"

33 The Yehudim answered Him, "We do not stone You for a good work, but for blasphemy: because You, being a man, make Yourself Elohim."

34 יִשְׁעָע answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, you are elohim'^c? 35 If He called them elohim, to whom the word of Elohim came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 36 do you say of Him whom the Father set apart and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of Elohim?' 37 If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me. 38 But if I do them, though you do not believe Me, believe the works; that you may know and understand that the Father is in Me, and I in the Father."

39 They sought again to seize Him, and He went out of their hand. 40 He went away again beyond the Yarden into the place where Yohanan was immersing at first, and there He stayed. 41 Many came to Him. They said, "Yohanan indeed did no sign, but everything that Yohanan said about this man is true." 42 Many believed in Him there.

Death and Resurrection of Elazar

11 Now a certain man was sick, Elazar from Bethany, of the village of Miryam and her sister, Martha. 2 It was that Miryam who had anointed the Master with ointment, and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother, Elazar, was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent to Him, saying, "Master, behold, he for whom You have great affection is sick." 4 But when יִשְׁעָע heard it, He said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of Elohim, that the Son of Elohim may be glorified by it."

^a 22 Feast of Dedication is known in Hebrew as "Hanukkah."

^b 22 Greek word for "winter" here is heimon (χειμών) which literally means "rainy season." In the land of Yisra'el, the rainy season runs approximately October – May. It peaks between December and February.

^c 34 See Tehillim 82:6.

5 Now ישׁוּעָה loved Martha, and her sister, and Elazar. 6 When therefore He heard that he was sick, He stayed two days in the place where He was. 7 Then after this He said to the talmidim, "Let us go into Yehudah again."

8 The talmidim told Him, "Rabbi, the Yehudim were just trying to stone You, and You are going there again?"

9 ישׁוּעָה answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." 11 He said these things, and after that, He said to them, "Our friend, Elazar, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."

12 The talmidim therefore said to Him, "Master, if he has fallen asleep, he will be safe."

13 Now ישׁוּעָה had spoken of his death, but they thought that He spoke of taking rest in sleep. 14 So ישׁוּעָה said to them plainly then, "Elazar is dead. 15 I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let us go to him."

16 Taom therefore, who is called Didymus^a, said to his fellow talmidim, "Let us go also, that we may die with him."

17 So when ישׁוּעָה came, He found that he had been in the tomb four days already. 18 Now Bethany was near Yerushalayim, about fifteen stadia away. 19 Many of the Yehudim had joined Martha and Miryam, to console them concerning their brother. 20 Then when Martha heard that ישׁוּעָה was coming, she went and met Him, but Miryam stayed in the house. 21 Therefore Martha said to ישׁוּעָה, "Master, if You would have been here, my brother would not have died. 22 Even now I know that, whatever You ask of Elohim, Elohim will give You." 23 ישׁוּעָה said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24 Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25 ישׁוּעָה said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me will still live, even if he dies. 26 Whoever lives and believes in Me will not die to the age. Do you believe this?"

27 She said to him, "Yes, Master. I have come to believe that You are the Messiah, the Son of Elohim, He who comes into the world."

28 When she had said this, she went away, and called Miryam, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you."

29 When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to Him. 30 Now ישׁוּעָה had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met Him. 31 Then the Yehudim who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Miryam, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, thinking, "She is going to the tomb to weep there." 32 Therefore when Miryam came to where ישׁוּעָה was, and saw Him, she fell down at His feet, saying to Him, "Master, if You would have been here, my brother would not have died."

33 When ישׁוּעָה therefore saw her weeping, and the Yehudim weeping who came with her, He groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 and said, "Where have you laid him?" They told Him, "Master, come and see."

35 ישׁוּעָה wept.

36 The Yehudim therefore said, "See how much affection He had for him!" 37 Some of them said, "Could this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, not have also kept this man from dying?"

38 ישׁוּעָה therefore, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. 39 ישׁוּעָה said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Master, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

40 ישׁוּעָה said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of Elohim?"

41 So they took away the stone. ישׁוּעָה lifted up His eyes, and said, "Father, I thank You that You listened to Me. 42 I know that You always listen to Me, but because of the crowd standing around I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me." 43 When He had said this, He cried with a loud voice, "Elazar, come out!"

44 He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Free him, and let him go."

45 Therefore many of the Yehudim, who came to Miryam and saw what ישׁוּעָה did, believed in Him.

^a 16 Taom is Aramaic for "twin" and Didymus is Greek for "twin."

Conspiracy to Kill יִשְׁעָה

46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which יִשְׁעָה had done. 47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a Sanhedrin, and said, "What are we doing? For this man does many signs. 48 If we leave Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

Qayapha's Prophecy

49 But a certain one of them, Qayapha, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, 50 nor do you consider that it is advantageous for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish." 51 Now he did not say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that יִשְׁעָה would die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but that He might also gather together into one the children of Elohim who are scattered abroad. 53 So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put Him to death. 54 יִשְׁעָה therefore walked no more openly among the Yehudim, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephrayim. He stayed there with His talmidim.

55 Now the Pesah of the Yehudim was at hand. Many went up from the country to Yerushalayim before the Pesah, to purify themselves. 56 Then they sought for יִשְׁעָה and spoke one with another, as they stood in the Temple, "What do you think—that He is not coming to the Feast at all?" 57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might seize Him.

Miryam Anoints יִשְׁעָה

12 Then six days before the Pesah, יִשְׁעָה came to Bethany, where Elazar was, whom He raised from the dead. 2 So they made Him a supper there. Martha served, but Elazar was one of those who sat at the table with Him. 3 Miryam, therefore, took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of יִשְׁעָה, and wiped His feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. 4 Then Yehudah Ish-Qerieth, one of His talmidim, who would betray Him, said, 5 "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?" 6 Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. 7 But יִשְׁעָה said,

"Leave her alone, so that she may guard this for the day of My burial. 8 For you always have the poor with you,^a but you do not always have Me."

9 A large crowd therefore of the Yehudim learned that He was there, and they came, not for יִשְׁעָה's sake only, but that they might see Elazar also, whom He had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests conspired to put Elazar to death also, 11 because on account of him many of the Yehudim went away and believed in יִשְׁעָה.

Entering Yerushalayim

12 On the next day a great crowd had come to the Feast. When they heard that יִשְׁעָה was coming to Yerushalayim, 13 they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet Him, and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the Name of יְהוָה,^b the King of Yisra'el!"

14 יִשְׁעָה, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written, 15 "Do not be afraid, daughter of Tsion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt."^c 16 His talmidim did not understand these things at first, but when יִשְׁעָה was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him, and that they had done these things to Him. 17 The crowd therefore that was with Him when He called Elazar out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it. 18 For this cause also the crowd went and met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after Him."

Greeks Seek יִשְׁעָה; Prediction of Death

20 Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to bow down at the Feast. 21 These, therefore, came to Philippos, who was from Beth-tsaida of the Galil, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see יִשְׁעָה." 22 Philippos came and told Andreas, and in turn, Andreas came with Philippos, and they told יִשְׁעָה. 23 יִשְׁעָה answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24 Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25 He who loves his life loses it. He who hates his life in this world will guard it to everlasting life. 26 If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. Where I am, there will My servant also be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

27 "Now My being is troubled. What shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour?' But for this cause I came to this hour. 28 Father, glorify Your Name!" Then there came a voice out of the heavens, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29 The crowd therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "A messenger has spoken to Him."

30 יְשָׁעָה answered, "This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. 32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself." 33 But He said this, signifying by what kind of death He should die. 34 The crowd answered Him, "We have heard out of the law that the Messiah remains to the age. How do You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up?' Who is this Son of Man?"

35 יְשָׁעָה therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness does not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, trust in the light, that you may become children of light." 37 יְשָׁעָה said these things, and He departed and hid Himself from them. 38 But though He had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe in Him, 39 that the word of Yeshayahu the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, "Who has believed our message? To whom has the Arm of God been revealed?"^a

39 For this cause they could not believe, for Yeshayahu said again, 40 "He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn, and I would heal them."^b

41 Yeshayahu said these things because he saw His glory, and spoke of Him. 42 Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue, 43 for they loved men's praise more than the praise of Elohim.

44 יְשָׁעָה cried out and said, "Whoever believes in Me, does not believe in Me, but in Him who sent Me. 45 He who sees Me sees Him who sent Me. 46 I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me may not remain in the darkness. 47 If anyone listens to My sayings, and does not guard them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He who rejects Me, and does not receive My sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day. 49 For I spoke not from Myself, but the Father who sent Me, He gave Me a command, what I should say, and what I should speak. 50 I know that His command is everlasting life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to Me, so I speak."

Last Supper; Foot Washing

13 Now before the Feast of the Pesah, יַעֲשֵׂה, knowing that His hour had come that He would depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end. 2 And supper taking place, the devil having already put into the heart of Yehudah Ish-Qerioth, Shimon's son, to betray Him; 3 יְשָׁעָה, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He came from Elohim, and was going to Elohim, 4 arose from supper, and laid aside His outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around His waist. 5 Then He poured water into the basin and began to wash the feet of the talmidim, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around Him. 6 Then He came to Shimon Kepha. He said to Him, "Master, do You wash my feet?"

7 יְשָׁעָה answered him, "You do not know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."

8 Kepha said to Him, "You will never, to the age, wash my feet!" 9 יְשָׁעָה answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

9 Shimon Kepha said to Him, "Master, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

10 יְשָׁעָה said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." 11 For He knew him who would betray Him, therefore He said, "You are not all clean." 12 So when He had washed their feet, put His outer garment back on, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13 You call Me, 'Teacher' and 'Master.' You say so correctly, for so I am. 14 If I then, the Master and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. 16 Most certainly I tell you, a bondservant is not greater than his master, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17 If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. 18 I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats my bread has lifted up his heel against

^a 38 See Yeshayahu 53:1.

^b 40 See Yeshayahu 6:10.

me.^a 19 From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I am. 20 Most certainly I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives Me; and he who receives Me, receives Him who sent Me."

ישׁוּעָה Predicts His Betrayal

21 When ישׁוּעָה had said this, He was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray Me."

22 The talmidim looked at one another, perplexed about whom He spoke. 23 One of His talmidim, whom ישׁוּעָה loved, was at the table, leaning against the bosom of שׁׂמְעוֹן. 24 Shimon Kepha therefore beckoned to him, and said to him, "Tell us who it is of whom He speaks." 25 He, leaning back, as he was, on the bosom of ישׁוּעָה, asked Him, "Master, who is it?"

26 ישׁוּעָה therefore answered, "It is he to whom I will give this morsel when I have dipped it." So when He had dipped the morsel, He gave it to Yehudah, the son of Shimon Ish-Qerioth. 27 After the morsel, then Satan entered into him. Then ישׁוּעָה said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 Now no man at the table knew why He said this to him. 29 For some thought, because Yehudah had the money box, that ישׁוּעָה said to him, "Buy what things we need for the Feast," or that he should give something to the poor. 30 Therefore having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.

31 When he had gone out, ישׁוּעָה said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and Elohim has been glorified in Him. 32 If Elohim has been glorified in Him, Elohim will also glorify Him in Himself, and He will glorify Him immediately. 33 Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek Me, and as I said to the Yehudim, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I tell you. 34 A renewed command I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also love one another. 35 By this everyone will know that you are My talmidim, if you have love for one another."

36 Shimon Kepha said to Him, "Master, where are You going?" 37 ישׁוּעָה answered, "Where I am going, you cannot follow now, but you will follow afterwards."

37 Kepha said to Him, "Master, why can I not follow You now? I will lay down my life for You."

38 ישׁוּעָה answered him, "Will you lay down your life for Me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster will not crow until you have denied Me three times.

The Way, the Truth, and the Life

14 "Do not let your heart be troubled. Believe in Elohim. Believe also in Me. 2 In My Father's house are many homes. If it were not so, I would have told you. For I am going to prepare a place for you. 3 If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to Myself; that where I am, you may be there also. 4 Where I go, you know the way."

5 Taom said to Him, "Master, we do not know where You are going. How can we know the way?"

6 ישׁוּעָה said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through Me. 7 If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also. From now on, you know Him, and have seen Him." 8 Philippos said to Him, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."

9 ישׁוּעָה said to him, "Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know Me, Philippos? He who has seen Me has seen the Father. How do you say, 'Show us the Father?' 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from Myself; but the Father who lives in Me does His works. 11 Believe Me that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me; or else believe Me for the very works' sake. 12 Most certainly I tell you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to My Father. 13 Whatever you will ask in My Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you will ask anything in My Name, I will do it. 15 If you love Me, you will guard My commands. 16 I will pray to the Father, and He will give you another Advocate, to be with you to the age—17 the Ruah of truth, which the world cannot receive; for it does not see it, neither does it know it. You know it, for it lives with you, and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you as orphans. I am coming to you. 19 Yet a little while, and the world will see Me no more; but you will see Me. Because I live, you will live also. 20 In that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. 21 One who has My commands, and guards them, that person is one who loves Me. One who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him, and will reveal Myself to him."

22 Yehudah (not Ish-Qerioth) said to Him, "Master, what has happened that You are about to reveal Yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23 ישׁוּעָה answered him, "If a man loves Me, he will guard My word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him. 24 He who does not love Me does not guard My words. The word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me. 25 I have said these things to you, while still living with you.

26 "But the Advocate, the Set-apart Ruah, which the Father will send in My Name, that one will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. 27 Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. 28 You heard how I told you, 'I go away, and I come to you.' If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to My Father; for the Father is greater than I. 29 Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. 30 I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in Me. 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

The True Vine

15 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the farmer. 2 Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3 You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Remain in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in Me. 5 I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in Me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing. 6 If a man does not remain in Me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you remain in Me, and My words remain in you, ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.

8 "In this is My Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be My talmidim. 9 Even as the Father has loved Me, I also have loved you. Remain in My love. 10 If you guard My commands, you will remain in My love; even as I have guarded My Father's commands, and remain in His love. 11 I have spoken these things to you, that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full.

12 "This is My command, that you love one another, even as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are My friends, if you do whatever I command you. 15 No longer do I call you bondservants, for the bondservant does not know what his master does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from My Father, I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in My Name, He may give it to you.

17 "I command these things to you, that you may love one another."

World's Hatred

18 "If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you. 19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20 Remember the word that I said to you: 'A bondservant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. 21 But all these things will they do to you for My Name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23 He who hates Me, hates My Father also. 24 If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would not have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both Me and My Father. 25 But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law, 'They hated Me without a cause.'^a 26 "When the Advocate has come, which I will send to you from the Father, the Ruah of truth, that proceeds from the Father, that one will testify about Me. 27 You will also testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

Work of the Set-apart Ruah

16 "I have said these things to you so that you would not stumble. 2 They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the hour comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to Elohim. 3 They will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor Me. 4 But I have told you these things, so that when the hour comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I did not tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. 5 But now I am going to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are you going?' 6 But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you. But if I go, I will send it to you. 8 When it has come, it will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment; 9 about sin, because they do not believe in Me; 10 about righteousness, because I am going to My Father, and you will not see Me anymore; 11 about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

12 "I have yet many things to tell you, but you cannot bear them now. 13 However when the Ruah of truth has come, that one will guide you into all truth,^a for it will not speak from itself; but whatever it hears, it will speak. It will declare to you things that are coming. 14 This one will glorify Me, for it will take from what is Mine, and will declare it to you. 15 All things whatever the Father has are Mine; therefore I said that He takes from Mine, and will declare it to you. 16 A little while, and you will no longer see Me. Again a little while, and you will see Me."

17 Some of His talmidim therefore said to one another, "What is this that He says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me?' and, 'Because I go to the Father'?" 18 They said therefore, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not know what He is saying."

19 Therefore יְשֻׁעָה perceived that they wanted to ask Him, and He said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me, and again a little while, and you will see me'? 20 Most certainly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. 21 A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow, because her hour has come. But when she has delivered the child, she does not remember the affliction anymore, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. 22 Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

Ask and You Will Receive

23 "In that day you will ask Me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in My Name, He will give it to you. 24 Until now, you have asked nothing in My Name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. 25 I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But an hour is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. 26 In that day you will ask in My Name; and I do not say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you, 27 for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came from Elohim.

28 I came from the Father, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father."

29 His talmidim said to Him, "Behold, now You are speaking plainly, and using no figures of speech.

30 Now we know that You know all things, and do not need for anyone to question You. By this we believe that You came from Elohim."

31 יְשֻׁעָה answered them, "Do you now believe?

32 Behold, the hour is coming, yes, and has come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. 33 I have told you these things, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you have affliction; but take courage! I have overcome the world."

Prayer for those Belonging to יְשֻׁעָה

17 יְשֻׁעָה said these things, and lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify You; 2 even as You gave Him authority over all flesh, so He will give everlasting life to all whom You have given Him. 3 This is everlasting life, that they should know You, the only true Elohim, and Him whom You sent, יְשֻׁעָה Messiah. 4 I glorified You on the earth. I have accomplished the work which You have given Me to do. 5 Now, Father, glorify Me with Your own self with the glory which I had with You before the world was. 6 I revealed Your Name to the people whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You have given them to Me. They have guarded Your word. 7 Now they have known that all things whatever You have given Me are from You, 8 for the words which You have given Me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came from You, and they have believed that You sent Me. 9 I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours.

10 "All things that are Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. 11 I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to You. Set-apart Father, guard them through Your Name which You have given Me, that they may be one, even as We are. 12 While I was with them, I guarded them in Your Name which You have given Me; I have guarded them. None of them is lost, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But now I come to You, and I say these things in the world, that they may have My joy made full in themselves.

^a 13 See Tehillim 25:5.

14 I have given them Your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I pray not that You would take them from the world, but that You would guard them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. 17 Set them apart in the truth. Your word is truth^a. 18 As You sent Me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. 19 For their sakes I set Myself apart, that they themselves also may be set apart in truth. 20 Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who will believe in Me through their word, 21 that they may all be one; even as You, Father, are in Me, and I in you, that they also may be in Us; that the world may believe that You sent Me.

Future Glory

22 "The glory which You have given Me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; 23 I in them, and You in Me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that You sent Me, and loved them, even as You loved Me. 24 Father, I desire that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am, that they may see My glory, which You have given Me, for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. 25 Righteous Father, the world has not known You, but I knew You; and these knew that You sent Me. 26 I made known to them Your Name, and will make it known; that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them."

Betrayal and Arrest

18 When ישׁעַת had spoken these words, He went out with His talmidim over the brook Qidron, where there was a garden, into which He and His talmidim entered. 2 Now Yehudah, who betrayed Him, also knew the place, for ישׁעַת often met there with His talmidim. 3 Yehudah then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. 4 ישׁעַת, therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to Him, went out, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

5 They answered Him, "ישׁעַת of Nazareth." ישׁעַת said to them, "I am." Yehudah also, who betrayed Him, was standing with them. 6 When therefore He said to them, "I am," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Again therefore He asked them, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "ישׁעַת of Nazareth."

8 ישׁעַת answered, "I told you that I am. If therefore you seek Me, let these go their way," 9 that the word might be fulfilled which He spoke, "Of those whom you have given Me, I have lost none."

10 Shimon Kepha therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's bondservant, and cut off his right ear. The bondservant's name was Malekh. 11 ישׁעַת therefore said to Kepha, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given Me, shall I not surely drink it?"

ישׁעַת Before the Priests

12 So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Yehudim, seized ישׁעַת and bound Him, 13 and led Him to Hananyah first, for he was father-in-law to Qayapha, who was high priest that year. 14 Now it was Qayapha who advised the Yehudim that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. 15 Shimon Kepha followed ישׁעַת, as did another talmid. Now that talmid was known to the high priest, and entered in with ישׁעַת into the court of the high priest; 16 but Kepha was standing at the door outside. So the other talmid, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Kepha. 17 Then the maid who kept the door said to Kepha, "Are you also one of this man's talmidim?" He said, "I am not."

18 Now the bondservants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Kepha was with them, standing and warming himself. 19 The high priest therefore asked ישׁעַת about His talmidim, and about His teaching. 20 ישׁעַת answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the Temple, where the all Yehudim are. I said nothing in secret. 21 Why do you ask Me? Ask those who have heard Me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said."

22 When He had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped ישׁעַת with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

23 ישׁעַת answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat Me?"

24 Hananyah sent Him bound to Qayapha, the high priest.

^a 17 See Tehillim 119:160.

Kepha's Denial

25 Now Shimon Kepha was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You are not also one of His talmidim, are you?" He denied it, and said, "I am not."

26 One of the bondservants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Kepha had cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

27 Kepha therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

ישׁוּעָה Before Pilate

28 They led יִשְׁוֹעָה therefore from Qayapha into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Pesah. 29 Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

30 They answered him, "If this man were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you."

31 Pilate therefore said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law." Therefore the Yehudim said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," 32 that the word of יִשְׁוֹעָה might be fulfilled, which He spoke, signifying by what kind of death He should die.

33 Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called יִשְׁוֹעָה, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Yehudim?"

34 יִשְׁוֹעָה answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about Me?"

35 Pilate answered, "I am not a Yehudite, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered You to me. What have You done?"

36 יִשְׁוֹעָה answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If My Kingdom were of this world, then My servants would fight, that I would not be delivered to the Yehudim. But now My Kingdom is not from here."

37 Pilate therefore said to Him, "Are you a king then?" יִשְׁוֹעָה answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to My voice."

38 Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" When he had said this, he went out again to the Yehudim, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against Him. 39 But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Pesah. Therefore, do you want me to release to you the King of the Yehudim?"

40 Then they shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Bar-Abba!" Now Bar-Abba was a robber.

Crown of Thorns

19 So Pilate then took יַשְׁוֹעָה, and flogged Him. 2 The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on His head, and dressed Him in a purple garment. 3 They kept saying, "Hail, King of the Yehudim!" and they were coming to Him and continued slapping Him.

4 Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring Him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against Him."

5 יַשְׁוֹעָה therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!"

6 When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and crucify Him, for I find no basis for a charge against Him."

7 The Yehudim answered him, "We have a law, and by the law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of Elohim."

8 When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. 9 He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to יִשְׁוֹעָה, "Where are You from?" But יִשְׁוֹעָה gave him no answer. 10 Pilate therefore said to him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to release You, and have power to crucify You?"

11 יִשְׁוֹעָה answered, "You would have no power at all against Me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered Me to you has greater sin."

12 At this, Pilate was seeking to release Him, but the Yehudim cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought יִשְׁוֹעָה out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement", but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha."

14 Now it was the Preparation Day of the Pesah, at about the sixth hour. He said to the Yehudim, "Behold, your King!"

15 They cried out, "Away with Him! Away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

ישׁוּעָה Crucified

16 So then he delivered Him to them to be crucified. So they took יִשְׁעָה. 17 He went out, Himself bearing the stake, to the place called "The Place of a Skull", which is called in Hebrew, "Gulgoleth", 18 where they crucified Him, and with Him two others, on either side one, and שׁוּעָה in the middle. 19 Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the stake. There was written, "יִשְׁעָה of Nazareth, the King of the Yehudim." 20 Therefore many of the Yehudim read this title, for the place where שׁוּעָה was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. 21 The chief priests of the Yehudim therefore said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Yehudim,' but, 'He said, 'I am King of the Yehudim.'""

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified יִשְׁעָה, took His garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 Then they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted My garments among them. For My cloak they cast lots."^a Therefore the soldiers did these things.

25 But there were standing by the stake of יִשְׁעָה, His mother and His mother's sister, Miryam the wife of Ahav, and Miryam from Magdala. 26 Therefore when יִשְׁעָה saw His mother, and the talmid whom He loved standing there, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" 27 Then He said to the talmid, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the talmid took her to his own home. 28 After this, יִשְׁעָה, knowing that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty." 29 Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at His mouth. 30 When יִשְׁעָה therefore had received the vinegar, He said, "It is finished." He bowed His head, and gave up His spirit.

Preparation Day

31 Therefore the Yehudim, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies would not remain on the stake on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a High Day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with Him; 33 but when they came to יִשְׁעָה, and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. 34 However one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 He who has seen has testified, and his witness is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. 36 For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of Him will not be broken."^b 37 Again another Scripture says, "They will look on Him whom they pierced."^c

Burial of יִשְׁעָה

38 After these things, Yoseph of Ramah, being a talmid of יִשְׁעָה, but secretly for fear of the Yehudim, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of יִשְׁעָה. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away His body. 39 Nikodemos, who at first came to שׁוּעָה by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrr and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds. 40 So they took יִשְׁעָה's body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Yehudim is to bury. 41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a renewed tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. 42 Then because of the Preparation Day of the Yehudim (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid יִשְׁעָה there.

The Resurrection

20 Now on the first of the week, Miryam from Magdala went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. 2 Therefore she ran and came to Shimon Kepha, and to the other talmid whom יִשְׁעָה loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Master out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him!" 3 Therefore Kepha and the other talmid went out, and they went toward the tomb. 4 They both ran together. The other talmid outran Kepha, and came to the tomb first. 5 Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he did not enter in. 6 Then Shimon Kepha came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, 7 and the cloth that had been on His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 So then the other talmid who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. 9 For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead. 10 So the talmidim went away again to their own homes.

^a 24 See Tehillim 22.

^b 36 See Shemot 12:46; Bemidbar 9:12; Tehillim 34:20.

^c 37 See Zekharyah 12:10.

11 But Miryam was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, 12 and she saw two messengers in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of ישׁוּעָה had lain. 13 They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Master, and I do not know where they have laid Him." 14 When she had said this, she turned around and saw ישׁוּעָה standing, and did not know that it was ישׁוּעָה.

15 ישׁוּעָה said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

16 ישׁוּעָה said to her, "Miryam." She turned and said to Him in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" which is to say, "Teacher!" 17 ישׁוּעָה said to her, "Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; but go to My brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, to My Elohim and your Elohim.'"

ישׁוּעָה Among the Talmidim

18 Miryam from Magdala came and told the talmidim, "I have seen the Master," and that He had said these things to her. 19 When therefore it was evening, on that day, day one of the week, and when the doors were locked where the talmidim were, for fear of the Yehudim, ישׁוּעָה came and stood in the middle, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

20 When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The talmidim therefore were glad when they saw the Master. 21 He therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you." 22 When He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Set-apart Ruah! 23 If you forgive anyone's sins, they have been forgiven them. If you retain anyone's sins, they have been retained."

24 But Taom, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when ישׁוּעָה came. 25 The other talmidim therefore said to him, "We have seen the Master!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."

26 After eight days again His talmidim were inside, and Taom was with them. ישׁוּעָה came, the doors being locked, and stood in the middle, and said, "Peace be to you." 27 Then He said to Taom, "Reach here your finger, and see My hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into My side. Do not disbelieve, but believe."

28 Taom answered Him, "My Master and my Elohim!" 29 ישׁוּעָה said to him, "Because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."

30 Therefore ישׁוּעָה did many other signs in the presence of His talmidim, which are not written in this book; 31 but these are written, that you may believe that ישׁוּעָה is the Messiah, the Son of Elohim, and that believing you may have life in His Name.

ישׁוּעָה Appears at the Sea of the Galil

21 After these things, ישׁוּעָה revealed Himself again to the talmidim at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed Himself this way. 2 Shimon Kepha, Taom called Didymus, Nathana'el of Qanah in the Galil, and the sons of Zevadyahu, and two others of His talmidim were together. 3 Shimon Kepha said to them, "I am going fishing." They told him, "We are also coming with you." They went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. 4 But when day had already come, ישׁוּעָה stood on the beach, yet the talmidim did not know that it was ישׁוּעָה. 5 ישׁוּעָה therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered Him, "No."

6 He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast it therefore, and now they were not able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. 7 That talmid therefore whom ישׁוּעָה loved said to Kepha, "It is the Master!" So when Shimon Kepha heard that it was the Master, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. 8 But the other talmidim came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish. 9 So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. 10 ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

11 Shimon Kepha went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

12 ישׁוּעָה said to them, "Come and eat the afternoon meal." None of the talmidim dared inquire of Him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Master.

13 Then ישׁוּעָה came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. 14 This is now the third time that ישׁוּעָה was revealed to His talmidim, after He had risen from the dead. 15 So when they had eaten their afternoon meal, ישׁוּעָה said to Shimon Kepha, "Shimon, son of Yonah, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Master; You know that I have affection for You." He said to him, "Feed My lambs."

16 He said to him again a second time, "Shimon, son of Yonah, do you love Me?" He said to Him, "Yes, Master; You know that I have affection for You." He said to him, "Tend My sheep." 17 He said to him the third time, "Shimon, son of Yonah, do you have affection for Me?" Kepha was grieved because He asked him the third time, "Do you have affection for me?" He said to him, "Master, You know everything. You know that I have affection for You." שׁוּם said to him, "Feed My sheep.

18 Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you do not want to go."

19 Now He said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify Elohim. When He had said this, He said to him, "Follow Me."

20 Then Kepha, turning around, saw a talmid following. This was the talmid whom שׁוּם loved, the one who had also leaned on the breast of יִهְוָה at the supper and asked, "Master, who is going to betray You?" 21 Kepha seeing him, said to יִשְׁעָה, "Master, what about this man?"

22 יִשְׁעָה said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me." 23 This saying therefore went out among the brothers, that this talmid would not die. Yet יִשְׁעָה did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the talmid who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. 25 There are also many other things which יִשְׁעָה did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself would not have room for the books that would be written.

מְעֵשִׁי

Ma'asei (Acts)

Introduction

1 The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that began both to do and to teach, 2 until the day in which He was received up, after He had given command through the Set-apart Ruah to the shelihim whom He had chosen. 3 To these He also showed Himself alive after He suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about the Kingdom of Elohim. 4 Being assembled together with them, He commanded them, "Do not depart from Yerushalayim, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from Me. 5 For Yohanan indeed immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Set-apart Ruah not many days from now."

6 Therefore when they had come together, they asked Him, "Master, are You now restoring the kingdom to Yisra'el?"

7 He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within His own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Set-apart Ruah has come upon you. You will be My witnesses in Yerushalayim, in all Yehudah and Shom'ron, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

The Ascension

9 When He had said these things, as they were looking, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. 10 While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as He went, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing, 11 who also said, "You men of the Galil, why do you stand looking into the sky? This שָׁרוֹן, who was received up from you into the sky, will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky."

Upper Room; Mattithyahu Replaces Yehudah

12 Then they returned to Yerushalayim from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Yerushalayim, a Sabbath day's journey away. 13 When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Kepha, Yohanan, Ya'aqov, Andreas, Philippos, Taom, Bar-Talmai, Mattithyahu, Ya'aqov the son of Heleph, Shimon the Kena'anite, and Yehudah the son of Ya'aqov. 14 All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer, along with the women, and Miryam the mother of Yeshua, and with His brothers.

15 In these days, Kepha stood up in the middle of the brothers (and the crowd of names was about one hundred twenty), and said, 16 "Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Set-apart Ruah spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Yehudah, who was guide to those who took שָׁרוֹן. 17 For he was counted with us, and received his portion in this service. 18 Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out. 19 It became known to everyone who lived in Yerushalayim that in their language that field was called 'Hechal-dama,' that is, 'The field of blood.' 20 For it is written in the book of Tehillim, 'Let his habitation be made a wilderness. Let no one dwell therein;^a and, 'Let another take his office.'^b

21 "Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Master שֶׁבֶת went in and out among us, 22 beginning from the immersion of Yohanan, to the day that He was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of His resurrection."

23 They put forward two, Yoseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Ioustus, and Mattithyahu. 24 They prayed, and said, "You, נָבָת, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two You have chosen 25 to take part in this service and work of the shelihim from which Yehudah fell away, that he might go to his own place." 26 They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Mattithyahu, and he was counted with the eleven shelihim.

Day of Pentecost / Shavuot

2 Now when the day of Pentecost^c had come, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly there came from the heavens a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. 4 They were all filled with the Set-apart Ruah, and began to speak other languages, as the Ruah gave them the ability to speak. 5 Now there were dwelling in Yerushalayim Yehudim, devout men, from every nation under the heavens. 6 When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. 7 They were all amazed and marveled, saying, "Behold, are all these who speak not Galileans? 8 How do we hear, everyone in our own native language? 9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and people from Aram-Naharayim, Yehudah, Kappadokia, Pontus, Asia, 10 Phrygia, Pamphylia, Mitsrayim, the parts of Luvim around Kurene, visitors from Rome, [both Yehudim and proselytes,^a] 11 Cretans and Aravians: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of Elohim!" 12 They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" 13 Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with new wine."

Kepha's Speech

14 But Kepha, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, "You men of Yehudah, and all you who dwell at Yerushalayim, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. 15 For these are not drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day. 16 But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Yo'el: 17 It will be in the last days, says Elohim, that I will pour out My Ruah on all flesh. Your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your young men will see visions. Your old men will dream dreams. 18 Yes, and on My bondservants and on My handmaidens in those days, I will pour out My Ruah, and they will prophesy. 19 I will show wonders in the sky above, and signs on the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and billows of smoke. 20 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and glorious day of תִּבְרָא comes. 21 It will be that whoever will call on the Name of תִּבְרָא will be saved.^b

22 "Men of Yisra'el, hear these words! עִישׂוֹן of Nazareth, a man approved by Elohim to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which Elohim did by Him among you, even as you yourselves know, 23 Him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of Elohim, you have taken by the hand of lawless men, nailed up and killed; 24 whom Elohim raised up, having loosed the agony^c of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it. 25 For David says concerning Him, I saw תִּבְרָא always before my face, for He is on my right hand, that I should not be moved. 26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced. Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope; 27 because You will not leave my being in Sheol, neither will You allow Your Set-apart One to see decay. 28 You made known to me the ways of life. You will make me full of gladness with Your presence.^d

29 "Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that Elohim had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, [according to the flesh, to raise up the Messiah]^e to sit on his throne, 31 he foresaw that this spoke about the resurrection of the Messiah, that He was not left in Sheol, and His flesh did not see decay. 32 This עִישׂוֹן Elohim raised up, to which we all are witnesses. 33 The right hand of Elohim being exalted therefore, and having received from the Father the promise of the Set-apart Ruah, He has poured out this, which you see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself, 'יְהִי רָצֶן' said to my Master, "Sit at My right hand, 35 until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet."^f

36 "Let all the house of Yisra'el therefore know certainly that Elohim has made Him both Master^g and Messiah, this עִישׂוֹן whom you crucified."

The Fellowship of Believers

37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Kepha and the rest of the shelihim, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

38 Kepha said to them, "Repent, and be immersed, every one of you, in the Name of מֶשֶׁיחַ Messiah for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Set-apart Ruah. 39 For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as תִּבְרָא our Elohim will call to Himself." 40 With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!"

41 Then those who received his word were immersed. There were added that day about three thousand beings.

42 They continued steadfastly in the teaching of the shelihim and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and the prayers. 43 Fear came on every being, and many wonders and signs were done through the shelihim.

44 All who believed were together, and had all things in common. 45 They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. 46 Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising Elohim, and having favor with all the people. תָּלִינִים added to their number day by day those who are being saved.

Healing the Lame Beggar

3 Kepha and Yohanan were going up into the Temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 2 A certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the Temple which is called 'Beautiful,' to ask for gifts for the needy of those who entered into the Temple. 3 Seeing Kepha and Yohanan about to go into the Temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy. 4 Kepha, fastening his eyes on him, with Yohanan, said, "Look at us." 5 He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Kepha said, "I have no silver or gold, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of ישׁוּשָׁה Messiah of Nazareth, get up and walk!" 7 He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. 8 Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the Temple, walking, leaping, and praising Elohim. 9 All the people saw him walking and praising Elohim. 10 They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. 11 As he held on to Kepha and Yohanan, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Shelomoh's, greatly wondering.

Kepha Addresses the People

12 When Kepha saw it, he responded to the people, "You men of Yisra'el, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? 13 The Elohim of Avraham, Yitshaq, and Ya'aqov, the Elohim of our fathers, has glorified His Servant ישׁוּשָׁה, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release Him. 14 But you denied the Set-apart and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15 and killed the Prince of life, whom Elohim raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses. 16 By faith in His Name, His Name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through Him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 "Now, brothers, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. 18 But the things which Elohim announced by the mouth of all His prophets, that Messiah should suffer, He thus fulfilled.

19 "Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of תָּלִינִים, 20 and that He may send Messiah ישׁוּשָׁה, who was appointed for you before, 21 whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which Elohim spoke from the age by the mouth of His set-apart prophets. 22 For Mosheh indeed said to the fathers, תָּלִינִים Elohim will raise up a Prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to Him in all things whatever He says to you. 23 It will be that every being that will not listen to that Prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.^a 24 Yes, and all the prophets from Shemu'el and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. 25 You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which Elohim cut with our fathers, saying to Avraham, 'In your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.'^b 26 Elohim, having raised up His servant, sent Him to you first to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your wickedness."

Kepha and Yohanan Arrested

4 As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees came to them, 2 being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in עַשְׂנֵת the resurrection from the dead.

3 They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. 4 But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 In the morning, their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Yerushalayim. 6 Hananyah the high priest was there, with Qayapha, Yohanan, Alexandros, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. 7 When they had stood Kepha and Yohanan in the middle of them, they inquired, "By what power, or in what Name, have you done this?"

8 Then Kepha, filled with the Set-apart Ruah, said to them, "You rulers of the people, and elders, 9 if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been saved,

^a 22-23 See Devarim 18:15-19.

^b 25 See Bereshiyt 22:18; 26:4.

10 let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Yisra'el, that in the Name of שֵׁשׁ Messiah of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom Elohim raised from the dead, in Him does this man stand here before you whole. 11 He is 'the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.'^a 12 There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other Name under heaven, that is given among men, by which we must be saved!"

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Kepha and Yoḥanan, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with שֵׁשׁ. 14 Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, "What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Yerushalayim, and we cannot deny it. 17 But so that this spreads no further among the people, let us warn them, that from now on they do not speak to anyone in this Name." 18 They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the Name of שֵׁשׁ.

19 But Kepha and Yoḥanan answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of Elohim to listen to you rather than to Elohim, judge for yourselves, 20 for we cannot help telling the things which we saw and heard."

21 When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified Elohim for that which was done. 22 For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

Prayer for Boldness

23 Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. 24 When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to Elohim with one accord, and said, "O תְּהִלָּתֶךָ, it is You who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; 25 who through the Set-apart Ruah by the mouth of Your servant, David, said, 'Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?'

26 The kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take council together, against תְּהִלָּתֶךָ, and against His Messiah.'^b

27 "For truly, in this city against Your set-apart servant, שֵׁשׁ, whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius

Pilate, with the nations and the people of Yisra'el, were gathered together 28 to do whatever Your hand and Your council foreordained to happen. 29 Now, יְהֹוָה, look at their threats, and grant to Your bondservants to speak Your word with all boldness, 30 while You stretch out Your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the Name of Your set-apart Servant שֵׁשׁ."

Possessions Held in Common

31 When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Set-apart Ruah, and they spoke the word of Elohim with boldness. 32 The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and being. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33 With great power, the shelihim gave their witness of the resurrection of the Master שֵׁשׁ. Great favor was on them all. 34 For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, 35 and laid them at the feet of the shelihim, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need. 36 Yoseph, who by the shelihim was also called Barnava (which is, being translated, 'Son of Encouragement'), a Levite, a man of the Kuprite^c people, 37 having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the feet of the shelihim.

Hananyah and Sapphir

5 But a certain man named Hananyah, with Sapphir, his wife, sold a possession, 2 and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the feet of the shelihim. 3 But Kepha said, "Hananyah, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Set-apart Ruah, and to keep back part of the price of the land? 4 While you kept it, did it not remain your own? After it was sold, was it not in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to Elohim."

5 Hananyah, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard. 6 The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. 7 About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. 8 Kepha answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." She said, "Yes, for so much."

^c 36 Kuprite – From Kupros; more commonly "Cyprus."

9 But Kepha asked her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Ruah of נָבָת? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

10 She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11 Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things.

12 By the hands of the shelihim many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Shalomoh's porch. 13 None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. 14 More of those believing were added to נָבָת, multitudes of both men and women. 15 They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Kepha came by, at the least his shadow might come over some of them. 16 The multitude also came together from the cities around Yerushalayim, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

Imprisonment and Release

17 But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, 18 and laid hands on the shelihim, and put them in public custody. 19 But a messenger of נָבָת opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said, 20 "Go stand and speak in the Temple to the people all the words of this life."

21 When they heard this, they entered into the Temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the Sanhedrin together, and all the assembly of elders of the children of Yisra'el, and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22 But the officers who came did not find them in the prison. They returned and reported, 23 "We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards stood before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"

24 Now when the captain of the Temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. 25 One came and told them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the Temple, standing and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

27 When they had brought them, they set them before the Sanhedrin. The high priest questioned them, 28 saying, "Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this Name? Behold, you have filled Yerushalayim with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

29 But Kepha and the shelihim answered, "We must obey Elohim rather than men. 30 The Elohim of our fathers raised up ישׁוּעָה, whom you killed, hanging Him on a tree. 31 Elohim exalted Him, His right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Yisra'el, and remission of sins. 32 We are witnesses of these things; and so also is the Set-apart Ruah, whom Elohim has given to those who obey Him."

Gamali'el's Counsel

33 But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and were wanting to kill them. 34 But one stood up in the Sanhedrin, a Pharisee named Gamali'el, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the men^a out for a little while. 35 He said to them, "You men of Yisra'el, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. 36 For before these days Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. 37 After this man, Yehudah of the Galil rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown. 39 But if it is of Elohim, you will not be able to overthrow them, and you would even be found to be fighting against Elohim!"

40 They agreed with him. Summoning the shelihim, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the Name of ישׁוּעָה, and let them go. 41 They therefore departed from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the His Name.

42 Every day, in the Temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming ישׁוּעָה, the Messiah.

^a 34 Later Greek texts read "shelihim" instead of "men" here.

Seven Chosen to Serve

6 Now in those days, when the number of the talmidim was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists^a against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. 2 The twelve summoned the multitude of the talmidim and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of Elohim and serve tables. 3 Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Ruah [of נִתְנָה]^b and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."

5 These words pleased the whole multitude. They chose Stephanos, a man full of faith and of the Set-apart Ruah, Philippos, Prohorus, Nikanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nikolaos, a proselyte of Antioch; 6 whom they set before the shelihim. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. 7 The word of Elohim increased and the crowd of the talmidim multiplied in Yerushalayim exceedingly. A great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Stephanos' Dispute

8 Stephanos, full of favor and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. 9 But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Freedmen", and of the Kurenes, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Kilikia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephanos. 10 They were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Ruah by which he spoke. 11 Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Mosheh and Elohim." 12 They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the Sanhedrin, 13 and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this set-apart place and the law. 14 For we have heard him say that this שׁוֹמֵן of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Mosheh delivered to us." 15 All who sat in the Sanhedrin, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of a messenger.

Stephanos' Speech

7 The high priest said, "Are these things so?"

2 He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The Elohim of glory appeared to our father Avraham, when he was in Aram-Naharayim, before he lived in Haran,^c and said to him, 'Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.'^c 4 Then he came out of the land of the Kaldeans, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, Elohim moved him into this land, where you are now living. 5 He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that He would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when he still had no child. 6 Elohim spoke in this way: that his seed would live as sojourners in a foreign land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. 7 'I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said Elohim, 'and after that will they come out, and serve Me in this place.'^d 8 He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Avraham brought forth Yitsqaq, and circumcised him the eighth day. Yitsqaq brought forth Ya'aqov, and Ya'aqov brought forth the twelve patriarchs.

9 "The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Yoseph, sold him into Mitsrayim. Elohim was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Mitsrayim. He made him governor over Mitsrayim and all his house. 11 Now a famine came over all of Mitsrayim and Kena'an, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food. 12 But when Ya'aqov heard that there was grain in Mitsrayim, he sent out our fathers the first time. 13 On the second time Yoseph was made known to his brothers, and Yoseph's race was revealed to Pharaoh. 14 Yoseph sent, and summoned Ya'aqov, his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five beings. 15 Ya'aqov went down into Mitsrayim, and he died, himself and our fathers, 16 and they were brought back to Shekhem, and laid in the tomb that Avraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor in Shekhem.

17 "But as the time of the promise came close which Elohim had sworn to Avraham, the people grew and multiplied in Mitsrayim, 18 until 'there arose a different king, who did not know Yoseph.'^e 19 The same took advantage of our people, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they would not stay alive. 20 At that time Mosheh was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three new moons in his father's house. 21 When he was thrown out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son. 22 Mosheh was instructed in all the wisdom of the Mitsrites. He was mighty in his words and works. 23 But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Yisra'el. 24 Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Mitsrite. 25 He supposed that his brothers understood that Elohim, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they did not understand.

26 "The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, 'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?' 27 But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?' 28 Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Mitsrite yesterday?"^a 29 Mosheh fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he brought forth two sons.

30 "When forty years were fulfilled, a messenger [of הָנָה]^b appeared in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 When Mosheh saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of הָנָה came to him, 32 'I am the Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Avraham, the Elohim of Yitsḥaq, and the Elohim of Ya'aqov.'^c Mosheh trembled, and dared not look. 33 הָנָה said to him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you stand is set apart ground. 34 I have surely seen the affliction of My people that is in Mitsrayim, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Mitsrayim.'^d

35 "This Mosheh, whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'—Elohim has sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the messenger who appeared to him in the bush. 36 This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Mitsrayim, in the Sea of Reeds, and in the wilderness for forty years. 37 This is that Mosheh, who said to the children of Yisra'el, הָנָה our Elohim will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me."^e 38 This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the messenger that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living words to give to us, 39 to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Mitsrayim, 40 saying to Aharon, 'Make us elohim that will go before us, for as for this Mosheh, who led us out of the land of Mitsrayim, we do not know what has become of him.'^f 41 They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. 42 But Elohim turned, and gave them up to serve the army of the heavens, as it is written in the book of the prophets, 'Did you offer to Me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Yisra'el? 43 You took up the tabernacle of Moloh, the star of your el Rephan, the figures which you made to bow down to. I will carry you away beyond Bavel.'^g

44 "Our fathers had the Tabernacle of the Witness in the wilderness, even as He who spoke to Mosheh commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen; 45 which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Yehoshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom Elohim drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David, 46 who found favor in the sight of Elohim, and asked to find a habitation for the Elohim of Ya'aqov. 47 But Shelomoh built Him a house. 48 However, Elyon does not dwell in dwelling places made with hands, as the prophet says, 49 'heaven is My throne, and the earth a footstool for My feet. What kind of house will you build Me?' says הָנָה. 'Or what is the place of My rest? 50 Did My hand not make all these things?^h

51 "You stiff-necked and non-circumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Set-apart Ruah! As your fathers did, so you do. 52 Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers. 53 You received the Torah as it was ordained by messengers, and did not guard it!"

The Stoning of Stephanos

54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55 But he, being full of the Set-apart Ruah, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of Elohim, and שְׁמַע standing from the right hand of Elohim, 56 and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing from the right hand of Elohim!"

57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him with one accord. 58 They threw him out of the city, and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Sha'ul. 59 They stoned Stephanos as he called out, saying, "Master שָׁוֹשָׁן, receive my spirit!" 60 He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, "Master, do not hold this sin against them!" When he had said this, he fell asleep.

Sha'ul Persecutes the Assembly

8 Sha'ul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Yerushalayim in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Yehudah and Shom'ron, except for the shelihim. 2 Devout men buried Stephanos, and lamented greatly over him. 3 But Sha'ul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. 4 Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around proclaiming the word. 5 Philippos went down to the city of Shom'ron, and proclaimed to them the Messiah. 6 The crowds listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philippos, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. 7 For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. 8 There was great joy in that city.

Shimon the Sorcerer

9 But there was a certain man, Shimon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Shom'ron, making himself out to be some great one, 10 to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the power of Elohim called 'Great.'" 11 They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philippos proclaiming good news concerning the Kingdom of Elohim and the Name of שְׁוֹשָׁן Messiah, they were immersed, both men and women. 13 Shimon himself also believed. Being immersed, he continued with Philippos. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, he was amazed.

14 Now when the shelihim who were at Yerushalayim heard that Shom'ron had received the word of Elohim, they sent Kepha and Yoḥanan to them, 15 who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Set-apart Ruah; 16 for it had not yet fallen on them. They had only been immersed in the Name of the Master שְׁוֹשָׁן. 17 Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Set-apart Ruah. 18 Now when Shimon saw that the Ruah was given through the laying on of the hands of the shelihim, he offered them money, 19 saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Set-apart Ruah." 20 But Kepha said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of Elohim with money! 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before Elohim. 22 Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask the Master^a if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. 23 For I see that you are in the poison of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."

24 Shimon answered, "Pray for me to יְהוָה, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."

25 They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of יְהוָה, returned to Yerushalayim, and proclaimed the good news to many villages of the Shom'ronites. 26 But a messenger of יְהוָה spoke to Philippos, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Yerushalayim to Gaza. This is a wilderness."

Philippos and the Kushite Eunuch

27 He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of Kush, a eunuch of great authority under Kandake, queen of the Kushites, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Yerushalayim to bow down. 28 He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Yeshayahu.

29 The Ruah said to Philippos, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."

30 Philippos ran to him, and heard him reading Yeshayahu the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philippos to come up and sit with him.

32 Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter. As a lamb before his shearer is silent, so He does not open His mouth. 33 In His humiliation, His judgment was taken away. Who will declare His generation? For His life is taken from the earth."^b

34 The eunuch answered Philippos, "Who is the prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone else?"

35 Philippos opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, proclaimed to him about שְׁוֹשָׁן. 36 As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being immersed?"

^a 22 Later Greek and Syriac texts read, "Elohim" here.

^b 32-33 See Yeshayahu 53:7-8.

37 [Philippos said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." He answered, "I believe that ישׁוּעָה Messiah is the Son of Elohim."] 38 He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philippos and the eunuch, and he immersed him.

39 When they came up out of the water, the Ruah of יהוָה caught Philippos away, and the eunuch did not see him anymore, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philippos was found at Ashdod. Passing through, he proclaimed the good news to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

Sha'ul on the Road to Dammeseq

9 But Sha'ul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the talmidim of the Master, went to the high priest, 2 and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Dammeseq, that if he found any who were of The Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Yerushalayim. 3 As he traveled, he got close to Dammeseq, and suddenly a light from the heavens shone around him. 4 He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Sha'ul, Sha'ul, why do you persecute me?"

5 He said, "Who are You, Master?" The Master said, "I am ישׁוּעָה, whom you are persecuting. 6 But rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7 The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one. 8 Sha'ul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Dammeseq. 9 He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.

10 Now there was a certain talmid at Dammeseq named Hananyah. 11 said to him in a vision, "Hananyah!" He said, "Behold, it is me, Master."

11 The Master said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called 'Straight,' and inquire in the house of Yehudah for one named Sha'ul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, 12 and [in a vision]^b he saw a man named Hananyah coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight."

13 But Hananyah answered, "Master, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to Your set-apart ones at Yerushalayim. 14 Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your Name."

15 But יהוָה said to him, "Go your way, for he is My chosen vessel to bear My Name before the nations and kings, and the children of Yisra'el. 16 For I will show him how many things he must suffer for My Name's sake."

17 Hananyah departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Sha'ul, the Master, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Set-apart Ruah." 18 Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was immersed. 19 He took food and was strengthened. [Sha'ul stayed several days with the talmidim who were at Dammeseq.]^c 20 Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed ישׁוּעָה, that He is the Son of Elohim. 21 All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Is this not he who in Yerushalayim made havoc of those who called on this Name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!"

Sha'ul in Dammeseq and Yerushalayim

22 But Sha'ul increased more in strength, and confounded the Yehudim who lived at Dammeseq, proving that this is the Messiah. 23 When many days were fulfilled, the Yehudim conspired together to kill him, 24 but their plot became known to Sha'ul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, 25 but his talmidim took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. 26 When Sha'ul had come to Yerushalayim, he tried to join himself to the talmidim; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a talmid. 27 But Barnava took him, and brought him to the shelihim, and declared to them how יהוָה had appeared to him on the way, and that He had spoken to him, and how at Dammeseq he had proclaimed boldly in the Name of ישׁוּעָה. 28 He was with them entering into Yerushalayim, 29 proclaiming boldly in the Name of the Master. He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill him. 30 When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. 31 So the assembly throughout all Yehudah and the Galil and Shom'ron had peace, and was built up. It was multiplied, walking in the fear of יהוה and in the comfort of the Set-apart Ruah.

Healing of Aineas

32 As Kepha went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the set-apart ones who lived at Lod. 33 There he found a certain man named Aineas, who had been bedridden from eight years, because he was paralyzed. 34 Kepha said to him, "Aineas, עִשָּׂו Messiah heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose. 35 All who lived at Lod and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Master.

Raising of Dorkas

36 Now there was at Yapho a certain talmid named Tsebiyah, which when translated, is called Dorkas. This woman was full of good works and acts of kindness which she did. 37 In those days, she became sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. 38 As Lod was near Yapho, the talmidim, hearing that Kepha was there, sent two men to him, imploring him, "Do not delay in coming to us." 39 Kepha got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorkas had made while she was with them. 40 Kepha sent them all out, and knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tsebiyah, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Kepha, she sat up. 41 He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the set-apart ones and widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all Yapho, and many believed in the Master. 43 He stayed many days in Yapho with a tanner named Shimon.

Kepha and Cornelius

10 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of the cohort that is called Italian, 2 a devout man, and one who feared Elohim with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to Elohim. 3 At about the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision a messenger of Elohim coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

4 He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Master?" He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before Elohim. 5 Now send men to Yapho, and get Shimon, who is also called Kepha. 6 He lodges with a tanner named Shimon, whose house is by the sea.

7 When the messenger who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually.

8 Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Yapho.

Kepha's Vision

9 Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Kepha went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. 10 He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a state of astonishment. 11 He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, 12 in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the heavens. 13 A voice came to him, "Rise, Kepha, slaughter and eat!"

14 But Kepha said, "Not so, Master; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean."

15 A voice came out to him again the second time, "What Elohim has cleansed, you must not call unclean."

16 This was done three times, and immediately the container was received up into heaven. 17 Now while Kepha was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Shimon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Shimon, who was also called Kepha, was lodging there. 19 While Kepha was pondering the vision, the Ruah said to him, "Behold, three men seek you. 20 But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

21 Kepha went down to the men, and said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?"

22 They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears Elohim, and well-spoken of by all the nation of the Yehudim, was directed by a set-apart messenger to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say." 23 So he called them in and provided a place to stay. On the next day he arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Yapho accompanied him. 24 On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends.

25 When Kepha entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and bowed down before him. 26 But Kepha raised him up, saying, "Stand up! I myself am also a man." 27 As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. 28 He said to them, "You yourselves know how it is unlawful for a man who is a Yehudite to join himself or come near a Gentile, but Elohim has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. 29 Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?"

30 Cornelius said, "Four days ago, to this very hour, I was praying in my house in the ninth hour, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of Elohim. 32 Send therefore to Yapho, and summon Shimon, who is also called Kepha. He lodges in the house of a tanner named Shimon, by the sea.' 33 Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of Elohim to hear all things that have been commanded by Elohim."

Nations Hear the Good News

34 Kepha opened his mouth and said, "Truly I perceive that Elohim does not show favoritism; 35 but in every nation he who fears Him and works righteousness is acceptable to Him. 36 The word which He sent to the children of Yisra'el, proclaiming good news of peace by שֵׁשֶׁן Messiah—He is Master^a of all—37 you yourselves know what happened, which was proclaimed throughout all Yehudah, beginning from the Galil, after the immersion which Yohanan proclaimed; 38 even שֵׁשֶׁן of Nazareth, how Elohim anointed Him with the Set-apart Ruah and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for Elohim was with Him. 39 We are witnesses of everything He did both in the country of the Yehudim, and in Yerushalayim; whom they also killed, hanging Him on a tree. 40 Elohim raised Him up the third day, and gave Him to be revealed, 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by Elohim, to us, who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. 42 He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that this is He who is appointed by Elohim as the Judge of the living and the dead. 43 All the prophets testify about Him, that through His Name everyone who believes in Him will receive remission of sins."

44 While Kepha was still speaking these words, the Set-apart Ruah fell on all those who heard the word. 45 They of the circumcision who were believing were amazed, as many came with Kepha, because the gift of the Set-apart Ruah was also poured out on the nations. 46 For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying Elohim. Then Kepha answered, 47 "Can anyone forbid these people from being immersed with water? They have received the Set-apart Ruah just like us." 48 He commanded them to be immersed in the Name of שֵׁשֶׁן Messiah. Then they asked him to stay some days.

Kepha Reports at Yerushalayim

11 Now the shelihim and the brothers who were in Yehudah heard that the nations had also received the word of Elohim. 2 When Kepha had come up to Yerushalayim, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!"

4 But Kepha began, and explained to them in order, saying, 5 "I was in the city of Yapho praying, and in a state of astonishment I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me. 6 When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the heavens. 7 I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Kepha, slaughter and eat!' 8 But I said, 'Not so, Master, for nothing common or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.' 9 But a voice answered the second time out of heaven, saying, 'What Elohim has cleansed, you do not call unclean.' 10 This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. 11 Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. 12 The Ruah told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house.

13 "He told us how he had seen the messenger standing in his house, and saying to him, 'Send to Yapho, and get Shimon, who is called Kepha, 14 who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.' 15 As I began to speak, the Set-apart Ruah fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. 16 I remembered the word of the Master, how He said, 'יְהוָה נָאֹת הַמִּמְרָאָה בְּמִזְבֵּחַ immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Set-apart Ruah.' 17 If then Elohim gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Master שֵׁשֶׁן Messiah, who was I, that I could withstand Elohim?"

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified Elohim, saying, "Then Elohim has also granted to the nations repentance to life!"

The Assembly at Antioch

19 They therefore who were scattered abroad by the affliction that arose about Stephanos traveled as far as Phoenicia, Kupros, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Yehudim only. 20 But there were some of them, men of Kupros and Kurene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, proclaiming the Master שֵׁשֶׁן.

21 The hand of יהוה was with them, and a great number believed and turned to יהודא. 22 The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Yerushalayim. They sent out Barnava to go as far as Antioch, 23 who, when he had come, and had seen the favor of Elohim, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to יהודא. 24 For he was a good man, and full of the Set-apart Ruah and of faith, and crowds were added to יהודא.

25 Barnava went out to Tarsus to look for Sha'ul.

26 When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught crowds. The talmidim were first called 'Christians' in Antioch.

27 Now in these days, prophets came down from Yerushalayim to Antioch. 28 One of them named Hagav rose, and indicated by the Ruah that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius. 29 As any of the talmidim had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Yehudah; 30 which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnava and Sha'ul.

Kepha's Arrest and Deliverance

12 Now about that time, King Herod stretched out his hands to oppress some of the assembly. 2 He killed Ya'aqov, the brother of Yohanan, with the sword. 3 When he saw that it pleased the Yehudim, he proceeded to seize Kepha also. This was during the Days of Unleavened Bread. 4 When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Pesah. 5 Kepha therefore was guarded in the prison, but prayer was being made fervently by the assembly to Elohim for him. 6 The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Kepha was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, a messenger of יהודא stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Kepha on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands. 8 The messenger said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me." 9 And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the messenger was real, but thought he saw a vision. 10 When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the messenger departed from him.

11 When Kepha had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that יהודא has sent out His messenger and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Yehudite people were expecting."

12 Thinking about that, he came to the house of Miryam, the mother of Yohanan who was called Markos, where many were gathered together and were praying. 13 When Kepha knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. 14 When she recognized Kepha's voice, she did not open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Kepha was standing in front of the gate.

15 They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his messenger." 16 But Kepha continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17 But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how יהודא had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to Ya'aqov, and to the brothers." Then he departed, and went to another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Kepha.

19 When Herod had sought for him, and did not find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Yehudah to Caesarea, and stayed there.

Death of Herod

20 Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tsor and Tsidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastos, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. 21 On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. 22 The people shouted, "The voice of an el, and not of a man!" 23 Immediately a messenger of יהודא struck him, because he did not give Elohim the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

24 But the word of Elohim grew and multiplied.

25 Barnava and Sha'ul returned to Yerushalayim, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them Yohanan who was called Markos.

Barnava and Sha'ul Sent Out

13 Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnava, Shimon who was called Niger, Lucius of Kurene, Menahem the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Sha'ul. 2 As they served יהודא and fasted, the Set-apart Ruah said, "Separate Barnava and Sha'ul for me, for the work to which I have called them."

3 Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. 4 So, being sent out by the Set-apart Ruah, they went down to Seleukia. From there they sailed to Kupros. 5 When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of Elohim in the Yehudite synagogues. They had also Yoḥanan as their attendant. 6 When they had gone through the whole island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Yehudite, whose name was Bar-Yeshua^a, 7 who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnava and Sha'ul, and sought to hear the word of Elohim.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so indeed is his name by translation) withheld them,^b seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. 9 But Sha'ul, also called Paulus, filled with the Set-apart Ruah, fastened his eyes on him, 10 and said, "Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of יהוה?" 11 Now, behold, the hand of יהוה is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!" Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of יהוה.

13 Now Sha'ul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. Yoḥanan departed from them and returned to Yerushalayim. 14 But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. 15 After the reading of the Torah and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."

16 Sha'ul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, "Men of Yisra'el, and you who fear Elohim, listen. 17 The Elohim of this people Yisra'el chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as sojourners in the land of Mitsrayim, and with an uplifted arm, He led them out of it. 18 For about forty years He endured their ways in the wilderness. 19 When He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Kena'an, He gave them their land for an inheritance, 20 for about four hundred fifty years. And after these things He gave them judges until Shemu'el the prophet. 21 Afterward they asked for a king, and Elohim gave to them Sha'ul the son of Qish, a man of the tribe of Benyamin, for forty years. 22 When He had removed him, He raised up David to be their king, to whom He also testified, 'I have found David the son of Yishai, a man after My heart, who will do all My will.'^c

23 "From this man's seed, Elohim has, according to His promise, raised up a savior to Yisra'el, יהשע", 24 after Yoḥanan had first proclaimed the immersion of repentance to all the people of Yisra'el, before His coming; 25 as Yoḥanan was fulfilling his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not He. But behold, one comes after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'^d 26 Men, brothers, children of the offspring of Avraham, and those among you who fear Elohim, the word of this salvation is sent out to us.

27 "For those who dwell in Yerushalayim, and their rulers, because they did not know Him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning Him. 28 Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have Him killed. 29 When they had fulfilled all things that were written about Him, they took Him down from the tree, and laid Him in a tomb. 30 But Elohim raised Him from the dead, 31 and He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from the Galil to Yerushalayim, who are His witnesses to the people. 32 We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers, 33 that Elohim has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that He raised up יהשע". As it is also written in the second psalm, 'You are My Son. Today I have brought You forth.'^e

34 "Concerning that He raised Him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, He has spoken thus: 'I will give you the set-apart and faithful blessings of David.'^f 35 Therefore he says also in another psalm, 'You will not allow Your Set-apart One to see decay.'^g 36 For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of Elohim, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay. 37 But He whom Elohim raised up saw no decay. 38 Be it known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins, 39 and by Him everyone who believes is declared right from all sins from which you were not able to be declared right by the Torah of Mosheh. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets:

41 Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish; for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, even if one declares it to you.^a"

42 As they went out of the synagogue, they begged that these words might be proclaimed to them the next Sabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Yehudim and of the El-fearing proselytes followed Sha'ul and Barnava; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the favor of Elohim. 44 The next Sabbath, almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of Elohim. 45 But when the Yehudim saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Sha'ul, and blasphemed.

Sha'ul Turns to the Nations

46 Sha'ul and Barnava spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that the word of Elohim should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, we turn to the nations. 47 For so has תְּנִינָה commanded us, saying, I have set you as a light for the nations, that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.^b"

48 As the nations heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of Elohim. As many as were appointed to everlasting life believed. 49 The word of תְּנִינָה was spread abroad throughout all the region.

50 But the Yehudim stirred up the El-fearing, prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Sha'ul and Barnava, and threw them out of their borders. 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconion. 52 The talmidim were filled with joy and with the Set-apart Ruah.

Acceptance and Opposition

14 In Iconion, they entered together into the synagogue of the Yehudim, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Yehudim and of Greeks believed. 2 But the disobedient Yehudim stirred up and embittered the beings of the nations against the brothers. 3 Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in תְּנִינָה, who testified to the word of His favor, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Yehudim, and part with the shelihim. 5 When some of both the nations and the Yehudim, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, 6 they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lukaonia, Lustra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. 7 There they proclaimed the good news.

8 At Lustra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9 He was listening to Sha'ul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be saved, 10 said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked. 11 When the crowds saw what Sha'ul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The elohim have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12 They called Barnava "Zeus," and Sha'ul "Hermes", because he was the chief speaker. 13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a slaughtering along with the crowds.

14 But when the shelihim, Barnava and Sha'ul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the crowd, crying out, 15 "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living Elohim, who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; 16 who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. 17 Yet He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good and gave you rains from the heavens and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness."

18 Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the crowds from making a slaughtering to them. 19 But some Yehudim from Antioch and Iconion came there, and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Sha'ul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. 20 But as the talmidim stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnava to Derbe. 21 When they had proclaimed the good news to that city, and had made many talmidim, they returned to Lustra, Iconion, and Antioch, 22 confirming the beings of the talmidim, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the Kingdom of Elohim.

23 When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commanded them to the Master, in whom they had believed. 24 They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. 25 When they had spoken the word [of

¶^a in Perga, they went down to Attalia. 26 From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the favor of Elohim^b for the work which they had fulfilled. 27 When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that Elohim had done with them, and that He had opened a door of faith to the nations. 28 They stayed there with the talmidim for a long time.

Yerushalayim Council

15 Certain men came down from Yehudah and taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Mosheh, you cannot be saved." 2 Therefore when Sha'ul and Barnava had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Sha'ul and Barnava, and some others of them, to go up to Yerushalayim to the shelihim and elders about this question. 3 They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Shomron declaring the conversion of the nations. They caused great joy to all the brothers. 4 When they had come to Yerushalayim, they were received by the assembly and the shelihim and the elders, and they reported all things that Elohim had done with them.

5 Moreover some of those of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to guard the Torah of Mosheh."

6 The shelihim and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. 7 When there had been much discussion, Kepha rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago Elohim made a choice among us, that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the good news, and believe. 8 Elohim, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Set-apart Ruah, just like He did to us. 9 He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. 10 Now therefore why do you tempt Elohim, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the talmidim which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But by the favor of the Master שׁוֹמֵן, we believe to be saved in the same manner as them also."

12 All the multitude kept silence, and they listened to Barnava and Sha'ul reporting what signs and wonders Elohim had done among the nations through them.

13 After they were silent, Ya'aqov answered, "Brothers, listen to me. 14 Shimon has reported how Elohim first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for His Name. 15 This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written, 16 'After these things I will return. I will again build the Tabernacle of David, which has fallen. I will again build its ruins. I will set it up, 17 That the rest of men may seek after יהוה; all the nations who are called by My Name, says יהוה, who does all these things.^c 18 known from the age.'

19 "Therefore my judgment is that we do not trouble those from among the nations who turn to Elohim, 20 but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from whoring, from what is strangled, and from blood. 21 For Mosheh from generations of old has in every city those who proclaim him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

22 Then it seemed good to the shelihim and the elders, with the whole assembly, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Sha'ul and Barnava: Yehudah called Barsabbas, and Shila, chief men among the brothers. 23 They wrote these things by their hand: "The shelihim, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the nations in Antioch, Syria, and Kilikia: greetings. 24 Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your beings;^d 25 it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnava and Sha'ul, 26 men who have risked their lives for the Name of our Master יֶשׁוּא Messiah. 27 We have sent therefore Yehudah and Shila, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Ruah, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: 29 that you abstain from things slaughtered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from whoring, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell."

30 So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. 31 When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. 32 Yehudah and Shila, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. 33 After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to the ones who sent them. 34 [But it seemed good to Shila to remain.]^e 35 But Sha'ul and Barnava stayed in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of תְּהִלָּתָה, with many others also.

36 After some days Sha'ul said to Barnava, "Let us return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of תְּהִלָּתָה, to see how they are doing." 37 Barnava planned to take Yohanan, who was called Markos, with them also. 38 But Sha'ul thought it better not to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and did not go with them to do the work. 39 Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnava took Markos with him, and sailed away to Kupros, 40 but Sha'ul chose Shila, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the favor of Elohim. 41 He went through Syria and Kilikia, strengthening the assemblies.

Timotheos Joins Sha'ul and Shila

16 He came to Derbe and Lustra: and behold, a certain talmid was there, named Timotheos, the son of a believing Yehudite woman; but his father was Greek^a. 2 The brothers who were at Lustra and Iconion gave a good witness about him. 3 Sha'ul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Yehudim who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was Greek. 4 As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to guard which had been ordained by the shelihim and elders who were at Yerushalayim. 5 So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Set-apart Ruah to speak the word in Asia. 7 When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Ruah of ישׁוּעָה did not allow them. 8 Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9 A vision appeared to Sha'ul in the night. There was a male of Makedonia standing, begging him, and saying, "Come over into Makedonia and help us." 10 When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Makedonia, concluding that our Master had called us to proclaim the good news to them. 11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrake, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Makedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city.

13 On the Sabbath day we went outside of the gate by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together. 14 A certain woman named Ludia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who feared Elohim, heard us; whose heart our Master opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Sha'ul.

15 When she and her household were immersed, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to our Master, come into my house, and stay." So she persuaded us.

Sha'ul and Shila in Prison

16 As we were going to prayer, a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. 17 Following Sha'ul and us, she cried out, "These men are bondservants of El Elyon, who proclaim to us a way of salvation!" 18 She was doing this for many days. But Sha'ul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the Name of מֶשֶׁיחַ Messiah to come out of her!" It came out that very hour. 19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Sha'ul and Shila, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. 20 When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Yehudim, are agitating our city, 21 and advocate customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."

22 The crowd rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore their clothes off of them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23 When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to guard them safely, 24 who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.

25 But about midnight Sha'ul and Shila were praying and singing hymns to Elohim, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened. 27 The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Sha'ul cried with a loud voice, saying, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here!"

^a 1 Syr. reads אַרְמַנִּים (aramia) meaning "Aramean" here instead of "Greek." Also in verse 3.

29 He called for lights, sprang in, fell down trembling before Sha'ul and Shila, 30 brought them out, and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

The Jailer Believes

31 They said, "Believe in the Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 They spoke the word of תְּהִלָּתִים to him, and to all who were in his house.

33 He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately immersed, he and all his household. 34 He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in Elohim.

35 But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go."

36 The jailer reported these words to Sha'ul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace."

37 But Sha'ul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!"

38 The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, 39 and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. 40 They went out of the prison, and entered into Ludia's house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

Sha'ul at Thessalonike

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonike, where there was a Yehudite synagogue. 2 Sha'ul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3 explaining and demonstrating that the Messiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This יִשְׁעָה, whom I proclaim to you, is the Messiah."

4 Some of them were persuaded, and joined Sha'ul and Shila, of the El-fearing Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women. 5 But the Yehudim, having become envious, took along some evil men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assailing the house of Iason, they sought to bring them out to the people. 6 When they did not find them, they dragged Iason and certain brothers before the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also, 7 whom Iason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, יִשְׁעָה." 8 The crowd and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things. 9 When they had taken security from Iason and the rest, they let them go.

Sha'ul at Berea

10 The brothers immediately sent Sha'ul and Shila away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the Yehudite synagogue. 11 Now these were nobler than those in Thessalonike, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. 12 Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men. 13 But when the Yehudim of Thessalonike had knowledge that the word of Elohim was proclaimed by Sha'ul at Berea also, they came there likewise, agitating the crowds. 14 Then the brothers immediately sent out Sha'ul to go as far as to the sea, and Shila and Timotheos still stayed there. 15 But those who escorted Sha'ul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a command with Shila and Timotheos that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

Sha'ul at Athens

16 Now while Sha'ul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Yehudim and the El-fearing men, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him.

18 Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he proclaimed יִשְׁעָה and the resurrection.

Teaching on the Hill of Ares / Mars

19 They took hold of him, and brought him to the Hill of Ares, saying, "May we know what this renewed teaching is, which is spoken by you? 20 For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean." 21 Now all the Athenians and the foreigners living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some renewed thing.

22 Sha'ul stood in the middle of the Hill of Ares, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. 23 For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your reverence, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'to an unknown el.' Therefore what you revere in ignorance, this I announce to you. 24 The Elohim who made the world and all things in it, He, being Master of heaven and earth, does not dwell in dwelling places made with hands, 25 neither is He served by men's hands, as though He needed anything, seeing He Himself gives life and breath to all, and all things. 26 He made from one every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed times, and the boundaries of their dwellings, 27 that they should seek תָּבוּן, if perhaps they might reach out for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us.

28 "For in Him we live, and move, and have our being." As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.' 29 Being then the offspring of Elohim, we ought not to think that the Divine is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. 30 The times of ignorance therefore Elohim overlooked. But now He commands that all people everywhere should repent, 31 because He has appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom He has ordained; of which He has given faith to all men, in that He has raised Him from the dead."

32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."

33 Thus Sha'ul went out from among them. 34 But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionusos the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Sha'ul at Korinth

18 After these things Sha'ul departed from Athens, and came to Korinth. 2 He found a certain Yehudite named Aquila, a man of the people of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priskilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Yehudim to depart from Rome. He came to them, 3 and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers. 4 He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Yehudim and Greeks. 5 But when Shila and Timotheos came down from Makedonia, Sha'ul was compelled by the word, testifying to the Yehudim that ישׁוּעָה was the Messiah. 6 When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the nations!"

7 He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Ioustus, one who feared Elohim, whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8 Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Master with all his house. Many of the Korinthians, when they heard, believed and were immersed. 9 תָּבוּן said to Sha'ul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent; 10 for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."

11 He lived there a year and six new moons, teaching the word of Elohim among them. 12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Yehudim with one accord rose up against Sha'ul and brought him before the judgment seat, 13 saying, "This man persuades men to fear Elohim in a way contrary to the law."

14 But when Sha'ul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Yehudim, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of evil crime, O Yehudim, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you; 15 but if there are questions about a word and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I do not want to be a judge of these matters." 16 So he drove them from the judgment seat.

17 Then they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. None of these things mattered to Gallio.

18 Sha'ul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priskilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Kegcreai, for he had a vow. 19 They arrived at Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Yehudim. 20 When they asked him to stay a longer time, he declined; 21 but taking his leave of them, he said, "[I must by all means keep this coming Feast in Yerushalayim, but]^a I will return again to you if Elohim wills." Then he set sail from Ephesus. 22 When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch. 23 Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the talmidim.

Apollos Speaking Boldly

24 Now a certain Yehudite named Apollos, of the Alexandrian people, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures. 25 This man had been instructed in the way of תָּבוּן; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning ישׁוּעָה, although he knew only the immersion of Yohanan. 26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priskilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of Elohim^a more accurately.

^a 21 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek texts.

27 When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the talmidim to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through favor; 28 for he powerfully refuted the Yehudim, publicly showing by the Scriptures that יִשׁוּעָה was the Messiah.

Sha'ul in Ephesus

19 While Apollos was at Korinth, Sha'ul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain talmidim. 2 He said to them, "Did you receive the Set-apart Ruah when you believed?" They said to him, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Set-apart Ruah."

3 He said, "Into what then were you immersed?" They said, "Into Yohanan's immersion."

4 Sha'ul said, "Yohanan indeed immersed with the immersion of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in יִשׁוּעָה."

5 When they heard this, they were immersed in the Name of the Master יִשׁוּעָה. 6 When Sha'ul had laid his hands on them, the Set-apart Ruah came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied. 7 They were about twelve men in all. 8 He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three new moons, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the Kingdom of Elohim.

9 But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of The Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the talmidim, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of יִהוָה, both Yehudim and Greeks^b.

Sons of Skeva

11 Elohim worked special miracles by the hands of Sha'ul, 12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out. 13 But some of the wandering Yehudim, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the Name of the Master יִשׁוּעָה, saying, "I adjure you by whom Sha'ul proclaims." 14 There were seven sons of one Skeva, a Yehudite chief priest, who did this.

15 The evil spirit answered, "יִשׁוּעָה I know, and Sha'ul I know, but who are you?" 16 The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered all of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 This became known to all, both Yehudim and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Master יִשׁוּעָה was magnified. 18 Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. 19 Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted their price, and found it to be fifty thousand drachmas^c. 20 So the word of the Master^d was growing and becoming mighty.

21 Now after these things had ended, Sha'ul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Makedonia and Achaia, to go to Yerushalayim, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

Riot in Ephesus

22 Having sent into Makedonia two of those who served him, Timotheos and Erastos, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. 23 About that time there arose no small stir concerning The Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrios, a silversmith, who made silver dwelling places of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, 25 whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Masters, you know that by this business we have our wealth. 26 You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Sha'ul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no elohim, that are made with hands. 27 Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disregard, but also that the temple of the great eloah Artemis will be counted as nothing; she is about to be pulled down from her majesty, whom all Asia and the world fears."

28 When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

29 The city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarhos, men of Makedonia, Sha'ul's companions in travel. 30 When Sha'ul wanted to enter in to the people, the talmidim did not allow him. 31 Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater. 32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them did not know why they had come together. 33 They brought Alexandros out of the crowd, the Yehudim putting him forward. Alexandros informed with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people. 34 But when they perceived that he was a Yehudite, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

35 When the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. 37 For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our eloah. 38 If therefore Demetrios and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. 39 But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning today's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we would not be able to give an account of this commotion."

41 When he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Sha'ul in Makedonia and Greece

20 After the uproar had ceased, Sha'ul sent for the talmidim and, having encouraged them, took leave of them, and departed to go into Makedonia. 2 When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Yavan. 3 When he had spent three new moons there, and a plot was made against him by Yehudim as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Makedonia.

4 These accompanied him: Sopater of Berea, son of Pyrrus; Aristarhos and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timotheos; and Tuhikos and Trophimos of Asia. 5 But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. 6 We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

7 On day one of the week, we came together to break bread and Sha'ul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight. 8 There were many lights in the upper room where we were gathered together. 9 A certain young man named Eutuḥos sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Sha'ul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third floor, and was taken up dead. 10 Sha'ul went down, and fell upon him, and embracing him said, "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him."

11 When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. 12 They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

13 But we, going ahead to the ship, set sail for Assos, intending to take Sha'ul aboard there; for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. 14 When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitulene. 15 [Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos, and the following day we came to Miletos.]^a 16 For Sha'ul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Yerushalayim on the day of Pentecost.

Farewell to Ephesus

17 From Miletos he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the assembly. 18 When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, 19 serving the Master^b with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Yehudim; 20 how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, 21 testifying both to Yehudim and to Greeks^c repentance toward Elohim, and faith toward our Master עשוּ.

22 "Now, behold, I go bound by the Ruah to Yerushalayim, not knowing what will happen to me there; 23 except that the Set-apart Ruah testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me.

24 But I make my life an account of nothing precious to myself, so that I may finish my race, and the ministry which I received from the Master עשוּ, to fully testify to the good news of the favor of Elohim.

^a 15 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek texts.

^b 19 Syr. reads אלהא (Alaha) meaning "Elohim" here instead of "the Master."

^c 21 Syr. reads ארמי (w'l'aramia) meaning "and to Arameans" here instead of "and to Greeks."

25 "Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the Kingdom, will see my face no more. 26 Therefore I testify to you today that I am clean from the blood of all men, 27 for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of Elohim. 28 Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Set-apart Ruah has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of Elohim which He purchased with His own blood. 29 For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. 30 Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the talmidim after them. 31 Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. 32 Now, I entrust you to Elohim, and to the word of His favor, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are set apart. 33 I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. 34 You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. 35 In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Master עִישׂוֹן, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

36 When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37 They all wept a lot, and fell on Sha'ul's neck and kissed him, 38 sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Sha'ul Sails from Miletos

21 When we had departed from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Kos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2 Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. 3 When we had come in sight of Kupros, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tsor, for there the ship was to unload her cargo. 4 Having found the talmidim, we stayed there seven days. These said to Sha'ul through the Ruah, that he should not go up to Yerushalayim. 5 When those days were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. 6 After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

7 When we had finished the voyage from Tsor, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. 8 On the next day we went out, and came to Caesarea. We entered into the house of Philippos the messenger of the good news, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. 9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. 10 As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Yehudah. 11 Coming to us, and taking Sha'ul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Set-apart Ruah: 'So will the Yehudim at Yerushalayim bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the nations.'"

12 When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Yerushalayim.

13 Then Sha'ul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Yerushalayim for the Name of the Master עִישׂוֹן."

14 When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The will of הָרַחֲמָה be done."

Sha'ul at Yerushalayim; Seized at the Temple

15 After these days we, having prepared, went up to Yerushalayim. 16 Some of the talmidim from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Kupros, an early talmid, with whom we would stay.

17 When we had come to Yerushalayim, the brothers received us gladly. 18 The day following, Sha'ul went in with us to Ya'aqov; and all the elders were present.

19 When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which Elohim had worked among the nations through his ministry. 20 They, when they heard it, glorified Elohim. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many tens of thousands there are among the Yehudim of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Torah. 21 They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Yehudim who are among the nations to forsake^a Mosheh, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. 22 What then? They will certainly hear that you have come.

23 "Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. 24 Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk guarding the Torah. 25 But concerning the nations who believe, we have written our decision;^a they should guard themselves from things slaughtered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from whoring."

^a 21 Greek word translated as "forsake" here is ἀποστασία (apostasia), and is only used one other time in Scripture, in Thessalonikeis B 2:3. There, it is translated more literally as "apostasy."

26 Then Sha'ul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the Temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. 27 When the seven days were almost completed, the Yehudim from Asia, when they saw him in the Temple, stirred up all the crowd and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, "Men of Yisra'el, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the Torah, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks^b into the Temple, and has defiled this set-apart place!" 29 For they had previously seen Trophimos, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Sha'ul had brought him into the Temple.

30 All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Sha'ul and dragged him out of the Temple. Immediately the doors were shut. 31 As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Yerushalayim was in an uproar. 32 Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Sha'ul. 33 Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done. 34 Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he could not find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

35 When he came to the stairs, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!" 37 As Sha'ul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, "May I speak something to you?" He said, "Do you know Greek? 38 Are you not then the Mitsrite, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?"

39 But Sha'ul said, "I am a Yehudite, from Tarsus in Kilikia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

40 When he had given him permission, Sha'ul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

Sha'ul's Defense before the Yehudim

22 "Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you."

2 When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said, 3 "I am indeed a Yehudite, born in Tarsus of Kilikia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamali'el, instructed according to the strict tradition of the law of our fathers, being zealous for Elohim, even as you all are today. 4 I persecuted this 'Way' to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. 5 As also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Dammeseq to bring them also who were there to Yerushalayim in bonds to be punished. 6 As I made my journey, and came close to Dammeseq, about noon, suddenly a great light shone around me from the heavens. 7 I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, 'Sha'ul, Sha'ul, why are you persecuting Me?' 8 I answered, 'Who are You, Master?' He said to me, 'I am יִשְׁעֵי of Nazareth, whom you persecute.'

9 "Those who were with me indeed saw the light, but they did not understand the voice of Him who spoke to me. 10 I said, 'What shall I do, Master?' The Master said to me, 'Arise, and go into Dammeseq. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.' 11 When I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Dammeseq. 12 One Hananyah, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Yehudim who lived in Dammeseq, 13 came to me, and standing by me said to me, 'Brother Sha'ul, receive your sight!' In that very hour I looked up at him. 14 He said, 'The Elohim of our fathers has appointed you to know His will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from His mouth. 15 For you will be a witness for Him to all men of what you have seen and heard. 16 Now why do you wait? Arise, be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on His Name.'

^a 25 Later Greek manuscripts add, "... that they should observe no such thing, except..." here. This section, however, is not contained in the early Greek or Syriac texts.

^b 28 Syr. reads אַרְמָנִים (aramia) meaning "Arameans" here instead of "Greeks."

17 "When I had returned to Yerushalayim, and while I prayed in the Temple, I fell into a state of astonishment, 18 and saw Him saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Yerushalayim quickly, because they will not receive witness concerning Me from you.' 19 I said, 'Master, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in You. 20 When the blood of Stephanos, Your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.'

21 "He said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the nations.'"

22 They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, "Rid the earth of this fellow, for he is not fit to live!"

23 As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air, 24 the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that. 25 When they stretched him out with thongs, Sha'ul asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?"

26 When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, "What are you about to do? This man is a Roman!"

27 The commanding officer came and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes."

28 The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship for a great price." Sha'ul said, "But I was born a Roman."

29 Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him. 30 But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Yehudim, he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to come together, and brought Sha'ul down and set him before them.

Sha'ul before the Sanhedrin

23 Sha'ul, looking steadfastly at the Sanhedrin, said, "Brothers, I have lived before Elohim in all good conscience until today."

2 The high priest, Hananyah, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

3 Then Sha'ul said to him, "Elohim will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the Torah, and command me to be struck contrary to the Torah?"

4 Those who stood by said, "Do you malign the high priest of Elohim?"

5 Sha'ul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'^a" 6 But when Sha'ul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

7 When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the crowd was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor messenger, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. 9 A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. What if a spirit or messenger has spoken to him?" 10 When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Sha'ul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

11 The following night, the Master stood by him, and said, "Take courage, for as you have testified about Me at Yerushalayim, so you must testify also at Rome."

Plot to Kill Sha'ul

12 When it was day, the Yehudim banded together, and bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Sha'ul.

13 There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. 14 They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Sha'ul.

15 Now therefore, you with the Sanhedrin inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near."

16 But Sha'ul's sister's son heard they were lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Sha'ul. 17 Sha'ul summoned one of the centurions, and said, "Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him."

^a See Shemot 22:28.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, "Sha'ul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you."

19 The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

20 He said, "The Yehudim have agreed to ask you to bring Sha'ul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. 21 Therefore do not yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you."

Sha'ul Moved to Caesarea

22 So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me." 23 He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears^a, at the third hour of the night." 24 He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Sha'ul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. 25 He wrote a letter like this:

26 "Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings. 27 This man was seized by the Yehudim, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. 28 Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin. 29 I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but not to be charged with anything worthy of death or of imprisonment. 30 When I was told that the Yehudim lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you."

31 So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Sha'ul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. 33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Sha'ul to him. 34 When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Kilikia, he said, 35 "I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." He commanded that he be guarded in Herod's palace.

Sha'ul before Felix

24 After five days, the high priest, Hananyah, came down with some of the elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Sha'ul. 2 When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that reforms are coming to this nation by your foresight, 3 we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But, that I do not delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. 5 For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Yehudim throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. 6 He even tried to profane the Temple, and we arrested him, 7 [and we would have judged him in accordance with our law. But the commander Lysias came and took him from us with much violence.]^b 8 By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."

9 The Yehudim also joined in the attack, believing that these things were so. 10 When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Sha'ul answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, 11 seeing that you can verify that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to bow down at Yerushalayim. 12 In the Temple they did not find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. 13 Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess to you, that after 'The Way,' which they call a sect,^c so I serve the Elohim of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the Torah, and which are written in the prophets; 15 having hope toward Elohim, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection, both of the just and unjust. 16 Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward Elohim and men.

17 "Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings; 18 amid which certain Yehudim from Asia found me purified in the Temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil. 19 They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me. 20 Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin, 21 unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!'"

^a 23 Syr. reads בְּיַמִּינָה מֵתְּנָה נֶפֶל (b'yaminya ma'teyn d'nep'qu) meaning "two hundred right-handed spearman" here.

^b 7 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek texts.

^c 14 Greek phrase rendered as "that after 'The Way,' which they call a sect," is κατὰ τὴν ὄδον ἣν λεγούσιν αἱρέσιν (kata ten hodon hen legousin hairesin). However, in the Syr. this phrase is بِهِنَّا يُلْپَانَا دَمِرِين (b'h'na yulpana da'mirin) meaning "that in the same teaching which they mention," here.

22 But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning 'The Way,' deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case." 23 He ordered the centurion that Sha'ul should be guarded, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his own people to serve him or to visit him. 24 But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Yehudite, and sent for Sha'ul, and heard him concerning the faith in Messiah יִשְׁוּן. 25 As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you." 26 Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Sha'ul, [that he might release him.]^a Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him. 27 But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Yehudim, Felix left Sha'ul in bonds.

Sha'ul before Festus

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Yerushalayim from Caesarea. 2 Then the high priest and the principal men of the Yehudim informed him against Sha'ul, and they begged him, 3 asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Yerushalayim; plotting to kill him on the way. 4 However Festus answered that Sha'ul should be guarded at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly. 5 "Let them therefore," he said, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him."

6 When he had stayed among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Sha'ul to be brought. 7 When he had come, the Yehudim who had come down from Yerushalayim stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove, 8 while he said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Yehudim, nor against the Temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."

9 But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Yehudim, answered Sha'ul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Yerushalayim, and be judged by me there concerning these things?"

10 But Sha'ul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Yehudim, as you also know very well."

11 For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go."

13 Now when some days had passed, King Agrippas and Bernike arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus.

14 As they were staying there many days, Festus laid Sha'ul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix; 15 about whom, when I was at Yerushalayim, the chief priests and the elders of the Yehudim informed me, asking for a sentence against him. 16 To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him.

17 When therefore they had come together here, I did not delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evils as I supposed; 19 but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one יִשְׁוּן, who had died, whom Sha'ul believed to be alive. 20 Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Yerushalayim and there be judged concerning these matters. 21 But when Sha'ul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be guarded until I could send him to Caesar."

22 Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

Sha'ul before Agrippas

23 So on the next day, when Agrippas and Bernike had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Sha'ul was brought in.

24 Festus said, "King Agrippas, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Yehudim petitioned me, both at Yerushalayim and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him, 26 of whom I have no certain thing to write to my master. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippas, that after examination, I may have something to write. 27 For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."

^a 26 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek or Syriac texts.

Sha'ul's Defense before Agrippas

26 Agrippas said to Sha'ul, "You may speak for yourself." Then Sha'ul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. 2 "I think myself happy, King Agrippas, that I am to make my defense before you today concerning all the things that I am accused by the Yehudim, 3 especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Yehudim. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4 "Indeed, all the Yehudim know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Yerushalayim; 5 having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by Elohim to our fathers, 7 which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Yehudim, O King! 8 Why is it judged unfaithful with you, if Elohim raises the dead? 9 I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the Name of שֵׁשׁ of Nazareth. 10 This I also did in Yerushalayim. I both closed up many of the set-apart ones in prisons – having received authority from the chief priests – and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. 11 Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

12 "Whereupon as I traveled to Dammeseq with the authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 at noon, O king, I saw on the way a light from the heavens, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. 14 When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Sha'ul, Sha'ul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15 "I said, 'Who are You, Master?' "He said, 'I am שֵׁשׁ, whom you are persecuting. 16 But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you; 17 delivering you from the people, and from the nations, to whom I send you, 18 to open their eyes, to turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to Elohim, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are set apart by faith in Me.'

19 "Therefore, King Agrippas, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but declared first to them of Dammeseq, at Yerushalayim, and throughout all the country of Yehudah, and also to the nations, that they should repent and turn to Elohim, doing works worthy of repentance. 21 For this reason the Yehudim seized me in the Temple, and tried to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from Elohim, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moshe said would happen, 23 how the Messiah must suffer, and how, from the resurrection of the dead, He would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the nations."

24 As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Sha'ul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!"

25 But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. 26 For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippas, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

28 Agrippas said to Sha'ul, "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a 'Christian'?"

29 Sha'ul said, "I pray to Elohim, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."

30 The king rose up with the governor, and Bernike, and those who sat with them. 31 When they had withdrawn, they spoke to one another, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds." 32 Agrippas said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Sha'ul Sent to Rome

27 When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Sha'ul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Iulius, of the Augustan band.

2 Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarhos, a Makedonian of Thessalonike, being with us.

3 The next day, we touched at Tsidon. Iulius treated Sha'ul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. 4 Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Kupros, because the winds were contrary. 5 When we had sailed across the sea which is off Kilikia and Pamphylia, we came to Mura, a city of Lukia. 6 There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board.

7 When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Knidos, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. 8 With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasai.

9 When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Sha'ul admonished them, 10 and said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." 11 But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Sha'ul. 12 Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

Shipwreck

13 When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. 14 But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Eurakulon^a. 15 When the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. 16 Running under the lee of a small island called Kauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. 17 After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Surtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along. 18 As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. 19 On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. 20 When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

21 When they had been long without food, Sha'ul stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. 22 Now I exhort you to take courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For there stood by me this night a messenger, belonging to the Elohim whose I am and whom I serve, 24 saying, 'Do not be afraid, Sha'ul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, Elohim has granted you all those who sail with you.' 25 Therefore, sirs, take courage! For I believe Elohim, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. 26 But we must run aground on a certain island."

27 But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. 28 They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms. After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms. 29 Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and prayed for daylight. 30 As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, 31 Sha'ul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

33 While the day was coming on, Sha'ul begged them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish from any of your heads." 35 When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to Elohim in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. 36 Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. 37 In all, we were two hundred seventy-six beings on the ship. 38 When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 When it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. 40 Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

42 The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. 43 But the centurion, desiring to save Sha'ul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; 44 and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So they all escaped safely to the land.

Safety at Malta

28 When we had escaped, then we knew that the island was called Malta. 2 The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3 But when Sha'ul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet 'Justice' has not allowed to live." 5 However he shook off the creature into the fire, and was not harmed. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was an el.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. 8 The father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Sha'ul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. 9 Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. 10 They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

Sha'ul's Arrival at Rome

11 After three new moons, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign^a was "The Twin Brothers." 12 Touching at Surakousai, we stayed there three days. 13 From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. 15 From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Sha'ul saw them, he thanked Elohim, and took courage. 16 When we entered into Rome, Sha'ul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

17 After three days Sha'ul called together those who were the leaders of the Yehudim. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Yerushalayim into the hands of the Romans, 18 who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Yehudim spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. 20 For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Yisra'el I am bound with this chain."

21 They said to him, "We neither received letters from Yehudah concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. 22 But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."

23 When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about the Kingdom of Elohim, and persuading them concerning שֵׁשׁ, both from the Torah of Mosheh and from the prophets, from morning until evening. 24 Some were persuaded the things which were spoken, and some did not believe. 25 When they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Sha'ul had spoken one word, "The Set-apart Ruah spoke rightly through Yeshayah, the prophet, to your fathers, 26 saying, 'Go to this people, and say, "in hearing, you will hear, but will in no way understand. In seeing, you will see, but will in no way perceive.'"

27 For this people's heart has grown callous. Their ears are dull of hearing. Their eyes they have closed. Lest they should see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and would turn again, and I would heal them.^b

28 "Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of Elohim is sent to the nations, and they will listen."

29 [When he had said these words, the Yehudim departed, having a great dispute among themselves.]^c

30 Sha'ul stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who were coming to him, 31 proclaiming the Kingdom of Elohim, and teaching the things concerning the Master שֵׁשׁ Messiah with all boldness, without hindrance.

^a 11 Sign – Greek word παρασημος (parasemos), meaning "mark, figurehead." This is the only time the word appears in the Shelihim Writings. The "Twin Brothers" it refers to are the two twin sons of Zeus in Greek mythology, Castor and Pollux.

^b 26-27 See Yeshayah 6:9-10.

^c 29 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek and Syriac texts.

יְהָקָב

Ya'aqov (James)

1 Ya'aqov, a bondservant of Elohim and of the Master Messiah, to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion: greetings. 2 Count it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various temptations, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. 4 Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of Elohim, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For that man should not think that he will receive anything from יהָקָב. 8 He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. 9 But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; 10 and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. 11 For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits.

12 Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which He promised to those who love Him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by Elohim," for Elohim cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself tempts no one. 14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. 15 Then the lust, when it has conceived, brings forth sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, produces death. 16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. 18 Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of His creatures.

19 This you know, my beloved brothers. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; 20 for the anger of man does not accomplish the righteousness of Elohim. 21 Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your beings. 22 But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror; 24 for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. 25 But he who looks into the perfect law of freedom, and continues in it, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.

26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, yet he does not control his tongue but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. 27 Pure religion^a and undefiled before our Elohim and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to guard oneself unstained by the world.

2 My brothers, do not hold the faith of our Master Messiah of glory with partiality. 2 For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in; 3 and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing, and say, "Sit here in a good place;" but you tell the poor man, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool;" 4 and have you not shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? 5 Listen, my beloved brothers. Did Elohim not choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? 6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Do the rich not oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts? 7 Do they not blaspheme the honorable Name by which you are called? 8 However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself;"^b you do well. 9 But if you show partiality you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whoever guards the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. 11 For He who said, "Do not commit adultery,"^c also said, "Do not commit murder,"^d Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of law. 12 So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom. 13 For judgment is without loving-kindness to him who has shown no loving-kindness, and loving-kindness triumphs over judgment. 14 What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can that faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister is naked and lacking of daily food, 16 and one of you tells them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled;" and yet you did not give them the things the body needs, what good is it? 17 Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself.

^a 27 Syr. reads תֵשׁמֶשֶׁת (tesh'meshta) meaning "ministry" or "service" here.

^b See Vayiqra 19:18.

^c 11 See Shemot 20:14; Devarim 5:18.

^d 11 See Shemot 20:13; Devarim 5:17.

18 Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without the works, and I will show you the faith from my works.

19 You believe there is one Elohim. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. 20 But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead?

21 Was Avraham our father not declared right from works, in that he offered up Yitshaq his son on the altar?

22 You see that faith worked with his works, and from works faith was perfected; 23 and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Avraham believed Elohim, and it was accounted to him as righteousness;"^a and he was called the friend of Elohim. 24 You see then that from works a man is declared right, and not only from faith. 25 In the same way, was Rahav the whore not also declared right from works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3 Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. 2 For in many things we all stumble. If anyone does not stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. 3 Now if we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they obey us, we will guide their whole body. 4 Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the one steering desires. 5 So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! 6 And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna. 7 For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and sea creature, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind; 8 but nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With it we bless the Master^b and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the likeness of Elohim. 10 Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. 11 Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? 12 Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Nor is salt water able to produce sweet.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not boast and do not lie against the truth. 15 This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed.

17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of loving-kindness and good fruits, impartial, and sincere. 18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

4 Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Do they not come from your pleasures that war in your members? 2 But you lust, and do not have. You murder and covet, and cannot obtain. You fight and make war. You do not have, because you do not ask. 3 You ask, and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures. 4 You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward Elohim? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of Elohim. 5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Ruah He has caused to dwell in us yearns jealously"? 6 But He gives more favor. Therefore it says, "Elohim resists the proud, but gives favor to the humble."^c 7 Be subject therefore to Elohim, but resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to Elohim, and He will draw near to you.^d Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of תְּהִלָּתִים, and He will exalt you.

11 Do not speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. 12 Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another? 13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let us go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit."

14 Whereas you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away.

15 For you ought to say, "If תְּהִלָּתִים wills, we will both live, and do this or that."

16 But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil. 17 To him therefore who knows to do good, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you. 2 Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a witness against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. 4 Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of תְּשֵׁבָה Tsevaot. 5 You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. 6 You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He does not resist you. 7 Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of תְּהִלָּה. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. 8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Master is at hand.

9 Do not grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you will not be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door. 10 Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of perseverance, the prophets who spoke in the Name of יְהוָה. 11 Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the perseverance of Iyyov, and have seen יְהוָה in the goal, and how יְהוָה is full of compassion and kindness. 12 But above all things, my brothers, do not swear—not by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes", and your "no", "no;" so that you do not fall under judgment. 13 Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. 14 Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of יְהוָה, 15 and the prayer of faith will save him who is sick, and יְהוָה will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. 16 Confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous one is powerfully effective. 17 Eliyahu was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six new moons. 18 He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

19 My brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth and someone turns him back, 20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his being from death and will cover a multitude of sins.^a

^a 20 Compare Mishlei 10:12.

כְּפֵהַ

Kepha נ (1 Peter)

1 Kepha, a shaliah of יִשְׁעָה Messiah, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Kappadokia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 according to the foreknowledge of Elohim the Father, in the setting apart of the Ruah, that you may obey יִשְׁעָה Messiah and be sprinkled with His blood: favor to you and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah, who, according to His great loving-kindness, has brought us forth to a living hope through the resurrection of יִשְׁעָה Messiah from the dead, 4 to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that does not fade away, guarded in the heavens for you, 5 who by the power of Elohim are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials, 7 that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of יִשְׁעָה Messiah;^a 8 whom not having seen, you still love; in whom, though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory, 9 receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your beings.

10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the favor that would come to you, 11 searching for who or what kind of time the Ruah of Messiah in them pointed to, when He predicted the sufferings of Messiah, and the glories that would follow them. 12 To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who proclaimed the good news to you by the Set-apart Ruah sent out from heaven; which things messengers desire to look into. 13 Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and set your hope fully on the favor that will be brought to you at the revelation of יִשְׁעָה Messiah— 14 as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance, 15 but just as He who called you is set-apart, you yourselves also be set-apart in all of your behavior; 16 because it is written, "You shall be set-apart; for I am set-apart."^b

17 If you call on Him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear: 18 knowing that you were redeemed – not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers – 19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish or spot, the blood of Messiah; 20 who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in the last times for your sake, 21 who through Him are faithful in Elohim, who raised Him from the dead, and gave Him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in Elohim.

22 Seeing you have purified your beings in your obedience to the truth in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently: 23 having been brought forth, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of Elohim, which lives and remains. 24 For, "All flesh is like grass, and all its glory like the flower in the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls; 25 but the word of נָתָן endures to the age."^c This is the word of good news which was proclaimed to you.

2 Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking, 2 as newborn babes, long for the pure milk of the word, that with it you may grow into salvation, 3 if you have tasted that it is kind. 4 And coming to Him, a living stone rejected indeed by men, but chosen by Elohim, precious. 5 You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house for a set-apart priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to Elohim through יִשְׁעָה Messiah. 6 Because it is contained in Scripture, "Behold, I lay in Tsion a chief cornerstone, chosen, and precious: he who believes in Him will not be disappointed."^d 7 For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who do not believe, "The stone which the builders rejected, has become the chief cornerstone,"^e 8 and, "a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense."^f For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed. 9 But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a set-apart nation, a people for the possession of Elohim, that you may proclaim the excellence of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light: 10 who in time past were no people, but now are the people of Elohim, who had not obtained kindness, but now have obtained kindness. 11 Beloved, I beg you as strangers and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the being; 12 having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may, from your good works which they see, glorify Elohim in the day of visitation.

13 Subject yourselves to every creation of man through the Master: whether to the king, as supreme; 14 or to governors, as sent by Him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well. 15 For this is the will of Elohim, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: 16 as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of Elohim. 17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood^a. Fear Elohim. Honor the king. 18 Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked.

19 For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward Elohim. 20 For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with Elohim. 21 For to this you were called, because Messiah also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow His steps, 22 who did not sin, "neither was deceit found in His mouth."^b 23 Who, when He was cursed, did not curse back. When He suffered, did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously. 24 He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. 25 For you were going astray like sheep, but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your beings.^c

3 In the same way, wives, being in subjection to your own husbands, that, even if any are disobedient to the word, they will be won by the behavior of their wives without a word, 2 having seen your pure behavior in fear. 3 Let your beauty be not the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; 4 but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of Elohim very precious. 5 For this is how the set-apart women before, who hoped in Elohim also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: 6 as Sarah obeyed Avraham, calling him master; of whom you have become children, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror. 7 You husbands, in the same way, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the favor of life; that your prayers may not be hindered. 8 Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tender hearted, humble, 9 not rendering evil for evil, or insult for insult; but instead blessing. Because to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing. 10 For, "He who would love life, and see good days, let him keep the tongue from evil, and the lips from speaking deceit. 11 Let him turn away from evil, and do good. Let him seek peace, and pursue it. 12 For the eyes of תְּהִלָּה are on the righteous, and His ears open to their prayer; but the face of תְּהִלָּה is against those who do evil."^d

13 Now who is he who will harm you, if you become zealous for that which is good? 14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Do not fear what they fear, neither be troubled."^e

15 But set Messiah apart in your hearts as Master^f; always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with gentleness and fear: 16 having a good conscience, so that, when you are spoken against, those who revile your good behavior in Messiah may be put to shame.

17 For it is better, if Elohim is willing, that you suffer for doing good than for doing evil. 18 Because Messiah also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that He might bring you to Elohim; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; 19 in which He also went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, 20 who before were disobedient, when Elohim waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ark was being built. In it, few, that is, eight beings, were saved through water.

21 Which also is a representation of immersion, which now saves you—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward Elohim, through the resurrection of מֵשַׁיחַ Messiah,

22 who is in the right hand of Elohim, having gone into heaven, messengers and authorities and powers being made subject to Him.

^a 17 Greek word here rendered as "brotherhood" is αδελφοτης (ad'el'fo'tes) meaning "brotherhood" or "collective of congregation members." It is derived from the word αδελφος (ad'el'fos) meaning "brother." While adelphos is masculine, the word adelphotes used here is actually feminine. It is used only here and in 5:9. Syr. uses the more generic term لَاهُكْوْن (l'ah'akuwn) which is the plural form of the word for "brother."

4 Therefore, since Messiah suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; 2 that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of Elohim.

3 For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the nations, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. 4 They think it is strange that you do not run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming: 5 who will give account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6 For to this end the good news was proclaimed even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to Elohim in the spirit. 7 But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober for prayers. 8 Above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins. 9 Be hospitable to one another without complaint. 10 As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good stewards of the favor of Elohim in its various forms. 11 If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of Elohim. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which Elohim supplies, that in all things Elohim may be glorified through עִישׂוֹת Messiah, to whom belongs the glory and the dominion to the ages of the ages. Amein.

12 Beloved, do not be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you. 13 But because you are partakers of the sufferings of Messiah, rejoice; that at the revelation of His glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14 If you are insulted for the Name of Messiah, you are blessed; because the Ruah of glory and of Elohim rests on you. [On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified.]^a 15 For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other men's matters. 16 But if one of you suffers like a 'Christian,' let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify Elohim in this part.

17 For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of Elohim. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who do not obey the good news of Elohim? 18 "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the wicked and the sinner?"^b

19 Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of Elohim in doing good, entrust their beings to Him, a faithful Creator.

5 Therefore I encourage the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Messiah, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed: 2 shepherd the flock of Elohim which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily according to the will of Elohim, not for dishonest gain, but willingly; 3 neither as holding it over those entrusted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock. 4 When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away.

5 Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility; for "Elohim resists the proud, but gives favor to the humble."^c 6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of Elohim, that He may exalt you in due time; 7 casting all your worries on Him, because He cares for you. 8 Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 9 Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings. 10 But the Elohim of all favor, who called us to His everlasting glory by Messiah [עִישׂוֹת]^d, after you have suffered a little while, will perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. 11 To Him be the [glory and the]^e power to the ages [of the ages]. Amein.

12 Through Shila, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true favor of Elohim in which you stand firm. 13 She who is in Bavel, chosen together with you, greets you; and so does Markos, my son. 14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Messiah [עִישׂוֹת]. Amein!^f

Kepha בְּ (2 Peter)

1 Shimon Kepha, a bondservant and shaliah of יֶשׁוּעַ Messiah, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our Elohim and Savior יֶשׁוּעַ Messiah: 2 favor to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of Elohim and of יֶשׁוּעַ our Master, 3 seeing that His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and reverence for Elohim, through the knowledge of Him who called us to His own glory and virtue; 4 by which He has granted to us His precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust.

5 Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; 6 and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control perseverance; and in perseverance reverence for Elohim; 7 and in reverence for Elohim brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love.

8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Master יֶשׁוּעַ Messiah. 9 For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10 Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. 11 For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the everlasting Kingdom of our Master and Savior, יֶשׁוּעַ Messiah.

12 Therefore I will always be ready to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. 13 I think it right, as long as I am in this dwelling, to stir you up by reminding you; 14 knowing that the putting off of my dwelling comes swiftly, even as our Master יֶשׁוּעַ Messiah made clear to me. 15 Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. 16 For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Master יֶשׁוּעַ Messiah, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. 17 For He received from Elohim the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."^a 18 We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with Him on the set-apart mountain. 19 We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts.

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. 21 For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but set-apart men spoke from Elohim, being moved by the Set-apart Ruah.

2 But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive sectarian opinions, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. 2 Many will follow their lustfulness, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. 3 In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words, whose sentence now from of old does not linger, and their destruction is not asleep. 4 For if Elohim did not spare messengers when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartaroo, and committed them to pits of darkness, being guarded for judgment; 5 and did not spare the ancient world, but guarded Noah with seven others, a proclaimer of righteousness, when He brought a flood on the world of the wicked.

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live in a wicked way; 7 and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the disorderly 8 (for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous being from day after day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds); 9 יְהֹוָה knows how to deliver the devout out of temptation and to guard the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; 10 but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; 11 whereas messengers, though greater in might and power, do not bring a railing judgment against them before יְהֹוָה.

12 But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, 13 suffering wrong as the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and defects, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; 14 having eyes full of adultery, and who cannot cease from sin; enticing unsettled beings; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing.

15 Forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Bil'am the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing; 16 but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet.

17 These are springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been guarded. 18 For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are escaping from them who live in error; 19 promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.

20 For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of our Master and Savior ישׁוּעָה Messiah, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. 21 For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the set-apart command delivered to them. 22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again,"^a and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

3 This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; 2 that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the set-apart prophets, and the command of your shelihim of the Master and Savior: 3 knowing this first, that in the last days scoffers will come with mocking, walking after their own lusts, 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation."

5 For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of Elohim; 6 by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. 7 But the heavens that now exist, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being guarded against the day of judgment and destruction of wicked men.

8 But do not forget this one thing, beloved: that one day is with יְמִינָה as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.^b 9 יְמִינָה is not slow concerning His promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with you, not desiring that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.^c

10 But the day of יְמִינָה will come as a thief [in the night]^d; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will not be found^e.

11 So since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in set-apart living and reverence for Elohim, 12 looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of Elohim, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? 13 But, according to His promise, we look for renewed heavens and a renewed earth, in which righteousness dwells.

14 Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without defect and blameless in His eyes. 15 Regard the patience of יְמִינָה as salvation; even as our beloved brother Sha'ul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you; 16 as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the unlearned and unstable twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 You, then, beloved, knowing this beforehand, be on guard, lest together with the error of the disorderly being led away, you may fall from your own steadfastness. 18 But grow in the favor and knowledge of our Master and Savior ישׁוּעָה Messiah. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of the age. Amein.

Yohanan נ (1 John)

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the word of life 2 (and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the everlasting life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us); 3 that which we have seen and heard we declare also to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son, מָשִׁיחַ Messiah. 4 And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.

5 This is the message which we have heard from Him and announce to you, that Elohim is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not tell the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of [מָשִׁיחַ] Messiah^a, His Son, cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, מָשִׁיחַ Messiah, the righteous. 2 And He is the atoning offering^b for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. 3 This is how we know that we know Him: if we guard His commands. 4 One who says, "I know Him," and does not guard His commands, is a liar, and the truth is not in Him. 5 But whoever guards His word, the love of Elohim has most certainly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in Him: 6 he who says he remains in Him ought himself also to walk just like He walked. 7 Beloved, I write no renewed command to you, but an old command which you had from the beginning. The old command is the word which you heard. 8 Again, I write a renewed command to you, which is true in Him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. 10 He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His Name's sake. 13 I write to you, fathers, because you know Him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, little children, because you know the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of Elohim remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love the world or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not the Father's, but is the world's. 17 The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does the will of Elohim remains to the age. 18 Little children, it is the last hour, and as you heard that Anti-Messiah^c is coming, even now many anti-Messiahs have arisen. By this we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they did not belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. 20 You have an anointing from the Set-apart One, and you all have knowledge. 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that מָשִׁיחַ is the Messiah? This is the Anti-Messiah, he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son, the same does not have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.

24 As for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father. 25 This is the promise which He promised us, the everlasting life. 26 These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. 27 As for you, the anointing which you received from Him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as His anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even

^a 7 Early Greek texts read only "Messiah" here; however, Syr. reads only "מָשִׁיחַ" here.

^b 2 Greek word translated here as "atoning offering" is ἵλασμός (hilasmus). This word is only used twice, both times in Yohanan נ. This word refers specifically to an offering offered to appease [Divine] anger. See also Yohanan נ 4:10.

^c 18 Syr. reads מְשִׁיחַ דָּגָלָה (m'shiyha dagala) meaning "false Messiah" here. Also in verse 22.

as it taught you, you remain in Him. 28 Now, little children, remain in Him, that whenever He appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. 29 If you know that He is righteous, you also know that everyone who practices righteousness has been [brought forth]^a from Him.

3 See how great a love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of Elohim, and so we are! For this cause the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. 2 Beloved, now we are children of Elohim, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. We know that, when He is revealed, we will be like Him; for we will see Him just as He is. 3 Everyone who has this hope set on Him purifies himself, even as He is pure. 4 Everyone practicing sin also practices lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. 5 You know that He was revealed to take away sins, and in Him is no sin. 6 Whoever remains in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has not seen Him and does not know Him.

7 Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. 8 He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of Elohim was revealed: that He might destroy the works of the devil. 9 All that have been brought forth of Elohim do not commit sin, because His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been brought forth of Elohim. 10 In this the children of Elohim are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Elohim, neither is he who does not love his brother. 11 For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; 12 unlike Qayin, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's righteous. 13 Do not be surprised, brothers, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who does not love remains in death. 15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has everlasting life remaining in him.

16 By this we know the love, because He laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. 17 But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of Elohim remain in him? 18 Little children, let us not love in word only, or with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. 19 And by this we will know that we are of the truth, and persuade our heart before Him, 20 because if our heart condemns us, Elohim is greater than our heart, and knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness toward Elohim; 22 and whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we guard His commands and do the things that are pleasing in His eyes. 23 This is His command to us, that we should believe in the Name of His Son, מָשִׁיחַ Messiah, and love one another, even as He commanded. 24 He who guards His commands remains in Him, and He in him. By this we know that He remains in us, from the Ruah which He gave us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of Elohim, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Ruah of Elohim: every spirit who confesses that מָשִׁיחַ Messiah has come in the flesh is of Elohim, 3 and every spirit who does not confess מָשִׁיחַ Messiah has come in the flesh is not of Elohim, and this is the spirit of the Anti-Messiah^b, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. 4 You are of Elohim, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of Elohim. He who knows Elohim listens to us. He who is not of Elohim does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. 7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from Elohim; and everyone who loves has been brought forth of Elohim, and knows Elohim. 8 He who does not love does not know Elohim, for Elohim is love. 9 By this the love of Elohim was revealed in us, that Elohim has sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him. 10 In this is love, not that we have loved Elohim, but that He loved us, and sent His Son as the atoning offering for our sins. 11 Beloved, if Elohim loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. 12 No one has seen Elohim at any time. If we love one another, Elohim remains in us, and His love has been perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we remain in Him and He in us, because He has given us of His Ruah. 14 We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that מָשִׁיחַ is the Son of Elohim, Elohim remains in him, and he in Elohim. 16 We know and have believed the love which Elohim has for us. Elohim is love, and he who remains in love remains in Elohim, and Elohim remains in him. 17 In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as He is, even so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. 19 We love, because He first loved us. 20 If a man says, "I love Elohim," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, he is not able to love Elohim whom he has not seen. 21 This command we have from Him, that he who loves Elohim should also love his brother.

^a 29 Syr. omits "brought forth" here.

^b 3 Syr. reads מְשִׁיחַ דָּגָלָה (m'shiyha dagala) meaning "false Messiah" here.

brought forth of Elohim guards himself, and the evil one does not touch him. 19 We know that we are of Elohim, and the whole world lies in evil. 20 We know that the Son of Elohim has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know Him who is true, and we are in Him who is true, in His Son יֶשׁוּעָה Messiah. This is the true Elohim, and everlasting life. 21 Little children, guard yourselves from idols.

5 Whoever believes that יֶשׁוּעָה is the Messiah has been brought forth of Elohim. Whoever loves the One bringing forth, also loves the One who was brought forth. 2 By this we know that we love the children of Elohim, when we love Elohim and do His commands. 3 For this is loving Elohim, that we guard His commands, and His commands are not burdensome. 4 For all that is brought forth of Elohim overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith. 5 Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that יֶשׁוּעָה is the Son of Elohim?

6 This is He who came by water and blood, יֶשׁוּעָה Messiah; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Ruah who testifies, because the Ruah is the truth. 7 For there are three that testify: 8 the Ruah, the water, and the blood; and the three are one. 9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of Elohim is greater; for this is the witness of Elohim that He has testified concerning His Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of Elohim has the witness in himself. He who does not believe Elohim has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the witness that Elohim has witnessed concerning His Son. 11 The witness is this: that Elohim has given to us everlasting life, and this life is in His Son. 12 He who has the Son has the life. He who does not have the Son of Elohim does not have the life. 13 These things I have written to you who believe in the Name of the Son of Elohim, that you may know that you have everlasting life.

14 This is the boldness which we have toward Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He listens to us. 15 And if we know that He listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of Him. 16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and Elohim will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I do not say that he should make a request concerning this.

17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. 18 We know that whoever has been brought forth of Elohim does not sin, but he who was יְהוָה נָנוֹן

Yohanan ב (2 John)

1 The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth; 2 for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us to the age: 3 favor, loving-kindness, and peace will be with us, from Elohim the Father, and from יִשְׁעָה Messiah, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father. 5 Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a renewed command, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. 6 This is love, that we should walk according to His commands. This is the command, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. 7 For many deceivers went out into the world, those who do not confess that יִשְׁעָה Messiah came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Anti-Messiah. 8 Watch yourselves, that you do not lose the things which we have accomplished, but that you receive a full reward. 9 Whoever goes too far and does not remain in the teaching of Messiah, does not have Elohim. He who remains in the teaching, the same has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you, and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, and do not welcome him, 11 for he who welcomes him participates in his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write to you, I do not want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to be with you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full.

13 The children of your chosen sister greet you.

Yohanan 3 (3 John)

1 The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your being prospers. 3 For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. 4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

5 Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and also to the strangers. 6 They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a way worthy of Elohim, 7 because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the pagans. 8 We therefore ought to support such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

9 I wrote something to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept what we say. 10 Therefore if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with evil words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly. 11 Beloved, do not imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. The one who does good is of Elohim. The one who does evil has not seen Elohim. 12 Demetrios has the witness of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our witness is true.

13 I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen; 14 but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. 15 Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

יְהוּדָה

Yehudah (Jude)

1 Yehudah, a bondservant of ישׁוּעָה Messiah, and brother of Ya'aqov, to those who are called, loved by Elohim the Father, and guarded for ישׁוּעָה Messiah:
2 Loving-kindness to you and peace and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the set-apart ones. 4 For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this judgment: wicked men, turning the favor of our Elohim into indecency, and denying our only Ruler and Master, ישׁוּעָה Messiah.

5 Now I desire to remind you, though you have already known all of this: that עֲשֵׂה,^a having once and for all saved a people out of the land of Mitsrayim, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 Messengers who did not guard their domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, He has guarded in eternal bonds under darkness for judgment of the great day; 7 just as Sedom and Gomorrah and the cities about them, in like manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and having gone after strange flesh, are shown as an example, suffering the punishment of everlasting fire. 8 Yet in the same way, these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and blaspheme glorious ones.

9 But Mikha'el, the ruling messenger, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Mosheh, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May תָּבֹא rebuke you!" 10 But these speak evil of whatever things they do not know. They are destroyed in these things that they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason. 11 Woe to them! For they went in the way of Qayin, and ran riotously in the error of Bil'am for hire, and perished in Qorah's rebellion. 12 These are the hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been guarded to the age. 14 About these also Ḥanokh, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, יְהוּדָה came with ten thousands of His set-apart ones, 15 to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the wicked of all their works of wickedness which they have done in a wicked way, and of all the hard things which wicked sinners have spoken against Him."^b 16 These are grumblers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage.

17 But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the shelihim of our Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah. 18 They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own wicked lusts." 19 These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Ruah. 20 But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most set-apart faith, praying in the Set-apart Ruah. 21 Guard yourselves in the love of Elohim, looking for the loving-kindness of our Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah to everlasting life. 22 On some have compassion, who are doubting, 23 and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained from the flesh.

24 Now to Him who is able to guard you from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory in great joy, 25 to the only Elohim our Savior, through ישׁוּעָה Messiah our Master, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority before all the age, and now, and to all the ages. Amein.

^a Some Greek and Syriac texts read either יְהוּדָה or Elohim here, instead of ישׁוּעָה.

^b 14-15 Verses 14 and 15 are a quote from the book of Hanokh § / 1 Enoch 1:9. Compare Devarim 33:2.

PWMAIOYC

Romaious (Romans)

1 Shatul, a bondservant of ישׁוּעָה Messiah, called to be a shaliah, set apart for the good news of Elohim, 2 which He promised before through His prophets in the set-apart Scriptures, 3 concerning His Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, 4 who was declared to be the Son of Elohim with power, according to the Set-apart Ruah, from the resurrection of the dead, 5 ישׁוּעָה Messiah our Master, 6 through whom we received favor and the work of the shelihim, for obedience of faith among all the nations, for His Name's sake; 7 among whom you are also chosen to belong to ישׁוּעָה Messiah; 8 to all who are in Rome, beloved of Elohim, called set-apart ones: favor to you and peace from Elohim our Father, and the Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah.

8 First, I thank my Elohim through ישׁוּעָה Messiah for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. 9 For Elohim is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the good news of His Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 requesting, if by any means now at last I may have a prosperous journey to you by the will of Elohim. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be strengthened; 12 that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now I do not desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the nations. 14 I am in debt both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. 15 So, as much as is in me, I am eager to proclaim the good news to you also who are in Rome. 16 For I am not ashamed of the good news, because it is the power of Elohim for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Yehudite first, and also for the Greek^a. 17 For in it is revealed the righteousness of Elohim from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live from faith."^b 18 For the wrath of Elohim is revealed from heaven against all wickedness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in

^b 17 See Havaqquk 2:4.

^c 26 The phrase "vile passions" in the Syr. is לִקְבֵּה דְּטֵסָרָה (l'kibe detsara). This could also be rendered as "shameful diseases."

unrighteousness, 19 because that which is known of Elohim is revealed in them, for Elohim revealed it to them. 20 For the invisible things of Him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even His eternal power and divinity; that they may be without excuse.

21 Because, knowing Elohim, they did not glorify Him as Elohim, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 and traded the glory of the incorruptible Elohim for the image of a likeness of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things.

24 Therefore Elohim also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves; 25 who exchanged the truth of Elohim for a lie, and revered and served the created rather than the Creator, who is blessed to the ages. Amein.

26 For this reason, Elohim gave them up to [vile passions]^c. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. 27 Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. 28 Even as they refused to have Elohim in their knowledge, Elohim gave them up to a depraved^d mind, to do those things which are not fitting; 29 being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, 30 backbiters, hating Elohim, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unkind; 32 who, knowing the righteous deed of Elohim, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

2 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself, for you who judge practice the same things.^e 2 We know that the judgment of Elohim is according to truth against those who practice such things. 3 Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of Elohim? 4 Or do you despise the riches of His goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of Elohim leads you to repentance? 5 But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of Elohim; 6 who "will render to each according to his works:^a" 7 to those who by perseverance in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruptibility, everlasting life; 8 but to those who are self-seeking, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation, 9 affliction and anguish, on every being of man who does evil; to the Yehudite first, and also to the Greek.^b

^d 28 Greek word used for "depraved" here is ἀδόκιμος (adokimos) which rendered literally means, "failing to pass the test" or "unapproved." Therefore, the passage could be rendered as, "Elohim gave them up to a mind that failed to pass the test..."

10 But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who does good, to the Yehudite first, and also to the Greek. 11 For there is no partiality with Elohim. 12 For as many as have sinned lawlessly will also die lawlessly. As many as have sinned in law will be judged by law. 13 For it is not the hearers of law who are righteous before Elohim, but the doers of law will be justified 14 (for when nations who do not have law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having law, are a law to themselves, 15 in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them) 16 in the day when Elohim will judge the secrets of men, according to my good news, by שֵׁשׁ Messiah.

17 Indeed you bear the name of a Yehudite, and rely on law, and glory in Elohim, 18 and know His will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19 and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. 21 You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who proclaim that a man should not steal: do you steal? 22 You who say a man should not commit adultery: do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols: do you rob temples? 23 You who boast in law: do you dishonor Elohim by disobeying the law? 24 For "The Name of Elohim is blasphemed among the nations because of you,^c" just as it is written. 25 For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of law, but if you are a transgressor of law, your circumcision has become un-circumcision. 26 If therefore the un-circumcised guard the righteous deeds of the law, will his un-circumcision not be accounted as circumcision? 27 Will the un-circumcision which is from nature, if it fulfills the law, not judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of law? 28 For he is not a Yehudite who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; 29 but he is a Yehudite who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from Elohim.

3 Then what advantage does the Yehudite have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the words of Elohim. 3 For what if some did not believe? Will their lack of faith nullify the faith of Elohim? 4 May it never be! Yes, let Elohim be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written, "That you might be declared right in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment.^d"

5 But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of Elohim, what will we say? Is Elohim unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak according to men. 6 May it never be! For then how will Elohim judge the world? 7 For if the truth of Elohim through my lie abounded to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some believe that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come"? Those who say so are justly judged. 9 What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Yehudim and Greeks^e, that they are all under sin. 10 As it is written, "There is no one righteous; no, not one. 11 There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after Elohim. 12 They have all turned aside. They have together become unprofitable. There is no one who does good, no, not so much as one.^f"

13 "Their throat is an open tomb. With their tongues they have used deceit.^g" "The poison of vipers is under their lips;^h" 14 "whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.ⁱ" 15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood. 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways.

17 The way of peace, they have not known.^a

18 "There is no fear of Elohim before their eyes.^b

19 Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of Elohim. 20 Because from works of law, no flesh will be justified in His eyes. For indeed, through law comes the knowledge of sin. 21 But now apart from law, a righteousness of Elohim has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets; 22 even the righteousness of Elohim through faith in יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah to all those who believe. For there is no distinction, 23 for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of Elohim; 24 being declared right freely by His favor through the redemption that is in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה; 25 whom Elohim sent to be an atoning offering^c, through faith in His blood, for a demonstration of His righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in the forbearance of Elohim; 26 to demonstrate His righteousness at this present time; that He might Himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith from יִשְׁוּעָה.

27 Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. 28 We maintain therefore that a man is declared right by faith apart from the works of law. 29 Or is Elohim the Elohim of Yehudim only? Is He not the Elohim of nations also? Yes, of nations also, 30 since indeed there is one Elohim who will declare right the circumcised from faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. 31 Do we then nullify law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish^d law.

4 What then will we say that Avraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh? 2 For if Avraham was declared right from works, he has something to boast about, but not toward Elohim. 3 For what does the Scripture say? "Avraham believed Elohim, and it was credited to him for righteousness."^e 4 Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as favor, but as something owed. 5 But to him who does not work, but believes in Him who declares right the wicked, his faith is accounted for righteousness. 6 Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom Elohim counts righteousness apart from works,

7 "Blessed are they whose lawless deeds are forgiven, whose sins are covered. 8 Blessed is the man whom יְהוָה will by no means charge with sin.^f

9 Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the un-circumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Avraham for righteousness. 10 How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in un-circumcision? Not in circumcision, but in un-circumcision. 11 He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in un-circumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they might be in un-circumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them. 12 He is the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Avraham, which he had in un-circumcision.

13 For the promise to Avraham and to his seed that he should be heir of the world was not through a law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if those who are of a law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. 15 For a law produces wrath; indeed for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. 16 For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to favor, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Avraham, who is the father of us all. 17 As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations."^g This is in the presence of Him whom he believed: Elohim, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. 18 Besides hope, Avraham believed in hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your seed be."^h 19 Without being weakened in faith, he considered his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20 Yet, looking to the promise of Elohim, he did not waver through disbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to Elohim, 21 and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was also able to perform. 22 Therefore it also was "credited to him for righteousness."

23 Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone, 24 but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in Him who raised יִשְׁוּעָה, our Master, from the dead, 25 who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 Being therefore declared right from faith, we have peace with Elohim through our Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah; 2 through whom we also have our access by faith into this favor in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of Elohim. 3 Not only this, but we also rejoice in our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces perseverance; 4 and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: 5 and hope does not disappoint us, because the love of Elohim has been poured out into our hearts through the Set-apart Ruah who was given to us. 6 For while we were yet weak, at the right time Messiah died for the wicked. 7 For one will hardly die for a righteous^a man. Yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. 8 But Elohim commends His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Messiah died for us.

9 Much more then, being now declared right by His blood, we will be saved from the wrath of Elohim through Him. 10 For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to Elohim through the death of His Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by His life.

11 Not only so, but we also rejoice in Elohim through our Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. 12 Therefore as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned.

13 Indeed, until law, sin was in the world; but sin is not put to one's account when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Mosheh, even over those whose sins were not in the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a foreshadowing of Him who was to come. 15 But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the favor of Elohim, and the gift by the favor of the one man, ישׁוּעָה Messiah, abound to the many. 16 The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came from one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many transgressions to a righteous deed. 17 For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of favor and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, ישׁוּעָה Messiah. 18 So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one righteous deed, all men were declared right to life.

19 For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. 20 Law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, favor abounded more exceedingly; 21 that as sin reigned in death, even so favor might reign through righteousness to everlasting life through ישׁוּעָה Messiah our Master.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that favor may abound? 2 May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? 3 Or do you not know that all we who were immersed into Messiah ישׁוּעָה were immersed into His death? 4 We were buried therefore with Him through immersion into death, that just as Messiah was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, we will also be part of His resurrection; 6 knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. 7 For he who has died has been freed from sin. 8 But if we died with Messiah, we believe that we will also live with Him; 9 knowing that Messiah, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him! 10 For the death that He died, He died to sin one time; but the life that He lives, He lives to Elohim. 11 Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to Elohim in Messiah ישׁוּעָה.

12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. 13 Also, do not present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to Elohim, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to Elohim. 14 For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under favor. 15 What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under favor? May it never be! 16 Do you not know that when you present yourselves as bondservants and obey someone, you are the bondservants of whomever you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? 17 But thanks be to Elohim, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were delivered. 18 Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness.

^a 7 Greek word rendered "righteous" is δικαιος (dikaios) meaning, literally, "righteous" or "just." Syr. uses the word רָשִׂיֵּה (ra'shiye) meaning "wicked."

19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as bondservants to uncleanness and to lawlessness upon lawlessness, even so now present your members as bondservants to righteousness for set-apartness. 20 For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. 21 What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. 22 But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of Elohim, you have your fruit of set-apartness, and the result of everlasting life. 23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of Elohim is everlasting life in Messiah יֶשׁוּא our Master.

7 Or do you not know, brothers (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over the man for as long as the time he lives? 2 For the woman that is subject to a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. 3 So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. 4 Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Messiah, that you would be joined to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, that we might produce fruit to Elohim. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring out fruit to death. 6 But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I would not have known sin, except through the law.^a For I would not have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."^b 8 But sin, finding occasion through the command, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. 9 I was alive apart from the law once, but when the command came, sin revived, and I died. 10 The command, which was for life, this I found to be for death; 11 for sin, finding occasion through the command, deceived me, and through it killed me. 12 Therefore the law indeed is set-apart, and the command set-apart, and righteous, and good.

13 Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, was producing death in me through that which is good; that through the command sin might become exceedingly sinful. 14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15 For I do not know what I am doing. For I do not practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what I do not desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. 17 So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but it is not doing that which is good. 19 For the good which I desire, I do not do; but the evil which I do not desire, that I practice. 20 But if what I do not desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 21 I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight in the law of Elohim after the inward man, 23 but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24 What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25 But thanks be to Elohim through יֶשׁוּא Messiah, our Master! So then with the mind, I myself serve the law of Elohim, but with the flesh, the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Messiah יֶשׁוּא. 2 For the law of the Ruah of life in Messiah יֶשׁוּא has set you free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For what was impossible for the law, in that it was weak through the flesh, Elohim did, sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh; 4 that the righteous deed of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Ruah. 5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Ruah, the things of the Ruah. 6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Ruah is life and peace; 7 because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards Elohim; for it is not subject to the law of Elohim, neither indeed can it be. 8 Those who are in the flesh cannot please Elohim. 9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Ruah, if it is so that the Ruah of Elohim dwells in you. But if any man does not have the Ruah of Messiah, he is not His. 10 If Messiah is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness. 11 But if the Ruah of Him who raised up יֶשׁוּא from the dead dwells in you, He who raised up Messiah יֶשׁוּא from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Ruah who dwells in you. 12 So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. 13 For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Ruah you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

14 For as many as are led by the Ruah of Elohim, these are children of Elohim. 15 For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the spirit of adoption as sons^a, by whom we cry, "Abba^b! Father!"

16 The Ruah itself testifies with our spirit that we are children of Elohim; 17 and if children, then heirs; heirs of Elohim, and joint heirs with Messiah; if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified with Him. 18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. 19 For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of Elohim to be revealed. 20 For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of Elohim. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. 23 Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Ruah, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption as sons, the redemption of our body. 24 For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? 25 But if we hope for that which we do not see, we wait for it with patience. 26 In the same way, the Ruah also helps our weaknesses, for we do not know how to pray as we ought. But the Ruah itself makes intercession with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Ruah's mind, because He makes intercession for the set-apart ones according to Elohim.

28 We know that all things work together for good for those who love Elohim, to those who are called according to His purpose. 29 For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brothers. 30 Whom He predestined, those He also called. Whom He called, those He also declared right. Whom He declared right, those He also glorified.

31 What then shall we say about these things? If Elohim is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how would He not also with Him freely give us all things? 33 Who could bring a charge against the chosen ones of Elohim? It is Elohim who declares right. 34 Who is He who condemns? It is Messiah who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is in the right hand of Elohim, who also makes intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Messiah? Could affliction, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter."^c 37 No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor messengers, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of Elohim, which is in Messiah יִשְׁׁוּעָה our Master.

9 I tell the truth in Messiah. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Set-apart Ruah, 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For I could pray that I myself were accursed, separated from Messiah for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, 4 who are Yisra'elites; whose is the adoption as sons, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the Torah, the service, and the promises; 5 of whom are the fathers, and from whom is Messiah as concerning the flesh, who is over all, Elohim blessed to the ages. Amein.

6 But it is not as though the word of Elohim has come to nothing. For they are not all Yisra'el, that are of Yisra'el. 7 Neither, because they are Avraham's seed, are they all children. But, "Your seed will be accounted as from Yitshaq."^d 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of Elohim, but the children of the promise are counted as seed. 9 For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."^e 10 Not only so, but Rivqah also conceived from one, by our father Yitshaq. 11 For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of Elohim according to His choice might stand, 12 not of works, but of Him who calls, it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger."^f 13 Even as it is written, "Ya'aqov I loved, but Esaw I hated."^g

^a 15 Greek word used here for "adoption as sons" is vioθεσία (huiōthesia). It was a Greek term used to refer to an heir of a royal family by adoption.

^b 15 Abba – Aramaic word meaning "father." In Greek, it reads, αββα ὁ πατήρ (abba ho pater). The word πατήρ (pater) is the Greek word for "father" while abba is transliterated from Aramaic. In the Syr. this verse reads, אבא און (abba avon) meaning "Father, our Father."

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with Elohim? May it never be! 15 For He said to Mosheh, "I will favor whom I will favor, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."^a 16 So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of Elohim who is kind. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you My power, and that My Name might be proclaimed in all the earth."^b 18 So then, He is kind to whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires. 19 You will say then to me, "Why does He still find fault? For who withstands His will?" 20 But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against Elohim? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"^c 21 Or has the potter not a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? 22 What if Elohim, willing to show His wrath, and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction, 23 and that He might make known the riches of His glory on vessels of loving-kindness, which He prepared beforehand for glory, 24 us, whom He also called, not from the Yehudim only, but also from the nations? 25 As He says also in Hoshea, "I will call them 'My people,' which were not My people; and her 'beloved,' who was not beloved."^d

26 "It will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' There they will be called 'children of the living El.'"^e

27 Yeshayahu cries concerning Yisra'el, "If the number of the children of Yisra'el are as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant who will be saved; 28 for He will finish the word and cut it short, because תְּנַתֵּן will make a perform it upon the earth."^f

29 As Yeshayahu has said before, "Unless תְּנַתֵּן Tsevaot had left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, and would have been made like Gomorrah."^g

30 What shall we say then? That the nations, who did not follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith; 31 but Yisra'el, following after a law of righteousness, did not arrive at a law [of righteousness]^h. 32 Why? Because they did not seek it from faith, but as it were from works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone; 33 even as it is written, "Behold, I lay in Tsion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense; and no one who believes in Him will be disappointed."ⁱ

10 Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to Elohim is for them, that they may be saved. 2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for Elohim, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of the righteousness of Elohim, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of Elohim. 4 For Messiah is the goal of law for righteousness to everyone who believes. 5 For Mosheh writes about the righteousness from the law, "The one who does them will live by them."^j 6 But the righteousness from faith says this, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'"^k (that is, to bring Messiah down); 7 or, "Who will descend into the abyss?"^l (that is, to bring Messiah up from the dead)." 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;"^m that is, the word of faith, which we proclaim: 9 that if you will confess with your mouth that יְהוָה is Master, and believe in your heart that Elohim raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For in the heart man believes unto righteousness; and in the mouth is confession unto salvation. 11 For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in Him will not be disappointed."ⁿ

12 For there is no distinction between Yehudite and Greek^o; for the same Master is Master of all,^p and is rich to all who call on Him. 13 For, "Whoever will call on the Name of תְּנַתֵּן will be saved."^q 14 How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in Him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a proclaimer? 15 And how will they proclaim unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who [proclaim the good news of peace, who^a bring good news of good things!^b

16 But they did not all listen to the glad news. For Yeshayahu says, "תִּתְבֹּא, who has believed our message?" 17 So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Messiah. 18 But I say, did they not hear? Yes, most certainly, "Their sound went out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.^d"

19 But I ask, did Yisra'el not know? First Mosheh says, "I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, with a nation void of understanding I will make you angry.^e"

20 Yeshayahu is very bold, and says, "I was found by those who did not seek Me. I was revealed to those who did not ask for Me.^f"

21 But as to Yisra'el He says, "All day long I stretched out My hands to a disobedient and contrary people.^g"

11 I ask then, did Elohim reject His people? May it never be! For I also am a Yisra'elite, a seed of Avraham, of the tribe of Benyamin. 2 Elohim did not reject His people, which He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says about Eliyahu? How he pleads with Elohim against Yisra'el: 3 "תִּתְבֹּא, they have killed Your prophets, they have broken down Your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life." 4 But how does Elohim answer him? "I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Ba'al.^h" 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the choice of favor. 6 And if by favor, then it is no longer from works; otherwise favor is no longer favor. [But if it is from works, it is no longer favor; otherwise work is no longer work].

7 What then? That which Yisra'el seeks for, that he did not obtain; but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. 8 According as it is written, "Elohim gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day.ⁱ" 9 David says, "Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, a stumbling block, and a retribution to them. 10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see. Bow down their back always.^k

11 I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their misstep, salvation has come to the nations, to provoke them to jealousy. 12 Now if their misstep is the riches of the world, and their lacking the riches of the nations, how much more their fulfillment? 13 For I speak to you who are of the nations. Since then as I am a shaliah to nations, I glorify my ministry; 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some from them. 15 For if their loss is the reconciliation of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? 16 If the first fruit is set-apart, so is the lump. If the root is set-apart, so are the branches.

17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being of a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root of the richness of the olive tree, 18 do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. 19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in." 20 True; by their disbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear; 21 for if Elohim did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you. 22 See then the goodness and severity of Elohim. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness of Elohim, if you continue in His goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. 23 They also, if they do not continue in their disbelief, will be grafted in, for Elohim is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? 25 For I do not desire you to be ignorant, brothers, of this mystery, so that you will not be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Yisra'el, until the fullness of the nations has come in, 26 and so all Yisra'el will be saved. Even as it is written, "There will come out of Tsion the Deliverer, and He will turn away wickedness from Ya'aqov. 27 This is My covenant with them, when I will take away their sins.^l"

28 Concerning the good news, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved on account of the patriarchs. 29 For the gifts and the calling of Elohim are without regret. 30 Just as you in time past were disobedient to Elohim, but now have obtained loving-kindness by their disobedience, 31 even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the loving-kindness shown to you they may also obtain loving-kindness. 32 For Elohim has closed up all to disobedience, that He might be kind to all.

33 Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of Elohim! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His untraceable ways!

34 "For who has known the mind of יהוה? Or who has been His counselor?"^a

35 "Or who has first given to Him, and it will be repaid to Him again?"^b

36 For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things. To Him be the glory to the ages! Amein.

12 Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the compassion of Elohim, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, set-apart, acceptable to Elohim, which is your spiritual service. 2 Stop being conformed to this age, but continue being transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of Elohim. 3 For I say – through the favor that was given me – to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as Elohim has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. 4 For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members do not have the same function, 5 so we, who are many, are one body in Messiah, and individually members one of another. 6 Having gifts differing according to the favor that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; 7 or service, let us give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; 8 or he who exhorts, to his exhorting: he who gives, let him do it with generosity; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows kindness, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. 10 In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate to one another; in honor preferring one another; 11 not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Master; 12 rejoicing in hope; patient in affliction; continuing steadfastly in prayer; 13 contributing to the needs of the set-apart ones; given to hospitality. 14 Bless those who persecute you; bless, and do not curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. 16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own conceits. 17 Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men. 18 If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men. 19 Do not seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to the wrath of Elohim. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to Me; I will repay, says ^c יהוה." 20 Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on his head."^d 21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Let every being be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from under Elohim, and the ones existing are ordained by Elohim. 2 Therefore he who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of Elohim; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment. 3 For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same, 4 for he is a servant of Elohim to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of Elohim, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil. 5 Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. 6 For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of the service of Elohim, attending continually on this very thing. 7 Therefore give everyone what you owe: if you owe taxes, pay taxes; if tolls, then tolls; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor. 8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled law.

9 For the commands, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet,"^e and whatever other commands there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."^f

10 Love does not harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fullness of law. 11 Do this, knowing the time, that it is already the hour for you to awaken out of sleep, for our salvation is indeed now nearer than when we first believed. 12 The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let us therefore throw off the deeds of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. 13 Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy. 14 But put on the Master מָשִׁיחַ Messiah, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

14 Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. 2 One man believes to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. 3 Do not let him who eats despise him who does not eat. Do not let him who does not eat judge him who eats, for Elohim has accepted him. 4 Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for Elohim has power to make him stand.

5 One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. 6 He who observes the day, observes it to the Master. He who eats, eats to the Master, for he gives Elohim thanks. He who does not eat, to the Master he does not eat, and gives Elohim thanks. 7 For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. 8 For if we live, we live to the Master. Or if we die, we die to the Master. If therefore we live or die, we are the Master's. 9 For this Messiah died, and lived again, that He might be Master^a of both the dead and the living.

10 But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Elohim^b. 11 For it is written, "As I live,' says תְּהִלִּים, 'to Me every knee will bow. Every tongue will confess to Elohim."^c"

12 So then each one of us will give account of himself to Elohim. 13 Therefore let us not judge one another anymore, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion for falling. 14 I know, and am persuaded in the Master מָשִׁיחַ, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 Yet if through food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Do not destroy with your food him for whom Messiah died. 16 Then do not let your good be slandered, 17 for the Kingdom of Elohim is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Set-apart Ruah. 18 For he who serves Messiah in this is acceptable to Elohim and approved by men. 19 So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up. 20 Do not overthrow the work of Elohim for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating. 21 It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything to cause your brother to stumble.

22 Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before Elohim. Happy is he who does not judge himself in that which he approves. 23 But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.^d

15 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up. 3 For even Messiah did not please Himself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me."^e 4 For whatever things were written before, were written for our learning, that through perseverance and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. 5 Now the Elohim of perseverance and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Messiah מָשִׁיחַ, 6 that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the Elohim and Father of our Master מָשִׁיחַ Messiah.

7 Therefore accept one another, even as Messiah also accepted you, to the glory of Elohim. 8 Now I say that Messiah has been made a servant of the circumcision for the truth of Elohim, that He might confirm the promises given to the fathers, 9 and that the nations might glorify Elohim for His loving-kindness. As it is written, "Therefore will I give praise to You among the nations, and sing to Your Name."^f"

10 Again He says, "Rejoice, you nations, with His people."^g" 11 Again, "Praise תְּהִלִּים, all you nations! Let all the peoples praise Him."^h" 12 Again, Yeshayahu says, "There will be the root of Yishai, He who arises to rule over the nations; in Him the nations will hope."ⁱ"

13 Now may the Elohim of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Set-apart Ruah. 14 I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others. 15 But I write more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the favor that was given to me by Elohim, 16 that I should be a servant of Messiah ישׁוּעָה to the nations, serving as a priest of the good news of Elohim, that the offering up of the nations might be made acceptable, set apart by the Set-apart Ruah. 17 I have therefore my boasting in Messiah ישׁוּעָה in things pertaining to Elohim. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Messiah worked through me, for the obedience of the nations, by word and deed, 19 in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Ruah of Elohim; so that from Yerushalayim, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have proclaimed in fullness the good news of Messiah; 20 yes, making it my aim to proclaim the good news, not where Messiah was already named, that I might not build on another's foundation. 21 But, as it is written, "They will see, to whom no news of Him came. They who have not heard will understand."^a 22 Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you, 23 but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you. 24 For I hope to see you in passing as I go to Spain, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may be filled in part by your company. 25 But now, I say, I am going to Yerushalayim, serving the set-apart ones. 26 For it has been the good pleasure of Makedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the set-apart ones who are at Yerushalayim. 27 Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the nations have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things. 28 When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain. 29 I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Messiah.

30 Now I beg you, brothers, by our Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah, and by the love of the Ruah, that you strive together with me in your prayers to Elohim for me, 31 that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Yehudah, and that my service which I have for Yerushalayim may be acceptable to the set-apart ones; 32 that I may come to you in joy through the will of Elohim, and together with you, find rest. 33 Now the Elohim of peace be with you all. Amein.

16 I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is a servant of the assembly that is at Keghreai, 2 that you receive her in the Master, in a way worthy of the set-apart ones, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may need from you, for she herself also has been a helper of many, and of my own self.

3 Greet Priska and Aquila, my fellow workers in Messiah ישׁוּעָה, 4 who for my life, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the nations. 5 Greet the assembly that is in their house. Greet Epainetos, my beloved, who is the first fruits of Asia to Messiah. 6 Greet Miryam, who labored much for you. 7 Greet Andronikos and Iounia, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the shelihim, who were also in Messiah before me. 8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Master. 9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Messiah, and Stahys, my beloved. 10 Greet Apelles, the approved in Messiah. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus. 11 Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet them of the household of Narkisso, who are in the Master. 12 Greet Truphaina and Truphosa, who labor in the Master. Greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Master. 13 Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Master, and his mother and mine. 14 Greet Asugkritos, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them. 15 Greet Philologos and Ioulia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the set-apart ones who are with them. 16 Greet one another with a set-apart kiss. The assemblies of Messiah greet you all.

17 Now I beg you, brothers, look out for those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and turn away from them. 18 For those who are such do not serve our Master, ישׁוּעָה Messiah, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech, they deceive the hearts of the innocent. 19 For your obedience has become known to all. I rejoice therefore over you. But I desire to have you wise in that which is good, but innocent in that which is evil. 20 And the Elohim of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. The favor of our Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah be with you.

21 Timotheos, my fellow worker, greets you, as do Lucius, Iason, and Sosipater, my relatives. 22 I, Tertius, who write the letter, greet you in the Master. 23 Gaius, my host and host of the whole assembly, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, as does Quartus, the brother. 24 [The favor of our Master ישׁוּעָה Messiah be with you all! Amein.]^b

25 Now to him who is able to establish you according to my good news and the proclaiming of ישׁוּעָה Messiah, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through the ages, 26 but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the command of the everlasting Elohim, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; 27 to the only wise Elohim, through יֶשׁוּא Messiah, to whom be the glory to the ages! Amein.^a as 14:24-26. The order shown is found in early Greek and Syriac texts.

KOPINΘIOYC &

Korinthious A (1 Corinthians)

1 Sha'ul, called to be a shaliah of Messiah through the will of Elohim, and our brother Sosthenes, 2 to the assembly of Elohim which is at Korinth; those who are set apart in Messiah יִשְׁעָה, called to be set-apart ones, with all who call on the Name of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah in every place, both theirs and ours: 3 favor to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah.

4 I always thank my Elohim concerning you, for the favor of Elohim which was given you in Messiah יִשְׁעָה; 5 that in everything you were enriched in Him, in all speech and all knowledge; 6 even as the witness of Messiah was confirmed in you: 7 so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah; 8 who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah. 9 Elohim is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, יִשְׁעָה Messiah, our Master. 10 Now I beg you, brothers, through the Name of our Master, יִשְׁעָה Messiah, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11 For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. 12 Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Sha'ul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Kepha," and, "I follow Messiah." 13 Is Messiah divided? Was Sha'ul crucified for you? Or were you immersed into the name of Sha'ul?

14 I thank Elohim that I immersed none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, 15 so that no one should say that you were immersed into my own name. 16 (I also immersed the household of Stephana; besides them, I do not know whether I immersed any other.) 17 For Messiah sent me not to immerse, but to proclaim the good news—not in wisdom of words, so that the stake of Messiah would not be made void. 18 For the word of the stake is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are being saved it is the power of Elohim. 19 For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."^a 20 Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this age? Has Elohim not made the wisdom of this world foolish? 21 For seeing that in the wisdom of Elohim, the world through its wisdom did not know Elohim, it was the good pleasure of Elohim through the foolishness of the proclaiming to save those who believe. 22 For Yehudim ask for signs, Greeks^b seek after wisdom, 23 but we proclaim Messiah crucified; a stumbling block to Yehudim, and foolishness to the nations, 24 but to those who are called, both Yehudim and Greeks, Messiah is the power of Elohim and the wisdom of Elohim. 25 Because the foolishness of Elohim is wiser than men, and the weakness of Elohim is stronger than men. 26 For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; 27 but Elohim chose the foolish things of the world that He might put to shame those who are wise. Elohim chose the weak things of the world, that He might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and Elohim chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that He might bring to nothing the things that are: 29 that no flesh should boast before Elohim.

30 Because of Him, you are in Messiah יִשְׁעָה, who was made to us wisdom from Elohim, and righteousness and set-apartness, and redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in יהודָה."^c

2 When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery^d of Elohim. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, except יִשְׁעָה Messiah, and Him crucified. 3 I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. 4 My speech and my proclaiming were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Ruah and of power, 5 that your faith would not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of Elohim. 6 We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. 7 But we speak the wisdom of Elohim in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which Elohim foreordained before the ages for our glory, 8 which none of the rulers of this age has known. For had they known it, they would not have crucified the Master of glory.

9 But as it is written, "Things which an eye did not see, and an ear did not hear, which did not enter into the heart of man, these Elohim has prepared for those who love Him."^{a"}

10 But to us, Elohim revealed them through the Ruah. For the Ruah searches all things, yes, the deep things of Elohim. 11 For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of Elohim, except the Ruah of Elohim. 12 But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Ruah which is from Elohim, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by Elohim. 13 Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Ruah teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. 14 Now the natural man does not receive the things of the Ruah of Elohim, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15 But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one. 16 "For who has known the mind of תְּבוּנָה, that he should instruct Him?"^{b"} But we have Messiah's mind.

3 Brothers, I could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babes in Messiah. 2 I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you were not yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready, 3 for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and do you not walk in the ways of men? 4 For when one says, "I follow Sha'ul," and another, "I follow Apollos;" are you not mere men? 5 Who then is Apollos, and who is Sha'ul, but servants through whom you believed; and each as תְּבוּנָה gave to him? 6 I planted. Apollos watered. But Elohim gave the increase. 7 So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but Elohim who gives the increase. 8 Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are fellow workers of Elohim. You are the farming of Elohim, the building of Elohim. 10 According to the favor of Elohim which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it. 11 For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is מָשִׁיחָה Messiah. 12 But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble; 13 each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is. 14 If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. 15 If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

16 Do you not know that you are a dwelling place of Elohim, and that the Ruah of Elohim lives in you? 17 If anyone destroys the dwelling place of Elohim, Elohim will destroy him; for the dwelling place of Elohim is set-apart, which you are. 18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this age, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with Elohim. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness."^{c"} 20 And again, "תְּבוּנָה knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless."^{d"} 21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, 22 whether Sha'ul, or Apollos, or Kepha, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, 23 and you belong to Messiah, and Messiah belongs to Elohim.

4 So let a man think of us as Messiah's servants, and stewards of the mysteries of Elohim. 2 Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I do not judge my own self. 4 For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not declared right by this, but He who judges me is תְּבוּנָה. 5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until תְּבוּנָה comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from Elohim.

6 Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to go beyond what is written, that none of you be puffed up against one another. 7 For who makes you different? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? 8 You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. And oh that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For, I think that Elohim has displayed us, the shelihim, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to messengers and men.

10 We are fools for Messiah's sake, but you are wise in Messiah. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor. 11 Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place. 12 We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure. 13 Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now.

14 I do not write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. 15 For though you have ten thousand tutors in Messiah, you do not have many fathers. For in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה, I brought you forth through the good news. 16 I beg you therefore, be imitators of me. 17 Because of this I have sent Timotheos to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in ḥodesh, who will remind you of my ways which are in Messiah, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly. 18 Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. 19 But I will come to you shortly, if ḥodesh is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. 20 For the Kingdom of Elohim is not in word, but in power. 21 What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is whoring among you, and such whoring as is not even found among the nations, that one has his father's wife. 2 You are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you. 3 For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing. 4 In the Name of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah, 5 are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah.

6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7 Purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Messiah, our Pesah, has been slaughtered [in our place]^a. 8 Therefore let us keep the Feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with whores; 10 yet not at all meaning with whores of this world, or with the covetous and extortionists, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world.

11 But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is whore, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortionist. Do not even eat with such a person.

12 For what do I have to do with also judging those who are outside? Do you not judge those who are within?

13 But those who are outside, Elohim judges. "Put away the evil man from among yourselves.^b"

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to be judged before the unrighteous, and not before the set-apart ones? 2 Do you not know that the set-apart ones will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3 Do you not know that we will judge messengers? How much more, things that pertain to this life? 4 If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly? 5 I say this to move you to shame. Is there not even one wise man among you who would be able to decide between his brothers? 6 But brother goes to be judged with brother, and that before unbelievers! 7 Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have judgments with one another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? 8 No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers.

9 Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of Elohim? Do not be deceived. Neither whores, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortionists, will inherit the Kingdom of Elohim. 11 Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were set apart. But you were declared right in the Name of the Master יִשְׁוּעָה, and in the Ruah of our Elohim.

12 All things are permissible for me, but not all things are profitable. All things are permissible for me, but I will not be brought under the power of anything.

13 Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods, but Elohim will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for whoring, but for the Master; and the Master for the body. 14 Now Elohim raised up the Master, and will also raise us up by His power. 15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Messiah? Shall I then take the members of Messiah, and make them members of a whore? May it never be! 16 Or do you not know that he who is joined to a whore is one body? For, "The two will become one flesh."^a 17 But he who is joined to the Master is one spirit. 18 Flee whoring! Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who whores sins against his own body. 19 Or do you not know that your body is a dwelling place of the Set-apart Ruah which is in you, which you have from Elohim? You are not your own, 20 for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify Elohim in your body [and in your spirit, which belong to Elohim]^b.

7 Now concerning the things about which you wrote: it is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2 But, because of whorings, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband give his wife what is owed her, and likewise also the wife her husband. 4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife. 5 Do not deprive one another, unless it is by consent for a season, that you may give yourselves to prayer^c, and may be together again, that Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6 But this I say by way of concession, not of command. 7 Yet I desire that all men were like me. However each man has his own gift from Elohim, one of this kind, and another of that kind. 8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. 9 But if they do not have self-control, let them marry.

For it is better to marry than to burn. 10 But to the married I command—not I, but the Master—that the wife not leave her husband 11 (but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

12 But to the rest I—not the Master—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. 13 The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave the husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is set apart in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is set apart in the brother. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are set-apart. 15 Yet if the unbelieving departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but Elohim has called you in peace. 16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? 17 Only, as פָּרָשׁ has distributed to each man, as Elohim has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies.

18 Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become un-circumcised. Has anyone been called in un-circumcision? Let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and un-circumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commands of Elohim matters most. 20 Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called. 21 Were you called being a bondservant? Do not let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. 22 For he who was called in the Master being a bondservant is the Master's free man. Likewise he who was called being free is Messiah's bondservant. 23 You were bought with a price. Do not become bondservants of men.

24 Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with Elohim.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no command from the Master, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained kindness from the Master to be faithful.

26 Therefore I think that because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to remain as he is. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. 28 But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have affliction in the flesh, and I want to spare you. 29 But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess; 31 and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away.

32 But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Master, how he may please the Master; 33 but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Master, that she may be set-apart both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. 35 This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Master without distraction. 36 But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He does not sin. Let them marry.

^a 16 See Bereshiyt 2:24.

^c 5 Some later Greek and Syriac manuscripts read, "prayer and fasting" here instead.

37 But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no urgency, but has power over his own will, and has determined in his own heart to guard his own virgin, does well. 38 So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage does better.

39 A wife is bound for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Master. 40 But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have the Ruah of Elohim.

8 Now concerning things slaughtered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2 But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he does not yet know as he ought to know. 3 But if anyone loves Elohim, the same is known by Him. 4 Therefore concerning the eating of things slaughtered to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no Elohim but one. 5 For though there are things that are called "elohim", whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "elohim" and many "masters,"^a 6 yet to us there is one Elohim, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for Him; and one Master^a, מָשִׁיחַ Messiah, through whom are all things, and we live through Him.^b

7 However, that knowledge is not in all men. But some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat as of a thing slaughtered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food will not command us to Elohim. For neither, if we do not eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better. 9 But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak. 10 For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things slaughtered to idols? 11 And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the one for whose sake Messiah died. 12 Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Messiah. 13 Therefore if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat to the age, that I do not cause my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not free? Am I not a shaliah? Have I not seen מָשִׁיחַ Messiah, our Master? Are you not my work in the Master? 2 If to others I am not a shaliah, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my work of the shelihim in the Master. 3 My defense to those who examine me is this. 4 Have we no right to eat and to drink? 5 Have we no right to take along a wife who is firm, even as the rest of the shelihim, and the brothers of the Master, and Kepha? 6 Or have only Barnava and I no right to not work? 7 What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and does not drink from the flock's milk? 8 Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or does the Torah not also say the same thing? 9 For it is written in the Torah of Mosheh, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain."^c Is it for the oxen that Elohim cares, 10 or does He say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake. 11 If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? 12 If others partake of this right over you, do we not yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the good news of Messiah.

13 Do you not know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the Temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar?

14 Even so the Master ordained that those who proclaim the good news should live from the good news. 15 But I have used none of these things, and I do not write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. 16 For if I proclaim the good news, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I do not proclaim the good news. 17 For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. 18 What then is my reward? That, when I proclaim the good news, I may present the good news without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the good news.

19 For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. 20 To the Yehudim I became as a Yehudite, that I might gain Yehudim; to those who are under law, as under law, that I might gain those who are under law, not being under law myself; 21 to those who are lawless, as lawless (not being lawless toward Elohim, but in law toward Messiah), that I might win those who are lawless. 22 To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. 23 Now I do this for the sake of the good news, that I may be a joint partaker of all things. 24 Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. 25 Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 26 I therefore run like that, not aimlessly. I fight like that, not beating the air, 27 but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have proclaimed to others, I myself should be disqualified.

10 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2 and were all immersed into Mosheh in the cloud and in the sea; 3 and all ate the same spiritual food; 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Messiah. 5 However with most of them, Elohim was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. 6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 7 Do not be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."^a 8 Let us not whore, as some of them whored, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. 9 Let us not test the Master, as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. 10 Do not grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. 12 Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he does not fall.

13 No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. Elohim is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. 14 Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Messiah? The bread which we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Messiah? 17 Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. 18 Consider Yisra'el according to the flesh. Do those who eat the sacrifices not participate in the altar?

19 What am I saying then? That a thing slaughtered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? 20 But I say that the things which they slaughter, they slaughter to demons, and not to Elohim, and I do not desire that you would have fellowship with demons. 21 You cannot both drink the cup of the Master and the cup of demons. You cannot both partake of the table of the Master, and of the table of demons. 22 Or do we provoke the Master to jealousy? Are we stronger than He? 23 All things are permissible, but not all things are profitable. All things are permissible, but not all things build up. 24 Let no one seek his own, but rather his neighbor's good. 25 Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, 26 for "the earth belongs to יהוה, and its fullness."^b 27 But if an unbeliever invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This was slaughtered to idols," do not eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. 29 Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for something I give thanks for? 31 Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of Elohim. 32 Give no occasion for stumbling, either to Yehudim, or to Greeks^c, or to the assembly of Elohim; 33 even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Messiah. 2 Now I praise you that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know that the head of every man is Messiah, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Messiah is Elohim. 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. 5 But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is the same as if she were shaved. 6 For if a woman is not covered, let her hair also be cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut off or be shaved, let her be covered. 7 For a man indeed should not have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of Elohim, but the woman is the glory of man. 8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man; 9 for man was not created for the woman, but woman for man. 10 For this cause the woman should have authority on her head, because of the messengers.

^a See Shemoth 32:6.

^c 32 Syr. reads אַרְמָנִים (w'laramia) meaning "or to Arameans" here instead of "or to Greeks."

11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Master. 12 For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from Elohim. 13 Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to Elohim uncovered? 14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. 16 But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do the assemblies of Elohim.

17 But in giving you this command, I do not praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and in part I believe it. 19 For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. 20 When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Master's supper that you eat. 21 For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken. 22 What, do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise the assembly of Elohim, and put them to shame who do not have enough? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I do not praise you.

23 For I received from the Master that which also I delivered to you; the Master עֲשֵׂה, on the night in which He was betrayed, took bread. 24 When He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, "This is My body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of Me."^a 25 In the same way He also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the renewed covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of Me."^b 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Master's death until He comes. 27 Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Master^c in an unworthy way will be guilty of the body and the blood. 28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. 29 For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he does not discern the Master's body. 30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. 31 For if we discerned ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are punished by the Master, that we may not be condemned with the world. 33 Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. 34 But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. 2 You know that when you were heathen, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. 3 Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by the Ruah of Elohim says, "עָשֵׂה is accursed." No one can say, "עָשֵׂה is Master^d," but by the Set-apart Ruah. 4 Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Ruah.

5 There are various kinds of service, and the same Master.^e 6 There are various kinds of workings, but the same Elohim, who works all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Ruah for the profit of all. 8 For to one is given through the Ruah the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Ruah; 9 to another faith, by the same Ruah; and to another gifts of healings, by the one Ruah; 10 and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages. 11 But the one and the same Ruah produces all of these, distributing to each one separately as He desires.

12 For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Messiah. 13 For in one Ruah we were all immersed into one body, whether Yehudim or Greeks^f, whether bondservants or free; and were all given to drink of one Ruah. 14 For the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot would say, "Because I am not the hand, I am not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. 16 If the ear would say, "Because I am not the eye, I am not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now Elohim has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He desired. 19 If they were all one member, where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members, but one body. 21 The eye cannot tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." 22 No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. 23 Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unrepresentable parts have more abundant propriety; 24 whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But Elohim composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, 25 that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26 When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

^e 5 Syr. reads וְעַל כָּל כָּל יְהוּדָה וְגָתָן (w'pu'lage d'tesh'mesa'ta aita'y'hun eta had huw Mar-ya) meaning "And there are diversities of ministries, but יהוָה is One" here.

^f 13 Syr. reads אַרְמַנִּים (aramia) meaning "Arameans" here instead of "Greeks."

27 Now you are the body of Messiah, and members in part. 28 Elohim has set some in the assembly: first shelihim, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. 29 Are all shelihim? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? 30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a greater way to you.

13 If I speak with the languages of men and of messengers, but do not have love, I have become sounding copper, or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give away all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

4 Love is patient and is kind; love does not envy. Love does not brag, is not proud, 5 does not behave itself inappropriately, does not seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; 6 does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is complete has come, then that which is in part will be done away with. 11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things.

12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. 13 But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

14 Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to Elohim; for no one understands; but in the Ruah he speaks mysteries. 3 But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation. 4 He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the assembly. 5 And I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up.

6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? 7 Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they did not give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? 9 So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none is without meaning. 11 If then I do not know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a barbarian, and he who speaks would be a barbarian to me. 12 So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. 13 Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amein" at your giving of thanks, seeing as he does not know what you say? 17 For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. 18 I thank Elohim I speak with other languages more than you all.

19 However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

20 Brothers, do not be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babes, but in thoughts be mature. 21 In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear Me, says 22 ^a. Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to those unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to those unbelieving, but to those who believe. 23 If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, will they not say that you are crazy? 24 But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all. 25 And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and bow down to Elohim, declaring that Elohim is among you indeed.

26 What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. 27 If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in part; and let one interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to Elohim. 29 Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. 30 But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. 31 For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. 32 The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, 33 for Elohim is not an Elohim of confusion, but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the set-apart ones. 34 [Let the women be quiet in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to be talking except in submission, as the law also says. 35 If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to be talking in the assembly.]^b 36 What? Was it from you that the word of Elohim went out? Or did it come to you alone?

37 If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the command of the Master. 38 But if anyone ignores this, let him be ignored. 39 Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking with other languages. 40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now I declare to you, brothers, the good news which I proclaimed to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, ² by which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly the word which I proclaimed to you—unless you believed in vain. 3 For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Messiah died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 5 and that He appeared to Kepha, then to the twelve. 6 Then He appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. 7 Then He appeared to Ya'aqov, then to all the shelihim, 8 and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, He appeared to me also. 9 For I am the least of the shelihim, who is not worthy to be called a shaliah, because I persecuted the assembly of Elohim. 10 But by the favor of Elohim I am what I am. His favor which was given to me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the favor of Elohim which was with me. 11 Therefore whether it is I or they, so we proclaim, and so you believed.

12 Now if Messiah is proclaimed, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Messiah been raised. 14 If Messiah has not been raised, then our proclaiming is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. 15 Yes, we are also found false witnesses of Elohim, because we testified about Elohim that He raised up Messiah, whom He did not raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither has Messiah been raised. 17 If Messiah has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. 18 Then they also who are fallen asleep in Messiah have perished. 19 If we have only hoped in Messiah in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

20 But now Messiah has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep. 21 For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. 22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Messiah all will be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Messiah the first fruits, then those who are Messiah's, at His coming. 24 Then the end comes, when He will deliver up the Kingdom to Elohim, even the Father; when He will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. 25 For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet. 26 The last enemy that will be abolished is death. 27 For, "He put all things in subjection under His feet."^c But when He says, "All things are put in subjection", it is evident that He is excepted who subjected all things to Him. 28 When all things have been subjected to Him, then the Son will also Himself be subjected to Him who subjected all things to Him, that Elohim may be all in all. 29 Or else what will they do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they immersed for them?^a 30 Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? 31 I believe, by the boasting in you which I have in Messiah יֶשׁוּאָה our Master, I die daily. 32 If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."^b 33 Do not be deceived! {Evil companionships corrupt good morals.}^c 34 Wake up righteously, and do not sin, for some have no knowledge of Elohim. I say this to your shame. 35 But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" 36 You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37 That which you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. 38 But Elohim gives it a body even as it pleased Him, and to each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. 40 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies; but the glory of the heavenly differs from that of the earthly. 41 There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown perishable; it is raised imperishable. 43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

45 So also it is written that the first man, Adam, "became a living being."^d The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46 However that which is spiritual is not first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is from heaven. 48 As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. 49 As we have borne the image of those made of dust, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. 50 Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of Elohim; neither does the perishable inherit imperishable. 51 Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for it will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. 53 For this perishable body must become imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 But when this perishable body will have become imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory."^e 55 "Death, where is your sting? Death, where is your victory?"^f 56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to Elohim, who gives us the victory through our Master יְשׁוּאָה Messiah. 58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of תְּהִלָּתִים, because you know that your labor is not in vain in תְּהִלָּתִים.

16 Now concerning the collection for the set-apart ones, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise. 2 On one of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. 3 When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your favor to Yerushalayim. 4 If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. 5 But I will come to you when I have passed through Makedonia, for I am passing through Makedonia. 6 But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. 7 For I do not desire to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Master permits. 8 But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost,^g for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. 10 Now if Timotheos comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of תְּהִלָּתִים, as I also do. 11 Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

12 Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity. 13 Watch! Stand firm in the faith! Be courageous! Be strong!^h 14 Let all that you do be done in love. 15 Now I beg you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the set-apart ones), 16 that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors. 17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephana, Fortunatus, and Ahaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied.

18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.

19 The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priska greet you much in the Master, together with the assembly that is in their house. 20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a set-apart kiss. 21 This greeting is by me, Sha'ul, with my own hand. 22 If any man does not love the Master שָׁוּעַ Messiah, let him be accursed. Come, Master! 23 The favor of the Master שָׁוּעַ Messiah be with you. 24 My love to all of you in Messiah שָׁוּעַ.

KOPINΘIOYC B

Korinthious B (2 Corinthians)

1 Sha'ul, a shaliah of Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה through the will of Elohim, and Timotheos our brother, to the assembly of Elohim which is at Korinth, with all the set-apart ones who are in the whole of Achaia: 2 favor to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah.

3 Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah, the Father of compassion and Elohim of all comfort; 4 who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by Elohim. 5 For as the sufferings of Messiah abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Messiah. 6 But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. 7 Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort.

8 For we do not desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. 9 Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not believe in ourselves, but in Elohim who raises the dead, 10 who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that He will also still deliver us; 11 you also helping together on our behalf by your petition; that, for the gift given to us from many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf. 12 For our boasting is this: the witness of our conscience, that in set-apartness and sincerity of Elohim, not in fleshly wisdom but in the favor of Elohim we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13 For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end; 14 as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה.

15 In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; 16 and by you to pass into Makedonia, and again from Makedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Yehudah. 17 When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no"?

18 But as Elohim is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no." 19 For the Son of Elohim, יֵשׁוּעַ Messiah, who was proclaimed among you by us, by me, Shila, and Timotheos, was not "Yes and no," but in Him is "Yes." 20 For however many are the promises of Elohim, in Him is the "Yes." Therefore also through Him is the "Amein", to the glory of Elohim through us.

21 Now He who establishes us with you in Messiah, and anointed us, is Elohim; 22 who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Ruah in our hearts. 23 But I call Elohim for a witness to my being, that I did not come to Korinth to spare you. 24 Not that we control your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

2 But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. 2 For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry from me? 3 And I wrote this very thing so that, when I came, I would not have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. 5 But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. 6 This punishment which was inflicted by the many is sufficient for such a one; 7 so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. 8 Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things.

10 Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Messiah, 11 that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

12 Now when I came to Troas for the good news of Messiah, and when a door was opened to me in Πατρίς, 13 I had no relief for my spirit, because I did not find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Makedonia. 14 Now thanks be to Elohim, who always leads us in triumph in Messiah, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of His knowledge in every place. 15 For we are a soothing aroma of Messiah to Elohim, in those who are being saved, and in those who perish; 16 to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as so many, peddling the word of Elohim. But as of sincerity, but as of Elohim, in the sight of Elohim, we speak in Messiah.

3 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you? 2 You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; 3 being revealed that you are a letter of Messiah, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Ruah of the living El; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. 4 Such confidence we have through Messiah toward Elohim; 5 not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from Elohim; 6 who also made us sufficient as servants of a renewed covenant; not of the letter, but of the Ruah. For the letter kills, but the Ruah gives life.

7 But if the service of death, written and engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Yisra'el could not look steadfastly on the face of Mosheh for the glory of his face,^a which was passing away; 8 will not service of the Ruah be with much more glory? 9 For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. 10 For most certainly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this part, by reason of the glory that surpasses. 11 For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

12 Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, 13 and not as Mosheh, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Yisra'el would not look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away. 14 But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Messiah it passes away. 15 But to this day, when Mosheh is read, a veil lies on their heart. 16 But whenever one turns to יְהוָה, the veil is taken away.

17 Now יְהוָה is Spirit and where the Ruah of יְהוָה is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face seeing the glory of יְהוָה as in a mirror, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from תְּהוֹן, the Ruah.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained kindness, we do not faint. 2 But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of Elohim deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commanding ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of Elohim. 3 Even if our good news is veiled, it is veiled in those who are dying; 4 in whom the el of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, that the light of the good news of the glory of Messiah, who is the image of Elohim, should not dawn. 5 For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Messiah יְשׁוּעָה as Master, and ourselves as your bondservants for the sake of שׁוֹעָב; 6 seeing it is Elohim who said, "Light will shine out of darkness,"^b who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of Elohim in the face of יְשׁוּעָה Messiah.

7 But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of Elohim, and not from ourselves. 8 We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; 9 pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; 10 always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Master יְשׁוּעָה, that the life of יְשׁוּעָה may also be revealed in our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered to death for the sake of יְשׁוּעָה, that the life also of יְשׁוּעָה may be revealed in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death works in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke."^c We also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that He who raised the Master יְשׁוּעָה will raise us also with יְשׁוּעָה, and will present us with you. 15 For all things are for your sakes, that the favor, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of Elohim. 16 Therefore we do not faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. 17 For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an everlasting weight of glory; 18 while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are everlasting.

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from Elohim, a house not made with hands, everlasting, in the heavens. 2 For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven; 3 if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked. 4 For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now He who made us for this very thing is Elohim, who also gave to us the down payment of the Ruah.

6 Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Master; 7 for we walk by faith, not by sight. 8 We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Master.

9 Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. 10 For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Messiah; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done^a, whether good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of תִּתְּנַחֲמָה, we persuade men, but we are revealed to Elohim; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences.

12 For we are not commanding ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for Elohim. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Messiah constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. 15 He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to Him who for their sakes died and rose again. 16 Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known after the flesh, yet now we know Him so no more. 17 Therefore if anyone is in Messiah, he is a renewed creature. The old things have passed away; behold, renewed things have come. 18 But all things are of Elohim, who reconciled us to Himself through שֵׁשׁ Messiah, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 namely, that Elohim was, in Messiah, reconciling the world to Himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. 20 We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Messiah, as though Elohim were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of Messiah, be reconciled to Elohim. 21 For Him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in Him we might become the righteousness of Elohim.

6 Working together, we entreat also that you do not receive the favor of Elohim in vain, 2 for He says, "At an acceptable time I listened to you, in a day of salvation I helped you."^b Behold, now is an acceptable time. Behold, now is a day of salvation. 3 We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, 4 but in everything commanding ourselves, as servants of Elohim, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; 6 in pureness, in knowledge, in perseverance, in kindness, in the Set-apart Ruah, in sincere love, 7 in the word of truth, in the power of Elohim; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; 9 as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed; 10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open to you, Korinthians. Our heart is enlarged. 12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. 13 Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also open your hearts.

14 Do not be unequally yoked with the unbelieving, for what fellowship have righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? 15 What agreement has Messiah with Beliya'al? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? 16 What agreement has the dwelling place of Elohim with idols?^c For we are the dwelling place of the living El. Even as Elohim said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their Elohim, and they will be My people."^d 17 Therefore "Come out from among them, and be separate," says תִּתְּנַחֲמָה. "Touch no unclean thing. I will receive you."^e 18 I will be to you a Father. You will be to Me sons and daughters," says תִּתְּנַחֲמָה Almighty."^f

7 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting set-apartness in the fear of Elohim. 2 Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. 3 I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. 5 For even when we had come into Makedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. 6 Nevertheless, He who comforts the lowly, Elohim, comforted us by the coming of Titus; 7 and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

8 For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it now, though I did regret it then. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for an hour. 9 I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry according to Elohim, that you might suffer loss from us in nothing. 10 For sorrow according to Elohim produces repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. 11 For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry according to Elohim, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your diligence for us might be revealed in you in the sight of Elohim. 13 Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15 His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything I am confident concerning you.

8 Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the favor of Elohim which has been given in the assemblies of Makedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity. 3 For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 begging us with much entreaty for the favor and the fellowship in the service to the set-apart ones. 5 This was not as we had expected, but first they gave their own selves to the Master, and to us through the will of Elohim. 6 So we urged Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this favor. 7 But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in our love for you, see that you also abound in this favor.

8 I speak not by way of command, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For you know the favor of our Master יְהוָה Messiah, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich. 10 I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. 11 But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you do not have.

13 For this is not that others may be eased and you afflicted, but from equality. 14 Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. 15 As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."^a 16 But thanks be to Elohim, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. 17 For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. 18 We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the good news is known throughout all the assemblies. 19 Not only so, but he was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us with this favor, which is served by us to the glory of the Master Himself, and to show our readiness. 20 We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. 21 Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of פָּנֵי־תְּהִלָּה, but also in the sight of men. 22 We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. 23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the shelihim of the assemblies, the glory of Messiah. 24 Therefore show the proof of your love to them before the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

9 It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the set-apart ones, 2 for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Makedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. 3 But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this part, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, 4 lest by any means, if anyone from Makedonia comes there with me and finds you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) would be disappointed in this confidence. 5 I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. 6 Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

7 Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for Elohim loves a cheerful giver. 8 And Elohim is able to make all favor abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. 9 As it is written, "He has scattered abroad, He has given to the poor. His righteousness remains to the age.^a"

10 He will supply seed to the sower and bread for food, and will supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; 11 you being enriched in everything to all generosity, which produces through us thanksgiving to Elohim. 12 For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the set-apart ones, but abounds also through much giving of thanks to Elohim; 13 seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify Elohim for the obedience of your confession to the good news of Messiah, and for the generosity of your contribution to them and to all; 14 while they themselves also, with petition on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding favor of Elohim in you.

15 Now thanks be to Elohim for His unspeakable gift!

10 Now I Sha'ul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Messiah; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh; 4 for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before Elohim to the throwing down of strongholds, 5 throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of Elohim, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Messiah; 6 and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full.

7 Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone believes in himself that he is Messiah's, let him consider this again with himself, that even as he is Messiah's, so also we are Messiah's. 8 For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Master gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, 9 that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. 10 For, "His letters", they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." 11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present.

12 For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. 13 But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which Elohim appointed to us, which reach even to you.

14 For we do not stretch ourselves too much, as though we did not reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the good news of Messiah, 15 not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, 16 so as to proclaim the good news even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done.

17 But "he who boasts, let him boast in ^bתְּהִלָּה". 18 For it is not he who commands himself who is approved, but whom תְּהִלָּה commands.

11 Oh that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with a jealousy like of Elohim. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Messiah. 3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Havvah in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity [and the purity]^c that is in Messiah. 4 For if he who comes proclaims another שָׁוֵם, whom we did not proclaim, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news", which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. 5 For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best shelihim.

6 But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we revealed this to you in all things. 7 Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I proclaimed to you the good news of Elohim free of charge? 8 I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. 9 When I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Makedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I guarded myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to guard.

^a See Tehillim 112:9.

^c 3 Bracketed section indicates reading found in some early Greek texts.

10 As the truth of Messiah is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11 Why? Because I do not love you? Elohim knows. 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we. 13 For such men are false shelihim, deceitful workers, masquerading as Messiah's shelihim. 14 And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as a messenger of light. 15 It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

16 I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little.

17 That which I speak, I do not speak according to the Master, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. 18 Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. 19 For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. 20 For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face.

21 I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet in whatever way anyone is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. 22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Yisra'elites? So am I. Are they the seed of Avraham? So am I. 23 Are they servants of Messiah? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often.

24 Five times I received forty stripes minus one from the Yehudim.^a 25 Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep sea. 26 I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the nations, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; 27 in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily: anxiety for all the assemblies. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. 31 The Elohim and Father of the Master מֶשְׁיחָא Messiah, He who is blessed to the ages, knows that I do not lie. 32 In Dammeseq the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of the Dammeseqites to arrest me. 33 Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 Surely it is [necessary, though]^b not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Master. 2 I know a man in Messiah, who fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I do not know, or whether out of the body, I do not know; Elohim knows), such a one was caught up into the third heaven. 3 I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I do not know; Elohim knows), 4 how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. 6 For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. 7 By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively. 8 Concerning this thing, I begged the Master three times that it might depart from me. 9 He has said to me, "My favor is sufficient for you, for [My] power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Messiah may rest on me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Messiah's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. 11 I have become foolish. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for I was in no way inferior to the very best shelihim, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of a shaliyah were worked among you in all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty works.

13 For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

^a 24 While Devarim 25:1-3 states that a guilty man may receive up to 40 lashes, they were generally only punished up to 39. The Mishnah, in Makkot c. 3. Sect. 10, states, "with how many stripes do they beat him (a criminal)? it is answered, "with forty minus one;" as it is said, "with the number forty;" that is, which is next to forty."

14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your beings. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? 16 But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception.

17 Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? 18 I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

19 All this time you are thinking that we are excusing ourselves to you. In the sight of Elohim we speak in Messiah. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. 20 For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you do not desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; 21 that again when I come my Elohim would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and whoring and lustfulness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established."^a 2 I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; 3 seeing that you seek a proof of Messiah who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. 4 For indeed He was crucified from weakness, yet He lives from the power of Elohim. For we also are weak in Him, but we will live with Him through the power of Elohim toward you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not know as to yourselves, that שׁוּעָת Messiah is in you? Unless indeed you are disqualified. 6 But I hope that you will know that we are not disqualified. 7 Now we pray to Elohim that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. 10 For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Master gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

11 Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the Elohim of love and peace will be with you. 12 Greet one another with a set-apart kiss. All the set-apart ones greet you.

13 The favor of the Master ישׁוּעָת Messiah, the love of Elohim, and the fellowship of the Set-apart Ruah, be with you all.^b

Γαλατας

Galatas (Galatians)

1 Sha'ul, a shalayah (not from men, nor through man, but through Messiah, and Elohim the Father, who raised Him from the dead), 2 and all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: 3 favor to you and peace from Elohim the Father, and our Master Messiah, 4 who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our Elohim and Father—5 to whom be the glory to the ages of the ages. Amein.

6 I marvel that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you in the favor of Messiah to a different "good news;" 7 not that there is another "good news." Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the good news of Messiah. 8 But even if we, or a messenger from heaven, should proclaim to you any "good news" other than that which we proclaimed to you, let him be cursed.

9 As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man proclaims to you any "good news" other than that which you received, let him be cursed. 10 For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of Elohim? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I would not be a bondservant of Messiah.

11 But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the good news which was proclaimed by me, that it is not according to man. 12 For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Messiah.

13 For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Yehudite religion, how beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of Elohim, and ravaged it. 14 I advanced in the Yehudite religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it was the good pleasure of Elohim, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me through His favor, 16 to reveal His Son in me, that I might proclaim Him among the nations, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Yerushalayim to those who were shelihim before me, but I went away into Aravia. Then I returned to Dammeseq.

18 Then after three years I went up to Yerushalayim to visit Kepha, and stayed with him fifteen days. 19 But of the other shelihim I saw no one, except Ya'aqov, the Master's brother. 20 Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before Elohim, I am not lying. 21 Then I came to the regions of Syria and Kilikia. 22 I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Yehudah which were in Messiah, 23 but they only heard: "He who once persecuted us now proclaims the faith that he once tried to destroy."

24 And they glorified Elohim in me.

2 Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Yerushalayim with Barnava, taking Titus also with me. 2 I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the good news which I proclaim among the nations, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being Greek^a, was forced to be circumcised. 4 This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Messiah, that they might bring us into bondage; 5 to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the good news might continue with you.

6 But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; Elohim does not show partiality to man)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, 7 but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the good news for the un-circumcised, even as Kepha with the good news for the circumcised 8 (for He who worked through Kepha in the work of the shelihim with the circumcised also worked through me with the nations); 9 and when they perceived the favor that was given to me, Ya'aqov and Kepha and Yoḥanan, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnava the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the nations, and they to the circumcision. 10 They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when Kepha came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before some people came from Ya'aqov, he ate with the nations. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Yehudim joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnava was carried away with their hypocrisy.

^a 3 Syr. reads δαραμία (d'aramia) meaning "Aramean" here.

14 But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly according to the truth of the good news, I said to Kepha before them all, "If you, being a Yehudite, live as the nations do, and not as the Yehudim do, how is it that you force the nations to live as the Yehudim do?"

15 We, Yehudim by nature and not from the nations of sinners, 16 know that a man is not declared right from works of law if not through the faithfulness of ישׁוּעָה

Messiah; even we believed in Messiah ישׁוּעָה, that we might be declared right from the faithfulness of Messiah, and not from works of law, because no flesh will be declared right from works of law. 17 But if, while we sought to be declared right in Messiah, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Messiah a servant of sin? Certainly not!

18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker. 19 For I, through law, died to law, that I might live to Elohim.

20 I have been crucified with Messiah, and it is no longer I that live, but Messiah lives in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of Elohim, who loved me, and gave Himself up for me. 21 I do not reject the favor of Elohim. For if righteousness is through law, then Messiah died for nothing!"

3 Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes ישׁוּעָה Messiah was openly portrayed as crucified? 2 I just want to learn this from you: did you receive the Ruah from works of a law, or from hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Ruah, are you now completed in the flesh? 4 Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain?

5 The One therefore who supplies the Ruah to you, and does miracles among you, is it from works of law, or from hearing of faith? 6 Even as Avraham "Believed תִּתְחַדֵּשׁ, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.^a" 7 Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Avraham.

8 The Scripture, foreseeing that Elohim would declare right the nations from faith, proclaimed the good news beforehand to Avraham, saying, "In you all the nations will be blessed.^b" 9 So then, those who are of faith are blessed with Avraham the faithful.

10 For as many as are from works of law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things that are written in the book of the Torah, to do them.^c" 11 Now that no man is declared right in law before Elohim is evident, for, "The righteous will live from faith.^d" 12 Moreover, law is not of faith, but, "The man who does them will live in them.^e"

13 Messiah redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,^f" 14 that the blessing of Avraham might come on the nations through Messiah ישׁוּעָה; that we might receive the promise of the Ruah through faith. 15 Brothers, speaking of human terms: though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it.

16 Now the promises were spoken to Avraham and to his seed. He does not say, "To seeds," as of many, but as of one, "To your seed", which is Messiah. 17 Now this I say: law, that came four hundred and thirty years later, does not annul a covenant previously confirmed by Elohim, so as to do away with the promise. 18 For if the inheritance is from law, it is no more from promise; but Elohim has granted it to Avraham by promise.

19 Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom the promise had been made. It was ordained through messengers in the hand of a mediator. 20 Now a mediator is not between one, but Elohim is one^g. 21 Is the law then against the promises of Elohim? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would exist from law. 22 But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin; that the promise, from the faithfulness of ישׁוּעָה Messiah, might be given to those who believe.

23 But before faith came, we were held captive under law, confined for the faith about to be revealed. 24 So that the law has been our tutor, to bring us to Messiah, that we might be declared right from faith. 25 But faith having come, we are no longer under a tutor. 26 For you are all children of Elohim, through faith in Messiah ישׁוּעָה.

27 For as many of you as were immersed into Messiah have put on Messiah. 28 There is neither Yehudite nor Greek^h, there is neither bondservant nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Messiah ישׁוּבָן. 29 If you are Messiah's, then you are Avraham's seed and heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is master of all; 2 but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. 3 So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world. 4 But when the fullness of the time came, Elohim sent out His Son, born to a woman, born under law, 5 that He might redeem those who were under law, that we might receive the adoption as sons. 6 And because you are children, Elohim sent out the Ruah of His Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba, Father!" 7 So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through Elohim.

8 However at that time, not knowing Elohim, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not elohim. 9 But now that you have come to know Elohim, or rather to be known by Elohim, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again? 10 You observe days, new moons, appointed times, and years. 11 I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. 12 I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, 13 but you know that because of weakness in the flesh I proclaimed the good news to you the first time. 14 That which was a test to you in my flesh, you did not despise nor reject; but you received me as a messenger of Elohim, even as Messiah עִישׂוֹן.

15 Where was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them. 18 But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My children, of whom I am again in travail until Messiah is formed in you—20 but I could desire to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. 21 Tell me, you that desire to be under law, do you not listen to the law? 22 For it is written that Avraham had two sons, one from the servant, and one from the free woman. 23 However, the son from the servant was born according to the flesh, but the son from the free woman was born through promise. 24 These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar. 25 For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Aravia, and answers to the Yerushalayim that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But the Yerushalayim that is above is free, which is our mother.

27 For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren who do not bear. Break out and shout, you that do not travail. For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband."⁴⁴

28 Now you, brothers, as Yitshaq was, are children of promise. 29 But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Ruah, so also it is now. 30 However what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the servant and her son, for the son of the servant will not inherit with the son of the free woman."^b 31 So then, brothers, we are not children of a maidservant, but of the free woman.

5 Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Messiah has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. 2 Behold, I, Sha'ul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Messiah will profit you nothing. 3 Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 You are alienated from Messiah, you who desire to be declared right in law. You have fallen away from favor. 5 For we, through the Ruah, from faith wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in Messiah יֶשׁע neither circumcision prevails, nor un-circumcision, but only faith working through love. 7 You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion is not from Him who calls you. 9 A little leaven grows through the whole lump. 10 I have confidence toward you in the Master that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11 But I, brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the stake has been removed. 12 Oh that those who disturb you would amputate themselves! 13 For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only do not use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another.

14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one utterance, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 15 But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you do not consume one another. 16 But I say, walk by the

^a 27 See Yeshayahu 54:1.

^b 30 See Bereshiyt 21:10.

^c 14 See Vayyiqra 19:18.

Ruah, and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusts against the Ruah, and the Ruah against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. 18 But if you are led by the Ruah, you are not under law.

19 Now the deeds of the flesh are obvious, which are: whoring, uncleanness, lustfulness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, factions, 21 envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you previously, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of Elohim.

22 But the fruit of the Ruah is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law. 24 Those who belong to Messiah have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. 25 If we live by the Ruah, let us also walk by the Ruah. 26 Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

6 Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also are not tempted. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Messiah. 3 For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each man examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself, and not in someone else. 5 For each man will bear his own burden. 6 But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches.

7 Do not be deceived. Elohim is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. 8 For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Ruah will from the Ruah reap everlasting life. 9 Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we do not give up. 10 So then, as we have opportunity, let us do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

11 See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand. 12 As many as desire to make a good impression in the flesh force you to be circumcised; just so they may not be persecuted for the stake of Messiah. 13 For even they who receive circumcision do not guard law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. 14 But far be it from me to boast, except in the stake of our Master מָשִׁיחַ Messiah, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For [in Messiah יִשְׁעֵי]^a neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a renewed creation. 16 As many as walk by this rule, peace and loving-kindness be on them, and on the Yisra'el of Elohim. 17 From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Master מָשִׁיחַ branded on my body.

18 The favor of our Master מָשִׁיחַ Messiah be with your spirit, brothers. Amein.

ΕΦΕΣΙΟΥC

Ephesious (Ephesians)

1 Shatul, a shaliah of Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה through the will of Elohim, to the set-apart ones [in Ephesus]^a, and the faithful in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה:

2 favor to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah.

3 Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Messiah; 4 even as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be set-apart and without defect before Him in love; 5 having predestined us for adoption as sons through יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His desire, 6 to the praise of the glory of His favor, by which He favorably gave in the Beloved;

7 In whom we have our redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His favor, 8 which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 making known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Him, 10 to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Messiah, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in Him; 11 in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of Him who does all things after the counsel of His will; 12 to the end that we should be to the praise of His glory, we who had before hoped in Messiah.

13 In Him you also, having heard the word of the truth, the good news of your salvation—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the promised Set-apart Ruah, 14 which is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of the possession of Elohim, to the praise of His glory.

15 For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Master יִשְׁוּעָה which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the set-apart ones, 16 do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17 that the Elohim of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him; 18 having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of His calling, and what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the set-apart ones, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of His might 20 which He worked in Messiah, when He raised Him from the dead, and set Him in His right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come.

22 He put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things for the assembly, 23 which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

2 You were made alive when you were dead in your transgressions and sins, 2 in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; 3 among whom we also all once lived in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest.

4 But Elohim, being rich in loving-kindness, for His great love with which He loved us, 5 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Messiah; in favor you are saved, 6 and raised us up with Him, and made us to sit with Him in the heavenly places in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה, 7 that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His favor in kindness toward us in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה; 8 for in favor you are saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of Elohim, 9 not of works, that no one would boast.

10 For we are His workmanship, created in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה for good works, which Elohim prepared before that we would walk in them.

11 Therefore remember that once you, the nations in the flesh, who are called "un-circumcision" by that which is called "circumcision", (in the flesh, made by hands); 12 that you were at that time separate from Messiah, alienated from the citizenship of Yisra'el, and foreigners from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without Elohim in the world.

13 But now in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Messiah. 14 For He is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, 15 having abolished in His flesh the hostility, the law of commands in decrees, that He might create in Himself one renewed man of the two, making peace; 16 and might reconcile them both in one body to Elohim through the stake, having killed the hostility thereby.

17 He came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and to those who were near. 18 For through Him we both have our access in one Ruah to the Father.

19 So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the set-apart ones, and of the household of Elohim, 20 being built on the foundation of the shelihim and prophets, Master שׁוֹעַב Himself being the chief cornerstone; 21 in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a set-apart dwelling place in יהוה; 22 in whom you also are built together for a habitation of Elohim in the Ruah.^a

3 For this cause I, Sha'ul, am the prisoner of Messiah ישׁוּעָה on behalf of you nations, 2 if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that favor of Elohim which was given me toward you; 3 how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, 4 by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Messiah; 5 which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to His set-apart shelihim and prophets in the Ruah; 6 that the nations are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Messiah ישׁוּעָה through the good news, 7 of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that favor of Elohim which was given me according to the working of His power.

8 To me, the very least of all set-apart ones, was this favor given, to proclaim to the nations the unsearchable riches of Messiah, 9 and to make all men see what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in Elohim, who created all things [through שׁוֹעַב] Messiah^b; 10 to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of Elohim might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places, 11 according to the everlasting purpose which He purposed in Messiah שׁוֹעַב our Master; 12 in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in Him. 13 Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my afflictions for you, which are your glory.

14 For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father [of our Master יְשֻׁעָה Messiah], 15 from whom every lineage in heavens and on earth is named, 16 that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, that you may be strengthened with power through His Ruah in the inward man;

17 that Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 may be strengthened to comprehend with all the set-apart ones what is the width and length and height and depth, 19 and to know Messiah's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of Elohim.

20 Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21 To Him be the glory in the assembly and in Messiah יִשְׁעָה to all generations to the ages of the ages. Amein.

4 I therefore, the prisoner in the Master, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, 2 with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love; 3 being eager to guard the unity of the Ruah in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Ruah, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; 5 one Master^d, one faith, one immersion, 6 one Elohim and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. 7 But to each one of us was the favor given according to the measure of the gift of Messiah.

8 Therefore He says, "When He ascended on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men."⁹ Now this, "He ascended", what is it but that He also descended into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that He might fill all things.

11 He gave some to be shelīhim; and some, prophets; and some, messengers of the good news; and some, shepherds and teachers; 12 for the perfecting of the set-apart ones, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Messiah; 13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of Elohim, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Messiah; 14 that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error;

15 But speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into Him, who is the head, Messiah; 16 from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in תְּהִלִּים, that you no longer walk as the nations also walk, in the futility of their mind, 18 being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of Elohim, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; 19 who, having become callous, gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But you did not learn Messiah that way; 21 if indeed you heard Him, and were taught in Him, even as truth is in שֶׁמֶן; 22 that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; 23 and that you be new in the spirit of your mind, 24 and put on the renewed man, who in the likeness of Elohim has been created in righteousness and set-apartness of truth.

25 Therefore putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members of one another. 26 Be angry, and do not sin.^a Do not let the sun go down on your wrath, 27 and do not give place to the devil. 28 Let him who is stealing, steal no more; but rather let him labor, producing with his hands something that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need.

29 Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but only what is good for building others up as the need may be, that it may give favor to those who hear. 30 Do not grieve the Set-apart Ruah of Elohim, in which you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander be put away from you, with all malice. 32 And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as Elohim also forgave you in Messiah.

5 Be therefore imitators of Elohim, as beloved children. 2 Walk in love, even as Messiah also loved you, and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to Elohim for a soothing aroma. 3 But whoring, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes set-apart ones; 4 nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor facetiousness, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

5 Know this for sure, that no whore, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Messiah and Elohim.

6 Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of Elohim comes on the children of disobedience.

7 Therefore do not be partakers with them. 8 For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Master. Walk as children of light, 9 for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, 10 proving what is well pleasing to the Master.

11 Have no fellowship with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather even reprove them. 12 For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. 13 But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. 14 Therefore He says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Messiah will shine on you."

15 Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise; 16 redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of תְּהִלִּים is. 18 Do not be drunken with wine, in which is dissipation, but be filled with the Ruah, 19 speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; singing, and making melody in your heart to תְּהִלִּים; 20 giving thanks always concerning all things in the Name of our Master שֶׁמֶן Messiah, to Elohim the Father; 21 subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of Messiah.

22 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Master. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, as Messiah also is the head of the assembly, being Himself the savior of the body. 24 But as the assembly is subject to Messiah, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Messiah also loved the assembly, and gave Himself up for it; 26 that He might set it apart, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, 27 that He might present the assembly to Himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be set-apart and without defect. 28 Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself.

^a See Tehillim 4:4.

29 For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as Messiah also does the assembly; 30 because we are members of His body.

31 "For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh.^a" 32 This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Messiah and the assembly.

33 Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the Master, for this is right. 2 "Honor your father and mother,^b" which is the first command with a promise: 3 "that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth."

4 You fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of תִּנְعַמֵּת.

5 Bondservants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Messiah; 6 not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men-pleasers; but as bondservants of Messiah, doing the will of Elohim from the heart; 7 with good will doing service, as to the Master, and not to men; 8 knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Master, whether bondservant or free.

9 You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that He who is both their Master and yours is in heavens, and there is no partiality with Him.

10 Finally, be strong in the Master, and in the strength of His might. 11 Put on the whole armor of Elohim, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of this darkness, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

13 Therefore put on the whole armor of Elohim, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having the belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness^c, 15 and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the good news^d of peace; 16 above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one.

17 And receive the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Ruah, which is the spoken word of Elohim^e; 18 with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Ruah, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the set-apart ones, 19 on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the good news, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tyhicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Master, will make known to you all things; 22 whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from Elohim the Father and the Master שֵׁשֶׁן Messiah.

24 Favor be with all those who love our Master שֵׁשֶׁן Messiah with incorruptible love.

ΦΙΛΙΠΠΗCΙΟΥC

Philippesious (Philippians)

1 Shatul and Timotheos, bondservants of שׁוֹעַ

Messiah; to all the set-apart ones in Messiah יֶשְׁעָה who are at Philippi, with the overseers and servants: 2 favor to you, and peace from Elohim, our Father, and the Master יֶשְׁעָה Messiah. 3 I thank my Elohim whenever I remember you, 4 always in every request of mine on behalf of you all, making my requests with joy, 5 for your partnership in furtherance of the good news from the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of שׁוֹעַ Messiah.

7 It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the good news, you all are partakers with me of favor. 8 For Elohim is my witness, how I long after all of you in the compassion of Messiah שׁוֹעַ.

9 This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; 10 so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Messiah; 11 being filled with the fruit of righteousness, which is through שׁוֹעַ Messiah, to the glory and praise of Elohim.

12 Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the good news; 13 so that it became evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Messiah; 14 and that most of the brothers in the Master, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of Elohim without fear.

15 Some indeed proclaim Messiah even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will: 16 the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the good news; 17 the former insincerely proclaim Messiah from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains.

18 What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Messiah is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your prayers and the supply of the Ruah of ישׁׁעַ Messiah, 20 according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Messiah will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Messiah, and to die is gain. 22 But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I do not know what I will choose. 23 But I am pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Messiah, which is far better. 24 Yet, to remain in the flesh is necessary for your sake. 25 Having this confidence, I know that I will remain; yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 that your rejoicing may abound in Messiah שׁוֹעַ in me through my presence with you again.

27 Only let your way of life be worthy of the good news of Messiah, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one being striving for the faith of the good news; 28 and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from Elohim.

29 Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Messiah, not only to faith in Him, but also to suffer on His behalf, 30 having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

2 If therefore there is any exhortation in Messiah, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Ruah, if any compassion and pity, 2 make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; 3 doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; 4 each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

5 Have this mind in you, which was also in Messiah שׁוֹעַ, 6 who, existing in the form of Elohim, did not consider equality with Elohim a thing to be attained^a; 7 but emptied Himself, taking the form of a bondservant, being made in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in human form, He humbled Himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the stake. 9 Therefore Elohim also highly exalted Him, and gave to Him the Name which is above every name; 10 that at ^a 6 Greek word rendered as "attained" is ἀρπαγμός (har'pag'mos). It means literally to "gain a prize" or "to seize," usually by force.

^b 6 Syr. reads, ﻫـوـدـاـكـاـدـ يـوـمـاـتـهـاـيـ (huw dekad iy'tawahiy) bad'muta d'alaha la huwa h'tupya hash'ba ha'de d'iy'tawahiy pech'ma d'alaha) meaning "who, being in the likeness of Elohim, did not consider it robbery to be equal with Elohim" here.

the Name of יְשָׁוָעַ every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that יְשָׁוָעַ Messiah is Master^a, to the glory of Elohim the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For it is Elohim who works in you both to will and to work, for His good pleasure. 14 Do all things without murmurings and disputes, 15 that you may become blameless and harmless, children of Elohim without defect in the middle of a crooked and perverse generation,^b among whom you are seen as lights in the world, 16 holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Messiah, that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain. 17 Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. 18 In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Master יְשָׁוָעַ to send Timotheos to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. 20 For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. 21 For they all seek their own, not the things of יְשָׁוָעַ Messiah. 22 But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the good news. 23 Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. 24 But I believe in the Master that I myself also will come shortly. 25 But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your shaliyah and servant of my need; 26 since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you heard that he was sick. 27 For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but Elohim was kind to him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. 28 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 Receive him therefore in יהוה with all joy, and hold such in honor, 30 because for the work of the Messiah he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Master. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. 3 For we are the circumcision, who serve in the Ruah of Elohim, and rejoice in Messiah יְשָׁוָעַ, and have no confidence in the flesh; 4 though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Yisra'el, of the tribe of Benyamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; 6 concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in law, found blameless.

7 However, I consider those things that were gain to me as a loss for Messiah. 8 Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be a loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Messiah יְשָׁוָעַ, my Master, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Messiah 9 and be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own, which is from a law, but that which is through the faithfulness of Messiah, the righteousness which is from Elohim on the basis of faith; 10 that I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, becoming conformed to His death; 11 if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Messiah יְשָׁוָעַ.

13 Brothers, I do not regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, 14 I press on toward the goal^c for the prize of the high calling of Elohim in Messiah יְשָׁוָעַ. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, Elohim will also reveal that to you. 16 Nevertheless, let us walk to that which we have anticipated.

17 Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. 18 For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the stake of Messiah, 19 whose end is destruction, whose el is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. 20 For our citizenship is in heavens, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Master יְשָׁוָעַ Messiah; 21 who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of His glory, according to the working by which He is able even to subject all things to Himself.

4 Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Master, my beloved.

^a 11 Syr. reads מִרְיָה (Mar-ya) instead of "Master" here.

^b 15 See also Devarim 32:5.

^c 14 See footnote at Mattithyahu 24:30 for Syriac Aramaic word used here in place of the word "goal."

2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Suntuhe, to think the same way in the Master. 3 Yes, I beg you also, true partner, help these women, for they labored with me in the good news, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. 4 Rejoice in the Master always! Again I will say, "Rejoice!" 5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Master is at hand. 6 In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to Elohim. 7 And the peace of Elohim, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Messiah יִשְׁעָה.

8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things. 9 The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the Elohim of peace will be with you. 10 But I rejoice in the Master greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak because of lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. 12 I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need. 13 I can do all things through Him who strengthens me. 14 However you did well that you shared in my affliction.

15 You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the good news, when I departed from Makedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. 16 For even in Thessalonike you sent once and again to my need.

17 Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. 18 But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a soothing aroma, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to Elohim. 19 My Elohim will supply every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Messiah יִשְׁעָה. 20 Now to our Elohim and Father be the glory to the ages of the ages! Amein.

21 Greet every set-apart one in Messiah יִשְׁעָה. The brothers who are with me greet you. 22 All the set-apart ones greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household. 23 The favor of the Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah be with your spirit.

KOLOSSAIC

Kolossaeis (Colossians)

1 Sha'ul, a shaliah of Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה through the will of Elohim, and Timotheos our brother, 2 to the set-apart ones and faithful brothers in Messiah at Kolossae: favor to you and peace from Elohim our Father, [and the Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah]^a.

3 We give thanks to Elohim the Father of our Master יִשְׁוּעָה Messiah, praying always for you, 4 having heard of your faith in Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה, and of the love which you have toward all the set-apart ones, 5 because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the good news, 6 which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the favor of Elohim in truth; 7 even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Messiah on our behalf, 8 who also declared to us your love in the Ruah.

9 For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, do not cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 that you may walk worthily of the Master, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of Elohim; 11 strengthened with all power, according to the might of His glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; 12 giving thanks to the Father, who made you fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the set-apart ones in light; 13 who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of His love; 14 in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins; 15 who is the image of the invisible Elohim, the firstborn of all creation. 16 For in Him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through Him, and for Him. 17 He is before all things, and in Him all things are held together. 18 He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things He might have the preeminence. 19 For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in Him; 20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of His stake.

21 You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil deeds, 22 yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you set-apart and without defect and blameless before Him, 23 if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the good news which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Sha'ul, was made a servant.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Messiah in my flesh for His body's sake, which is the assembly; 25 of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of Elohim which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of Elohim, 26 the mystery which has been hidden from the ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to His set-apart ones, 27 to whom Elohim was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the nations, which is Messiah in you, the hope of glory; 28 whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Messiah; 29 for which I also labor, striving according to His working, which works in me mightily.

2 For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodikeia, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2 that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of Elohim, which is Messiah, 3 in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. 4 Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Messiah. 6 As therefore you received Messiah יִשְׁוּעָה, the Master, walk in Him, 7 rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. 8 Be careful that you do not let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Messiah. 9 For in Him all the fullness of Elohim dwells bodily,^b 10 and in Him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; 11 in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Messiah; 12 having been buried with Him in immersion, in which you were also raised with Him through faith in the working of Elohim, who raised Him from the dead. 13 You were dead through your trespasses and the un-circumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, 14 wiping out the handwriting of decrees which was against us; and He has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the stake; 15 having stripped the principalities and the powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore judge you – in eating, or in drinking, or a part of a Feast or a New Moon or a Sabbath,^a 17 (which are a shadow of the things to come) – but the body of Messiah. 18 Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and religious reverence of the messengers, dwelling in the things which he has seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the growth of Elohim. 20 If you died with Messiah from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, 21 "Do not handle, nor taste, nor touch" 22 (all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? 23 Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed religion, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then you were raised together with Messiah, seek the things that are above, where Messiah is, seated in the right hand of Elohim. 2 Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are on the earth. 3 For you died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in Elohim. 4 When Messiah your life is revealed, then you will also be revealed with Him in glory. 5 Put to death therefore the members which are on the earth: whoring, uncleanness, depraved passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; 6 for which things' sake the wrath of Elohim comes on the children of disobedience. 7 You also once walked in those, when you lived in them; 8 but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his doings, 10 and have put on the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge after the image of His Creator, 11 where there cannot be Greek and Yehudite, circumcision and un-circumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondservant, freeman; but Messiah is all, and in all.^b

12 Put on therefore, as the chosen ones of Elohim, set-apart and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has a complaint against any; even as the Master forgave you, so you also do.

14 Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the peace of Messiah rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. 16 Let the word of Messiah dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with favor in your heart to Elohim.

17 Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the Name of the Master עִישׂוּ, giving thanks to Elohim the Father, through Him.

18 Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Master. 19 Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter against them. 20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is pleasing in the Master. 21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they will not be discouraged.

22 Bondservants obey, in all things, those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing תִּירְאָה. 23 And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Master, and not for men, 24 knowing that from the Master you will receive the reward of the inheritance;^c for you serve the Master^d Messiah. 25 But he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.^e

4 Masters, give to your bondservants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven. 2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; 3 praying together for us also, that Elohim may open to us a door for the word, to

^a 16 Syr. uses the plural form of the words for "feast", "new moon" and "Sabbath." Thus it reads, "Let no one disturb you, therefore, about food and drink, or in distinctions of Feasts, and New Moons, and Sabbaths;"

^b 11 Syr. reads "Where there is neither Yehudite nor Aramean, circumcision nor un-circumcision, Greek nor barbarian, bondservant nor free; but Messiah is all, and in all."

speak the mystery of Messiah, for which I am also in bonds; 4 that I may reveal it as I ought to speak. 5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech always be with favor, seasoned with salt,^a that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

7 All my affairs will be made known to you by Tyhicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in Τύχικος. 8 I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that you may know the things concerning us and comfort your hearts, 9 together with Onesimos, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here. 10 Aristarhos, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Markos, the cousin of Barnava (concerning whom you received commands, "if he comes to you, receive him"), 11 and Yeshua who is called Iustus. These are my only fellow workers for the Kingdom of Elohim who are of the circumcision, men who have been a comfort to me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a bondservant of Messiah, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and fully assured in all the will of Elohim. 13 For I testify about him, that he has great toil for you, and for those in Laodikeia, and for those in Hierapolis. 14 Loukas, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. 15 Greet the brothers who are in Laodikeia, and Nympha, and the assembly that is in her house. 16 When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodikeians; and that you also read the letter from Laodikeia. 17 Tell Arhippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Master, that you fulfill it."

18 The salutation of me, Sha'ul, with my own hand: remember my bonds. Favor be with you.

ΘΕΣΣΑΛΟΝΙΚΕΙΑ

Thessalonikeis A (1 Thessalonians)

1 Sha'ul, Shila, and Timotheos, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in Elohim the Father and the Master שָׁׁמֶן Messiah: favor to you and peace. 2 We always give thanks to Elohim for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, 3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and perseverance of hope in our Master יִשְׁׁוּעַ Messiah, before our Elohim and Father.

4 We know, brothers loved by Elohim, that you are chosen, 5 and that our good news came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Set-apart Ruah, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake.

6 You became imitators of us, and of the Master, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Set-apart Ruah, 7 so that you became an example to all who believe in Makedonia and in Achaia. 8 For from you the word of the Master has been declared, not only in Makedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward Elohim has gone out; so that we need not to say anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to Elohim from idols, to serve a living and true El, 10 and to wait for His Son from the heavens, whom He raised from the dead—עוֹשֵׂה, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

2 For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you was not in vain, 2 but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our Elohim to tell you the good news of Elohim in much conflict. 3 For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. 4 But even as we have been approved by Elohim to be entrusted with the good news, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but Elohim, who tests our hearts. 5 For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (Elohim is witness), 6 nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), 7 when we might have claimed authority as shelihim of Messiah. But we were like infants among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

8 Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the good news of Elohim only, but also our own beings, because you had become very dear to us. 9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we proclaimed to you the good news of Elohim. 10 You are witnesses with Elohim, how set-apart, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. 11 As you know, as a father does his own children, 12 exhorting you, and comforting, and imploring so that you should walk worthily of Elohim, who calls you into His own Kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause we also thank Elohim without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of Elohim, you accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of Elohim, which also works in you who believe. 14 For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of Elohim which are in Yehudah in Messiah יִשְׁׁוּעַ; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Yehudim; 15 who killed both the Master יִשְׁׁוּעַ and the prophets, and drove us out, and did not please Elohim, and are contrary to all men;

16 forbidding us to speak to the nations that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short hour, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire. 18 For we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Sha'ul, once and again—but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you, before our Master יִשְׁׁוּעַ at His coming? 20 For you are our glory and our joy.

3 Therefore when we could not stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, 2 and sent Timotheos, a co-worker of Elohim in the good news of Messiah, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; 3 that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task.

4 For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. 5 For this cause I also, when I could not stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain.

6 But when Timotheos came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; 7 for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. 8 For now we live, if you stand firm in the Master.

9 For what thanksgiving can we render again to Elohim for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our Elohim; 10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now may our Elohim and Father Himself, and our Master יְשָׁוָעַ Messiaḥ, direct our way to you; 12 and the Master make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, 13 to the end He may establish your hearts blameless in set-apartness before our Elohim and Father, at the coming of our Master יְשָׁוָעַ with all His set-apart ones.

4 Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Master יְשָׁוָעַ, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please Elohim just as you are indeed walking, that you abound more and more. 2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Master יְשָׁוָעַ.

3 For this is the will of Elohim: your setting apart, that you abstain from whoring, 4 that each one of you know how to control his own body in being set apart, and honor, 5 not in the passion of lust, even as the nations who do not know Elohim; 6 that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Master is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified.

7 For Elohim called us not for uncleanness, but in setting apart. 8 Therefore He who rejects this does not reject man, but Elohim, who has also given His Set-apart Ruah to you.

9 But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by Elohim to love one another, 10 for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Makedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; 11 and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; 12 that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

13 But I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you do not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. 14 For if we believe that שָׁוֹעַ died and rose again, even so Elohim will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in יְשָׁוָעַ. 15 For this we tell you by the word of the Master, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Master, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Master Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the ruling messenger, and with the trumpet of Elohim. The dead in Messiah will rise first, 17 then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Master in the air; so we will always be with the Master. 18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. 2 For you yourselves know well that the day of the Master comes like a thief in the night. 3 For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape.

4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. 5 You are all children of light, and children of the day. We do not belong to the night, nor to darkness, 6 so then let us not sleep, as the rest do; but let us watch and be sober. 7 For those who sleep, sleep in the night; and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. 8 But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.^a

9 For Elohim did not appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Master יְשָׁוָעַ Messiaḥ, 10 who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him. 11 Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do.

12 But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Master, and admonish you, 13 and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. 14 We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. 15 See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

16 Rejoice always. 17 Pray without ceasing. 18 In everything give thanks, for this is the will of Elohim in Messiah יְשָׁוָעַ toward you. 19 Do not quench the Ruah. 20 Do not despise prophesies. 21 Test everything, and hold firmly that which is good. 22 Abstain from every form of evil.

23 May the Elohim of peace Himself set you apart completely. May your whole spirit, being, and body be blameless at the coming of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah, and may it be guarded.

^a See also Yeshayahu 59:17; Ephesios 6:13-17.

24 He who calls you is faithful, and will also do it.

25 Brothers, pray for us. 26 Greet all the brothers with a set-apart kiss. 27 I solemnly command you by the Master that this letter be read to all the brothers.

28 The favor of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah be with you.

ΘΕΣΣΑΛΟΝΙΚΕΙC B

Thessalonikeis B (2 Thessalonians)

1 Sha'ul, Shila, and Timotheos, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in Elohim our Father, and the Master שׁוּעַ Messiah: 2 favor to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master יְשֻׁעָה Messiah.

3 We are bound to always give thanks to Elohim for you, brothers, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds; 4 so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of Elohim for your perseverance and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure.

5 This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of Elohim, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the Kingdom of Elohim, for which you also suffer. 6 Since it is a righteous thing with Elohim to repay affliction to those who afflict you, 7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Master יְשֻׁעָה is revealed from heaven with His mighty messengers in flaming fire, 8 punishing those who do not know Elohim, and to those who do not obey the good news of our Master יְשֻׁעָה, 9 who will pay the penalty: everlasting destruction from the face of the Master and from the glory of His might, 10 when He comes in that day to be glorified in His set-apart ones, and to be admired among all those who have believed, because our witness to you was believed.

11 To this end we also pray always for you, that our Elohim may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; 12 that the Name of our Master יְשֻׁעָה may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the favor of our Elohim and the Master יְשֻׁעָה Messiah.

2 Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Master שׁוּעַ Messiah, and our gathering together to Him, we ask you 2 not to be quickly shaken in your mind, and not be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as if from us, saying that the day of יְהֹוָה has already come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness^a is revealed, the son of destruction, 4 he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called 'el' or that is revered; so that he sits in the dwelling place of Elohim, setting himself up as Elohim. 5 Do you not remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? 6 Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.

7 For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. 8 Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Master יְשֻׁעָה will kill with the breath of His mouth, and destroy by the appearance of His coming; 9 even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10 and with all deception of wickedness for those who are dying, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 Because of this, Elohim sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie; 12 that they all might be judged who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 13 But we are bound to always give thanks to Elohim for you, brothers loved by the Master, because Elohim chose you as the first-fruits for salvation through the setting apart of the Ruah and faith in the truth; 14 to which He called you through our good news, for the obtaining of the glory of our Master יְשֻׁעָה Messiah.

15 So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

16 Now our Master יְשֻׁעָה Messiah Himself, and Elohim our Father, who loved us and gave us everlasting comfort and good hope through favor, 17 comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Master may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; 2 and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. 3 But יְהֹוָה is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. 4 We have confidence in the Master concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. 5 May the Master direct your hearts into the love of Elohim, and into the perseverance of Messiah.

6 Now we command you, brothers, in the Name of our Master יְשֻׁעָה Messiah, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in disorder, and not after the tradition which they received from us. 7 For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we did not behave ourselves rebelliously among you, 8 neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; 9 not because we do not have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. 10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, do not let him eat." 11 For we hear of some who walk among you in disorder, who do not work at all, but are busybodies. 12 Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But you, brothers, do not be weary in doing what is right. 14 If any man does not obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. 15 Do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now may the Master of peace Himself give you peace at all times in all ways. תֶּהָלֵם be with you all.

17 The greeting of me, Sha'ul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write. 18 The favor of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah be with you all.

TIMOΘEON &

Timotheon A (1 Timothy)

1 Sha'ul, a shaliah of Messiah according to the command of Elohim our Savior, and Messiah our hope; 2 to Timotheos, my true child in faith: favor, loving-kindness, and peace, from Elohim the Father and Messiah our Master.

3 As I urged you when I was going into Makedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, 4 and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause speculations, rather than the administration of Elohim, which is in faith — 5 but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith; 6 from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; 7 desiring to be teachers of law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly believe.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a person uses it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the wicked and sinners, for the profane and worldly, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 for whores, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurors, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; 11 according to the good news of the glory of the blessed Elohim, which was entrusted to me. 12 And I thank Him who enabled me, Messiah our Master, because He counted me faithful, appointing me to service; 13 although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained kindness, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 The favor of our Master abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Messiah. 15 The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Messiah came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 However, for this cause I obtained kindness, that in me first, Messiah might display all His patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in Him for everlasting life. 17 Now to the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, to Elohim alone be honor and glory to the ages of the ages. Amein.

18 This instruction I commit to you, my child Timotheos, according to the prophecies which were given to you before, that by them you may wage the good warfare; 19 holding trust and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith; 20 of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexandros; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all men: 2 for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in reverence for Elohim and honor. 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of Elohim our Savior; 4 who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one Elohim, and one mediator between Elohim and men, the man Messiah, 6 who gave Himself as a ransom for all; the witness in its own times; 7 to which I was appointed a proclaimer and a shaliah (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the nations in faith and truth.

8 I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up set-apart hands without anger and doubting. 9 In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; 10 but (which becomes women professing fear of Elohim) with good works. 11 Let a woman learn in quietness with full submission. 12 But I do not permit a woman to teach – nor to dominate over – a man, but to be in quietness.^a 13 For Adam was first formed, then Havvah. 14 Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into transgression; 15 but she will be saved through her childbearing, if they continue in faith, love, and setting apart with sobriety.

3 This is a faithful saying: if a man seeks the office of an overseer, he desires a good work. 2 The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, able to teach; 3 not drunken^a, not violent, [not greedy for money]^b, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; 4 one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; 5 (but if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the assembly of Elohim?) 6 not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same judgment as the devil.

^a 12 Ancient Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek do not provide separate words for "husband" and "wife," but rather simply, "man" and "woman," respectively. The context is used to determine whether the man or woman being written of is the term "man" in general, or "husband" specifically, as well as the term being possessive ("my man" is usually used to mean "my husband."). Given the context of the section regarding Adam and Havvah specifically, this verse could also be rendered as, "But I do not permit a wife to teach (nor act on her own authority over) her husband, but to be in quietness." See also Korinthious A 7:13; Ephesios 5:23.

7 Moreover he must have good witness from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil. 8 Servants, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy for money; 9 holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 Let them also first be tested; then let them serve if they are blameless. 11 Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers^c, temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let servants be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For those who have served well gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Messiah יִשְׁוֹן.

14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; 15 but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of Elohim, which is the assembly of the living El, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 Without controversy, the mystery of reverence for Elohim is great: who was revealed in the flesh, declared right in the Ruah, seen by messengers, proclaimed among the nations, believed in in the world, and received up in glory.

4 But the Ruah says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron;^d 3 forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which Elohim created to be received with thanksgiving by those who are faithful and know the truth. 4 For every created thing of Elohim is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. 5 For it is set apart through the word of Elohim and prayer.

6 If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Messiah יִשְׁוֹן, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward reverence for Elohim. 8 For bodily exercise profits a little, but reverence for Elohim profits in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come.

9 This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For to this end we both labor and strive^e, because we have set our trust in the living El, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who are faithful.

11 Command and teach these things.

12 Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who are faithful, in word, in your way of life, in love, in faith, and in purity. 13 Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching.

14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. 15 Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all.

16 Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows who are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show reverence towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is acceptable in the sight of Elohim.

5 Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on Elohim, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. 6 But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. 7 Also command these things, that they may be without reproach.

8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and most of all his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, 10 being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to

^a 3 Syr. reads וְלֹא עָבֵר אֶל הַמִּרְאָה (w'la abar al ham'ra) meaning, "not a transgressor in regard to wine."

^b 3 Bracketed section indicates reading not present in early Greek texts.

^c 11 Greek word rendered "slanderers" here is διαβολούς (dia'bo'lous) literally meaning "devils." Syr. renders this as قاتل (qar'tsei) meaning "accuser." This is most likely a parallel to the Hebrew word שָׁׂטָן (satan) which means "adversary" or "accuser."

^d 2 Verse 2 in the Syr. reads, "These will seduce, by a false appearance; and will utter a lie, and will be seared in their conscience."

strangers, if she has washed the feet of the set-apart ones, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work. 11 But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Messiah, they desire to marry; 12 having judgment, because they have rejected their first faith.

13 Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also slanderers and busybodies, saying things which they ought not.

14 I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for insulting. 15 For already some have turned aside after Satan. 16 If any believing woman has widows in her care, let her relieve them, and do not let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve the truly needy widows. 17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain."^a And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."^b

19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. 20 Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. 21 I command you in the sight of Elohim, and Messiah מָשִׁיחַ, and the chosen messengers, that you guard these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Guard yourself pure.

23 Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent ailments. 24 Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. 25 In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that otherwise cannot be hidden.

6 Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the Name of Elohim and the doctrine not be blasphemed. 2 Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are faithful and beloved. Teach and exhort these things. 3 If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and does not consent to sound words, the words of our Master מָשִׁיחַ Messiah, and to the doctrine which is according to reverence for Elohim, 4 he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, insulting, evil suspicions, 5 constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that reverence for Elohim is a means of gain. [From such, withdraw yourself.]^c

6 But reverence for Elohim with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot carry anything out. 8 But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. 9 But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction. 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But you, man of Elohim, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, reverence for Elohim, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of the everlasting life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses.

13 I command you before Elohim, who gives life to all things, and before Messiah מָשִׁיחַ, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, 14 that you guard the command without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Master מָשִׁיחַ Messiah. 15 Which in its own times He will show, the One who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Master of masters; 16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and everlasting power. Amein.

17 Charge those who are rich in this present age that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on Elohim, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; 18 that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to share; 19 laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of real^d life.

20 Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of what is falsely called knowledge; 21 which some profess, and thus have wandered from the faith. Favor be with you.

TIMOΘEON B

Timotheon B (2 Timothy)

1 Shatul, a shaliah of Messiah through the will of Elohim, according to the promise of the life which is in Messiah, 2 to Timotheos, my beloved child: favor, loving-kindness, and peace, from Elohim the Father and Messiah יֶשׁוּא our Master.

3 I thank Elohim, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day 4 longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; 5 having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

6 For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of Elohim which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For Elohim did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control.

8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the witness of our Master, nor of me His prisoner; but endure hardship for the good news according to the power of Elohim, 9 who saved us and called us with a set-apart calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and favor, which was given to us in Messiah יֶשׁוּא before times of ages, 10 but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Messiah יֶשׁוּא, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the good news. 11 For this, I was appointed as a proclaimer, a shaliah, and a teacher. 12 For this cause I also suffer these things. Yet I am not ashamed, for I know Him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that He is able to guard that which I have committed to Him against that day.

13 Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Messiah. 14 יְשִׁיעָה That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Set-apart Ruah which dwells in us. 15 This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16 May יְהֹוָה grant loving-kindness to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chains, 17 but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me 18 (Πάτερ) grant to him to find His loving-kindness in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

2 You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the favor that is in Messiah יֶשׁוּא. 2 The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. 3 Endure hardship with me, as a good soldier of Messiah יֶשׁוּא. 4 No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, so that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he has competed by the rules. 6 The farmer who labors must be the first to get a share of the crops. 7 Consider what I say, and the Master will give you understanding in all things.

8 Remember יֶשׁוּא Messiah, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my good news, 9 in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But the word of Elohim is not chained. 10 Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Messiah יֶשׁוּא with everlasting glory. 11 This saying is faithful: "For if we died with Him, we will also live with Him. 12 If we endure, we will also reign with Him.^a If we deny Him, He also will deny us.^b 13 If we are faithless, He remains faithful,^c for He cannot deny Himself."

14 Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of Elohim, that they do not argue about words to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear. 15 Give diligence to present yourself approved by Elohim, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. 16 But shun empty chatter, for it will go further in wickedness, 17 and those words will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; 18 men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some.

19 However, the firm foundation of Elohim stands, having this seal, "יְהֹוָה knows those who are His,"^d and, "Let everyone who names the Name of יְהֹוָה depart from unrighteousness." 20 Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. 21 If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, set apart, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work. 22 Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Master out of a pure heart. 23 But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. 24 The Master's bondservant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, 25 in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps Elohim may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

3 But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come. 2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, profane, 3 without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, not lovers of good, 4 traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of Elohim; 5 holding a form of reverence for Elohim, but having denied its power. Turn away from these, also. 6 For some of these are people who creep into houses, and take captive gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, 7 always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Even as Yanus and Yambrus opposed Mosheh,^a so do these also oppose the truth; men corrupted in mind who, concerning the faith, are rejected. 9 But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be. 10 But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, 11 persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconion, and Lustra. I endured those persecutions. 12 Yes, and all who desire to live devoutly in Messiah יִשְׁׁוּן will suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14 But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. 15 From infancy, you have known the sacred Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Messiah יִשְׁׁוּן. 16 Every Scripture is breathed out by Elohim, profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness, 17 that the man of Elohim may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4 I command you therefore before Elohim and the Master יִשְׁׁוּן Messiah, who will judge living and dead; and by His appearing and His Kingdom. 2 Proclaim the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. 3 For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; 4 and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. 5 But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of a messenger of the good news, and fulfill your ministry. 6 For I am already being poured out, and the time of my departure has come. 7 I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have guarded the faith. 8 From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Master, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved His appearing. 9 Be diligent to come to me soon, 10 for Demas left me, having loved this present age, and went to Thessalonike; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. 11 Only Loukas is with me. Take Markos, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. 12 But I sent Tyhicus to Ephesus. 13 Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. 14 Alexandros, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Master will repay him according to his deeds, 15 of whom you also must be on guard against; for he greatly opposed our words. 16 At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. 17 But the Master stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the nations might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18 And the Master will deliver me from every evil work, and will save me for His heavenly Kingdom; to whom be the glory to the ages of the ages. Amein.

19 Greet Priska and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. 20 Erastus remained at Korinth, but I left Trophimus at Miletos sick. 21 Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus salutes you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers. 22 The Master be with your spirit. Favor be with you.

^a 8 The narrative of Yanus and Yambrus opposing Mosheh is told in Sefer Ha'Yashar (the Book of Jasher), the Jerusalem Targum, and some other traditional Jewish writings, and a composition bearing the title of their names. Jasher 79:27 states that these two men were the magicians of Pharaoh (see Shemot 7) and were also the sons of Bil'am. The Jerusalem Targum agrees that these were the magicians.

Titus

Titus

1 Sha'ul, a bondservant of Elohim, and a shalayah of Messiah, according to the faith of the elect of Elohim, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to reverence for Elohim, 2 in hope of everlasting life, which Elohim, who is without lies, a promised before times of ages; 3 but in His own time revealed His word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the command of Elohim our Savior; 4 to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: favor and peace from Elohim the Father and the Master Messiah our Savior.

5 I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you; 6 if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior.

7 For the overseer must be blameless, as the steward of Elohim; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not drunken^b, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; 8 but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober minded, fair, set-apart, self-controlled; 9 holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him.

10 For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11 whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of dishonest gain. 12 One of them, a prophet of their own, said, {"Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons."}^c 13 This witness is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not paying attention to Yehudite fables and commands of men who turn away from the truth.

15 To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. 16 They profess that they know Elohim, but by their deeds they deny

Him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

2 But say the things which fit sound doctrine, 2 that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in perseverance. 3 Likewise, older women be reverent in behavior, not slanderers^d nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; 4 that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that the word of Elohim may not be blasphemed. 6 Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded; 7 in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in your teaching showing integrity, seriousness, 8 and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us.

9 Exhort bondservants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; 10 not stealing, but showing all good faith; that they may adorn the doctrine of Elohim, our Savior, in all things.

11 For the favor of Elohim has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us to the intent that, denying wickedness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and devoutly in this present age; 13 looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great Elohim and Savior Messiah; 14 who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all lawlessness, and purify for Himself a people for His own possession,^e zealous for good works. 15 Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise you.

3 Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, 2 to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men. 3 For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But when the kindness of Elohim our Savior and His love toward mankind appeared, 5 not from works in righteousness which we did ourselves, but according to ^a See also Bemidbar 23:19; Shemu'el 15:29.

^b Syr. reads וְלֹא נָהַר עַל הַמִּשְׁעָן (w'la neh've abar al hamra) which means "not a transgressor over wine" here.

^c 12 Sha'ul quotes Greek philosopher/poet Epimenides here.

^d 3 Greek word rendered "slanderers" here is διαβολούς (dia'bo'lous) literally meaning "devils." Syr. renders this as אֲקָלָנ (aklan) meaning "to eat, to consume." Compare words and footnote at Timotheon A 3:11.

^e 14 Syr. adds וְלֹא כָּלָבָן (am'ma had'ta), meaning "a new people" here.

His loving-kindness, He saved us through the washing of regeneration^a and renewing by the Set-apart Ruah,
6 which He poured out on us richly, through יְשֻׁעָה Messiah our Savior; 7 that being declared right by His favor, we might be made heirs according to the hope of everlasting life. 8 This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you believe confidently, so that those who have believed Elohim may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men; 9 but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes [about law]^b; for they are unprofitable and vain. 10 Reject a divisive man after a first and second warning, 11 knowing that such a one is perverted and sins, being self-condemned.

12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tuhikos, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. 13 Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. 14 Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Favor be with you all.

^a 5 Greek word rendered as "regeneration" here is παλιγγενεσία (palingenesia). The Syr. uses the phrase مَوْلَادَةُ الْمَنِّ (d'maw'lada d'men d'rysh), literally meaning "birth from beginning." Some versions translate this phrase as "new birth."

^b 9 Syr. reads سَرَفَنَةُ (d'sapri) meaning "of the scribes" here.

ΦΙΛΗΜΩΝ

Philemon

23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Messiah יִשְׁעָה, greets you, 24 as do Markos, Aristarhos, Demas, and Loukas, my fellow workers. 25 The favor of our Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah be with your spirit.

1 Sha'ul, a prisoner of Messiah יִשְׁעָה, and Timotheos our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, 2 to the sister Apphia, to Arhippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: 3 favor to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master יִשְׁעָה Messiah.

4 I thank my Elohim always, making mention of you in my prayers, 5 hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Master יִשְׁעָה, and toward all the set-apart ones; 6 that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Messiah יִשְׁעָה. 7 For I have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the set-apart ones have been refreshed through you, brother.

8 Therefore though I have all boldness in Messiah to command you that which is appropriate, 9 yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Sha'ul, the aged, but also a prisoner of יִשְׁעָה Messiah. 10 I beg you for my child, whom I have brought forth in my chains, Onesimos^a, 11 who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. 12 I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, 13 whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the good news. 14 But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. 15 For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for an hour, that you would have him for an age, 16 no longer as a bondservant, but more than a bondservant, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Master.

17 If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. 18 But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. 19 I, Sha'ul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). 20 Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Master. Refresh my heart in Messiah. 21 Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

22 Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

עֲבָרִים

Ivrim (Hebrews)

1 Elohim, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, has at the end of these days spoken to us by His Son, 2 whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the ages. 3 His Son is the radiance of His glory, the very image of His substance, and upholding all things by the word of His power, who, when He had made purification for sins, sat down in the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4 having become so much better than the messengers, as He has inherited a more excellent Name than they have.

5 For to which of the messengers did He say at any time, "You are My Son. Today I have brought You forth"?^a and again, "I will be to Him a Father, and He will be to me a Son"?^b 6 When He again brings in the firstborn into the world He says, "Let all the messengers of Elohim bow down to Him."^c 7 Of the messengers He says, "Who makes His messengers winds, and His servants a flame of fire."^d

8 But of the Son He says, "Your throne, O Elohim, is to the ages of the ages. The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your Kingdom. 9 You have loved righteousness, and hated lawlessness; therefore Elohim, Your Elohim, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows."^e

10 And, "You, Master, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the works of Your hands. 11 They will perish, but You continue. They all will grow old like a garment does. 12 You will roll them up like a mantle, and they will be changed like a garment; but You are the same. Your years will not fail."^f

13 But which of the messengers has He told at any time, "Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies the footstool of Your feet?"^g

14 Are they not all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

2 Therefore we should pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we be swept away. 2 For if the word spoken through messengers proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; 3 how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken by יְהוָה, was confirmed to us by those who heard; 4 Elohim also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Set-apart Ruah, according to His own will? 5 For He did not subject the world to come, of which we speak, to messengers.

6 But one has somewhere testified, saying, "What is man, that You think of him? Or the son of man, that You care for him? 7 You made him a little lower than the messengers^h. You crowned him with glory and honor. 8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet."ⁱ For in that He subjected all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we do not see all things subjected to him, yet. 9 But we see Him who has been made a little lower than the messengers, שׁוּעַ, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that [by the favor of]^j Elohim He should taste of death for everyone.^k

10 For it became Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both He who sets apart and those who are set apart are all from one, for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12 saying, "I will declare Your Name to My brothers. Among of the congregation I will sing Your praise."^l

13 Again, "I will put My faith in Him." Again, "Behold, here I am with the children whom Elohim has given me."^m 14 Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, He also Himself in the same way partook of the same, that through death He might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For most certainly, He does not give help to messengers, but He gives help to the seed of Avraham. 17 Therefore He was obligated in all things to be made like His brothers, that He might become a kind and faithful high priest in things pertaining to Elohim, to make atonement for the sins of the people. 18 For in that He Himself has suffered being tempted, He is able to help those who are tempted.

3 Therefore, set-apart brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the shaliah and High Priest of our confession, עֶשֶׂר; 2 who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as also was Mosheh in all his house. 3 For He has been counted worthy of more glory than Mosheh, because He who built the house has more honor than the house. 4 For every house is built by someone; but He who built all things is Elohim. 5 Mosheh indeed was faithful in all His house as a servant,^a for a witness of those things which were afterward to be spoken, 6 but Messiah is as a Son over His house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope.

7 Therefore, even as the Set-apart Ruah says, "Today if you will hear His voice, 8 do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion, like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness, 9 where your fathers tested Me with a trial, and saw My deeds for forty years. 10 Therefore I was displeased with this generation, and said, 'They always err in their heart, but they did not know My ways,' 11 as I swore in My wrath, 'They will not enter into My rest.'^b

12 Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of disbelief, in falling away from the living El; 13 but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today;" lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become partakers of Messiah, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: 15 while it is said, "Today if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."

16 For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, did not all those who came out of Mitsrayim by Mosheh? 17 With whom was He displeased forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

^f 9 Greek word translated into the phrase, "keeping of the Sabbath" here is σαββατισμός (sabbatismos) and is only 18 To whom did He swear that they would not enter into His rest, but to those who were disobedient? 19 We see that they were not able to enter in because of disbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into His rest. 2 For indeed we have had the good news proclaimed to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard did not profit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. 3 For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as He has said, "As I swore in My wrath, they will not enter into My rest;"^c although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For He has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "Elohim rested on the seventh day from all His works;"^d 5 and in this place again, "They will not enter into My rest."

6 Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter into it, and they to whom the good news was proclaimed before failed to enter in because of disobedience, 7 He again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as had been foretold), "Today if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts."^e

8 For if Yehoshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. 9 Therefore there remains a keeping of the Sabbath for the people of Elohim.^f 10 For he who has entered into His rest has himself also rested from his works, as Elohim did from His. 11 Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. 12 For the word of Elohim is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of being and spirit, of both joints and marrow^g, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13 There is no creature that is hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of Him to whom we must give an account. 14 Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, עֶשֶׂר, the Son of Elohim, let us hold tightly to our confession. 15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore draw near with used in this verse in all the Shelihim Writings. It is used in the LXX in places such as Shemot 16:30 & Vayiqra 23:32. Syr. reads מַדְ' אֵין מִשְׁבָּת לְעַמְּךָ (mad'ein qay'lam hu l'm'shbatu l'amme d'alaha) translated as, "Therefore, it is established for the people of Elohim to keep the Sabbath."

boldness to the throne of favor, that we may receive loving-kindness, and may find favor for help in time of need.

5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to Elohim, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. 3 Because of it, he must offer slaughterings for sins for the people, as well as for himself. 4 No one takes this honor on himself, but the one being called by Elohim, just like Aharon was. 5 So also Messiah did not glorify Himself to be made a high priest, but it was He who said to Him, "You are My Son. Today I have brought You forth."^a

6 As He says also in another place, "You are a priest to the age, after the order of Malkitsedeq."^b

7 He, in the days of His flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death, and having been heard for His reverent submission, 8 though He was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which He suffered. 9 Having been made perfect, He became to all of those who obey Him the author of everlasting salvation, 10 named by Elohim a high priest after the order of Malkitsedeq. 11 About him^c we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. 12 For although by this time you should be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the utterances of Elohim. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. 13 For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe. 14 But solid food is for those who are mature, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 Therefore having left the beginning words of Messiah, we press on to maturity—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward Elohim, 2 of the teaching of immersions, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of everlasting judgment. 3 This we will do, if Elohim^d permits.

4 For it is impossible for those having once been enlightened^e and having tasted of the heavenly gift, and having become partakers of the Set-apart Ruah, 5 and having tasted the good word of Elohim, and the powers of the coming age, 6 and then having fallen away, to renew them again to repentance; as they crucify the Son of Elohim for themselves again, and are putting Him to open shame. 7 For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and produces vegetation suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from Elohim; 8 but bringing forth thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near to being a curse, whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. 10 For Elohim is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the love which you showed toward His Name, in that you served the set-apart ones, and still do serve them. 11 We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, 12 that you will not be sluggish, but imitators of those who – through faith and perseverance – are inheriting the promises.

13 For Elohim, having made a promise to Avraham, since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, 14 saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."^f 15 Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. 17 In this way Elohim, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeableness of His counsel, interposed with an oath; 18 that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for Elohim to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us.

19 This hope we have as an anchor of the being, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; 20 where as a forerunner עִישׂוֹן entered for us, having become a high priest to the age after the order of Malkitsedeq.

7 For this Malkitsedeq, king of Shalem, priest of El Elyon, who met Avraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2 to whom also Avraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, "king of righteousness", and then also "king of Shalem", which means "king of peace;" 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of Elohim), remains a priest continually. 4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Avraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best plunder. 5 They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a command to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Avraham, 6 but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Avraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. 7 But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. 8 Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that He lives. 9 We can say that through Avraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, 10 for he was yet in the loins of his father when Malkitsedeq met him. 11 Now if there were perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for upon it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Malkitsedeq, and not be called after the order of Aharon? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change being made also of law. 13 For He of whom these things are being said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Master has sprung out of Yehudah, about which tribe Moshe spoke nothing concerning priests. 15 This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Malkitsedeq there arises another priest, 16 who has been made, not after a law of a fleshly command, but after the power of an indestructable life. 17 For it is testified, "You are a priest to the age, according to the order of Malkitsedeq."^a

18 For there is an annulling of a former command because of its weakness and uselessness, 19 (for the law made nothing perfect), and the importation of a better hope, through which we are drawing near to Elohim. 20 Inasmuch as He was not made priest without the taking of an oath (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), 21 but He with an oath by him that says of Him, "תְּנַדֵּן שׁוֹרֵן וְלֹא תָמַד הַבָּשָׂר His mind, 'You are a priest to the age;"^b

22 By so much, עִזּוּעַ has become the guarantee of a better covenant.^b 23 Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. 24 But He, because He lives to the age, has His priesthood unchangeable. 25 Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to Elohim through Him, seeing that He lives always to make intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest was fitting for us: set-apart, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; 27 who does not need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people. For He did this once for all, when He offered up Himself. 28 For the law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which is after the law appoints a Son to the age who has been perfected.

8 Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down in the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2 a servant of the set-apart place, and of the true Tabernacle, which תְּהִלָּתִים pitched, not man. 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. 4 So indeed if He were on earth, He would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law; 5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moshe was warned by Elohim when he was about to make the Tabernacle, for He said, "See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain."^c 6 But now He has obtained a more excellent service, by so much as He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises are being received as law. 7 For if the first had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second.

8 For finding fault with them, He said, "Behold, the days come", says תְּהִלָּתִים, "that I will cut a renewed covenant with the house of Yisra'el and with the house of Yehudah; 9 not according to the covenant that I cut with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Mitsrayim; for they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them," says תְּהִלָּתִים.

10 "For this is the covenant that I will cut with the house of Yisra'el. After those days," says יְהוָה; "I will put My laws into their mind, I will also write them on their heart. I will be their Elohim, and they will be My people. 11 They will not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know יְהוָה,' for all will know Me, from their least to their greatest. 12 For I will be kind to their unrighteousness. I will remember their sins no more."^a 13 In that He says, "Renewed", He has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

9 Now indeed even the first had righteous deeds of divine service, and an earthly set-apart place. 2 For a Tabernacle had been prepared. In the first part were the menorah, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Set-apart Place. 3 After the second veil was the Tabernacle which is called the Most Set-apart, 4 having a golden censer, and the ark of the covenant, having been overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aharon's rod that had budded, and the tablets of the covenant; 5 and above it keruvim of glory overshadowing the lid, of which things we cannot speak now in detail.

6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first Tabernacle, accomplishing the services, 7 but into the second goes the high priest alone, once a year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people. 8 The Set-apart Ruah is declaring this, that the way into the Set-apart Place was not yet revealed while the first Tabernacle is still standing; 9 which is a symbol of the present time, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are not able, concerning the conscience, to make perfect the one serving; 10 being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly righteous deeds, being imposed until a time of reformation.

11 But Messiah having come as a high priest of the good things that have come, through the greater and perfected Tabernacle, not made with hands – that is, not of this creation, – 12 nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, entered in once for all into the Set-apart Place, having obtained everlasting redemption. 13 For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, set apart to the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more will the blood of Messiah, who through the everlasting Ruah offered Himself unblemished to Elohim, cleanse our conscience from dead works to serve the living El?

15 For this reason He is mediator of a renewed covenant, since a death having occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.

16 For where a covenant is, it is necessary to establish the death of him who cut it. 17 For a covenant is affirmed where there has been death, for it is never in force while the one having cut it lives. 18 Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. 19 For when every command had been spoken by Mosheh to all the people according to the Torah, having taken the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which יְהוָה has commanded you."^b

21 Moreover he sprinkled the Tabernacle and all the vessels of the service in the same way with the blood.

22 According to the law, nearly^c everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from the shedding of blood there is no remission. 23 It was necessary therefore to cleanse the copies of the things in the heavens with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Messiah has not entered into set-apart places made with hands, which are representations of the true one, but into heaven itself, now having appeared in the presence of Elohim on our behalf; 25 nor yet that He offers Himself often, as the high priest enters into the set-apart place every year with blood not his own, 26 or else He must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the completion of the ages, He has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

27 Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to have died once, and after this, judgment, 28 so Messiah also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for Him for salvation.

10 For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, is never able with the same sacrifices each year, which they offer continually, to make perfect those who draw near. 2 Or else would they not have ceased to be offered, because the servants, having been once cleansed, would have had no more knowledge of sins? 3 But in those slayings there is a reminder of sins every year. 4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

^a 8-12 See Yirmeyahu 31:31-34.

^b 20 See Shemot 24:8.

^c 22 Syr. omits the word for "nearly" here.

5 Therefore when He comes into the world, He says, "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You prepared a body for Me. 6 You had no pleasure in ascension offerings and sacrifices for sin. 7 Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of Me) to do Your will, O Elohim.'"^a

8 Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and ascension offerings and sacrifices for sin you did not desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to law), 9 then He has said, "Behold, I have come to do Your will." He takes away the first, that He may establish the second, 10 by which will we have been set apart through the offering of the body of ישׁוּעָה Messiah once for all. 11 Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, 12 but the One having offered one sacrifice for sins continually, sat down in the right hand of Elohim; 13 from that time waiting until His enemies are made the footstool of His feet. 14 For by one offering He has perfected continually those who are being set apart.

15 The Set-apart Ruah also testifies to us, for having saying, 16 "This is the covenant that I will cut with them after those days," says תִּתְבֹּנֵת, "I will put My laws on their heart, I will also write them on their mind;" then He says, 17 "I will remember their sins and their lawlessness no more."^b

18 Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no more offering for sin. 19 Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the set-apart place by the blood of יְשָׁעִי, 20 by the way which He dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil that is His flesh; 21 and having a great priest over the house of Elohim, 22 we draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, 23 let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for He who promised is faithful. 24 Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, 25 not forsaking your assembling together, as is the custom of some, but exhorting one another; and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

26 For if we sin willfully after having received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. 28 Anyone who has set aside the Torah of Mosheh dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. 29 How much worse punishment do you think he will be judged worthy of, who has trodden under foot the Son of Elohim, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which He was set apart a common thing, and has insulted the Ruah of favor?

30 For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay."^c Again, "הָיָה יְהוָה will judge His people.^d"

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living El.

32 But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened,^c you endured a great struggle with sufferings; 33 partly, being exposed to both reproaches and afflictions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so. 34 For you both had compassion on the prisoners, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens.

35 Therefore do not throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. 36 For you need endurance so that, having done the will of Elohim, you may receive the promise. 37 "In a very little while, He who comes will come, and will not wait. 38 But My righteous one will live from faith. If he shrinks back, My being has no pleasure in him." 39 But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the being.

11 Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen.^g 2 For by this, the elders obtained witness. 3 By faith, we understand that the ages were framed by the word of Elohim, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. 4 By faith, Havel offered to Elohim a more excellent offering than Qayin, through which he had witness given to him that he was righteous, Elohim testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks.

5 By faith, Hanokh was taken away, not to see^h death, and he was not found, because Elohim translated him. Before he was taken up, he had been well pleasing to Elohim. 6 Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to Him, for he who comes to Elohim must

^g 1 In the Syr., this verse reads, "Now faith is the persuasion of things hoped for, the revelation of deeds not seen."

^h 5 Greek word rendered as "see" here is ιδεῖν (idein), meaning literally, "to see." Syr. uses the word תְּאַמֵּן (t'em) meaning "to taste."

believe that He exists, and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

7 By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, in reverence, prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

8 By faith, Avraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to a place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went.

9 By faith, he lived as a guest in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Yitshaq and Ya'aqov, the heirs with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is Elohim.

11 By faith, even Sarah herself, being barren, received power to conceive seed, and she brought forth a child when she was past age, since she counted Him who had promised faithful. 12 Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were brought forth by one man, and him as good as dead. 13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were sojourners and guests on the earth. 14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. 15 If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore Elohim is not ashamed of them, to be called their Elohim, for He has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith, Avraham, being tested, offered up Yitshaq. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son, 18 to whom it was said, "your seed will be accounted as from Yitshaq:"^a 19 concluding that Elohim is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. 20 By faith, Yitshaq blessed Ya'aqov and Esaw, even concerning things to come.

21 By faith, Ya'aqov, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Yoseph, and bowed down, leaning on the top of his staff. 22 By faith, Yoseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Yisra'el; and gave instructions concerning his bones.

23 By faith, Mosheh, when he was born, was hidden for three new moons by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's command. 24 By faith, Mosheh, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 choosing rather to share ill treatment with the people of Elohim than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time; 26 accounting the reproach of Messiah greater riches than the treasures of Mitsrayim; for he looked to the reward. 27 By faith, he left Mitsrayim, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing Him who is invisible. 28 By faith, he kept the Pesah, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith, they passed through the Sea of Reeds as on dry land. When the Mitsrites tried to do so, they were swallowed up.

30 By faith, the walls of Yeriho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days. 31 By faith, Rahav the whore did not perish with those who were disobedient having received the spies in peace. 32 What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gidon, Baraq, Shimshon, Yiphthah, David, Shemu'el, and the prophets; 33 who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee.

35 Women received their dead from resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting their redemption, that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36 Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. 37 They were stoned. They were sawn apart. They were killed with the sword. They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated 38 (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. 39 These all, having had witness given to them through their faith, did not receive the promise, 40 Elohim having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, 2 looking to עִזּוֹתִי, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the stake, despising its shame, and has sat down in the right hand of the throne of Elohim. 3 For consider fully the one who has endured such contention under sinners against himself, that you do not grow weary, fainting in your beings.

4 You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin; 5 and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children, "My son, do not despise the correction of פָּנִים, nor faint when you are reproved by Him; 6 For whom פָּנִים loves, He disciplines, and scourges every son whom He receives.^a 7 It is for discipline that you endure. Elohim deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? 8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children. 9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. But should we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? 10 For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His set-apartness. 11 All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby.

12 Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet,^b so what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. 14 Follow after peace with all men, and the setting apart without which no man will see the Master, 15 looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the favor of Elohim; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled through it; 16 lest there be any whore, or profane person, like Esaw, who sold his own birthright for one meal. 17 For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance though he sought it diligently with tears.

18 For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, storm, 19 the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them, 20 for they could not stand that which was commanded, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned;"^c 21 and so fearful was the appearance that Mosheh said, "I am terrified and trembling."^d

22 But you have come to Mount Tsion, and to the city of the living El, the heavenly Yerushalayim, and to innumerable multitudes of messengers, 23 to the festive gathering and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in the heavens, to Elohim the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24 to יעשׁוֹ, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Havel.

25 See that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned on earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from Him who warns from the heavens, 26 whose voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens."^e

27 This phrase, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. 28 Therefore, receiving a Kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have favor, through which we serve Elohim acceptably, with reverence and awe, 29 for our Elohim is a consuming fire.^f

13 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained messengers without knowing it. 3 Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. 4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled, for Elohim will judge the whores and adulterers. 5 Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for Heg has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you."^h 6 So that with good courage we say, "פָּנִים is my helper. I will not fear. What can man do to me?"ⁱ

7 Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of Elohim, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. 8 עִישׂ Messiah is the same yesterday, today, and to the ages. 9 Do not be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by favor, not by food, through which those who were walking about were not benefited. 10 We have an altar from which those who serve the set-apart Tabernacle have no right to eat.

11 For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the set-apart place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.

12 Therefore עִישׂ also, that He might set the people apart through His own blood, suffered outside of the gate.

13 Let us therefore go out to Him outside of the camp, bearing His reproach. 14 For we do not have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come.

15 Through Him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to Elohim continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to His Name. 16 But do not forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices Elohim is well pleased.

17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your beings, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things.

19 I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner. 20 Now may the Elohim of peace, who brought again from the dead the Great Shepherd of the sheep in the blood of an everlasting covenant, our Master שָׁמָךְ, 21 make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His eyes, through מֶלֶךְ Messiah, to whom be the glory to the ages. Amein. 22 But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation; for I have written to you in few words. 23 Know that our brother Timotheos has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. 24 Greet all of your leaders and all the set-apart ones. Those from Italy greet you.

25 Favor be with you all.

הַתְּגִלָּות

Hit'galut (Revelation)

1 This is the Revelation of מֶשֶׁיחַ Messiah, which Elohim gave Him to show to His bondservants the things which must happen soon, which He sent and made known by His messenger to His bondservant, Yohanan, 2 who testified to the word of Elohim, and of the witness of מֶשֶׁיחַ Messiah, about everything that he saw.

3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and guards the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.

4 Yohanan, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: favor to you and peace, from the One who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne; 5 and from מֶשֶׁיחַ Messiah, the faithful witness,^a the firstborn of the dead,^b and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us, and freed us from our sins by His blood;^c 6 and He made us to be a Kingdom, priests to His Elohim and Father; to Him be the glory and the dominion to the ages of the ages. Amein.

7 Behold, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, including those who pierced Him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over Him. Even so, Amein.

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega,"^d says אֵל Elohim, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

9 I Yohanan, your brother and fellow-partner with you in the affliction, Kingdom, and perseverance in מֶשֶׁיחַ, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of the word of Elohim and the witness of מֶשֶׁיחַ. 10 I was in the Ruah on the day of יְהוָה, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a shofar 11 saying, "What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodikeia."

^b See also Kolossaeis 1:18.

^c See also Tehillim 89:27-37. Note that in these eleven verses, David is called "firstborn," "highest of the kings of the earth," and his throne a "firm witness."

^d Syriac reads אַלְפָ וְתַウְ (alap w'taw) meaning "Alef and Tav" here. That is, the first and last letters of the Hebrew/Aramaic alphabet. Also in Hit'galut 21:6 and 22:13.

12 I turned to see the voice which was speaking with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden menorot.

13 And among the menorot was one like a son of man, clothed with a robe reaching down to His feet, and with a golden sash around His chest. 14 His head and His hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. 15 His feet were like polished copper, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters.^e 16 He had seven stars in His right hand. Out of His mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. 17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last, 18 and the Living One. I was dead, and behold, I am alive to the ages of the ages. I have the keys of Death and of Sheol. 19 Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things to come hereafter; 20 the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden menorot. The seven stars are the messengers of the seven assemblies. The seven menorot are seven assemblies.

2 "To the messenger of the assembly in Ephesus write: "He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, He who walks among the seven golden menorot says these things:

2 "I know your works, toil, and perseverance, and that you cannot tolerate evil men, and have tested the ones calling themselves shelihim, and they are not, and found them false. 3 You have perseverance and have endured for My Name's sake, and have not grown weary. 4 But I have this against you, that you left your first love.

5 Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you, and will move your menorah out of its place, unless you repent. 6 But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nikolaitans^f, which I also hate. 7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruah says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of Elohim.

8 "To the messenger of the assembly in Smyrna write: "The First and the Last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:

^e 15 See also Dani'el 10:4-6.

^f 6 Nikolaitans – Greek word formed by combining the words nikos, laos and ton. Nikos means "victor, particularly by conquering;" laos means, "people, crowd" and ton is the definite article. By definition, a Nikolaitan is one who "takes victory (by conquering) the people." Also in verse 15.

9 "I know your affliction and poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Yehudim, and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10 Do not be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have affliction for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. 11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruah says to the assemblies. He who overcomes will not be harmed by the Second Death.

12 "To the messenger of the assembly in Pergamum write: "He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:

13 "I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to My Name, and did not deny My faith even in the days of [Antipas]^a My witness, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Bil'am, who kept teaching Balaq to throw a stumbling block before the children of Yisra'el, to eat things slaughtered to idols, and to whore.^b 15 So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nikolaitans likewise.

16 Therefore repent, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth. 17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruah says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a renewed name written, which no one knows but he who receives it.

18 "To the messenger of the assembly in Thyatira write: "The Son of Elohim, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and feet like polished copper, says these things:

19 "I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first. 20 But I have this against you, that you permit that woman, Izevel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces My bondservants to whore, and to eat things slaughtered to idols. 21 I gave her time to repent, and she did not repent from her whoring.

22 Behold, I am throwing her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great affliction, unless they repent of her works. 23 I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. 24 But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching, who do not know what some call 'the deep things of Satan,' to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you. 25 Nevertheless, hold that which you have firmly until I come. 26 He who overcomes, and he who guards My works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. 27 He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; 28 as I also have received from My Father: and I will give him the morning star. 29 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruah says to the assemblies.

3 "And to the messenger of the assembly in Sardis write: 'He who has the seven Spirits of Elohim, and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works, that you have a name of being alive, but you are dead. 2 Wake up, and strengthen the things that remain, which were about to die, for I have found no works of yours perfected before My Elohim. 3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard it, and guard it, and repent. If therefore you will not watch, I will come as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you. 4 But you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. 5 He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father, and before His messengers. 6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruah says to the assemblies.

7 "To the messenger of the assembly in Philadelphia write: "He who is set-apart, He who is true, He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these things:

8 "I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and guarded My word, and did not deny My Name. 9 Behold, I will give some of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Yehudim, and are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and bow down before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. 10 Because you guarded My command to endure,^c I also will guard you from the hour of testing, which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. 11 I am coming quickly! Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown. 12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the dwelling place of My Elohim, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the Name of My Elohim, and the name of the city of My Elohim, the Renewed Yerushalayim, which comes down out of heaven from My Elohim, and My own renewed Name. 13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruah says to the assemblies.

14 "To the messenger of the assembly in Laodikeia write: "The Amein, the Trustworthy and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of Elohim, says these things:

15 "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. Oh that you were cold or hot.^a 16 So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of My mouth. 17 Because you say, 'I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing,' and do not know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked; 18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined by fire,^b that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye-salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me. 21 He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with My Father on His throne.^c 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruah says to the assemblies."

4 After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a shofar speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."

2 Immediately I was in the Ruah. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and One sitting on the throne. 3 The One sitting was like the appearance of a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, in the appearance of an emerald. 4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. 5 Out of the throne proceeded lightnings, voices, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before His throne, which are the seven Spirits of Elohim. 6 Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the middle of the throne, and around the throne were four

^a 15 The phrase "neither cold nor hot" may be a reference to the city of Laodikeia itself. The neighboring city of Kolossae had a cold stream that flowed into the city. The other neighbor of Laodikeia, Hieropolis, had a natural hot spring. Both the hot and cold were useful; one for cleaning, healing and one for drinking. Laodikeia, however, used an aqueduct to bring water in from far outside the city; by the time it reached the city, it was lukewarm, and therefore was almost useless.

living creatures full of eyes before and behind. 7 The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. 8 The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, "Set-apart, set-apart, set-apart is יְהוָה Elohim the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!"

9 When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives to the ages of the ages, 10 the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and bow down to Him who lives to the ages of the ages, and will throw their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 "Worthy are You, our Master and Elohim, the Set-apart One, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for You created all things, and because of Your desire they existed, and were created!"

5 I saw, in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and on the back, sealed shut with seven seals.^d 2 I saw a mighty messenger proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?" 3 No one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to see in it. 4 And I began weeping, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to see in it. 5 One of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Yehudah, the Root of David, has overcome; He who opens the book and its seven seals." 6 I saw in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of Elohim, sent out into all the earth. 7 Then He came, and He took it out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne. 8 Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the set-apart ones.^e

9 They sang a renewed song,^f saying, "You are worthy to take the book, and to open its seals: for You were killed, and purchased for Elohim with Your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and nation, 10 and made them to be a kingdom, and priests to our Elohim, and they^a will reign on the earth."

11 I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many messengers around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; 12 saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!"

13 I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, to the ages of the ages! Amein!"

14 The four living creatures kept saying, "Amein!" Then the elders fell down and bowed down.

6 I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come!" 2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.

3 When He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!" 4 Another came out, a fiery red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they will kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

5 When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come!" And I saw, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. 6 I heard something like a voice in the middle of the four living creatures saying, "A hoenix^b of wheat for a denarius, and three hoenix of barley for a denarius! Do not damage the oil and the wine!"

7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come!" 8 And I saw, and behold, a pale green horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death; Sheol following with him. Authority was given to him over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth.^c

9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the beings of those who had been killed for the word of Elohim, and for the witness which they had.

10 They cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, תְּהִלָּתֶךָ, the set-apart and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11 A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest for yet a little while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

12 I saw when He opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood.^d

13 The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. 14 The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every bondservant and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. 16 They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us^e from the face of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, 17 for the great day of His wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"^f

7 After this, I saw four messengers standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. 2 I saw another messenger ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living El. He cried with a loud voice to the four messengers to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, 3 saying, "Do not harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our Elohim on their foreheads!" 4 I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Yisra'el:

5 of the tribe of Yehudah twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Reuven twelve thousand; of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand;

6 of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand; of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand; of the tribe of Menasheh twelve thousand;

7 of the tribe of Shimon twelve thousand; of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand; of the tribe of Yissakhar twelve thousand;

8 of the tribe of Zevulun twelve thousand; of the tribe of Yoseph twelve thousand; of the tribe of Benyamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great crowd, which no man could count, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands;^a 10 and crying out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our Elohim, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

11 All the messengers were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before His throne, and bowed down to Elohim, 12 saying, "Amein! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our Elohim to the ages of the ages! Amein."

13 One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?" 14 I told him, "My master, you know." He said to me, "These are those coming out of the great affliction. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood. 15 Therefore they are before the throne of Elohim; they serve Him day and night in His dwelling place. He who sits on the throne will tabernacle over them. 16 They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; 17 for the Lamb who is in the middle of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to fountains of living waters. And Elohim will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

8 When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 I saw the seven messengers who stand before Elohim, and seven shofarot were given to them. 3 Another messenger came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, so that he will offer it with the prayers of all the set-apart ones on the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the set-apart ones, went up before Elohim out of the messenger's hand. 5 The messenger took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. Thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake followed.

6 The seven messengers who had the seven shofarot prepared themselves to sound. 7 The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burned up, and one third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

8 The second messenger sounded, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, 9 and one third of the living creatures, the ones in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

10 The third messenger sounded, and a great star fell from the heavens, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters.

11 The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many of the people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.^b

12 The fourth messenger sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day will not shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. 13 I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, from the other voices of the shofarot of the three messengers, who are yet to sound!"

9 The fifth messenger sounded, and I saw a star from the heavens which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. 2 He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a great furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. 3 Then out of the smoke came locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.^c 4 They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, except those people who do not have the seal of Elohim on the foreheads. 5 They were given power, not to kill them, but they will be tormented for five new moons. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person.

6 In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death flees from them. 7 The likenesses of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden wreaths, and their faces were like the faces of men. 8 They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. 9 They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war.

10 They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. Their power is in their tails to harm men for five new moons. 11 They have as king over them the messenger of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Avaddon" and in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon."^{ab} 12 The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.

13 The sixth messenger sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before Elohim,
14 saying to the sixth messenger, the one having the shofar, "Free the four messengers who are bound at the great Perath River!"^c

15 The four messengers were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and new moon and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. 16 The number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand ten thousands^d. I heard the number of them.

17 Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the horses' heads resembled lions' heads. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. 18 By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: from the fire, and the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm.

20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they not bow down to demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of copper, and of stone, and of wood which cannot see, hear, or walk. 21 They did not repent from their murders, their drug sorceries, their whoring, or their thefts.

10 I saw another mighty messenger coming down out of the heavens, clothed with a cloud, and the rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. 2 He had in his hand a little book being open. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. 3 He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. 4 When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the heavens saying to me, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and do not write them."

5 The messenger whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his hand to the heavens, 6 and swore by the One living to the ages of the ages, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will be no more time; 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh messenger, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of Elohim is finished, as He declared to His own bondservants the prophets. 8 The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the messenger who stands on the sea and on the land."

9 I went to the messenger, telling him to give me the little book. He said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."^e

10 I took the little book out of the messenger's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. 11 They say to me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."^f

11 A reed like a rod was given to me, and someone was saying, "Rise, and measure the dwelling place of Elohim, and the altar, and those who bow down in it. 2 Leave out the court which is outside of the dwelling place, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the set-apart city under foot for forty-two new moons. 3 I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

4 These are the two olive trees and the two menorot, standing before the Master of the earth. 5 If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. 6 These have the power to close up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. 7 When they have finished their witness, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. 8 Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Mitsrayim, where also their Master was crucified.

9 From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people look at their dead body for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10 Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and are glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

11 After the three and a half days, the breath of life from Elohim entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. 12 I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them. 13 In that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the Elohim of heaven.

14 The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

15 The seventh messenger sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Master, and of His Messiah. He will reign to the ages of the ages!"

16 The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before Elohim, fell on their faces and bowed down to Elohim, 17 saying: "We give You thanks, הָלֹה Elohim, the Almighty, the One who is and who was; because You have taken Your great power, and reigned. 18 The nations were angry, and Your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give Your bondservants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the set-apart ones, and those who fear Your Name, the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth." 19 The dwelling place of Elohim that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His dwelling place. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.

12 A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. 2 She is with child and she is crying out in torment, laboring to give birth.^a 3 Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns. 4 His tail is dragging one third of the stars of the heavens, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stands^b before the woman who is^c about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. 5 She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron.^d Her child was caught up to Elohim, and to His throne. 6 The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by Elohim, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

7 There was war in the heavens. Mikha'el and his messengers made war with the dragon. The dragon and his messengers made war. 8 They did not prevail, neither was a place found for them any more in heaven. 9 The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his messengers were thrown down with him.

10 I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our Elohim, and the authority of His Messiah has come; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our Elohim day and night. 11 They overcame him because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their witness. They did not love their life, even to death. 12 Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who tabernacle in them. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."^e

13 When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. 14 The two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place,^f where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.^g 15 The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. 16 The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. 17 The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed: those who guard the commands of Elohim and hold the witness of יְשֻׁעָה.^h 18 And he stood on the shore of the sea.ⁱ

13 And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, names^j of blasphemy. 2 The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. 3 One of his heads looked like it had been slain to death. His deadly wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled after the beast. 4 They bowed down to the dragon that gave the authority to the beast, and they bowed down to the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast and who is able to make war with him?" 5 A mouth speaking great things and blasphemies was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two new moons was given to him.^a 6 He opened his mouth for blasphemies towards Elohim, to blaspheme His Name, and His tabernacle, those who tabernacle in heaven.

7 It was given to him to make war with the set-apart ones, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him.^b 8 All who dwell on the earth will bow down to him, everyone whose name has not been written in the slain Lamb's book of life from the foundation of the world. 9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10 If anyone is to go into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with a sword, he is to be killed with a sword.^c Here is the endurance and the faith of the set-apart ones.

11 I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. 12 He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those dwelling in it to bow down to the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. 13 He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the heavens to the earth in the sight of people.^d 14 He deceives the people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those dwelling on the earth that they should make an image to the beast who has the wound of the sword and lived. 15 It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as would not bow down to the image of the beast to be killed. 16 He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the bondservant, to be given a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead; 17 and that no one will be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark: the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.^e

14 I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Tsion, and with Him one hundred forty-four thousand, having His Name, and the Name of His Father, written on their foreheads. 2 I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of a great thunder. The voice which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. 3 They sing a renewed song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. 4 These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were purchased from among men, firstfruits to Elohim and to the Lamb. 5 In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless [before the throne of Elohim]^f.

6 I saw another messenger flying in mid heaven, having an everlasting good news to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people. 7 He said with a loud voice, "Fear יְהוָה, and give Him glory; for the hour of His judgment has come. Bow down to Him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"

8 Another messenger, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen, is Bavel the great, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her whoring."

9 Another messenger, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone bows down to the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand, 10 he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of Elohim, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of His anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of set-apart messengers, and in the presence of the Lamb.^g 11 The smoke of their torment goes up to the ages of the ages. They have no rest day and night, those who bow down to the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. 12 Here is the perseverance of the set-apart ones, those who guard the commands of Elohim, and the faith of יִשְׁעָה."

13 I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Master from now on.'" "Yes," says the Ruah, "they will rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."

14 I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle.

15 Another messenger came out of the dwelling place, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Send your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!" 16 He who sat on the cloud thrust His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped. 17 Another messenger came out of the dwelling place which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. 18 Another messenger came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth's grapes are fully ripe!" 19 The messenger thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of Elohim.^a 20 The wine press was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out of the wine press, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.^{bc}

15 I saw another great and marvelous sign in the heavens: seven messengers having the seven last plagues, for in them the wrath of Elohim is finished. 2 I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image, and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of Elohim. 3 They sang the song of Mosheh,^d the bondservant of Elohim, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are Your works, תִּתְהַנֵּן Elohim, the Almighty! Righteous and true are Your ways, You King of the nations. 4 Who would not fear, תִּתְהַנֵּן, and will glorify Your Name? For You alone are set-apart. For all the nations will come and bow down before You.^e For Your righteous deeds have been revealed."

5 After these things I looked, and the dwelling place of the Tabernacle of the witness in heaven was opened. 6 The seven messengers who had the seven plagues came out of the dwelling place, having been clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts.

7 One of the four living creatures gave to the seven messengers seven golden bowls full of the wrath of Elohim, who lives to the ages of the ages. 8 The dwelling place was filled with smoke from the glory of Elohim, and from His power. No one was able to enter into the dwelling place, until the seven plagues of the seven messengers would be finished.

16 I heard a loud voice out of the dwelling place, saying to the seven messengers, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of Elohim on the earth!"

2 The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who bowed down to his image.

3 The second messenger poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died.

4 The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and fountains of water, and they became blood. 5 I heard the messenger of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who is and who was, O Set-apart One, because You have judged these things. 6 For they poured out the blood of the set-apart ones and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this." 7 I heard the altar saying, "Yes, תִּתְהַנֵּן Elohim, the Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments."

8 The fourth messenger poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire.

9 People were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the Name of Elohim who has the authority over these plagues. They did not repent and give Him glory.

10 The fifth messenger poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, 11 and they blasphemed the Elohim of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They did not repent of their works.

12 The sixth messenger poured out his bowl on the great river, the Perath River^f. Its water was dried up, that the way might be prepared for the kings that come from the sunrise. 13 I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; 14 for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go out to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of the great day of Elohim, the Almighty.

^f 12 Perath – The Euphrates River, and probably the etymological origin of the name.

15 "Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and guards his clothes, so that he does not walk naked, and they see his shame." 16 He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew 'Megiddo.'^a 17 The seventh messenger poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the dwelling place, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" 18 There were lightning flashes, and voices, and thunders; and a great earthquake occurred, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. 19 The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Bavel the great was remembered in the sight of Elohim, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. 20 Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, came down out of the heavens on people. People blasphemed Elohim because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

17 One of the seven messengers who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great whore who sits on many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth whored; and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her whoring."^b

3 He carried me away in the Ruah into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. 4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and had been decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the uncleanness of the whoring of the earth. 5 And on her forehead a name was written, "Mystery, Bavel the Great, the mother of the whores and of the abominations of the earth." 6 I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the set-apart ones, and with the blood of the martyrs of יִשְׁעָה. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. 7 The messenger said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and will be present.

9 Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. 10 They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. 11 The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. 12 The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. 13 These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.

14 These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Master of masters, and King of kings, and those who are with Him are called 'chosen' and 'faithful.' 15 He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, crowds, nations, and languages. 16 The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the whore, will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. 17 For Elohim has put in their hearts to do what He has in mind, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of Elohim will be completed. 18 The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

18 After these things, I saw another messenger coming down out of the heavens, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. 2 He cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Bavel the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird! 3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her whoring, the kings of the earth whored with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury."^c

4 I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, My people,"^d that you have no participation in her sins, and that you do not receive of her plagues, 5 for her sins have reached to the heavens, and Elohim has remembered her iniquities. 6 Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix double. 7 However much she glorified herself, and lived sensuously, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit as a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.' 8 Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for Elohim who has judged her is strong.

9 The kings of the earth, who whored and lived sensuously with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, 10 standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Bavel, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.' 11 The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore; 12 merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of copper, and iron, and marble; 13 and cinnamon and spice, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, and bodies and beings of men. 14 The fruits which your being lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and lavish have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. 15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; 16 saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearl!' 17 For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every ship master, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, 18 and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?'

19 They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich from her great wealth!' For she is made desolate in one hour. 20 Rejoice over her, O heaven, you set-apart ones, shelihim, and prophets; for Elohim has judged your judgment on her." 21 A mighty messenger took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Bavel, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. 22 The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and of trumpet-players will not be heard in you at all anymore. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. 23 The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your drug sorcery all the nations were deceived. 24 In her was found the blood of prophets and of set-apart ones, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

19 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great crowd in heaven, saying, "Halleluyah! Salvation, power, and glory belong to our Elohim: 2 for true and righteous are His judgments. For He has judged the great whore, who corrupted the earth with her whoring, and He has avenged the blood of His bondservants at her hand."

3 A second said, "Halleluyah! Her smoke goes up to the ages of the ages." 4 The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and bowed down to Elohim who sits on the throne, saying, "Amein! Halleluyah!"

5 A voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our Elohim, all you His bondservants, you who fear Him, the small and the great!"

6 I heard something like the voice of a great crowd, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Halleluyah! For 7 our Elohim, the Almighty, reigns! 7 Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to Him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready." 8 It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the set-apart ones. 9 He said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" He said to me, "These are true words of Elohim."

10 I fell down before his feet to bow down to him. He said to me, "Look! Do not do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the witness of 11 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 heavens, "Come! Be gathered together to the great banquet of Elohim, 18 that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bondservant, small and great."

19 I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse, and against His army. 20 The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his eyes, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who bowed down to his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. 21 The rest were killed with the sword of Him who sat on the horse, the sword which proceeded from His mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 I saw a messenger coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 He seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, [who deceives the whole world],^a and bound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. 4 I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the beings of those who had been beheaded for the witness of עֵשֶׂב, and for the word of Elohim, and those that did not bow down to the beast nor his image, and did not receive the mark on the forehead and on their hand. They lived and reigned with Messiah for a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead did not live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and set-apart is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of Elohim and of Messiah, and will reign with Him one thousand years.

7 And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, 8 and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth; Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 They went up over the width of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the set-apart ones, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven and devoured them. 10 The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet were also.

They will be tormented day and night to the ages of the ages.

11 I saw a great white throne, and Him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. 12 I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13 The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Sheol gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. 14 Death and Sheol were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the Second Death, the lake of fire. 15 If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21 I saw a Renewed Heaven and a Renewed Earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more.^b 2 I saw the set-apart city, Renewed Yerushalayim, coming down out of heaven from Elohim, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. 3 I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, the dwelling of Elohim is with man, and He will tabernacle with them, and they will be His people, and Elohim Himself will be with them as their Elohim. 4 He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away."

5 He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things renewed." He said, "Write, for these words of Elohim are faithful and true." 6 He said to me, "They have taken place! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. 7 He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his Elohim, and he will be My son. 8 But for the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, whores, drug sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the Second Death."

9 One of the seven messengers who had the seven bowls, which were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10 He carried me away in the Ruah to a great and high mountain, and showed me the set-apart city, Yerushalayim, coming down out of heaven from Elohim, 11 having the glory of Elohim. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal; 12 having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve messengers; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Yisra'el. 13 On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve shelihim of the Lamb.

15 He who spoke with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. 16 The city is square, and its length is as great as its width. He measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand stadia.^a Its length, width, and height are equal. 17 Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits, by the measure of a man, that is, of a messenger. 18 The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass.

19 The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; 20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst. 21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. 22 I saw no dwelling place in it, for Elohim the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its dwelling place.

23 The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of Elohim illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. 24 The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring their glory into it.

25 Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there), 26 and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it so that they may enter.

27 There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

22 He showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of Elohim and of the Lamb, 2 in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every new moon. The leaves of the tree were for the care of the nations.

3 There will be no curse anymore. The throne of Elohim and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bondservants will serve Him. 4 They will see His face, and His Name will be on their foreheads. 5 There will be no night anymore, and they need no lamp light; for Elohim will illuminate them. They will reign to the ages of the ages. 6 He said to me, "These words are faithful and true."

7 Elohim of the spirits of the prophets sent His messenger to show to His bondservants the things which must happen soon. 7 Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who guards the words of the prophecy of this book."

8 Now I, Yohanah, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to bow down before the feet of the messenger who had shown me these things. 9 He said to me, "See that you do not do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who guard the words of this book. Bow down to Elohim." 10 He said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. 11 He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is set-apart, let him be set-apart still."

12 "Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with Me, to repay to each man according to his work. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. 14 Blessed are those who wash their robes,^b that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city.

15 Outside are the dogs, the drug sorcerers, the whores, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. 16 I, עִישׂוֹן, have sent My messenger to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David; the Bright Morning Star.^c"

17 The Ruah and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely. 18 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, Elohim will add to him the plagues which are written in this book. 19 If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, Elohim will take away his part from the tree of life, and of the set-apart city, which are written in this book. 20 He who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly." Amein! Yes, come, Master^d עִישׂוֹן.

21 The favor of the Master עִישׂוֹן Messiah be with you all.

Appendix A Explanatory Notes

Ages, to the. The Greek word αἰών (ahion) is usually translated "age" but is sometimes rendered as "world." To keep the translation consistent and accurate, the LEV renders the word as "age" in all places. In many cases, however, it is preceded by the Greek words εἰς τὸν (eis ton) which we have rendered literally as "to the." Therefore, it appears in most cases as εἰς τὸν αἰώνα "to the age(s)." In a few cases, this phrase is followed by τῶν αἰώνων, making the full phrase εἰς τὸν αἰώνα τῶν αἰώνων "to the ages of the ages."

In Syriac Aramaic, we find the phrase most often used in place of εἰς τὸν αἰώνα is ܐܠܼܾ (l'alam). When the Greek uses the phrase "to the ages of the ages" the Syriac Aramaic uses ܐܠܼܾ ܼܾܲ (l'alam almiyn). This, like its Greek counterpart, refers to an indeterminate length of time. The word alam refers to an age, be it eternity or otherwise. So l'alam almiyn means "to the age of the ages."

Aram-Naharayim. Aram-Naharayim is the transliteration of the Hebrew אַרְםָנָהָרִים (aram) meaning "Aram" and אַרְמָנָהָרִים (na'ha'ra'yim) meaning "rivers." This literally means "Aram between the rivers." It is usually rendered as "Mesopotamia" because of its Greek name, Μεσοποταμία (Meso'po'tamia) from the Greek words μεσος (mesos) meaning "middle" or "between" and ποταμος (po'ta'mos) meaning "river." This refers to a geographic area usually called "the fertile crescent" including the land between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

Ascension Offering. The Hebrew word עֹלָה (olah) is generally rendered as "burnt offering" in most Bibles. This is due to the fact that according to the Torah, this offering was to be completely burned up and consumed. However, the word olah itself is derived from the verb of the same spelling, alah, meaning "to ascend" or "to go up." This is seen in a couple of ways.

For starters, the offerer would be burning an offering that would "ascend" as a "soothing aroma" before יהוה. Also, this offering was a sign that the offerer was to be lifted up in worship. Given this definition the word olah has been translated as "ascension offering" instead of the usual "burnt offering."

Assembly. While most Bible translations use the word "church" in the Shelihim Writings, the LEV does not. The word in question in Greek is ἐκκλησία (ekkleisia), which is derived from two words. These words are ἐκ (ek, meaning "out of, from") and καλεω (kaleo, meaning "to call"). Thus literally it means "[those] called out from." In the Greek Septuagint, this word is most often used in place of the Hebrew קָהָל (qahal), a noun meaning "assembly, congregation." This Hebrew noun is derived from the verb of the same spelling, which means "to gather, to assemble." It is also the root of the word Qoheleth (see footnote at the beginning of Qoheleth [Ecclesiastes] for more).

The difference can be seen in some translations such as the King James Version, where the Greek ekklēsia was translated as "church" when referring to an assembly of people in Acts 7:38. Note how more modern translations render this as "congregation." The reason for the change was because the English word "church" has become synonymous with both the building in which Christians meet as well as their assembly of people. Therefore more modern translations have changed this to "congregation" or "assembly" since it refers to Ancient Israelites and not a body of Christians. That is not the case in the LEV.

In Syriac Aramaic we find the word most often used in place of ekklēsia is ܥܼܾܲ (edta), which means "assembly," though in a special way. This is related to the Hebrew word נָצָר (edah) which is also generally translated as "congregation." However, edah is the feminine form of נָצֵר (eid) which means "witness." Thus the edah is a congregation of witnesses.

In other places, such as the example in Ma'asei 7:38 previously mentioned, the Peshitta does not use 'edta, but rather ܻܼܾ݀ (ke'nuwshta), which more generally refers to a place of assembling, such as a synagogue. Indeed ke'nuwshta is most often used where the Greek reads συναγωγή (sunagogue), or "synagogue." Ke'nuwshta is related to a word familiar to many in Modern Hebrew, and that is Knesset, the parliamentary building of the Israeli Government.

Being. The Hebrew word נֶפֶשׁ (nephesh) is almost universally rendered as "soul" for most translations. It has also been rendered as "being" in the LEV. This is true of nephesh and its Greek counterpart, ψυχή (psuche), which carries the same meaning. It should be noted, however, that these words are separate from the words for "spirit" in both Hebrew and Greek (see entry Ruah). Simply put, humans are souls (beings), and have a spirit. In Syriac Aramaic, this word is ݂ܻܼܾ (naphsha), a cognate with the Hebrew nephesh.

Beliyya'al, Sons of. The Hebrew phrase בְּנֵי בְּלִיְעָל (b'nei bely'ya'al) means, literally, "sons of Beliyya'al." Beliyya'al is a combination of the Hebrew words בְּלִי (beli) which means "without" and יְעָל (ya'al) meaning "profit, worth." This phrase is normally translated as "worthless men" or "worthless fellows." However, translated literally it should read as, "sons of worthlessness." For the LEV, however, we have simply rendered it as "sons of Beliyya'al" such as appears in Shemu'el נ 10:27.

Between the Evenings. The Hebrew phrase seen throughout the Torah (eg. Shemot 12, Bemidbar 9, Devarim 16) is בֵּין הַעֲרָבִים (beyn ha'arbayim). There is some debate as to the exact timing of it. Some translations have rendered it as "twilight" though for the LEV it is rendered literally. The Sadducees during the time of שׁוּעַ had the custom of interpreting it as the time between sunset and nightfall. However, according to the historical accounts of Roman/Yehudite historian Josephus and Greek/Yehudite historian Philo of Alexandria, the time that the Yehudim considered "between the evenings" was between the ninth and eleventh hours, or 3PM and 5PM in the afternoon.

Bow Down. The Hebrew word שָׁחַת (shahah) is translated in most Bibles in various ways, depending on the context. Whenever it is in reference to יְהֹוָה, it is generally translated as "worship" (see Bereshiyt 24:26). Whenever it is used in reference to humans, it is usually translated as "bow down" or "prostrate" (see Bereshiyt 23:12). For the sake of consistency, the LEV has rendered this word, in its more than 170 occurrences, as "bow down" and supplied the prepositions "to" or "before" when necessary. This is because the word literally means to bow down, and the term "worship" carries a much greater connotation than simply bowing. We find numerous places where someone in Scripture "bowed down" to a leader, yet no one would dare translate that as "worshiped" in that instance. Thus to preserve consistency and remove bias, the word has been rendered as "bow down."

In Greek, this word is προσκυνεω (proskuneo) and is the equivalent of the Hebrew shahah. It has been treated the same way.

The Syriac Peshitta uses the word سَجَد (segeid) which is the Syriac Aramaic equivalent not to the Hebrew shahah, but rather to the Hebrew סָגַד (sagad), meaning "to prostrate."

Crucify. Given that the Greek word σταυρός (stauros) is defined as "stake" (see entry Stake), we must also define our usage of the verb "crucify." In Greek this word is σταυρώω (stauroō). According to Thayer's Greek Lexicon it means, "to stake, drive down stakes, to fortify with driven stakes, to palisade." The English word "crucify" actually comes from the Latin crucifigere (from crux and figere). While it is generally assumed that the word "crux" means "cross" it is not defined as such. It is true, the English word "cross" does indeed derive from the Latin "crux." However, the actual first definition of "crux" as given by latinlexicon.org is, "a gallows, frame, tree (on which criminals were impaled or hanged)." Only after this definition does it list "cross." The Latin figere means "to affix" or "to hang." Thus, the Literal English Version renders stauroō as "crucify" as this remains closest to the Greek language.

Everlasting. The Greek word αἰώνιος (ahionios) is almost universally translated as "eternal" or "everlasting." For the Literal English Version, it is rendered exclusively as "everlasting." Ahionios can refer to eternity, though it is not defined as such. Simply put, it means "an indeterminate length of time." With that in mind, we rendered it as "everlasting" to avoid bias, though it literally means "age-lasting." It should be noted that this is different from the Greek word αἰδίος (ahidios) which does mean "eternal." Ahidios is used only twice in Scripture: Romaioi 1:20 and Yehudah 1:6.

In Hebrew, we find the word שָׁלֵם (olam) which has been kept in its usual rendering throughout the Tanakh as "forever" or "eternal." While in Greek it is easy to see the differences between words used for "age-lasting" and the one used for "eternal," it is not so easy in Hebrew. Therefore, in an attempt to avoid bias and possible mistranslation, the original terms of "forever" and "eternal" and the like have been left alone. The root word for olam is עַלְםָן (alam) which literally means "beyond the horizon" or "out of sight." The implication here being that the length of time that olam stands for is unknown, or is out of sight. Therefore, it could be for 1,000 days, or 1,000 years, or any other length of time that is not known.

In Syriac Aramaic, we find nearly the same form as we do in Hebrew: ܐܠܻܾ (alam) which is the Aramaic equivalent to the Hebrew olam, and carries the same meaning.

Faith. The Hebrew word אֶמְנָה (emunah) is most often translated as "faith" and so it has been in most cases for the LEV. This word is derived from the Hebrew root word אָמַן (aman). Aman is usually translated as "believe," however this is not always the best rendering. For instance, in Yesayahu 22:25, we read, "25 In that day," says יְהֹוָה Tsevaot, "the nail that was fastened in a firm place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for יְהֹוָה has spoken it."

The word translated as "firm" here, which is associated with something being fastened in place, is the Hebrew word אָמֵן (aman). Thus we find that defined in a very physical and concrete way, to "believe" is to be firm, supported.

In Greek, we find two similar words to these; they are the noun, πίστις (pistis) meaning "faith" (the equivalent to the Hebrew emunah) and the verb πιστεύω (pisteuo) meaning "believe" (equivalent to the Hebrew aman). Thayer's Greek Lexicon defines this as "conviction of the truth, to be persuaded, to believe, to trust..."

While Hebrew derives the noun (emunah, faith) from the verb (aman, believe), Greek does the opposite; the Greek pisteuo (believe, verb) is derived from pistis (faith, noun). In addition to being used in the Septuagint for emunah, pistis is also, in some places, used in place of the Hebrew word תְּחִזָּקָה (em'et) meaning "truth." This fits with the definition given above by Thayer's that it pertains not only to belief, but also to truth.

Simply put, in both Hebrew and Greek, we find that the words we read in English in most Bibles as "believe" and "faith" do not imply merely a mental exercise, but rather a proactive response of affirming, supporting, and trusting. In Bereshiyt 15:6, we read, "6 Then he believed אָמַן; and He reckoned it to him as righteousness."

Again, the word here is aman, rendered as here in the LEV as "believed." Given the full definition of aman as "to be firm, to support" we can view this verse as showing that Avraham did not merely "think" (believe) that what he was told was true, but he was FIRM in it, he supported it, he trusted it.

In some cases, however, we find that mere "belief" or "faith" is not at all a sufficient translation, such as Korinthious A 9:17, where it is usually translated as "entrusted." This is still the same verb, pisteuo.

In the adjective form, this appears (for both Hebrew and Greek) as either "trustworthy" or, as in most Bibles, "faithful." This was determined by context of the surrounding verses. Similarly, when referring to the belief system of the early believers, the Greek word pistis is left as "faith" in places such as Ma'asei 6:7.

Gehenna. The Greek word Γέεννα (Gehenna) is almost universally translated as "Hell." However, Gehenna is actually the Greek name of a physical place outside of Yerushalayim: The Valley of the Son of Hinnom (sometimes alternately "The Valley of Ben Hinnom" and "Tophet." See Yirmeyahu 7:31). Gehenna is used as a metaphor throughout Scripture for death and destruction. The Valley of the Son of Hinnom was defiled by King Yoshiyahu (see Melakhim 2 23:10). After the return of the Yehudim to Yerushalayim, Gehenna became a landfill of sorts, where all the refuse from the city was thrown. The bodies of criminals, who did not receive proper burial, were also thrown into Gehenna. Sulfur fires were lit and continually burned in the valley in order to destroy the refuse. Gehenna is left transliterated in the LEV. The word derives from two Hebrew words: הַנּוֹם (ga'i) and הַנּוֹם (hi'nom) meaning "valley" and "Hinnom" respectively.

Ish-Qerioth. The surname of Yehudah (Judas) is generally rendered from Greek as Iscariot. This is from the Greek word Ἰσκαριόθ (Is'kar'iy'oth). However, this Greek word is actually a transliteration of two Hebrew words: אישׁ (Ish) meaning "man" and קְרִיּוֹת (Qri'yot) which is the city Qerioth. Thus Iscariot actually means "man from Qerioth." We have rendered it in the LEV as "Ish-Qerioth."

Judgments. The Hebrew word מִשְׁפָט (mish'pat) is often rendered as "justice," "judgment" and "ordinance." However, these words do not completely convey the meaning, and neither are they consistent. "Judgment" is the way we have chosen to render this word for the LEV. The reason for this is two-fold. 1) It is derived from the word שָׁפָט (shafat) which means "judge." 2) The word

"judgment" is the most accurate form given to its wide variety of uses. "Judgment" is used in the sense of what a "judge" has decided. Also called a "decision" or a "verdict," mishpat is best understood this way. Thus, Avraham was told to "do righteousness and judgment" (Bereshiyt 18:19) and the Pesah was to be kept "according to its judgment" (Bemidbar 9:14). In simple terms, this "judgment" is the verdict handed down as the final decision by the judge. Thus, we find that the Mishpatim (judgments) come from the shafat (judge).

In Greek, we have the word κρίμα (krima). This word is used throughout the Greek Septuagint in place of mishpat, and means the same: judgment. This should not be confused with the word δίκαιωμα (di'kai'oma) which literally means "righteous deeds," though is sometimes rendered in other versions as "ordinances" or "judgments."

Menorah. The Hebrew word מנורת (menorah) is most often rendered as "lampstand" or, in some translations, "candlestick." However, the original Hebrew word literally refers to a lamp that burns oil, and thus does not generally refer to a candlestick. This feminine noun is derived from the word נֵר (neir), which means "lamp." While neir refers to the lamp, menorah refers to the object which holds the lamp. In the case of the Tabernacle this is the 7-branched "lampstand." This word has been transliterated in the LEV.

The Greek equivalent to menorah is λυχνία (luhnia), which is also a feminine noun. It is used throughout the Greek Septuagint in place of the Hebrew menorah, and it, too, is derived from a word meaning "lamp" (in this case the Greek λυχνός (luhnos)).

The plural of menorah is menorot.

Messenger. The word "angel" has been replaced with the more accurate and appropriate "messenger." The Hebrew word in question is מֶלֶךְ (malakh), and the Greek is ἀγγελος (angelos) both meaning "messenger." These words can be applied both to men (eg. Yehoshua 6:17 and Loukas 7:24) and heavenly messengers (eg. Shemoth 3:2 and Mattithyahu 1:20). As such, in order to keep a consistent translation, all instances have been rendered as "messenger" and the word "angel" has been omitted from the LEV entirely.

Nahash. The Hebrew word נַחַשׁ (na'hash) is most often rendered "serpent." The word is derived from the word nawhash (same word, different vowels) which means "divination." The association is most likely due to the "hiss" of whispering a spell, in connection with the noise a serpent makes. However, it is also etymologically connected to the word נְהַשֵּׁת (ne'hosheth) meaning "copper." The connection with copper is believed to be on account of it being a metal used in divination, or possibly the "ringing" sound of copper resembling the "hiss" or "whisper" mentioned in the use of divination.

Regardless, the exact classification of animal (serpent, snake, etc.) is unknown, and thus has been transliterated in the LEV.

Nations. The Hebrew word rendered "nation" is גּוֹי (goy) and literally means "nation." It is usually used in the plural form goyim, which is "nations." Strictly defined, it refers to anyone that is not a Yisra'elite.

The Greek word rendered "nation" is εθνος (ethnos) and means the same as its Hebrew counterpart: "nation."

Ethnos is where we etymologically derive words such as "ethnic." In four places within the Shelihim Writings we find the word εθνικός (ethnikos), which has been rendered as "pagan" as this word specifically denotes a non-covenanted person: one who still engages in false religion.

New Covenant. The Hebrew Scriptures use the word

שָׁדַךְ (chadash) for "new" when describing the 'new covenant.' The word chadash is, itself, derived from chadawsh (same spelling, different vowel sound) meaning "refresh" or "renew." Semitically, a 'new' covenant never replaces a previous one. Rather, one covenant is built upon another. The covenant that הָיוּ לִי made with Avraham did not replace the one He made with Noah. The one He made with Yitshaq did not replace the one He made with Avraham, and so on and so forth. Rather, every successive covenant builds on the foundation of the previous.

In the Shelihim Writings, we find two different words used to describe the 'new covenant' in the Greek. The first is νεος (neos) which means "new," "recently born." It is the word most closely associated with the English word "new." The other Greek word is καίνος (kainos) which means "fresh," "new in quality," or literally "not found like this before." It carries a definition more similar to that of its Hebrew counterpart, chadawsh: that is, "to renew." We find that in places such as Yirmeyahu 31:31, which speaks of a "new" covenant, the Hebrew uses chadash, whereas the Greek Septuagint uses the word kainos. [Note: the order of the chapters of Yirmeyahu in the LXX is not the same as it is in Hebrew. As such, Yir. 31:1-40 in the Hebrew text is numbered Yir. 38:1-40 in the LXX]. Thus, to assist the reader in differentiating between the Greek word neos and kainos, neos has been rendered as "new" and kainos has been rendered as "renew."

In Syriac Aramaic, we find the word ܟܻܾܾܿ (chad'at'a) which is used in place of both "new" as well as "renewed."

New Moon. The Hebrew word שְׁמַדֵּחַ (chodesh) is usually rendered as "month." However, the word itself is derived from the word chadash (see entry New Covenant) meaning "new." As such, the word is more accurately translated as "new moon." There is also the Hebrew word יְרֵאָה (yerah) which does mean "moon." In order to keep the translation consistent, chodesh has been translated as "new moon" throughout the Tanakh, since it specifically carries the connotation of a renewal cycle or a "new moon" and yerah has been translated as "month" throughout the Tanakh.

Rely. The Hebrew word בָּתָח (batach) is usually translated as "trust." It is a verb, which is defined by Brown-Driver-Briggs' Lexicon as "to trust, to be secure, to rely upon." According to Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, batach means "to be confident, secure, sure." Thus in the sense of "placing confidence" in something, that same thing is then "relied upon." For most of its 120 occurrences it has been rendered as "rely." However, in the following places it has been rendered as "secure:" Shofetim 18:7; 18:10; 18:17; Iyyov 40:23; Tehillim 27:3; Mishlei 11:15; 14:16; 28:1; Yeshayahu 32:9-11; Yirmeyahu 12:5; Amos 6:1. It has also been rendered as "trust" in the following two places: Yeshayahu 12:2; Mishlei 3:5.

The Greek counterpart to batach is ελπίζω (elpizo) meaning "to trust, to hope, to wait with confidence" according to Thayer's Greek Lexicon. This word is generally translated as "hope."

Ruah. The word "spirit" has been left alone in many cases. However, whenever it applies directly to רוח, it is rendered as "Ruah." רוח (Ruah) means "spirit," "breath," or "wind." Thus, to differentiate between just a "spirit" and the Set-apart Spirit of רוח, it is rendered as the transliterated form "Ruah." Ruah carries a heavier meaning than merely "spirit," which the western world has associated with ghosts. It should also be noted that in the Greek writings, the word πνεῦμα (pneuma) is used, but is rendered as spirit or Ruah depending on what (or whom) it is applied to. In connection with humans, man has a spirit that is given to him when his life begins. However, man is a being, not a spirit (See entry Being).

Sacrifice. The Hebrew word זָבֵחַ (ze'vach) is a verb, which literally means "to slaughter," and is generally rendered as such except in the case of when it applies to Temple service. The noun that is derived from it, zavach (same spelling, different vowels) is generally translated as "sacrifice." Though rendered literally, it is "that which has been slaughtered" or "a slaughtering." The LEV takes a traditional approach and renders the noun consistently as "sacrifice," and the verb as "slaughter." Thus while the English word "sacrifice" generally refers to something that has been lost or forfeited, the Hebrew term refers to something that has been slain.

The same is held true for its Greek counterpart, θυω (thuo).

Set-apart. The common English rendering of "Holy" has been changed in the LEV to "Set-apart." The Hebrew word commonly rendered as "Holy" is קָדוֹשׁ (qadosh) and means literally "set-apart." While "Holy" is usually defined as "something dedicated to God" we find that it does not entirely convey the same message in English. The Greek word in question is ἅγιος (hagios) and means the same as qadosh. Likewise, rather than use a separate word for "consecrate" it is simply written as an action, without the hyphen. So the adjective – and noun – ("Holy") becomes set-apart, while the verb ("consecrate") becomes set apart.

Shaliyah. The Hebrew word שליח (shali'ah) means "sent one" or "emissary." It derives from the word שלח (sha'lah) meaning "to send." In Hebrew thought, a shaliyah acts on the authority of the one who sent him, such as the servant of Avraham acting on the authority of Avraham to find a wife for Yitshaq.

The Greek counterpart of the word is ἀπόστολος (apostolos) which is where the word "apostle" comes from. Since the Hebrew form is preferred to the Greek, wherever the Greek word would be rendered as "apostle" has been rendered as "shalah." The plural of shalah is shelihim. The word apostolos derives from the Greek word ἀποστέλλω (apostello) meaning "to send." Throughout the Greek Septuagint, this word is used in place of shalah.

In the Syriac Peshitta, we find a similar word used throughout the Shelihim Writings: שלייה (sh'liyha). This word appears in each place that the Greek uses apostolos, and is the Syriac Aramaic equivalent of the Hebrew shaliah.

Sheol. The Hebrew word שָׁאֹל (Sheol) is usually rendered as "grave" or is left un-translated. In the Literal English Version, it is left as Sheol. Sheol is literally the grave; it is a physical place where the dead are buried. In Greek, the equivalent word is Αδης (Hades) which means the same. As such both Sheol and Hades are written as Sheol in the LEV.

Shofar. The Hebrew word שׁוֹפֵר (shofar) comes from the word שָׁפֵר (shafar) meaning "beautiful" or "goodly." Shofar refers to the instrument of the ram's horn itself. For the LEV this word has been transliterated. The plural of shofar is shofarot.

In Greek, the word is σαλπίγξ (salpinx) meaning "a trumpet." This is compared to the Syriac Aramaic word which is שִׁפּוּרָה (shiyura), the equivalent of the Hebrew shofar. Thus, where the Syriac uses shiyura the LEV uses "shofar" in the Shelihim Writings.

The plural of shofar is shofarot.

Stake. The Greek word σταυρός (stauros) is most commonly translated as "cross." However, we find no support for this in the Greek language. Even in the writings of ancient classical Greek sources such as Homer, Herodotus, and Thucydides, the word is rendered as "stake" and not "cross." In the Syriac Peshitta, the word צְגִפָּה (zeqiphah) is used in place of stauros, which means "stake, pole" and is derived from the word zaqaph, meaning "to raise up." From all of this, we find no evidence in any of the oldest documents available supporting a translation of "cross" from the word stauros. To remedy this, stauros is rendered as "stake" in the LEV.

Talmid. The Hebrew word תלמיד (tal'miyd) means "pupil" "student" or "disciple." It is the Hebrew counterpart to the Greek μαθητής (mathetes) which is normally translated as "disciple." As usual in the LEV, the Hebrew form is preferred to the Greek or English. While most Bibles use the word "disciple" it is simply the English form of talmid.

In the Syriac Peshitta the word used is תַּלְמִידָה (tal'miyda) which is the Syriac Aramaic form of the Hebrew talmid. The plural of talmid is talmidim.

Torah. The Hebrew word תּוֹרָה (Torah) is best rendered as "instructions" and not the commonly translated word "law." To the Hebrew mind, Torah is always seen in a positive light. However, the modern Western mindset regards "law" with more disdain. As such, Torah as simply been transliterated and not translated. The Greek νόμος (nomos) is usually rendered as "law" as it most often applies to "Law," though in some cases it is rendered as "Torah" as noted in the Preface. The plural of Torah is Torot.

The Syriac Peshitta uses the word נומא (n'musa), which is a loanword from the Greek, in each instance the Greek uses nomos.

Tsevaot. The Hebrew word צבאות (Tsevaot) is usually rendered as "of armies" or "of hosts." It is one of the Titles of ייְהוָה, and is seen over 200 times in the Scriptures as "יהוָה Tsevaot" though this is normally translated as "LORD of Hosts." As with most terms for the LEV, we prefer the transliteration over the translation. Thus, in the text, it is rendered simply as "Tsevaot."

Tsitsit. The Hebrew word תַּיצִּיט (tsitsit) is usually rendered as "tassel" or "fringe." This word originates from Bemidbar 15:37-41, where יהוה commands that they be placed on the borders of a Yisra'elite's garments.

The Greek word κρασπέδων (kraspedon) is the Greek equivalent of tsitsit, and is the word used throughout the Septuagint in place of it. To differentiate the specific term tsitsit from the generic term 'tassel,' we have chosen to transliterate the word into English for the LEV. This is the case for both tsitsit and kraspedon. The transliterated Hebrew form tsitsit appears for both the Hebrew and Greek words. Tsitsiyot is the plural form of the word.

In the Syriac Peshitta we find that in 5 of the 6 places where the Greek reads kraspedon, the Syriac uses ܟܼܾܻܺ (kanaph), the same as the Hebrew word କନାଫ୍ (kanaph) meaning "border," "hem," or "extremity." This does not refer to the tsitsiyot themselves, but to the place where the tsitsiyot were to be attached (see Bemidbar 15:37-41). In the one place where the Peshitta does not read kanaph in place of kraspedon, it reads ܬܼܾܻܺ (tekhelet) which is related to the Hebrew word תְּכִלָּת (tekhelet). This refers specifically to the blue cord that was to be inserted into each tsitsit (see Mattithahu 23:5 and accompanying footnote).

Vain Exertion. The Hebrew word אֶוְן (aven) has been rendered in English as "vain exertion" throughout the Tanakh. There is no direct exact English equivalent for aven. The word is related to אֵין (ayin) which means "naught, nothing." According to the Ancient Hebrew Lexicon of the Bible, Aven literally means "The use of the power within the loins for vain or other improper purposes." Put more simply, it means "to work hard for nothing." Thus, the word is rendered by the English phrase "vain exertion" for its more than 70 occurrences in the Tanakh. (Eg. Yeshayahu 66:3; Havaqquq 1:3; Iyyov 4:8).

Wadi. The Hebrew word נַהֲלָה (nahal) is usually rendered as "brook, valley, river, plain, stream." In some translations, it is occasionally rendered as "wadi." This latter term, derived from an Arabic word, is the most accurate. The Hebrew term is derived from the word נַהֲלָה (na'halah), which means "to inherit/take possession." Just as a wadi seasonally "inherits" flowing water. A wadi is "a valley or ravine that is dry, except in the rainy season." This word is specific to this type of landscape, and does not refer simply to a valley, river, plain, or stream. Since there is no better English equivalent, the LEV renders it as "wadi" in its 141 occurrences.

Yovel. The Hebrew word יּוֹבֵל (yovel) is usually rendered "jubilee." It comes from the word יָבֵל (yaval) which means "to bring," "to carry," or "to flow." Literally, this refers to the trumpeting sound of the instrument itself, in the sense of the sound "carrying" or "flowing" out. The English word "jubilee" comes from the Latin jubilaeus, a transliteration of the Hebrew yovel; the transliteration is preferred. (See entry Shofar).

‡ The Hebrew name Pineħas (פִּינְחָס) has a disputed meaning. Some scholars believe it to be a combination of פֵּ (pei) meaning "mouth" and a variant spelling of נַחַשׁ (naħash) meaning "serpent." However, the name Pineħas ends with a Samekh (ס) not a Shin (ש); also, a similar name existed in Mitsrayim (Egypt) of the time: [nhsj], which means "Nubian" or "dark-skinned" with the definite article "p" prefix. This would render the name as p'nahas as "the dark-skinned" or "the Nubian."

Sacrifices & Offerings

These are the basic and most common offerings mentioned in the Torah:

Ascension Offering: Hebrew word עֹלָה (olah). Olah literally means "to ascend" and was offered to bring the offerer "up" to be closer to Elohim. The image of an ascension is also seen in the "soothing aroma" that ascended up toward the heavens when the olah was offered. The olah was completely consumed by fire; in other translations it is most commonly called a "burnt offering."

Meal Offering: Hebrew word מנְחָה (min'hah). Minhah literally means "gift" or "tribute" but is generally used throughout the Torah to describe the meal or grain offering.

Peace Offering: Hebrew words זֶבַח שְׁלָמִים (zevah shelamim). Zevah shelamim literally means "slaughtering of peace" and was offered for numerous reasons. It was offered for the fulfillment of a vow, as an offering of thanksgiving, or simply an offering of freewill. By itself, the word zevah also refers to any type of animal slaughtering, be it for an offering to ה' or simply to eat for a meal.

Sin Offering: Hebrew word חֲטֹאת (ha'tat). Hatat means "sin offering" and was offered when an individual committed a sin unknowingly. That is, the sin was committed without knowledge that it was a sin. Hatat offerings could only be made for unintentional sin, and not for intentional. The hatat was also offered for certain types of uncleanness, such as for a woman post-childbirth or in special cases when an individual came in contact with the dead (see parah adumah below).

Guilt Offering: Hebrew word עַשְׂנָא (asham). Asham literally means "guilty" and was offered when certain trespasses were committed that could be valued. That is, in destruction of personal property, or in the loss of possessions, or in any such case where the damage could be measured. Along with the asham, the offerer was required to restore 1/5 (20%) extra to whatever he had ruined. The guilt offering is sometimes also called a "trespass offering."

Azazel: Hebrew word עַזָּזֵל (azazel). Azazel is the term usually translated as "scapegoat." On the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) two goats were chosen. One was killed as a hatat and the other was chosen as the azazel. The azazel was not killed, but rather was sent away alive into the wilderness. All the sins of the Yisra'elites was placed onto the azazel, and it was driven off into the wilderness by the hand of a "man in readiness." The word azazel is believed to be derived from עז (ez) meaning "goat" and אל (azal) meaning "gone" or "disappear" or "evaporate." "The goat that disappears." The azazel was only offered once a year, and only on the Day of Atonement.

Red Heifer: Hebrew words בָּרָה אַדְמָה (par'ah adu'mah). Parah adumah literally means "red heifer" and was a very special type of offering. The heifer had to be red, without blemish, and could have never bore a yoke. The flesh, blood, skin and dung of the parah adumah was burned outside the camp. While burning, the priest would cast cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop into the fire. The ashes were then gathered and taken to a clean place outside the camp, where they were mixed with water. This water was used to cleanse anyone who had come into contact with the dead: be it a dead person, or touching a human bone, or standing on a grave. The parah adumah is classified as a hatat.
